

NET PRESS RUN
AVERAGE DAILY CIRCULATION
For the Month of April, 1929
5,344
Members of the Audit Bureau of Circulations

Manchester Evening Herald

THIS WEATHER
Forecast by U. S. Weather Bureau,
New Haven
Fair and slightly cooler tonight;
Tuesday partly cloudy.

VOL. XLIII, NO. 178. (Classified Advertising on Page 8.) SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONN., MONDAY, MAY 13, 1929. TEN PAGES PRICE THREE CENTS

HOUSE BACKS PRESIDENT ON FARM RELIEF

Senate Passes Back to Lower House; G. O. P. Have Majority There and Can Endorse Hoover's Wishes

Washington, May 13.—The mutinous Senate of the Hoover Congress prepared today to enact a farm relief bill over presidential opposition.

The Senate having adopted the debenture in the face of the administration's heaviest artillery, the Hoover leaders were willing to accept the result and "pass the buck" to the House to uphold the president's prestige by eliminating the bounty plan. Unlike the Senate where a Democratic-Insurgent coalition rides in command, the regular Republican organization has control of the House and can command a majority at any time to carry out the president's wishes.

A "White Elephant."
The debenture plan, however, will prove a "white elephant" throughout the special session, if it is eliminated from the farm bill, as seems almost certain, the Democratic-Insurgent coalition will seek to attach it to the tariff bill. This will mean a resumption of the debenture fight, another rebuff for the president and a fight between the two branches of Congress before a final decision on the farm bill but threats have been heard indicating the coalition will not yield on the tariff bill.

The Census Bill.
With the farm relief measure enacted, administration leaders will call for the reapportionment and 1930 census bill in the Senate. It will stage a battle over the right of Andrew W. Mellon serving as Secretary of the Treasury while owning a fortune in corporations and a majority report of the Senate Judiciary committee exonerated Mellon but a minority report declared him holding office in violation of law. An effort will be made to have the Senate approve the minority report.

EXPERTS FINISH REPARATION WORK

Germany Must Pay Two Billion Marks Annually for Next 37 Years.

Paris, May 13.—Completion of Germany's conditions for acceptance of the Young plan as a basis of settlement of the reparation problem was interrupted over the week-end by the return of Dr. Hjalmer Schacht, chief of the German delegation, to the Rhineland. Dr. Schacht wished to consult with some of the industrialists in the Ruhr before proceeding with the work. Sir Josiah Stamp, chief of the British delegation, is collaborating with Dr. Schacht in preparing the memorandum.

The interruption in the work indicated that the memorandum would not be ready for presentation to a plenary session of the experts committee tomorrow.

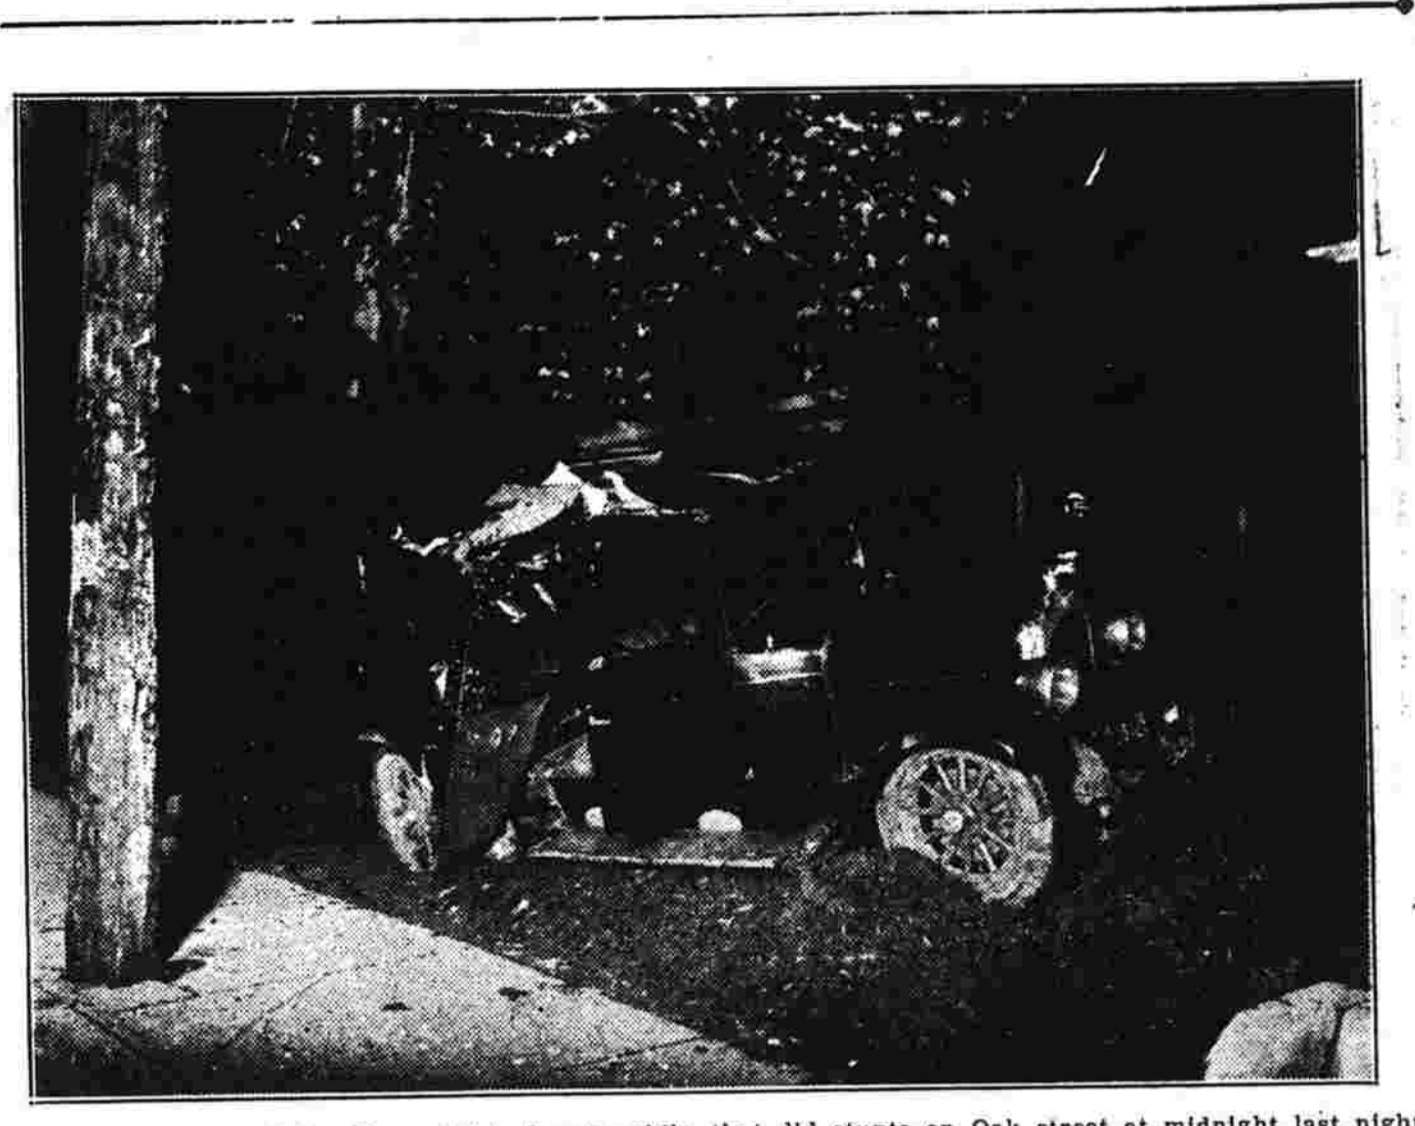

Experts' Work Finished
The financial experts who have been drawing up plans for the proposed international reparation bank have virtually completed their labors. The memorandum containing these plans will be a part of the report of the experts' committee. Under the present plans the United States would share in the profits of this bank because of the amounts owing to the United States for upkeep of the American Army of Occupation in the Rhineland and other claims.

It is believed that the present week will see the windup of the conference. The report of the experts' committee with its various sets of figures and recommendations will be submitted to the British, French, Belgian, Italian, Japanese and German governments for ratification or rejection.

Britain Opposed
The experts are leaving the re-arrangement of reparations to the United States; after that the German payments would be credited to reparation for war damage.

It is suggested that Germany be assisted from the profits of the proposed international bank.

Four Just Miss Death in This Local Smash

Here's how the Drive Yourself hired automobile that did stunts on Oak street at midnight last night looked when it stopped in Domenico Minnieucci's lawn at 178 Oak street. Four passengers were lucky to escape death.

DRY AGENTS MOBILIZING ALONG CANADIAN BORDER

Using Planes, Fast Boats and Steamship Lines

Autos to Prevent Rum Smuggling—May Invoke Jones Law.

Washington, May 13.—All enforcement facilities available to the government were being deployed along the Canadian border today in what was characterized at the Treasury as the most determined and thoroughly organized campaign yet waged against liquor smugglers.

Assistant Secretary Seymour Lowman declared that airplanes, motor vehicles, fast boats and heavily reinforced battalions of prohibition, customs and Coast Guard agents will operate along the border through the summer and fall.

"An effective prohibition airforce is being built up, chiefly for operations along the international borders," Lowman said.

Captured Planes
"Already the prohibition bureau has a number of planes, several of which were captured from air-liquor smugglers."

Lowman said that the planes have proven highly effective along the border country in studying the activities of smugglers and spotting their movements. Through the use of radio the planes keep in touch with the ground forces.

STUDENTS IN RIOT EGG COLLEGE HEAD

Fight Over Fundamentalism Starts Trouble—Officials Flee Across Border.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 13.—Des Moines university's students today planned to follow their "egg and rock" riot with an injunction suit which promises to provoke a Fundamentalist-Modernist controversy rivaling the Dayton, Tenn., "monkey trial."

They were determined to go to court, spokesmen said, if when they appeared at the university at the regular opening hour, the classroom doors were not thrown open to them.

Meanwhile Dr. T. T. Shields, chairman of the institution's board of trustees and leading Fundamentalist prior in the Baptist church, who with other board members, fled Des Moines under police escort, arrived in Toronto, Ont., proclaiming the riot "nothing but a Modernist conspiracy." Students said they contemplated spiriting Miss Edith Robinson, his secretary, over the border into her native Canada today unless she voluntarily quitted the university and the United States.

Office Wrecked
A wrecked business office, with furniture demolished, records strewn about, heavy glass windows shattered and walls dented with missiles and spattered with eggshells, bore evidence today of the students' wrath.

Resentment of the students over

MISS DEATH WHEN CAR HITS ROAD OBSTACLE

Two Hartford Young Men Badly Cut by Glass as Sedan Crashes in Oak Street Gutter.

Hitting an iron pipe set in the gutter in front of the property of Mrs. Ann Keating at 183 Oak street, a rented car driven by Leo Burbee of 39 Putnam street, Hartford, was wrecked at 1 o'clock this morning and two of the four occupants, Charles Stepnowski, 16, of 195 Atfield street, Hartford, and Larry Lavole, of 29 Catherine street, Hartford, were taken to Memorial hospital suffering from serious cuts.

Burbee, the driver, and Joseph Tourville of 54 Putnam street, Hartford, the fourth member of the party, escaped with minor injuries, Burbee having a dislocated thumb and a wrenched side and Tourville getting off with two small cuts on the face.

Thoroughly Wrecked.

The car, a Chrysler sedan, when Burbee lost control of it after hitting the pipe, shot across the street and hit a pole in front of the home of Dominic Minnieucci at 178 Oak street. It was converted into a wreck and Tourville and the Stepnowski boy were thrown out, receiving an assortment of bad cuts on the head. The car belonged to the Rent-a-Car Co. of 390 Trumbull street, lost its drive shaft, steering knuckle and two rear tires, the top was crushed and the doors torn off the right side, while all the glass was broken.

Burbee's story young Stepnowski was sitting beside him on the front seat and Tourville and Lavole occupied the rear seat, Lavole sitting on the right side. They had gone up Oak street to Clinton, turned right and were heading back when Burbee nudged a car parked under an electric light.

Hits the Pipe.

The street is paved and curbed on the south side but there are cobble gutters and no walks on the north side at this point. Burbee pulled over to the right side of the road. There was a sharp bump that threw three of the occupants out of their seats and Burbee lost the wheel. In an instant the car was across the road, had climbed the curb and its right side smashed into the pole. The car skidded onto the lawn of the Minnieucci house, tore up the turf and came to a stop with the front end in the ditch. Investigation later disclosed that the iron pipe was the obstacle that hit the car.

Long Job of Probing.

Lavole and Stepnowski were hurried to the hospital, where the house physician and nurses worked over them for three hours removing pieces of glass from their faces, heads and arms. From under Burbee's scalp one fragment of glass as big as a half dollar was taken and both the patients had to be subjected to an endless amount of probing. About twenty stitches were required to close the gashes on Burbee's head and face and when the operation was completed he was a mass of bandages that left only his left eye uncovered.

LONE POLICEMAN FOILS BURGLARS

Tied Up Watchman and Were Waiting for Manager to Force Him to Open Safe.

New Haven, May 13.—Their cases continued until May 13, and their bond reduced from $10,000 to $5,000 each, three New Haveners are today charged with burglary with violence because of a carefully concocted plot to rob the Woolworth store at Church and Chapel streets here.

The men, Thomas Meade, 30, Stephen Sawicki, 23, and Adam Guilete, 27, were caught by a lone policeman at 12:45 a. m., Sunday after Edward L. Allen, night watchman in the store, espied out a warning of burglars and called the sidewalk. Policeman Raymond J. Malone plunged into the large store with revolver in one hand and flashlight in the other, and presently had Sawicki and Meade standing with their hands in the air.

G. T. STALLINGS DEAD; BASEBALL MANAGER

"Miracle Man" Who Won Pennant for Boston Braves, Passes Away.

Macon, Ga., May 13.—George T. Stallings, baseball's "miracle man" is dead.

Death occurred at his large plantation at Haddocks, Ga., after a gallant fight against the ravages of heart disease.

Only members of the family and intimate friends were at the bedside when the end came. Death did not come unexpected, because Stallings' health had been steadily declining since he was stricken with the same gallant courage that marked his brilliant career on the diamond.

HUNTINGTON'S SLAYER IS KNOWN TO HICKEY

County Detective Say He Knows Person Who Fired the Fatal Shot—Cigarette Stubs Have Woman's Fingerprints on Them; These Clues Are Important, Officials State—Death Certificate Filed Merely States That Student Met His Death by Gunshot Wound.

Windsor, May 13.—Despite rumors to the effect that the person who shot and killed Walter Treadway Huntington is under constant police surveillance and will be placed under arrest as soon as evidence against the slayer is correlated in complete detail, no arrest had been made by police or private detectives early today.

County Detective Edward J. Hickey, in charge of the investigation into the wealthy youth's death, was quoted as saying:

"I know young Huntington was murdered and I know who fired the shot that killed him."

Cigarette stubs of different brands picked up near the spot where the Harvard student's body was found are said to figure prominently in the evidence Hickey has piled up. Fingerprints on some of the stubs are those of a woman, it was stated.

Zeppelin To Start For U. S. Wednesday

Friedrichshafen, Germany, May 13.—A young stowaway, who had hoped to be a "passenger" on the Graf Zeppelin on its forthcoming trip to the United States, was discovered in the crew's quarters today. He was ordered to "make himself scarce," and Dr. Hugo Eckener, head of the Zeppelin Works, declared that any further stowaways found on the ship would be prosecuted.

When the giant steamer departs for Lakehurst, N. J., on Wednesday morning, she will carry passengers, including passengers and crew.

There will be no women among the passengers.

A female gorilla named "Missi," consigned to the Chicago Zoo, will be carried on the airship. To "Missi" will fall the honor of being the first gorilla ever to take a landing in an airship. She seems more interested in her food rations today than anything else.

FIRST CHURCH DRIVE TOTAL HITS $45,000

Canvassers Enthused Over Results of Early Campaign for Big Fund Here.

Center church canvassers met with great success in their first drive for pledges to their new school building fund when William L. Parkis, chairman of the finance committee, reported a total of $45,000, already subscribed, and that by this report the rest of the campaigners renewed their efforts today to roll up the needed $200,000 by next Saturday.

72 Canvassers
Seventy-two team workers are engaged in a complete canvass of Manchester during this week-end. The town has been subdivided into sections and only church members and close friends of the parish will be interviewed. However, Mr. Parkis wants it distinctly understood that all contributions will be greatly appreciated if anyone outside the parish decides to give towards the project.

