

MILITARY BALL PLANNED HERE

Colorful Affairs of Years Ago to be Revived by National Guard Units.

The officers of Company G and the Howitzer Company, representing the military units of Manchester, are planning the reviving of the old-time colorful military balls which were the outstanding social events of the season during the beginning of the present century.

The matter has been under consideration for the past few months, and action will be taken at once on the appointment of committees for the event which will take place early this winter.

The military balls of the past were formal affairs and served to bring high ranking officers and their wives from all over New England to Manchester.

An effort will be made to align all organizations in Manchester to help in putting over a military ball for Manchester this season that will eclipse anything in the past.

WORLD'S WHEAT CROP BETTER THIS YEAR

Rome, Aug. 29.—(AP)—The International Institute of Agriculture announced today the world's 1930 production of wheat will be 712,000,000 hundredweight, compared with 677,000,000 last year.

Barley and oats are both below the 1929 figure.

Extreme dry weather has had a detrimental effect upon crops. Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Germany, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Hungary, Switzerland, France, England and Italy are listed by the institute as having suffered from drought followed by ratstorms.

Spain and Balkan and Baltic countries report excellent crops.

NEGLECTED WARNING, BURGLAR IS CAUGHT

Worcester, Aug. 29.—(AP)—For the principal reasons that he did not believe in signs, Albert Prunier, 25 of this city, with his head swathed in bandages and his face marked with numerous cuts and discolored contusions, limped into the dock in District Court today to answer breaking and entering charges preferred against him by Sidney Hops, proprietor of a West Rutland filling station.

YOUNGSTERS SEIZE REINS AT DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

Newington, Aug. 29.—(AP)—The youngest element in the local Democratic party seized the reins at a stormy caucus last night, challenged the legality of the town committee, charged it with submitting to Republican domination, and finally rejected its list of delegates, substituting others of its own choice.

The meeting, scheduled for the junior high school, began on the lawn of that building because the voters could not gain admission, and it was then adjourned to the Town Hall. It was brought out that no town committee had been elected last year, but that Chairman Walter L. Morgan of the group which had held over said it was illegal to elect in even years.

Mr. Morgan ran for registrar of voters on an independent ticket last fall, and this was recalled by the opposition last night.

Talk of party reorganization followed charges that the Republicans controlled the Democratic Town committee and that the old line Democrats belonged to the "horses and ox days."

Miss McKinney on September 7 will enter the Hartford hospital to take the nurse's training course, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McKinney to adopt this profession.

Mrs. Christine McKinney, a graduate of the Middlesex hospital training school for nurses, is now assistant superintendent of the general hospital in Yosemite National Park.

Cases there for the most part are caused by accidents and mishaps to mountain climbers.

The bent for nursing seems to run among the women of the McKinney family, for Miss Sarah McKinney, a cousin, has recently completed her course at the Middlesex hospital.

Queer Twists In Day's News

Washington—More than half a billion dollars will be paid next month to investors in American corporations in the form of interest and dividends.

New York—'Tis a healthy year. Life insurance statisticians believe the prospects are excellent for 1930 to end with the lowest death rate ever registered in the United States and Canada.

London—John Bull has continued to sober up ever since he celebrated the armistice. Convictions for drunkenness in England and Wales last year totalled 51,986 the smallest total since 1913 and a decrease of 3,576 in a year.

New York—Road hogs are responsible for one-third of automobile accidents. An analysis of 100,000 cases by the New York Automobile Clubs reveals that 34,000 resulted from the invasion by one driver of a lane belonging to another.

Newport, R. I.—Another triumph for the Vanderbilt convention. Harold S. Vanderbilt, who invented a system of bidding at contract bridge and sundry improvements in railroad equipment, with some chums handled the yacht Enterprise so well that it has been picked to race the Shamrock V.

New York—Five five-gallon cans of alcohol are at a police station, having been taken from the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beer at their request. A stranger left them with Mrs. Beer, saying they were for her husband. When Mr. Beer arrived home he was mystified and called the police.

