The Bath Coup was first invented about 200 years ago in the days of Whist, but it is still a very active play in contract bridge.

West opened the hand of diamonds and South took the customary moment of thought before playing the first card from dummy. He saw that there was no danger of losing two diamonds, one heart and one club.

Optimism Sprouting In Business World

By SAM DAWSON

Based on the indications that a better federal deficit is on the way, meaning more money pumped into the economy.

Price firmness in the face of falling industrial output and excess industrial capacity also improve the outlook. Fed is wide-spread that pressure for wage increases won't be resisted with complete success by management so that prices will rise again.

That optimism is still a live commodity in the business world is shown by a couple of polls this week. Don & Bradstreet queried 1,500 executives and reports that 80 per cent of them expect their profits this summer to equal or surpass those of a year ago.

The American Management Assn. asks of 688 companies and says the majority expect total sales volume for 1958 will top 1957.

Chain store sales as a whole topped the year ago figures in April. A leading mail order house calls the outlook decidedly encouraging.

The combination of higher farm prices and good growing weather has sent the farmer to their suppliers. A number of makers of farm equipment say that tractors are really moving now.

The Federal Housing Administration finds the demand for home loans so much improved that it is asking Congress to allow it to insure $4 billion worth more of them in the next 12 months.

Although some stockholders have been distressed this year by the flood of cuts in dividend rates or omissions altogether, the Department of Commerce reports that total cash dividend payments in the first 1958 quarter rose one half of one per cent to $2,921,000,000.

So if it's silver linings you're looking for, you can find them.

Other speakers will be Chief Nelson A. Roy, senior executive consultant of Charter Oak Council; Bruce D. McElroy, district second executive of the Blackledge District; and Thomas Doherty, district chairman.

George French, vice chairman of the district, is the banquet chairman.

Rockville-Vernon Rebids Said Too High For New Vo-Ag School

Rebids for construction of a vocational agriculture school were opened yesterday and found to be $1,000 higher than the first ones opened March 20.

John G. Talcott Jr., school building committee chairman, said the higher bids make it "very doubtful" that the school can be ready for use in September as originally hoped.

The school plans were revamped by Architects Jeter and Cooke and the first bids were too high.

The state grant for the school amounts to $140,000 and must cover all construction costs.

Apparent low bidder both times was Joseph Kovic, of Mansfield. He bid $125,240 on the original plans but $135,240 on the revised plans. This covers the cost of the building, administration building, and equipment, which would exceed the $140,000 provided by the state.

Talcott said the architects attributed the higher bids to the fact that contractors have felt increases in almost all items, including materials, labor, and equipment, which would exceed the $140,000 provided by the state.

The school architects said they thought they had cut down the plans enough to provide sufficient margins to cover the extra costs.

Only two bids were submitted this time, compared to six in March. The other bidder was Jack E. Hannon, of Manchester, who bid $137,890 this time and $132,400 on the original plans.

A. F. Pease, contractor for Rockville High and Vernon High, bid for $128,947 on the original plan, but did not bid this time.

The school is to be built on the site of the old school and is being handled by the same building committee. It was expected that Pease's bid would be lowest, because his equipment already is at the site.

The SBC will meet Wednesday to "consider what to do." Talcott said the school must be completed by June 1959, in order to make use of the state grant. Talcott said there is no chance of getting more money from the state for the school. The funds for the school come from town appropriations and federal grants and cannot be presented to the school.

The grade 8 graduation on June 19 will be an informal evening affair in which parents will be invited to see speeches made by the graduates.

This was determined by the Board of Education last night when High School Principal Allen L. Dresser asked about the graduation program.

This will be the first year that there has been no grade 8 graduation, and it occurs because that grade was brought to the high school building B this year due to the classroom shortage in the elementary schools.

The eighth grade has been under the jurisdiction of Dresser and will be part of the new school when the new high school is completed in September. The school will operate on a 6-3-3 system with elementary grades, three junior high grades and three high school grades.

