BOGINO BEATEN BY BERTHOLD BUT WINS MATCH BY 74 PINS

Big Crowd Watches Bowling Contest at Charter Oak Alleys; Berthold Wins by 34 Pins.

The bowling match between Mike Bogino of Hartford and Art Berthold of Rockville turned out just about as was expected before a packed house at Joe Farr's Charter Oak alleys last night. Berthold beat Bogino by 34 pins which still left Bogino with 74 of his original 108 pin lead in their home and home 20 game match.

Neither man rolled scores that were anywhere near as impressive as those which shattered a world's record in Hartford last week. Bogino's average was more than 20 pins a game less than in the first ten and Berthold's about eight less. This does not mean, however, that they did not make good scores. An average of over 110 is always considered good. Berthold had 117.5 and Bogino 114.1.

It was a pretty even affair and each of the first three games were decided by one pin and the fourth by two. Bogino was guilty of going below 100 twice and Berthold once. A couple of big scores at the right time might have won the match for Berthold. The statistics reveal that Bogino had seven strikers, 19 spares and made 207 pins on fifers, 30 spares and 252 pins on fillers.

The scores follow:

Berthold	Bogino
127	136
116	117
100	99
110	108
145	116
92	121
132	119
116	97
124	111
123	127
117.5	114.1

PALFREY GIRL

Youthful Tennis Star Tops Miss Marjorie Morrill of Dedham 6-4, 1-6, 6-4.

Brookline, Mass., Jan. 30.—(AP)—Miami Palfrey, youthful tennis star, meets Edith Sigourney of Boston in the semi-finals of the Women's National Indoor Singles today after brilliant play yesterday which defeated Miss Marjorie Morrill of Dedham, second seeded player. The score was 6-4, 1-6, 6-4.

In the other semi-finals, to be played tomorrow, Mrs. John B. Jessup of Wilman, Del., top seeded, will meet Miss Margaret Blake of Lenox, defending champion. Each won their matches in straight sets yesterday while Miss Sigourney defeated Mrs. William M. Shelden of Boston 6-0, 1-6, 6-0. Miss Palfrey was not seeded in the tournament.

The third round in the National Women's Doubles was completed yesterday with the four seeded teams surviving. Mrs. George W. Wightman and Miss Sarah Palfrey, defending champions, eliminated Mrs. Shelden and Miss Dorothy Blodgett of Boston, 6-0, 6-1.

Thirteen matches were completed in the national mixed doubles.

TRADE SCHOOL AGAIN DEFEATS ITS OPPONENT

Mechanics Stop Middletown Quintet In Tracks 41 to 17; Spencer, Schiebel Star.

Manchester Trade School chalked up another basketball victory yesterday afternoon in Middletown when it defeated Middletown Trade by the overwhelming score of 41 to 17. It marked the seventh triumph in nine games for the local mechanics whose record shows only two defeats, both administered by the American School for the Deaf of Hartford.

Spencer, Schiebel and Vince were the stars yesterday, the former tallying a half a dozen times from the floor and Schiebel only one goal behind him. Captain Viot, playing part of a game, was held down to three. At halftime Manchester was 15 points ahead and sailing along to a sure victory that left no doubt save the width of the eventual gap. Tomorrow afternoon the Trade school will entertain the strong Torrington Trade five at the Rec gym.

There is one more game of the series to be played between these two teams and it will be played at the Franklin school gym next Tuesday from seven to eight o'clock. The Midgets challenge any team not over fourteen years of age. Joseph Valenti, 130 School street, Phone 7088, is manager.

Local Sport Chatter

Did you know that both the High school and Trade school have won seven games and lost two so far in the basketball season?

It's too bad that the High school and Trade school can't plan an annual series in all sports, or at least in such sports as the caliber of the teams seems somewhere near even.

The schools tried it once several years ago, however, and the feeling between the two factions became so tense that relations were severed following a baseball game at the West Side.

