FOOTBALL GAME IS OFF
BECAUSE OF PARALYSIS

High School-Middletown Game Postponed Because of Infantile Paralysis in Down River City.

As a precautionary measure against any possible spread of infantile paralysis now prevalent in Middletown, the scheduled football game between Manchester and Middletown High schools set for Friday afternoon here in Manchester has been indefinitely postponed. It was learned last night from Dr. D. C. Y. Moore, head of the local board of health department.

Dr. Moore pointed out that the disease can be spread by persons who are not ill as well as those who are suffering from infantile paralysis. Thus, were the game to be carried out, it would be possible for the germs to be brought into Manchester. High school officials were in consultation with Dr. Moore and he strongly advised against staging the game. The state board of health department supported his opinion wholeheartedly with the result that the game was postponed.

As stated yesterday, one Manchester person is ill with infantile paralysis, but he is a student at Wesleyan University in Middletown. This boy, Guy Hastings, 19 years old, is a patient in the Middlesex County hospital in that city. Asked about the boy's condition, Albert L. Crowell of Highland Park, with whom he makes his home, said that his condition while serious, was not critical. All infantile paralysis cases are of a serious nature due to the comparatively small progress doctors have been able to make against the disease. Another Wesleyan student stricken with the same illness died yesterday, making a total of five lives which have been lost since the epidemic started.

STOP-SIGN VIOLATORS
NOW PAY AT STATION

Tagged Motorists Relieved of Personal Appearance in Court; Settle at Police Headquarters.

Manchester police and police court authorities yesterday adopted the system of allowing boulevard-stop violators to pay their fines at the police station immediately after being tagged instead of being required to appear in police court, a practice that has been followed heretofore in cases of other minor traffic law infractions.

Yesterday and last evening only six instances of running by the stop signs at street intersections fell under the observation of the police. Five of the motorists summoned took advantage of the opportunity for speedy settlement, proceeded to the police station and paid their $2 fines. One, Walter Arson of South Main street, insisted that he had not broken the law and elected to have his case tried in court. It will be heard tomorrow.

In these cases, while the offender is relieved of attendance at court if he so desires, each complaint has to go through the regular course of record in police court just as if the person accused had appeared and pleaded guilty. Less time is consumed, of course, than if the defendant personally appeared, but the clerical work of the court and the accounting is the same.

ASK PARENTS' OPINIONS ON WASHINGTON TRIP

If They Feel It's Too Costly Senior Pilgrimage May Be Abandoned This Year.

Although no definite decision has been made, it is possible that the annual senior pilgrimage to Washington this year by the graduating class at Manchester High school may be temporarily abandoned. This depends largely upon the reaction school officials obtain when questionnaires they sent to the parents of the senior students are returned to Principal C. P. Quimby's office. These have been sent out in order to find out if the parents of the students are in favor of the trip possible. It is possible that if the trip is made, that it will be a four day affair instead of six in order to make the trip less expensive. Two high school classes in years past voted not to attempt a Washington trip because of the expenses involved. They were the classes of 1917 and 1923.

TELLS OF INTERESTING LIFE IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Hattie L. Ludke Writes About Big Dahlia Farm in Eagle Rock, Calif.

Mrs. Hattie L. Ludke, formerly of this town, but who for the past two years has with her husband, Otto L. Ludke, resided at Eagle Rock, California, has written a member of the Herald staff a letter which may hold much of interest for the many friends of the Ludkes here as well as in Rockville and Talcottville.

She writes they are enjoying wonderful weather and have not had a drop of rain since April. They are looking forward to rain in October but last season it did not fall until February. Fruit has suffered in consequence, although their apricot trees were loaded, according to Mrs. Ludke. The trees on their place are getting so large that it is too shady for flowers. They are anticipating a nice display of chrysanthemums of which they have 196 plants all full of buds at present. In November and December they will have poinsettias and roses.