The Board members felt that the children should be recognized for completing the eight grades, although the program should be less formal than when the first eight grades were separate from the four high school years.

Chairman William R. Hahn, whose daughter will graduate this year, will present diplomas to the high school graduation June 20.

Maintenance Matters

The Board considered the matter of repairs to school buildings, and accepted a low bid from Fagan Bros. of $2,000 to repair Building A of the high school. Main repairs will be the roof and brickwork.

A couple tank at Vernon Elementary School is not operating correctly and the problem appears to be extensive, the Board was told. The Board heard from three contractors regarding their solutions to the problem and decided to seek the advice of a state sanitary engineer because of the high estimated cost. If free advice cannot be received from the state, a professional engineering firm will be consulted to re-bids are opened March 20.

A bid of Clayton Crandall for painting the schools during the summer season, was accepted by the Board. Crandall submitted the lowest bid, $2,322.

Teachers Hired

Six new elementary teachers were hired for the next school year.

They are: Ellen Ashline of Rockville; former Ellington teacher; Joan S. Brooker, now teaching in Manchester; Arlene Grochowicki, University of Connecticut graduate and a public health nurse for the past year; Patricia Hill, also a UConn graduate; Betty Wood, now teaching in Ellington; and Margarete Nye, who will graduate from UConn in June.

Bernadette Neal was hired for homemaker and Jean Douglas, of East Hartford, for music.

Talcott said the architects attributed the higher bids to the fact that contractors have felt increases in almost all items, including materials, labor, and equipment, which would exceed the $140,000 provided by the state.

The school architects said they thought they had cut down the plans enough to provide sufficient margins to cover the extra costs.

Only two bids were submitted this time, compared to six in March. The other bidder was Jack E. Hannon, of Manchester, who bid $137,890 this time and $132,400 on the original plans.

A. F. Pease, contractor for Rockville High and Vernon High, bid for $128,947 on the original plan, but did not bid this time.

The school is to be built on the site of the old school and is being handled by the same building committee. It was expected that Pease's bid would be lowest, because his equipment already is at the site.

The SBC will meet Wednesday to "consider what to do." Talcott said the school must be completed by June 1959, in order to make use of the state grant. Talcott said there is no chance of getting more money from the state for the school. The funds for the school come from town appropriations and federal grants and cannot be presented to the school.

3000 increase on the basis of his sixth year diploma submitted to the Board in seeking a conference with Dr. LaVerne Strong, was centered around the gift certificate. Board members agreed that the curriculum committee should be public, is intended to acquaint Dr. Strong with problems and attitudes here, as well as inform the public about grouping. They indicated that Dr. Strong would be asked to return to a Board meeting for further discussion of the gifted child.

Seymour Lavitt, proprietor of the school, was present and pointed out that he was concerned with the bright child, of which he claims there are many in the school system, and the gifted child, of which there are only a few.

Winifred Kloter objected to Lavitt's being allowed to make a survey some time ago to determine the number of high IQ students in the school system. He claimed those records should not be open to the public, but only to parents and IQ's when doing the research, which was approved by the Board at the time.

An executive session, at which the Board will discuss a proposal by Randall regarding promotions within the administration, was set for May 27.

government in Lebanon whose anti-government policy is a threat to the U.S. Information Service.

Wedge Plan for Arab

They reportedly were considering an urgent request for an increase in military aid, partly to strengthen Lebanon's internal security forces.

Radio propaganda of the United Arab Republic from Cairo and Damascus has been demanding the Lebanese government's overthrow.

Authorities here said that Communist agitators were unquestionably active in fanning the flames of political excitement in Lebanon. The U.A.R. under Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser, is committed to neutralism but has often been accused of working hand in glove with the Reds on Middle East fronts.

