POLICE COURT

Herman Gordon of North School street was before the Manchester Town Court this morning for passing a "Stop" sign on North street at North Main street. Gordon had the privilege of settling for $2 but he maintained that he did stop and decided that he would "carry it to the court." He was arrested by Traffic Policeman Raymond Griffin who stated that he saw Gordon go out of the street on to North Main street without making any effort to stop whatever. This was last Saturday and because of the sudden illness of Gordon's father in New York he was allowed the opportunity of coming into court when he returned. A warrant was issued for his arrest and this morning he was found guilty and a fine of $2 and costs was imposed. Deputy Judge Ferguson who was on the bench remitted $5 of the costs. Attorney George Lesner was counsel for Gordon.

GRAVEL FIND TO AID IN CHURCH BUILDING

Big Saving Expected As Result of Good Deposits on Golway Street Property. Few men were at work at the new Polish church to be built on Golway street this morning, due to the rain, but a few men were taking soundings and getting an idea of what kind of soil they would find in the north section of the land, where the parish residence will later be built. They found several veins of gravel which they can use in the mixture of concrete and also a fine sand that will serve for the plaster finish.

FUNERALS

Mrs. Marie Erickson. The funeral of Mrs. Marie Erickson of 35 North street was held at her home Wednesday afternoon. Rev. F. C. Allen officiated. More than 100 persons attended. HEBRON

About fifty Christian Endeavorers from Hebron and Gilead attended the Tri-County Union meeting of the society, held at Marlborough Congregational Church Sunday evening, Edward A. Smith, Ludus W. Robinson, and Robert F. Porter offered their cars for transportation for those who had no other way of going. There were about 100 or over present. The program was furnished by the Marlborough society, who presented a pageant entitled "A Legend of the Grail." There were seven characters, and the presentation was in pantomime. The story was read by the Rev. Elmer T. Thiennes, pastor of the church. The anthem was sung by the Marlborough choir, and refreshments of coffee and cupcakes were served during a social hour in the dining room of the church. The next Tri-County meeting will be held at the Gilead church.

Word has been received of a serious accident to Frank Schatz, a former resident of Hebron, which happened during the week-end. Mr. Schatz was driving in Andover, when his car broke and he was thrown out. He suffered a bad gash in his head and his wrist was broken in two places. He is under a doctor's care at his home in Andover. The Schatz family still own their Hebron place, which is located on the Bolton road just above the old Bliss house. They visit the place frequently and do the farm work.

Miss Charlotte S. Hall, Mr. Joseph Merritt's secretary, and Miss Jessie Kennicott, both of Hartford, were guests of Miss Daisy White for dinner one day recently, following the teachers' convention which Miss Kennicott attended.

INCREASING INTEREST IN HEALTH OF STATE

New Haven, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Constantly increasing interest in the public health is seen in Connecticut communities according to a statement issued today by Ira V. Hiscok, professor of public health in the Yale School of Medicine.

Prof. Hiscok makes this statement from observations made during his work in public health surveys of the state made by the department. Surveys are now under way in Winsted, Stratford, West Hartford and Haddam. Similar surveys have already been made in ten other cities of the state while applications have come in such numbers that the department now requires that they be filed a year in advance of the date work is expected to begin.

There is ample evidence according to Professor Hiscok that Connecticut communities are awake to the necessity both from the humanitarian and economic standpoint of taking all feasible measures to protect the health of their members.

FLIGHT TO NICARAGUA
Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—(AP)—A large, tri-motored Fokker transport plane took off from the Philadelphia Navy Yard today on a three-day flight to Managua, Nicaragua, with Charleston, S. C., as its first stop.

Q. What are the three largest rivers in Connecticut?
A. Connecticut, Housatonic and Thames.

Q. What are the opportunities for trout fishing in Connecticut?
A. When was Yale University founded?
Q. How does Connecticut's highway system compare with that of other states?
(Answer to these questions will be published in Monday's paper.)

BROOKLINE TO VOTE ON MOVIE QUESTION

Brookline, Mass., Oct. 31.—(AP)—Brookline, largest town or city in the United States without a motion picture theater, will give its people an opportunity to vote in the election November 4, whether or not they want movies in the town.

Brookline has 47,485 inhabitants, according to the latest census, but it never had a movie house. The selectmen of this community, which maintains a modified form of New England town government, called for a vote on the question in 1928 and a majority at that time opposed introducing film theaters to the town.

