Bookkeeping Not Included This Year—Classes Begin Monday Night.

The public evening school which opens on Monday evening, September 29, will include among its courses both typewriting and shorthand. It is not planned to offer bookkeeping this year. Last year the school enrolled 115 pupils for typewriting and shorthand.

For the classes which will be organized next Monday evening in shorthand and typewriting there will be three rooms available. The equipment used in the day high school will be used, which will include Underwood and Royal typewriters. The Gregg system of stenography will be taught. The three instructors are specially trained for teaching the subjects and each has had experience. In each of the subjects there will be three groups—beginners, intermediate and advanced.

The stages of progress for beginners in typewriting will be to master the entire keyboard by the touch system, to get practice in order to acquire accuracy in copying material, to write ordinary business letters and to make simple tabulations. For those who have had typewriting before there will be drill for speed as well as accuracy, practice in letter writing and tabulating.

Shorthand beginners will be taught that shorthand is written by sound and expressed by signs. They will have practice in reading from the Gregg Speed Studies and will take easy dictation. The classes for intermediate and advanced pupils will have practice to increase speed in reading and writing shorthand. The advanced pupils will be expected to finish the Gregg Manual.

One or both of these courses will be open to men already who have already completed the equivalent of at least a grammar school education. On account of the great demand for instruction in these branches only pupils who understand the principles of ordinary English composition can be admitted.

Those desiring to enroll may register any evening the school is in session at the high school building. Sessions will be held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

LEAGUE'S FINANCIAL GROUPS TO GATHER

Women Voters Finance Chairman to Meet Friday at Mrs. G. S. Hauck's Home.

Mrs. Emerson R. Newell of Greenwich, vice-president and finance chairman of the Connecticut League of Women Voters, has called the annual fall finance field day of the state league to meet at the home of Mrs. George S. Hauck of Colony Road, West Hartford on Friday, September 26. Presidents, treasurers and finance chairmen of the fifty-eight local Leagues of Women Voters in the state will meet from eleven-thirty to three o'clock to plan the budget for 1936-37.

This budget, which will be presented for final vote of the state convention in Bridgeport in November, will be estimated to cover the League's legislative program for 1937 through which for five sessions the League has informed its membership of the progress of bills in the Assembly.

PHONE PIONEERS GOING TO LOS ANGELES MEET

Moran, Chairman of the Board of the Southern New England Telephone Company and one of the real pioneers of the telephone business, will head the delegation of telephone men and women who are to attend the annual convention of the Telephone Pioneers of America to be held at Los Angeles in October.

Mr. Moran will be accompanied by Mrs. Moran and daughter, Helen, following the convention they will make an extensive tour of the west.

N. Y. REPUBLICANS WORRY OVER PLANK

Wet and Dry Issue to Cause Considerable Debate at Tomorrow's Parley.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 24.—(AP)—With trouble threatened no matter what they decide, state Republican leaders were struggling today with the problem whether to go wet, dry or moist in the convention opening here tomorrow.

The extreme wets, led by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler and former Senator James W. Wadsworth, remained uncompromising in their demand for a wet candidate and a plank asking repeal of the 18th Amendment, and the Women's Christian Temperance Union had not softened its threat to put a dry Republican gubernatorial candidate and the platform were not dry in every sense of the word. And to add to the troubles of the leaders there was a general belief that United States Attorney Charles E. Tuttle, believed by many voters to be first in the race for the nomination for governor, would not accept the nomination unless the platform coincided with his demand for repeal of the 18th amendment.

Dry for Tuttle One development however, was a real comfort to the leaders. Fred A. Victor, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League surprised everybody by a statement that Mr. Tuttle deserved "the support of right minded citizens" if he would agree to "respect, obey, enforce and defend the constitution." Whether the dry organization would agree to a repeal plank in the platform was not made known.

While Mr. Tuttle continued to be the leading candidate for the head of the ticket, the name of Attorney General Hamilton Ward was mentioned more and more as a possible compromise candidate. Mr. Ward has not committed himself on the prohibition question. He has pledged the support of the wet Erie county delegation to the last.

15 PATIENTS AT FIRST HOSPITAL CHEST CLINIC

Dr. Edwin C. Higgins Conducts Examinations at Annex Yesterday—Mostly Contact Patients.

Dr. Edwin C. Higgins conducted his first clinic for chest and lung examinations yesterday at the Memorial hospital. Fifteen were examined, nine adults and six children. The plan, Dr. Higgins explained, is to make an examination of those who have been brought in contact with persons who have been ill with tuberculosis and also to make examinations in chronic or arrested cases. The chest examinations are conducted in the hospital annex, but in addition to equipment that is used in the annex there is also available the main hospital equipment, such as the X-ray work and the examination of cultures.