RUSSIAN PRINCESS IN POLICE COURT

Found Guilty of Violating Traffic Laws But Kind Judge Suspends Sentence.

Hempstead, N. Y., May 13.—The charming Princess Xenia of Russia with the royal blood of ancient Greece flowing through her veins, today was found guilty of violating the traffic laws of her adopted country—but she did not go to jail.

The royal wife of William B. Leeds, son of the "tin plate king," admitted bewitchingly that she had parked her automobile in front of a driveway near a toy shop.

That was as far back as last January but she was on the verge of sailing for Europe and did not wish to be bothered. Could the matter wait until she returned Justice of the Peace Walter B. Jones obliged.

MAY TAKE WATER FROM CONNECTICUT

War Department Says Limited Amount Would Not Injure River Navigation.

Washington, May 13.—Secretary of War Good today informed the Metropolitan Water Supply Commission of Boston that limited amounts of water may be appropriated from the Connecticut river basin above the Connecticut-Massachusetts state line without substantially diminishing its navigability of the Connecticut river within the limits of present navigability.

The commission had asked the War Department the amount of water that might be taken from the Connecticut river basin, without affecting the Connecticut river.

"From studies of past records," Good said, "it appears there will be no substantial alteration or modification of the condition or navigable capacity of the channel of the Connecticut river at that point by the flow of water from the Swift river be augmented during the critical period from June 1 to November 30, but inclusive, so that the measured rate of discharge of the Connecticut river at that point to be less than 4,900 cubic feet per second and more than 4,650 cubic feet per second and shall be further augmented so that the measured rate of discharge past the impounding dam on the Swift river shall be 110 cubic feet per second on such days as the geological survey gauge at Sunderland indicates the discharge of the Connecticut

Zeppelin To Start For U. S. Wednesday

Friedrichshafen, Germany, May 13.—A young stowaway, who had hoped to be a "passenger" on the Graf Zeppelin on its forthcoming trip to the United States, was discovered in the crew's quarters today. He was ordered to "make himself scarce," and Dr. Hugo Eckener, head of the Zeppelin Works, declared that any further stowaways found on the ship would be prosecuted.

When the giant steamer departs for Lakehurst, N. J., on Wednesday morning, she will carry passengers, including passengers and crew.

There will be no women among the passengers.

A female gorilla named "Missi," consigned to the Chicago Zoo, will be carried on the airship. To "Missi" will fall the honor of being the first gorilla ever to take a landing in an airship. She seems more interested in her food rations today than anything else.

FIRST CHURCH DRIVE TOTAL HITS $45,000

Canvassers Enthused Over Results of Early Campaign for Big Fund Here.

Center church canvassers met with great success in their first drive for pledges to their new school building fund when William L. Parkis, chairman of the finance committee, reported a total of $45,000, already subscribed, and that by this report the rest of the campaigners renewed their efforts today to roll up the needed $200,000 by next Saturday.

72 Canvassers
Seventy-two team workers are engaged in a complete canvass of Manchester during this week-end. The town has been subdivided into sections and only church members and close friends of the parish will be interviewed. However, Mr. Parkis wants it distinctly understood that all contributions will be greatly appreciated if anyone outside the parish decides to give towards the project.

RUSSIAN PRINCESS IN POLICE COURT

Found Guilty of Violating Traffic Laws But Kind Judge Suspends Sentence.

Hempstead, N. Y., May 13.—The charming Princess Xenia of Russia with the royal blood of ancient Greece flowing through her veins, today was found guilty of violating the traffic laws of her adopted country—but she did not go to jail.

The royal wife of William B. Leeds, son of the "tin plate king," admitted bewitchingly that she had parked her automobile in front of a driveway near a toy shop.

That was as far back as last January but she was on the verge of sailing for Europe and did not wish to be bothered. Could the matter wait until she returned Justice of the Peace Walter B. Jones obliged.

MAY TAKE WATER FROM CONNECTICUT

War Department Says Limited Amount Would Not Injure River Navigation.

Washington, May 13.—Secretary of War Good today informed the Metropolitan Water Supply Commission of Boston that limited amounts of water may be appropriated from the Connecticut river basin above the Connecticut-Massachusetts state line without substantially diminishing its navigability of the Connecticut river within the limits of present navigability.

The commission had asked the War Department the amount of water that might be taken from the Connecticut river basin, without affecting the Connecticut river.

"From studies of past records," Good said, "it appears there will be no substantial alteration or modification of the condition or navigable capacity of the channel of the Connecticut river at that point by the flow of water from the Swift river be augmented during the critical period from June 1 to November 30, but inclusive, so that the measured rate of discharge of the Connecticut river at that point to be less than 4,900 cubic feet per second and more than 4,650 cubic feet per second and shall be further augmented so that the measured rate of discharge past the impounding dam on the Swift river shall be 110 cubic feet per second on such days as the geological survey gauge at Sunderland indicates the discharge of the Connecticut

COMMERCIAL RADIO NOW SPANS NATION

Messages Can Be Sent from Coast to Coast at Same Rates Charged for Telegrams.

New York, May 13.—Commercial radio service, which already connects America with the principal nations of Europe, will span the United States for the first time Wednesday.

R. C. A. Communications, Inc., a subsidiary of the Radio Corporation of America, has completed all plans today for the inauguration of its New York-San Francisco circuit to the public, according to an announcement by James G. Harbord, president of the latter concern.

The new company will accept commercial messages in New York, Washington and Boston for transmission to San Francisco and vice versa at the same rates now charged by telegraph companies.

The trans-continental circuit Harbord said, has been made feasible by the development of an improved beam projector, by means of which messages can be sent at a speed of 300 words per minute.

(Continued on Page 2.)

FLOWERS AND KIND WORDS FOR PRIEST

Father McCann's 40th Anniversary Marked by Tributes Floral and Verbal.

Rev. Christopher T. McCann, pastor for the last 16 years of St. Bridget's church, yesterday celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

The priests' vestments and the altar cloths were white, in recognition of the anniversary day of Mother's day.

Father McCann spoke with considerable feeling at the end of the service. He warmly thanked Doctor Neale for coming to the anniversary and for his kind references to his work.

Mgr. Neale's Address John Neale of St. Rose's church, Meriden, who gave the address at the service at 10 o'clock today.

Compensations To the world it may seem a lonely life but it is in reality a most useful and varied life.

Monks' strictness He reminded the parishioners that if his pastor was sometimes strict and stern for the well-being of the things of the parish, it arose from his own zeal in the house of God.

DANCE DERBY IS ON AGAIN

56 Boys and Girls in Competition—"Shipwreck" Kelly is Also One of the Attractions.

New York, May 13.—Hot Tootsies! They're at it again—the dancing marathons.

The Goots' gallery was crowded with spectators. "Ain't We Got Fun" was the spirit of the occasion.

Another attraction are the rocking chair champs of the world, Mr. and Mrs. Myers.

C. E. WATKINS UNDERGOES OPERATION ON SHOULDER

Rests This Afternoon Following Delicate Operation; Ligaments of Arm Injured.

C. Elmore Watkins of 240 South Main street, treasurer of Watkins Brothers, Inc., underwent a delicate major operation at 11 o'clock this morning at the Memorial hospital.

Mr. Watkins had not come out of the other effects at that time, his wife told The Herald shortly after noon that the operation had been successful.

KNOWLTON IS CALM ON HIS LAST DAY

(Continued from Page 1)

sel in their eleventh hour attempt to save his life.

His saddest moment, his guards said, was when he learned that his father in Framingham had been stricken with a heart stroke.

To Die Tonight Scheduled to die in the electric chair shortly after midnight tonight for the slaying of Miss Margarette Isabelle Stewart.

With pen and ink in his death cell, Knowlton put his thoughts into verse as follows:

For every ray of sunshine There is a drop of rain, In every heart of gladness There is a twinge of pain.

Today, his wife, Mrs. Grace Knowlton, his sister, Mrs. Jane Bryant, and his step-mother, Mrs. Harriet K. Knowlton, all of Framingham, visit Knowlton in the death cell for the last time.

TWELFTH INNING RALLY.

Calcutta, India.—The yearly game of survival of the fittest, played in this country between men and tigers, wound up in the twelfth inning with the human race leading the animals by 25 units.

LITTLE GIRL INJURED IN NORTH END CRASH

John Hohl Accused of Wild Driving When His Car Hits a Bon Ami Automobile.

One little girl was cut by glass and another shaken up and given a nosebleed in an automobile collision at Hilliard and Electric streets just before noon today.

Just before his illness, Mr. Seastrand had been visiting at the home of his brothers, Fred and Eward at 91 South Main street here and appeared to be in normal health.

He was employed as a foreman on the lower floor at the Hartford Machine-Screw Company. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Inez, and his two brothers, Fred and Eward.

Mrs. Edith Pearlman. Mrs. Edith Pearlman died at her home at 52 Arch street Saturday evening after a brief illness.

Mrs. Pearlman leaves one daughter, Mrs. Hope Johnson, of this town and one son, H. V. Pearlman of New York.

ABOUT TOWN

The cast for the play "Norah Mixes In" will have a rehearsal this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Henry Lowd at the Center.

Francis Hart, Ernest Brown, Lester Trouton, and Harold McLagan, Depot Square business men, motored to New York yesterday to see the Cubs-Giants baseball game.

A daughter was born yesterday at Mrs. Howe's maternity home on Wadsworth street at 7 and Mrs. Harold Hall, of 278 Lydall street.

The Board of Selectmen will meet tonight at eight o'clock, (d. s. t.) in the Municipal building. It will be the regular monthly public meeting of the board.

The Child Study club whose members are for the most part from the North Main street churches, will hold its meeting on Thursday evening of this week instead of Wednesday as planned.

A special meeting and minstrel rehearsal of the W. B. A. Guard club will take place this evening at the home of Mrs. Jennie Sadroski, 112 School street.

The regular monthly devotional service of the Girls' Friendly society will be held at St. Mary's Episcopal church this evening at 7:30.

Miss Elvera Calve of East Middle Turnpike was tendered a birthday party Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pontelle, which was attended by 50 persons from Hartford and other places.

The decorations were in pink and white, with centerpiece of white and pink carnations. Music for dancing was furnished by a Hartford orchestra and vocal and string music was provided by several of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dion of Charter Oak street had as their guests yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Dotin of Meriden and Miss Florence Allen.

The May group of the Ladies Aid society of the North Methodist church will serve a May dinner, with strawberry shortcake and other good things, on May 22.

The candidates choir of the Girls' Friendly society will meet in the parish house at 6:45 this evening for rehearsal. Miss Agatha Wright requests all members to be present as this rehearsal will be the only one before the annual presentation service to be held in Christ church cathedral, Saturday, May 18.

The Ladies Sewing Circle of the Highland Park Community club will give a setback party at the clubhouse tomorrow evening at 8:15. Six prizes will be given the winners and refreshments served.

The Kings Heralds of the South Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 8:30. The lesson will be given by Mrs. Gibson. Miss Gertrude Abbey will tell of her trip abroad.

Washington, May 13.—Treasury balance May 10: $161,484,244.98.

OBITUARY

DEATHS

Axel G. Seastrand, 49, former Manchester resident, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his home at 21 Hungerford street in Hartford.

Just before his illness, Mr. Seastrand had been visiting at the home of his brothers, Fred and Eward at 91 South Main street here and appeared to be in normal health.

He was employed as a foreman on the lower floor at the Hartford Machine-Screw Company. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Inez, and his two brothers, Fred and Eward.

Mrs. Edith Pearlman. Mrs. Edith Pearlman died at her home at 52 Arch street Saturday evening after a brief illness.

Mrs. Pearlman leaves one daughter, Mrs. Hope Johnson, of this town and one son, H. V. Pearlman of New York.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 tomorrow at 9 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Johnson, of this town and one son, H. V. Pearlman of New York.

Mrs. David L. Benson. Funeral services for Mrs. David L. Benson, of Orchard street, who died Friday after a brief illness, were held Sunday afternoon at Watkins Brothers, 11 Oak street.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 tomorrow at 9 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Johnson, of this town and one son, H. V. Pearlman of New York.

Originally the fight arose over Dr. Shields' Fundamentalistic doctrines, in which he has been upheld by the board.

Dr. Louis P. Hastings of St. Francis hospital, who made a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Medical Examiner Harry N. Costello, who performed the autopsy on Huntington's body, declared last week that if brain tissue were found on the cloths the suicide theory must be given up.

St. Andrew's, Fifa, Scotland, May 13.—Three of the four American women entered in the British Ladies' Open championship advanced to the second round today.

New York, May 13.—The Metropolitan area was faced with two strikes, involving more than 115,000 workers.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Ludlow, Mass., May 13.—Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

LOCAL ATTORNEY CLOSED PRATT-WHITNEY DEAL

Raymond Bowers Secured Property Option on Site of Big Plant in East Hartford.

For four months Attorney Raymond Bowers of this town has been working in connection with John and James Cairns of East Hartford in the negotiation for the purchase of the site for a factory and landing field that is to be built by Pratt and Whitney Company of Hartford in East Hartford.

The land that they have purchased in East Hartford will make possible the best landing field between New York and Boston.

A deposit was made and an option was taken so as to prevent the setting of the land with tobacco. It has cost over $1,000,000 for the land and the buildings that will be erected will be much larger than those now occupied by the company in Hartford.

It is the opinion of Attorney Bowers, that not only would the land in the vicinity of Silver Lane be benefited in value by the new plant, but also that in the western section of Manchester, the company, when it has its new plant completed will employ 5,000 men.

There are no trolley cars on this piece of road but a bus line is at present operated.

The chief piece of cloth is one supposed to bear brain tissue. The tests will continue through the afternoon.

County Detective Edward J. Hickey dropped back into his office here this afternoon after spending the morning in Windsor.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

Handkerchiefs Analyzed. Hartford, Conn., May 13.—County Detective Edward J. Hickey's theory that Walter T. Huntington, Harvard student, killed himself at Windsor is a week, received support today when a chemical analysis of handkerchiefs found on Huntington's body determined positively there was no brain tissue on the handkerchiefs.

NEW YORK-PARIS HOP IS PLANNED

Three French Flyers Hope to Make the Long Trip in Thirty Hours.

New York, May 13.—New York to Paris in thirty hours, three hours less than "Lindy's" time. This is the ambitious plan of three French flyers—Rene Lefevre, Armand Lott, Jr., and Jean Assalant.

They plan to hop off from Roosevelt field the first favorable day after May 19, which is next Sunday. Lott and Assalant arrived in New York last night and left this morning for Roosevelt field to inspect their single-motored Bernard plane which is ready for the trip.

Lotti, who is backer of the flight, said that the purpose of the flight is not to detract from the epic journey of Col. Lindbergh two years ago May 20 but to demonstrate that French flyers, with French equipment, could successfully negotiate the distance between New York and Paris.

With favorable weather conditions they may be able to make it in thirty hours," he said. Lotti thought that the take-off would be made in about ten days or two weeks at the latest.

The Frenchmen expect to take advantage of favorable conditions that are anticipated immediately before and after the new moon which is due May 25.

He said that the Great Circle, or northern route, would be followed that would carry them over Cape Race and from there they would head directly for the French coast and Le Bourget Flying Field.

Thirty hours was Lotti's estimate of the expected time without the advantage of a tail wind. The plane has a cruising speed of 130 miles an hour.

High School Boy and Girl Argue Before Club This Noon—To Rehearse Minstrel

The Manchester Kiwanis Club listened to an interesting debate by two students from the local high school at its noon-day session today at the Hotel Sheraton.

The affirmative was argued by Miss Marion James while August Johnson spoke for the negative. Although no decision was given, the Kiwanians seemed to think Johnson's arguments were more logical.

Beginning tomorrow noon all members of the minstrel show chorus are requested to report daily with the exception of Saturday and Sunday at Watkins Brothers for rehearsals.

St. Andrew's, Fifa, Scotland, May 13.—Three of the four American women entered in the British Ladies' Open championship advanced to the second round today.

New York, May 13.—The Metropolitan area was faced with two strikes, involving more than 115,000 workers.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Ludlow, Mass., May 13.—Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Local Stocks

(Furnished by Putnam & Co.)

Table with columns: Bank, Bid, Asked. Lists various banks and their stock prices.

N. Y. Stocks

Table with columns: Am. Can., Am. Gas, Am. Loco, etc. Lists various New York stocks and their prices.

SO. METHODISTS GIVE MOTHERS DAY PAGEANT

"Memories of Mother," was the title of an interesting Mother's Day service presented in five scenes at the South Methodist church last evening under the direction of Thomas Maxwell.

The setting was a living room of a typical American home, with a fire burning on the hearth, and books, flowers, lamps, pottery and other objects which served to make the home comfortable.