Philadelphia—Policeman George Raylor is to undergo delightful punishment. Reproved for being off duty he was sentenced to be a guard of honor for his daughter Margaret and escort her to City Hall for honors when she returns home from Toronto, where she won a marathon swim. He was swept away from post in a celebration when news came of the victory.

New York—Captain S. G. McNeil of the British liner Mauretania is willing to bet 100 pounds against 100 dollars that the "Maury" after being drydocked will do better than 28 knots. The offer was made when he pleaded guilty to have been passed at sea by the German liner Europa, when he was going 25 1/2.

Charlottesville, Va.—Football is at hand. Yes, sir. The season opens tomorrow with Charlottesville playing Washington. They are boys' teams.

PICKED WRONG MAN FOR COLLEGE BLUFF Evanston, Ill., Aug. 29.—(AP.)—Three young magazine salesmen picked a poor prospect yesterday, or a poor sales talk.

The sales talk was that they were making their way through Northwestern University. The prospect was Dr. Walter Dill Scott, president of the university.

The youths, who later identified themselves as Sam and Herbert Kraus of New York and Philip Land of Los Angeles, explained that the money they made from magazine subscriptions all went into tuition fees and such at Northwestern.

"Well, isn't that fine," returned Dr. Scott. "It happens to be president of that institution. I don't remember seeing any of you boys around. What's your college? What work are you majoring in? What—"

But the three had disappeared around the corner. Dr. Scott notified police and the youths were taken to the station. After a lecture on the ethics of sales representation, the boys were released on their promise to leave Evanston.

BEER RUNNERS SENTENCED Norwalk, Aug. 29.—(AP.)—In City Court today Joseph Toblusk of 224 Avenue, Brooklyn, was fined $1,000 and sentenced to jail for fifteen days when he was found guilty of transporting liquor and William Hayo of East 32d street, New York, was fined $500 and sentenced to fifteen days in jail. The men paid the fine.

The pair were arrested in Norwalk Monday night as they were passing through the city. Toblusk was driving a truck loaded with 100 half-barrels of beer and Hayo who was in another machine acting as convoy.

The truck will be sold at public auction and the beer destroyed.

LOOKS LIKE CROSS New Haven, Aug. 29.—(AP.)—Friends of Prof. W. L. Cross who have been looking after his campaign as candidate for governor at the Democratic convention today were so optimistic in their forecast as to hold opinion that he would be the only candidate before the convention and this probably would mean his nomination by acclamation. Results of Democratic caucuses being held today were being awaited to see if endorsement is given to any other name, and to determine the number of delegates instructed for Prof. Cross.

MOORE NOT A CANDIDATE Torrington, Aug. 29.—(AP.)—Charles J. Moore of Torrington, president of the Connecticut Federation of Labor today emphatically denied a report that he would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the Fifth District. OLD FASHIONED DEBATES MAY FEATURE CAMPAIGN

Detroit, Aug. 29.—(AP.)—Revival of the Lincoln-Douglas style of campaign through joint debates has been proposed by Edward Frensdorff, Democrat, of Hudson, Mich., to his opponent for Representative in Congress from the Second Michigan District, Earl C. Michener, Republican, of Adrian, the incumbent.

Frensdorff's proposal goes even beyond the plan followed in the famous series of Illinois debates, however, for he has suggested that the two candidates collaborate in naming a committee which will supervise all campaign expenditures, edit all campaign literature and direct its dissemination among the voters.

Neither has opposition in the primary, a letter to Rep. Michener, Frensdorff said the following his opponent has built up through 12 years in Congress, in addition to a normal party majority of 12,000 to 15,000 "gives you an advantage. I cannot hope to overcome unless you will agree to what I consider a fair, honorable and businesslike campaign procedure." He said he would withdraw as a candidate unless his proposal is accepted.

