FOUR KILLED, ONE HURT, IN AUTO SMASHUP

Party Returning From Dance in Canaan Crashes Into Tree—Car Catches Fire; Driver is Held.

Salisbury, Conn., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Four persons met death and one other was slightly injured early today when their automobile crashed into a tree and caught fire.

The dead were: Miss Helen Adams of 301 East street, New Britain; Alfred Casey of East Canaan, and Robert Condon, 20, of East Canaan and Miss Julia Regalis, 30, of New Britain.

Miss Julia Regalis, 30, of New Britain, was taken to Sharon hospital where she died this afternoon. She suffered a fractured skull and multiple abrasions.

Driver Arrested

The driver of the car, William Mosely, of Canaan, suffered slight head injuries. He was arrested by State Police on a charge of reckless driving and held at the barracks at Canaan in $2,000 bonds.

State Police said that the machine, a sedan, was traveling at an excessive rate of speed when it attempted to make the turn. Its occupants, who were returning to Lakeville from a dance in Canaan, were hurled out of the car as it struck the tree and burst into flames.

Instantly Killed

Miss Adams was instantly killed, Casey died a few minutes after the accident, while Condon died several hours after being admitted to the Fairview hospital, Great Barrington, Mass. The latter, a clerk employed by a Great Barrington grocery store, suffered fractures of both legs and internal injuries.

The girls were employed as waitresses at Lakeville. An inquest into the deaths will be conducted by Coroner S. A. Herman of Litchfield county.

Miss Adams had lived in Lakeville for several months. Her father resides in New Britain while her mother and sisters live at 22 Daniel street, Hartford.

Waentig Resigns AS PRUSSIAN HEAD

Carl Severing, Former Minister of the Interior of the Reich, Takes His Place.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Helmuth Waentig, Prussian minister of the interior, handed his resignation to the government today and Carl Severing, former minister of the interior of the Reich, was named as his successor.

The shift in the Prussian Cabinet is taken by political observers to indicate that Premier Otto Braun has thrown down the gauntlet to the extremists, Right and Left, in the Prussian Diet and intends that there shall be no more Fascist or Communist disturbances such as the anti-Jewish window-smashing escapade in the Leipzigerplatz on the opening day of the Reichstag.

Prof. Waentig announced his withdrawal to enable his return to scientific studies. He is a Social-Democrat. Severing also is known as a man of strong will. He is not popular with either Communists, Fascists or Nationalists. Severing is 55 years old. He was Prussian minister of the interior during 1920-26. Breakdown from overwork caused his retirement. He became Reich's minister of the interior in the Mueller Cabinet serving from 1928 to 1930. During his Prussian tenure he had to deal with some 200,000 political prisoners, including the Communist disorders for which Max Hoelz was brought to book, in 1923.

While in Saxony and Bavaria martial law was established because of Communist and Hitlerite agitations, Severing employed the Prussian police force to maintain order, although Prussia comprises two-thirds of Germany including vast industrial regions. Severing virtually rebuilt the Prussian police force from top to bottom. He is said to be known to and well liked by the entire population. His outstanding policy was that police must become protectors and friends of the population.

TREASURY BALANCE

Washington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Treasury receipts for October 20 were $8,271,878.95; expenditures $22,014,218.86. Balance $361,832,292.97.

CAPITAL TO N. Y. IN 63 MINUTES

Capt. Hawks Averages 212.5 Miles an Hour in His Trip from Washington.

Valley Stream, N. Y., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Washington—as Capt. Frank Hawks flies—is now only 63 minutes from New York. After a flight of 71 minutes to Washington yesterday to keep a luncheon engagement, Captain Hawks with the aid of tail winds reduced this record breaking time on his return flight to keep a theater engagement here last night.

The flight was made in the swift racing plane in which he has captured virtually all cross country speed records. His country flight to Washington in which he was hampered by the same winds that aided him on his return was made at average speed of 186 miles an hour. The return flight was at an average of 212.5 miles an hour.

DEATH TOLL NOW 231 IN MINE BLAST

No Hope for 61 Others Trapped in Germany—99 Injured; 170 Bodies Have Been Brought to Surface.

Aisdorf, Rhenish Prussia, Oct. 22.—(AP)—This mining town of 10,000 inhabitants was plunged into new grief today when it became apparent that there was no hope for 61 miners still underground in the Anna II coal mine.

With a certain death toll of 231 and the bodies of 170 victims of yesterday's mysterious explosion already recovered, there seemed every likelihood this afternoon that further increases in the death list must be made.

Ninety-nine persons remained in

FAMILY AS VICTIM OF A MURDER PLOT

Police Believe Object Was to Kill All by Feeding Them Ground Glass; Pets Die.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Death of two family pets from the effects of eating ground glass strengthened the theory of police today that 10-year-old Leona O'Loughlin, drowned in a city park lake, was the victim of a plot which had as its object extermination of the entire family.

The girl disappeared a week ago. Her bruised body, the stomach containing a quantity of ground glass, was found in the park lake Friday. At the time the girl's body was recovered her father Leo O'Loughlin, a city detective, was in a hospital recovering from the effects of eating food in which ground glass had been placed.

Murder Theory

Police advanced the murder plot theory after they learned ground glass was found in the sugar at the home of Dennis O'Loughlin, father of the detective six weeks ago. The elder O'Loughlin was host at a dinner party attended by Mr. and Mrs. Leo O'Loughlin, Leona, Douglas Milligan, 8-year-old son of Mrs. O'Loughlin by a former marriage; Mrs. Marybelle Shannon, sister of Mrs. O'Loughlin, and Frank O'Loughlin, brother of Leo.

Glass in Stomach

Investigation led to discovery of ground glass in the organs of the dead girl, in the stomach of her father and in two pets, a cat and a

Hold-Up Man Is Rewarded Because He Wouldn't Lie

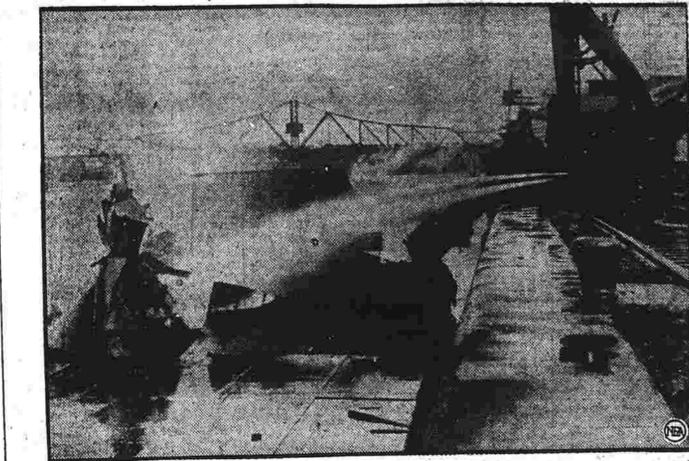

Chicago, Oct. 22.—(AP)—A hold-up man who wouldn't lie has been found in Chicago.

And because he told the truth he not only is free, but his family has food and his sick wife has been taken to a hospital for treatment at the expense of the man he held up the other night.

A. C. Meyerle, manufacturing jeweler, the victim, told the story today.

"I'm afraid," he told the holdup man when the latter pointed a wavering pistol at him, "that this is going to be pretty tough on my wife and

AFTER-OIL TANKER BLAST KILLED TWO

A sheet of flaming gasoline and oil on the Hudson river at Troy, N. Y., set ablaze the oil tanker which is pictured in wreckage after its cargo had exploded. Two lives were lost, four men were seriously injured and damage estimated at $200,000 resulted from the blast, which shattered windows within a wide radius. Minor panics occurred in various buildings which were rocked when the vessel was ripped apart. In the fire which followed, two tugs were burned to the water's edge.

HARTFORD WOMAN LOSES $111,000 IN A SWINDLE

Becomes Suspicious When $100,000 is Demanded So Tells Police; Stock Broker is Arrested in New York.

New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Harry Miller, alias Ball, a stock salesman, was under arrest today on a charge of grand larceny as the result of a trap set for him by a little New England spinster and baited with $100,000.

He was arrested in the Grand Central terminal yesterday when he met Miss Mary Hotchkiss, 55 years old of Hartford, Conn., from whom he expected to get $100,000 to invest in a stock pool.

Miss Hotchkiss told officials of the State Bureau of Securities she met Miller who was known to her as "Mr. Ball" when he was employed by Hargrave Stanley and Company, a brokerage firm that was enjoined from selling stock a year ago, except under conditions stipulated by the court.

Invested $111,000
She said he visited her home

41 Photographs Snapped by Scientists—Einstein Camera is Used in Experiment.

Niuaouf Island, Oct. 22.—(AP)—American and German scientists snapped 41 photographs of the sun during the 93 1/2 seconds of its total eclipse here today, and also made spectroscopic observations by which they hope to learn more about the atomic structure of the solar body.

Einstein camera designed to check some of the theories of the famous German scientist, was used with success. The weather was excellent. This was the scientists' reward for traveling thousands of miles and working for months on the preparation of apparatus for the observations.

The moment of total eclipse is invaluable to scientists because it offers them an opportunity to study the fiery atmosphere of the sun without encountering its direct light, which is veiled by the brief inter-

Nothing Uncommon for Poor Hospital Patient to be Told to Leave Bed, He Says.

London, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Dr. E. Leslie Burgin, member of Parliament, returning from the International Law Association conference in New York, today said in a press interview that "there is no country in the world quite so hard on the unfortunate and poor as the so-called prosperous continent of America."

Dr. Burgin said he had traveled in thirty states in the United States adding, "throughout the whole of America there seems to be little or no sympathy for the people. Thrift, foresight and saving all seem to be little known and less practiced."

"There is no unemployment insurance," he said.

CROSS SPEAKS TO DEMOCRATS IN RALLY HERE

Gubernatorial Candidate Fails as Linguist—Doesn't Give Address in Three Languages As Announced.

The largest audience to attend a Democratic rally in Manchester in many years gathered at the Circle theater last evening. Close to five hundred men and women presented the aspect of a full house in the little theater, though there were still some vacant seats. There was a fair sprinkling of recognizable Republicans among them, with a few persons of Swedish and Italian origin, doubtless attracted by the announcement that Dean Wilbur L. Cross, the Democratic candidate for governor, would address them in those languages as well as in English.

He did. He spoke one sentence of greeting in Italian with his right arm raised in the Fascist salute—which some of the audience seemed to think a rather extraordinary gesture for one so opposed to political bossism—and read one prepared sentence in Swedish with apologies for pronunciation of the words. All the rest of the dean's talk was in English.

Though Dean Cross was perhaps

8,000 ARE SLAUGHTERED BY COMMUNIST HORDES

Chinese Reds Burn and Loot City of Kian During the Massacre—Foreign Mis- sionaries Held Captives.

Shanghai, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Chinese press dispatches from Nanking today said 8,000 men and women had been slaughtered since capture of Kian, central Kiangsi province, by Communist hordes October 6. Burning and looting in the city accompanied the massacre.

Missionary advices from Kiangsi said five foreign Catholic sisters were captured by Reds and were held in a Communist hospital a few miles outside of Kian while five Chinese nuns were held at headquarters within the city. Whereabouts of four priests captured by Communists was not known.

Further Details

Additional information from Bishop Mignani and a Chinese priest at Kiangsi, said no mission buildings had been burned when they departed at the command of the Reds to demand $10,000,000 Mexican for release of the missionaries.

The bishop left Kian Oct. 14. He said buckets of gasoline had been distributed throughout buildings belonging to the church, in the event the Reds wished to fire the properties.

Additional Kiangsi advices said Nationalist authorities were experiencing difficulties in forcing the few remaining Nationalist soldiers in Kiangsi to fight Red soldiers. The advices said the armed men were adopting the slogan "Soldiers Don't Fight Soldiers."

This is considered the result of Communist propaganda among Nanking forces.

That Nanking is facing a herculean task in its efforts to uproot the Communists of central and southern China was agreed in all circles.

No Big Ransom

While Lazarist headquarters here were reticent concerning the wholesale kidnaping of their missionaries at Kian, members of the mission indicated the demand for $10,000,000 (Mexican) was absurd. Even a fraction of this is not likely to be paid, it was indicated.

Chinese dispatches reporting the capture of Kian said:

"Reds who are ravaging Kiangsi province are the same gang who captured Changsha, Hunan province."

WATERBURY DROPS IN CENSUS FIGURES

Cannot be Classed in Cities of 100,000 As It Has But 99,902—New Totals.