An independent, self-governing residential suburb, Brookline just far into the territory of Boston, which almost encloses it. Residents who oppose licensing movie theaters say that the children are better off without them and that persons who wish to attend may find them conveniently located in nearby districts of Boston. Those who want movies in the town are trying to convince the voters that the motion picture has become a universal form of amusement for persons of all ages.

A QUEER BANDIT

New Haven, Oct. 31.—(AP)—It may have been just a Halloween prank or maybe the burglar was just new at the game, but one way or the other Morris Feldman is thankful for the result.

It happened last night while Feldman was returning home from his tailor shop. Some one came from behind and poked a revolver in his back with the command "Stick 'em up." Feldman was so terrified and surprised that he screamed. He was far more surprised, but far less terrified when the burglar executed a smug about face and fled. Police believe that Feldman's scream was too much for the burglar's nerves.

GIRL DRESSES AS MAN
Providence, R. I., Oct. 31.—(AP)—A woman held by the Cranston Police who picked her up dressed in male clothing at 2 o'clock this morning was declared this afternoon by Chief of Police James Miller, to be Ethel Kimball, formerly of Boston. Chief Miller said he had asked the Boston police to give him the woman's record. He said he understood she figured prominently in the newspapers several years ago. No motive for her masquerading in Cranston has been established.

members having birthdays during the month of November are especially invited to attend. Mrs. Lottie Talcott is in charge.

Miss Mary Kimball

Miss Mary J. Kimball, 78, a lifelong resident of Ellington, died at 1 o'clock on Thursday morning, following several weeks illness. She is the last of the Kimball family by that name in Ellington. The family has been active in the town for four generations. She was the oldest member of the Ellington Congregational church, having been connected with the church for 61 years. Miss Kimball was also a member of the Woman's club and the Ellington W. C. T. U. of which she was president for many years. She attended a meeting three weeks ago.

The funeral of Miss Kimball will be held from her late home on Sunday at 3 p. m. and burial will be in the Ellington Cemetery. Rev. John T. Nichols, pastor of the Ellington Congregational church will officiate.

John Raczkio

The funeral of John Raczkio, 47, of this city, who died at the Hartford hospital on Wednesday night was held this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's Polish Catholic church. Rev. Sigmund Woronicki, pastor of the church officiated. Mr. Raczkio was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose and several Polish organizations, and was for a time employed at the Polish Church.

Card Party

There were 21 tables of players at the card party held by the A. A. A. Girls of the Methodist church in Wesleyan hall on Wednesday night. The prizes were awarded as follows: Hazel Bridge, Mrs. R. S. McNeill, Hazel Kuhnly, Mrs. Charles Reed, Franklin C. Harlow, John B. Thomas, H. W. Balantyne, whist, Mrs. Fred Apel, Mrs. F. Kohn, Mrs. Jesse Bilson, A. J. Franz, A. H. Hartenstein and Charles Reed. Ice cream and cake were served later in the evening.

Notes

Joseph Tracy of Orchard street is ill at the Hartford hospital.

Mrs. Robert Liebe and son, Rev. Milton Liebe of Prospect street visited relatives at Turners Falls, on Wednesday.

The American House on Market street has closed its doors and the roomers have found places to reside elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kingston of 11 Lawrence street were given a surprise party on Wednesday night by about 20 friends in honor of their 16th wedding anniversary.

About one hundred from this city attended the chicken pie supper given by the Ladies Aid society of the First African Baptist church on Wednesday evening.

ARREST GANG LEADER

Chicago, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Frank Nitti, reputed treasurer for the gang of Alton Capone, sought for months under a Federal income tax evasion indictment was arrested early today in an elaborately furnished apartment in Berwyn a suburb.

Nitti, one of the 28 "public enemies" named by the Chicago crime commission for whose arrest a $1,000 reward was offered by the Association of Commerce crime prevention committee, was found in bed and made no resistance. A woman he identified as his wife also was taken into custody.

Nitti was indicted last March 23 on charges that he owed the government $277,940 in taxes and penalties and that he had an income of $742,887 for the years 1925, 1926 and 1927.

In addition to the Federal case city officials have been seeking Nitti to question him concerning the slaying last June 9 of Alfred Lingie, a reporter for the Chicago Tribune and the subsequent death of Jack Zuta, henchman of George (Bugs) Moran.