At the clinic yesterday there was one case where a person had been discharged from a tuberculosis hospital in New York and is to take rest in this section, while other cases were "contact" patients, or those who had been in contact with persons who had been ill and others where a cure had been effected by the arresting of the disease.

POSTOFFICE BURNS

Chilmark, Mass., Sept. 24.—(AP)—A building housing the postoffice and general store was destroyed by fire early today with a loss estimated at $20,000. The cause of the fire was undetermined. It was believed to have started in a garage at the rear of the building.

Postmaster Carl F. Whitkop, who lives in an apartment on the second floor of the building, was out on the left hand while carrying mail sacks from the postoffice. He saved the mail. The money and stamps were in the postoffice safe, which was covered with debris. It was believed, however, that the contents of the safe would be found intact.

"It's almost a lost art," lamented Jim Whalen, referring to the once flourishing business of comic song writing. Whalen belongs to that popular radio trio known as the Bonnie Laddies, whose mirth provoking antics from the National Broadcasting studios suggest anything but dearth of material.

They neglect everything but jazz. Here we have a big radio public clamoring for new songs every week. What else can we do but create them ourselves? "Then the comic song won't become a complete lost art so long as there are comic songsters left?" Whalen was asked.

Sister Aimee and Ma

by DON ROBERTS

The strange story of a religious venture that became a two-million dollar business

© 1930 by N.E.A. Service

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third of four stories on the remarkable rise of Aimee Semple McPherson and her mother and co-vangelist, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, forming the most absorbing narrative biography of two unusually interesting women.

BY DON ROBERTS
NEA Service Writer
(Copyright 1930, NEA Service, Inc.)

Los Angeles, Sept. 24. — Where does Aimee Semple McPherson's congregation of 12,000 come from? They are devout, sincere middle-class people from Los Angeles and vicinity. Practically none of them is wealthy and some of them are poor. But their faith in Sister is unbounded and they give cheerfully at her call and pray with and for her.

In the "Declaration of Faith" signed by all members upon entering, it is stipulated that if any member disagrees about the conduct of the temple or its policies he or she shall suffer automatic dismissal. Yet they sign cheerfully.

The implicit devotion of Aimee's flock was clearly demonstrated during Sister's recent reported "dangerous breakdown" and "near blindness." Thousands prayed daily for her recovery as they eagerly awaited bulletins from her bedside.

The fact that Ma Kennedy, from her own sick bed where she rested with a badly damaged nose, declared Aimee had merely undergone a face-lifting operation, didn't shake their confidence in the least. Nor did they believe it when Ma charged that her damaged nose had been broken by Aimee's fist during a fight at Angelus temple. They chose to accept Aimee's explanation that Ma, in a fit of anger, had fallen on her nose and broken it—and let it go at that.

When Sister is at the temple the crowds are larger, the collections for and there are many conversions. Healing meetings are conducted by assistant pastors, so great is the demand. Aimee speaks two or three times a week at the night meetings, addresses various classes almost daily and fills the pulpit on Sunday.

Her Sunday sermons are spectacles, frequently illustrated with scenery and living characters. Tableaus are given in which bobbed-haired angels with tinselled paper wings play a prominent part. "There is music," lots of it and many kinds. A large band plays before the services and an orchestra alternates. Stirring hymns are sung, there are mramba bands, cornet solos, saxophone selections and other instruments. For Aimee's view is that it is not wrong to play any instrument in church, if said instrument is dedicated to God's worship.

The fervor of Sister's ecstatic religious doctrines as propounded from her pulpit with all the fire and enthusiasm of a political speaker is evidenced by men and women converted in an excited, rapturous state. Prostrations under the stress of other emotional stimulus are not infrequent; she plays at will on the emotions of her audience.

All the while she is making vivid gestures to hammer home her meaning. Sister gets positively lyrical at times, especially when she is describing her conversion to the Four Square Gospel that she preaches.

For example, this: "As the wonder, the power, the majesty of it cascaded over the battlements of glory, filling, flooding, enveloping my very being, the fan-

ON THE FACE OF THINGS it is hard to tell if Mother Kennedy's recent face-lifting operation restored much of her youthful appearance. Ma's nose—variously reported to have been broken by Aimee's fist (Ma's version) and by a fall to the floor (Aimee's version) is shown in the foreground of the picture on the right, after the bandages had been removed.

gers of the Spirit swept the aeolian harp strings of my heart and evoked the sound of a great amen."

She shouts, she whispers, she exhorts, she pleads, she even sings. In the middle of a sermon she may suddenly cry: "Sing! Everybody sing! You up there in the top gallery, sing!" They do sing, loud and lustily.

Aimee's Jesus is a personal one, a sad-eyed man, dusty with the grime of Galilee's unpaved roads, footsore, weary and humble. She portrays Him not as an image, but as a friend.