Mrs. Ludke makes reference to the flourishing garden club in Manchester, whose members may be interested to know that the wonderful dahlia farm of J. J. Broomall is right across the street from where they live. Mr. Broomall has won nationwide fame for his propagation of dahlias. He received a telegram from the president of the Commercial Dahlia Growers association of America stating that his big white dahlia, the "Margaret E. Broomall" had won the achievement medal at the Atlantic City show in the New Jersey Dahlia society held in mid-September, first for best three seedlings and largest and most perfect bloom in the show, and three firsts. Mr. Broomall states that New Jersey growers are now producing the finest dahlias in the world with the possible exception of California. Another of his marvelous dahlias is the Eagle Rock Special.

Mr. Broomall has named a new dahlia, "Dorothy Goff" in honor of that young lady whose beauty has won for her the title of "Miss Universe." A few weeks ago the photographer of one of the big California daily newspapers came to the Broomall farm, with Miss Goff and a party and took pictures of "Miss Universe," Mr. Broomall and his famous dahlias.

The Ludkes term him "a fine neighbor." He is well along in years, but an early riser will see him in his garden at four o'clock in the morning and find him still working there when night falls. Not only does he excel in flower culture but he took three prizes at a vegetable fair at the Los Angeles County fair in September. Mr. and Mrs. Ludke attended the fair which was held in the new exhibition hall, the largest in the United States. They enclosed a picture of the entry by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. It was in the form of a great fountain standing directly in the middle of the huge auditorium, and made of oranges. In between the rows of oranges were steps where the water ran unceasingly into a lily pond. Other exhibits of fruit, flowers, fancy work and other items were elaborately arranged.

Mrs. Ludke tells of the craze for miniature golf and says there are four handsome courses on their Boulevard in Eagle Rock. At one putt-putt course they provided oranges for golf balls.

Mr. and Mrs. William Avery and Mrs. William Crane, formerly of this town, visited them on the Friday before writing. The entire party went for an auto ride and stopped to call on Edward Titus. Mr. Titus, it will be recalled, was the first Manchester boy who was wounded in the World War. He was also gassed and since his return to this country has been obliged to live in California.

The day previous to writing was spent with Mrs. Lizzie Palmer Hull. Mrs. Hull is one of the Oakland street Palmers and Mr. Hull died this spring. During August Rev. and Mrs. Charles M. Calderwood visited the Ludkes twice. Mr. Calderwood was pastor of Second Congregational church here. Soon after he went to Glendale, Cal., where a fine new church was built during his pastorate. They are now living in Phoenix, Arizona, and evidently spent their vacation in California. Mr. and Mrs. Minor White, formerly of Vernon, came to see Mr. and Mrs. Ludke in August.

Another enclosure in this interesting letter is the calendar of the First Baptist church of Los Angeles, which cost close to a million dollars and is one of the finest in the city. Among the numerous items in regard to church school activities is the enrollment of 986. Mrs. Ludke tells of a turkey dinner to be served at the Congregational church in Eagle Rock tomorrow evening at five dollars a plate! Last year the neat sum of $700 was cleared by the same ticket charge.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ludke send their kindest regards to their Connecticut friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Northrop Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew D. Northrop

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew D. Northrop planned and executed a surprise party last night in the Community Club in honor of the couple's Golden Wedding anniversary which falls on Sept. 30, also Mr. Northrop's 84th birthday. A large gathering of relatives were present from Springfield, Longmeadow, Hartford, Rockville, Providence and Manchester.

The affair was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. James W. Foley who succeeded in getting Mr. and Mrs. Northrop over to the Community Club where more than 50 relatives and friends were gathered. The happy couple were presented with a purse of $100 in gold besides gifts of clothing and jewelry. The office force of Lydall Foods Company presented the couple with a $10 gold piece yesterday afternoon. Edward J. Murphy made the presentation of the $100 anniversary gift of gold, contributed by local friends and relatives, and spoke of the estimable qualities of the well-known North End residents. An anniversary cake made by Mrs. Margaret Finley was cut by the couple for the guests. The club rooms were decorated in gold crepe paper for the occasion by Mrs. James Foley.