The question of Communist agitation in the Arab world was put to Dulles yesterday after he had asked Enrique Terceira, a ranking Venezuelan diplomat here, for assurances that his government could adequately protect the oil pipeline from Caracas to the Gulf.

Dulles said that he did not want to charge Communist inspiration until he gets all the facts of the case. That meant he was awaiting full information from the Venezuelan government as well as reports from Americans in the country on why the plots had come about.

Several Considerations

Officials trying to analyze the causes of the Caracas uprising, in which Nixon was threatened and six of his party injured, said several considerations must be taken into account. The government of dictator Gen. Marcos Perez Jimenez was overthrown only last January by a military junta and the situation in the country has been unsettled since.

Riots used by the rioters referred to such problems as racial prejudice dramatized in the Little Rock case, to colonialism with which the Communists regularly charge the United States and to the overthrow several years ago of a pro-Communist government in Guatemala.

It is also recognized here that there has been resentment in Venezuela, whose great export is oil, against United States restrictions on oil imports.

All these issues, officials said, combine to provide fuel for agitators who would like to embarrass and damage the United States by such a demonstration as developed around Nixon's visit.

Foot Health Rules Listed by Society

This week is Foot Health Week. The Manchester-Rockville Chiropody Society, in a statement on the importance of the foot, says that of course, foot health should concern us the whole year, and not just one week.

"There is an old saying that when your feet hurt, your whole body hurts. This is very true, because the feet are the foundation upon which the body rests. There are various aspects of foot health that we should consider. One of the most important is the care and treatment of children's feet. This is important because many of the foot disorders we encounter in adult life would have been prevented if proper foot care had been instituted during childhood. Many conditions which are latent in childhood, but can be detected by an experienced eye, can be treated and prevented from progressing into more severe and often incapacitating disorders.

Recently, the problem associated with old age have received considerable publicity. The feet of the aged are of concern both to the individual and to the medical profession. Arthritis, which is a frequent complication of old age, can usually be treated in the feet. In fact, the feet can be the primary site of arthritis changes. Only the experienced person, such as the chiropodist-podiatrist or physician, with the child's feet available to him such as a ray, can prescribe the proper treatment which will bring relief to the symptoms of arthritis feet.

It has been estimated that there are thousands of undetected diabetes in the United States. Often

No Easy Answer to Change In Latin American Attitude

By JAMES MARLOW (AP News Analyst)

Washington, May 14 (AP)—Five years ago Milton Eisenhower, the president's brother, made a Latin American tour and received a warm welcome. Vice President Nixon now repeats the tour and is stoned and spit upon.

Why in five years has the Latin American attitude towards the United States taken such a bitter turn? There's no easy answer.

Blaming it all on Communists would be too easy, relieving the United States of the need for self-examination in its relations with, and its policies towards, Latin America. And such a self-examination, says what happened to Nixon, seems needed.

To Be Ordained

The Rev. Francis F. McDonnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. McDonnell, 20 Francis St., will be ordained Thursday by the Most Rev. Henry J. O'Brien, archbishop of Hartford. Father McDonnell will be the first priest to be ordained in 14 years to be ordained at St. Lawrence O'Toole Church in Hartford at ceremonies beginning at 10 a.m.

Father McDonnell was born in Manchester Nov. 2, 1932, and attended St. James School. From there he went to St. Thomas Seminary in Bloomfield and St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester, N.Y. This will help prevent serious infection.

3. Exercise the feet and expose them frequently to the air and sunshine.

4. Consult a chiropodist at the first sign of foot trouble.

7. Wear correct shoes that are properly fitted.

8. Change shoes and hose often. This will help prevent fatigue and excessive perspiration.

9. Avoid run-over heels, wrinkles in hose or shoe inlayments and other creases which may cause friction or pressure.

10. Many foot disorders are not caused by the feet, but by the rest of the body. Fatigue and stress are common causes of foot trouble.