Washington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The final bulletin for Connecticut issued today by the Census Bureau showed Waterbury with a revised population of 99,902, dropping it from the list of cities of more than 100,000 population. That list now numbers 93 instead of 94 cities. Waterbury's population in preliminary reports was 101,025.

Connecticut's final population was given as 1,608,903, an increase of 228,272 or 16.4 per cent since 1920. The rate of increase was smallest in five decades, but the numerical increase was exceeded only once in the history of the state. All eight counties increased, the most rapidly growing being Hartford with a 25.3 per cent gain. In population density the state was exceeded only by Rhode Island, Massachusetts and New Jersey. New Haven county had the greatest density with 768.6 inhabitants per square mile.

BOYDEN'S WORK ENDS

Hamburg, Germany, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Roland W. Boyden, of Beverly, Mass., umpire in the trial of the accused United States-German war claims dispute which has been hearing cases here involving about $35,000,000, has wound up his work and sailed for home with Chandler P. Anderson, former state department counselor, of New York, a member of the commission.

The board, before which Robert Boyne appeared as a special counsel, took evidence on Saboteur cases in the United States before America's entry into the World War. During the hearing 140 of these claims were dealt with, 95 of which were passed on and 55 rejected. About 100 others were considered without decision.

The findings probably will be announced in Washington.

DRIVER EXONERATED

Bridgeport, Oct. 22.—(AP)—A verdict of "no criminal liability" was returned today by Coroner J. J. Phelan following an inquest into the death October 15, of Mrs. Julia Grosshaw, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The woman was fatally injured while riding in an automobile driven by Eugene Hajas of Fairfield. The accident took place in Westport when the automobile skidded from the road and overturned in a nearby field.

Hajas did not appear at the hearing, being confined to his bed on account of illness.

POPE PRESENTS GIFT

Berlin, Oct. 22.—(AP)—President von Hindenburg today received from the Pope, through the papal nuncio, Cesare Orsenigo, a gift of a deluxe edition of reproductions of Papal papyrus documents from the German, Spanish and Italian archives. The gift will be handed over to the Goring Society of Sciences.

CALL WRITING EXPERT

Torrington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—August Hartkorn, handwriting expert, who yesterday afternoon testified that the "suicide" note found beside the body of Antonio Russo was written by Domenico Chiarillo, was recalled to the stand for completion of his testimony when the Superior Court recovered this afternoon at Litchfield, where Chiarillo and Theodore Adams are on trial before Judge Frank P. McEvoy and a jury for the murder of Russo.

HARTFORD ARCHDEACONS TO BE GUESTS HERE

Girls Friendly Society to Entertain Group Sunday Afternoon, November 2.

Sunday afternoon, November 2, the Girls' Friendly Society of St. Mary's church will entertain the Hartford Archdeaconry. The speaker at this time will be Mrs. Dimock, Diocesan President. The meeting will open at 3:00 o'clock and will be followed by a supper which will be served by the younger members. It is expected that those who attend the meeting will remain for the evening service, at which time Rev. Nail will make a special address.

CROSS SPEAKS TO DEMOCRATS IN RALLY HERE

Semi-Annual Meeting to be Held at Country Club Next Tuesday.

The Manchester Medical Association will hold its 139th semi-annual meeting at the Hartford Country Club, Tuesday afternoon and evening, October 28, at the Manchester Country Club. The program will open at 1 o'clock with a round of golf for all members, delegates and guests. Dinner will be served at 6 o'clock and the business meeting will take place at 7:30 o'clock followed by a scientific program at 8 o'clock.

Business Session
The business meeting will be called to order by the president Albert R. Keith, M. D., of Hartford. The minutes of the last annual meeting will be read by the secretary-treasurer, Stanley B. Weld, M. D., of Hartford. After the reception of visiting delegates the reports of delegates will be made and also the reports of the secretary, treasurer, councillor, committee and Board of Censors of which Dr. Howard Boyd of Manchester is a member. Twenty-nine doctors are candidates for election to membership, including Dr. Mortimer Emmett Moriarty of South Manchester, a graduate of Yale University School of Medicine with the class of 1926. New Britain has seven candidates, Hartford, seventeen, West Hartford, two, Elmwood, one, and Bristol, one.

Two of the 29 are transfers from other associates. One of the 29 is a woman, Phloemina Mary DeVito of Hartford, a graduate of the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania in 1928.

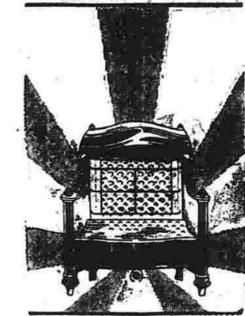

Reports
Case reports will be made during the scientific program by the local doctors, D. A. Caldwell and Howard Boyd. Papers will be read by Dr. W. Byrne, Jr., M.D., A. M. Rowley, M.D., Richard M. Smith, M.D., assistant professor of Child Hygiene, Medical School of Harvard University, Boston, Mass., and Howard W. Brayton, M.D.

The present officers of the Association are: Albert R. Keith of Hartford, president; George W. Dunn of New Britain, vice-president; Stanley B. Weld of Hartford, secretary-treasurer; and Walter R. Steiner of Hartford, councillor. The Board of Censors consists of Dr. Boyd, Henry N. Costello, of Hartford; and C. Brewster Brainard of Hartford. Dr. D. C. Y. Moore of Manchester is one of the state delegates and also a member of the committee on Public Policy and Legislation.

TRADE-SCHOOL NOTES

Fall activities are in full force at the Trade school. In the final play-off in the baseball series for the Director's cup, the Electrical department team beat the Carpenters for the championship of the school. A students survey shows that 70 per cent of all trade school students come from Manchester, 12 per cent from Rockville and 18 per cent from 17 surrounding towns within a radius of 25 miles. The Carpentry department is finishing up a two-car garage on Orchard street. Work best suited for instructional purposes is laid out in this department for about three months in advance.

WASHINGTON REPORT
Washington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—A message received today at the Naval Observatory said photographs of the sun's eclipse on the island of Niuafoou in the South Pacific were successful.

Commander C. H. J. Kepler, in charge of the United States Naval Observatory eclipse expedition, said 41 coronal pictures had been taken of the eclipse which occurred yesterday at approximately 5 p. m. (E. S. T.), or 10 a. m., Niuafoou time.

Officials of the observatory said the scientists had observed six medium streamers of light. Brief showers which preceded the total eclipse did not affect the photographs. Commander Kepler reported the natives were interested and not frightened at the eclipse.

Message Interpreted
The message, as interpreted by Captain Julius F. Hellweg, superintendent of the observatory, said: "No clouds; sky of very fair quality; direct photographs entirely satisfactory; good flash of photometer and Sinstein; corona midway in type, fairly bright; two fairly long streamers, one at 300 degrees and one at 120 degrees; six medium streamers (direction not given); Bailey's beads seen at edge of sun at beginning of eclipse; natives not alarmed, but interested; New Zealand's (British) party in good health; 41 coronal pictures and Einsteins and spectrographs obtained; short showers one hour before totality."

PYTHIAN SISTERS HONOR MRS. FRANCES CHAMBERS

Local Woman Named Grand Senior at Convention at Stamford Yesterday.

Mrs. Frances Chambers of Main street at the center was elected to the office of grand senior at the convention of Pythian Sisters held yesterday at Stamford. This is the second highest office in the gift of the order, and in all probability Mrs. Chambers will become grand chief at the annual session of the organization in 1931. She has filled each one of the offices in the grand temple and during her incumbency of the office of grand junior the past year, visited in her official capacity 33 out of the 40 temples in the state.

Mrs. Chambers was also appointed a district deputy at yesterday's session for the district which includes the temples at Thompsonville, Rockville and this town. The convention was a most successful one. Headquarters in Stamford were at the Roger Smith hotel where a banquet was held Monday evening. Mrs. Chambers is a past noble grand of Sunset Rebekah Lodge and prominent in Temple Chapter, O. E. S.

EXPRESS KILLS MAN
Bridgeport, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Leonard Palumbo, 50, a section hand employed by the New Haven road, was struck and killed yesterday by a New York-Waterbury express in Waterbury just as he was about to report for duty.

ANNOUNCEMENT

PETER McSWEENEY Is No Longer Connected With The Sullivan Hayes Coal Company

ABOUT TOWN

A great many people are enjoying the qualifying contest at the indoor golf course at East Center and Trotter streets. Three prizes will be awarded at the close of next week. The first prize will be a $5 gold piece, the second a $2.50 gold piece and the third prize a dollar bill. Those who make a score below 30 this week will be qualified to enter the tournament next week.

Peter McSweeney is no longer in the employ of the Sullivan-Hayes Coal company of Burnside, according to an announcement from that firm today.

Mystic Review, Woman's Benefit Association, made plans at its meeting in Odd Fellows hall last evening for the district convention to be held here on Tuesday evening, November 18, preceded by a dinner at the Hotel Sheridan.

About 35 members of the Sock and Buskin Club of Manchester High school will go to Meriden next Tuesday evening to witness two one-act plays to be presented by the Props and Paints Dramatic Club of Meriden High school. The local actors will be the guests of their Meriden colleagues.

Friday afternoon at the Hartford Public High school, arrangements will be made for the annual triangular debate between Manchester, Meriden and Middletown High schools and plans also discussed relative to a Central Connecticut Interscholastic Debating League.

The Ladies Sewing Circle of the Concordia Lutheran church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Epworth League of the North Methodist church will meet tomorrow evening at 7:30 for business and a social hour.

The setting of seventy feet of curbstones on the north side of Woodbridge street from Main street east was started this afternoon. The stones were delivered this morning and at 12:15 men started setting the curbing. There will be no shelter, but instead of standing in the mud as is the case after each rain a person awaiting a bus can stand on the sidewalk that will be built when the curb is placed.

ATTORNEY DISBARRED
New Haven, Oct. 22.—(AP)—James F. Rosen, attorney, who was sentenced September 24 to serve two months in jail on a forgery charge, was disbarred by Judge Foster in Superior Court today. Attorneys for Rosen offered no defense.

ABOUT TOWN

These boys are young and plastic and impressionable. If we can extend this idea of co-operation through Scouting from the cities and towns to the boys out in the country, we shall lay a "base" never laid before.

Today farming is an entirely different occupation from that of 100 years ago. That means higher type of intelligence upon the farm. The farmer must have a wide range of knowledge in this day of specialized business than any one else. I might name. The most important thing is to help the boys that want to stay on the farm. These clubs ought to be supplemented with scout training. There ought to be an organization with such ideals as the B. S. A. putting those ideals with those of the 4-H club to make a rounded happy and satisfied life for boys who live upon the farm.

If we can extend the scout movement while these boys are young, plastic and impressionable, if we can extend this idea of co-operation through scouting from cities and towns to the boys out in the country we shall lay a basis never laid before.

Any boys who desire information and wish to enroll as Lone Scouts should correspond with Field Scout Executive Joseph G. Dean, 41 Delmont street, Manchester, Conn., or Boy Scout Headquarters, 55 Allyn street, Hartford, Conn.

The cat died Wednesday, the day after the girl disappeared. The dog died Thursday, the same day the detective was taken to a hospital seriously ill. The cat and dog had been fed scraps from the O'Loughlin table.

The girl's stepmother, Mrs. Leo O'Loughlin, held for investigation, has maintained she knew nothing of Leona's death. She was denied bond yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus.

Detective O'Loughlin quit his hospital bed yesterday to aid in solving the mystery of his daughter's slaying.

Director of Rural Scouting, O. H. Benson, spoke Monday evening to men interested in Rural Scouting at old City Hall, Hartford. An effort is being made to bring to the country boy the Boy Scout program by becoming a Lone Scout.

A Lone Scout is a boy who follows the scout program under the leadership of an adult friend or leader. He carries on the program by correspondence, meets the same requirements as a boy in the troop and has the advantages of the scout program. A number of lone scouts may organize a tribe and may have an adult leader and a chance to team and co-operate with other boys.

Suppose three or four boys in your community want to get together and follow the scout program under a leader what can they do? They can organize a farm or home patrol, which may be organized with two or more boys. The scoutmaster of this patrol is a man of high character endorsed by three of the boy's fathers. The patrol meets out doors at home or a convenient meeting place. They follow the scout program with many farm interests and applications.

Some people believe scouting is for city boys only; the boys in the country are out of doors and do not need an outdoor program. Now the country boy needs scouting more than the city boy does because he is further away from those advantages given to city boys. He needs a program to organize his outdoor life and which will give him interesting and worth-while things to do.

