What's better than cash?

"When my doctor said 'hospital care', I found that the Blue Cross card in my pocket is a lot better than cash. I just showed my card to the admitting clerk in the hospital lobby and my Blue Cross benefits started. That's service!"

It takes time to get the cash you need for an emergency. And while you're waiting, you worry: will it come through? Will it be enough?"

Working together, your Blue Cross Plan and your community hospitals have short-cut these problems for you. Your Blue Cross card brings on-thespot credit in any of the Blue Cross Member Hospitals (all voluntary general hospitals in Connecticut), day or night . . . at the admitting office when you enter, at the cashier's window when you leave. Your card is also a ticket to substantial benefits in all other recognized general hospitals everywhere.

Behind that card is a partnership arrangement between Blue Cross and the Member Hospital, guaranteeing you benefits in advance. No fuss or bother to "put in a claim." You show the card; Blue Cross and your hospital do the rest.

And many of your Blue Cross benefits - drugs, x-rays, laboratory tests, operating room and others - have no cash limit at all during your basic Blue Cross stay when ordered by your doctor, even if they run to hundreds or thousands of dollars, as some do.

What's better than cash? Service -with no questions asked. There's no time in your life when you'll welcome that kind of service so much!

Memo to Members:

All 33 voluntary general hospitals in Connecticut work directly with Blue Cross to bring you hospital care without worrisome red tape. They furnish services to Blue Cross by contract, with credit in advance to the member on admission. Blue Cross pays them on a strict cost basis for the benefits you receive. It's a voluntary partnership of non-profit organizations, pledged to community service.
