REPUBLICANS HOLD CAUCUSES TONIGHT

In This District Fate of Con- gressman Fenn Will Be Decided — Waterbury to be Scene of Hot Contests.

New Haven, Sept. 4.—(AP.)—Republican caucuses to elect convention delegates will be held throughout Connecticut tonight and some of them will be "pepped up" by local rivalries, the strongest dose of tobacco being sprinkled into the meetings in Waterbury.

The only give and take battle will be over the city convention delegates at Waterbury where William J. Pape, co-worker with Prof. Albert Levitt of Redding, seeks to control the delegation to the state convention as against the Republican organization forces led by Senator E. W. Goss. The battle there which is marked with some acrimony, brings to a focus the campaign of Mr. Pape for a nomination as comptroller on a ticket which would have Prof. Levitt the nominee for governor. Mr. Levitt, himself is hopeful of getting some delegates in towns in which he has made a two months appeal for aid in dethroning the present state party chairman, Mr. Roraback.

Fenn's Fate

The caucuses will not only name state convention delegates but those to the Congressional and Senatorial conventions. In the First District the delegates will determine the fate of Congressman E. Hart Fenn and the forecast was, now that former U. S. Senator George P. McLean has committed himself that way, that Colonel Clarence W. Seymour will control the Congressional delegates. In the Fifth District New Haven county will favor Senator Goss and Waterbury and everything looked rosy for him in the Litchfield county towns.

In the other districts the Congressional delegates will be for the present Congressmen, Freeman, Titson and Merritt.

Senatorial Contests

Senatorial contests in the caucuses stage are many and most of these will probably be ironed out and those not so settled will be

HOOVER'S CAMPAIGN OPENS NEXT MONTH

To Make Four Major Speeches for Return of His Party to Power.

Washington, Sept. 4.—(AP.)—Viewed generally as the opening of President Hoover's campaign for the return of his party to power in Congress in the fall and for his own re-election two years hence, his acceptance of invitations to make four addresses early in October was widely speculated upon today in the capital.

Marking as it does a sharp departure from the policy followed by his predecessor in office, the program of four major speeches in six days, which was announced late yesterday, also will be one of the most ambitious efforts of Mr. Hoover upon the platform.

In Three States

Not only will the quartet of addresses take him to three widely separated states, but it will permit him to gain contact with the people of several other states as he passes through.

It has been generally accepted that all of his addresses are to be appropriate to the occasion, which might mean that before the American Bankers Association at Cleveland on October 2 he would talk of finances and business, and before the American Federation of Labor in Boston the afternoon of October 6, he would discuss unemployment. These two invitations were the latest accepted.

His speech on the morning of October 6 before the American Legion in Boston and that at the King's Mountain battle anniversary on October 7 may be devoted to more general questions. If the President chooses to carry his cases directly to the country in this initial broadcast.

COP KILLS BANDIT DURING A HOLDUP

Two Men Try to Stop New Haven Officer on Lonely Road—One Shot Down.

New Haven, Sept. 4.—(AP.)—Officer J. J. McHugh, member of the New Haven vice-squad, shot and killed one of two men who early today attempted to hold him up on a lonely road in West Haven.

The slain man was Archer B. Lafo of West Haven, whom police had sought for some time in connection with recent holdups in this vicinity. His companion fled following the shooting.

McHugh, dressed in civilian clothes had gone to West Haven to confer with officials there concerning a series of robberies. While driving along the road, an automobile carrying the two men pulled across the highway in front of his car. One of the men, later identified as Lafo, leveled a pistol at him and ordered him to "stay where you are."

Officer Shoots

As Lafo approached McHugh's automobile, the New Haven patrolman leaped out of his car with his revolver in his hand. He fired twice at Lafo, one of the bullets striking the holdup man near the stomach and the other going wild. Lafo reached his car and slumped behind the steering wheel. His companion who was standing several feet away, fled when McHugh fired.

The shooting of Lafo, who was married and the father of four children, climaxed a drive launched by local police against a gang of bandits who have terrorized this city and its vicinity during the past month. Eleven men have been arrested in less than a week in the drive.