Out of town guests in attendance last night were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barden, East Longmeadow; Mr. and Mrs. George F. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Henry and Mrs. Joseph Cofski of Springfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. John Henry, Miss Meredith Keeler, Mrs. Walter Miles of Hartford; Edward Usher of Portland, Conn.; Mrs. Margaret Finley, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wills, Mr. and Mrs. Thiemer, Mrs. Annie Griswold, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weigel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kaune and son Herbert, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Usher, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Keune, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Crandall and family, Phyllis, Florence and Elmer Usher, Mrs. O. B. Usher, all of Rockville; Mrs. Thomas Corcoran of Providence, R. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Alben Usher and family of Tolland; E. J. Usher, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Usher and family, and Miss Elizabeth Usher of Tolland.

Among the neighbors and close friends of the couple from town who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Joel Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Genovesi, Miss Annie Pagan, Edward J. Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. James W. Foley.

Wed in Willimantic Mr. and Mrs. Northrop were married by the Rev. Mr. J. C. Brecker in Willimantic, Sept. 30, 1880. Mr. Northrop was a fireman at the time of the Hartford to Providence run of the old Hartford, Providence and Fishkill Railroad. After their marriage they remained but six months in Willimantic, moving to Boston where Mr. Northrop was employed on the old Boston and Worcester road for four years. Springfield was the next stopping point where a long stay was made. Then in succession came years in many Connecticut towns and a short time spent in New York. Later the couple spent fifteen years on a Tolland farm after Mr. Northrop's retirement from active railroad service. Eight years ago they came to live in the Balch and Brown block where the retired fireman was employed as janitor. Here he was close to his beloved trains where he kept a close check on running time and all the new improvements in railroad rolling stock, in which he takes a daily interest.

Old Fireman In the days when Mr. Northrop broke into the railroad game, there were but nine locomotives on the old H. P. & F. later to be known as the New York, New Haven and Hartford. The locomotives were stoked with wood and the north end veteran had the honor of firing the first coal burner to run over the old Hartford, Providence and Fishkill Railroad. He also fired on the old Vernon-Rockville branch line.

The Northrops had one son, Harry, who died in 1918 at the age of 26. John M. Henry, Hartford Captain of Police is a brother of Mrs. Northrop. Several other nephews are on the Springfield police department.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Northrop are in good health and enjoy the neighborhood association of their many friends in Manchester and vicinity.

AYORA TO REMAIN

Quito, Ecuador, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Dr. Isidro Ayora went back to work today as president of the republic after a turbulent political week in the course of which he resigned, but was drafted to continue his term of office by political, military and civilian elements.

Last night, yielding to Congress and deputations of citizens who reiterated their confidence in him, he withdrew his resignation and expressed willingness to fill out his constitutional term of office until September, 1932. Notices were sent to the governors of all the provinces stating that the political crisis was at an end. It was expected, however, that there would be some shifting of figures in the Cabinet, and that some of them possibly would be dropped from the ministry altogether. Messages received from all over the country say that quiet prevails.

Charles Sweet Celebrates 40 Years Residence Here

Forty years ago today Charles Sweet came to Manchester to make his home and become one of the best known persons about town. A few days after arrival Charles got a job in the old Keany mill, and later the same year transferred to the Mather Electric Co. on Hilliard street. After a short stay at the North End electrical plant, Charles went out "on his own" in an express and livery business, which later developed into a taxi and livery service in which he is engaged at the present time. These various enterprises have kept Charles much in the public eye, something he treasures.

Likes Kids Charles likes kids. Never an opportunity comes but he helps in whatever way he can to please the youngsters. Each season he solicits funds for the Kwanza Camp kiddies and takes fruit, watermelons and candy to the boys and girls out on the Bolton rest camp. He numbers among his kid friends of other years, several men who are today prominent in the management of the town's affairs.