Portugal has been an independent state since the 12th century. It lost its independence to Spain late in the 16th century, but regained it about 1640.

Washington, Oct. 31.—(AP)—The laundry room of the White House, where for 22 years presidential family linens were washed, has given way to the demand for more office space.

In the future the laundry will be sent to Fort Myer, the nearest Army post.

The social secretary at the White House, who handles the thousands of invitations sent out annually to dinners and receptions, is to have an office in the rooms formerly used for laundry, instead of a small space she has occupied in the residential section of the White House. Captain Russel Train, the President's naval aide, and Colonel Campbell B. Hodges, the military aide also will have offices there. Workmen are joining the executive office building at the west end of the White House.

When President Hoover came in to office, his secretarial force was enlarged to four members—Walter Newton, George Akerson, Lawrence Richey and French Strother, the latter a literary assistant. This required a general expansion of the office staff and more quarters. The President immediately had the basement of the executive office building cleared for clerical working space. After the Christmas eve fire last year further changes were made in the interior.

area today forbade the publication for thirty days of two National-Socialist (Nazi) daily newspapers, the Frankfurter Volksblatt and the Wiesbaden Rheinwacht.

The governor charged that both papers continuously violated the law for protection of the republic.

In their issues of October 15 both papers said that parliamentarism such as obtains in Germany today "would be deemed impossible even in the country of the Zulu, Kafirs and Bushmen." The articles charged that Jews were responsible for this condition.

JEW TO PROTEST

New Haven, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Jews from all parts of Connecticut will gather here Sunday afternoon for a mass meeting of protest against the recent change of British policy toward Palestine.

The meeting will assail the British stand on the ground that it assails the Palestine mandate. Speakers will include Louis Lipsky of New York, former president of the Zionist Organization of America; Congressman Q. Tilson and Mayor Thomas A. Tully. Governor Trumbull has been invited.

PLOT FRUSTRATED

Athens, Oct. 31.—(AP)—With the arrest of the former dictator, General Theodoros Pangalos and 27 military officers and civilians, police believed today they had frustrated a plot to depose Premier Eleutherios Venizelos and reinstate Pangalos.

Official quarters minimized importance of the plot and the minister of war described it as farcical.

Most of the arrests were made Wednesday night, when police surprised a group of army officers and others at a meeting.

Pangalos, who was dictator of Greece in 1926, denied any knowledge of a conspiracy but was brought back to Athens and placed in solitary confinement. Premier Venizelos at present is visiting in Turkey.

LAWRENCE FAMILY AT STATE TONIGHT

Famous Middletown Entertainers to be Heard Here—Said to Have Signed for Stage.

One of the featured acts in the State Theater Cabaret Night program this evening is the Lawrence family of Middletown, for many years engaged in Salvation Army work in various towns in New England. Through the advantages offered for a musical education in Corps work, Captain and Mrs. Lawrence reared their talented family in Middletown, Fortmouth, N. H., Bangor, Maine, and other New England cities, taking their whole family out on the streets of these cities on the conduct of Salvation Army work. All of the children have appeared in the street meetings when they were hardly able to hold their chosen instrument. The Lawrences are well and favorably known in northern New England for their musical accomplishments. Starting at an early age the boys and girls of the Lawrence family were taught by their parents and the older children, starting first on the triangle and advancing to whatever instrument they happened to be particularly adapted. In addition to their musical ability, several members of the family are qualified readers, pantomimists and singers. Funds were not always available in the Salvation Army work to buy the many instruments that the parents desired for their concert work, so Captain Lawrence ingeniously fashioned many of the instruments used by the children out of bits of pipe, wire and wood not usually associated with music. Out of these simple requirements, the leader produced many instruments on which the boys and girls have become remarkably proficient. Nearly all the children can play each other's instruments. The Lawrences gave a fine concert last winter in the South Methodist church, demonstrating their talent on many instruments before a large attendance of the members of the church. The Lawrence family has had many tempting offers to go on the stage, but have always considered the Salvation Army cause first. It is understood that they have accepted a tempting offer from a New York booking agency to tour the United States.

NEXT WEEK HARD ONE FOR THE LEGION BAND

Hartford Parade, Annual Meeting and Big Celebration in Meriden on Books.