So she humanizes other Biblical characters. Here is an excerpt from one of her sermons about Dorcas—a woman who was raised from the dead by Peter at Joppa and became a friend of the distressed—which illustrates the naive but fetching McPherson manner:

"Methinks I see a red-headed, freckle-faced, pug-nosed, bare-footed little boy come limping up the road, calling 'Dorcas, Dorcas, where are you?'"

"What is it, darling?" Dorcas replies. "Oh, Dorcas, I just smashed my toe something awful down the road. It's bleeding and I know I am going to lose my toenail. Could you fix it for me, Dorcas?"

"Oh, you poor little dear; come right into the kitchen this minute," Dorcas would say to that little boy.

Thus Aimee makes the characters of the Bible talk in the language her hearers know.

Swayed by the magic of her personality, Sister's followers cling to her with an intense devotion that is astigmatic, if not entirely blind.

Their faith began when Aimee, in her early days here, "cured" the sick and the lame with the healing powers of faith at street corner meetings; it endured when Aimee was "kidnapped" several years ago and "miraculously" restored to them in a desert shack; it was still firm the other day when Ma Kennedy charged that Sister had slammed her in the nose.

There have been so many conflicting stories about this latter episode that the only thing that is clear is the evident—something did happen to Ma's nose, something terrible. All the rest is still in dispute.

It all hooks up with the internal—and eternal—game of politics as played within the inner circles of the temple.

When Ma was ousted from the temple control after her row with Aimee over the fired bandmaster, she went to Seattle where she soon figured in a breach of promise suit with an aged minister. When this suit was dismissed, Ma and Sister appeared to have made up and Ma came back to Los Angeles, welcomed at the station by a delegation from Angelus Temple with a brass band, many flowers and Sister.

But she was not the same Ma who had been reduced to a minority on the board before her departure. During her absence, the Echo Park Evangelistic Association had met and eliminated her from the three trustees entirely. Besides Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. Schaffer, Mrs. Harriet Jordan now composed the directors. Ma, the old commander, was a mere orderly.

This didn't set well with Mother Kennedy, who had run things during the lean days and wanted to run them again in the fat. Such became evident when Aimee's recent "breakdown" was reported and Ma denounced it as a fraud.

Under questioning, Ma amplified things a bit. Aimee had had a face lift, said Mother Kennedy. So had Mother Kennedy. Aimee was jealous of Ma's youthful appearance and therefore had straightened out a right hook on Mother's revamped nose and mashed it all out of shape.

This choice explanation aroused Aimee. From her hospital bed, she said Mother was not truthful; that Ma had simply been weak from her face-lifting operation and had fallen to the floor, smacking the proboescis lustily.

"Aimee is being led wrongly by these women at the temple," Ma shot right back. She hinted, delicately, that Aimee's face lifting process was planned to be another "miracle," when Aimee appeared before the congregation as a newer and younger Sister.

"You see," Ma explained, "Sister believes that everyone is an instrument of the Lord that may be used

PHILLY ORDERS "LEGS" TO GET OUT OF CITY

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Jack (Legs) Diamond, New York gangster, who was deported from Germany and arrived here yesterday on the steamer Hannover, today was ordered by police to leave the city.

Diamond was arrested by the Philadelphia police yesterday as a suspicious character and released on bail last night for his appearance at a hearing today before a police magistrate, who gave him an hour to leave.

As he left the crowded hearing room at City Hall, flanked by two New York lawyers, Diamond announced that he was leaving for New York "as soon as I can make arrangements. I have no plans; all I am going to do is leave here."

DR. BUTTE WITHDRAWS

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Dr. George C. Butte, of Austin, Republican nominee for governor, today withdrew as a candidate in a letter to the Republican state executive committee, meeting in special session here.

Dr. Butte, now in Washington, where he is serving as a special assistant to the solicitor general of the United States, in a letter to the committee, revealed that he had tendered his resignation as the party nominee prior to the Republican state convention in San Angelo, but that it was not accepted.

He said he was "thoroughly convinced that I am not now the logical candidate."

HENDRICK APPOINTED

Hartford, Sept. 25.—(AP)—William A. Hendrick, of New Haven, member of the State Board of Finance and Control, has been appointed by Governor Trumbull as a member of the executive committee of the board. He takes the place of Elwyn T. Clark of Haddam, who is now collector of the port and gave up his membership by reason of taking a Federal office.

Mr. Hendrick whose term runs until June 1935 is the senior member of the board except Governor Trumbull who has sat on it since he has been governor.

LEAGUE MAY STUDY REASON FOR SLUMP

British Spokesman Asks That Survey be Made to Remedy the Depression.

Geneva, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Sus-Lawrence, labor chairman and Parliamentary secretary to the ministry of health in the MacDonald Cabinet, today in the name of the British government urged the League of Nations Assembly to institute a world-wide scientific inquiry into the fundamental causes of economic depression reported by virtually all countries.