The Hon. Frank O. Lowden made the following statement for the farm boy:
"Today farming is an entirely different occupation from what it was 100 years ago. That means a higher type of intelligence upon the farm. The farmer must have a wider range of knowledge in this day of specialized business than almost any one else I might name. The most important thing is to help the boys that want to stay on the farm. The 4-H Clubs have done much to stimulate the interest of the boys in the farm. These clubs ought to be supplemented with Scout training. There ought to be an organization with such ideals as the Boy Scouts of America putting those ideals along side the purposes of 4-H Clubs, to make a rounded, happy and satisfied life for boys who live upon the farm. If we can extend this Scout Movement while

WOMEN URGE WET VOTING BY WOMEN

Connecticut Branch for Prohibition Reform Opposed to All Dry Candidates.

Hartford, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Lucius Robinson, Jr., president of the Connecticut Branch of the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform today announced that the executive committee of the state branch of the organization had voted to urge its members to vote in the forthcoming elections for those candidates who have pledged themselves for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

This decision, Mrs. Robinson said, is in accordance with the decision of the national organization. Mrs. Robinson also announced that the Connecticut branch of the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform now has a membership of 10,855. State headquarters for the organization have been established at 1109 Chapel Street, New Haven, which are open daily from 1:30 to 5:30 p. m.

"In urging our members to vote for candidates who stand for repeal," Mrs. Robinson said, "the Connecticut division of this national organization of over 200,000 members is doing its part in the movement now under way throughout the country to restore respect for law. We have no interest in any political party as such, or in any candidate for office as an individual. We simply believe that the party and the candidates who favor repeal of the Prohibition laws should be supported, for the reason that we believe the Eighteenth Amendment to be one of the great evils of our time."

"A leading cartoonist a few days ago published a cartoon showing two citizens, representing the public, discussing prohibition, while justice was being strangled by crime. In common with many, the cartoonist forgets that prohibition, with its bootleggers, racketeers, and with the enormous funds at its disposal, has in large part, created this situation. Bootlegging, the mother of the racket, has become a big business and thoughtful people may well shudder at this menace.

Stands for Temperance
The Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform does not advocate the use of liquor. It stands for temperance, for law observance, for wise and honest government, and for better social conditions. It is unalterably opposed to the saloon and to unlicensed, unregulated and uncontrolled liquor traffic.

"There has been much debate as to whether or not the government should have adopted a national prohibition law whether the law was necessary; whether it was an invasion of private and personal rights, etc. These issues still exist, but compared with conditions as they are at present, they are theoretical. The country is being swept by crime, corruption exists in high places. Prohibition alone is not to blame; but prohibition is undoubtedly the largest single factor. Gangster killings in New York and Chicago outrage the mind. Many attribute our increasing lawlessness to the existing business depression, but it must be pointed out that this country has gone through depressions which amounted to panics without the outbreak with which we are now confronting."

Nearly All Sections
"Almost every section of the country has its organized bootlegging racket. Any attempt on the part of other bootleggers to invade a section leads to murder. No one will admit that the Prohibition law is being enforced, and few will admit that it is completely enforceable. In the meanwhile, this disrespect and, in many cases, contempt for law increases, and invades other fields."

"The women of this country appreciate, probably better than many men, what Prohibition has done to the home. Drinking has become a fad, and thousands of boys and girls drink because it's 'the thing to do.' Parties at which a majority become intoxicated are not uncommon."

"We are opposed to prohibition because we recognize the importance of temperate, self-respecting and law-abiding citizens to the success of the country. We are opposed to prohibition because we believe that upon these fundamentals depend the character of our people and the very existence of the American democracy. Since prohibition has not only failed in every instance to foster American ideals, but has violated most of them, women have repudiated it."

Hartford County, with 3,754 members, has the largest membership of any county in Connecticut, Fairfield County has 3,522, and New Haven County has 2,700.

EXPENSIVE JURY
Hartford, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The "Blue Ribbon" jury, which is hearing the evidence in the Russo murder case in the Superior Court at Hartford, cost the state $1,499.80 according to figures obtained today from C. Wesley Winslow, clerk of the court. The $1,499.80 was spent for fees and mileage expenses of the nearly 250 talesmen who were summoned for examination. The fee for a talesman is $4 a day.

SEES RAILROADS FACING FAILURE

Speaker Says Buses and Water Routes Provide Much Competition.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Constant "nibbling" of freight rates, the advance of bus transportation and development of waterways endanger the salutory results foreseen for railroads in the Transportation Act of 1920, W. E. Storey, president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, said in an address prepared for delivery at the seventh conference of major industries here today.

More than two score of the leading business men of the United States had accepted invitations to the one-day session, under the auspices of the University of Chicago and the Institute of American Meat Packers.

Storey, in discussing "railroads," said that the tendency of the railroads themselves to make low rates to develop business, thus lowering the general average, a steady increase in operating expense, constant increase in taxes, government subsidy of water routes, and only partial solution of the labor situation are other factors deterring the growth and development of a more solid national system.

Predicts Disaster
"I try not to be pessimistic, but if these influences continue, disaster to the railroads must follow," he said. "I am not now considering the poor business of this year, but the condition of affairs in normal years."

Referring to the continued tendency to reduce rates, he said that occasionally Congress takes a hand and passes a bill like the Hoch-Smith resolution by which the Interstate Commerce Commission is introduced to give the farmer relief through freight rates.

Other diversions
"There is next a diversion of business from railroads by the truck, the bus, the automobile, pipe lines, waterways and the Panama canal. The government is aiding the development of waterways in every way and is financing barge lines on the rivers. The barge lines pay nothing for the maintenance of roadbeds and their rates are not fixed by cost of service."

"In spite of the ineffectiveness of several important elements of the law," Storey said, "the Transportation Act has been of great value to the railroads. The unworkableness of certain provisions has been demonstrated and many new conditions have arisen and changes should be made to meet them."

Queer Twists In Day's News

London—Prince George is quite a speechmaker. In toasting Lord Nelson at a dinner of the Navy League on the anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar, he likened the Navy to the multiplication table, "indispensable to business, but not lending itself to after-dinner oratory." He described piracy as "the oldest and most exciting of aquatic sports."

Portsmouth, England—Lord Nelson's flagship Victory, which was in the battle of Trafalgar 125 years ago is in Portsmouth harbor and on the anniversary eight admirals dined aboard with conditions reproduced as they existed under Nelson. Cabins were lighted by ship's lanterns and food such as Nelson ate was cooked aboard.

New York—That's got din them bulls. Sidney Franklin, Brooklynite, who is popular in Spain, says some toptotch bullfighters average 100 appearances a season at an average of $5,000. But there is quite a cut on the matador's earnings because he must have an elaborate costume. Franklin carries three picadors, three peons, a valet and a cook.

Fort Hancock, N. J.—Jersey lightning (which is distilled clear) and mules all have kicks, but Jersey lightning—the Army's white mule, kicks no more. She kicked and otherwise objected to strenuously while being trussed up to be shod that she broke her neck.

New York—Rear Admiral Davis Watson Taylor, U. S. N., retired, who has devised many improvements for warships and whose designs were preliminary to the Navy's trans-Atlantic seaplane flight, has received the John Fritz gold medal, the highest honor of the engineering profession, an award made by four engineering societies.

Tangkrangtu, Manchuria—Some 8,000 persons mostly Japanese, have visited this resort in the last year for curative mud baths. Mud from hot sulphur springs is run by rail in wooden tubs shaped like coffins to a bath house. A patient stays in a tub ten minutes, then after a shower is dressed in woollens and sent to bed for several hours. Sufferers from rheumatism and neuralgia are the principal patrons.

ENGINEERS FIND AZTEC RELICS
Granada, Nicaragua, Oct. 22.—(AP)—High up on the side of Zapatera Island, surrounded by the blue placid waters of Lake Nicaragua, United States Army engineers surveying a new canal route have discovered what they believe to be Aztec relics.

Much of the relic city is in tumbledown condition, but there still stand, unremoved through four centuries, four large human sacrificial stones and at their foot a giant Indian idol with the carved body of a man and the head of a grotesque, vengeful animal.

Immediately behind the large idol there is a tomb made of flat stones from which the blinding cement long since has dropped away. Vines and undergrowth have covered the spot, and the tomb has settled to a mound of earth and stone five or six feet high, twenty feet wide and a hundred feet long.

On the four sides of the tomb, which is believed to contain remains of the humans sacrificed, including the Spaniards who came into the Indians' midst, were broken or headless idols, which had lain where they had fallen through the centuries that have passed since the Aztecs ceased to be a nation.

BOYS IN REFORMATORY GET CRIME SCHOOLING

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Dr. Sheldon Glueck, assistant professor of criminology at Harvard Law School, today reported the results of a recent survey tending to show that four-fifths of the prisoners at the Massachusetts state reformatory fall back into crime at least once within five years of their parole. His wife, Dr. Eleanor T. Glueck, collaborated with him in his survey.

The Glueck report, which is part of the state's study of the parole situation in Massachusetts, covered the records of 500 prisoners, released between 1911 and 1922. The report said that they had been involved in 1,014 crimes.

Need of a better classification of prisoners, to the end that "amateurs in criminality" should not be lodged with hardened criminals, was stressed in the report. Dr. Glueck also urged better pay for reformatory inmates "as an incentive for good work and as a means of financial aid to their families."

Almost one-half the men paroled had their permits revoked for violation of the conditions of their paroles or because of new crimes committed. The report said, and almost a similar number were adjudged industrial failures.

A large number of the parolees questioned claimed they obtained further schooling in crime or acquired bad habits and acquaintances in the reformatory, the report said.

JEWELS WORTH $64,000 STRIPPED FROM WOMEN

Chicago, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Two couples were stripped of jewels valued at $64,000 early today by three holdup men who duplicated features of the recent daring robbery of Mrs. William Hale Thompson, wife of Chicago's mayor.

The victims, George E. Crandell and Ralph Gardner, brokers, and their wives, were returning to the Crandell apartment in a Gold Coast residential building after attending a fashion show.

As they stepped from a taxicab in the driveway of the building the robbers, displaying pistols, warned the women not to "scream or move." They took two rings, one valued at $30,000, a bracelet and necklace from Mrs. Crandell and a $10,000 bracelet from Mrs. Gardner. Crandell yielded $50.

The robbers allowed Mrs. Crandell to retain her wedding ring and Mrs. Gardner a diamond ring, present from her husband. Crandell, formerly a vice president of Montgomery Ward and Co., told police all the gems except the large, most valuable ring, were insured.

PINCHOT AND DAVIS IN A DISAGREEMENT

Davis Says President Has Not Endorsed Ticket and Pinchot Says He Has.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 22.—(AP)—A reported disagreement between Secretary of Labor James J. Davis and Gifford Pinchot, Republican candidates, respectively, for United States Senator and governor, on the attitude of President Hoover in the Pennsylvania campaign has created a stir in political circles.

Reports that the incident had resulted in a breach between Davis and Pinchot and that they no longer would campaign together could not be verified here.

Secretary Davis, in an address at a Republican rally in Uniontown on Monday, at which Pinchot also spoke, said that President Hoover had not endorsed any candidate, "and he cannot even endorse me and I am a member of his Cabinet."

Mr. Pinchot in Washington, Pa., yesterday, gave Secretary Davis as his authority for saying that President Hoover "stands for and desires the election of the whole Republican ticket in Pennsylvania."

Six villages and fourteen cemeteries were removed from the Sacondaria river in the foothills of the Adirondacks to make room for a man-made lake 27 miles long and costing $27,000,000.

WHY are Camels welcomed with cheers in any company—a twosome or a crowd? Because they're mild—not flat or tasteless but naturally mild. They have the marvelous aroma that only choice tobaccos, mel- lowed by golden sunshine, then expertly cured and superbly blended, can give a cigarette. There's nothing artificial about this delightful fragrance. No doctoring, no over-processing can produce it. Camel's refreshing mildness is there from the start.

Swing with the crowd to Camels. Learn the happy difference between true mildness and insipid flatness. Smoke without fear of throat-discomfort or after-taste—just for pleasure!

NEW ENGLAND SHY ON FOREIGN TRADE

Survey Shows That Only Small Percentage of Goods Made Here is Exported.

Boston, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The preliminary report of the New England foreign trade survey, announced today by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, which made the survey in cooperation with the New England Council, found that New England manufacturers "sell only a small percentage of their products abroad."