Next week will be a strenuous one for the local Legion Drum Corps. On Wednesday evening the corps will participate in the parade and initiation to be held in Hartford by the Hartford Legion Post. Friday night the annual meeting will be held, put over from today owing to Halloween observances. Saturday the Corps will go to Meriden to participate in the Legion parade in that city. All members who plan to attend the Hartford meeting should report at the local armory Wednesday evening, Nov. 1, not later than 6:30. The parade will start at 7:30 p. m. sharp in front of the Times Building.

Book On American Life Given Prize By French

Paris. (AP).—The interest which American civilization holds for the French was shown when the French Academy awarded a special prize of 15,000 francs to Georges Duhamel for his "Scenes of the Future Life," a book concerning life in North America.

Books about the United States and its industrial civilization have become plentiful in France, within two years. Beginning with Andre Stegfreid's scientific study, "America Comes of Age," there are among others volumes by Lucien Romier and Firmin Roz in the serious vein, and Paul Morand in the field of fiction.

M. Duhamel's "Scenes of the Future Life," is Voltairian in treatment. It is an indictment of what he considers the triumph of the community over the individual, the enslavement of man by the machine and the disproportionate worship of material success—three characteristics which he says dominate American life.

British Quote Steeper Prices On Rare Stamps

London. (AP).—New stamp catalogues here show considerable appreciation in value of some of the scarcer items. Continuing to head the list in scarcity, and in increase of prices over last year are the "classic" issues of the British empire between 1840 and 1870. Airplane stamps, as a class, show swift rises in the new listings. The Hawker stamp of Newfoundland, which sold a few years ago at $150 is quoted this year at $1,500. The "DePinedo" stamp of the same dominion is listed at $750. Similar advance is shown in the American airmail stamp, misprinted with the "center inverted" which has jumped in price from $850 to $2,500.

MENUS For Good Health

A Week's Supply, Recommended By Dr. Frank B. McCoy

DAILY MENUS

Dr. McCoy's menus suggested for the week beginning Sunday November 2, 1930. Sunday: Breakfast—Coddled eggs, Melba toast, dish of berries. Dinner—Roast chicken or pork, spinach, asparagus, salad of raw celery, apricot whip. Monday: Breakfast—Oatmeal with butter or cream (no sugar), stewed prunes. Lunch—8-ounce glass of tomato juice. Dinner—Vegetable soup, roast beef, steamed carrots, turnips, salad of shredded raw cabbage, no dessert. Tuesday: Breakfast—Poached egg on Melba toast, applesauce. Lunch—Combination salad of cooked and raw vegetables, consisting of cooked carrots, string beans and chopped raw celery. Dinner—Roast mutton, beefs, scalloped celery, salad of head lettuce, with olive oil if desired, carrot and date pudding. Wednesday: Breakfast—Wholewheat muffins, coddled egg, stewed raisins. Lunch—Glass of buttermilk with 10 or 12 dates. Dinner—Clear tomato soup, Salisbury steak, oxta, salad of raw spinach, tomato and asparagus, baked pears. Thursday: Breakfast—Baked eggs, Melba toast, stewed figs. Lunch—Buttered macaroni, spinach, celery. Dinner—Roast pork, baked parsnips, cooked lettuce, salad of quartered cucumbers, baked apple. Friday: Breakfast—Genuine wholewheat bread slightly toasted, peanut butter, stewed prunes. Lunch—Raw apples and pecan nut meats. Dinner—Tomato jelly, baked white fish, stewed tomatoes, string beans, stuffed celery, no dessert. Saturday: Breakfast—French omelet, waffle, stewed raisins. Lunch—Hubbard squash, baked in the shell, spinach, salad of shredded lettuce. Dinner—Stuffed beef rolls, buttered beets, McCoy salad, pineapple gelatin. *Select a round steak of medium thickness, remove all fat and gristle, and cut into pieces about four inches in diameter. On each piece place a mound of the following dressing: Slice and slightly toast the desired amount of real wholewheat bread or wholewheat muffins. Break into bits and moisten with milk. Add diced celery, minced ripe olives, ground roasted peanuts and seedless raisins, gauging the quantities to suit your own taste. Mix all together by tossing about with a fork, being careful not to add too much milk—only enough to hold ingredients together. Roll each piece of meat around the dressing and fasten with toothpicks, place on grill and brown on all sides. Put into heavy pan (such as iron skillet or Dutch oven) with a small amount of boiling water, cover tightly and let simmer for an hour over a slow fire. Add a little cold water from time to time as needed.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question: R. M. asks: "Will you please tell me the name of a medicated healing astringent plaster to use for inflamed kidney?" Answer: I do not know of any medicated plaster which will have any effect on inflamed kidneys. Any inflammation of the kidney is produced either by infection through the genito-urinary organs or from the kidneys being forced to throw out excessive amounts of bodily toxins. (Oranges) Question: C. M. N. asks: "Would eating too many oranges cause my fingernails to become soft? I eat one orange in the morning and one or two at night before retiring. I also eat quite a lot of candy. Would that cause it?" Answer: Using too much sugar can deplete your blood of its normal alkaline reserve and this might cause softening of your fingernails. The oranges cannot hurt you and, in fact, if you use oranges properly they should help in correcting your trouble. (Thin Neck) Question: A. L. G. writes: "My neck is very thin. Would olive oil or cocoa butter rubbed into it every night tend to nourish it? Could you suggest something better?" Answer: The actual rubbing will help to increase the circulation, but oils are not sufficiently absorbed through the skin to have any effect in increasing fat in the tissues. The best way to develop your neck is to take suitable exercises for those muscles in the neck. There is certainly no advantage in making the neck fat. FLOODS IN SILESLIA Breslau, Germany, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Floods caused by melting snow in the upper Silesian mountains today surrounded the town of Rathbor cutting it off from communication with the neighboring territory. Low-lying fields in the neighborhood were covered with from 10 to 14 feet of water from the swollen river Oder. Farmers were forced to flee to higher ground by boats.