"We have set here day after day," she said to the economic committee of the Assembly, "hearing delegates from one country after another tell of the miserable state to which their populations have been reduced. There has not been one word of hope nor one real, concrete suggestion for a remedy."

"I call upon you to support the proposal for this inquiry as a move of primary importance to the whole population of this planet."

Britain's Belief

Miss Lawrence asserted that Great Britain believes in the most unconditional and unrestricted interpretation of the most favored nation clause. Her government, she declared, feeling that this clause is based on the principle of equality to all nations, regards it as the best guarantee against unrestrained commercial rivalry between nations or groups of nations.

Warsaw Conference

Dealing with the Warsaw conference's resolutions Miss Lawrence asserted that Great Britain could not agree with a plan to give preference to the agricultural products of European countries as against non-European.

Another British delegate, Philip Baker, asked the judicial committee debating amendments to the league covenant to make it harmonize with the Kellogg Pact to adopt these amendments without adding to the political obligations of League members by increasing the powers of the council to employ physical restraints.

Baker stressed the value of moral

TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE ELECTS ITS MAYOR

New London Picks E. Frank Morgan to Succeed Mayor C. B. Twomey.

New London, Sept. 24.—(AP)—The New London Taxpayers' League pledged for economy in city government, today had succeeded in electing one of its candidates for mayor and two others to the school board.

E. Frank Morgan who was mayor of the city when the present council manager form of government was adopted in 1921, polled 2,853 votes at the city election to lead the field of eight candidates competing for four seats in the council. By virtue of his lead over the other three candidates elected to the council Mr. Morgan, a Taxpayer's League member, won the mayoralty post now held by Mayor C. B. Twomey, who under the city rules was not a candidate for re-election but retains his place in the council for another year.

Others Elected

Three incumbents were elected to the council with Mr. Morgan. They are James H. Murray, who received 2,199 votes; Senator William C. Fox who polled 2,165 votes and Malcolm M. Scott who was given 2,114 votes. The defeated candidates were Edwin Cruise and Edward Frenth, Jr., both League candidates; Robert Chappell, incumbent; and David A. Connors.

William T. May and Cecil P. Caulkins, League candidates and Mrs. Ellen C. Kelley were elected to the school board.

Yesterday's election was the second held within the past two weeks. At the first election none of the candidates received the necessary majority and the field of 12 councilmanic candidates was reduced to eight.

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis said in a political speech the other day, "Men cannot thrive in America without pie." It would have been just as correct had he said rye instead of pie.

SEEK NEW TREATY ON RUM RUNNING

Canada Protests Seizure of Vessels Because They Violate Navigation Laws.

Washington, Sept. 24.—(AP)—A proposal for a mutual American-Canadian agreement, to strengthen enforcement of prohibition along the seaboard and at the same time eliminate menaces to navigation may be made shortly by the State Department to the Ottawa government.

Brought prominently to the fore by the Canadian government's protest recently against the seizure within the 12 mile rum smuggling treaty limit of the Canadian vessel Fire Light for running without lights, the whole question of coastal navigation may become the subject of diplomatic conversations between the two governments.

While department officials consider the American government's acknowledgment of Canada's protest closed the incident of the Fire Light, it is felt here that some steps should be taken to protect shipping against possible collisions near the coasts with vessels running without lights, whether carrying rum or other commodities.

Against the Principle
The Canadian protest was not made against the seizure of the vessel, since the boat was later released. The Ottawa government did stress, however, its feeling that the American action in seizing the Canadian vessel for violation of a domestic American navigation law under the terms of an anti-rum smuggling treaty constituted a breach of principle.

Coast Guard officials have already discussed the question with legal experts of the State Department and have suggested that steps be taken to protect navigation along the coasts. One of the principal difficulties which has confronted the Coast Guard in the enforcement of prohibition is that many rum runners ply the coasts without lights and it is believed by Coast Guard officials that an agreement under which a nation would refuse to support the master of a vessel running without lights, whether carrying rum or not, would discourage the practice and facilitate the work of enforcement along the coasts.

HOME NEED NOT BE PALACE TO BE IDEAL

There Is No Place Like a Well Furnished House, Says Dorothy Dix.

There is no place like a well-furnished, attractively-arranged home, and it need not be a palace to create the proper atmosphere for ideal living, in the opinion of Dorothy Dix, writer and authority on the home, who has spent more than 30 years of study on the subject.

"Our American homes will ever be the foundation of our lives. Whether we live in apartment houses or in large, spacious dwellings, we will make them places of beauty, restfulness and delight," said Miss Dix, at the time she was asked to give a nation-wide radio talk in connection with the National Home Furnishings Style Show, to be held Sept. 26 to Oct. 4. This Dorothy Dix talk on the home may be heard in South Manchester on September 26 over Station WTIC.

"It is with great delight that I have accepted the invitation to talk over the radio in the near future for the National Home Furnishings Style Show. It is the first event of this kind ever attempted on such a large scale and the furniture industry is to be congratulated for this noble undertaking.