The choir which was concealed at the side of the platform, sang a number of appropriate hymns and Rev. Robert A. Colpitts and Rev. Ernest Legg participated in the devotional service.

TO PRESENT FAMOUS COMEDY FRIDAY

The feature attraction, "Nothing But The Truth," now playing at the State theater, will be presented in its original form, a play, by the Epworth League of the South Methodist church.

The cast of characters are: "Bob Bennett" played by Francis Burr; "Gwen Ralston" by Marion Legg; "Mr. Ralston" by Benjamin Radding; "Mrs. Ralston" by Thelma Farr; "Clarence Van Dusen" by Kenneth Alexander; "Ethel Clark" by Ruth Nyma; "Mabel Jackson" by Ruth Lippincott; "Sabel Jackson" by Elizabeth McGuire; "Blanche Doran" by Fred Rogers; "Dick Donnelly" by Clarence Turkington; "Martha" the maid by Marion Brookings.

MAY TAKE WATER FROM CONNECTICUT

(Continued from Page 1)

river at that point should be 4,500 cubic feet per second, or less. Good found that the discharge of 4,900 cubic feet per second at Sunderland corresponds to average low tide height of 2.1 at Hartford, Connecticut, and that a discharge of 4,650 at Sunderland corresponds to 2.0 at Hartford.

MARION TURPLE ONLY AMERICAN DEFEATED

St. Andrew's, Fifa, Scotland, May 13.—Three of the four American women entered in the British Ladies' Open championship advanced to the second round today.

New York, May 13.—The Metropolitan area was faced with two strikes, involving more than 115,000 workers.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Ludlow, Mass., May 13.—Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

NEW YORK FACING TWO BIG STRIKES

New York, May 13.—The Metropolitan area was faced with two strikes, involving more than 115,000 workers.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Ludlow, Mass., May 13.—Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

Edwin Kuslak, 20, of Chicopee, was dead here today as a result of being struck in the left temple by a pitched ball during an amateur baseball game yesterday afternoon.

STATE NOW PLAYING Aint it the Truth? HELEN KANE LOUIS JOHN BARTELS A Paramount Picture. Includes a large advertisement for the play 'Aint it the Truth?' at the State Theater.

GRAND OPENING SANDY BEACH BALLROOM. Includes an advertisement for the opening of the Sandy Beach Ballroom, featuring a Victor Recording Orchestra.

PULITZER PRIZE WINNERS NAMED

"Scarlet Sister Mary" Best Novel and "John Brown's Body" Best Book of Verse

New York, May 13.—Winners of Pulitzer prize awards for 1928-29 have been announced by the trustees of Columbia University.

Julius Peterkin's "Scarlet Sister Mary" is judged the best novel; Elmer Rice's "Street Scene," the best play; Fred Albert Shannon's "The Organization and Administration of the Union Army, 1861-1865," the best historical book; Burton J. Hendrick's "The Training of an American," the best biography; and Stephen Vincent Benet's "John Brown's Body," the best book of verse.

The Evening World won the award for the most meritorious public service rendered by an American newspaper during the year. Honorable mention went to the Brooklyn Daily Eagle, the Chicago Tribune and the St. Paul (Minn.) Dispatch and Pioneer Press.

Other Awards. Paul Scott Mowrer of the Chicago Daily News was awarded the prize of the best example of correspondence; Louis Isaac Jaffe of the Norfolk Virginia-Pilot, for the best editorial; Paul Y. Anderson of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch for the best reporter's work; and Hollis Kirby of the New York World for the best cartoon.

The three traveling scholarships for honor graduates of the Columbia School of Journalism go to Helen R. Fairbanks of Great Neck, N. Y., Prescott Freese Bennett of Bangor, Me., and Will Cramer Wenz of Terre Haute, Ind.

Herbert Sanborn, a student at the National Academy of Design, receives the $1,500 scholarship bestowed upon the "most promising art student" in America.

LOCAL MAN TO BE MADE PRIEST ON SAT. MAY 26

Eugene Moriarty to be Ordained at St. Joseph's Cathedral; To Celebrate First Mass Here.

Eugene Moriarty, son of Mortimer Moriarty of Summit street, will be ordained to the priesthood at St. Joseph's Cathedral, here, on Saturday, May 25.

Mr. Moriarty is the fifth Manchester youth to be ordained to the priesthood, and the fourth from St. James' church. One of the four from St. James' parish, Rev. Michael Foley, has died. There is one other young man who has been studying for the Jesuit branch that has already put in nine years and has four years more to study.

DRY AGENTS MOBILIZE ON CANADIAN BORDER to watch with the ground patrols. Planes also may be used over difficult terrain in the interior of the country to locate moonshiners.

to Watch Tourists. Besides the commercial rum smugglers, who transferred their operations to the Canadian border when the Coast Guard placed a heavy patrol along the eastern coast, the border agents will be faced with the heaviest auto tourist season in history.

In past years tourists have been leniently dealt with by customs inspectors, a nominal fine of $5 a bottle having been assessed. Commercial smugglers faced heavy fines and confiscation of their cars.

This year, however, the Jones law which fixes a maximum $10,000 fine and five years in prison for illegal importation of intoxicants, may be used against tourists who are caught in the attempt to smuggle liquor.

Some districts disagree with the Justice Department that the Jones law should be used in only a certain class of major cases involving sale, manufacture, transportation and importation. These U. S. attorneys are expected to seek prosecution of tourist liquor smugglers under the drastic "five and ten" law.

President Hoover complains that White House correspondents do not ask enough questions. The president must be seeking a little more publicity.

The Eighth "Wonder" of the World!

MANY TO ATTEND "MAYTIME FIESTA"

Dorcas Society at Swedish Lutheran Church to Give Unusual Affair Friday.

The members of the Dorcas Society of the Swedish Lutheran church are anticipating a large attendance at their "Maytime Fiesta" to be held in the church basement on Friday night.

The decorations will be elaborate and mostly in pastel colors, each committee taking charge of its own booth. There will be candy, fancy and gift articles as well as aprons for sale. Refreshments will be served cafeteria style and ice cream will also be sold.

All of the members have been working enthusiastically on the arrangements for the past month and hope to make it one of the most successful affairs the young girls' society of the church has ever held.

LOCAL BAKERY TRUCK WRECKED IN BOLTON

Domenic Belletti's Auto Smashed When Struck by Providence Jitney at Notch.

Domenic Belletti of Eldridge street, who drives a Ford truck in his bread delivery business, had a narrow escape from serious injuries when his truck was wrecked in a head-on collision with a Hartford Providence Pierce-Arrow jitney in Bolton Saturday evening.

Belletti's machine was so badly wrecked that it could not proceed under its own power. Mr. Belletti was injured about the body, legs and arms by the collision but the most serious injury seems to have been to one knee.

FOUR 100 PER CENTERS IN SCHOOL SAVINGS

Four schools again were credited with 100 per cent of their attending pupils making deposits under the school savings system during the week ending May 7. The summary follows:

School	Attend-ance	De-posits	P.C.
Man. Green	254	254	100
South	85	85	100
Keeney St.	84	84	100
Oakland	23	23	100
Hollister St.	301	300	99.6
No. School St.	594	590	99.3
Highland Park	138	133	96
Washington	383	364	95
Buckland	106	96	90
Nathan Hale	493	370	75
Barnard	484	317	65
Maple	78	50	64
Lincoln	477	263	55
Totals	3490	2929	83

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Knoff of 75 E. Middle Turnpike announce the engagement of their daughter Gertrude to Raymond Smith, son of Robert Smith, of 57 Foster street.

TARIFF POLICY IS ANNOUNCED BY DEMOCRATS

(Continued from Page 1)

creative votes on the Smith-Raskob tariff theory, Republicans in the House have declared that Rep. John N. Garner of Texas, Democratic leader, is in accord with the majority party's tariff policy.

Admitting that he had wanted to vote for the new tariff bill because he wanted agricultural tariffs boosted, Garner nevertheless declared his opposition because of alleged monopolistic privileges granted many industries and transfer of tariff power from Congress to the President.

"It has been necessary to clarify the Democratic policy on the tariff, and of misrepresentation of the party's platform, and the views of Gov. Smith and Mr. Raskob," said Hull.

Democrats Against Bill "I am confident that the Democrats in Congress will stand almost solidly against the Hawley bill, which is the most outrageous tariff bill ever presented to Congress. It is true that many Democrats indicated that they would support the Republican policy, but they have changed."

Party Platform "The party's platform pledged a policy of increasing wages and income by reducing the monopolistic and extortionate rates bestowed in the payment of political debts in the Fordney-McCumber law. They stand for abolition of log rolling and restoration of the Wilson conception of a free and binding tariff commission, quasi judicial, and free from executive domination which has destroyed the usefulness of the present commission."

Gov. Smith during the campaign based his tariff views on these policies. Hull said, Republican practice, he declared, has always opposed the policy proclaimed by Gov. Smith of revising the tariff for the good of legitimate business and labor and have, instead, made it "a shelter for extortion and favoritism."

While Republican leaders are attempting to negotiate a compromise between the "Farm Bloc" and eastern industrial interests, Democrats in the House will continue in debate to attack the Hawley bill.

They are planning to fight the tariff rates on window glass, cement, some kinds of steel and similar industrial rates on the ground that they simply serve to raise prices and not to keep out foreign goods.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Charles Stepnowski, 16, of 195 Aftack street, Hartford, and Larry Laviole, 22, of 29 Catherine street, Hartford automobile accident victims, were admitted early this morning. Other admissions were C. Elmore Watkins of 240 South Main street, Miss Christensen of 151 Eldridge street, Eleanor Hewitt of 37 Ridgeway street, Miss Mary Mader of 138 Maple street, Robert Skinner of Bolton and Mrs. Mary Findlay of 148 Porter street. Miss Estelle Jackson of Middle Turnpike West and Joseph Savole of Waterbury were discharged. The latter was injured in a bus accident May 6. Other daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turkington of 26 Windsor street.

ODD FELLOWS TO JOIN IN BIG STATE PARADE

King David Lodge to Participate in March of 7,000 at New Britain Tomorrow.

A large representation from King David Lodge, No. 31, I. O. O. F., will attend the annual convention of the Grand Lodge of New Britain which opens tomorrow evening with a parade at 7 o'clock, with 7,000 marchers in line. Thomas J. Rogers, past grand of King David Lodge, will be the marshal of the local lodge.

A bus will leave the Center at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening. Several private cars will also make the trip. Local members are asked to wear dark trousers and light shirts. A cap and cane will be provided just before the start of the parade.

The parade will begin at the corner of Rockwell and Franklin Square, with the local lodge in line in the rear of Crescent Lodge of East Hartford, on the west side of Glen street. The line of march will be from Rockwell avenue to Locust street, along Locust street to Arch street, then west on Arch street to Main, north on Main to East Main, then along Spring street from Spring street to Winter street and west on Winter to Main ending in front of the I. O. O. F. hall, in which the opening session on Wednesday will be held.

Entertainment will be provided in the Palace theater, tickets for which will be given out when the lodges are lined up in parade formation. Miss Gladys Orcutt has returned from Bristol, Vt., where she had been ill all during her vacation. Mrs. Wallace McKnight of Wellsburg, N. Y., is visiting her sister Mrs. J. E. Kingsbury. Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett, Jr. and children of Harrison, N. Y., spent the week-end with Mrs. Bennett's mother Mrs. A. B. Porter. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Elliott and family were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Elliott's brother John E. Kingsbury.

AUTOIST KILLS SELF AFTER CAR IS WRECKED

Slashes His Throat and Then Jumps into Connecticut River at Hanover, N. H.

Hanover, N. H., May 13.—Searching parties today were dragging the Connecticut river three miles below here for the body of William E. Smiley, 50, of Providence, R. I., who believed to have committed suicide by slashing his throat with a pocket knife, and then jumping in the river following an accident in which his automobile was wrecked.

Another automobile carrying a party from Greenfield, Mass., which was following the Smiley machine, saw the machine go high into air when it struck a fence near an embankment and then turned turtle. Before they could reach the occupant of the car, he had staggered to the river bank, cut his throat and jumped in, they said.

Smiley, who was survived by a wife and four children, was visiting friends with his wife in West Lebanon.

WHITE ELEPHANT BAZAAR IN ROCKVILLE TONIGHT

One of the most elaborate May festivals ever held by the Epworth League of the M. E. church opens at 8 o'clock this evening at Wesleyan Hall which has been beautifully decorated for the occasion. Many things will be for sale in novel booths, gift warrants, work, candy, books, home made pastries, flowers and plants. There is a grill room where old fashioned strawberry shortcake and waffles will be served. In addition are novel sports and a grab bag. On Tuesday evening in conjunction with the bazaar a three-act comedy "All a Mistake" will be presented by league members. A good time is assured to all who attend.

Statistics offered by Northwestern University show the men are dumber than the girls. Are there no good-looking co-eds at that school?

REC'S MAY FROLIC PROVIDES GREAT FUN

All Kinds of Games Played by Enthusiastic Crowd; Shows Building's Versatility.

Close to a hundred persons attended the May Frolic held at the School Street Recreation Center Saturday evening and judging from the remarks of those who were present, the affair was a most unusual success. "Gee! You had ought to have seen what we got for fifty cents," was one typical remark which most aptly describes the manner in which the well laid out program was received. The crowd was divided into groups and escorted about the Recreation and Franklin buildings where the various parts of the program were carried out.

There were all sorts of games ranging from stunts to bowling, cards and archery. The latter provided considerable sport for many who previously had not had a bow and arrow in their hands. They were in fact, for some it was the first time. The archery was conducted in the Franklin gym under the supervision of Miss Viola Landon, associate director.

Balloons were used as targets and also prizes. The best shots of the evening were made by U. J. Lupton, W. C. Wirtalla, Walter Wilkinson and Mr. Cushman and they got the prizes. Mrs. Alfred Grezel and Mr. Woodbury won the honors in bowling. The stunt games were conducted by Frank Busch and Miss Beatrice Swanson.

In bridge, the prize winners were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Strant and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson. Miss Gertrude Milne took all honors in whist. Among the gathering were noticed a number of new members who took advantage of the opportunity to visit the place and enjoy its privileges for the evening. This is one of the foremost aims of the authorities in charge—to interest more people in the facilities which the Recreation Centers afford.

After being escorted to the scene of the various parts of the program, the groups were then conducted to the main gymnasium which had been transformed into a Japanese garden carab. Tables were set around the hall which was very prettily decorated. Here refreshments consisting of ice cream, cookies, cake and coffee were served.

AMARANTH TO HONOR PAST MATRONS, PATRONS

Chapman Court, Order of Amaranth will observe past matrons and patrons' night, Friday, May 17, at 8 o'clock in the Masonic Temple. The following past matrons and patrons will occupy the chairs: royal matron, Ethel M. Brainard; royal patron, John Winterbottom; associate matron, Esther Pyles; associate patron, John Pickles; conductress, Jessie Winterbottom; associate conductress, Fliss Grant; secretary, James Richmond; treasurer, George Chapman; marshal in the east, Adele Morgan Bantley; marshal in the west, Pauline Grant; historian, Ruby Thresher; trustee, Fred Tilden; warden, Arthur Loomis. The business will include the initiation of candidates.

COVENTRY

Miss Gladys Orcutt has returned from Bristol, Vt., where she had been ill all during her vacation. Mrs. Wallace McKnight of Wellsburg, N. Y., is visiting her sister Mrs. J. E. Kingsbury. Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett, Jr. and children of Harrison, N. Y., spent the week-end with Mrs. Bennett's mother Mrs. A. B. Porter. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Elliott and family were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Elliott's brother John E. Kingsbury.

A very impressive service was held at the morning service Sunday. Several children marched into church carrying a red geranium placing them upon the communion table. While standing around the table the children then dedicated their lives to a more loyal service to their mothers. A solo "Mary Dear" was rendered by Mrs. A. J. Winton. At the end of the service Rev. J. N. Atwood asked all the mothers present to remain standing and the children marching down to the table took a geranium and gave them to all the mothers present.

Choral Club meets with Bolton Club Tuesday evening at 7:30, starting at 8 o'clock.

There will be an open meeting at the Grange Hall Thursday evening, May 16. The children will present the entire program. Everybody is welcome free of charge.

On Friday, May 17, there will be a play entitled "Nora Mixes In" under the auspices of Coventry Grange.

WAPPING

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Frink, accompanied by their son Harry and their granddaughter, Miss Marion Frink, motored to Stafford last Thursday where they were guests of Mr. Frink's sister. At the meeting of the Sunday School Board held at the church, Thursday evening, it was decided to hold the next Sunday School social on Friday evening, May 24. The games are to be provided by the committee for Children's Day was appointed as follows: Mrs. Harry B. Miner, Mrs. Lillian E. Grant and Mrs. Lois S. Collins. Mrs. Collins is also chairman of the decorating committee.