It wasn't safe for the boys to pass one-another at Keith's corner but, nevertheless, it still remains a fact that it's too bad the boys can't enter into athletic competition in the proper spirit, and have some real beneficial competition.

The Berkshire Industrial Farm of Canaan, N. Y., will send its hockey team here to take part in the Ice Carnival program on February 9. They will be pitted against a team Frank Walleit is organizing. James H. Dowd, former local athletic instructor, is responsible for bringing the New Yorkers to Manchester.

Both Art Berthold and Mike Bogino, who rolled a special bowling match here last night, will be in the lineup of the Hartford Stars in an All-State team in a who face an home and home match at the Charter Oak alleys in Hartford next Saturday and at Danielson on next Thursday. Hartford will also feature O'Brien, Howard, Geary, DeLuca, Gallivan and Gaines while the Staters will include Tato of Waterbury, Tronsky of New Britain, Gazek of New Britain, Stone of Waterbury, White of New Haven, Frish of Hartford, White of Meriden, Dugas of Danielson and Barber of Danielson. A. B. C. rules will prevail, only one box being bowled by one man at a time.

ORDER OF SCRAMBLED LEGS

In Philadelphia, they staged a wrestling match between Joe and Valentin Karrey, a couple of limber brother athletes from San Sebastian, Spain. It became a knotty problem for the referee, who was all run down at the wind-up, which is pictured here. Finally the entanglement was called a draw, while an osteopath was summoned to separate the contestants. That's Joe face at the left; maybe you can find the rest of him.

SPRINGFIELD LUTHER FIVE DEFEATS MANCHESTER 30-13

Home City's Defense Proves Too Strong for Locals in Basketball Contest at Harding School.

Failure to break through an iron-like zone defense with any degree of consistency brought a 30 to 13 defeat to the Swedish Lutheran Church Luther League Five in the season opener against Springfield at the Hollister Street School gym last night.

Despite the decisive trouncing which avenged Springfield for its defeat last year, the local five displayed a world of pep and speed and bane for the future.

The Manchester Lutherans scored but one field goal—caged by "Milt" Nelson—in the first half while the visitors ran up 21 points, mainly through the work of Todd who countered for 11 points and E. Haglund, who made eight. Todd proved the big gun in the last half, also, with three baskets, though not on the floor the full time.

In the preliminary the Flying Swedes took a similar lacing, chiefly because of inability to "cover" their opponents properly and over eagerness in shooting. Summaries:

TAFFYS DEFEAT PHANTOMS BY SCORE OF 21-20

Undefeated League Leaders Miss Regular Center; Original Taffys Stop Ramblers, 33-23.

The Taffys won another game in the Rec Junior basketball league last night but it wasn't by any margin to brag about. In fact the Taffys came the nearest to their initial defeat in the league. The Phantoms were worthy opponents who all but turned the trick, losing 20-21. True, the Taffys were weakened by the loss of their regular center, but it is equally true that no team can afford to depend too much on any one player.

The Phantoms have lost Kerr, Moriarty, Kearns and Anderson by sundry reasons, acquired the services of D. McConkey and W. Vince in their places and both fitted nicely in their new location. The Original Taffys looked impressive in beating the Ramblers 33 to 23. Tomm, Dziadus and Metcalf were the outstanding performers. The summary of each game follows:

WINDHAM HIGH IS CONFIDENT MANCHESTER WILL BE BEATEN

Thred City Quintet Sunk Local Craft Twice Last Year and Hopes to Repeat Stunt Friday.

Herbert L. Tenney, winner of the recent pocket billiards tournament at the Masonic Temple, had everything pretty much his own way last night. After partaking in a delicious chicken pie supper and being presented with a Ralph Greenleaf cuestick from Paul Dougan, Tenney spoke a few words of appreciation and then proceeded to give the prize donor a few lessons in the art of angles.