"Women today are more style and design conscious in home furnishings than ever before. As a matter of fact, it is the women of America who set the vogue in home furnishings. Designers for large furniture manufacturing concerns, I am told, are constantly seeking information from the women of the nation, the buyers of their products, when preparing their designs for future showing.

"The National Style Show itself was an idea formed when the industry became alert to the knowledge women have on home furnishings. This is a great tribute to the American woman, the manager of our homes where family life abounds amid cheerful and attractive surroundings."

Beautiful homes, Miss Dix said, play such an important part in the minds of youths, in the building of character and appreciation for the nicer things in life.

"Youth is the impressive age," she explained. "In the decisions we make, the ideas we form on life, the formation of character—everything is molded in our minds and bodies in the home in early life. Mothers know this and that is one of the reasons why mother arranges the home in the most attractive, comfortable and cheerful manner."

The first of the month in Chicago is the time when many gangsters pay their bills.

SEEKS WORLD PEACE

Geneva, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Professor James T. Shotwell of Columbia University, writer and pacifist, leaves Geneva tonight after spending two weeks here in attendance at the Assembly of the League of Nations. During the two weeks he inter-

NEW CATTLE FOOD MADE OF CACTUS

American Discovers How to Get Rid of Thorns—An Inexpensive Operation.

Monterey, Mexico, Sept. 24—(AP)—The prickly cactus may become valuable cattle feed with a new process that removes the peril from its armor of thorns.

W. D. Corbin, an American who operates an extensive ranch in Chihuahua, says he has found a solution to the problem that occupied the attention of the late Luther Burbank.

By adding an inexpensive chemical compound of sulphate salts as shredded cactus leaves are tramped by wooden-sanded men in a silo, Corbin has produced ensilage said to equal grass or corn fodder in food value.

One pound of the sulphate salts to every ton of ensilage, he says, quickly reduces the woody thorns to a semi-liquid condition, harmless to livestock.

Cheaper Than Corn

Corbin estimates cactus ensilage will cost one fourth as much as corn ensilage does in the United States. He expressed the opinion at his home here that cactus feed might be shipped in airtight containers to the dairy regions of the north.

The discovery may be utilized in the semi-arid cattle country extending from Texas to California and far south into Mexico where the prolific desert plant abounds.

The feed value of cactus has been known many years and scientists have puzzled over the problem of ridding the plants of their thorns. The United States Department of Agriculture devised a torch with which thorns could be burned off but the process was too slow and ponderous for practical application.

Burbank then was asked to develop a thornless cactus. Some progress was made before his death, but it was found thornless cactus fell prey to jack rabbits in quest of succulent feed. It also was discovered that thornless cactus planted in the desert soon reverted, growing thorns for protection.

Celebrate First Wedding Anniversary Yesterday

John and Florence Coolidge, son of the ex-President and daughter of the governor of Connecticut.

John and Florence Hope World Will Let Them Alone

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 24—(AP)—The Coolidges—John and Florence—celebrated the first milestone of their married life in a modest four-room apartment on Fountain street yesterday.

Just a quiet, simple anniversary as precisely suits their tastes. A few friends, perhaps, but certainly nothing approaching the affair a year ago when every detail of their wedding was published from coast to coast.

The one thing John and Florence want is to be left alone. It's been hard to make people forget that he is the son of a former president and she the daughter of Connecticut's governor.

BURNING OF COTTON IS AGAINST LAW

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 24—(AP)—The burning of cotton, reported to have been done recently at Beebe, Ark., by a farm relief advocate, in hopes of stimulating higher prices, was declared a violation of the state laws against arson in a ruling made today by John L. Carter, Arkansas fire marshal.

Carter has requested the prosecuting attorney at Searcy to investigate reports that a merchant at Beebe burned a bale of cotton in the public square and appealed to others in his community to do likewise, as a means of taking cotton off the market in an effort to cause better prices.

Such an act, Carter held, is punishable by imprisonment ranging from one to ten years.

LARGEST ROSE BUSH

Calistoga, Cal.—What is said to be the largest rose bush in the world is that of C. L. Tucker of this city. Thirty-one years ago he planted a bush of the double Cherokee variety and today the trunk of the bush measures three feet in circumference. It bears a load of 40,000 roses every year.

CHARGE OF TREASON AGAINST OFFICERS

German Court Room Crowded as Trial Begins—Say Accused Talked Fascism.

Letspic, Germany, Sept. 24—(AP)—Three Reichswehr lieutenants were arraigned in Supreme Court today charged with attempted high treason, specifically, having formed Fascist cells in the German Army. All three denied their guilt.

The court room was crowded and police were stationed in the corridors and at strategic points outside to prevent demonstrations. Admission to the court was gained only after the closest scrutiny of cards bearing the name of the applicant. Nineteen witnesses were called.