KEITH'S Where you can afford to buy good furniture.

Why People Go To The Movies

ENTERTAINMENT, of course—but there is another reason. Don't you, yourself, often go because there seems to be nothing else to do—then after you arrive at the theater, wish you hadn't gone?

That desultory "let's-do-something" feeling is caused, in nine cases out of ten, by a home which doesn't quite fill the bill, no matter how large, how elegant or how expensive it may be.

Expensive furniture in great quantities is unnecessary to make a house into a home so everlastingly comfortable that you and your family won't want to leave. It's a matter of comfort built into each piece, proper selection, proper placement, that turns the trick. In all probability a very few pieces of furniture are all that will be needed.

Making homes more attractive and more congenial is an important part of our function in Manchester. Come in and talk the matter over. We want to help you—not just "sell" you.

MARLBOROUGH

Gustave Johnson is ill with pneumonia and a trained nurse is caring for him. Dr. John D. Milburn of East Hampton is attending him. Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Myers and Mrs. E. E. Hall spent Thursday afternoon in Middletown. The Dorcas society met with Mrs. Henry Cordes Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Cordes have sold their place and are leaving town in a few days. They plan to go to Seattle, Wash., where they will stay with their son, Henry Cordes, Jr. Walter Ebenhour and Jess Christensen of New York were recent callers on C. S. Christensen. The town speaking and spelling contest will take place Tuesday evening, May 21. The winners will compete in the district contest which will be held in Willimantic. Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lord and son, Jr., and Mrs. George P. Fuller, all of Providence, R. I., called on relatives here this week. Mrs. Sarah J. Bolles is at her home here after spending the winter in New Britain with her son Edward Bolles. Eleven young people of the Senior class of the Portland High school will present a three-act play entitled "And Mary Did," at the vestry of the Congregational church on Friday evening, May 17. Willis W. Hall, who has been ill with pleurisy, is convalescing. Henry Christensen of Co. H, 13th U. S. Infantry, stationed at Fort Adams, Newport, spent a few days at his home here recently. Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Lord and son Robert were callers in Colchester—the first of the week.

THEY WALK OUT! 1929 MODELS!

Hold everything! Don't give up yet. Send all your 1928 summer suits to us. They'll come back to you 1929 models. And you'll save the difference! Styles in summer suits don't change a lot anyway. And our improved Gloverized process of cleaning freshens up the patterns like new, and cleans away every single spot and stain. No unpleasant cleaning odor. No rings. This is the new thrift habit that scores of men all over town are getting on to. May we send our route man over tomorrow morning? LADIES' AND GENTS' SUITS CLEANED AND PRESSED $1.00

DIANA'S TAILOR SHOP

3 Eldridge Street. Tel. 1734 FRESH GARMENTS FRESH GARMENTS

The TOWN DOCTOR SAYS

ANYTHING LESS THAN THE BEST IS SOLD AT A DISCOUNT

There is an old and very true saying that "What the eye doesn't see, the heart doesn't fancy," but it is also true that the eye sees many things that blind the heart to that which it otherwise would fancy. How often have you seen a blemish on the face of an otherwise beautiful woman, so noticeable that whenever you looked at her, you could not keep your eye off the blemish? She might be wonderfully groomed, marvelously groomed and exquisitely coiffed, but try as you might, you could see only the mar.

The appearance of anything either repels or invites ownership. Eighty-per cent of those things sold today are purchased through, or the purchase is influenced by, the eye. What a thing looks like, therefore, is extremely important in creating a desire in the minds of others for it.

Do your part—set an example by eliminating the scars, the blemishes of your corner and others will do likewise. It's poor business to allow the value of your community to be discounted by a poor appearance. Copyright, 1929, A. D. Stone, reproduction prohibited in whole or in part. This Town Doctor Article is published by The Herald in cooperation with the Lions Club of Manchester.

COLDS VICKS VAPORUB

Manchester Evening Herald
 PUBLISHED BY THE HERALD PRINTING COMPANY INC.
 At 13 Union Street, South Manchester, Conn.
 Founded by Elwood S. Ely, Oct. 1, 1881.
 Every Evening Except Sundays and Holidays.
 Entered at the Post Office at South Manchester, Conn., as Second Class Mail Matter.
 SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Mail six dollars a year, sixty cents a month for shorter periods. Single copies three cents.
 SPECIAL ADVERTISING RATES: Local, 10c per line; State, 15c; National, 20c. Minimum order, one week.
 The Manchester Evening Herald is on sale in New York City at Schuller's News Stand Sixth Avenue and 42nd Street, and 43rd Street entrance of Grand Central Station, and at all Hoisting News Stands.
 Client of International News Service.
 "International News Service has the exclusive rights to use for publication in any form all news dispatches credited to or not otherwise credited in this paper it is also exclusively entitled to use for reproduction all the local or undated news published herein."
 Full Service Client of N. E. A. Service member Audit Bureau of Circulations.

MONDAY, MAY 13, 1929

TAXATION

When taxation reaches the point where direct imposts of all kinds take $77.27 for every man, woman and child in the state of Connecticut a situation is revealed which calls for a "Stop, Look and Listen" sign. Yet the report on assessment and collection of taxes issued by the state tax commissioner's office frankly sets forth exactly that state of affairs.

When, on an average, every family of four persons is required to contribute a dollar a day for the maintenance of government and governmental institutions of various sorts, it is obvious that the time has arrived for some pretty serious thinking on the part of the victims of the spending; they need not expect that any very close consideration will be given to the problem by that large, influential class which are its beneficiaries—the holders of remunerative public office.

There are just two matters in relation to taxation that need to be thoroughly understood. One is that taxes are paid, in the last analysis, by the man and woman on the job—they come out of the effort of the producer. It is the family which occupies the house that pays the taxes on it, whether that family owns it or rents it from the owner. If the latter is the case the taxes, of course, are included in the rental. The customer, of course, pays the retailer's business tax, which simply has to be included in the overhead which must be met by the profit on the goods.

The other is that only in one direction is there any overmastering impulse to keep taxes down, and that is in the direction of the element which has no opportunity of passing the tax bill along to a customer, a tenant, a passenger, a client or other person incapable of again passing it along.

Public expenditure is the most alluring and infectious propensity in the world. Ten thousand temptations lead, on to its increase. National, state and civic pride are potent influences—every community must keep up with the Joneses. Specialized propagandists are another. Lack of understanding as to who pays the bills contributes.

But when local tax budgets in Connecticut jump from a total of fifty-one and a half millions in 1924 to sixty-seven and a half millions in 1928 it is obvious that the temptation to go on and on in public expenditures is leading us into perilous paths.

Far too great a part of the people's earnings, in Connecticut, is finding its way into the pouch of the tax gatherer. And for this there is only one remedy—that the rank and file of the people, who in the long run pay the bills out of their sweat and weariness, shall begin to take a more active and studious part in the business of running their public affairs.

UNIVERSITIES

One of the most seriously misused words in the English language is "university." A university, to be deserving of the name, must approach at least reasonably close to the ancient and historic implications of the term—it must be, at its foundations, a gathering of students and teachers animated as much by a purpose to discover truth as to disseminate it. From the beginning that has been the distinguishing characteristic of the university as opposed to the schools established for the teaching of facts or philosophies by dicta. Modern universities either follow the original purpose or they completely belie their names.

In Des Moines there is a Baptist school which calls itself a university. Because its faculty dared to in-investigate the meanings of the Scriptures instead of accepting meanings handed down for them to swallow, hook, line and sinker, the entire faculty has been thrown out and the so-called university has been closed, perhaps permanently.

We haven't the slightest quarrel with the action of the board of directors of this school. They were running a fundamentalist Baptist school and if they found their teachers were not following out fundamentalist ideas they had a perfect right, moral as well as legal, to fire them. What we do seriously object to, however, is that such an institution should call itself a university. It is no more a university than it is a school of fingerprint investigation. It is no more a university than it is a steamship with six funnels.

There are dozens of so-called universities in the United States that are merely sectarian institutes or, at best, low grade colleges. We are not at all sure but that it is as important that Congress establish a definition of the words "university" as that it define the adjective form of "intoxicating." Only we hope it will do a better job.

THE YEN FOR SUBSIDY

It was expected today that the farm relief bill carrying the debenture provision would be passed by the Senate but that the latter part of the measure would fall when it went to the House. The expected course in that event is that the Senate will yield to the elimination of the debenture clause and pass the compromise farm bill resulting, with the understanding that the debenture provision shall be then shifted to the tariff bill and the real fight for its passage made on that tie-up.

That such an arrangement will spell the doom of tariff revision at the extra session is among the possibilities. It is a good deal to be regretted that the insurgent and Democratic Senators have hit upon it. We should have preferred to see the debenture clause kept in the farm relief bill. There is a growing feeling that such paternal legislation can never be disposed of except by the costly process of allowing it to prove its own evils. It would have been better to have both houses vote for the debentures, and send the farm relief bill to the President loaded with a provision of which he absolutely disapproves, than to have adopted this plan, likely as it is to block needed tariff revision. The President would have had much more justification for "holding his nose" and signing such a farm relief bill than senators like Copeland have in voting for the debentures—and we have a sneaking suspicion that that is just what he would do if the test were made.

We shall have farm subsidy agitation forever and forever until we have farm subsidy and let the country find out to its cost, what they mean. And we shall have no peace or agreement on tariff matters until we submit to that experiment.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington, May 13.—One of the jobs Harry Sinclair might qualify for during his 90 days of incarceration is that of interior decorator. There is little question that Sinclair will find room for certain aesthetic improvements in his new surroundings and his jailer will probably find the oil man glad to make any suggestions and to supervise their execution.

When he is a free man in Washington Sinclair stays at the Carlton hotel, which is a very swell place, and it was there that he demonstrated his eye for color and his aversion for drabness.

The walls and rooms of the hotel where once all of a putty color, their surface being fashionably scumbled and resembling "so much chewing gum." But Sinclair told the management he must have the walls of his suite splashed with a little bright blue over all. When this was done the effect was so rich that the management carried the scheme out throughout the hotel.

If the Senate lags far behind the House in dealing with this year's legislation, one is justified in predicting that the fault will be that of the Hon. J. Thomas Heflin, senior senator from Alabama.

No one who fails to read the Congressional Record can realize just how much time Heflin has taken up in the first three weeks of the session. He has been at it just about every day, raising an awfully lot of questions and cursing the machinations of the pope. Tom's proposed methods of salvation was the passage of his resolution condemning in no uncertain terms the unidentified persons in Brockton, Mass. who are alleged to have buried a milk bottle at him as he was being driven to make a speech to the Ku Klux Klan. This resolution was badly beaten but the mere hearing has given Heflin something to talk about for the rest of the session.

If the House is truly annoyed in the representative body the Smiths Jones and Browns of the nation would seem to have a "best time" now.

There are two Smiths in the House of the Seventy-first Congress, Addison T. Smith of Idaho, the only one last session, having been joined by Joe T. Smith of West Virginia. But Marvin Jones of Amarillo, Tex., is the only congressman from his tribe and there are no Browns, unless you count a fellow named Brown.

On the other hand, the Hulls and the Hills are here all out of proportion. There are Cordell Hull of Tennessee, Merfyn Hull of Wisconsin and Morton D. Hull and William E. Hull of Illinois. And Albert R. Hull of Indiana, Homer Hull of Illinois, Robert S. Hull of Mississippi and Thomas Hull of North Dakota.

The Hulls and Hills are outnumbered only by the Johnsons, of whom there are seven: Albert of Washington, Fred of Nebraska, John of Oklahoma, Luther of Texas, John of Indiana, Royal of South Dakota and William of Illinois. To say nothing of Rowland L. Johnson of Missouri.

The Nelsons and Coopers run next behind the Hulls and Hills, with three each.

McNEELY'S TO OPEN SANDY BEACH DANCES

Popular Ballroom at Crystal Lake to Begin Season Wednesday Night; Orchestra Booked.

It means something to say that three generations are dancing to the music of a single organization, yet that is true of McNeely's Victor Recording Orchestra of Springfield that appears for the opening of Sandy Beach Ballroom on Wednesday evening, the 15th.

McNeely's Victor Recording Orchestra was organized 22 years ago by Edward J. McNeely and W. J. Cook, the former as director and the latter as business manager. It was one of the first "novelty" orchestras to play dance music in the East. It was a decided change to dancers of those days to slip to

GOOD NEWS

The news of the imminent establishment of a great airplane plant in East Hartford, where it is expected that the number of employees will reach several thousand, is almost as important to Manchester as to the neighbor community on our west. It takes a great deal of housing to shelter the families associated with an industrial enterprise as huge as the one proposed and the western part of the town of Manchester is just next door to the great plant in contemplation.

We have to deal in invidious comparisons, but it is easy to imagine that large numbers of families or workers in the new establishment may prefer to make their homes on this side of the Manchester-East Hartford line. In these days of motor movement, a few rods—or a mile or two for that matter—are of small account when one can derive so many advantages from living a few minutes further from the job.

Manchester could do with several hundred more homes in the Silver Lane areas of the town—and we feel quite sure that a considerable part of the airplane workers could do with living in Manchester.

RESTAURANT DIETS

Everyone who tries to follow a good diet has experienced the difficulty of securing the right type of food in the average restaurant. Frequently, the food is unappetizing or improperly cooked. There is generally a super-abundance of starchy food and there is very apt to be a lack of the raw salads. The non-starchy vegetables are often cooked in too large a quantity of water and the valuable alkaline elements are dissolved and thrown into the sink.

Do not be afraid to make your wants known. Restaurant owners are naturally anxious to please their patrons and when the public demands properly prepared food, they will undoubtedly be served. There is less difficulty now than even a few years ago in securing good food. The man who is on a diet is no longer looked upon as a freak. One large chain of restaurants observes the correct food combinations enough to avoid mixing starch and acid in the same dishes. Their vegetable soups are made entirely of non-starchy vegetables. Another large chain of restaurants recently tried to go "vegetarian" and avoid serving meat, but this was a mistake they have since rectified.

Although inns and taverns have existed since recorded history, the first modern style of restaurant was established in Paris in 1765. Since that time we have had a good many changes and evolutions, the two principal offsprings of which are the cafeteria and the lunch counter. The cafeteria is undoubtedly one of the best places to eat, as such a large variety of food is served in a fancy manner at a reasonable price that anyone who makes a study of simple dietetics can secure a good meal which is palatable and nutritious. One of the best features of the cafeteria is that the patrons can see the food before choosing, and such foods as salads are presented in such an attractive way that one can hardly pass them by. Many people undoubtedly turned to eat a large variety of salads after being unconsciously educated by seeing these foods displayed.

The ordinary restaurant cannot be run at a profit unless business is very good at the lunch hour, at which time the rushed patron hurriedly gulps down his lunch and then goes back to work and is handicapped all afternoon with a dulled brain and a stuffed stomach. Every corner drug store caters to this noon lunch. The special plates of these places are steadily ruining the digestion of office workers who frantically run through bad meals to keep an appointment with

By RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington, May 13.—One of the jobs Harry Sinclair might qualify for during his 90 days of incarceration is that of interior decorator. There is little question that Sinclair will find room for certain aesthetic improvements in his new surroundings and his jailer will probably find the oil man glad to make any suggestions and to supervise their execution.

When he is a free man in Washington Sinclair stays at the Carlton hotel, which is a very swell place, and it was there that he demonstrated his eye for color and his aversion for drabness.

The walls and rooms of the hotel where once all of a putty color, their surface being fashionably scumbled and resembling "so much chewing gum." But Sinclair told the management he must have the walls of his suite splashed with a little bright blue over all. When this was done the effect was so rich that the management carried the scheme out throughout the hotel.

If the Senate lags far behind the House in dealing with this year's legislation, one is justified in predicting that the fault will be that of the Hon. J. Thomas Heflin, senior senator from Alabama.

No one who fails to read the Congressional Record can realize just how much time Heflin has taken up in the first three weeks of the session. He has been at it just about every day, raising an awfully lot of questions and cursing the machinations of the pope. Tom's proposed methods of salvation was the passage of his resolution condemning in no uncertain terms the unidentified persons in Brockton, Mass. who are alleged to have buried a milk bottle at him as he was being driven to make a speech to the Ku Klux Klan. This resolution was badly beaten but the mere hearing has given Heflin something to talk about for the rest of the session.

If the House is truly annoyed in the representative body the Smiths Jones and Browns of the nation would seem to have a "best time" now.

There are two Smiths in the House of the Seventy-first Congress, Addison T. Smith of Idaho, the only one last session, having been joined by Joe T. Smith of West Virginia. But Marvin Jones of Amarillo, Tex., is the only congressman from his tribe and there are no Browns, unless you count a fellow named Brown.