The complete results of the survey will be released in a volume—"The Foreign Trade Survey of New England."

The total exports of the six New England states, on the basis of 2000 New England manufacturing concerns reporting, was approximately $196,000,000. The total value of imports reported by 1100 New England importers was $218,000,000.

Machinery and Vehicles
"Machinery and vehicles constitute the most important class of New England products exported," the report says, "with a value exceeding $48,000,000, or about 25 per cent of the total exports of New England."

The metal group was second in exports, textiles, third, and wood and paper next.

"Of the 45 principal individual commodities exported by New England manufacturers, leather ranked first, valued at nearly $20,000,000," the report continues. "The next five commodities, in order of importance, were hardware, cutlery, mechanics tools, cotton manufactures, industrial machinery and parts (other than textile, electrical, printing, and agricultural), rubber, manufactures, and office appliances and supplies."

"Each of these six groups exceeded $10,000,000 and together made up 50 per cent of the total value."

ABOUT TOWN
Miss Alice Jacquemin of 45 Middle Turnpike East has just received a first premium in her entry of handiwork at the recent Stafford fair, which was a box of three linen handkerchiefs trimmed with tatting edge and corners. Miss Jacquemin, who was formerly a stenographer in the office of the Carlyle Johnson Machine Company, has been confined to her home by illness practically all the time since May of 1929. She has so far improved as to be able to walk a little and go for an occasional automobile ride.

The women's afternoon whist party will take place tomorrow at 2:15 at the School Street Recreation Center.

The Education committee of the Kiwanis Club met last night in the Chamber of Commerce office and rehearsed the hilarious and educational show "Kiwanis Finishing School," to be presented at the Ladies' Night at the Country Club next Monday evening. A final rehearsal will be held at the Franklin School Monday noon.

The Beethoven and G. Clef Glee club annual Halloween party will be held at the Wapping School, Saturday evening, November 1, and as usual will be a masquerade.

BREAK TRAINING, HIGH LOSES 2-GRID STARS

Valuable Regulars Off Squad As Result of Infraction of Rule On Smoking.

Two first string backfield members of the Manchester High school football team has been suspended from the squad for the balance of the season for infraction of the rule against smoking. They are Quarterback "Buddy" Kerr and Halfback Austin Weiman. The loss of these two regulars comes almost on the eve of the C. C. I. L. game with East Hartford to be played at the West Side Playgrounds starting at 2:15 Friday afternoon. Sheridan will undoubtedly be used at quarter with Brown going in at Weiman's halfback post.

EXPOSURE CAUSE OF BOY'S DEATH

Foul Play Theory Disregarded by State Police in Kenneth Swanson's Death.

Winsted, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Exposure rather than foul play caused the death of two year old Kenneth Swanson, whose badly decomposed body was found yesterday in a thicket near Colebrook, according to opinions expressed today by state police following an investigation and autopsy.

The discovery of the body by Peter Mellas of Winsted, while hunting about a mile off the Colebrook road solved a mystery which has engaged the attention of authorities since August 24, when the boy wandered away from the Colebrook home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Kenette, his grandparents, with his collie dog, and failed to return. The hunter found the body when he entered a dense thicket seeking a woodcock he had shot.

The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Swanson, of Barre Vermont. His parents left the Kenette home Friday to return home, but are expected back in Colebrook Friday. At the time of his disappearance it was believed the boy had been kidnapped. Police, bloodhounds, and private organizations engaged an intensive search without result.

LINER IN THREE PARTS

Liverpool.—It is expected that the giant new $30,000,000 Cunard ocean liner will be built in three sections to make riding Atlantic rollers more easy. These sections will be hinged and will move to meet the roll of the waves, thus lessening considerably the shock of the impacts.

MOTHER STRANGLES HER INFANT CHILD

Then Tells Neighbors About It—Planned to Kill Two Older Children, She Says.

Redding, Conn., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Mrs. Rose Catherine Mortensen, 42, having calmly confessed that she strangled to death her four months old baby and then changed her mind about killing her older two children and herself, was held in Fairfield county jail, in Bridgeport today pending hearing of her case November 5. She has also, in a quiet voice, expressed the hope that she will be hanged.

She was arrested on a charge of murder after telling a neighboring family yesterday morning of her act. Arraigned before a justice of the peace, the case was continued pending an autopsy and an examination of her mental condition.

Mother's Story
She told police that, yesterday morning as she prepared to give her baby his daily bath, she decided to kill her three children and herself. After strangling the boy, she changed her mind about killing her two older children, and walked across to the home of a neighbor and told of her crime.

Her husband is employed as a gardener on the J. D. Starratt estate at Sunset Hill.

HALLOWEEN PARTY FOR REC WOMEN

Will Be Held At School Street Building Next Monday Evening.

There will be a rollicking good time at the School Street Rec next Monday night for the women members of the Recreation Centers in observance of Halloween. The party is being arranged by Miss Gertrude E. Fenerty and she has a number of surprises in store for her 57th, swimming and dance class members who attend. To reveal the nature of them would spoil the fun, so that must be kept a secret.

In order to cover the cost of refreshments, it is necessary to charge thirty-five cents and this admission fee must be received at the Rec office by Friday. Miss Fenerty hopes that as many of the members as possible will be on hand. Each person is requested to bring a large handkerchief, preferably a man's. "Be sure and wear either your gym outfit or some old clothes so that you can join in all the fun. Be sure and be ready at 7 o'clock as many surprises await you," is Miss Fenerty's advice to those contemplating attendance.

FLIERS' RADIO TALK PUT OVER FOR A DAY

Schenectady, N. Y., Oct. 22.—(AP)—The radio telephone conversations between Wing Commander Charles King-tord Smith, at Sydney Australia, and friends in the United States, scheduled for this morning, were postponed until tomorrow.

The two way conversations were to have been broadcast from the General Electric Company's short wave experimental station, at Glenville, over WGY and the WJZ network. While atmospheric conditions were favorable, it was announced that the Australian aviator was not able to reach the Sydney broadcasting station in time.

Another attempt will be made at 8 a. m. tomorrow.

The General Electric Company announced today it would endeavor to have Rear Admiral Eyring, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and Eddie Rickenbacker talk with Kingsford-Smith, either from Schenectady or from a New York station through which the conversations could be relayed to this city.

WATSON TAKES REST

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 22.—(AP)—U. S. Senator James E. Watson today decided to accept the advice of physicians that he refrain from too active participation in the present political campaign because of the weakened condition of his heart.

He rested today at a hotel here. These addresses he was to have made in northern Indiana during the next few days have been cancelled. There was no appreciable change in his condition today.

NAZARENE CHURCH CALLS NEW PASTOR

Rev. Harris B. Anthony of New Haven Accepts Pulpit Offered Here.

Rev Harris B. Anthony has received and accepted a call from the local Church of the Nazarene to be its pastor, succeeding Rev. E. T. French who is now located in Haverhill, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony yesterday moved their household goods from New Haven where they have been for the past two years. The new pastor will be in charge of the midweek service this evening and will preach at the services of the church on Sunday.

Mr. Anthony was born in Kennebec, Nova Scotia. When only 18 years of age he accepted a teaching position in Western Canada in the Province of Saskatchewan, where he remained four years and attended college for a time. Later he entered the Northwest Nazarene college at Nampa, Idaho, and received his A. B. degree after two years of study. He was appointed dean of men at the academy in Nampa. The following year he came East to take post-graduate work at Boston University looking toward his master's degree. Later he received and accepted a call to the Church of the Nazarene in New Haven.

Mrs. Anthony was born in Nampa and attended the academy and also the Nazarene college. The young couple are both by training and experience well qualified to assume charge of the local church, and will be made cordially welcome not only by the parishioners but by the Manchester clergy and townspeople.

FAMILY IMPROVING

Milford, Oct. 22.—(AP)—While not yet reported as out of danger, Mrs. Ada Whyland, 40, her daughter, Eleanor, 18, and her son, Arthur, 12, were today said to be slightly improving at Milford hospital. Mrs. Whyland and her daughter are suffering from severe razor slashes, and her son is suffering from hammer blows on the head sustained when their husband and father attacked them in their home early Monday morning.

ONE-SIDED

BINKS: I say, I had a frightful row with my wife last night. Could you hear?
MAY NEXT DOOR: Yes, we could hear every word she was saying.—Passing Show.

OPENING STOCKS

New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Continued weakness characterized the opening of the Stock Market today. American Telephone, National Biscuit, Westinghouse Electric, American Tobacco B and American Water Works dropped about a point each. U. S. Steel, International Telephone and Dupont declined 3-4, and General Electric, Bethlehem, and United Aircraft, about 1-2. Allied Chemical, however, rose a point, and Union Carbide, 5-8.

Prominent shares broke into new low ground during the first half hour, including U. S. Steel, which extended its decline to 2 points, touching 143 3-8. Westinghouse was again heavy, dropping 4 points to 102, only 2 points above its 1929 low. General Electric sagged more than a point, again reaching new low ground for the present week.

Losses, however, were mostly held to moderate limits, few reaching 2 points. American Water Works and Allied Chemical sold off 2, and shares losing a point or more included American Can, American Smelting, Air Reduction, American International, Eastman, Atchafson, Union Pacific, International Harvester, Public Service of New Jersey, Consolidated Gas, American Power and Light, and North American.

The decline seemed to represent largely a continuation of yesterday's selling wave. The overnight news was none too favorable, including forecasts that steel production figures would show another decline, and report of a fresh drop in freight car loadings. Most favorable, however, was the report that General Motors was increasing employment at some points. F. R. Lyness, plant manager, said better business conditions warranted resumption of production and employment would be further increased next month.

Foreign exchanges opened a little lower, with sterling cables quoted at $4.85 31-32, off 3-32.

FIRE DESTROYS HOUSE, BARN IN COLCHESTER

Colchester, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the two and half story house and barn of William Burba on the William road, two miles from here early today.

The family, sleeping in the main portion of the house, were able to escape only in their night clothing, and the fire had gained too much headway when discovered for fighters from the Colchester fire department to make "any headway. The well, between the house and barn, could not be reached because of the blaze.

Two horses and a calf were burned to death, and all hay, corn and tools in the barn were destroyed. Damage was estimated at $12,000, a portion of which is covered by insurance.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22.

tion when they killed innocent persons.

The point he makes is that hunters who do not know good hawks from bad hawks should not shoot hawks at all.

This is a subject which may well bear further development. It would appear to be one of real interest to sportsmen and which offers a field for considerable discussion.

It is, of course, an essential of real sportsmanship that animal or bird life shall not be destroyed wantonly. But the hunter who habitually takes a shot at a hawk on general principles may have something to say in defense of his position. We should like to hear from him—or from the hunter who agrees with this friend of the hawks.

A DOG'S LAPSE

The pathetic tragedy of the little Swanson boy, who wandered away from a farm in Colebrook last August and whose body has just been found in the woods two miles from the farm from which he disappeared, presents one aspect which has puzzled a great many persons—the failure of the collie dog in the case to lead searchers to the missing child after its return home from accompanying him. Such a proceeding would have been altogether in keeping with the deserved reputation of the collie for intelligence and precisely in line with many instances of such service that stand to the credit of the breed.

Collies often have an almost human capacity for sensing unusual and undesired situations and for calling the attention of their human friends to them.

It might be well, however, to appreciate the fact that dogs, particularly the more intelligent species, are markedly individuals; the higher the average intelligence of the breed, the less standardized they are in their mental processes. If this dog did not react to the circumstances of the case according to tradition there is perhaps no more occasion for surprise in the fact that there is when a human being of high intellect but suffering from absent-mindedness fails to react to a certain prescribed way to events going on about him.

The dog in this case may have simply lost his little playmate in the woods, failed to find him and been overwhelmed with shame. He may even have forgotten about him.

It would seem to be a rather slender basis for the theory of kidnapping or other crime to conclude that otherwise the dog would have led the searchers to the place where the child was.

AS TO CONSERVATORS

The episode of the Hartford woman who handed over $110,000 to a stock salesman whose full name—even his acquired one—or address she did not know, on his mere promise to make huge profits for her by translating her cash into stock certificates, suggests the need of a change in the law providing for the appointment of conservators over persons incapable of administering their own affairs. At present probate courts can proceed to such action only on the application of the selectmen or of relatives or in one or two other circumstances involving some fess and feathers. It would seem to be entirely fitting that authority to apply for conservatorship be extended to the police.