The three men are Richard Scheringer, Hans Ludien, and retired Lieutenant Hans Friedrich Wendt. Counsel for the defense included Captain Meindel of the Fifth Artillery Regiment to which the accused belonged. Under an old law which still is operative, Army officers accused of crime are entitled to have a brother officer defend them.

The Fascist Party was represented by a lawyer, Dr. Frank of Munich, whom the accused and many others in the court greeted with a Fascist salute.

Judge Baumgarten, presiding, said that from the list of names in the audience it was apparent that both Communists and Fascists were in the court. He warned both sides that no demonstrations would be tolerated and that any disturbers would be ejected and arrested.

Both Scheringer and Ludien testified that their was not a case of discontent but feelings which had been growing in the Army for years that government measures taken under coercion of the Versailles Treaty, such as the signing of the Young plan were not the will of the nation.

They testified they had not intended revolt or mutiny but wanted to show that young men in the Army had minds of their own.

TORONTO TO BUILD RADIUM INSTITUTE

Quebec, Sept. 24—(AP)—A radium institute for the treatment of cancer is to be established in Toronto, by the Ontario government, Premier C. Howard Ferguson has announced.

The institute, he said, would be founded on a co-operative plan with members of the medical profession providing property and buildings valued at $500,000 and the province contributing radium to the value of an equal amount.

The premier's announcement was made prior to his sailing for London to attend the Imperial conference. While in London, he said, he would consult several noted London specialists in connection with the institute plans.

He said establishment of the institute was part of a vigorous government campaign against cancer and indicated that in addition to being used for cancer treatment and research radium would be distributed wherever needed throughout the province.

At present Canadian physicians obtain their radium tubes in New York, thus involving delay and a heavy expense.

Plans for another center for the treatment of cancer are already under way in Toronto. Officials of the Radium Institute connected with General hospital said they hoped to have their center in operation by the end of the month. Approximately $400,000 has already been spent for equipment for this institute which will be operated by members of the University of Toronto medical faculty.

MAJORS DETERMINED TO WIN TOWN TITLE

Obtain Several Out of Town Players in Effort to Build Up Team That Will Conquer Cubs; Play Sunday.

The Majors are to have a football team this year that promises well to give their old rivals, the Cubs, a real struggle for the town's title before the snow flies.

This was brought to light last night when the team, after a practice game, returned to the meeting at the firehouse at Main and Hilliard streets where the business meeting disclosed that Booking Manager Bill Griffin and Business Manager Jack Copeland had been doing some scouting for new players to bring in from out of town to bolster up the team.

Not only will they have the services of Spillane, Mickle and Moske in the backfield, but at the practice last night Sheehan, a member of the Hartford Giants last year was also in uniform and took part in the practice as did Conroy, who was also with the Cubs last year.

All of last year's team was out, dispersing the claim that there was friction because of bringing out-of-town players. With the ends taken care of by members of last year's team, Ted McCarthy back at the wing, and the heavy linemen willing to jump into the fray, there was an air of confidence. To further add to the team, the managers have secured the services of ...

President William J. Quish presided at the meeting and reports given by the different committees indicate that there was harmony and each member is not only working to play football, but also in assisting to raise funds by different means of entertainment. They do not propose to ask the members to donate to carry on the work, but plan to carry out their own ideas in football that will warrant large crowds.

Treasurer Jay E. Rand spoke on the financial matter in which he said the club's funds would be handled and the club's funds would be handled and the club's funds would be handled ...

The first game will be the Yellow Jackets of Stamford, a team that averages 180 pounds. It is not my intention to book any setups for the team, as good football and good players must be had," he reported.

EIGHT FOOT PUTT PREVENTS RECORD

Jones Falters at Final Hole to Score 73 and Lead Field; Five Ex-Champs Out in the first round.

JONES CRICKETS 5-4.
 Merion Cricket Club, Ardmore, Pa., Sept. 24—(AP)—Shooting sensational golf, Bobby Jones scored a 73 for his last round, which with a 69 made yesterday, gave him an aggregate of 142 and left him with the medal in his clutch by the margin of a single stroke.

Other stars put out of further play were Don McDoie, Frank Dolp, Roland Mackenzie, Cyril Tolley, Fred Wright, George Rotan, Keefe Carter and Francis Brown.

Kaplan Is Favored To Beat Bat Tonight

Former Champion Picked by Majority to Outpoint Present Featherweight Champ in East Hartford 10 Round Scrap.

Ties Own and Corkran's Mark.
 As it was Jones tied the old mark of 142 made at Merion in 1924 by Dr. Clark Corkran, then of Baltimore, and tied three years ago by Jones himself at Minkakaha.

- TONIGHT'S CARD
- Star bout: Bat Battalino, Hartford, vs. Kid Kaplan, Hartford, 10 rounds. (Kaplan to weigh 131½ or less.)