BYRD AWARDED THE NAVY CROSS

Washington, Oct. 31.—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd today was awarded the Navy Cross for "extraordinary heroism" exhibited in his flight over the South Pole. Secretary Adams will present the medal on a date to be announced later. The citation accompanying the award said: "For extraordinary heroism in the line of his profession as commanding officer of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition, in that on November 28, 1929, he took off in the 'Floyd Bennett' for the expedition's base at Little America, Antarctica, and after a flight made under the most difficult conditions, he reached the South Pole on November 29, 1929. "After flying some distance beyond the Pole he returned to his base at Little America. This hazardous flight was made under extreme conditions of cold, over ranges and plateaus extending nine to ten thousand feet above sea level and beyond probable rescue of personnel had a forced landing ensued. "Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, U. S. N., retired, was in command of this flight, navigated the airplane, made the necessary preparations for the flight, and through his untiring energy, superior leadership and excellent judgment the flight was brought to a successful conclusion."

DRIVER EXONERATED

New Haven, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Coroner James J. Corrigan today announced a finding of no criminal responsibility in the death of Valentino Deronco of Meriden who was fatally injured October 11 when struck by a car driven by Joseph Miller, 140 Grove street, Meriden. The finding states that Miller had his car under control and that he made every effort to avoid the pedestrian, although he was negligent in failing to keep a sharper lookout and falling to see Deronco until the moment before the accident. Deronco suffered a fractured skull and died about two hours after the accident.

RUBBER TIRE PRICES ARE ON THE UPGRADE

Akron, O., Oct. 31.—(AP)—Reports of upward revision of rubber tire prices quoted to dealers for spring dating business were confirmed today. With nearly every major tire producing concern in the United States sharing in the move, price lists have been materially altered and in most cases advanced, the boost ranging from 2 1-2 to 5 per cent. "The newest change in prices is constructive and of value to the rubber industry generally," said A. B. F. Goodrich statement. No statement was forthcoming from Firestone officials, but it was learned from authoritative sources that the Firestone company's price schedules also were advanced. Goodyear regards the move as a constructive one and will undoubtedly "go along," officials of that company said. F. A. Seiberling, president of the Seiberling Rubber Company denied flatly that his company had any share in the price advance. He said he knew nothing of the move.

LABORERS DEMAND WORK IN COLUMBUS

700 of Them Chase From State Job Men From Another City—See Officials.

Columbus, O., Oct. 31.—(AP)—A demand for employment on the new $6,000,000 state office building was made on state officials early today by between 700 and 800 unemployed men of Columbus after they charged that the Cuyahoga Wrecking Company of Cleveland, which started the wrecking of old buildings today, was using between 60 and 70 Cleveland men on the project.