On the other hand, the Hulls and the Hills are here all out of proportion. There are Cordell Hull of Tennessee, Merfyn Hull of Wisconsin and Morton D. Hull and William E. Hull of Illinois. And Albert R. Hull of Indiana, Homer Hull of Illinois, Robert S. Hull of Mississippi and Thomas Hull of North Dakota.

The Hulls and Hills are outnumbered only by the Johnsons, of whom there are seven: Albert of Washington, Fred of Nebraska, John of Oklahoma, Luther of Texas, John of Indiana, Royal of South Dakota and William of Illinois. To say nothing of Rowland L. Johnson of Missouri.

The Nelsons and Coopers run next behind the Hulls and Hills, with three each.

McNEELY'S TO OPEN SANDY BEACH DANCES

Popular Ballroom at Crystal Lake to Begin Season Wednesday Night; Orchestra Booked.

It means something to say that three generations are dancing to the music of a single organization, yet that is true of McNeely's Victor Recording Orchestra of Springfield that appears for the opening of Sandy Beach Ballroom on Wednesday evening, the 15th.

McNeely's Victor Recording Orchestra was organized 22 years ago by Edward J. McNeely and W. J. Cook, the former as director and the latter as business manager. It was one of the first "novelty" orchestras to play dance music in the East. It was a decided change to dancers of those days to slip to

GOOD NEWS

The news of the imminent establishment of a great airplane plant in East Hartford, where it is expected that the number of employees will reach several thousand, is almost as important to Manchester as to the neighbor community on our west. It takes a great deal of housing to shelter the families associated with an industrial enterprise as huge as the one proposed and the western part of the town of Manchester is just next door to the great plant in contemplation.

We have to deal in invidious comparisons, but it is easy to imagine that large numbers of families or workers in the new establishment may prefer to make their

HEALTH DIET ADVICE
 Dr Frank McCoy
Shows "The Just Way to Health"
 QUESTIONS IN REGARD TO HEALTH & DIET WILL BE ANSWERED BY DR. MCCOY WHO CAN BE ADDRESSED IN CARE OF THIS PAPER. ENCLOSE STAMPED ADDRESS ENVELOPE FOR REPLY.
 © 1928 DR. MCCOY HEALTH SERVICE LOS ANGELES, CAL.

RESTAURANT DIETS
 Everyone who tries to follow a good diet has experienced the difficulty of securing the right type of food in the average restaurant. Frequently, the food is unappetizing or improperly cooked. There is generally a super-abundance of starchy food and there is very apt to be a lack of the raw salads. The non-starchy vegetables are often cooked in too large a quantity of water and the valuable alkaline elements are dissolved and thrown into the sink.

Do not be afraid to make your wants known. Restaurant owners are naturally anxious to please their patrons and when the public demands properly prepared food, they will undoubtedly be served. There is less difficulty now than even a few years ago in securing good food. The man who is on a diet is no longer looked upon as a freak. One large chain of restaurants observes the correct food combinations enough to avoid mixing starch and acid in the same dishes. Their vegetable soups are made entirely of non-starchy vegetables. Another large chain of restaurants recently tried to go "vegetarian" and avoid serving meat, but this was a mistake they have since rectified.

Although inns and taverns have existed since recorded history, the first modern style of restaurant was established in Paris in 1765. Since that time we have had a good many changes and evolutions, the two principal offsprings of which are the cafeteria and the lunch counter. The cafeteria is undoubtedly one of the best places to eat, as such a large variety of food is served in a fancy manner at a reasonable price that anyone who makes a study of simple dietetics can secure a good meal which is palatable and nutritious. One of the best features of the cafeteria is that the patrons can see the food before choosing, and such foods as salads are presented in such an attractive way that one can hardly pass them by. Many people undoubtedly turned to eat a large variety of salads after being unconsciously educated by seeing these foods displayed.

The ordinary restaurant cannot be run at a profit unless business is very good at the lunch hour, at which time the rushed patron hurriedly gulps down his lunch and then goes back to work and is handicapped all afternoon with a dulled brain and a stuffed stomach. Every corner drug store caters to this noon lunch. The special plates of these places are steadily ruining the digestion of office workers who frantically run through bad meals to keep an appointment with

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Deafness
 Question: Mrs. J. H. writes: "I am writing you in the interest of a little boy who is almost deaf. One specialist claims that his ear drums have not developed. Also, what would cause his extremely heavy breathing? Please give us some advice about deafness."
 Answer: Deafness is usually caused by some catarrhal condition or an obstruction of the eustachian canal by enlarged tonsils or inflammation. If the little boy's deafness is caused by the ear drums not developing, it is possible that artificial ear drums could be used. A catarrhal condition is probably partly responsible for his heavy breathing. I suggest that he be given several short acid fruit fasts, being given a well balanced diet without much starchy food between the fasting periods.

Harmful Reducing
 Question: Mrs. D. G. F. asks: "Is a cupful of vinegar, a fourth of a lemon, a half-teaspoonful of sugar and enough water to dissolve the sugar, taken every morning after breakfast, good for reducing? Is it harmful to the health? Why?"
 Answer: The only way such a combination could help you to reduce is through injuring your digestion. If you took nothing else but this combination, you would certainly lose weight, but with the good results you would obtain by using the straight lemon or orange fast.

Baby Is Constipated
 Question: Mother writes: "My baby is now more than a year old. I am feeding him nothing but raw cow's milk and orange juice, but he is very constipated."
 Answer: If your baby is constipated I would suggest that you increase the amount of orange juice. This will undoubtedly solve the problem. Also, send for my article on Children's Diet which gives the correct diet for a year-old baby.

IN NEW YORK

New York, May 13.—Many a restless ghos of yesteryear's limelight can be seen mingling in the impersonal Broadway throngs, recognized by a few of the old timers.

Thus, faded tin-types in an ever changing gallery of faces and names, they go about all but unnoticed by the crowds.

Many a night I have seen the time-marked face of David Warfield, all but hidden beneath the shadows of a picturesque, broad-brimmed soft hat flash for a moment in the theater lights, only to disappear into a brilliant lobby. Generally he has come from the Lamb Club where, with a few cronies, he goes to play pinocle.

The dapper figure of "Gentleman Jim" Corbett is another remembered chiefly by those of another generation.

Lately Jack Johnson has been pointed out to me as he went about to the theaters. Where he came from or why does not seem to be known.

He has changed considerably within the past few years, and I for one—would never have known him. He has passed the half-century mark in years. But he looks younger.

Someone told me that he lives in a most modest place way up in Harlem and is to be found at the ringside of many fights up there. He is said to be going about looking for a publisher who will put out his autobiography. Meanwhile I have no idea how he makes his living. Certain it is that he can have little of his fight money left. That battle with "Philadelphia Jack" was said to have brought him a little more than $5,000 and it is an old story how he spent it within a week of the fight.

I have heard some Broadwayites express surprise that he was in America. There was a notion that

McNEELY'S TO OPEN SANDY BEACH DANCES

Popular Ballroom at Crystal Lake to Begin Season Wednesday Night; Orchestra Booked.

It means something to say that three generations are dancing to the music of a single organization, yet that is true of McNeely's Victor Recording Orchestra of Springfield that appears for the opening of Sandy Beach Ballroom on Wednesday evening, the 15th.

McNeely's Victor Recording Orchestra was organized 22 years ago by Edward J. McNeely and W. J. Cook, the former as director and the latter as business manager. It was one of the first "novelty" orchestras to play dance music in the East. It was a decided change to dancers of those days to slip to

GOOD NEWS

The news of the imminent establishment of a great airplane plant in East Hartford, where it is expected that the number of employees will reach several thousand, is almost as important to Manchester as to the neighbor community on our west. It takes a great deal of housing to shelter the families associated with an industrial enterprise as huge as the one proposed and the western part of the town of Manchester is just next door to the great plant in contemplation.

We have to deal in invidious comparisons, but it is easy to imagine that large numbers of families or workers in the new establishment may prefer to make their

McNEELY'S TO OPEN SANDY BEACH DANCES

Popular Ballroom at Crystal Lake to Begin Season Wednesday Night; Orchestra Booked.

It means something to say that three generations are dancing to the music of a single organization, yet that is true of McNeely's Victor Recording Orchestra of Springfield that appears for the opening of Sandy Beach Ballroom on Wednesday evening, the 15th.

McNeely's Victor Recording Orchestra was organized 22 years ago by Edward J. McNeely and W. J. Cook, the former as director and the latter as business manager. It was one of the first "novelty" orchestras to play dance music in the East. It was a decided change to dancers of those days to slip to

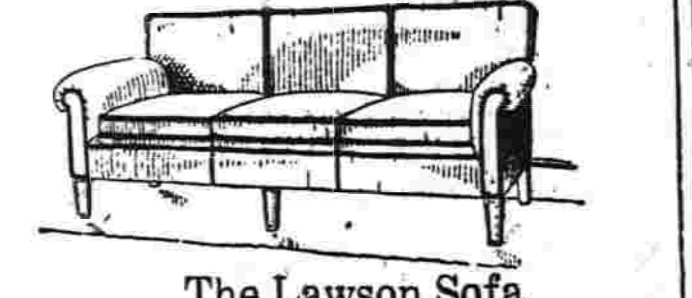

OPEN THURSDAY EVENINGS UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK

The Odd Davenport in the Modern Living Room

THE davenport usually forms the center of interest in the living room of today. It is the major piece of furniture; the piece around which the room is decorated; and therefore should be selected with care. Here at Watkins we feature the odd davenport with individual chairs selected to harmonize, and complete 2 or 3 piece ensembles.

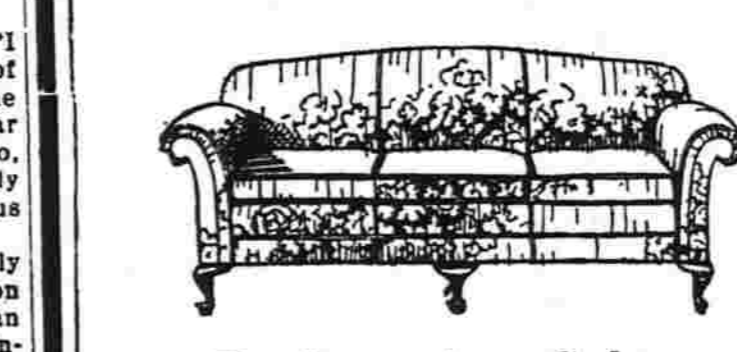

Select your davenport for its good lines... for style that will last... for its comfort... its covering.....

and for its construction. If you do, you'll choose one of these Watkins pieces or any of the dozens of others on display here at all times!

The Lawson Sofa $89

The Lawson Sofa, recognized by its square, panel-back, roll arms that are the same height at the back as at front, and usually by square, tapered legs, is of English inspiration. The Wooster model, sketched, is in denim.

The Queen Anne Sofa $59

Probably our most popular davenport is this graceful Queen Anne Pickwick model. It has just the right roll to the arms, the right slant to the back and grace to its cabriole feet to make it stylish and comfortable. Denim covered.

The Ball-Foot Sofa $89

This Berkshire sofa gives a heavier, more comfortable look to a larger room, than a sofa with lighter legs, although its lines really are light and graceful. It, too, is covered in the sunfast denim which is so popular. In tapestry $119.

Love Seats $79 up

The home that does not offer a wall space large enough for a full length davenport can often use a two-cushion love seat, like this. In many large living rooms they are used in addition to the davenport.

The Tuxedo Sofa $89

In the Southwick sofa, sketched, we have another English model, fashioned with arms that almost reach as high as the back! A feature of this model is the sturdy square tapered legs used. It is upholstered in sunfast denim and comes with spring filled seat cushions. Like all other Watkins davenports, it can be had in special covers to order.

WATKINS BROTHERS, Inc.
 54 YEARS AT SOUTH MANCHESTER

FOR SALE
Olin R. Wood Property
 Property recently vacated by Judge Olin R. Wood at Buckland consisting of house, barn, garage, wagon-shed, and five and one-half acres of land.
 One lot on Oakland St., 132 ft. frontage on Oakland St., near what is known as Bissell Switch, lot consists of approximately two acres of land, with good growth of wood.
 Three lots on Hilliard St.
 For information inquire at office of Wm. Foulds & Co.
 Call for Wm. Foulds, Jr.
 10 Depot Square, Phone 430

Crystal Lake, Wednesday evening, the 15th, when Connecticut's largest and most beautiful ballroom re-modeled and elaborately decorated will open for the season. A record crowd will be on hand to hear this famous dance band.

It will be of interest to a great many Manchester people to learn that Mal Hallett and his famous orchestra has been secured for Sandy Beach Ballroom and they

DAILY RADIO PROGRAM

Monday, May 13. Forseeing for the moment the class room and its perplexities, 75 students of the University of Pennsylvania...

HOW BRIDGEPORT GETS INDUSTRIES

26 Factories With Payroll of Over 4 Million, Won Within 3 Years.

The Industrial Bureau of the Bridgeport Chamber of Commerce, on a budget of $13,000 per year, has brought into Bridgeport 26 new factories with an annual payroll of between four and five million dollars during the last three years.

Rockville

Electric Sign at Sandy Beach. The handsome new electric sign that has just been completed on the roof of the Sandy Beach Ballroom at Crystal Lake is attracting a great deal of attention and much favorable comment.

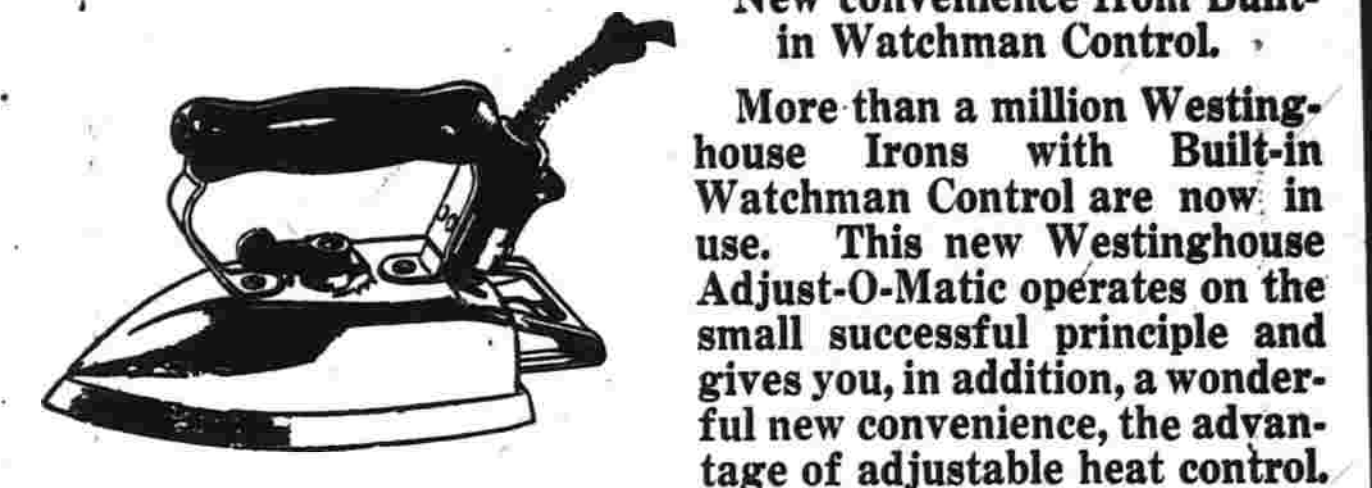

In Court Saturday

Syril Fournier, 36, of Stafford Springs was sentenced to 30 days at the Tolland County jail at Tolland and ordered to pay costs of $10.43 when he was found guilty of intoxication and breach of the peace.

Accident on Somers Road. Mrs. William Howell of Elm street met with an accident Saturday afternoon when a bee entered the machine which Mrs. Howell was driving.

Special For May

THE NEW ADJUST-O-MATIC FLAT IRON

New convenience from Built-in Watchman Control. More than a million Westinghouse Irons with Built-in Watchman Control are now in use.

ONLY 75c DOWN $8.75 VALUE $15.00 $1.00 A MONTH

The Manchester Electric Co. 773 MAIN ST. PHONE 1700

The Modern Way to Shop

A & P food stores are always up to the minute. If a new food appears, you'll find it at the A & P, after, of course, it has proven its right to a place on A & P shelves.

Lux Toilet Soap 3 CAKES 19c

Shredded Wheat 2 PKGS 19c

P & G Soap 10 BARS 39c

Iona Peaches LARGE CAN 15c

Baking Powder ROYAL. The nationally known Cream of Tartar baking powder—experts prefer it. 12 OZ TIN 43c

Asparagus Tips DEL MONTE. California's finest asparagus... just right for salads or on toast. CAN 29c

BRILLO FIG BARS BAKER'S EXTRACT COFFEE GELATINE DOUGHNUTS CANDY

BOKAR COFFEE SUPREME GRANDMOTHER'S BREAD

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

NATIONAL

Table with columns for National League teams and their records.