11. Wear your shoes and stockings with care. Proper fitting shoes and stockings are essential to foot health.

Half-Day Pupil Total Up 20% in Two Years

By G. R. HOENENFIELD (AP Education Reporter)

Washington, May 14 (AP)—The number of children attending half-day sessions in city grade schools has jumped 20 per cent in two years and is still climbing, the National Education Assn. (NEA) reported today.

"And those classes that do run full sessions are becoming more crowded," the NEA added.

The association, which has long been planning for a federal program of aid to schools, cited figures from a just-completed survey of city schools. The survey covered 6 1/2 million children—about 80 per cent of the total in school districts with 2,500 or more pupils.

The NEA said that in 1955-56, 300,000 such students on half-day schedules, the NEA said, compared to less than 200,000 in the 1953-54 school year.

The problem of overcrowding in classrooms is a serious one, the association said. More than half of all city grade schools are in classes of 30 or more compared to the NEA's ideal of 25.

More overcrowded classrooms are in prospect, the survey reported, because of teacher and classroom shortages.

"More than 31,000 new classrooms and teachers would be required just to level off the larger classes to a maximum of 30," NEA said.

It cited these figures from the survey:

More than 146,000 city children are in grade school classes of more than 40 students each.

About 340,000 are in classes of more than 35.

More than 15 per cent are in classes of 25 or less.

NEA said the larger the city in which the child lives, the more crowded in school districts with 800,000 or more population, almost 90 per cent of the classes are

Special Services On Ascension Day

Three Ascension Day services will be held Thursday in St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The hours this year are 8:30, 9:30 and 11 a.m. In addition, the daily evening service will be held as usual.

The 8:30 service will be a celebration of the Holy Communion by the Rev. L. Williams, rector, in the Chapel of the Nativity. The Holy Communion will be celebrated by the Rev. Prescott Beach, assistant, at 11 a.m. at the main altar. A service scheduled at a convenient hour for school children.

The United Thank-Offering of the women of the world is to be presented at the 10 o'clock service. Many Latin Americans probably feel this country anxious to stop the spread of Communism in Europe and Asia. It is taking them more time for granted and is giving more interest, concern

Paris Orders New General Take Command of Algeria

The city's shops had followed the committee's call for another strike. After cheering for Masu and other members of the committee, the crowd melted away. Reports trickling through to Paris from official and semi-official sources indicated a few stores and restaurants began reopening.

In Paris itself, there is a demonstration was broken up yesterday, a new order from the police was issued banning all sorts of public meetings and even funeral processions.

Police found two small bombs planted in front of Communist offices. The fuse on one failed and the other was defused by the police.

Jacques Soustelle, extreme right Gaullist leader in parliament and former government minister in Algeria, was reported under police protection at his Paris home.

The semi-official French News Agency said he had "been placed under police protection" following threats against his life from the Algerian National Liberation front.

Wood Drops TPC Appeal

Frank Wood, owner of the Dartmouth Farm Trust, off Kelsey St., has withdrawn his appeal to the court of Common Pleas in Hartford regarding a Town Planning Commission decision made in February.

The appeal was made to the court after the TPC denied the rezoning of the 180-acre tract which Wood wanted to use for a residential subdivision.

In turning down the request, the Commission said it felt treating a large Residence A Zone in the middle of an undeveloped area as "incompatible" with its anticipated future development, thereby offering a lower population density than the Residence A Zone would permit.

In making the appeal, Wood claimed the TPC acted "illegally, arbitrarily and abused the discretion" of the commission.

John F. Shea, Jr., who is representing Wood in making his appeal, said he was withdrawing because it is not in financial trouble and he has no other alternative.

Wood said he had a secret source who told him this morning that the Commission said it felt treating a large Residence A Zone in the middle of an undeveloped area as "incompatible" with its anticipated future development, thereby offering a lower population density than the Residence A Zone would permit.

flowers on it seemed not to have been disturbed.

