O'Shea Probably Never Will Revisit City of His Boyhood Days

Hartford, Feb. 10-(P)-Screen and Radio Actor Michael O'Shea, completing a six-day vaudeville engagement in this city where he spent his boyhood, left town today with the declaration that "I'll probably never come to Hartford again."

During the past week, he told reporters, these things happened to him: He was turned out of his hotel room and compelled to seek other quarters. Daughter Secretly Married He visited his wife, Grace O'Shea, at her home in Wethersfield to discuss their marital troubles, and learned that his 17-year old daughter, Barbara, had bee secretly married. He and his wife, long separated, were able to arrive at "nothing definite" during their discussion. And he was asked to make letions and revisions in parts of his act pertaining to reminiscences of his boyhood here.

Taking his troubles in order, O'Shea alleged that he was asked to leave his hotel because he refused to entertain at the convention of the National Order of Wo men Legislators, held there Tues-He said a clause in his contract barred him from making such an appearance.

Unly One-Day Reservation Willard Rogers, the hotel man-ager, confermed that O'Shea had given up his room, but said the actor had only a one-day reserva-tion and that the hotel's waiting list made it impossible to accom-motate him throughout the week. O'Shea said he had no knowledge that his daughter, a senior a Wethersfield High school, had bee marrier last August to William T. Rodenback, 23, an Ohio State university student and former Army flier, until he visited his wife. In regard to his own marriage the actor said he had been marrie 20 years but during that time had been able to spend a total of not more than four years at home a his stage and screen career to him about the country.

 A packed house witnessed one of the best ball games to be played at the Rec this year. The visitors were minus several name players but as they use a fluctuating lineup anyway, it didn't matter, 0 for they had the team to win but 2 met their equal. The lead changed hands ten

8-16 04 times during the fray and was tied 4 Meri- twice in the third guarter and three times in the final stanza at 41, 45 and 54 all. In the second quarter the Spurs ran up a six point advantage for the highest lead of the game but couldn't forge ahead any further. Here the locals came back strong and after ticing it up, took over and ran up a four point lead for their highest advan-tage. It was a nip and tuck battle that kept the crowd on edge throughout. Ed Kose opened the encounter with a one hand swiaher from the side, but big Frank Bores retalinted to even the count. Then Floyd Miller broke under the hoop to score another with Bores doing it again on a one hand bucket shot to put the Spurs ahead, 6-2. This lead did not last long as Mike Saverick and Al Surowie added a few for the locals to tie it up at six

However, the Spurs had the edge, 10-8 at the end of the first stansa. In the second period the visitors forged ahead to lead 24-18 Kaceys Trounce T-ville Quintet The K. of C. team journeyed to Thompsonville Sunday and took the Mt. Carmel team of that city

It was Spurs for victory, then on in, as Bores and victory, then on in, as Bores and Golanski connected time and again but good old PA teamwork was really clicking and the Spura just could keep alightly ahead at 48-45, then 51-48. A quick jump up pop by Server dropped for two points and a one hand push in by Suro-wiec put the locals behind by only one point, 53-52.

With a few minutes remaining it was "dog cat dog" as each team tried to score. This time "Snap" Server was on the receiving end of a pass from Staum to sink another "jump up, pop in" sucker shot to put the locals shead, 54-53. A complimentary point by Bores, who shoots his fouls in one hand, tied the count at 54 all with onds to do.

Actor Sours On Hartford

O'Shea Probably Never Will Revisit City of His Boyhood Days

Hartford, Feb. 10-(P)-Screen and Radio Actor Michael O'Shea, completing a six-day vaudeville engagement in this city where he spent his boyhood, left town today with the declaration that "I'll probably never come to Hartford During the past week, he told eporters, these things happened

He was turned out of his hotel room and compelled to seek other quarters. Daughter Secretly Married He visited his wife, Grace O'Shes, at her home in Wethersfield to discuss their marital troubles, and learned that his 17-yearold daughter, Barbara, had been secretly married. He and his wife, long separated, were able to arrive at "nothing efinite" during their discussion. And he was asked to make deletions and revisions in parts of his act pertaining to reminiscences of his boyhood here.

Taking his troubles in order, O'Shea alleged that he was asked to leave his hotel because he re-fused to entertain at the conven-tion of the National Order of Women Legislators, held there Tues-day. He said a clause in his contract barred him from making such an appearance.

Only One-Day Reservation Willard Rogers, the hotel man-ager, confermed that O'Shea had given up his room, but said the actor had only a one-day reserva-tion and that the hote's waiting list made it impossible to accom-modate him throughout the week. O'Shes said he had no knowledge that his daughter, a senior at Wethersfield High school, had been marrier last August to William T. Rodenback, 23, an Ohio State university student and former Army flier, until he visited his wife. In regard to his own marriag the actor said he had been marr 20 years but during that time had been able to spend a total of not nore than four years at home a his stage and screen career too him about the country.

Artificial Eves

Sufficient Now

Southbridge, Mass., Fcb. 10-(P) -New manufacturing techniques have enabled the American Optical company to produce enough plas-tic artificial eyes to meet the cur-ent need in the United States, i Fritz Hardon, manager of the company's artificial eye manufac-turing division, said that special machinery and dies to mold the basic shape of the eye and to bind.

tegether the elements comprising the finished eye have increased pro-duction "sharply." Certain other delicate manufacturing operations still must be per-formed by hand, he added. Major Factor in Decision

New Haven, Feb. 10 - (#) Sweden's interest in "normal, friendly relations with the Soviet union." was reported by Prof. Heige Kokeritz of Yale to have been a major factor in her decision to sign credit and barter agree-ments with Russis last year. Kokeritz spoke yesterday on the Yale Interprets the News radio