In Express Business Upon leaving the employ of the Mather Electric Co., Charles made a round of the stores soliciting their express business. He had very little funds but he had plenty of spirit, and what express business he picked up at first he delivered by wheelbarrow or in his arms. The pos-

Early Auto Driver Charles kept on until he had money enough to buy a horse and wagon. Then two, and finally three express outfits that served practically all of Manchester. The auto

SISTO FAILED IN ITALY

Rome, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Failure of J. A. Sisto, New York Wall street broker, caused considerable surprise here and at Milan, where Sisto had a branch known as Prepell-Castelletti. Banking circles here said that Sisto had made various efforts in recent years to push Italo-American financing, selling American securities in Italy and Italian securities in America. He tried to make a coup in shares of a northern Italian electric company known as "Unes" but failed to realize a profit. He bought the shares at 140 and the stock is now at 85. Several years ago he tried to reach an agreement for a large financing scheme with Count Volpi, then minister of finance, but did not succeed. It was said here that the banks were not interested in Sisto's efforts because he leaned too heavily toward the speculative side.

ARCHBISHOP FINED

Mexico City, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The Department of Interior today announced that Monsignor Pascual Diaz, archbishop of Mexico, had paid a fine of $200 imposed upon him by a Mexican court for alleged violation of the religious laws. His alleged offense was conduct of a religious ceremony in Belen jail, August 6, which was held contrary to the laws forbidding religious acts in public outside of churches.

TWO FLIERS KILLED

Arundel, Sussex, England, Oct. 1.—(AP.)—A heavy fog today caused three planes of the Royal Air force to strike tree tops and crash, resulting in two deaths and one injury.

Flight Lieutenant Armstrong was killed immediately and Sergeant Birkenshaw died later in a hospital. Officer Pawson was slightly injured.

The planes were flying low over the Arundel park home of the Duke of Norfolk when they struck the tops of some tall beech trees.

AMERICA CONCLUDES ITS CASE AT HAGUE

The Hague, Netherlands, Oct. 1.—(AP.)—American claims for damages suffered at the hands of German secret agents before entry of the United States into the World War passed today into the hands of the umpire, R. W. Boyden, of Boston, at the close of a long hearing before the mixed claims commission here.

The American commissioner, Robert Bonyne, concluded his reply to German arguments today by saying that America had not wished to believe that such crimes as the spreading of disease germs and blowing up factories in a neutral country could have been committed in Germany's behalf.

"Every normal man," Bonyne declared, "would have wished to believe that in this Twenty Century of Christianity that would be impossible. President Wilson could not believe it at first."

The speaker said it seemed hard-earned through farm products was credited at the outset that it could commit this age any neutral friendly power. But finally, the evidence became too convincing.

Germany's Defense
The German representatives, Bonyne asserted, had claimed that their government had not knowingly conceded or withheld anything and had loyally helped this commission in finding the truth and that Germany had clean hands.

Bonyne declared that a great many facts were not disclosed by Germany until evidence had been produced that Germany was in possession of them.

"Could Germany claim to have clean hands when it was established that she was guilty of the grossest infringement of the laws of neutrality and humanity?" he asked.

The German representative, Karl von Leventki, made only a brief statement in reply in which he affirmed that he had not withheld any documents.

The commission now goes to Hamburg to examine several other claims.

HONOR FAMOUS PAINTER

Florence, Italy, Oct. 1.—(AP.)—The memory of Andrea Del Sarto, outstanding painter of the Italian Renaissance was honored today by a solemn high mass chanted in the church of the Annunziata, in whose cloister are the frescoes of the great artist. The ceremony was supposed to coincide with the 400th anniversary of Del Sarto's death, though some historians maintain he did not die until 1531.

One of the painter's descendants is the French sculptor, Maxime Real Del Sarte, who though he lost his left forearm in the war has produced many a notable statue, including a solemn high mass chanted in the church of the Annunziata, in whose cloister are the frescoes of the great artist.

The Guinness family of England, which made its fortune in ale and stout, may try to lift the America's cup, which Lipton failed to do. They can be depended upon, at least, to put up a good schooner.

BROKERS SUSPENDED

New York, Oct. 1.—(AP.)—Announcement was made on the rostrum of the New York Stock Exchange today that J. A. Sisto and Co., has been suspended for insolvency.

The firm has been an important underwriting house taking part in financing for several corporations. The firm maintained offices in Bridgeport and Philadelphia as well as New York.