Mrs. Gowdy, a teacher at the Bolton Cooperative Kindergarten, said her husband usually goes out to the barn to start his chores about 4 p.m., as he did yesterday. She noticed nothing unusual, she said, until she glanced at her watch and discovered it was after 6:30, a half hour after Gowdy normally finishes his work.

She said she called neighbors, but they had not seen her husband. She said she had a secret source who told him this morning that the Commission said it felt treating a large Residence A Zone in the middle of an undeveloped area as "incompatible" with its anticipated future development, thereby offering a lower population density than the Residence A Zone would permit.

Doctor Reveals Botleg Dental Practice Probe

success in New Canaan, where fluoridation began recently.

He said he felt "what happened in New Canaan will be an important factor in fluoridation in other waters in the state."

Dr. Arthur Easton of Norway, Me., first district trustee for the American Dental Association, agreed that fluoridation should not be encouraged to train dental technicians.

They agreed that the "hood" of technicians which might result from a university training setup would be recruited into "illegal practices" of dentistry.

Dr. Engler said he opposed enactment of a specialty act in Connecticut which would require state examinations of dentists wishing to work in dental offices.

He thought existing professional organizations could protect the public interest.

Tonight, installation of officers will be held at the Hartford Convention Center. Dr. Engler said the transfer of Waterbury will take place in the summer of 1968.

not afford his own security, it's time to fall down the red-white-and-blue and hoist the white flag," Martin said.

A standing vote of 102-59 had been a move by Rep. William M. Colmer (D-Miss.) to strip the program of $1 billion, nearly all its economic aid. A 74-1 vote will amend an amendment by Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Miss.) to strip the program of the $1,640,000,000 proposed for arms help.

A 49-0 count defeated Adair's motion for a $100 million cut in the $770 million authorization for economic assistance for foreign defense programs.

Also announced today was a move by Rep. Roy Weir (D-Miss.) to strike out all military aid and annual appropriation by Rep. Frank Brown (D-Ohio) of foreign troops of 614 stationed overseas.

House passage would send the Senate the authorization bill which in its present form provides for $1.64 billion in aid in 1968 and $1.64 billion in aid in 1969.

Most at Finance Class Take Martin's Answers

Eleven students attended the finance class in Water and Sewer Departments last night and most of them seemed satisfied with the answers to knotty accounting problems.

One dissatisfied student, however, was former director Helen Fitzpatrick, who said she would have to be shown a record of $50,000 in investments she was unable to turn up in a personal investigation of departmental accounts.

And the most energetic pupil was Dr. A. B. Myers, who asked a variety of questions touching on departmental accounts, including the amount of money paid to the Water and Sewer Departments for the purchase of land.

But before the class got under way at 8 p. m., Mr. Myers said he would not speak unless his questions and answers were recorded. "Information concerning government officials should be confidential," he said.

The session was not recorded, but Mr. Martin offered to write out the answers to the questions. Mrs. Fitzpatrick claimed that in an inquiry of banks containing the names of the officials, she had received a record of $50,000 in investments from the banks.

Mr. Martin said the money in the Connecticut Bank and Trust Co. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick's account, he said, was not in the name of the officials.

He stressed again as to what would happen in any year when the board treated the department's balance.

Failed to Check

However, the controller's office said this morning that Mrs. Fitzpatrick had not reported. Officials said that the sum is listed on an office copy of the report.

The manager's class began in the heated at one point when Moran pressed Russell Galgo, a Water Department tax matter.

"This is no imposition," Martin said. "I don't mind if you knowledges, but don't browbeat the witnesses."

Eventually Moran appeared to be satisfied with the answers given by Martin, Water and Sewer Department Superintendent Fred E. Thrall, Galgo, and Thomas Moore, town purchasing agent and former department accountant.

Around the serious ones in blood in the urine. Even if blood is present for only a day or two and the patient wears up, it should not be ignored.