A policeman driving to the scene of the shooting, arrested George B. Moore of Ansonia, when the man could give no satisfactory reason for being in the neighborhood. He was being held for questioning.

Wanted in Providence

Providence, R. I., police today notified New Haven officials that several officers would be sent here in an effort to identify Lafo and Moore as men wanted in that city for the slaying of a policeman several months ago.

The shooting of Lafo recalled the death of Herbert Messner, 22 year old youth who was shot and killed by Detective Joseph Sullivan of New Haven last winter. Messner, wanted for violation of his parole from Cheshire, was shot as he tried to escape from Sullivan and another detective.

Sullivan was found to be criminally responsible for Messner's death by Coroner Corrigan but he was freed in City Court when presented on a charge of manslaughter.

MEYER WILL HEAD FEDERAL RESERVE

Edmund Platt to Resign; New Man Was Head of War Fi- nance Corporation.

Washington, Sept. 4.—(AP.)—The early resignation of Edmund Platt as vice governor of the Federal Reserve Board is expected by the administration and Eugene Meyer, of New York, will be appointed by President Hoover as governor of the board.

The recent resignation of Roy A. Young left the governorship of the board vacant. President Hoover has been unable to name Mr. Meyer in this place because Mr. Platt represents the board from the New York district.

Administration officials were revealed today as understanding that Mr. Platt has about decided to accept a position in the business world. This would clear the way for appointment of Mr. Meyer, who served for years as chairman of the War Finance Corporation and later

GREETING THE GREETERS ON BROADWAY

COSTE OVER HALF WAY ON FLIGHT TO DALLAS

Question Mark Speeding at 130 Miles an Hour to Cap- ture $25,000 Prize; Sight- ed All Along the Way.

By Associated Press

The scarlet Question Mark, carrying its trans-Atlantic conquest with a non-stop flight from New York to Dallas for a $25,000 plum, put half of its journey behind it today in the first six hours of flight.

The French plane of Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte zoomed away from Curtiss Field at 8:55 o'clock this morning with the morning sun at its tail, and whirled across the Allegheny mountains, the worst stretch on their route, at a 130-mile-an-hour rate, passing over Allentown, Pa., at 7:45, over Edensburg at 8:45 and over Pittsburgh at 9:45.

Almost three hours to the minute after the takeoff, the plane was passing the Pennsylvania-Ohio line with clear weather ahead and a good chance to gain speed.

Coste hoped before starting to make the New York-Dallas flight in nine or ten hours. It is about 1,400 miles by air line but a little more than 1,600 by the Pittsburgh-Cincinnati-Little Rock route to which Coste intended to adhere.

At 3 o'clock the fliers had completed about half of their trip.

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—(AP.)—Merger "in the near future" of the Bank of Italy and the Bank of America of California was announced today at the head offices of the Bank of Italy here. The new institution will be known as the Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association.

A. P. Giannini, founder of the Bank of Italy and Trans-America Corporation, will head a committee to handle details of the merger.

Trans-America Corporation is the holding company for the Bank of Italy and Banks of America of California.

CARLOADS OF FEED FOR DROUGHT AREAS

Nearly 4,000 Cars Already On Way—Hay and Straw Bulk of the Shipments.

Washington, Sept. 4.—(AP.)—Permits for the shipment of 3,733 carloads of feed into the drought stricken areas have been reported to Secretary Hyde by the American Railway Association.

Of the total, 1,264 carloads were for destinations in Virginia; 784 for West Virginia; 357 for Maryland; 72 for Pennsylvania; 611 for Ohio; 305 for Kentucky; 53 for Tennessee; 285 for Indiana; 7 or Illinois; 4 for Arkansas and one for Mississippi.

The shipment was made up of hay and straw to the extent of 48 percent, 14 percent was mill feed, 3 percent corn, and 5 percent oats.

Reduced Rates

The permits were issued for transportation under the reduced railroad rates upon certification by agents of the department of agriculture that the feed was needed because of conditions created by the drought.

Secretary Hyde today designated a group of departmental officials to handle specific phases of drought relief closely related to their regular activities.