WTIC PROGRAMS

Travelers, Hartford 500 m. 600 K. C. Program for Monday. Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

HARTFORD GAMES

Table showing SATURDAY'S GAME and SUNDAY'S GAMES for Hartford.

AT NEW YORK

Table showing CUBS & GIANTS GAMES for New York.

AT BROOKLYN

Table showing CARDS 13, ROBINS 7 GAMES for Brooklyn.

AT BOSTON

Table showing REDS & BRAVES GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing REDS & BRAVES GAMES for Boston.

AT ALLTOWN

Table showing GAMES for Alltown.

AT HARTFORD

Table showing GAMES for Hartford.

AT ALLTOWN

Table showing GAMES for Alltown.

AT HARTFORD

Table showing GAMES for Hartford.

AT ALLTOWN

Table showing GAMES for Alltown.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

AT BOSTON

Table showing GAMES for Boston.

Now Is The Time to have your Coat, Suit or Dress cleaned and pressed, or perhaps you would like a change in color in these garments.

Manchesters Cleaners & Dyers 129 Center St. Phone 952

ASPARAGUS

Louis L. Grant Buckland, Conn. Phone 1549

The WOMAN'S DAY

Anne Morrow, is the modern equivalent of the fairy princess...

Daily Health Service - BELIEF THAT FISH CAUSE TYPHOID IS HELIC OF DARK AGES

PRINCESS IS SNOOTY. But the fairy princess in hundreds and thousands of Cinderellas is denying her lessers all the colorful tidings of romance they crave.

THE MARTYR'S PRICE. After all, though it's an injustice and all that, Mrs. Mary Ware Bennett's conviction has done more for the cause of decent scientific sex enlightenment than all the pleas for that very thing ever written.

POOR OLD HANK! A reading of Francis Hackett's "Henry the Eighth" makes one wonder again why women always get the breaks in historical recordings to their goings-on.

"NAPPY" TOO! Some recent biographies of Napoleon have shown him up as more crucified by Josephine than crucified by the French.

WHY DID I? Tom Walton, Jr., 21, of Amarillo, Texas, told his mother that he had secretly married Theresa Hamilton, 19, daughter of former Judge R. H. Hamilton of the Texas Supreme Court's Commission of Appeals.

MRS. ADA M. MERRIFIELD - Teacher of Mandolin, Banjo, Ukulele, etc.

HOTEL ST. JAMES - TIMES SQUARE NEW YORK CITY

How About A Shampoo FOR YOUR RUGS? - The Cleaners That Clean

DOESN'T IT GET YOUR GOAT?

Illustration by NEA Service, Inc.

TODAY IS THE ANNIVERSARY

JAMESTOWN FOUNDED.

Today is the anniversary of the founding of the first permanent English colony in America—Jamestown, Virginia, in 1607.

YOUR CHILDREN

by Olive Roberts Barton ©1928 by NEA Service, Inc.

Isn't it quite possible that we've overdone the "order" idea sometimes? In our anxiety to keep our houses tidy, we preach this doctrine to the children.

A THOUGHT

The price that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor; but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.—Prov. 23:16.

Women have the understanding of the heart which is better than that of the head.—Rogers.

SILKEN LACES - A navy blue crepe Roma dress laces its sleeves to the elbow, its white georgette vestee and the sides of its skirt's yoke with little silken laces of self fabric.

EVENING PURSES - The finely beaded purse for evening is extremely popular. An off-white, with an intricate pattern in pastel colored beads, is an excellent choice for it goes well with any colored chiffon frock.

I'LL TRY RINSO ALL MY NEIGHBORS USE IT - MY WIFE LIKES IT TOO, SHE SAYS IT GETS CLOTHES WHITER

Washday so easy now! JUST soak the whole week's wash in thick, creamy Rinsol suds.

Rinsol - The guaranteed soap - scrub clothes whiter

QUOTATIONS

"Frankly I think that youth has been talked about nearly enough for its own good." - The Bishop of London.

"As the mother of an only child, I do not consider that the scope of my parental achievement is anything to boast about in public." - May Edington, novelist and playwright.

"During the eight years I have listened to these discussions on the prohibition question, I have never heard a syllable from anybody condemning the fellow for shooting down a prohibition agent, the man appointed by the government to enforce the law. Nobody has shed crocodile tears over their families." - Representative Williamson, South Dakota.

"A day of leisure spent quietly at home would now have for many people all the charm of novelty." - Bishop of Swansea, Wales.

THE ANSWER. Here is the answer to the Letter Golf puzzle on comic page. SHAPE, SHAME, SHAMS, SEAMS, BEANS, BEARS, BEARD.

Points at which C. C. Pyle's racing robots stop for the night are called "control stations." However, there seems no way to bring those fellows under control.

Ensemble Playing for Advanced Pupils. Agent for Gibson Instruments, 865 Main St., Hartford Building, Rooms 16-17, Telephone 7409, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday

THE FINAL ADOPTION OF A GIBSON PROPOSAL for unlimited armistices for those countries having compulsory military service would be a comedy on disarmament and would hang a war cloud over Europe.

"A day of leisure spent quietly at home would now have for many people all the charm of novelty."

Points at which C. C. Pyle's racing robots stop for the night are called "control stations."

Ensemble Playing for Advanced Pupils. Agent for Gibson Instruments, 865 Main St., Hartford Building, Rooms 16-17, Telephone 7409, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday

THE FINAL ADOPTION OF A GIBSON PROPOSAL for unlimited armistices for those countries having compulsory military service would be a comedy on disarmament and would hang a war cloud over Europe.

"A day of leisure spent quietly at home would now have for many people all the charm of novelty."

Points at which C. C. Pyle's racing robots stop for the night are called "control stations."

Ensemble Playing for Advanced Pupils. Agent for Gibson Instruments, 865 Main St., Hartford Building, Rooms 16-17, Telephone 7409, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday

THE FINAL ADOPTION OF A GIBSON PROPOSAL for unlimited armistices for those countries having compulsory military service would be a comedy on disarmament and would hang a war cloud over Europe.

"A day of leisure spent quietly at home would now have for many people all the charm of novelty."

RICH GIRL & POOR GIRL

by RUTH DEWEY GROVES

THIS HAS HAPPENED.

MILDRED LAWRENCE falls in love with STEPHEN ARMITAGE, who is lured away by PAMELA JUDSON when she tells him Mildred is trying to marry her brother, HAROLD, for money.

Harold had once told her he feared Huck, who had threatened to get rid of Stephen to keep him from marrying Pamela.

In desperation, she goes to Mr. JUDSON, who takes her to headquarters to tell her story.

Mrs. Judson left the piano when she saw her husband, Pamela and Stephen and came to the door of the dining room.

An amused smile played on her lips as she watched Pamela lose her battle to keep Stephen there.

The he turned to his wife. "Will you leave us alone for a while, my dear? I've something very important to say to Pamela."

Mrs. Judson came up and kissed him softly on the cheek. "I hope you aren't going to let her keep that sapphire necklace," she whispered.

Mr. Judson patted her on the shoulder. "You shall have one too, my dear," he answered, "from the fullness of it is wisdom."

"Well," Pamela said with a very disagreeable inflection and seated herself in a chair on a satin damask chair. "Shoot!"

"Pamela answered with an impudent loss of her head. "You had no business to send Stephen away. I'd a thousand things to say to him."

"Pamela, I won't have you speaking to me in such manner." "Then don't be a parent!" Pamela flung back at him.

"I see," Mr. Judson returned. "You resent authority, but you're ready enough to accept what a parent can give you in the way of sapphire necklace and nice looking penniless young men."

Pamela sat up, interested at once. "What do you mean by that?" she asked unasily.

"I mean that I shall buy the necklace for you." Pamela stared at him wide-eyed and her mouth open.

"If you apologize for your impertinence," Mr. Judson added firmly. Pamela shrugged. "Oh well, of course, daddy, but you know that you have the upper hand. You want me to admire you, don't you?"

"It isn't surprising to use your wealth to tyrannize me," Pamela went on in an appealing accent. "I am not trying to bribe you to be courteous," her father denied coldly.

"But you expect me to lie down and roll over when you say Rover." "Pamela!" Pamela jumped from her chair, ran over and reached her arms up around his neck.

"You're a holdover from days that are gone forever," she laughed. "You send my man away and expect me to say, 'thank you father dear.' It isn't being done, darling. Kids are people too."

Her father loosened her arms and put his hands on her shoulders, holding her off from him and looking at her unsmilingly. "Your man," he said, and there was an edge of scorn in his voice. "Why don't you say 'my man and my necklace?' They're both things I am expected to pay for."

Pamela's indignation expressed itself in a stamp of her foot. She jerked her shoulders free and glared at her parent with open hostility.

"You've only met Stephen just today. How can you judge him?" "I'm not blind. He scarcely knows you're on earth, Pam."

"You shouldn't be upset? He's a friend of her family and she was more loyal to him than I was—but of course she knew about Huck Connor. But he's not in love with her, dad. I know he isn't."

"She looked at him beseechingly and Mr. Judson softened out. "You know you will be the chief sufferer if you make a mistake about this," he warned her soberly.

"I really don't know," very stiffly. "Oh yes you do," Pamela said hastily. "And how would you like it if I suggested that she had married you for your money?"

"Let me have my way, daddy," she pleaded. "Stephen wants to marry me. We've gone away for our honeymoon and I'll be such a wonderful wife he'll be crazy about me."

"You're the dearest person in the world," Pamela told him joyfully. "Wait until Stephen and I present you a little row of grandchildren and see how happy we'll all be."

"I'm doing all in my power. My lawyer learned from Armitage that it was a detective named Short, for the insurance company, who found the planted evidence in his room. There was not time to communicate with Short today, but tomorrow we'll see if he can't locate the man Armitage suspects of being implicated in the theft of the car."

"What would happen if Stephen and I were to be married and go on a trip?" "I'd lose the bonds I've put up for his reappearance."

"No, it wasn't love for him that induced me to keep him here," her father agreed. "Frankly, he is most unwelcome and I shall have a talk with him before I accept him as my future son-in-law."

get to Armitage outside and we'll have a better chance of apprehending him or some one who knows where he is hiding. If we keep a strict watch on Armitage, we believe."

"I don't see what Huck would want to do to him now." "We think he doesn't want him to marry you, Pam, and that he will go to any length to prevent it. You've got to be very careful."

"Please call up Stephen," she said nervously. Her father stepped to the telephone and asked for Stephen's room.

"Have you told him you would do that?" "I'll tell him anything. But what is the difference? If we know that he doesn't expect to live on your money that's all that matters, isn't it?"

"I hope you're right about Armitage," he said in surrender and drew her to his breast. He was trembling with emotion. His eyes flashed suddenly through the life of his child, was not admirable to him. He had set her an example. And she had shown him that he had no right to forbid her to drink where he himself had drunk.

"You're the dearest person in the world," Pamela told him joyfully. "Wait until Stephen and I present you a little row of grandchildren and see how happy we'll all be."

"I'm doing all in my power. My lawyer learned from Armitage that it was a detective named Short, for the insurance company, who found the planted evidence in his room. There was not time to communicate with Short today, but tomorrow we'll see if he can't locate the man Armitage suspects of being implicated in the theft of the car."

"What would happen if Stephen and I were to be married and go on a trip?" "I'd lose the bonds I've put up for his reappearance."

"No, it wasn't love for him that induced me to keep him here," her father agreed. "Frankly, he is most unwelcome and I shall have a talk with him before I accept him as my future son-in-law."

get to Armitage outside and we'll have a better chance of apprehending him or some one who knows where he is hiding. If we keep a strict watch on Armitage, we believe."

"I don't see what Huck would want to do to him now." "We think he doesn't want him to marry you, Pam, and that he will go to any length to prevent it. You've got to be very careful."

"Please call up Stephen," she said nervously. Her father stepped to the telephone and asked for Stephen's room.

"Have you told him you would do that?" "I'll tell him anything. But what is the difference? If we know that he doesn't expect to live on your money that's all that matters, isn't it?"

"I hope you're right about Armitage," he said in surrender and drew her to his breast. He was trembling with emotion. His eyes flashed suddenly through the life of his child, was not admirable to him. He had set her an example. And she had shown him that he had no right to forbid her to drink where he himself had drunk.

"You're the dearest person in the world," Pamela told him joyfully. "Wait until Stephen and I present you a little row of grandchildren and see how happy we'll all be."

"I'm doing all in my power. My lawyer learned from Armitage that it was a detective named Short, for the insurance company, who found the planted evidence in his room. There was not time to communicate with Short today, but tomorrow we'll see if he can't locate the man Armitage suspects of being implicated in the theft of the car."

"What would happen if Stephen and I were to be married and go on a trip?" "I'd lose the bonds I've put up for his reappearance."

"No, it wasn't love for him that induced me to keep him here," her father agreed. "Frankly, he is most unwelcome and I shall have a talk with him before I accept him as my future son-in-law."

get to Armitage outside and we'll have a better chance of apprehending him or some one who knows where he is hiding. If we keep a strict watch on Armitage, we believe."

"I don't see what Huck would want to do to him now." "We think he doesn't want him to marry you, Pam, and that he will go to any length to prevent it. You've got to be very careful."

"Please call up Stephen," she said nervously. Her father stepped to the telephone and asked for Stephen's room.

"Have you told him you would do that?" "I'll tell him anything. But what is the difference? If we know that he doesn't expect to live on your money that's all that matters, isn't it?"

"I hope you're right about Armitage," he said in surrender and drew her to his breast. He was trembling with emotion. His eyes flashed suddenly through the life of his child, was not admirable to him. He had set her an example. And she had shown him that he had no right to forbid her to drink where he himself had drunk.

"You're the dearest person in the world," Pamela told him joyfully. "Wait until Stephen and I present you a little row of grandchildren and see how happy we'll all be."

"I'm doing all in my power. My lawyer learned from Armitage that it was a detective named Short, for the insurance company, who found the planted evidence in his room. There was not time to communicate with Short today, but tomorrow we'll see if he can't locate the man Armitage suspects of being implicated in the theft of the car."

"What would happen if Stephen and I were to be married and go on a trip?" "I'd lose the bonds I've put up for his reappearance."

"No, it wasn't love for him that induced me to keep him here," her father agreed. "Frankly, he is most unwelcome and I shall have a talk with him before I accept him as my future son-in-law."

get to Armitage outside and we'll have a better chance of apprehending him or some one who knows where he is hiding. If we keep a strict watch on Armitage, we believe."

"I don't see what Huck would want to do to him now." "We think he doesn't want him to marry you, Pam, and that he will go to any length to prevent it. You've got to be very careful."

"Please call up Stephen," she said nervously. Her father stepped to the telephone and asked for Stephen's room.

"Have you told him you would do that?" "I'll tell him anything. But what is the difference? If we know that he doesn't expect to live on your money that's all that matters, isn't it?"

"I hope you're right about Armitage," he said in surrender and drew her to his breast. He was trembling with emotion. His eyes flashed suddenly through the life of his child, was not admirable to him. He had set her an example. And she had shown him that he had no right to forbid her to drink where he himself had drunk.

"You're the dearest person in the world," Pamela told him joyfully. "Wait until Stephen and I present you a little row of grandchildren and see how happy we'll all be."

"I'm doing all in my power. My lawyer learned from Armitage that it was a detective named Short, for the insurance company, who found the planted evidence in his room. There was not time to communicate with Short today, but tomorrow we'll see if he can't locate the man Armitage suspects of being implicated in the theft of the car."

"What would happen if Stephen and I were to be married and go on a trip?" "I'd lose the bonds I've put up for his reappearance."

"No, it wasn't love for him that induced me to keep him here," her father agreed. "Frankly, he is most unwelcome and I shall have a talk with him before I accept him as my future son-in-law."

get to Armitage outside and we'll have a better chance of apprehending him or some one who knows where he is hiding. If we keep a strict watch on Armitage, we believe."

"I don't see what Huck would want to do to him now." "We think he doesn't want him to marry you, Pam, and that he will go to any length to prevent it. You've got to be very careful."

"Please call up Stephen," she said nervously. Her father stepped to the telephone and asked for Stephen's room.

"Have you told him you would do that?" "I'll tell him anything. But what is the difference? If we know that he doesn't expect to live on your money that's all that matters, isn't it?"

"I hope you're right about Armitage," he said in surrender and drew her to his breast. He was trembling with emotion. His eyes flashed suddenly through the life of his child, was not admirable to him. He had set her an example. And she had shown him that he had no right to forbid her to drink where he himself had drunk.