It would seem as though the police had enough to do, in the present condition of society, without being compelled to devote a considerable part of their time to shooting the crooks away from such palpably incapable persons of wealth as this Hartford woman. It might serve a good end if, in any case where the victim of a patent and shallow fraud runs to them for aid in getting his money back, the action would automatically result in the affairs of such a person being taken in charge by a probate court on the mere information laid by the police authorities.

At all events there would be an ironic satisfaction in it for the cops.

HAWSKS

A Connecticut bird lover, writing to a newspaper in his city, offers an unusual suggestion. He says that with all our energy in protecting birds there is one group, "whose usefulness was proven more than thirty years ago and that has no value as game," that is given no legal protection but, because used as targets by every hunter, is becoming extremely rare.

These birds are the hawks. "About twelve species," says this writer, "occur in Connecticut more or less regularly, but only three of them can be considered as doing any appreciable harm to game or poultry. Most of the others are extremely useful as destroyers of mice, rats and other small rodents. Protection has not been given these useful ones because the average hunter cannot distinguish them from the harmful ones."

The defender of the hawks asks what would happen if policemen, anxious to dispose of a dangerous criminal, should shoot at everyone who bore a general resemblance to the bad man and feel no compunccandidate in 1932, but many things may happen in the next twenty months and if by any chance Mr. Hoover should not be available there is hardly a doubt that the party would turn unanimously to Mr. Morrow.

If Mr. Edge still has aspirations toward the Vice-Presidency it would seem to be altogether too early in the game for them to be manifesting themselves.

IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 22.—This is a tale some 20 years old, told me today by Davy Davis, the other night in the shadowed corner of a night resort. It's about Owen Davis, the playwright, who has written more dramas than you are years old, even if you happen to be Yessie Agba. And about Al Woods, the famous Broadway producer, who started on the New York streets with little or nothing, and now has twice as much.

And the tale goes like this: It was at a time when the Empress Dowager of China was in bad standing with certain other royal groups. A concerted propaganda effort was being made to discredit the empress in the eyes of the world. Scores of princeling were scattered hither and yon over the globe to spread stories of her shortcomings.

And a number of them came to America. They attended the universities and mixed with the better people. They appear to have had an unlimited spending fund, and used it. Furthermore, they were able to send back home for such amounts as were necessary to aid their campaign.

One day, when Davis was a mere working figure around the Woods office, getting his career under way, he noticed a well-dressed, intelligent looking young Chinese sitting in the waiting room. For several days afterward, he noticed the same young man there. He mentioned it to Woods.

"Oh, it's just some guy with a play hunch."

But upon the next day, Davis stopped to talk with the stranger. What were the chances, the stranger asked, of getting a play written? Now here was the idea—and the young prince had a goodly sum of money—and they would send to China for fabulously lovely costumes . . . costumes direct from the royal households. The play, of course, had to present the empress in a ridiculous light.

The empress meant nothing in the life of Davis. But a "backed" play did. He sat down and wrote "The Marked Woman." And in due time, costumes of such value came from China that the duty was $25,000. The cast was chosen, the play put together—and they opened in Pittsburgh.

A few days after the opening a note came to Woods.

"The play that play is closed within two days, the men who are putting up the money—well known to us—will be killed." And it was signed "The Allied Tongs," or something like that.

Woods sent a police reply to the effect that one of a producer's first duties is to the playwright. The play had been written, time had been spent and the playwright was entitled to a showing and a chance.

Two or three days more passed and a note that went something like this came to the producer's desk:

"We have waited some time for that play to be closed. It is still being produced. If it is still going by the end of the week, the body of Mr. A. H. Woods will be found with throat slit, floating in the Harlem river."

The drama was soon removed.

Indicating that the story, if in any particular true, shows that melodrama can come right up and bite a producer. Which, according to the old formula, is "news."

INVENTOR STARTS SUIT

Minneapolis, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Fritz von Opel, pioneer in the development of Rocket automobiles and airplanes, has filed suit in District Court here asking $60,000 of the Fawcett Publications, Inc.

The inventor claims that the company recently published in its magazine, "Modern Mechanics and Invention," a story under his name, without his knowledge or consent. Von Opel alleges the article was not written in a scientific manner, subjecting him to ridicule as a result.

Von Opel formerly was head of the Adam Opel A. G., large German automobile firm recently taken over by General Motors.

AGAINST CO-EDS

Oxford, Eng., Oct. 22.—(AP)—A campaign of male students of this ancient university against having co-eds at Oxford has been renewed.

For a long time many of the men students have been strongly against the co-ed policy. The student magazine Isis today published an editorial against women students, inviting them to "Make for Home, Angels."

One of the complaints Isis has against the girls is that they are indecorous—they ride bicycles in the street "with truly shocking display of worsted" and munch belated breakfasts of chocolates and biscuits in lecture rooms.

MANY LONDON DIVORCES

London, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Women outnumber men two to one in 680 petitions for divorce being heard in the Michaelmas term of court.

Apparently, attorneys appearing in many of the cases say, there is an important difference in the attitude of women, many of whom intend not to ask that the decrees be made absolute.

By declining to take a final decree a woman prevents her husband marrying again.

The present divorce case list is the largest on record for one term.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
 NEA Service Writer

Washington, Oct. 22.—Most treaties between nations are written in two or more languages and sometimes the misinterpretation of a word in translation is likely to cause a dispute which might lead to war or something.

So the linguistic experts in the Translating Bureau of the State Department have to know their stuff. Last year Emerson B. Christie, chief of the bureau, and his four technical assistants translated about 3,000,000 foreign words into English. Those words were written in a total of 31 languages.

Treaties are only a part of the work but the checking of parallel texts is a vital matter. Except in a treaty with an English-speaking country they are written in two columns, one containing the text in English and the other in another language.

Different interpretations have led to many arguments, as each country follows the text in its own language and in times past some actually serious controversies have arisen when it was claimed that texts didn't agree.

We made a basic treaty with Turkey in 1830 and the controversy over interpretation lasted from 1838 through the World War, nearly causing rupture of diplomatic relations on a couple of occasions.

Must Check Treaty

Commodore Porter, however, had originally agreed that in case of doubt the Turkish text should be followed and that made argument more difficult for the State Department. Under present practice the translating Bureau has to check texts before treaties are signed and the contracting parties agree on any changes.

The bureau translates all foreign communications to the White House, diplomatic notes and annexed documents, laws and proceedings at international conferences of interest to the department, arguments and documents submitted at international conferences in which this country takes an interest and unofficial communications to the department.

"Two-thirds of all our work is in French and Spanish," says Mr. Christie. "Foreign missions in Washington correspond either in French or their own language. Japan and China use English. Eighteen ambassadors or ministers use Spanish, France, Belgium, Switzerland, Haiti and Turkey use French. Most foreign diplomats use good English, but when they commit their own governments they want to use their own tongue."

"People all over the world write to the White House and about 38 per cent of our work comes from there. The work continually increases.

Know Everything!

"The perfect translator has to know everything, so there isn't any 100 per cent translator, though our man Wilfred Stevens knows 25 languages. It takes a lot of technical knowledge when one of us has to collect the radio laws of the whole world and translate them. Treaties—they may concern fish migratory birds, debentures or tariff schedules. A translator has to know the subject-matter as well as making a bull which is very easy to do."

"All foreign dictionaries are inadequate. So much has developed since the war, including radio and aviation terminology and many other scientific terms. It takes a lot of research to handle these words correctly."

"Every language has great difficulties in its profound depths and none is worse than German," added translator L. S. Perkins, a veteran linguist specializing in European technical terms. "In German oxygen becomes sour-stuff, nitrogen becomes mother-stuff, carbon becomes cold stuff, and hydrogen is water-stuff."

Japanese Most Difficult

"From a general standpoint, Japanese might be considered the most difficult language. The Japanese have three alphabets and you have to know them all because you're likely to find them all used in the space of a few paragraphs."

You might think that these veteran translators, who have to have an understanding of international affairs, wide technical knowledge and complete acquaintance with languages, would be paid commensurate salaries by the government. They aren't. Chief Christie gets $3500 a year and the others get from $1800 to $2800.

An attempt is being made to have them classified for salary purposes in the "professional and scientific" group. "Just now they're under 'clerical.'"

MERCY BULLET

Washington.—A hypodermic bullet has been invented by Capt. Barnett Harris, big game hunter, for use in capturing animals alive. The bullet is fired from a gun, but instead of a leaden slug forcing its way into the tender flesh of the animal, a needle is forced into the skin by contact. This needle injects a sleeping potion into the animal.

WILD LIFE VALUE

Ottawa.—Canada realizes quite a revenue each year from its wild life. According to Dr. H. F. Lewis, of the Department of the Interior, this wild life has a capital valuation of one billion dollars, and a yearly business turnover of about $45,000,000. This valuation includes the fur harvest, game fish, and their influence on sales of sports goods.

EGGS GOOD EVERY DAY

ever, one or two eggs should not inconvenience anyone in good health.

In buying eggs, try to get them as fresh as possible, as the fresher they are the better the flavor. Eggs may be kept in cold storage in a fresh condition for a long time so that a properly prepared cold storage egg may almost be termed a fresh egg. The color of the shell is immaterial, as it has nothing to do with the nutritive value of the egg.

In choosing eggs it is well to pay some attention to their size for two good sized eggs weigh more than three pullet eggs. The white of the egg is almost pure albumen dissolved, of course, in water. The yolk contains a large amount of fat, phosphorus, sulphur, and also contains lecithin, which is beneficial in promoting growth and building a strong nervous system. Eggs contain vitamins A and B, and also iron. They are an acid-forming food and therefore must be balanced with large quantities of alkaline-forming foods and vegetables which, however, need not be taken at the same meal, but should be used sometime during the day. Some patients with a tendency to biliousness believe that eggs are bad for the liver. I find that this is true only when too many other nourishing foods are used at the same meal or on the same day that eggs are used.

When cooking eggs, remember that they are more easily digested when partially cooked, and are hard to digest when used raw or cooked very hard. The poorest way to prepare eggs is by frying, as this makes them hard to digest.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Jerking of Muscles)
 Question: A. H. writes: "I am 70 years old and am bothered with a twitching or jerking in my legs when retiring, sometimes keeping me awake for an hour or more. Will you please let me know the cause, also if there is a remedy?"
 Answer: The jerking in your legs is doubtlessly caused by a poor circulation of the blood. I would advise you to take some exercises about an hour before retiring. After the exercises, sit in a tub of warm water, immersing the legs in the water for about two or three minutes. This will help the circulation and should prevent the jerking.

(Grapes)
 Question: J. M. asks: "What is the best method of keeping grapes?"
 Answer: Sound grapes may be kept in good condition for a long time by wrapping each bunch in waxed paper. After tying the ends they should be placed on some soft material, such as cotton batting, and kept in a cool place. They may also be packed in California redwood sawdust and stored in a cool place. Another method, frequently used in Europe, is to place the stalks of each bunch of grapes in a small bottle of water containing a piece of charcoal. If a temperature of about 35 degrees is maintained, they will keep in good condition for a long time.

(Tubercular Hip)
 Question: C. G. asks: "Will you kindly explain the best course to follow for a tubercular hip?"
 Answer: The treatment for a tubercular hip would depend upon the exact condition of the tubercular change which has taken place. A diet treatment is always essential to a cure, though sometimes various physio-therapy treatments will prove effective in bringing about a cure. Complete rest is sometimes necessary, but only in advanced cases.

VOLCANO CAUSE

London.—Volcano eruptions may be caused by radio-active substances in the earth which create an intense heat to melt up rocks and cause the explosions. That's the belief of Prof. Jolly, eminent English geophysicist. This substance is unevenly distributed throughout the earth, he says, and at the site of a volcano it is in greater quantities than elsewhere.

JUST A BIT HUNGRY

London.—When John Banker, 80-year-old sailor landed at the Severn Steam Lightship recently, he was hungry and thirsty man. He bought himself a 25-foot boat after his last cruise and decided to sail to Newquay from Falmouth. In a storm off the coast, he became lost and was for three days without food or water until he drifted ashore at Bawn Stone.

EGGS GOOD EVERY DAY

Man have eaten eggs of turkeys, geese, ducks, ostriches and even reindeer, and from a standpoint of nourishment there is very little difference between the eggs of different birds. However, because of economic conditions, the eggs of hens are most commonly used.