Spokesmen for the Columbus laborers said the Cleveland men had been routed twice from their places on the office building site by the large delegation of Columbus men who had been refused employment. Police said there was no apparent disorder as a delegation of 300 from the unemployed marched to the state house to demand that Governor Cooper give them work.

To Investigate
The governor was in Cleveland but Adjutant General A. W. Reynolds talked to the men and promised he would look into the matter to see why the Clevelanders were brought here by the wrecking company.

Several of the delegation told officials that if the state did not take care of them on the project they would take the matter into their own hands.

G. L. Sogg, president of the Cuyahoga Wrecking Company, explained to the unemployed group that there had been a misunderstanding and that all those employed on the job today were Columbus men except five they brought from Cleveland as supervisors.

Conditions in Women's Cell
Room Much Better — Coal Bins Removed.

A fine improvement has been made in the arrangement of the cell rooms in the basement of the local police court building. The women's cell, which had been in the southwest corner of the boiler room has been set further back from the original position by knocking out the wall on the south section which contained the coal bin and also the west section. This allows for a coal pocket to be built outside of the building and brings the coal through a chute into the baskets which will be used in feeding the furnace. There is also large additional space given by knocking out the west wall of the room doing away with a small storage room and better toilet facilities are also provided. The change is one that has been badly needed. When the cell was Hartford, Oct. 31.—(AP)—With the death of Mrs. Flora M. Crary, the income of a trust fund now valued at $1,700,000 has been made available to seven Hartford charitable institutions.

The trust fund was established by Dr. David Crary, Jr., who died in 1919, for the life benefit of his widow, who died Wednesday. Mrs. Crary's death the income from the fund was to be divided in equal shares annually among the Hartford hospital, St. Francis hospital, the Old People's Home, the Connecticut Home for the Blind, the Hartford Medical Society, the Hartford Orphan Asylum and the Connecticut Humane Society. The original fund was valued at $748,606, but more than doubled in value during the ensuing 10 years.

HORNSEY TO PLAY

Chicago, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Rogers Hornsby will be back at second base for the Cubs when the 1931 season opens.

Here today to make preparations for the spring training trip, Hornsby emphatically denied that his active days as a major league player are over. He said he made a mistake in trying to get back into uniform before he had completely recovered from injuries last season. "That was a good lesson to me," the Rajah said. "But, I'll be back in there next year. Make no mistake about that."

TURKEY TO APPROVE VISIT OF PREMIER

Angora, Turkey, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Premier Eleutherios Venizelos of Greece tomorrow will call upon the Greek Patriarch Photus, an event which is hailed here as one of the most important in eastern Christendom since the Turkish conquest of Constantinople in 1453.

This will be the first time in nearly 500 years that the political leader of the Greek nation will have paid homage to the ecclesiastical leader of eastern Christendom.

Observers point out that one striking aspect is that Premier Venizelos will visit the patriarch with approval of the Turkish government. Only five years ago the question of the patriarchate's position in Turkey flared up at that time. Turkey expelled on 24 hours' notice the Patriarch Constantine, on the ground that he belonged in the category of exchangeable populations, and conducted him under police guard beyond her frontiers.

The Turkish government's approval of tomorrow's visit is regarded as assurance to the 100,000 Greco-Turkish citizens of Istanbul that the government does not believe their religious attachment to the patriarchate is detrimental to their loyalty to the Turkish state.

Queer Twists In Day's News

New York—Sam Stuart of Fort Worth, who makes the spectators of rodeos laugh at his antics in dodging steers, is to try his luck with the humor of sunny Spain. He is to become a bullfighter, another Yankee tumbler in addition to Sidney Franklin.

Palm Beach—Miss Miriam McCormick is an impresario. She is president and treasurer of Palm Beach Play House, Inc., which has bought out a night club and at popular prices will seek to encourage and cultivate "a taste for music, literature and the arts through presentation of dramatic or operatic representation, musical performances, concerts and other intellectual and instructive arts."

New York—The golden voice of Enrico Caruso is still worth $150,000 a year to his widow in royalties on records, it would appear from litigation against her over legal advice.

Nashville, Tenn.—Increased salaries for ministers so they can afford larger families are advocated by the Rev. Kenneth McArthur, field representative of the American Eugenics Society. Giving his views at a meeting of Nashville ministers, he pointed out that ministers' sons lead in "Who's Who."