However, Dougan, one time a town champion and winner of several tournaments, as well as cuestick, only smiled in defeat. He was a willing victim inasmuch as it brought back visions of how happy he was when victorious in the tournaments of other years long past but still free from cobwebs. Tenney won by the one-sided score of 100-57, taking a commanding lead at the start and never once being in danger of defeat.

Dougan was guilty of missing many break shots and also many easy ones which left Tenney chances galore. The champion wasted few. He was shooting excellent billiards last night and it would have taken a good man to beat him. The match lasted about a third of the time of the recent Tenney-Clifford match but this was because nothing was at stake except "exhibition honors."

Loren C. Clifford, runner-up in the tournament, was presented with a five-dollar gold piece by Bob Chambers, chairman of the tournament which proved a big success, so big in fact, that arrangements are already underway for another tournament. The new one, however, will be a Round Robin affair with the players divided into three groups according to their ability. Each one will play the other once and both games and points will count. The pairings are to be drawn up very shortly.

Following the chicken pie supper, apple pie and cheese, Toastmaster John McLaughlin called upon Paul Dougan to make his prize presentation to Tenney. In addition to Messrs. Tenney and Clifford, Bob Chambers, Sam Houston and Tom Stowe, Herald sports editor, were called upon for a few words. The latter followed up his remarks with a 100 to 95 victory over Sam "Amos" Nelson in a return exhibition match to avenge a recent so-called 50 to 1 debacle. Asked if he better man than "Smiling Sam" replied: "Oh sho—sho—sho—"

Reports from Willimantic are to the effect that Coach Tommy Callahan has banded together one of the best teams in several seasons and is out for the state championship. A delegation of some three or four hundred persons is planning to accompany the team to Manchester. Last year the Willimantic faithful saw Manchester defeated ten points in a return game at Willimantic. The second teams of both schools will mingle in the preliminary tomorrow. Chick Hayes of Hartford will be the eleventh man on the floor.

The fifth round will be played on Feb. 15. Cincinnati—Eushy Graham, Utica, N. Y., and Freddie Miller, Cincinnati drew 10.

Fined $50 For Failure To Score A Knockout In A 91 Round Fight

Dan Daly, Who Died in Omaha Yesterday, Fought Tommy White in Memorable Battle in 1890; Both Men Had Both Hands Broken; Each Received $200 for Efforts.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 30.—(AP)—The death of Dan Daly, 60, featherweight fighter of four decades ago, in St. Louis yesterday, recalled to the fathers and grandfathers of present day day Omaha fight fans his memorable 91 round draw with Tommy White in 1890. The fight, held here in 1890 is in the record books as the second longest in history.

In those days it was considered more or less of a disgrace if the battle did not end in a knockout victory. Accordingly when, at the end of the 91st round the referee decided that the two gladiators were too weak to continue, he called the fight a draw, and each fighter was fined $50 because it had not gone to a knockout. During the fight the hands of both men were broken and each was so badly bruised that weeks were required for recuperation.

Sandy Griswold, veteran sports writer, who died here within the last year, wrote of one of the rounds:

"In the 71st round White rallied all his strength for a final effort to finish the man from Maine. He went after him hammer and tongs style and succeeded in staggering Daly for a moment. But Daly never lost his head, and smiled serenely as White hit him several stinging blows. It looked as though White would win but when the next round was called Daly was as chipper as ever while White was plainly wounded by his violent efforts. From this time on it was evident that neither of the men could finish each other and it was only a question of endurance. Each fighter received $200 as his share of the prize money after the $50 fine had been taken out."

PARIS HAS FIT OVER ALL ENGLISH TALKIE

Paris.—(AP)—French resentment at American talkies in English, reached its height at the first few showings of the Moulou Rouge, just converted into a movie house. The incidents are cited by newspapers as evidence that talkies in a foreign tongue won't go here. About all the French got was a series of chapter headings, long dialogues and fast, laughable repartee. These were frequently covered by a single sentence in French, flashed on the screen after the fun was over.