This failure was regarded in financial circles as the first important Wall street failure since the bear market in stocks which began last autumn.

TO REMOVE QUARANTINE

Washington, Oct. 1.—(AP.)—All restrictions on the interstate movement of farm products in the area covered by the Japanese beetle quarantine will be removed Wednesday, Oct. 1.

The plant quarantine and control administration of the Department of Agriculture announced today that the danger of spreading the beetle pest through farm products was ended for this year. Restrictions on cut flowers and other portions of plants remain in effect until October 15.

Restrictions on the movement of nursery and greenhouse stock are enforced throughout the year and are not affected by this order.

BRITAIN CHECKING ON RUSSIAN WHEAT

London, Oct. 1.—(AP.)—A wide discrepancy exists in estimates available here of the amount of Russian wheat exported to Great Britain this season.

In Liverpool, center of the grain trade, it was stated today that only 620,000 quarters or about 150,000 tons, all of fairly good quality, have been received at ports of the United Kingdom between Jan. 1 and Sept. 27.

Estimates of British traders and official observers in London fixed the figure roughly at 450,000 tons for the United Kingdom ports in July, August and September.

Other Estimates
Other estimates available in London have placed Russia's available exportable surplus at 1,500,000 tons, as compared with 4,750,000 tons which was the average of yearly export figures during 1909-1913.

The difficulty of definitely fixing figures of Russia's export wheat trade and of her exportable surplus is admitted here because the Soviet government trading agencies are dealing independently with various grain concerns and there is no central place to obtain actual totals.

AUSTRIA FORMS A NEW CABINET

Vienna, Oct. 1.—(AP.)—The newspaper Allgemeine Zeitung said today that Dr. Karl Vaugoln had succeeded in forming a new Cabinet to succeed the resigned ministry of Johann Schober. The Pan-German and Farmers' League parties, whose support Dr. Vaugoln previously had sought, refused to participate.

The newspaper added that Dr. Vaugoln, formerly the vice chancellor, would become both chancellor and minister of war in the new government.

Two Fascists are listed as members of the new Cabinet. Prince Starhemberg, commander of the Fascist Heimwehr, becomes minister of the interior, while Dr. Hueber, likewise a Fascist, is to be minister of justice.

The finance post has not been filled but Dr. Seipel takes the foreign affairs portfolio; Herr Schmitz, a Christian Social representative and one-time minister of education, is minister of social welfare; Herr Czerniak, Christian Socialist, education, and Herr Heindl, also Christian Socialist, industry.

England consumes more than six billion eggs a year. More than $60,000,000 worth of these are imported.

JUGO-SLAVIA DECORATES PROFESSOR IN NORFOLK

Norfolk, Oct. 1.—(AP.)—Professor Michael I. Pupin of Columbia University, a summer resident of Norfolk has received the decoration of the White Eagle of the first order, conferred upon him by Alexander I. of Jugo-Slavia, for outstanding service to the nation.

The award was in recognition of Prof. Pupin's services to Serbia throughout the World War. He aided in collecting funds for the Red Cross of Serbia and was instrumental in the floating of the $25,000,000 loan of that country from the United States in 1917.

In 1919 he organized the Serbian Child Welfare Association of America which conducted relief work among Serbian war orphans.

The presentation of the decoration was made at Professor Pupin's home by a member of the Jugo-Slav delegation.

SLAUGHTER WILD DEER

St. Croix, Virgin Islands.—(AP.)—So acute is the financial pressure among the poor of this island, that a slaughter of wild deer has commenced. Venison is offered for sale in several local markets despite game laws and sentiment against pot hunting.

The deer are of the "crown" and the "red" variety and are descended from deer introduced by the Danes in order that the wealthy sugar planters might enjoy hunting as a sport. Flash lights are used and the pot hunters bring down five or six animals with a few shots. The deer of St. Croix are small, barely weighing over 100 pounds.

SEN. BARNES APPOINTED
Hartford, Oct. 1.—(AP.)—Senator Fuller F. Barnes of Bristol has been appointed member of the State Board of Finance and Control to succeed Elwyn T. Clark, who has resigned. Mr. Clark, who has just received his commission to the Federal post as collector of customs, resigned as a member of the Board of Finance and Control Tuesday. The governor immediately announced the appointment of Senator Barnes to fill the vacancy.