Former Champion Picked by Majority to Outpoint Present Featherweight Champ in East Hartford 10 Round Scrap.

There is not much dispute that the veteran Scotch stylist, Macdonald Smith, belongs at the top, on the strength of his brace of magnificent performances in the two blue ribbon events of 1930—the British and American Open championships.

More than 15,000 fans are expected to be gathered at the Hurley Stadium in East Hartford tonight when Bat Battalino and Louis Kid Kaplan climb into the ring for their ten-round battle which stands out as the most interesting boxing occasion in the history of the sport in Connecticut.

There will be no great margin between the respective weights. Battalino expects to be around 128. Kaplan, however, will pick up more weight than the champion in the interim between the weighing-in and ring time.

ROBINS ARE OUT OF PENNANT RACE

Cubs Alone Have Chance to Displace Cards and It is a Mighty Slim One.

With the American League title firmly settled in the hands of the Athletics, the National League has eliminated the last surviving eastern contender, leaving the St. Louis Cards and Chicago Cubs to battle it out. The Brooklyn Robins dropped out of the race yesterday as they took an 8 to 2 beating at the hands of the N. Y. Giants while the league leading Cards again triumphed over the last place Phillies by a 19 to 16 count.

The Cincinnati Reds stepped out of their character as consistent losers to take a double-header, 8 to 0 and 5 to 2, from the Pittsburgh Pirates in the only other games played yesterday.

HOOKE SLIDES

I have never met Umpire Spike Shannon of the Southern League, but I know he must be a game guy. For it was Spike Shannon, no other, who awarded the Southern League pennant to Memphis the other day.

There is not much dispute that the veteran Scotch stylist, Macdonald Smith, belongs at the top, on the strength of his brace of magnificent performances in the two blue ribbon events of 1930—the British and American Open championships.

There will be no great margin between the respective weights. Battalino expects to be around 128. Kaplan, however, will pick up more weight than the champion in the interim between the weighing-in and ring time.

PRINCETON GRID CHANCES GLOOMY

1929 Stars Lost But Flock of Sophomores May Turn the Tide Favorably.

Princeton, N. J., Sept. 24—(AP)—If the advent of a flock of ambitious sophomores has the anticipated effect, Princeton is due for a considerably better season on the gridiron this year than last, when the Tigers failed to win a single major game.

On the surface the prospects do not look so good, as Princeton's losses by graduation included the only players whose deeds stood out in the drab campaign of 1929—Eddie Wittmer in the backfield and Bill Barfield in the line, but there is plenty of the right kind of spirit apparent and Bill Roper who winds up his long career as coach of the Tigers this year hopes that the influx of new talent will serve to make his machine click at last.

Holmes (Trix) Bennett, sophomore star handicapped by injuries last year is back in the best condition and stands out as the Tigers' leading backfield hope.

Steve Pinget and Bill Yeckley ends, are fighting it out with John Rutherford and Stuart Hookerburg for tackle posts; while Doug Levick, a converted back, battles for an end assignment.

Coach Kelley Must Build Almost Entire New Team; Season Opens With South-ington Here Thursday.

Only one first-string player of the 1929 edition will be in togs when Manchester High opens its current football season Friday afternoon at the Four Acre Lot opposite Lewis High of Southington. He is Art Davis who played center last year and who may be transferred to tackle this year.

This is the fifth year that Thomas F. Kelley has directed the destinies of Manchester High football teams and the popular coach never faced a more difficult task with only two veterans back, he must build practically an entire new team. Such a task is not as easy as some may believe. Upon his ability to develop the inexperienced material at hand, lies the answer to the fate which will befall the local schoolboys as they divide into three sections, the third of which is composed mainly of sophomores and freshmen.

For ends on the first team, Kelley has Turkington, Litwiniski, Bjorkman and Mistretta to select from. At tackle, there are Zapadka, Moriarty, Swanson and Andriotti. At guard, McKinnie, Berger and Potterton. Davis will play center with Stevenson as his understudy. For quarter, "Buddie" Kerr seems the logical choice with "Red" Sheridan (the 2nd) and "Cookie" Lupian trying for the same berth. Wieman, a halfback candidate, looks good in practice and other backs are O'Leary, Palmer, Dale, Pars, Treat, Simon, Fischer and Brown. Fischer looks like the fullback winner.

SHARKEY-CAMPOLO FIGHT OVER WEAF

New York, Sept. 24—(AP)—Officials of Madison Square Garden are hoping for the best but are duly prepared to take a loss on the 15 round bout they are promoting between Jack Sharkey and Vic Campolo at the Yankee Stadium Thursday night.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

Sneeze This One Off
Huh, little golden rod,
Don't you cry,
You'll be a balloon tire
By and by.

Love is the only game that is never stopped because of darkness.

