Washington, June 12 (P)—Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark) offered a "standing invitation" today for Sherman Adams or anyone else to tell Harris' House subcommittee about any improper influence on federal regulatory agencies.

Harris did not specifically name Adams, President Eisenhower's chief assistant, but he said the invitation includes officials of the executive branch.

Harris announced also that "We're going to start building the case" next Monday in an inquiry which so far has featured disputed allegations that Adams pulled strings to help an old friend, Boston industrialist Bernard Gold-fine.

Eileen and Richard Card read the class members' individual histories; Sherri read the history of the class from first grade; Robert ciliott told of the class project which was keeping in personal con-tact with the nearly fifty "Co-lumbians" in the United States; and Marie Haddad told of the class trip to New York. Dancing and refreshments for the graduates and their personal guests in a cafeteria setup in the lower hall, climaxed the evening. The room was decorated with silver and blue. with a floral piece on the refreshment table as a high-light. The Alumni Band played for dancing.

"Why are so many men reluctan little about their wives?" saks WINF-Music for Evening And the reader happens to be a man. He goes on to say that most men think their wives are pretty nice. Otherwise, they wouldn't have married them. "Then why," he wants to know "are most men ashamed to give their wives a build-up? Maybe they tell their wives privately how smart and nice and clever they are and how lucky the men are to have married them. But I know-because I do brag about my wife to others occasionally—that it makes a woman feel mighty good to have her husband let others know h hinks she is just about all right." He's got a point, hasn't he' Somehow or other a lot of me seem to think they appear more of a "regular fellow" if they paint a picture of their wives as extravapractical than if they publicized their wives' talents and virtues. Merger of ODM With CD Voted Washington, June 12 (P)—Democrats on a House subcommittee have given lukewarm endorsement to President Eisenhower's plan for merging the Office of Defense and Civilian Mobilization" under the President. The Democrats said this puts squarely on the President of eral Civil Defense Administration for bolstering Civil Defense.

In a report submitted for approval by the parent Government Operations Committee today, a subcommittee majority headed by Rep. Chet Holifield (D-Calif) favors letting the Eisenhower plan go into effect.

M How To Coddle A Good Egg

The care and feeding of father is not to be taken lightly. It's important to keep him happy at all times, at any cost . . . and this requires much coddling from every member of the family. The best way for mothers to ply fathers is to gorge them with their favorite food. And since it seems to be a universally accepted fact that fathers like to est outdoors, why not have a barbecue for the father in your family on Sunday, or any other day he feels like it. It also seems to be a fatherly trait to show off: . . to feel important. And nothing does more for his ego than to play Chef and prove that he is a better cook than mother. So let father have his fun on Sunday Let him loose at the barbecue pit he's so proud of. It will mean a day of rest for mother in between running numerous errands for the cook, and taking the blame for anything that doesn't turn out as well as expected. It won't hurt to