REDS WITH SPEARS SURROUNDING CITY

Only 17,000 of 40,000 Chi- nese Have Guns in Their Attack on Changsha.

Shanghai, Sept. 4.—(AP.)—Wireless dispatches today reported Red legions numbering 40,000 men had virtually surrounded Changsha, capital of Hunan, within whose walls were only 30,000 defenders.

The Red forces, originating in Changsha, said the only avenue not affected was the northern railway approach to the city.

Red riflemen were said to number 17,000, the remainder being armed only with spears.

Military defense officers did not consider their own forces strong enough to launch an offensive and said attempts to obtain reinforcements from the Nationalist government had failed.

The situation was described as dangerous in the highest degree and the Reds were expected to attack momentarily. A sharp clash occurred south of the city this morning, many being killed on both sides. The main bodies of both forces remained inactive, however.

Changsha was sacked and partly burned by Communists a little more than a month ago. All foreigners, with the exception of Allen Cameron of Denver, Colo., a representative of the Faith Mission, evacuated the city when threats of a second Communist invasion appeared. Cameron refused to leave the city.

Two Officers Kill Selves When Accused as Spies

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 4.—The fact another man charged with complicity in the espionage plot. Officials said Colonel Marinopolski's treason was communicated to the government by former officers in the Bulgarian Army, who took service in the Rumanian Army after the transfer of the Dobruja region from Bulgarian to Rumanian sovereignty.

After his arrest, the colonel was cross examined briefly, and then told he was in custody. His captors added that his revolver, however, had not been confiscated, and he could draw his own inferences from that fact. The prisoner promptly drew the weapon and shot himself.

CITY OF NEARLY 50,000 LAID WASTE BY STORM

WIRE SYSTEMS ARE ALL DOWN IN REPUBLIC

City of Santo Domingo is Al- most Entirely Destroyed by Hurricane — Whole Army is Called Out.

Santo Domingo, Sept. 5.—(AP.)—The city of Santo Domingo, most ancient settlement of the white man in the new world was almost totally destroyed by a hurricane that swept over the eastern end of the island of Haiti yesterday.

It is believed that nine hundred persons were killed or injured. The hurricane struck Santo Domingo at 2 p. m. and blew for four hours. Houses in the aristocratic quarter were razed to their foundations. Dwellings of the poor section disappeared on the wings of the wind estimated blowing at about 150 miles an hour. The storm exceeding anything here within ten years. President Rafael Trujillo took personal charge of the relief work. The entire army was called out.

Wire Systems

The communications system of the Republic were totally destroyed. No news came from the rest of the country, but in the neighborhood of the capital bridges were wrecked and roads were rendered impassable. Telegraph lines simply vanished.

The plant of the newspaper La Opinion, Associated Press member in Santo Domingo, was destroyed. Despite this, members of its staff set a store to the New York offices, a building adjoining La Opinion's plant crumbled before the wind. Three of its 15 occupants perished.

Asylum Destroyed

The insane asylum was destroyed and those inmates escaping death ran wild through the city streets, adding to the horror of the disorder and confusion everywhere. They finally were recaptured by soldiers and police.

Officials and newspapers appealed for aid to the American press and to all charitable organizations in the United States. Hunger began to show its effects today. There have been many robberies.

The districts of Nueva Villa, Duarte and San Carlos were destroyed, scarce a wreck of a wall left standing.

RED CROSS READY TO RUSH SUPPLIES

No Details of Disaster Until After Midday When Radio Sta- tions Had Set Up Emergency Apparatus — Wind Mounts to 160 Miles an Hour During Height of Storm; Latest Advices Say Hurricane Has Missed Cuba and Passes Out to Sea—Florida Not in Danger at Present, Forecasters Predict—One Ship Almost Wrecked.

By Associated Press

Over nine hundred persons were reported dead and injured today in the wreckage left in Santo Domingo by a hurricane which swept westward along the Greater Antilles during the last 24 hours.

The capital of the Dominican Republic, a city of nearly 50,000 population, was laid waste by the storm. Not until midday was communication restored with the stricken city when All-America Cables improvised a station in the island city by which first details of the horror began to reach the world.