Elizabeth—Are you a sailor's sweetheart?
Caroline—No, I don't like salt
with my mush.

Every man knows how a wife should be managed, but few are able to do it.

Dan—Gee, I never saw that hulahula dancer do so well.

Sam—No wonder. The bumble bees got into the dressing room and made a nest in her grass skirt.

If you believe in knocking on wood Bill says knocking on your head will do just as well.

Truth is mighty but error is mightier.

Doctor—Did you open both windows in your room, as I told you?

Patient—No, sir, there is only one window, so I opened it twice.

One has to make his dreams come true, but his nightmares often come true without any making.

Man—I'm afraid I can't buy you that dress.

Wife—Well, I'm going to kiss you till you say "Shop."

Stranger—I am looking for a criminal lawyer. Have you one here?

Bill—Well, we think we have, but we can't prove it on him.

Politeness costs little and yields so much.

You never realize how serious the other fellow's ailments are until you tell him about yours expecting to get his sympathy.

Once there was a girl who passed right by a mirror without glancing into it. She was that interested in the one directly facing her.

A dealer says one should never lubricate front springs if the car has a tendency to "shimmy." Well, suppose the blamed thing starts to "Charleston" then what?

Maybe honey will attract more flies than vinegar but who in the dickens wants any more flies?

Millie—So you went out to dinner with him again last night? Same old menu, I suppose?

Millie—Yes, belongs, applesauce and razzberries.

For every man who is able to meet his creditors, there are a dozen who are unable to dodge theirs.

Visitor—My, what a nice big boy.
Fisherman (a new daddy)—Yes, it's all right, but you should have seen the one that got away.

When it comes to making a fool of a man woman has got nature beat a mile.

Wife—I'm afraid my husband hasn't any sales resistance.

Neighbor—What's he done now?

Wife—In the first place, he let a man sell him a lot of land that was two feet under water, and when I insisted on his going and getting his money back, the same man sold him a gasoline launch and a copy of Golden Days in Venice.

Love is like the onion. When you first taste it it is with delight, but after you have bitten, you will wonder what made you bite.

Another curiosity would be a man as polite to his own wife as he is to other men's wives.

CHINESE ADVERTISING

Shanghai (AP)—Rickshaws may soon run through the streets of the International Settlement bearing signs urging people to eat more soda crackers or patronize this or that restaurant. The Shanghai Municipal Council has granted its permission for advertising to be carried on the one-man power vehicles. Latest figures show that there are approximately 45,000 of the vehicles in the city and they are in operation day and night.

50-PASSENGER PLANE

London.—A 50-passenger monoplane is being built here and is expected to be finished by the end of the summer. It will be powered by six engines and will have a non-stop range of 2,000 miles. The engines, it is said, will develop 5,000 horsepower. They are being built by Rolls Royce.

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

Down on the beach the Travel Man said, "Boys, I think I have a plan. Why don't you stage a little race to see who swims the best. I'll be the judge and stay on shore. For one of you a treat's in store. The winner gets a candy bar as soon as you're all dressed."
This plan brought forth a mighty cheer. Then Scouty cried,
"We'll start down here and swim up to that little stage and then right back again. Remember, ere the race begins, the first one back's the one who wins. You'd better all look out for me. I'm speedy now and then."
They then lined up and off they tore, much to the fun of those on shore. Each Tiny splashed and strived real hard to make a lot of speed. The Travel Man cried out,
"Hey, boys! Just swim and don't make so much noise. A swimming stroke that's easier is what you Times need."
But, when they went, as best they could, they passed the stake just as they should and started on the home stretch. Then 'twas thrilling as could be. Wee Cloway who thought he be worst, lunged forth and reached the finish first. He won the candy bar and was as tickled as could be.
That night the bunch were glad to learn that they were moving on to Berne. The trip seemed rather short and when they got there, they were glad. "The capital of Switzerland is one more place you'll think is grand," exclaimed the friendly Travel Man.
"You bet," said one small lad.
They rode up to a great big inn.
Said one, "Our fun will now begin.
I see a wondrous tallyho. Oh, gee,
I'd like to ride." "Well, why not?" said the Travel Man. "As far as I'm concerned, you can.
There's room for every one of us.
The seats are nice and wide."
(The Tinymites see a beautiful castle in the next story.)

It was postmarked again at Warren, Ohio, and stamped "Damaged in airplane fire."

Mrs. E. H. Gibson of Stark-weather street who underwent a major operation at the Memorial hospital, two weeks ago, has returned home and is now able to be out a portion of each day.

A well children's conference will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Memorial hospital annex.

Andrew Turkington, who is visiting friends here, will be the special speaker on this occasion. This brilliant young man hails from Lurgan, Ireland. The band will be out in force and probably the Songster's Brigade. This young man is a good musician and especially fond of music, and one of the outstanding anticipations of his visit is to hear the far famed South Manchester band.