It is reported that baked apples recently fell off trees in two states. But tree sitters deserve stronger names than that.

Washington, Aug. 29.—(AP.)—While the audience of a suburban moving picture theater watched a daring jailbreak scene last night, two men left their seats, put on masks and relieved the manager of his night's receipts.

Proceeds of the crime picture totaling $265 left the theater with their pals while the audience unaware, got its thrills from the screen. The manager was found later, in his office.

At a recent hearing Edwards told the court he had no money. Mrs. Edwards alleged he received $1,500 a week and said she needed substantial alimony to uphold her social position.

At the separation of the couple, Edwards said he signed over $150,000 in community property to his wife. He has an action pending to set aside the settlement.

SMALL, CHIC, TRIM, ARE WOMEN'S HATS

Faces and Foreheads Will be Much in View This Winter—The Latest Styles.

By ADELAIDE KERR

New York, Aug. 29—(AP)—A woman's face is her fortune this winter more truly than it has been for many a year.

Chapeaux are generally small, chic and trim, their crowns are shallower and they are designed as a frame for the face.

Berets are draped a bit more than last year, part tricornes reminiscent of Madame La Marquise and snug little affairs called bonnets are outstanding models.

Colors will match or harmonize with costumes. Felts and velvets promise to be the most popular fall materials.

The hats this year are more romantic and intriguing than they have been for many a season. And velvet bonnets, fitting close to the head and finished with a chou (double frill) across the back will answer a long felt need for the young girl who wants a hat in which she can dine, dance and go to the theater.

The head contour is still small, milliners and hairdressers declare although the short shingled bob, so popular a year ago is giving way to longer tresses.

RIOTING IN CUBA

Havana, Aug. 29—(AP)—The government today placed itself in readiness to establish martial law in Matanzas province, following prolonged rioting.

Carlos Penate, president of the Nationalist Party, said the Cruces conspiracy was not authorized by his organization.

The government, although watchful, declined to attach great significance to either situation.

FEAR ANDREE VESSEL WILL RUN INTO STORM

Oslo, Norway, Aug. 29—The sealer Bratvaag which has aboard the bodies of Salomon Andree and his companions of the ill-fated 1897 Polar balloon flight, has been summoned urgently by wireless to come home at once.

The messages were sent at intervals yesterday by order of the Norwegian and Swedish governments which felt that dangers of the approaching Arctic winter, might spell disaster to the boat and its precious records of the Andree flight, discovered with the bodies early this month after having lain 33 years in the ice.

The Bratvaag which carries the Arctic expedition of Dr. Gunnar Horn, has no wireless sending set, but only a receiving apparatus.

CONVICTS ELECTROCUTED

Ossining, N. Y., Aug. 29—(AP)—Guarded closely by guards to frustrate any last-minute attempt at violence, three convicts were electrocuted last night for the slaying of a fellow convict during the Auburn prison riot of last December.

The three men, Claud Udwin, 29; William Force, 30 and Jesse Thomas, 20, were convicted of slaying Henry Sullivan, ring leader of the mutiny in which ten lives were lost.

The three went to their deaths with a spirit of bravado. Thomas was the first to be executed, and was followed quickly by Force and Udwin. The men apparently had become resigned to their fate early in the evening when no word of executive clemency was received.

Last year's championship was won by Mrs. Mary Hyvess, farm woman of Kennan, Wis., with a quart jar of ketchup.

AUGUST IS LUCKY MONTH FOR CERRO

New National Hero of Peru Got All His Good Breaks In That Month.

Lima, Aug. 29—(AP)—August is a fateful month for Lieutenant Colonel Luis M. Sanchez Cerro, the new national hero of Peru.

The man who promoted the current Peruvian revolt was born in August—August 12, 1888. He participated in a former revolt against President Augusto B. Leguia August 21, 1922, and the latest upheaval has occurred, of course, in August.