This symptom is not caused by a "strain" or a "cold" but some more serious condition is almost always present.

There is bleeding somewhere along the urinary passages. The blood may come from high up in the kidneys. This can be caused by an injury, a tumor, an inflammation, stones and from other kidney disorders.

Needless to say, anything which causes group swelling in the kidneys to be observed in the urine should be investigated and completely.

Most such conditions can be treated successfully either by medical means or by surgery if discovered early enough.

The great tragedy, however, is that when they have allowed to pass, they often reach a stage in which successful treatment is no longer possible.

After leaving the kidneys, the urine passes down tube known as ureters — one for each kidney. These tubes can be injured, can be blocked by stones, or can be blocked by stones, any one of which may cause bleeding into the urine.

The presence of blood is not confined to any age or sex, although the probable cause does vary.

Bleeding in the most common causes in children from 1 to 5 years of age is the frequent cause of bleeding.

This changes as men grow older, and tumors somewhere along the urinary tract and difficulty with the prostate gland increase in frequency.

Bleeding in the urinary system is often intermittent. Disappearance of blood can lead to a false sense of relief and security.

Specialists in this field maintain that this irregularity in bleeding causes a great deal of difficulty and that many of their patients are much more because of neglect.

Also, it is a common sense to take warning from such a symptom.

Mass Celebrated For Slain Child

East Haven, May 14 (AP)—A Mass of the Angels was celebrated here today for little Kathy Palumbo, the six-year-old girl who was accidentally killed and killed by a 13-year-old neighbor boy.

More than 100 relatives, friends and neighbors of the child and her parents attended the services at St. Clare's Church.

Kathy's body lay in a tiny white casket covered with carnations.

Private funeral services were held at a funeral home for immediate members of the family before the casket was carried to the church.

Interment was at St. Lawrence Cemetery in New Haven.

Last night, more than a thousand persons visited the funeral home.

Kathy's body lay in a sealed white casket adorned with flowers and her picture.

Her mother, Mrs. Alice Palumbo, sat rigidly in a chair nearby, acknowledging the expressions of sympathy from the two-hundred-long line of visitors. Her father held his bowed head with his hands. Tears streamed down his face.

The girl was brutally beaten to death Sunday. The next morning, young Dana Bragdon admitted the slaying to police.

Watching Hour for Major Leaguers at Midnight

28 Players In Uniform On Way Out

New York, May 14 (AP)—The watching hour for some 28 major league baseball players comes at midnight tonight. At that time they'll be transferred into minor leagues or they'll have no jobs at all.

This afternoon day and by the time the clock strikes midnight 18 major league clubs must get within the 20-player limit. They're permitted to carry 30 players for the first month of the season.

The 28 players who don't get into the 20-player limit on the season roll will have just returned from the armed forces.

Only one team, the Baltimore Orioles, is down to size. All the others must do some trimming.

That team, however, is the Boston Red Sox, who are the 15th largest club in the American League and 12 in the National League.

Most of the interest of course concerns those who will get the ax on the World Champion Milwaukee Braves and the American League champion New York Yankees.

The Braves must cut three and the Yankees must cut three and the chances are that pitchers Walter Johnson, Bob Feller, and Don Nisenzon will be the ones to go.

Other players who are expected to be cut are Harry Harper, who has been in the big league for only a few days; and Bob Riddle, who has been in the big league for only a few days; and Bob Riddle, who has been in the big league for only a few days.

Congress in Split On Sports Debate

Washington, May 14 (AP)—Sharp differences broke out in Congress today on legislation to relieve organized sports of their worries about breaking national laws when the House Judiciary Committee split almost in two over how far to go.

Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.), backed by a bare committee majority, contended a committee-approved bill would protect any practices, reasonable and necessary to preserve the integrity of the sport.

But the majority report was accompanied by two minority statements asserting the "reasonably necessary" condition is the best embracing and not the one covering the distance in 1944.