New York—It is nice to be married by Mayor Walker. "I hope I'll be the only one ever to come between you," he said posing between Samuel H. Levine and bride for pictures just after uniting them. Levine once played football at Princeton. His bride is the former Charlotte Brandt.

Newport, R. I.—William H. Vanderbilt is sending a turkey from his farm to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Jr., for Thanksgiving.

Roosevelt Field, N. Y.—Colonel Lindbergh's transport license number is 69, the same as in his air mail days. When he applied for renewal his flying ability was taken for granted.

New Brunswick, N. J.—Phillip M. Brett, football captain at Rutgers in 1891, has become acting president of the university and the alumni association has taken the occasion to correct an impression that he originated, "I'll die for dear old Rutgers." The association gives the credit to the late Frank K. Grant, '95, who broke a leg leading a flying wedge.

Philadelphia—Miss Elizabeth Lippincott Coles, heiress, is working without pay in the library of the Pennsylvania museum from 9:30 a. m. till 4 p. m., she is busy at cataloguing and making herself generally useful.

THE MAN WITH THE "HAIR-TRIGGER" TEMPER

HE WAS irritable at the office, and grouchy at home. His enemies increased, his friends became fewer. Then one day his doctor told him the truth. He had been handicapped by constipation for years. It had brought headaches and constantly irritating bile to make him "touchy." It had stolen his energy and good nature.

His doctor suggested eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly. And in a few days he was a changed man, cheery, ambitious—and on the road to success and happiness.

Constipation is so unnecessary it can be overcome by eating delicious Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. This delightful, ready-to-eat cereal has been improved in both texture and taste.

SENSE AND NONSENSE

Pejful Paragraphs for Ambitious Clerks: A constant smile may prove difficult, but it also proves profitable. Most of us worry more over our "rights" than over being wrong. The man who never has to get over difficulties never gets very far. When you say, "I've done my best," be sure it's the absolute truth. Learn to make statements that convince, appeals that persuade. You owe so much to yourself that you can't afford to owe anyone else.

When Mrs. Borden-Lodge arrived in America after a short visit in Paris she was asked the usual question by the custom officials: Custom Official—Anything to declare, madam? Mrs. Borden-Lodge—No, nothing. Custom Official—Then, Madam, am I to take it that the fur tail I see hanging down under your coat is your own?

A beautiful girl was being tried in a certain town for killing her husband. The jurors had retired. They knew she was guilty, but didn't want to sentence her because of her beauty—yet they feared to face their wives if they didn't. Finally, one of them happened to recall that the dead man had been an Elk. The problem was solved. They passed this sentence: "Twenty dollars fine for shooting an Elk out of season."

That Philosopher Who Says Nothing Will Last Forever Hasn't Noticed the Soap in Willie's Room.

When Gladys heard that the judge was about to charge the jury, she wanted to know what for.

Stalwart Man (bursting into a dentist's office)—Now, look here, I've got no use for this new-fangled notion and all that rubbish. The tooth's given a lot of trouble. It has got to come out. Now, all you've got to do is to yank it out—understand, just yank it out. Dentist—Well, you're a plucky chap. Just have a seat in the chair. Stalwart Man—Oh, it isn't my tooth. It's my wife's. She's downstairs.

Pity the modern girl the night before Christmas. She has no stocking to hang up.

Many A Man Who Is in the Public Eye Is Just About As Irritating As a Cinder Would Be.

A man never likes the man to whom he is in debt; so to keep your friends make them pay up. . . . You can lead a horse to water, if you can find a horse and some water. . . .

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS

Some people think they can push themselves forward by patting themselves on the back.

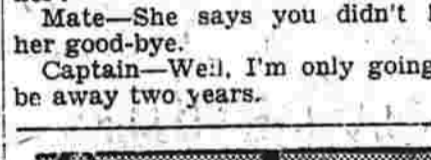

You can always tell a nut because he's got a screw loose about him. . . . The poorest man is the one who has nothing but money.

He—Everything I touch today seems to go wrong. She—Don't you dare touch me, then.

A Good Definition of a Gentleman Is Given by a Man As Follows: "A man that's clean inside and out who neither looks up to the rich nor down on the poor; who can lose without squealing and can win without bragging; considerate to women, children and old people; who is too brave to lie, takes his share of the world's goods and lets other people have theirs, is my ideal of a true gentleman."