Sanchez Cerro was born in Plura and when 17 years old entered a military school at Lima. In 1910 he was graduated as a sub-lieutenant in the Army and thereafter served in various regiments until February 4, 1914, he took an active part in the revolution which unseated Guillermo Billinghurst as president.

He received five wounds in the fighting at that time and soon was sent to Washington as military attaché. When he returned to Peru he resumed active military service.

About this time—1919 Augusto B. Leguia became president by a coup d'etat and Sanchez Cerro became his enemy. He led a revolt against Leguia in 1922 in the Department of Cuzco, taking possession of the city.

As he was seriously wounded he lost what advantage he had obtained and the revolt ended. Sanchez Cerro now went to Morocco, where he served 14 months in the Spanish Army fighting the Rifis. He spent several years taking advanced military courses in France.

When he returned to Peru he obtained command of the Third Sapper Battalion and was promoted to a lieutenant-colonel a few months ago. It was as an officer of this rank that he led his second revolt against Leguia at Arequipa last Friday, and this time Leguia, not Sanchez Cerro, went out.

Now he is hailed as a national idol.

At 60 miles per hour you travel 88 feet per second.

NEWS

"Well now," you will probably say, "What's the opening of a bowling alley got to do with a drug store?" so we'll try to tell you. You see Tommie Conran is the new president of the North End Merchants' Division of the Chamber of Commerce, now that's a title taller than Tommie so the fellers in business around the Square "in the roaring forties" decided to help one another in their attempts to popularize anything that would bring greater numbers into our business section and Tommie was the first one to get going.

And that ain't all, a lot of you fellers that get to bowling for the first time will be all lamed up the next day. We sell some mighty good liniments and if you fellers find out that the score is a little off par at the end of the string, well won't you be a-wanting a good tonic to kinda strengthen up the muscle? So you see why we're all co-operating. Now don't you.

So let Conran develop your muscle, we want to DEVELOP YOUR HOLIDAY FILMS.

We are receiving a lot of congratulations on the new 9 HOUR DEVELOPING SERVICE on FILM WORK. Let us demonstrate.

For the week-end and holiday, Films, Apollo, Whitman, Schrafft's Candies, Bottled Ginger Ale and other soda for the picnic or shore trip.

FREE EDUCATION SOUGHT IN CHINA BY PROTESTANTS

By MORRIS J. HARRIS
(Associated Press Correspondent)

Shanghai. (AP)—Twelve Protestant sects, representing more than three-fourths of the native Chinese Protestant church membership, have appealed to the National Government at Nanking for removal of the 1929 restrictions on religious worship and education in the church schools.

The appeal, which was presented to the Ministry of Education marks the first official step by Christian Chinese to combat the Kuomintang's determination to divorce religious education and the schools.

Since the restriction went into effect in the spring of 1929 few Christian schools have been left untouched by the anti-religious campaign, and feeling against Chinese of both Protestant and Catholic faiths has resulted in several open clashes between the mission authorities and the anti-church crowd.

Several school strikes have occurred, while institutions in the jurisdiction of the Nanking Government run the risk of being padlocked if they make the slightest pretense of teaching the young Chinese mind a few of the principles of Christianity.

The Chinese Christians have been harder hit by the restriction than the foreigners. British and American missionaries, who are in the majority, are protected in their work by their consuls, but the Chinese have been taught that they can expect little sympathy from the authorities if they carry Christian education outside the home.

The Christians, moreover, are not alone in their fight. The restrictions include every form of worship and Mohammedan, Buddhist and Taoist missionaries have protested volubly and frequently. They have suffered less than the Christians because their missionaries function outside the schools.

In their petition the Chinese Protestants point to the many scholars and scientists graduated from their schools, claiming that Christian influence has been in a large way responsible for the success of their alumni.

FAMOUS IRISH PRISON IS TO BE ABANDONED

Dublin. (AP)—The Kilmainham jail, which has played a prominent part in Irish history, has been abandoned finally as a place of detention and handed over to the Dublin County Council for other disposition.