Terrific Winds

The wind mounted to 160 miles an hour during the climax of the hurricane, leaving a trail of ruin and silence, striking the Porto Rico line steamship Coamo. The storm lashed its way toward Cuba and the Florida Straits but, latest advices said, swerved sharply northward, apparently passing out to sea and sparing lands further to the west.

U. S. to Help

Every agency of the United States government today was bent toward gauging the extent of the calamity and preparing for what ever relief measure might have to be taken.

Weather bureaus around the storm area watched closely for new developments. Red Cross headquarters stood ready to use its facilities. The Navy Department awaited messages which would indicate the role it might play.

$15,000 CABLED AT ONCE

Washington, Sept. 4.—(AP.) The Red Cross had immediately today to aid the suffering in Santo Domingo on receipt of a plea from President Rafael L. Trujillo, of the Dominican Republic.

Fifteen thousand dollars was cabled to American Minister Curtis as "an initial appropriation for the emergency." Captain Antonio Silva, manager of the Porto Rican Chapter of the Red Cross, was ordered to go by air from San Juan to the scene of devastation.

He can cover the distance in one hour-and-a-half. A report from him is expected late today. He is to make a survey and take charge of first relief activities.

Is Experienced

Silva bore much of the responsibility in disaster relief provided by the Red Cross in his own country after the 1928 hurricane. He was found at that time that it was impractical to send in relief commodities. For this reason, officials decided today to send the cash. Silva will be in charge of obtaining relief supplies from nearest available sources. He was ordered to place himself at the disposal of American Minister Curtis.

Curtis relayed the request from President Trujillo. Red Cross officials headed by Chairman Payne already were in conference when the State Department word arrived.

POPULATION OF 35,000

Washington, Sept. 5.—(AP.)—The city of Santo Domingo, reported half ruined and in need of medical supplies and water for three suffering from the wrath of the hurricane, held an estimated population of 35,000 three years ago.

Located on the Ozama river, a tropical stream, it has been considered an outstanding specimen of the Sixteenth Century Spanish city in the new world.

Guarding the entrance to the harbor is an old rock fort, with its historic turreted Columbus tower. In the town is the old Gothic cathedral, whose columns once were buried, and whose rest the bones of many notable families in early American history.

Extremely Rugged

The country over which the storm wreaked havoc is extremely rugged and woody. It covers 19,832 square miles and has three major mountain ranges running east and west. Along the southern boundary of the great plain of Vega Real, which is 140 miles long and 15 miles wide, stands Loma Tina, the highest mountain in the West Indies, reaching up 10,900 feet.

Many Waterfalls

Irregular mountain spurs break the remainder of the country while waterfalls dot the myriad of streams in the valleys. While the climate is tropical, it is considered healthful because of ocean winds and the elevation. The usual dry season extends from December to June, while precipitation in the wet months caused the growth of luxuriant forests in which such trees as mahogany, satinwood and cedar predominate.

Although mining once was the island's major source of revenue, that

WASHINGTON ANXIOUS

Washington, Sept. 4.—(AP.)—Word of the situation in Santo Domingo was being awaited fearfully today in the capital.

Red Cross headquarters kept in touch with newspaper officials. No definite relief plans were being formulated, it having been determined to follow the regular procedure and await requests for help.

At the first indication that the American coast might be endangered by the storm, the Red Cross will move to organize state chapters into relief units. Special facilities will be made available from here if such a step seems warranted.

Little Information

The Navy Department was listening for any messages from the affected areas but none had been received at 10 a. m. E. S. T. Information.

TREASURY BALANCE

Washington, Sept. 4.—(AP.)—Treasury receipts for September 2 were $6,139,462.99; expenditures $9,132,948.17; balance $100,673,615.24.

The Life Story of LON CHANEY by DAN THOMAS

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third of six stories on the life of the late Lon Chaney, the screen's greatest character actor.

By DAN THOMAS
NEA Service Writer

Hollywood—What sort of a human being hid behind the masks of fiends and phantoms that Lon Chaney wore in the motion pictures and which made him famous as the world's greatest character actor? Hollywood really knew little about Chaney when he was alive, and his death has not added very much to the sum total of available information about the personal side of this man who made anything you wanted him to talk about, except himself.