It is estimated that every man, woman and child on this continent eats an average of two hundred eggs per year. Eggs are undoubtedly one of the most valuable forms of food from which protein or muscle building material can be obtained, and they may be prepared in such a variety of ways that they do not become tiresome. Even those who are attempting to use a vegetable fare usually include eggs and in this way are able to keep up sufficient protein intake to remain well.

Most people will find they are able to use somewhere between one and two eggs daily, and a good average for a week is probably ten to twelve eggs. A very large amount of the white of the egg may be used by anyone. A few people find the yolk of the egg contains such a large amount of sulphur and fat that it gives rise to digestive disturbances if used to excess. How-

SYDNEY WELCOMES KINGSFORD SMITH

Famous Flier Met by Fiancee As He Arrives at Field; Given Great Reception.

Sydney, N. S. W., Oct. 22.—(AP)—After an eight months absence, during which he flew nearly round the world and back again, Wing Commander Kingsford Smith today returned to his fiancee, Miss Mary Powell, to whom he will be married late next month.

The pretty girl, modestly clad in black and white, left her sick bed to greet the flier. Mascot Airdrome when he arrived from Sydney, escorted by 18 planes, completing a record breaking flight which brought Sydney to within less than 13 days of England.

Miss Powell waved as Kingsford Smith circled the field once or twice before he landed, but it was not until he taxied his little single engine machine across the field toward the official dais that she saw her and waved kisses at her.

Cheered by Crowd When he stopped his plane and throttled its motor Miss Powell rushed to meet the aviator. And she took his hand as he stepped from the cockpit. They embraced and talked smilingly and happily as they walked toward the cheering crowd of 6,000 or more.

The bride-to-be then led him to his parents and then to the official reception committee, and stood by him as they bade him welcome and she spoke into a ready microphone. Afterward she rode with him in a triumphal procession through the streets of Sydney to the home of his parents at Lane Cove.

"I am very happy," she told newspapermen tearfully. "In a speech before the microphone Kingsford Smith said: 'I honestly believe that what I have done will be of some service to development of aviation as the greatest modern commercial transport. Time is money and with safety of flying which are now established nothing can hold aviation back.'

"This flight was made under normal conditions which allowed me to rest and keep it a demonstration of the commercial possibilities of the route I followed, provided nothing is left to chance. Proper organization, no less than the man and his machine, is a vital factor in the success of long flights."

LICENSES SUSPENDED A list of operators whose licenses to drive automobiles in Connecticut have been suspended for one year for driving while under the influence of liquor was given out today at the State Motor Vehicle Department as a part of the effort to reduce this highway menace.

The department statement advised people to notify the department of the police in case they should see any of these drivers operating motor vehicles.

George S. Brooks, pastor of Union church spoke last night at a community gathering in Andover. He gave his address on "An Englishman's tribute to America."

Twin Falls, Idaho, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Senator William E. Borah of Idaho declared without qualification for recognition of the Russian Soviet government in campaign address last night.

"I am not afraid of Communist propaganda," he said. "There is nothing the people of the United States reject more quickly when they know what it is, than they do the Communist doctrine." "If I had my way I would trade with every country in the world. I know in due time we will recognize the government of Russia. We don't do it now because that would be regarded in some quarters as an endorsement of the Communist doctrine." "No one has less use for the doctrine than I but I believe that Russia, in pursuing her present policy, will work out something in the nature of a sane democracy."

BOWL TRAFFIC PLAN TO INSURE SAFETY

Four Departments Co-operate to Direct Flow to Games This Fall.

Co-operative efforts will be made by four state departments, the police of many towns, the New Haven Automobile Club and Yale University authorities to insure safety for the thousands who will travel over Connecticut highways to attend the big football games at Yale Bowl this year. Arrangements have been completed for handling the traffic in the manner experience has shown most expeditious and best to gain a steady flow of vehicles to and from the games.

The state highway department announces that all main highways will be free of construction work and clear for heavy traffic. There is one short detour at Milldale, necessary to avoid bridge construction.

Sixty-five state policemen will patrol the main highways on which the major part of the traffic is expected. They will direct motorists and maintain close supervision over driving actions to prevent recklessness and, at the same time, prevent delay. Motor Vehicle Department inspectors will also be stationed at various points, such as dangerous intersections, to assist in direction and safety work. Inspectors from the state aviation department will be on duty to prevent low flying over the crowd by reckless pilots.

West Haven and New Haven police will take over traffic direction at their respective town lines, and through their efforts and those of the New Haven Automobile Club adequate signs pointing the best ways to and from the Bowl, will be posted in all parts of the towns.

The streets of New Haven leading to the Bowl are ready for clear traffic, according to police announcements, no construction or repair work necessitating detours. As in other years, parking in the vicinity of the Bowl will be one of the major problems. Space for only approximately 6,000 cars will be available on the official fields, private parking places will be necessary for thousands of automobiles.

DISHONEST DETECTIVES

Chicago, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Caught by fellow officers, two detectives were held today on charges of extortion.

The pair, Ernest Dallego and John McCarthy, veterans of the department, were stripped of their stars by Acting Police Commissioner Alcock to whom Joseph Mason, south side druggist, had told of attempts to extort at first $25,000 and later $50,000 from him.

Mason asserted that Dallego and McCarthy told him they would arrest him as a bomb plotter unless they got the money. When he said he could not give $25,000, $5,000 was demanded, he said. The officers falsely accused him, Mason asserted, of conspiring to have rival drug stores bombed.

Twenty-three of the 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence were college men.

NEW 36 HOUR SERVICE FROM COAST TO COAST

New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, a chairman of the technical committee of the Transcontinental and Western Air, Inc., will leave tomorrow for a final survey of the route between Newark, N. J., and Columbus, Ohio, prior to the opening on Saturday of 36-hour coast to coast mail and passenger service.

The new service will mark the first attempt to carry passengers on all-air route across the country. Colonel Lindbergh will inspect the line with particular attention to safety factors.

He will make the flight in one of the new stream lined Ford trimotored planes, leaving on the regular schedule at 8 a. m., and arriving in Columbus at 1:41 p. m.

OPEN FORUM

ROGERS CRITICIZES SPEAKERS AT RALLY

Dean Cross Can't Speak Italian or Swedish As It Was Advertised He Would.

Editor, The Herald: Knowing that with your characteristic fairness, you will carry in this issue of The Herald a complete account of the Democratic rally, held at the Circle theater Tuesday evening, I feel that a word from a Republican will not be amiss, especially as the writer was referred to by one of the speakers, Former Mayor Paonessa, candidate for sheriff. It was a good rally. The Hon. Augustine Lonergan, candidate for Congressman on the Democratic ticket, made exactly what was expected of him—a straight-forward and intelligent and most interesting presentation of governmental problems of the day. I repeat what I said a few days ago. It is extremely regrettable that such an estimable fellow is being placed on the altar of political sacrifice. And I remind your readers that in his able talk Mr. Lonergan in referring to his own candidacy said upon three occasions, "If elected to Congress, note that I said it."

WEDNESDAY

FOR CONGRESSMAN FROM THIS DISTRICT

ON YES. THIS IS THE SAME "MAXIMIZING POLITICIAN" WHO SHOUTED BUT A FEW WEEKS AGO THAT HE WAS NOT GOING TO BE SIDETRACKED FROM HIS DETERMINATION TO GET THE CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION. HE WOULD FIGHT TO THE FINISH IN THE CONVENTION. HE HAD THE NECESSARY SUPPORT, AT CETERA AND "BUNK". WHEN DR. EDWARD G. DOLAN STARTED THE OLD STEAM-ROLLER TO WORK HE SAID: "NOW ANGELO, I'VE DECIDED THAT WHETHER YOU LIKE IT OR NOT YOU ARE GOING TO WITHDRAW FROM THE CONGRESSIONALSHIP AND RUN FOR COUNTY SHERIFF. OF COURSE, YOU WON'T BE ELECTED SHERIFF BUT THEN YOU'LL GET A LOT OF PUBLICITY AND THAT'S ALL ANY DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE CAN EXPECT THIS YEAR."

AND SO THIS FORCEFUL MAN, THIS WOULD-BE-DEBATER, WHO WOULD'NT BE A WORTHY OPPONENT FOR THE SCHOOL DEBATING TEAM, IS VERY DEFINITELY SPANKED BY HIS OWN PARTY AND IS TOLD TO LIKE IT. INSTEAD OF TRYING TO USE ANGELO PAONESSA AS A BAIT FOR THE ITALIAN VOTE WHY DOESN'T THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY FRANKLY ADMIT THAT THEY BRUTALLY AND RUTHLESSLY TOLD ANGELO THAT THEY WOULD HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH HIS CONGRESSIONAL ASPIRATIONS AND THAT THE BEST HE COULD EVER HOPE TO GET IS "JUST THE NOMINATION FOR SHERIFF" AT THE DEMOCRATIC AUDIENCE, THE MEMBERS OF WHICH HAD DECIDED TO VOTE DEMOCRATIC BEFORE THEY WENT THERE AND, IT IS TO BE HOPED, LOST NONE OF THEIR DEMOCRATIC ENTHUSIASM BY ATTEMPTING, EVEN IF THEY WERE DISAPPOINTED, TO NOT HEARING DEAN CROSS LECTURE IN BOTH SWEDISH AND ITALIAN.

YOURS FOR A REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

WILLARD B. ROGERS.

CAPE MAY, N. J., Oct. 22.—(AP.)—Overturning of the engine due to the sudden change in the weather was given today as probably the chief cause of the explosion of the "air yacht" at Toms River yesterday in a statement issued here by its inventor.

THE 85 HORSEPOWER CRAFT HAS BEEN BROUGHT HERE AND PLACED IN THE U. S. HANGAR, WHERE IT IS EXPECTED THE LIGHTER-THAN-AIR CRAFT WILL BE READY FOR SERVICE IN ABOUT THREE DAYS.

THE STATEMENT, GIVEN OUT BY FLIGHT LIEUTENANT LOUIS MATCHOLD AND SIGNED BY CAPTAIN ANTON HEINEN, WHO SUPERVISED THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE TINY AIRSHIP, ALSO SAID THE TOTAL DAMAGE TO THE CRAFT WILL NOT EXCEED $950.

THE INJURY TO MEMBERS OF THE CREW WAS VERY SLIGHT, CONSISTING MOSTLY OF SOME FEW CUTS AND BRUISES AND SCORCHS, THE STATEMENT SAID. ALL OF THE MEN HAVE LEFT THE HOSPITAL.

RECORDS OF THE SUPERIOR COURT REVEALED TODAY THAT ROY W. AMMEL, FORMER CHICAGO ARMY PILOT NOW IN NEW YORK AWAITING FAVORABLE WEATHER FOR A TRANS-ATLANTIC FLIGHT IS SEEKING A DIVORCE. THE SUIT WAS BEGUN BEFORE AMMEL LEFT FOR NEW YORK.

JEWS START RIOT Warsaw, Oct. 22.—(AP)—(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)—Fifteen Jews were arrested by the Warsaw police in the night after a thousand or more Jews had organized an impromptu demonstration in front of the British Embassy. The crowd, which included many Zionist pioneers, marched to the Embassy shouting anti-British sentiments. The police quickly dispersed them. The Right Poale Zion, the Socialist Zionist Party, today called a protest to the Labor Party against the British government's statement. A similar protest was sent to the American Federation of Labor. All of the Zionist groups in the country headed by the Polish Zionist organization, the Mizrahi and the Histradruth have joined in issuing a call for an All-Poland conference tomorrow to discuss the situation.

PLANE ABANDONED NEAR MIDDLETOWN

Man and Woman Leave It and City Does Not Know What To Do.

Middletown, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Police of this city have an abandoned airplane on their hands and are anxious to get rid of it before souvenir hunters carry it away piece-meal.

The plane and its property of the Connecticut State hospital Sunday. Attracted by screams, J. Fredrick Collins, superintendent of the town farm, hurried to the plane and found a woman strapped in it.

Collins asked what it was all about, and the woman replied: "I guess if you were strapped in and afraid of the plane taking fire you would yell."

KEEP UP FIGHT IS DRY SLOGAN IN OUR STATE

set its face towards a definite goal, the extermination of the beverage-alcohol traffic. We have had nearly eleven increasingly effective years of National constitutional prohibition, however, now is not the time to relax our efforts.

"Our educational program must continue to the end that the men and women of this country know the truth which will ensure continued freedom from the slavery of alcohol.

"We urge upon all temperance forces of this state the imperative necessity for teaching scientific in our public schools. Education of all the people must be carried on, hate, medal contests, exhibits at pageants, literature and posters, radio, the press and platform are all ways by which we should give the vital message to the people of Connecticut.