The graves of two men executed there after the Phoenix Park murders in 1882 are indicated by stone slabs now overgrown with weeds, and marks on the wall testify to the spot on which the leaders of the Easter 1916 rising met their death.

Frank Teeling, while awaiting execution there, after the murders of 14 British officers in November 1920, was rescued from the jail under dramatic circumstances. Charles Stewart Parnell's room is still pointed out, and white stone set in the wall shows where the scaffold was erected for the execution of General Thomas E. Burke, Irish-American officer, who came over to Tipperary more than 60 years ago.

In the prison bank are the names of John Dillon, Thomas Seaton, William O'Brien, and William Redmond, father of the Irish M. P., who fell fighting in Flanders in 1917.

Hydrogen Prevents Fire In Electric Condenser

Schenectady, N. Y.—(AP)—Usually explosive hydrogen is a good fire extinguisher in at least one place, a huge electric condenser under construction by the General Electric Company.

This condenser runs in an atmosphere of hydrogen enclosed in a tight metal case. Without the presence of oxygen hydrogen will not support flame of any kind, and a statement from the company says that not only are fires impossible, but that even short circuits cannot occur.

Because hydrogen does not transmit vibration well, the novel atmosphere serves as good sound proofing material. Being much lighter than air, it reduces wind resistance on the rotating parts by about 90 per cent.

Newspaper To Operate New Buffalo Station

Buffalo, N. Y.—(AP)—The new station of the Buffalo Evening News will go on the air September 1. Its call letters will be WBEN, 900 kilocycles or 333.4 meters.

The installation of the transmitter was authorized by the federal radio commission after the newspaper contended that a radio monopoly existed in Buffalo. W. Nelson Wilkinson, newspaper executive, will be director, and Ralph J. Kinsey, formerly of WBAL, Baltimore, will be chief engineer.

Power will be 1,000 watts, and full time operation is planned.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Lemon Rinse)
Question: Mrs. J. C. B. asks: "Is it harmful to use a lemon rinse on a child's hair? His hair is very light brown and I would like to keep it so."

Answer: Wash the child's hair with distilled water and then use just a few drops of lemon juice in the rinsing water. This counteracts any alkaline deposits on the hair and tends to keep it its natural color.

(Urticaria)
Question: Mrs. J. C. B. asks: "What is the cause of an itch that comes in a red blotch on my eyelids and on the front of my neck? Have had this frequently within the last three months. Worse in the mornings, as my eyelids are then terribly swollen. I consulted a doctor, but he did not tell me the cause, so I am at a loss to know what to do. A urinalysis showed normal, with the exception of the 'specific gravity' being low. What does this mean?"

Answer: You are probably suffering from a form of urticaria and are not eliminating enough poisons from your body. The urinalysis shows this. Leave starches and sugars out of your diet, and increase intestinal elimination through taking one or two enemata daily.

(Throbbing in Head)
Question: A. M. L. writes: "When walking hurriedly to catch the next car I have a violent throbbing in the back of my head. Does this mean that some sweet day a blood vessel will rupture, and out I go?"

Answer: You may be suffering from high blood pressure, and this can only be ascertained through an examination by a physician. The ache in the back of your head may be caused by prolapsed organs which are still farther crowded into the pelvis when you are running.

Paris. (AP)—Aristide Briand, foreign minister, has returned from a seashore resort where he obtained a reputation for being his own double.

He went incognito, and let only the mayor of the city know his identity and that of his companion, Henri Chéron, former minister of finance. The mayor kept the secret, with the result that everywhere M. Briand went people remarked his resemblance to the M. Briand who has become such a public figure in France and Europe, but never dreamed they had seen the real M. Briand himself.

HOME BREW LEGAL

New Orleans, Aug. 29.—(AP)—Declining to charge a violation of the prohibition law against Charles M. Howell, New Orleans, a policeman, for escorting a truck load of beer to headquarters here of the American Legion, Edmund E. Talbot, United States district attorney, today drew a distinction between beer manufactured for home consumption and that made for commercial use.