Dyes won the shot put event with a record-breaking toss of 49 feet, eight inches. Fred Tosed the javelin 143 feet, three inches and won with a winning heave of 27 feet, six inches in the discus event.

East Hartford's aviat Henry Jackson was a double winner, taking the 100-yard dash and also the 200-yard dash.

The summaries:

100 Y. Jackson, EH; 2 Williams, M; 3 Wischowski, EH; 2, 10.6.

Indians Upended by Hornets, Joe Dyer Wins Three Events

Despite big Joe Dyer's fine one-man performance, the Manchester High School track squad bowed 21-0 to neighboring East Hartford yesterday afternoon in East Hartford. It was the Indians' second setback in five meets. Dyer's winning ways Friday against the rival East Hartford squad accounted for three of Manchester's four first places. Scott Ciendaniel staidout cross country runner, picked up a victory in the mile, covering the distance in 4:44.0.

First Long Road Trip Scheduled for Dodgers

Los Angeles, May 14 (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers, pushed deeper into the National League cellar, began their first long road trip today, which prompted a bellicose fan to yell: "Keep this club at home and pick up another one on the road."

The recommendation was not unanimous, however. Many fans are still strident along with their new major league club even though the Dodgers yesterday lost their fifth straight game and the fourth in succession to the San Francisco Giants.

The score was another "must" against the San Francisco Giants, 6-0 at Valley St. on Friday night.

Phillies—Tonight and Friday night at 8:30 at Valley St. on Friday night.

Dart League Sets Banquet

The British American Dart League will elect officers for next year at the annual business meeting Saturday night at 8 o'clock at the clubhouse. Reports for the year will be made by the president, Stanley Polinsky, vice president, Mel Berman, secretary, and treasurer, Bill White.

Willie hit two fairly legitimate home runs, two triples and a single in five official trips to the plate. He drove in four runs.

The Dodgers' losses collected their fifth straight game and the fourth in succession to the San Francisco Giants.

Racquetiers Lose To Strong Conard

Winning two of the three singles matches and sweeping the doubles matches, unbeaten Conard High of West Hartford turned back the Manchester Racquet Club at the high school courts yesterday's makeup CCLL tennis match at the high school courts.

Steve Thomas was the lone Red and White victor in the singles, defeating Rich Bakery, 7-5 for his first victory of the spring.

Cherwin, the Captain, Mike Dechert defeated Co-Captain Jack Randsapp 6-3, and Bill Dechert won over Manchester's Jack Rooney 6-4, 6-1.

Dechert teamed with Jack Rabin to beat Randsapp and Rooney 6-2, 6-1 for another victory.

Whipping, it marked the initial setback for the Red and White.

"Tomorrow afternoon the Indians (Hartford) will be in the fourth string, playing matches against the strong Hill Towners."

Two Hit For Cycle

York, Pa., May 14 (AP)—One of baseball's great occurrences, like the triple play, comes when a batter hits for the cycle, home run, triple, double and single during the course of one game. It was the rarest of the rare here last night as Reading Indians overpowered Erie in a 10-0 rout in an Eastern League game. Two Reading batters hit for the cycle. Dave Mann had a home run, triple, double and two singles while Paul Jones had a home run, triple, double and a single.

Ducky Skinner Named

New Haven, May 14 (AP)—Morty (Ducky) Skinner was named as the key-hole coach of Lockport, N.Y., in the opening game of the new season. Skinner is a fitting name for the supporting cast. It's another battle of brown vs. white with Metzger, the black-bearded knave of the day.

And the midlets of course in the feature are a rare treat to young and old alike. It will be the best of Ivan the Terrible and Pevensie and the White Witch.

Children will be admitted for half price when accompanied by an adult.

Dusty League Rolloffs

ABA Toot rolled a 3-2 victory over Wilkes Toot in a best-of-three series last night in the final rolloffs of the Dusty Bowling League.