"You're the dearest person in the world," Pamela told him joyfully. "Wait until Stephen and I present you a little row of grandchildren and see how happy we'll all be."

"I'm doing all in my power. My lawyer learned from Armitage that it was a detective named Short, for the insurance company, who found the planted evidence in his room. There was not time to communicate with Short today, but tomorrow we'll see if he can't locate the man Armitage suspects of being implicated in the theft of the car."

"What would happen if Stephen and I were to be married and go on a trip?" "I'd lose the bonds I've put up for his reappearance."

"No, it wasn't love for him that induced me to keep him here," her father agreed. "Frankly, he is most unwelcome and I shall have a talk with him before I accept him as my future son-in-law."

get to Armitage outside and we'll have a better chance of apprehending him or some one who knows where he is hiding. If we keep a strict watch on Armitage, we believe."

"I don't see what Huck would want to do to him now." "We think he doesn't want him to marry you, Pam, and that he will go to any length to prevent it. You've got to be very careful."

"Please call up Stephen," she said nervously. Her father stepped to the telephone and asked for Stephen's room.

"Have you told him you would do that?" "I'll tell him anything. But what is the difference? If we know that he doesn't expect to live on your money that's all that matters, isn't it?"

"I hope you're right about Armitage," he said in surrender and drew her to his breast. He was trembling with emotion. His eyes flashed suddenly through the life of his child, was not admirable to him. He had set her an example. And she had shown him that he had no right to forbid her to drink where he himself had drunk.

"You're the dearest person in the world," Pamela told him joyfully. "Wait until Stephen and I present you a little row of grandchildren and see how happy we'll all be."

"I'm doing all in my power. My lawyer learned from Armitage that it was a detective named Short, for the insurance company, who found the planted evidence in his room. There was not time to communicate with Short today, but tomorrow we'll see if he can't locate the man Armitage suspects of being implicated in the theft of the car."

"What would happen if Stephen and I were to be married and go on a trip?" "I'd lose the bonds I've put up for his reappearance."

"No, it wasn't love for him that induced me to keep him here," her father agreed. "Frankly, he is most unwelcome and I shall have a talk with him before I accept him as my future son-in-law."

get to Armitage outside and we'll have a better chance of apprehending him or some one who knows where he is hiding. If we keep a strict watch on Armitage, we believe."

"I don't see what Huck would want to do to him now." "We think he doesn't want him to marry you, Pam, and that he will go to any length to prevent it. You've got to be very careful."

"Please call up Stephen," she said nervously. Her father stepped to the telephone and asked for Stephen's room.

"Have you told him you would do that?" "I'll tell him anything. But what is the difference? If we know that he doesn't expect to live on your money that's all that matters, isn't it?"

"I hope you're right about Armitage," he said in surrender and drew her to his breast. He was trembling with emotion. His eyes flashed suddenly through the life of his child, was not admirable to him. He had set her an example. And she had shown him that he had no right to forbid her to drink where he himself had drunk.

"You're the dearest person in the world," Pamela told him joyfully. "Wait until Stephen and I present you a little row of grandchildren and see how happy we'll all be."

"I'm doing all in my power. My lawyer learned from Armitage that it was a detective named Short, for the insurance company, who found the planted evidence in his room. There was not time to communicate with Short today, but tomorrow we'll see if he can't locate the man Armitage suspects of being implicated in the theft of the car."

"What would happen if Stephen and I were to be married and go on a trip?" "I'd lose the bonds I've put up for his reappearance."

"No, it wasn't love for him that induced me to keep him here," her father agreed. "Frankly, he is most unwelcome and I shall have a talk with him before I accept him as my future son-in-law."

get to Armitage outside and we'll have a better chance of apprehending him or some one who knows where he is hiding. If we keep a strict watch on Armitage, we believe."

"I don't see what Huck would want to do to him now." "We think he doesn't want him to marry you, Pam, and that he will go to any length to prevent it. You've got to be very careful."

"Please call up Stephen," she said nervously. Her father stepped to the telephone and asked for Stephen's room.

"Have you told him you would do that?" "I'll tell him anything. But what is the difference? If we know that he doesn't expect to live on your money that's all that matters, isn't it?"

"I hope you're right about Armitage," he said in surrender and drew her to his breast. He was trembling with emotion. His eyes flashed suddenly through the life of his child, was not admirable to him. He had set her an example. And she had shown him that he had no right to forbid her to drink where he himself had drunk.

"You're the dearest person in the world," Pamela told him joyfully. "Wait until Stephen and I present you a little row of grandchildren and see how happy we'll all be."

"I'm doing all in my power. My lawyer learned from Armitage that it was a detective named Short, for the insurance company, who found the planted evidence in his room. There was not time to communicate with Short today, but tomorrow we'll see if he can't locate the man Armitage suspects of being implicated in the theft of the car."

"What would happen if Stephen and I were to be married and go on a trip?" "I'd lose the bonds I've put up for his reappearance."

"No, it wasn't love for him that induced me to keep him here," her father agreed. "Frankly, he is most unwelcome and I shall have a talk with him before I accept him as my future son-in-law."

get to Armitage outside and we'll have a better chance of apprehending him or some one who knows where he is hiding. If we keep a strict watch on Armitage, we believe."

"I don't see what Huck would want to do to him now." "We think he doesn't want him to marry you, Pam, and that he will go to any length to prevent it. You've got to be very careful."

"Please call up Stephen," she said nervously. Her father stepped to the telephone and asked for Stephen's room.

"Have you told him you would do that?" "I'll tell him anything. But what is the difference? If we know that he doesn't expect to live on your money that's all that matters, isn't it?"

"I hope you're right about Armitage," he said in surrender and drew her to his breast. He was trembling with emotion. His eyes flashed suddenly through the life of his child, was not admirable to him. He had set her an example. And she had shown him that he had no right to forbid her to drink where he himself had drunk.

"You're the dearest person in the world," Pamela told him joyfully. "Wait until Stephen and I present you a little row of grandchildren and see how happy we'll all be."

"I'm doing all in my power. My lawyer learned from Armitage that it was a detective named Short, for the insurance company, who found the planted evidence in his room. There was not time to communicate with Short today, but tomorrow we'll see if he can't locate the man Armitage suspects of being implicated in the theft of the car."

"What would happen if Stephen and I were to be married and go on a trip?" "I'd lose the bonds I've put up for his reappearance."

"No, it wasn't love for him that induced me to keep him here," her father agreed. "Frankly, he is most unwelcome and I shall have a talk with him before I accept him as my future son-in-law."

get to Armitage outside and we'll have a better chance of apprehending him or some one who knows where he is hiding. If we keep a strict watch on Armitage, we believe."

"I don't see what Huck would want to do to him now." "We think he doesn't want him to marry you, Pam, and that he will go to any length to prevent it. You've got to be very careful."

"Please call up Stephen," she said nervously. Her father stepped to the telephone and asked for Stephen's room.

"Have you told him you would do that?" "I'll tell him anything. But what is the difference? If we know that he doesn't expect to live on your money that's all that matters, isn't it?"

"I hope you're right about Armitage," he said in surrender and drew her to his breast. He was trembling with emotion. His eyes flashed suddenly through the life of his child, was not admirable to him. He had set her an example. And she had shown him that he had no right to forbid her to drink where he himself had drunk.

"You're the dearest person in the world," Pamela told him joyfully. "Wait until Stephen and I present you a little row of grandchildren and see how happy we'll all be."

"I'm doing all in my power. My lawyer learned from Armitage that it was a detective named Short, for the insurance company, who found the planted evidence in his room. There was not time to communicate with Short today, but tomorrow we'll see if he can't locate the man Armitage suspects of being implicated in the theft of the car."

"What would happen if Stephen and I were to be married and go on a trip?" "I'd lose the bonds I've put up for his reappearance."

"No, it wasn't love for him that induced me to keep him here," her father agreed. "Frankly, he is most unwelcome and I shall have a talk with him before I accept him as my future son-in-law."

get to Armitage outside and we'll have a better chance of apprehending him or some one who knows where he is hiding. If we keep a strict watch on Armitage, we believe."

"I don't see what Huck would want to do to him now." "We think he doesn't want him to marry you, Pam, and that he will go to any length to prevent it. You've got to be very careful."

"Please

New Manchester Team Wins Exhibition Game 2-1

Errors Again Prove M. H. S. Nine's Undoing

Errors once more spelled doom for Coach Tom Kelley's Manchester High school baseball team at Meriden Saturday afternoon and the Silver City schoolboys were returned 11 to 4 winners. Manchester's next game will be with East Hartford here Wednesday afternoon.

Ray Woodbridge started on the mound for the local team against Meriden for the first time this season and lasted only a third of an inning. Seven batters faced the Manchester Green in before Roy Fraser, a wild pitch, a sacrifice hit and a single accounted for three runs and left the bases loaded before Woodbridge was relieved.

Fraser forced the next two batters to fly out to Dowd and Vennart in the outfield and the side was retired without further scoring. However, in the next inning two hits and an error by Samuelson paved the way for two more Meriden tallies and a 5 to 1 lead. Manchester's run came when Bycholski singled, stole second, advanced to third on an infield out and romped home when Teller booted Samuelson's hard grounder.

Fraser continued to hold the Meriden team well in hand as the game progressed and but for errors might have been returned the victor. Misplays by O'Leary and Moriarty coupled with a single gave Meriden two more runs in the fourth and then Manchester came to life scoring three runs and bringing the count up to 7-4.

Singles by Dowd and Magnuson interspersed with a pass to O'Leary accounted for the first run. The other two came in the sixth when Bycholski, M. Moriarty and Fraser cracked out singles and the bases were full. The seventh passed without a score but in the eighth Manchester's defense again cracked wide open. Two errors both by Samuelson bringing his total up to eight for the last two games and four hits brought in four runs and put the game on ice.

Manchester's injury fielded badly making seven misplays but also fell down with the bat in the pinch. Vennart whiffed with the bases loaded to end the inning and O'Leary was a similar victim with two sacks occupied. The latter, however, contributed to the game when he dashed in from third to make a shoe-string catch and then doubled a runner at first.

Ted Lupien, Manchester's regular left fielder, was still on the bench because of his thumb against East Hartford. Coach Kelley may also make a change in the infield. Samuelson's poor fielding of late is said to have brought Kelley to the point of giving O'Leary a chance to show his worth. The latter made two bobbles Saturday.

McConkey and Teller were banished in the first inning after they had come to bat when the latter knocked Dave down at third base.

The summary:

Meriden High (11) W. A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E.
Teller, 3b 1 2 0 0 2 0
Stone, 3b 3 0 0 0 2 0
Orenlich, 2b 3 2 1 4 0 0
Petroske, ss 4 2 2 1 5 0
Sprafke, 1b 4 3 2 14 0 0
Rosa, c 3 0 1 6 0 0
Veroneau, cf 5 0 0 0 1 0
Vincent, p 2 0 0 0 1 0
H. Moriarty, rf 2 0 0 0 0 0
Burlight, lf 4 0 0 0 0 0
Hanley, rf 4 1 0 0 0 0
Total 26 11 9 27 14 1

Manchester High (4)
A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E.
Samuelson, ss 5 0 0 3 1 4
M. Moriarty, 2b 5 1 2 1 1 1
E. Dowd, lf 5 1 3 3 1 1
McConkey, 3b 0 0 0 0 0 0
O'Leary, 3b 0 0 0 0 0 0
Magnuson, rf 0 0 0 0 0 0
H. Moriarty, lf 0 0 0 0 0 0
Vennart, cf 0 0 0 0 0 0
Bycholski, c 2 3 6 1 0
Woodbridge, p 0 0 0 0 0 0
Fraser, p 3 1 1 2 8 7
Total 28 4 11 24 8 7

AMERICAN

CHIXO & NATIONALS 2
Chicago

A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Mostil, cf	4	0	1	3	0	0	0
Metzler, lf	4	1	2	2	1	0	0
Kamm, 2b	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Clancy, 3b	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Hoffman, rf	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Hedford, ss	4	0	0	1	0	0	0
Hunnefeld, 2b	3	0	0	1	0	0	0
Cissell, ss	3	0	0	1	0	0	0
Reynolds, lf	3	0	0	1	0	0	0
Grouse, c	3	0	0	1	0	0	0
Berg, c	3	0	0	1	0	0	0
Faber, p	1	0	0	0	0	0	0
Autrey, xx	1	0	0	0	0	0	0
Kerr, a	1	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total	34	3	10	27	16	2	0

Washington

A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Rice, rf	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Judge, 1b	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Goslin, lf	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Bludge, 2b	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Cronin, ss	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Hayes, 3b	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Zate, c	3	1	4	0	1	0	0
Burke, p	2	0	0	0	0	0	0
Hedley, p	2	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total	27	2	12	25	2	0	0

TIGERS & YANKEES 7
Detroit

A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Johnson, lf	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Stone, c	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Gehring, 2b	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Hellmeyer, 3b	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
McManus, 3b	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Phillips, c	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Whitehill, p	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Stoner, p	4	0	1	2	0	0	0
Total	35	0	16	27	14	2	0

BROWNS IS. RED SOX 3
St. Louis

A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Blue, 1b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
McGowan, rf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Wright, lf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Schutte, cf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Kress, ss	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
O'Rourke, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
McWilliams, 3b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Schana, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
CS'ins, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Total	39	13	18	21	12	1	0

Boston

A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Rothrock, cf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Rhyno, lf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Karlson, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Strandard, 1b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bigelow, cf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Barrett, 3b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Gillie, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Asbjornson, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Russell, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bayne, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Durham, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Taitt, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Williams, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Rieves, xxx	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Total	39	13	18	21	12	1	0

St. Louis

A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Rhyno, lf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Karlson, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Strandard, 1b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bigelow, cf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Barrett, 3b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Gillie, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Asbjornson, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Russell, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bayne, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Durham, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Taitt, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Williams, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Rieves, xxx	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Total	39	13	18	21	12	1	0

St. Louis

A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Rhyno, lf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Karlson, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Strandard, 1b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bigelow, cf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Barrett, 3b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Gillie, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Asbjornson, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Russell, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bayne, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Durham, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Taitt, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Williams, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Rieves, xxx	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Total	39	13	18	21	12	1	0

St. Louis

A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Rhyno, lf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Karlson, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Strandard, 1b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bigelow, cf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Barrett, 3b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Gillie, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Asbjornson, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Russell, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bayne, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Durham, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Taitt, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Williams, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Rieves, xxx	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Total	39	13	18	21	12	1	0

St. Louis

A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Rhyno, lf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Karlson, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Strandard, 1b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bigelow, cf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Barrett, 3b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Gillie, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Asbjornson, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Russell, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bayne, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Durham, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Taitt, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Williams, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Rieves, xxx	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Total	39	13	18	21	12	1	0

St. Louis

A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Rhyno, lf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Karlson, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Strandard, 1b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bigelow, cf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Barrett, 3b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Gillie, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Asbjornson, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Russell, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bayne, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Durham, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Taitt, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Williams, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Rieves, xxx	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Total	39	13	18	21	12	1	0

St. Louis

A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Rhyno, lf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Karlson, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Strandard, 1b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bigelow, cf	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Barrett, 3b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Gillie, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Asbjornson, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Russell, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Bayne, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Durham, p	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Taitt, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Williams, c	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Rieves, xxx	4	1	1	2	0	0	0
Total	39	13	18	21	12	1	0

LEADING HITTERS IN MAJOR LEAGUES

National League

G.	A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Stephenson, Chl.	23	87	17	36	414
Fritch, St. L.	22	87	17	36	414
Gehring, Det.	23	87	17	36	414
Waner, Pitts.	17	70	13	27	386
O'Doul, N. Y.	19	73	16	27	370
Leader year ago today, Grantham, Pitts.	41

American League

G.	A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Jamieson, Cleve.	19	69	15	27	391
Fox, Phil.	23	87	17	36	414
Gehring, Det.	23	87	17	36	414
McManus, Det.	19	73	16	27	370
O'Doul, N. Y.	19	73	16	27	370
Leader year ago today, Kress, St. Louis, 512.

LEADING HITTERS IN EASTERN LEAGUE

A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E.

Demoe, N. H.	17	59	11	26	441
Conannon, Prv.	16	61	15	25	410
Harris, N. H.	16	61	15	25	410
Schinkel, Bgd.	16	61	15	25	410
Casey, N. H.	15	57	11	23	404

DEMPSEY SELECTS PAULINO OVER MAX

By DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, May 13.—Max Schmeling still may have more managers than a chain-store system when he has fulfilled certain obligations here in connection with Paulino on the night of June 27 but, by that time, he won't need managers. He will need sympathy.

