Big Crowd Expected

Grossinger, N. Y., June 16—

(F) The rare sight of light heavyweight champion Joey Maxim sitting on the canvas had this resort town buzzing with talk today.

The 30-year-old Clevelander couldn't understand "why everyone is making such a fuss" about it all.

Yet, to several hundred spectators and a dozen or so boxing writers, it was a unique occasion. Joe Blackwood, a fast 161-pounder from Paterson, N. J., floored the 175-pound champion with a left hook high on the head in the first round of a workout yesterday.

What made it such a rarity, even though the knockdown was caused more by Maxim's backing maneuvers than anything else, was the fact that the handsome champion has fought heavyweight king Jersey Joe Walcott three times and former titleholder Ezzard Charles five times and has never been knocked down.

As a matter of fact you can count the times Maxim has been floored in 12 years of profighting on the fingers of one hand. He was knocked out once, by Curtis (Hatchetman) Sheppard in 1943, A month later he trounced Sheppard in a return. off for the Dusty title, Hamilton

Mobs Rush To Shelters Upon Signal

Connecticut's response to its mock air raid this morning was almost perfect.
Only minor defects in the state's Civil Defense operaomplained chiefly that people were too curious. Once in shelters they crowded back to doors and windows to see what was going on. In West Hartford, it was found that sirens could not be heard inside stores. New Haven was the only bee road, the movement of switch en-gines and other traffic was halted during the test. Officials in towns around New Haven reported the test went off successfully, even in Hamden where the siren broke down after unding only a few warning

Several men driving through the Centerbrook section of Essex appeared to have the shelter prob-lem well solved. When the whistles sounded, their car was directly in front of a tavern. They parked and went inside. and went inside. Other cities and towns did the ob in as little as one and a half

Even the pigeons were gone from the lawn of the State House in Hartford two minutes after the alert was sounded. One flock stuck out the unnatural silence for a few seconds, but then wheeled off to some shelter of their own.

Two central headquarters were set up in Hartford, one for Civil