The patrolman, an officer in the American Legion, was guarding a load of beer carried into the driveway of the Legion headquarters where there was an installation of officers in progress. Howell was arrested but the truck driver escaped.

The district attorney was told Howell had made the beer at his home and was donating it for the celebration.

The Hollywood Story

Copyright 1930 by NEA SERVICE Inc. by ERNEST LYNN

BEGIN HERE TODAY

DAN BORIMER, a scenario writer in Hollywood, under contract but now free lance, without much success, is in love with ANNE WINTER, who, beginning as an extra, has progressed rapidly and is now under contract to one of the largest studios. Anne lives with two other girls, MONA MORRISON, a gay little red head, and EVA HARLEY, a quiet girl who at times is very bitter and who has had a tragic love experience. Eva and Mona are extras, but Mona works only occasionally and Eva very rarely, and this is another reason for her dependency.

PAUL COLLIER, who writes a daily movie column for a string of newspapers, shares Dan's apartment with him. Collier accidentally meets Eva on Hollywood Boulevard one day, and they run into a movie actor named FRANK MAURY. Maury, it develops, is the man who has broken Eva's heart. Anne and Maury are almost fast friends, and Anne Winter telephones Borimer to come right over.

her, murmuring soothingly in her ear, and while they sat thus the doctor came.

Anne brought him to the room at once. Mona remained with him and Eva, but Dan, relieved of his duty there, joined Anne and Paul in the kitchen.

And he got Anne to tell him what had happened. Mona, who occupied the same bedroom with Eva, had heard Eva get up during the night, had followed her to the bathroom and there had seen her with a bottle in her hand.

"And the wildest gleam in her eyes," Dan, Mona dashed it from her hand and Eva struggled with her, trying to get it again. And I woke up and came out, and we managed to get Eva to her room.

But Eva had continued to struggle furiously, to cry out that she was going to kill herself, and both Mona and Anne were desperately frightened.

any danger of Eva losing her mind? Is that what you're afraid of?" But the physician shook his head and frowned. "I'm not competent to say," but don't care to trust a person with a suicidal mania, however temporary, in a house with two girls. I'm going to have a psychiatrist look at her."

"Then it departed Anne cried again, and Mona, even, was utterly cheerless. The two young men remained for a while with reassuring words, and then they left, and they were thoughtful and silent on the ride home.

Anne had to work the next day, but Mona, who was free, called on Eva at the hospital and found her calmer, though penitent and tearful. Mona called Dan to tell him "And there's nothing to worry about. The doctors say it's more nervous shock than anything, and as soon as Eva has rested from it, she can come home. I'm sure glad."

"I know it," There was silence from Mona after that, but in a few moments he heard her voice again and it sounded tearful. She said: "Aw, gee, Dan, you don't know how good Eva's been to me."

"What's the matter?" Dan asked. "Out with it." Collier turned a bland gaze on him. "Out with what?"

Hints on How to Keep Well by World Famed Authority

WOOD ALCOHOL CAN POISON YOU EVEN IF YOU DON'T DRINK IT BY DR. MORRIS FISHER Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

Everyone fears wood alcohol. Enough cases of blindness and death have resulted and been widely reported in the press to cause intense fear among the public.

Obviously a lot of automobiles standing in a closed garage with the radiator mixture boiling when the cars are brought in for the night, will give off a lot of wood alcohol into the air.

When wood alcohol is used as a solvent for shellacs and varnishes it is also a hazard. In large industries such shellacs and varnishes are used only in rooms with spraying booths and proper ventilation facilities.

Unfortunally the treatment of wood alcohol poisoning is not especially successful. When the blindness starts not much can be done to stop it.

It has been the history of modern industry that it intrudes new hazards and takes no steps to control them until accidents and deaths have occurred.