The Iowa man who bequeathed a library with the stipulation that females be barred, probably acted on the assumption that every woman knows her book, anyway.

HOW TO PLAY Today's BACKGAMMON

EDITOR'S NOTE: Initial plays in the game are described in the following article, the seventh in a series on "Today's Backgammon" which Elizabeth Clark Boyden has prepared for The Herald and NEA Service.

By ELIZABETH CLARK BOYDEN Written for NEA Service

In following the initial plays as recommended below, the reader is urged to make each play for himself on a backgammon board and picture it as played by both Black and White.

An Optional Play

There are two throws, permitting a player to block a point, which are not always played to do so. The first of these is three and five, which can be played to block a point in the player's inner table. This is the safe way to make this move and it should always be played so by people learning the game.

JEWRY HERE PLAN FOR YOM KIPPUR

Day of Atonement to be Observed Starting at Sunset Today.

At sunset tonight the Jewish people of Manchester will begin the observance of Yom Kippur or the Day of Atonement, the most solemn and sacred day in Jewish life, ending at sunset tomorrow.

The Day of Atonement is an imposing fast day, which, while originally a priestly festival, became, with the abrogation of the sacrificial cult, a people's holiday.

When the Jews lived in Palestine, the observance of the Day of Atonement was distinguished by an elaborate ritual. As described in Leviticus XVI, the priests offered sacrifices upon the altar of the temple to atone for the iniquities and transgressions of the entire people.

But when the Jews found themselves in a new environment following the destruction of the temple the great change. Priesthood and altar were no more; the pomp of the sacrificial ceremonies disappeared.

Throughout the medieval ages up to the present, the Day of Atonement continued as a day of serious meditation when man stands before his own soul and his Creator in sincere prayer.

Repentance is keynote of the Day of Atonement, by virtue of the effect it is said to work, emphasizes the distinct Jewish principle of free-will.

SERIES OF DANCES AT HARDING SCHOOL

OKLAHOMA COWBOYS AT THE STATE TODAY

Few people who have heard Otto Gray and his famous radio artists the Oklahoma Cowboys, on the air will want to miss seeing and hearing them in person at the State today and tomorrow.

The feature picture for Wednesday and Thursday presents Milton Sills and Dorothy Mackall in "Man Trouble." It is an adaptation of a story by Ben Ames Williams, and deals with the struggles of a young man and a beautiful girl, who, after they have fallen in love, discover themselves menaced by a night club owner who has a claim on the girl.

STARTING Y. M. C. A. WORK AT COMMUNITY CLUB

W. Harold Petherbridge, secretary of the Manchester Y. M. C. A., is in attendance today at the employed officers' conference of the Young Men's Christian Association at New Haven.

Mr. Petherbridge, a graduate of Springfield International Y. M. C. A. College, has inaugurated extensive Y. M. C. A. work among the Community Club boys and young men which will serve as ground work for the necessary training for leadership in the new Y. M. C. A. on North Main street when completed.

Repentance is keynote of the Day of Atonement, by virtue of the effect it is said to work, emphasizes the distinct Jewish principle of free-will. It states that "sin lies at our door," and, though unto each may be its desire, individuals are able to "rule over it," provided they resolve to do so.

TONIGHT at 8 o'clock the fourth feature of Manchester's Furniture Style Show will be presented. Anita Self, personal representative of Helen Koues, Director of Good Housekeeping's Studio of Furnishing and Decoration, will lecture on "Bringing Charm to Your Home Through Color and Lighting" at WATKINS BROTHERS long Democrat. During President Cleveland's administration he served the north end of the town as postmaster. He was for a long term a member of the Democratic Town Committee, as well as a justice of the peace. His skill in bookkeeping led to his appointment as town auditor at different times, and similar work for the Seventh School district at Buckland. He took an active interest in community affairs and was a regular attendant at the North Methodist church.