"We must inform ourselves so we can meet sophistry with logic, falsehood with fact, insidious suggestion with constructive argument and error with truth, in the end that our determination be strengthened and our number increased.

HARTFORD WOMAN LOSES $111,000 IN A SWINDLE

SMUGGLERS OF FUR AWAITING TRIAL

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 22.—(AP)—The Post Standard and the Herald today say that an expose of the operations of a smuggling ring that has moved hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of contraband into New York state from Canada awaits only the arraignment of several persons named in a sealed indictment returned by the Federal Grand Jury at Auburn.

Oliver D. Burden, United States attorney for the northern district of the state, and Collector John C. Tulipich of the port of Ogdensburg, head officer of the Customs border patrol in Auburn, have declined to explain the arrest of 11 persons on charges of conspiracy.

The smuggling operations of the unnamed persons were uncovered, says the Post Standard, after nearly three months' investigation by government officials.

Persons now under arrest on charges of conspiracy whose cases have not been discussed by the Federal officials were said to be: Weldon J. Cheatham, Charles Coleman, Francis L. Covey, and Colin Morris, border patrolmen in the district, and Peter Gonyou, Ernest Paw, Ellsworth Dragoon, Edward Paquette, Grant Dragoon, Albert LaPlant and John Besaw, civilians.

Her conviction was based largely on the testimony of a detective and an alleged admission of guilt to police by her. She charged at the time that she had been "framed."

Justice McInerney dissented from the majority opinion on the ground that to reverse the conviction was to say that the detective had perjured himself.

Several women sympathizers were in court today and cheered the decision.

Mrs. Hammerstein was sentenced June 9 to one day in jail but as she had been incarcerated for three days awaiting sentence she was held to have served her time and was released.

Col. Osborn will ask his directors to have this entire matter laid before Governor Trumbull that some course of action may be considered which will meet, openly, publicly and definitely the recurring allegations to the need of an investigation of conditions at the state prison.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell's expressed desire was based, he said, on the "charges" made by Rev. Dr. William H. Smith, resigned chaplain, and regarding which the State Department of Public Welfare has refused to undertake after expressing belief that the institution is well conducted by a competent board of directors and prison management.

Mr. Bennett, former head of the Winchester Repeating Arms Company, left an estate valued at $5,443,473.07, according to an inventory filed by appraisers today.

London, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Insurance circles said today that British underwriting interests would not suffer heavily as a result of the disaster which destroyed the dirigible R-101 and took 48 lives recently.

As far as can be determined, about $21,000 ($105,000) is payable about the ship of civilians who died in accident policies, while the loss of the crew and the airship itself is taken care of by the government.

It is understood that the largest policy was carried by Lord Thomson, air minister, who telephoned an insurance company a few hours before the dirigible started toward India and increased his accident policy.

Insurance interests said today that the accident would not have much effect on aviation insurance premiums in England, but that the country has only one dirigible left and the many heavier-than-air planes are in an entirely different class.

The same orders named Colonel Charles W. Comfort, Jr., Major William W. Conger and Major William S. Barnes as a board of examiners to determine the bridgeport to determine his fitness for first lieutenant.

Hartford, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The conviction last June of Mrs. Oscar Hammerstein, widow of the Oscar impresario, on a charge of immoral conduct was reversed today by the Appellate Division of Special Sessions Court on the ground that she had been convicted on insufficient evidence.

Her conviction was based largely on the testimony of a detective and an alleged admission of guilt to police by her. She charged at the time that she had been "framed."

hospitals, many of them in a critical condition. Many Underground. It was thought by those above ground that many men, some of them probably suffering hurts, were slowly groping their way through the subterranean darkness toward exits two miles distant from the point where the blast occurred.

When rescue crews, wearing gas masks, penetrated 1,500 feet below the surface a ghastly sight met their eyes. All about them the victims lay, apparently asphyxiated. From this pit not one person had emerged alive. It was only then that the relief workers realized hope must be given up for saving any in that area.

Sad Scenes. There were sad scenes as the dead were taken from the shaft and identified by their families. Many persons came from surrounding towns, some even motoring over the nearby Belgian and Dutch borders. These thronged the town today but a strong force of mounted and foot police kept the crowds at a distance from the mine.

A government commission continued its efforts to learn the cause of the explosion. The blast at first was attributed to ignition of dynamite. Coal damp also was suspected. However, it was the belief that this had not entered into the tragedy that encouraged those above ground for many hours in the belief that large numbers of the miners would be rescued alive from the deep but well ventilated galleries.

Pittsburgh May Furnish Notre Dame Real Battle

Rocknemen Are Tackling "Suicide Schedule" This Season, One That Includes No Breathers; Pitt Undefeated and Unscored Upon

By HERBERT W. BARKER

New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Knute Rockne's Notre Dame football eleven, tackling a "suicide schedule," makes its first sally into the east this week to battle the rugged Panthers of Pittsburgh.

After Carnegie Tech's crushing defeat at South Bend last week the Panthers can be nothing but decided short-enders against Rockne's men who have beaten Southern Methodist, Navy and Carnegie Tech and find ahead of them Pitt, Penna, Drake, Northwestern, Army and Southern California. Pitt has waded through four straight without yielding the opposition a point and the Panthers' victims included West Virginia and Syracuse. Even so, the most the Panthers reasonably can hope for is a close score. Rockne's team seems to have everything, speed, deception, power, reserve strength and an excellent defense.

Yale stacks up against an unbeaten Army in a contest that should draw 75,000 to the Yale Bowl and 55,000 are expected to watch Harvard attempt to stop Dartmouth's powerful array which has piled up 225 points against none for the opposition in four games.

Two more contenders for eastern honors, Fordham and N. Y. U., clash in the Yankee Stadium in a duel between the Violets' fleet sophomore backs and Fordham's unyielding defense.

There will be no lack of color in the meeting between Navy and Princeton although both have been beaten.

West Point—Army appears to have developed another fine pair of ends as replacements for the brilliant Messinger and Carlmark. Malloy and Bullingame were shown on the wings yesterday and used a lot of speed in going about their duties.

Providence—Although it is considered bad form to cheer when an opponent is hurt, Brown is expected to hear a few whoops from Holy Cross with the news that Bucky Harris, Bruin second string quarterback is out of action. Last year Bucky ran the opening kickoff for a touchdown against the Crusaders.

Cambridge—Harvard's prospects of victory in the Dartmouth game look better with the return of Eddie Mays and Charlie Devens, injured backs, but the news all is not good. Word comes from Hanover that Shep Wolf also is ready to play again.

Hamilton—All is not lost for Colgate, although Walter Terry, regular left halfback is out of the Penn State game with a pulled tendon. Coach Andy Kerr has three good candidates fighting for his place.

Princeton—If Princeton's varsity keeps on losing games, Bill Roper might do well to replace it with the freshman team. The young Tigers held the big team almost even through an hour's scrimmage yesterday.

Middletown—The first of the "Little Three" games will not have to be cancelled after all. It was called off because of infantile paralysis in Middletown then put back on the schedule when Amherst authorities invited Wesleyan to play there.

Pat Hanley, coach at North-western, sustained two broken ribs teaching his young men how to play football. Evidently the young men do not need much tutelage.

GREAT TALENT FOR REC FIVE COMING SEASON

Waterman, McCann, Dowd and Nicola Are Newcomers Seeking Berths on Team.

Prospects for a very strong basketball team to represent Manchester during the coming season loom bright by virtue of the first practice session last night which attracted more than three full teams.

Although Roy Norris and "Hap" Madden will not return to the Rec this year, several other stars of considerable prominence were on hand.

Madden is at Connecticut Aggies while Norris will be unable to play Tuesday evenings.

Among the newcomers of note are "Wardy" Waterman, star guard on the championship Bristol team; Ernie Dowd, captain and scoring ace on last year's High school team here, and "Curly" Gustafson, former M. H. S. sensation, who has been playing in Long Island circles for the past few seasons.

Another promising player is "Hank" McCann, who played substitute forward on the crack Grove City College team last year along with another Manchester hoop wizard, George Stavitsky. McCann did not return to college this fall but Stavitsky did.

Among the regulars from last season's Rec Five are Tommy Faulkner, Ding Farr, Billy Dowd, Ty Holland and Gyp Gustafson, none of whom need any further introduction to Manchester basketball lovers.

Others on hand include Bruno Nicola, Ernie Dowd's running mate at guard on the 1929-30 M. H. S. outfit; Campbell and Oppizzi, two young players of considerable ability. Maloney, a West Side point guard not to be overlooked and Maguire who has been with the Cubs at quarterback.

With such a splendid list of talent to pick from, it is expected that the Rec Five will have one of the strongest seasons in years. The next practice session will be held at 7 o'clock Friday night. The season opens Thanksgiving Day evening.

THE LESSON

"Charles," said his mother to her six-year-old son, "is it possible that you are teaching the parrot to use slang?"

"No, mamma," replied Charles. "I was just telling him what not to say."—The Humorist.

Pat Hanley, coach at Northwestern, sustained two broken ribs teaching his young men how to play football. Evidently the young men do not need much tutelage.

HOOKS AND SLIDES

The Ghost Writers

Some startling and peculiar revelations were made by the ghost writers during the recent world series.

Thus, after the last game, John J. McGraw "wrote" a little piece for the papers declaring, without reservation or compunction, that "Earnshaw and Grove won the series for the Athletics." It's a little hard to believe, but if McGraw says it's that way, there must be something to it.

Following the last game, Babe Ruth also went out on a limb. He sagely unburied himself of the observation that Earnshaw was too hard for the Cards to solve. There must be a "strain of Scotland Yard" in the Babe's hood that led him to pry and sleuth around until he landed upon that amazing discovery.

Carefully Tested

There, however, you have the world series analyzed. Several clinical baseball scientists must have spent hours in trying to decide just how the Athletics managed to defeat the Cards four out of six. Then, after figuring, testing, weighing the evidence far into the night, the truth was finally reached.

The world need no longer be in doubt about the 1930 "blue ribbon classic of baseball." It has been decided positively that Grove and Earnshaw won it for the Athletics. Mostly Earnshaw.

Such are the marvels of the age—the radio, the telephone, scientific laboratory and the ghost writer—that we are almost inclined to ask, with the barber, "What next?"

Bottomley, Too

It is not my desire to pick on a good first baseman when he is down—and I still think Sunny Jim is a good first baseman—but I would like to know by what strange hocus pocus James reached the conclusion that Earnshaw's speed was what defeated the Cardinals in the second game of the series.

At least that is what Bottomley "wrote" in the papers the next day. I had formed the opinion, while watching the game, that it was the way big George held his eyebrows that really was baffling the Cards.

But, having an open mind, I find that I am able to accept the alarming suggestion that Earnshaw's speed turned the trick. See how easy it is to be wrong?

Gabby's Discovery

Charles Gabby Street, besides managing the Cardinals, meeting 900,000 people he never saw before in his life and calling nearly all of them by their first names, such as "Hello, treat!" (nearly every body who crowded around Gabby seemed to have been named "there") found time to "write" his impressions.

After the second game in Philadelphia, Gabby told the waiting world that the Cardinals won the first two games because they got the jump on the Cardinals. He also opined that the Cardinals would have to fight because the Athletics had shown themselves to be a fine club.

Such are the epoch-making revelations of some of the supernatural scribes. What would we do without them?

BOOTH MAY START ARMY ENCOUNTER

New Haven, Oct. 22.—(AP)—There seems to be little question that Booth will start the Army game for Yale Saturday. His performance against Brown was so satisfactory that Mal Stevens is expected to let the little fellow play the first quarter and a part of the second and then rest him for action later in the game.

Booth, Austen, Dunn and Crowley were in the first team backfield yesterday with McClennan running the second backfield of Beane, Taylor and Muhfeld.

Coach Stevens has decided against scrimmaging his players, not risking any injuries, but will give them plenty of hard work on fundamentals.

Charlie Heim came back yesterday, giving Yale three quarterbacks again where last week it had only Booth and a fourth stringer, Sandy Welner.

The Nut Cracker

Charles Friedman (Good-Time Charley) returns from Egypt with heavy weight boxer named Solah El Din. O'Goofy wonders if the Egyptian has those "dreamy eyes."

El Din is described as the heavy weight boxing champion of Egypt. Heavyweights in Egypt being so rare, it is not cruel to suspect that maybe El Din conquered only himself.