YOUR CHILDREN

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

A few months ago a scientist who had devoted years of research to the weakness of the eye, announced to the world that he had made an astounding discovery. After spending years among the natives of Africa to determine what civilization had done to destroy the perfection of human vision, he found that it had done practically nothing.

For the savages of the dark continent, he tells us, who know neither books nor fine sewing, have precisely the same defects of vision that we have.

Which is most astounding. We have lived with the idea that using our eyes the way we do accounts for our optical difficulties; it is a relief to know that probably we would have these things anyway, at least to a certain degree.

But that isn't the end of the story. This doctor put glasses on the near-sighted and far-sighted natives, those with astigmatism and those with uneven muscular balance.

Without doubt children with suspected maladjustment of vision should be looked after. I have two girls who had to wear glasses very young. Neither wears them now.

One wore them for two years. In that time a decided nervous trouble that affected her whole body, a sympathetic reaction from strain, disappeared. She hasn't needed them since.

Now if we like to suffer for our own sins of omission or carelessness, that's up to us. But when it comes to our children, it is a different story.

Talkies Prove a Boon To Comedy People

By DAN THOMAS Hollywood, Calif. - And now we have another outcome of the articulate movie-comedies. Of course, motion picture comedies always have been in vogue, but never before have the major producers of feature-length films turned to these laugh getters as they are at the present time.

So popular have these comedies become of late that producers are trying to inject some comedy into every picture they make, whether it has any place or not. In fact, at times they have become overzealous in this direction.

GRANGE LECTURERS ARE FOR DRY LAWS

Dover, N. H., Aug. 28.—The New England Grange Lecturers, despite the vigorous protest of a Maine member, were on record today as opposed to efforts to repeal the 18th Amendment. Support of prohibition and aid in enforcement were also pledged in a motion passed yesterday during their 19th annual conference.

Today the more serious things of the conference are to be set aside and an all-day automobile tour of New Hampshire's scenic places has been scheduled. Overnight stops at Dartmouth college, Hanover, have been planned.

L. E. Verrill, New Gloucester, Me., argued at yesterday's session for repeal of the 18th Amendment. State Master Charles H. Curtis, Rhode Island, pleaded for the support of dry candidates; Mrs. Mabel Cummings, lecturer from Worcester, Mass., attacked the Wet Congressional candidate in her district; Mrs. Ida E. Richardson, Grange secretary, criticized those drys unwilling to fight for the cause; and National Lecturer James C. Farmer, South Newbury, N. H., spoke in a lighter vein of other things than prohibition.

KITCHEN QUESTIONNAIRE

HOW CAN I PREPARE "BAKED STEAK"?

To preserve meat juices in steak, bake it with a thick layer of Ivory Salt on both sides, remove from the oven and scrape off the encrusted salt. This assures full flavor without "saltiness."

To secure your free copy of the Worcester Salt Cook Book address: Worcester Salt Co., 71 Murray St., New York City.

THE CURE BEGINS IN THE KITCHEN

So many people suffer from constipation. It steals health and happiness. They spend millions of dollars yearly on pills and drugs.

That's the wrong way to try to cure constipation. The right way is to correct the diet—to add enough roughage to your food to sweep the poisons out of your system.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to do this. You'll enjoy it as a ready-to-eat cereal, with milk or cream. A delicious food for maintaining health.

Use Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also for making bran muffins and breads. Adds a pleasant, nut-like flavor to omelets, soups, salads. At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

FLYING SUBS NEXT
Chicago, Aug. 29.—(AP)—"Flying submarines" to cruise at 250 miles an hour eight miles above the earth, were predicted today by Edward B. Warner, president of the Society of Automotive Engineers, now in convention.
Cruising speeds of 100 to 150 miles an hour were sufficient for present needs, he declared, except in certain parts of the west and north, where travelers wish to fly 1,500 miles between dawn and sunset. When more speed is demanded the "submarine" and the "rocket plane," long a dream of Glen Curtiss, would be developed, Warner said.