There are at least four mistakes in the above picture. They may pertain to grammar, history, etiquette, drawing or what not. See if you can find them. Then look at the scrambled word below—and unscramble it, by switching the letters around. Grade yourself 20 for each of the mistakes you find, and 20 for the word if you unscramble it.

CORRECTIONS (1) A monkey, instead of a baboon, is in the cage; baboons have short tails. (2) Hippopotamus is spelled incorrectly. (3) The hippopotamus, in the strict sense, is not an amphibian. (4) The disperse should be over the second "o" in zoology. (5) The scrambled word is PERMANENT.

"Hey Mister Bee! Come back here quick! Are we the victims of a trick?" yelled Clowney, as the bee flew off and left the bunch alone. "Come take us off this flower right now, or we will punish you somehow." Then, as the bee kept going, Clowney sat right down to groan.

"Aw, gee," said he, "this isn't fair. We're stranded here, up in the air. I guess the sunflower is the tallest flower that he could find. We might jump down, but not for me. 'Twould be my luck to sprain a knee. I thought the bee was nice at first, but now he seems unkind."

"He isn't coming back, I guess," said Scouty. "We are in a mess. The way the wind is blowing makes it hard to hang on tight. We keep on tipping to and fro and I'm afraid that off we'll go. My, if we hit the muddy ground below, we'll look a sight."

They sat and wondered what to do and then, the next thing that they knew, a great big crow came flying by. "Twas chirping very loud. 'Hello there, Tinymites,' it said. 'Is that big flower your little bed? If you should try to sleep, you'd be a funny looking crowd.'"

"We're stranded. This is not our bed. Please help us off," one of them said. The bird then landed on the flower and chirped. "Ab, what a treat. The big flower has nice seeds galore and that is what I came here for. Just pardon me a moment, Tinymites. I'm going to eat."

It gave the Tinies all a thrill to watch him grab seeds in his bill. Said Carpy, "Gee, I wish that we could eat those big seeds, too. But they would not taste good to us, so we'll help you without a fuss. Then maybe you will help us in return for helping you."

ABOUT TOWN
Ice harvesting here is progressing at a rate that forecasts the completion of a bumper crop if the weather conditions remain close to their present level for five or six days more, and a good one in almost any event. Harvesting will be completed today at the Salter pond in Lydallville and at the Folley Brook pond of the L. T. Wood Co. and the crew transferred tomorrow to Globe Hollow. Here there is more than ten inches of clear ice. With the modern machinery employed and a big gang at work a great deal of ice can be cut there in two or three days, while a week of cutting weather will suffice not only to fill the big storehouse but to build a big pile outdoors for early deliveries.

George Walker of 630 Lydall street, has entered the employ of the City Taxi Company and will be office man and spare driver, going on duty at 11 o'clock in the morning and remaining until after the shows in the State theater is out. This will make six vehicles, five taxis and a town car.

This is the largest Scotch affair of its kind to be held in Connecticut. The orchestra has been enlarged to nine pieces for the occasion.

There will be a session of the men's apparatus class from 7 to 8 o'clock tonight. Pyramid building will be part of the instruction given. This class is becoming more and more popular.

This is the outstanding event of its kind this winter season because at this exhibit the style plan for the coming season is definitely decided upon. Over 100 buyers and owners of leading stores in the United States were present.

Miss Catherine J. Ward of 46 Union street gave a bridge party at her home last evening. The first prize was won by Miss Ethel Brookings and the consolation by Miss Annie Willie.

SERVES NEW HAVEN RAILROAD 50 YEARS
J. J. Dwyer, Freight Agent Here, Gets Diamond Emblem for His Record.

John J. Dwyer, freight agent at the north end has just completed fifty years service in the employ of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad company, it was learned today. Only one other man in the company's employment enrollment has a similar record. He is Arba B. Beebe, engineman, of East Lyme, Conn.