When he wasn't exhibiting at the principal shows, he was prevailed upon to act as a judge. Two years ago the Herald carried a feature story telling about his avocation and his prize-winning birds. Since his retirement from the drygoods business he has devoted much time to poultry-raising but his health has not permitted him to participate in the national shows.

Epidemic In Middletown Blocks H. S. Grid Battle

Next Local Game to be at Bristol Week From Saturday; Middletown Cancellation Precautionary Measure.

Manchester High school's next football game will be played a week from Saturday down in Bristol—a Central Interscholastic League affair. Manchester was scheduled to open its league season this week Friday with Middletown High school but this game was called off yesterday afternoon as a precautionary measure against the infantile paralysis epidemic which has gripped Middletown.

CUBS WON'T DROP THEIR NEW COACH

Manager Clune Spikes Rumor As False; Says He Hasn't Had a Chance.

Manager J. Bennett Clune of the Cubs said today that there was no truth to the rumor that they were planning to release Coach Art Muligan. Clune said that no such action was contemplated and that so far as that went, Muligan hasn't even been given a chance to show his true value.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Frankie Frisch will play in today's game against the Philadelphia Athletics. It was announced at the headquarters of the St. Louis Cardinals.

SERIES NO STRAIN TO MACK SLUGGERS

Fox, Cochrane and Simmons Proved This Conclusively Against Chicago.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Three of Connie Mack's new model A's last year exploded the theory that star sluggers are under a great strain in a world's series.

But Mack persuades his men that if they are hitters the base hits will come. And these three boys are hitters. Simmons and Cochrane all season have been around the top in American league batting averages.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CAN TIE SERIES FOR PAST DECADE

New York, Oct. 1.—The Cards can tie the National League even for the decade by a world's series victory.

Football players at the University of Washington are to wear silk pants in their games. Now it is clear to us what the coach meant when he said he had good material this year.

ATHLETICS' SLUGGING TRIO

Three reasons why the Philadelphia Athletics are favored in the world's series: Jimmy Foxx, first baseman; Mickey Cochrane, catcher, and Al Simmons, left fielder.

BATTING AVERAGES FAVOR CARDS IN THE PRESENT WORLD'S SERIES

Position	Athletics	Average	Cardinals	Average
First Base	Foxx	.333	Bottomley	.293
Second Base	Bishop	.254	Frisch	.333
Third Base	Dykes	.297	Adams	.304
Shortstop	Boley	.274	Gelbert	.304
Left Field	Simmons	.377	Hafey	.345
Center Field	Haas	.293	Douthit	.301
Right Field	Miller	.305	Watkins	.356
Catcher	Cochrane	.357	Wilson	.318
Catcher	Schang	.171	Mancuso	.360

BOWLING MATCH IN TOWN TONIGHT

Rockville and Manchester will clash here tonight in a bowling match at Joe Farr's Charter Oak alleys starting at 8:30.

FOURTH ESTATE MATCH

The Associated Press Bureau and State Bowling teams clashed for the second time this season last night at South Norwalk.

WEST SIDE SEEKS ADDITIONAL LAURELS

Wants Bowling, Billiard and Volley Ball Honors to Add to Baseball and Tennis.

While you may find that business in general is a little slow, this is not true of sports at the West Side of the town.

Now that they have won the tennis and baseball title they are looking for further laurels and are coming out with a bowling team, volleyball and even the "pool sharks" are getting in some practice.

It is a public boast that all of these titles will rest at the West Side before the winter is over.

If present plans for the removal of the balcony in the gym go through they are to have a real basketball team and will take on all comers.

Many of the boys connected with the West Side baseball team this past summer have worked hard and to do this in a business like manner organized a club.

This means that the East, North and South ends of the town will have to get going if they are to finish even a good second.

"Just Another Game" According To Players

CARDS' HOPE

BURLEIGH GRIMES

WHO'S WHO IN SERIES

Brief Sketches of Various Players on Both Athletics and Cardinals as Series Get Under Way.

Earl "Sparky" Adams, third baseman, only 5 feet 4 1-2 inches tall, will be one of the shortest men in the series.