In the days prior to 1860 the whaler was in his prime. Whaling vessels were equipped for long voyages, often being away from their home port five, seven, eight and even ten years. A story is told of an old whaling skipper all ready to leave on a voyage. Just as they were about to sail his mate tapped him on the shoulder and said: "Mate—Sorry, Captain, but your wife is crying her eyes out on the dock. Captain—What's the matter with her? Mate—She says you didn't kiss her good-bye. Captain—Well, I'm only going to be away two years.

THE TINYMITES STORY BY HAL COCHRAN PICTURES BY KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE) The pony on which Clowny rode seemed very glad to have a load upon his back. He pranced around and Clowny cried, "I hope that I don't spill. This little fellow's very peppy and he doesn't seem to want to stand. Just watch me ride him, Tinymites, and you will get a thrill. "Well, go ahead," one Tiny cried. "You're hopping round. Why don't you ride? Most anyone can do as well as you are doing now. If you are scared to let him run, get down and let me have some fun. If I am given just one chance, I'll shortly show you how." Then Clowny shouted, "Giddy-up!" The pony got a friendly slap, which made him start to gallop down the little winding street. This made the whole bunch laugh in glee and Coppy shouted, "Mercy me! I hope he doesn't run away. This ought to be a treat." Around and round the pony went and then the pony owner sent the other Tinymites out to bring poor Clowny safely back. They grabbed the reins. The pony stopped. All of a sudden Clowny flopped. "That's all your fault," cried Clowny. "Common sense you Tinymites lack." Just then a small cart came in sight and Carry cried, "Say, that's just right for all of us to ride in. Come, let's take a little spin." The man who owned the cart agreed and Scouty cried, "That's all we need!" They ran up to the little cart and promptly piled right in. The Travel Man stood by and smiled. Thought he, "I'd like to be a child, and have the fun those Tinymites have. They're happy as can be." We Scouty drove around a bit. Then Coppy took his turn at it. He shouted, loudly, "I am good! Just keep your eye on me." (The Tinymites meet the carnation man in the next story.)

ABOUT TOWN

John Cervini, a student at Rensselaer Poly. inst. has recently been elected Treasurer of the Student Branch of the American Inst. of Chemical Engineers. This is a national organization.

Miss Florence Shaw entertained with a bridge party at her home on Edwards street last evening. The winner of the first prize was Miss Gertrude Rockwell, and the consolation, Miss Madeline Logan. The decorations, favors and refreshments were all appropriate for Hallowe'en.

Tommy and Walter Ferguson gave a Hallowe'en party last night at their home, 18 Henry street, for a dozen of their playmates. The youngsters ducked for apples and played all the kid games that make Hallowe'en what it is. They went home all set for a good old fashioned tummy-ache after consuming candy, cookies, ice cream, sandwiches, apples and sody-pop to their hearts' content.

MANCHESTER GREEN COMMUNITY CLUB
All Cash Prizes. Special Door Prize. Refreshments. 55 Cents.

Shining Light Circle of Junior King's Daughters will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the committee room of Center church house.

Mrs. S. Ross Shirer of 1069 Main street entertained last evening with a Hallowe'en bridge.

The ladies committee of the Manchester Green Community club will give one of their fortnightly whist-dances this evening in the school assembly hall. A special door prize will be one of the attractions, in addition to the opportunity to win one of the six money prizes. A good time is in store for all who attend.

The Hallowe'en masquerade at the Jack O'Lantern Inn in Bolton last night was an unusual success. Moonlight waltzes and square sets featured, music being furnished by Bill Waddell's orchestra. Gold pieces were given to the following prize winners: Best dressed man, Archie Johnson, Middletown, as Uncle Sam; best dressed lady, Bertha M. Griswold, South Manchester, blue dress with gold stars; most original, Mrs. Arthur Gowdy, Burnside, as Colonial dame; most comical, James Sala, Wethersfield, as farmer. The management intends to continue masquerades through the season on the strength of the success of last night's affair.

The joint Odd Fellow and Rebekah whist and dance last evening in Odd Fellows hall attracted more than 80 persons. First prizes were captured by Mrs. J. Risley and J. H. Stevenson; second by Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Walsh and consolation, Mrs. A. M. Gordon and L. Caaplin. Sandwiches, home made cake and coffee was served, and dancing followed.