Mr. Dwyer, who is one of the best known and best liked north end residents, has lived in Manchester for many years and formerly lived on a farm in Buckland where he first entered the employ of the New York, New Haven and Hartford company on December 22, 1880, being only 16 years old at the time. At that time the Manchester station was only a suburb of Buckland. Mr. Dwyer has seen a complete transformation take place during his long term of service, and now Buckland station is like an annex to Manchester.

The popular north end freight agent was a bit modest when questioned by a Herald representative this morning. He was inclined to be evasive in his answers until informed that the Associated Press carried the information today that he and Beebe had been awarded diamond studded emblems for their long periods of faithful service.

Agent Dwyer worked at the Buckland freight office for nine years and then went to Vernon for a period of seven more. At the conclusion of this period, he came to Manchester and has been in charge of the local office ever since. Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer live at 108 Main street and have one son, Robert, a graduate of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and now a representative of a Hartford insurance company in a Pennsylvania field.

AUTO SKIDS, CRASHES INTO THREE OTHERS
Parked Machines Damaged When Driver Put on Brakes On icy Spot.

Shortly before 5 o'clock last night a sedan owned by Robert J. Adams of 25 Proctor road and driven by Frederick Jones of the same address was in collision with three parked cars on Forest street between the Cheney velvet mill and the machine shop, causing considerable damage to all three cars.

Jones was driving east on Forest street and skidded on the slippery pavement, when forced to apply his brakes, smashing into a Jewett sedan owned by Mario Marchisotti of 151 Oak street and a Studebaker sedan owned by John Gafoglio, 63 School street and a Plymouth sedan owned by Walker Senkbell of 33 Norman street. The sides and doors of the Marchisotti car were caved in, the Gafoglio car received a broken bumper and damaged fenders and the Senkbell sedan received a twisted frame, bumpers and fenders.

Jones was taken to the police station by Officer John McGinn and the matter of damages was ironed out at the Adams car was insured. No charge was made in connection with the crash as it was viewed by police as unavoidable owing to the slippery condition of the street at the time.

EXISTING CONDITIONS KILLED AUTO SHOW
Lateness in Season and Lack of General Interest Are Given as Reasons.

Though no specific reason for voting against the holding of an automobile show this year was given for publication, it is understood that under existing conditions it was deemed inadvisable to put on a show that would not measure up to first class standards. The matter was decided at yesterday afternoon's dealers' meeting and was reported in yesterday's Herald.

Vote on the question was made by written ballot, and those voting in the affirmative, changed to the negative after some discussion, making the "thumbs down" vote unanimous. The dealers believe it is too late in the season for a show and that previous show results do not warrant the expense.

Also unanimous was the vote on affiliation with the Chamber of Commerce as a distinct and separate unit—the Automotive division—embracing accessory men, automobile dealers, gasoline station proprietors, etc.

The eleven dealers present yesterday were George S. Smith, George L. Betts, C. E. Crawford, Ralph A. McNally, George E. Bagley, Harding Stephens, Henry Schaller, George A. Brown, Joseph Madden, Alec Cole and Frank Conkey. James Shearer voted by proxy.

The Automotive division will be the second in the Chamber, the first being the Merchants division. Both are forerunners of many others to come, as it is planned to classify the membership of the Chamber into divisions, with each member belonging to the body in which he is most vitally interested and concerned.

PHONES Pinehurst "GOOD THINGS TO EAT"
BLOOMFIELD—AND HERE
We note that the beautiful village of Bloomfield need worry no more about the state taking its lovely Green as a highway artery. That's fine! Road improvement is a wonderful thing—but in its place. And one of the places where it has proven wonderful is here on Main street, in the Pinehurst neighborhood. Since the repaving of the street and the taking away of the trolley tracks and the removal of the "bottle neck" Pinehurst's customers can come here in their cars with not a trace of the trouble they used to experience. Incidentally, in this case, the cause of town beautification has been served instead of assailed as it would have been in Bloomfield.