Only one man on the A's has a high-hat name to equal George Livingstone Earnshaw.

Lefty Grove, the fire ball pitcher, has gone through the greatest season of his career.

Before he entered baseball in 1922 with Portland in the Pacific coast league, Rube Walberg, big left hander, was a sailor.

George Fisher, outfielder, likely will see duty as a pinch hitter in the coming series.

Gus Mancuso, whom the club wanted to farm out earlier this year, may do the entire catching in the series for the Cardinals.

Frank Frisch, Cardinal second baseman, is being placed on all of the "all star" teams this year.

Jim Bottomley, first baseman, has been with the Cards since 1922.

Charles Gelbert, shortstop, under the tutelage of Frisch, has developed into one of the best in the game.

Lefty Grove, first of the fullers, gives substance to the old expression, blistering speed.

Wally Schang, third string catcher of the A's, also is entering his seventh world's series.

Philadelphia—Ed Phillips, catcher, Toronto.

President Hoover's Presence Alone Makes Game Out of Ordinary, Men Say, Frisch to Play.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The World's Series again came to Philadelphia today with the annual guessing contest between Connie Mack and the fans featuring the pre-game activities.

Early speculation hinged about Robert Moses, the tall, slim, lefthander with the "high hard one" it being taken for granted that the home team would put its best foot forward at the outset.

There was a flurry of excitement among Cardinal supporters when it was found at the last practice session of the National League that Captain Frankie Frisch not only was not among those taking a final workout, but was flat on his accomplished back in his hotel bedroom receiving treatment for lumbago.

It's not every day, of course, that we can play before the President," said Manager Street, "and have him to toss the first ball. But even the chief executive will not excite us. We'll do our best and nobody can do more."

Manager Mack made it clear that his "boys" were not inclined to hold their National League rivals lightly and that they expected the hardest kind of a battle.

"It should be a great series," said the veteran manager.

The probable batting order: Philadelphia: St. Louis Cardinals: Frisch, 2b; Douthit, c; Dykes, 3b; Adams, 3b; Cochrane, c; Frisch, 2b; Simmons, 1b; Hafey, 1b; Miller, 3b; Bottomley, 1b; Haas, c; Watkins, rf; Boley, ss; Mancuso, c; Grove or Rommel, p; Gelbert, ss; Grimes, p.

Umpires: George Moriarty (A) at plate; Charles Rigler (N) at first; Harry Geisel (A) at second; Jack Reardon (N) at third.

"Water Bucket" which formerly was tacked on the name of Al Simmons. Simmons has made a virtue of what formerly was considered a bad batting fault.

No one seems to remember the average.

THE TINYMITES STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

At last the boat pulled to the dock. 'Twas just at noon time, by the clock. The Tynymites, excited, promptly ran off to the shore. Wee Clowny cried, "To be on land once more, to me, is simply grand. Let's start in looking 'round. What are we waiting for?"
"Well, first of all, we'd better eat," the Travel Man said. "Down the street. I'm sure we'll find a restaurant where things will taste real good. We'll find a very classy place. Now take your time, boys. Do not race. Then, when we sit down, try and act the way you know you should."
They shortly found a fine cafe and someone shouted, "Right this way." It was a man who stood right by the doorway of the place. "I'll gladly seat you all," said he. "Please take your time and follow me." The thought of eating spread a smile on every Tiny's face. They sat down to a wondrous meal and my, it shortly made them feel just fine. Soon Scouty said, "I'm sleepy as can be. I'd like to find a spreading lawn. To slumberland I'd soon be gone. Since I have eaten I'm so sleepy I can hardly see."
"Well, well," replied the Travel Man. "If we try hard I'm sure we can find just the place you're thinking of. Is everybody finished?" "You bet we are," the whole bunch cried. And then they promptly went outside. They found a lawn and took a nap. 'Twas just the thing to do.
When 'bout an hour had drifted by, the Travel Man let out a cry, "Get up! Wake up! We're going to walk right down the street a block. I want you Tynymites to see a sight that quite appeals to me." They walked and soon were gazing at a lighthouse on a dock.