This, in a slightly more repressed measure, was Jack Dempsey's general opinion today of the fight that it led to the heavy weight championship via a September engagement with Sharkey. The old champion wasn't quite as emphatic as the above paragraph might make him appear to have been but, nevertheless, he left no doubt of his belief that his German double would be well venerated on the evening in question.

Schmeling signed for the Paulino shot on Saturday in Montreal and thereby prepared the way for the elimination of two men from further consideration. One of these will be the loser of the fight he signed for. The other is Dempsey himself.

The signing of that contract definitely closed the door against Dempsey's return to the ring. He will not fight again and the reason he won't is that Schmeling is the man whom he has chosen as his own. Now that Paulino has got him, Dempsey will not be interested further. They have taken his lolly-pops away from him.

Dempsey doesn't admit that this is true. He doesn't have to. For the fact of the matter is that it is true. For

TALL CEDARS MINSTREL 7 ACTS VAUDEVILLE 7 AT CIRCLE THEATER FRIDAY, MAY 17, 8 P. M. Admission 50c ABOUT TOWN

The committee in charge of the drive held last July by the Swedish Lutheran church, will hold an important meeting at the church at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Miss Alice Jacquemin who has been ill for the past week at her home at 45 East Middle Turnpike, is reported as slightly improved.

The Beethoven Glee club will meet in the Swedish Lutheran church at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Troop 1 and 8, Boy Scouts, will meet at the Hollister street school and Lutheran Concordia church respectively at 7:15 o'clock tonight.

A surprise birthday party was held on Mrs. Ellen Modeman of 25 Trotter street, by a few friends and relatives, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Modeman received many gifts and flowers.

A card party for the benefit of the Daughters of Italy will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Antoinette Pero, 92 Clinton street. The hostesses will be Miss Mary Garibaldi and Mrs. Mary Aceto. Both Italian and American games will be played with prizes in each section and refreshments. Playing will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and the party is open to members and their friends.

Dilworth-Cornell Post American Legion and the women's auxiliary will hold a joint meeting at the State Armory at 8 o'clock this evening. Mrs. Thomas Dannaher heads the committee of arrangements for the social to follow the business.

Ever Ready Circle of Kings Daughters will meet tomorrow evening with Mrs. A. P. Lydall of Hudson street. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Wallace Jones, Mrs. C. W. King, Mrs. G. W. Whitney, Miss Mabel Lanphear, Mrs. C. B. Loomis, Mrs. George Borst will act as chairman of the devotional service and Bible study group, assisted by Miss Ida Holbrook, Miss Flora Stanley and Miss H. C. Devon. Reports will be given by the delegates who attended the Kings Daughters conference in Windsor, May 2.

Earl Judatz, formerly of this place, but now of New York spent the week end in Manchester, returning to New York last night.

Memorial Temple Pythian Sisters will meet tomorrow evening in Odd Fellows hall at 8 o'clock. After the business a Mothers' day program of music and recitations will be given and refreshments served by the following committees: Mrs. Mamie Dickinson, Mrs. Sarah DeVarney and Mrs. Mary Zimmerman.

The Ladies Guild of St. Mary's Episcopal church will have a special meeting in the parish home at 7:30 this evening and all members are urged to be present. New business will be acted upon and returns made for the recent supper and sale.

Mrs. J. B. Spencer of Hartford road who is recovering from a serious illness is convalescing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cowles of Hillstreet road.

Shepherd Encampment will have a meeting this evening in Odd Fellows hall at 7:30, when the patriarchal degree will be worked. Refreshments will be served after the business meeting.

Mrs. James Harrison and Mrs. L. Caverly will be delegates from St. Mary's church to the annual meeting of the women's auxiliary of Hartford Archdeaconry which will be held at St. John's church, Hartford, Wednesday, May 15, starting at 10 o'clock in the morning. All women of the parish, however, who are interested in the missionary work of the church are invited to attend this meeting.

Your Permanent Wave—more than any other—season, summer, with its "hairless" activities brings your coiffure into prominence. Phone 1522. The Weldon Beauty Parlor, or stop in and pay a visit and they will be happy to explain their scientific method of Permanent Waving.—Adv.

NOTICE!

Of the Tax Collector, South Manchester Fire District

All persons liable by law to pay taxes in the South Manchester Fire District of South Manchester, are hereby notified that I will have a rate bill for the List of 1932, of 1 1/2 mills on the dollar due and collectible on May 15. I will be at the No. 4 Fire Engine House on School street each day from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. for the collection of said tax. Interest will be added to all taxes remaining unpaid after June 15, 1933. Interest will start from May 15, 1933 and will be at the rate of 5 per cent to October 1, 1933 and at the rate of 10 per cent for balance of year. Interest at the rate of 12 per cent after then has been added. WILLIAM TAYLOR, Collector.

BIG INDIAN VILLAGE FOUND NEAR HERE

Local Expert Identifies Huge Glastonbury Camp as a Waugunk Metropolis.

Mathias E. Spiess, Manchester's expert in matters of local Indian lore, discovered on Saturday in the southern part of the town of Glastonbury, the site of one of the largest Indian villages ever found in this vicinity. It covered an area of 20 or 30 acres and must have been, according to Mr. Spiess' deductions, the winter home of a community of three or four thousand people.

There are no known records which might give a clue to the Indians' name for this town of theirs but it was unquestionably a metropolis of the Waugunk tribe which occupied the areas next south of those where the Podunks made their homes.

Cultivated Ground The land occupied by the Waugunk town is part of the old Ray Harding farm on a side road extending east from Trolley Station 4 1/2 of the Glastonbury line. It is largely under cultivation and the presence there of Indian relics has been known in the neighborhood for a long time. The site had never, however, been identified by any expert as that of a very large Indian settlement. Mr. Spiess, in going over the ground, found the remains of several hundred campfire-places and reports that the whole tract is strewn with fragments of stone implements and utensils that indicate a long period of occupancy.

The location of the village burial place was one of the things discovered. Another interesting fact is that around the ancient fireplaces there still remain quantities of charcoal in as good a state of preservation as if burned yesterday, and it is probably almost three hundred years since the Waugunks lived there and made the fires whose debris still exists. Mr. Spiess says that the Waugunks, like the Podunks, distributed themselves along the shores of the Connecticut river during the summer, where they made clearings, raised corn, killed deer and caught fish, but in the winter time concentrated in successive large organizations back from the river. The village whose site has now been disclosed was the most important of such winter villages found in a long time.

THREE LOCAL "FEETERS" MAKE VIRGINIA TRIP

Dr. E. G. Dolan, E. C. Elliott, Jr., and Frank Valluzzi Go to Richmond Over Week End.

Three Manchester men were included in the ranks of the Governor's Foot Guard and the Putnam Phalanx which returned from Richmond, Va., early this morning after giving a visit to battlefields and other historic sites. They are Dr. Edward G. Dolan, Probation Officer Edward C. Elliott Jr., and Frank Valluzzi, assistant district manager of the John Hancock Insurance Company here.

Elliott and Valluzzi are in the band, playing trombone and clarinet respectively. Dr. Dolan is in the rank of the Phalanx. More than 2,000 residents of Richmond were on hand to give the Connecticut contingent a rousing send-off on their return trip by train last evening. During the four day trip several colleges were visited, also the scene of Cornwallis' surrender at Yorktown. The members were introduced personally to both Governor Byrd of Virginia and Gov. Trumbull of Connecticut.

J. Fradin of Fradin's apparel shop is in New York on a business trip.

POLICE COURT

Joseph E. Carlson was before the court this morning for driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor and for resisting an officer. He was represented in court by Attorney Raymond Bowers who entered a plea of guilty to both charges. Carlson was arrested by Traffic Officer Albert Roberts Saturday evening at Vernon and Lydall streets. The officer said that Carlson was driving all over the road at an excessive speed.

When placed under arrest Carlson showed fight and the officer found it necessary to "put the irons" on him. At the police station Dr. D. C. Y. Moore was called in to examine Carlson. The man was very drunk, both the doctor and Capt. Schendel said. Attorney Bowers made a plea for leniency. He believed that the man should be deprived of a license to drive for an indefinite period. The fact that he had steady work and a family to support and his promise to make amends for his bad behavior was the reason given by his attorney for asking for a fine rather than a jail sentence.

Deputy Judge Thomas Ferguson gave Carlson one more opportunity to make good by imposing a fine of $100 and costs for driving while under the influence of liquor and a suspended jail sentence of ten days. In addition a fine of $15 was imposed for resisting an officer.

Nathan Lee of Vernon, for evading responsibility, paid a fine of $50 and costs. He struck a car driven by John King of West Hartford on Maple street Saturday evening and did not stop to learn the extent of the damage he had done. Mr. King gave chase after the man and had him arrested. Lee is a truck driver. He, too, was represented in court by Attorney Raymond Bowers. Lee also paid a fine of $10 for driving with improper brakes. Mothers' Day meant nothing to Matthew Armstrong of Lockwood street for instead of being kind to the mother of his children he started to beat his wife up and was making good progress when his wife's friends called for the police. Police-man John McGlinn was called for and went to the home, brought an aid to further beating on the part of the husband by loading him into the police car. He did not look like a fighter this morning in the police court when he was charged with assault, nor was there any comparison of weights. His wife would hardly tip the scales at 100 while his fighting weight must have been at least 150 pounds.

He had little to say for himself and on the statement of the prosecutor who told of the woman's snowing marks on her legs and body where he had beaten her. Deputy Judge Ferguson imposed a fine of $25 and costs. The fine and costs were paid by the wife.

The dance at the Italian Club on Norman street was largely attended both Saturday and Sunday. Interest in the club outdoor bowling (boccio) championship also runs high. Four of the members, Plantonita, Scaglioni, Plano and Harchesotti, will meet in the play-off for the title at 7 o'clock tonight.

The Permanent Memorial Day committee will meet in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 8 o'clock tonight.

SPECIAL ON SHOE REPAIRING

Men's Soles Sewed $1.00 Ladies' Soles Sewed 75c We use the best quality leather. Prompt attention. Boston Shoe Repair Shop 105 Spruce St., Near Bissell St.

WM. E. KRAH Expert Radio Service Philco Jars and Batteries RCA Tubes and New Sets. Phone 364-2

WATKINS BROTHERS, Inc. Funeral Directors ESTABLISHED 54 YEARS CHAPEL AT 11 OAK ST. Robert K. Anderson Funeral Director Phone 500 or 2837-W

When the plans are OK building material is the next thing to consider. Lumber forms a big part of the house, and should be selected with care. Don't waste good labor on poor material. Let a reliable yard furnish your lumber, and you will be sure of good quality at reasonable cost. W. G. Glenney Co. Coal, Lumber and Masons' Supplies Allen Place, Phone 126, Manchester

Model L-5-E KELVINATOR Exterior finish, White Duco on Parkerized steel. Three shelves and the bottom space have a total of 8.73 square feet. Food storage space 4.43 cubic feet. Two 21 cubic ice trays. One with rubber grid. Overall dimensions 23 11-32 inches wide, 22 1-2 inches deep and 54 3-8 inches high. Kelvinator is the lowest priced operating electric refrigerator on the market today. Come in and get the facts before you buy an electric refrigerator. We can save you money. MODEL L-5-E As Described Above $175.00 Installed All Kelvinators are equipped with baffle plates which mean better air circulation. ALFRED A. GREZEL Headquarters for Plumbing and Heating Supplies. Main St., Opp. Park Street, South Manchester

House Cleaning Needs That Will Lighten Dreary Cleaning Days

Water Color Window Shades 50c Water color, opaque cloth shades in cream color only. Slightly imperfect. Tuesday Only 18x33 Inch Window Screens 39c Black wire, heavy frame window screens, adjustable, size 18x33 inches. Limit four screens to each customer. Cocoa Fiber Door Mats $1.19 Good quality cocoa fiber door mats, size 16x27 inches. Regular $1.49 grade. Rubber Door Mats 79c Regular $1.00 corrugated rubber door mats; diamond pattern. Size 18x36 inches. Shelf Oil Cloth 5c Yard Remnants and discontinued patterns in shelf oil cloth. 12 inches wide. Galvanized Water Pails 39c 2 for 75c Heavy galvanized water pails with colored bands and handles. All Metal Mop Wringers $1.00 All metal mop wringers—sets on your pail. Bordered Rag Rugs 50c Plain colored rag rugs with colored borders. 24x36 inches. Tuesday Only 60c O'CEDAR POLISH 39c 30c size 19c O'cedar Wall Dusters $1.00 (Colored) Children's Garden Sets 25c Three-piece garden sets—shovel, rake and hoe. Self-Wringing Mops 39c Twist-Em self-wringing mop. No need to wring the mop with your hands. 69c grade. Table Tumblers 10c each Plain, thin blown table and ice tea tumblers in amber and pink colorings. Johnson's Paste Wax 69c Regular 85c can of Johnson's paste wax, special 69c. Pound can. Wire Rubbish Burners $1.00 Just what you need in the back yard for burning old papers and rubbish. 19 inches high. Galvanized Garbage Cans $1.25 Eight gallon size. Galvanized garbage can with self-locking covers. Assorted Fruit Baskets 39c Fancy fruit baskets in assorted color combinations. Cups and Saucers 15c each Ivory white cups and saucers suitable for daily use. Plates and cereal dishes, 10c. Axminster Rugs $1.69 Good patterns and colorings that are suitable for hall, living room and bedroom use. Size 23x36 inches. Housewares—Basement The J.W. Hale Company SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONN.

PHONES Pinehurst "GOOD THINGS TO EAT" OUT OF MISCHIEF Do you know, we have a theory that there wouldn't be any murders, any forgeries, any robberies, any domestic quarrels, any business cheating, if everybody got as interested in their jobs as Pinehurst's crowd is in its job. None of us here have the slightest inclination to kill anybody or rob anybody or beat our wives or trim anybody in a deal. We're too darned interested in seeing that Pinehurst receives nothing but Good Things to Eat and that our customers' wishes are filled exactly and promptly. When you think of it, that's job enough to keep one gang out of mischief. Pinehurst tries to stock everything in the food line that Manchester people want—not only the necessities but the novelties, the little luxuries you don't find just everywhere. It makes a terrible lot of them. And when you watch every one of them to see that it's absolutely right in quality and condition; and when you take infinite pains to see that it's kept that way; and when you are as particular as particularly itself to see that the customer's order is filled 100 per cent as given; and when you see that it goes out on the specified delivery; and when you are determined that you won't let any other store on earth lick you in service or fairness or courtesy—you have no time to help along the crime wave or the social disturbances. We'd like to see everybody as busy as we are—and see whether there would be any time left for all these disagreeable things we read about. We'd like to bet there wouldn't be. Phone 2000. POUND ROLLS OF CREAMERY BUTTER 49c VERY NICE CUTS OF PINEHURST QUALITY CORNED BEEF. GRAPE FRUIT, 4 for 25c NATIVE VEAL AND SPRING LAMB FOR STEWING Prescribed by over 5000 Doctors Ask your Doctor Save 24 hours a week of Mother's Time Cost less than if made at home BABY SOUP A combination of beef juice, vegetables and cereals, packed in 1 1/2 and 4 oz. jars. STRAINED VEGETABLES Packed in 4 oz. jars Spinach Carrots Peas Beans Asparagus Tomato Prune Pulp Apricot Pulp The Badge of Health Foods for Your Baby

COURTEOUS CONFIDENTIAL PROMPT PLEASANT LOANS IDEAL PLAN ENDORSERS MORTGAGE OF FURNITURE EMBARRASSING INVESTIGATIONS INVESTIGATION CHARGE — BONUS ADVANCE REDUCTIONS Your signature is our only requirement. Your reputation is our security. Easy payments: $2 to $5 monthly principal payment repays $10 to $75. Larger loans can be easily arranged on your own security and repaid in the same proportion. "Interest at the Lawful Rate Under the Small Loan Act" Ideal Financing Association, Inc. 992 MAIN STREET, ROOM 408 American Industrial Building F. W. Hawkinson, Mgr. HARTFORD, CONN. Phone 2-8632 Information without obligation

PANSIES Steel's Mastodon Good Variety of Colors. ANDERSON GREENHOUSES 153 Eldridge St. Phone 2124 So. Manchester

FILMS DEVELOPED AND PRINTED 24 HOUR SERVICE Film Deposit Box at Store Entrance KEMP'S

TWICE TREASURED The quiet, dignified, reverential beauty of the Quish services are satisfyingly complete. The many unexpected extras—expressions of tender sympathetic thoughtfulness, are gratefully recognized in hours of bereavement, and are a source of comfort in the years to come. 225 MAIN ST. MANCHESTER DAY AND NIGHT PHONE-387 The Funeral Home Wm. P. QUISH