With the returns in from Egypt, we have only Mesopotamia to hear from. Then we'll have a boxer from every land on the face of the earth, not to mention the feet.

Friedman insists he brought the man from Egypt, but that name sounds as though he might have snatched the fellow off the football team known as the Irish of Notre Dame.

If you never would have believed Egyptian heavyweights getting into condition at a training camp, they are industriously engaged in cracking an English walnut.

Solah El Din reports great activity among the Egyptian cauliflowerers. They wouldn't have to be very active, however, to beat the crop that America boasts just now. The pyramids could be better fighters.

El Din's name sounds noisy, but he's a quiet fellow. He learned to talk from the Sphinx—and not Jack Sharkey.

Bill Roper arises to remark that night football is hurting the game. But then Bill's Princeton teams have been in the dark a good many years.

Gl Doble, who with Bill Roper shares all the gloom in the world on a 50-50 basis, the other day admitted his Cornell team was "pretty fair." Which glowing words give the Cornell boys grounds for conceit or something like that.

Maybe the process of picking all-star football teams will vary a trifle this year. How about an All-Night team?

Joe Cronin was voted the most valuable player in the American League. Evidently a lot of people didn't see George Earnshaw pitch that last game for the A's.

The unemployment situation is getting terrible, with Primo Carnera leaving for Europe, and all those managers out of work.

FOOTBALL PLAYER DIES FROM INJURY

Chester, Pa., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Stanley Pominak, 22, of this city, died today from injuries received in a football game here two weeks ago.

Pominak was playing in the backfield for the Hadwig's church team in a game against the Wilmington Panthers, when he received several fractured vertebrae in his spine.

SPORT SLANTS

ALAN GOLD ASSOCIATED PRESS SPORTS EDITOR

Joe McCarthy knows how to pick his spots as well as manage a major league ball club.

Genial Joe became affiliated with the most substantial check-book and bank account in the National league when he hooked up with the Wrigley interests at Chicago for a five-year term. When he found it necessary to make a change, McCarthy showed sound judgment in joining forces with the Ruppert resources, most potent and liberal in the American league.

This is a "break" such as few deposited pilots ever get, but there seems to be a well-founded idea that McCarthy is the man to pick up where the late Miller Huggins left off and revive Yankee fortunes.

The Yankees have a lot of good material already in stock and a lot more coming up. Several of the outstanding stars of the Pacific Coast league this year, including Jess Hill, Meryl Hoag and Frank Crosetti, are tagged for delivery at the Yankee Stadium in the next year or two.

The main test for the new Yankee pilot will be in the development of pitchers. He was not conspicuous in doing so while in command of the Cubs. Bob Shawkey made a good start toward reconstructing the Yankee curving corps and he might be persuaded to devote his attention to this feature of the firm's business.

Milt Davis, in the Minneapolis Tribune, writes interestingly of the "Old Fox," Glenn Scobey Warner, on the occasion of Stanford's visit to Minnesota.

"Pop" he discovered, smokes cigarettes continually while sitting on the bench during a game.

"The cadence of his puffs is an accurate graph of his mental state. Does the cigarette smoke curl up like the breath of a chimney on an untroubled night? All is well. Does it come out in snorts? Disturbed thoughts: anxiety; pulse fast and temperature high. Does it pour forth like explosions out of an exhaust? Then Pop is in frenzy, ready for some master-stroke against the tide of desperate fortune.

"Give Pop a good emotional day on the bench Saturday and it will take a conscientious gridiron dryer-cleaner about an hour just to pick up his cigarette butts."

Presumably, there was a lot of mopping up to do around the Stanford bench on the afternoon of October 11. The Cardinals were held to a scoreless tie by the Gophers.

Southern Methodist has plenty of football stuff with which to worry any opponent at any stage of the season, but it seems particularly dangerous to take on the Mustangs early in October. They have been galloping around the country for a past few years just looking for trouble.

A few seasons back, it may be recalled, the Texans made their first trip east and came within a point of tying one of the best West Point eleven of recent years. Last season they held the powerful Nebraska eleven, Big Six champions, to a scoreless tie at the outset of the gridiron campaign. They charged into South Bend this year with a rush that almost upset Mr. Rockne's high-powered pupils. The East will see the Mustangs again when they attack the Navy at Baltimore, November 15.

Last Night's Fights

Boston—Jack Gagnon, Boston, outpointed Joe Kelly, Ireland, 10, New York—Jose Santa, Portugal, knocked out Tiny Heffner, Phila., 1; Battling Levinsky, Phila., knocked out Joe Simms, St. Louis, 3.

Topeka—"Baby" Stribling, Macon, Ga., outpointed Joe Trabon, Kansas City, 10; the outfit of the Indianapolis—Harry Dillon, Winnipeg, outpointed Chuck Burns, San Antonio, Texas, 10.

Seattle—Bud Taylor, Terre Haute, Ind., and Santiago Zorilla, Panama, drew, 8.

Los Angeles—Tod Morgan, outpointed Hector McDonald, Vancouver, 10.

Tonight's Battle May Be Last of Season if Weather Grows Colder — Feole, Tasker to be in Lineup Despite Rumor.

The football contest between the Manchester Majors and the New London Ockfords, both undefeated at Hurley Stadium in East Hartford this evening, may be the last night football game of the season if the weather continues increasingly cold. Conditions for tonight's game were more favorable today than yesterday, the mercury gliding upward.

Considering the reputation of both the Majors and Ockfords, it is expected that close to a thousand persons will seat themselves in the spacious old velodrome beside the waters of the Connecticut tonight. The outcome of the battle will go a long way toward deciding the state semi-pro football championship, if the Majors can get by the Ockfords, they will have eliminated the leading contender for the title from the eastern half of the "Nutmeg" state.

The Majors are going into tonight's game with all the power for which they have received statewide recognition in their six victories so far this season. They have already played the equivalent of a full season's games and are thriving on it. No serious injuries have been sustained with the exception of Herb Wright's leg fracture.

To quiet the rumor that has been going the rounds, the Majors management flatly denied today that Feole and Tasker were through for the season. On the contrary both players are all set to go in at their regular stations tonight, their ankles having responded to treatment during the past week. Both men were on the sidelines at last Sunday's game at Hickey's Grove but the fine playing of their buddies allowed them to keep off their swollen ankles for the day.

A REAL LOVE SET

22 TURKEYS AS PRIZES AT REC CARD PARTIES. To Be Awarded Wednesday and Saturday Nights From Now Until Thanksgiving.

Starting tonight, public setback parties will be held each Wednesday evening at the West Side Recreation building. Two turkeys will be awarded as first prize and two other prizes will be awarded as second prize.

Starting Saturday evening, October 25, two turkeys will be awarded for first prize at the whist parties and two other prizes will be awarded. Both the setback and whist parties will continue to award turkeys until Thanksgiving.

These parties are all open to the public and do not require a membership.

BUGGIES PASSING OUT. Washington, Oct. 22. - (AP) - The sulky, phaeton, barouche and common box buggy are passing more and more.

The Commerce Department today noted a 13 per cent decrease in the value of all horse-drawn vehicles sold from 1927 to 1929. The 122,734 such vehicles sold last year brought $10,325,935 to the manufacturers.

Farm wagons, business wagons, lunch wagons, carriages and buggies were fewer than in 1927 but two-wheeled carts increased 111.9 per cent in number to 9,132.

More public conveyances and farm trucks also were sold.

SAYS HE OWNS ROAD. Easton, Pa. - Henry Detling, asserting that he owns a section of the Philadelphia road, one of the most heavily used in this section, has barricaded the highway with telephone poles awaiting legal action to settle his case. Meantime, the stretch of road has been in litigation several times.

PULL FOR FARMERS. London. - A new tractor developed for the use of farmers has made its appearance in England using crude oil as a fuel. It operates at one-third the working cost of a similar machine using gasoline. Its one cylinder takes it along at a speed of five miles an hour, but it exerts an enormous pull which makes up for loss of speed.

RUBBER WORKS RETURN TO HARTFORD DENIED. Rumor Circulated Among Former Employees Living Here Is Found To Be False.

A rumor to the effect that the Hartford Rubber Company had decided to return to their old location on Park street, Hartford, was run down by The Herald this morning and proved erroneous.

Just a short time before Christmas last year the employees of the Hartford plant were officially notified that arrangements had been made to move the plant machinery to the middle west to better manufacturing and trade conditions.

The news of the plant's removal, coming just before winter, cast a gloom over Hartford and surrounding towns, where the many employees not returning to the Hartford plant, although they admit that the move last year did not come up to their expectations.

It is of interest to note how the rumor of the plant's return to Hartford came about. Some time after leaving Hartford "for sale" signs were placed on the Park street buildings, and during a wind storm last summer these signs were torn down and were not replaced at once.

People in the vicinity who had noted the disappearance of the signs, assumed that the company was going to return to their old location. Each new version of the rumor was stronger than the previous one, until recently the return of the Hartford Rubber Company was considered a certainty.

A large number of the former employees of the Hartford Rubber Company came from Manchester and vicinity.

Paris, Oct. 22. - (AP) - Aristide Briand, French foreign minister, who has been suffering from an illness recently diagnosed as pulmonary congestion, was reported much improved today.

He held two important conferences, one with General Secretary Berthelot of the foreign office, and the other with his chief of staff. The minister intended taking an automobile ride this afternoon, weather permitting, and to begin receiving ambassadors and other next Monday.

It was announced that M. Briand would be ready to attend the opening of the Chamber of Deputies Nov. 4, when it was expected, he would begin immediate discussion of foreign office policies.

Opposition leaders were expected to concentrate against the foreign minister's German policy, with special emphasis upon the success of Adolf Hitler's National Socialists (Fascist) in the recent election and the demonstrations by the steel helmet organizations of Germany.

These cases will be urged to show the Chamber that France must refrain from a policy of over-conciliation toward the Reich.

Another subject which M. Briand must deal with is France's attitude toward limitation and reduction of armaments.

HARTFORD, Oct. 22. - (AP) - The Hartman Tobacco Company today had Jerome H. Kohn as its new president. He succeeds Emanuel M. Hartman, who resigned yesterday on advice of physicians.

The directors of the company also received the resignation of H. Terry Morrison and elected Arthur W. Gregory to succeed him on the board.

ERRORGRAMS

There are at least four mistakes in the above picture. They may pertain to grammar, history, etymology, drawing or whatnot. See if you can find them. Then look at the scrambled word below and unscramble it, by switching the letters around. Grade yourself 20 for each of the mistakes you find, and 20 for the word if you unscramble it.

ERRACACYCU - Your watch should have it. (1) The car is a passenger, not a mail car. (2) The feet of the man at the left should not be showing below the steps of the car, in upside down. (3) The scrambled word through his grip. (4) The suitcase ACCURACY.

Dear Lord, Please help me to lick the Jacketeers an' bring Vesey Street back to the way it used to was. Make Sunday Schools see that they are gettin' weaker an' weaker by not speakin', an' make them see that there's only ONE way up in the Sky that prayers go to, no matter what Sunday School ya take offa.

Papa says it's that way over the whole country cause folks is divided. If they'd get together, farmers could sell their grain an' the thousands of men in cities without jobs could get work. Please, Dear Lord, make Vesey Street see that Jacketeers are keepin' honest fathers out of work. Gang Kids are livin' like Kings, while other kids are goin' hungry.

Dear Lord, it don't matter what side of Vesey Street is right; it's past all that now—way past it. Make the side that's wrong come out an' say so. Wouldn't that be better than to let Jacketeers run the Street? You said, "Sugar to come onto me, little children. We're sufferin', Dear Lord, but we don't know the way. Couldn't maybe you come down to us if we all promise to have faith fore'er?"

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE) 'Twas chocolate candy Clowny bought. The Travel Man soon said, "You ought to be real careful or you'll get chocolate on your clothes. You realize, as like as not, that it would make an awful spot. If any-one does such a thing, he's careless, goodness knows." They all sat eating for a while and then one girl began to smile. "Oh, look!" she cried. "Poor Clowny's smeared his face from cheek to cheek. His chocolate's melted here and there. In fact, he's smeared it everywhere." Poor Clowny was so taken back he simply couldn't speak. Instead, he brought his hanky out to clean his smudged-up face, no doubt. But Scouty stopped him sud-denly. "That's not the thing to do," he shouted. "Try and use your head. You ought to wash your face, in-stead. Why if you use your hanky, that will be all chocolate, too." Then one wee girl said, "Come