It is silly for any man to talk about himself. Chaney told me during the course of an interview about two years ago. "In the first place, no man is going to say things that are detrimental to himself. And if he says favorable things about himself, people will say: 'Just another actor blowing off.'"

But here are some facts that are known about this man whose reticence concealed his own personality as much as his famous make-ups concealed his face: He lived a quiet life in a Spanish model house in Beverly Hills. He owned three autos, but had no chauffeur.

He built five houses in the past few years and sold each at a profit. He spent his vacations camping and fishing, with his wife and a few close friends.

Chaney looked more like a business man than an actor, but they called him the "star" who lived like a clerk. He never went to Hollywood parties. After work, he went home and he and his family had a few close friends, not connected with the movies.

He was stockholder in several businesses. He liked mathematical puzzles and undoubtedly read more than any Hollywood star. He was a skilled musician.

He hated to travel. His hobby was amateur movie photography, and he used to take numerous reels of pictures and these camping expeditions and also "shoot" scenes in his own movies, in which he did not appear.

He raised an awful row with studio executives when they wanted to hire a valet for him. Among his closest friends were companions of his days as a vaudeville "hooper", notably Clinton Lyle, he and Lyle having married two girls playing in a "sister act" when all were in vaudeville in San Francisco years ago.

He hated the tinsel brilliance of gaudy "first nights," but he attended them occasionally, probably because he felt he ought to. He got a tremendous kick out of that familiar gag about the bug: "Don't step on it; it may be Lon Chaney in disguise." He liked prize fights and would travel clear across the United States to see a big one.

This is one of the few pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Chaney. It was taken on one of the few "first nights" he attended.

Chaney declined. He preferred to sit, unnoticed, in the crowd. His New York friends never knew just where they could find him. Once, when his office wanted him in Eight special buses loaded to the eyebrows were added to the plentiful supply of regular ones, making over twenty that passed through during the day. An observer counted 75 cars passing the corner in less than five minutes at one time during the day.

Three cars were involved in a slight accident at the north end of the Green, Monday afternoon, two cars being parked and the third bumping with sufficient force to throw a little girl passenger against the windshield, cutting a deep gash in her forehead. Everyday Emergencies

I can't keep that appointment

Is the boy on the way with my order?

Send a service man

I missed the train

Can the dentist see me at once?

Many times the telephone has played a valiant part in tragic occurrences when life and property have been at stake. At such times its great value is readily recognized and appreciated.

Yet little thought is usually given to its able assistance in solving lesser difficulties—bridging distance, giving instant personal contact, helping to straighten out little vexing troubles. In a countless list of life's minor emergencies, the telephone helps to meet each situation as it arises, turning a possible annoyance into a mere incident—nothing more.

The ability to help you cope with these everyday emergencies is one of the most valuable aids that your telephone service offers you, and it is essential that we strive constantly to increase the scope of this everyday use of telephone service if we are to achieve our goal:

Growing Up With The Industry! What Industry?—Why RADIO!

Remember the days of the old crystal sets and even before that? Well, we were working on radio then and trouble shooting. Then along came that famous 2 tube commercial set with head phones that everyone thought was such a marvel. That came just after the great wave of home built sets. How fast they have died out with the great improvements in commercial sets. We've been on the job through it all and have found out about a lot of kinks that upset your radio. So we believe that when your set is giving trouble and you want to get out of it quickly and economically phone

ASK ANY CARPENTER

A sure way to find out where the good lumber comes from is to ask an experienced carpenter. His saw knows—his hammer knows—his plane knows good lumber from "not so good". We'll take our chances on your next order on his "say so."

CAUCUSES, PRIMARIES. Caucuses and primaries are occupying the thoughts of a lot of folks these days. Pinehurst's liveliest interest in them is a legitimate if selfish hope that nobody will be too much disappointed. Disappointment hurts appetites. Limpy appetites are bad for the food-shop business. So Pinehurst hopes that those of its customers who are in active politics will restrain their expectations and take their defeats (if any) philosophically. Here's for good appetite.
