Baby Swap Trio Awaiting Charges

Tulsa, Okla., Aug. 11 (47) - The couple which admitted trading their baby and the man who allegedly swapped a pickup truck for the infant remained in fail to-day. All three fact possible child abandonment charges. Detective Walter Turner said last night that a charge of child abandonment has been drawn up against Richard Readdy, 26, Shamokin, Pn., and his wife Helene Margaret Readdy, 20. Turner said that Jesse Lester Burger, 42, of El Dorado Springs. Mo., would probably be charged with conspiring to violate the child abandonment hav abandonment law. The 5-month-old boy, Paul Andrew, was placed in t juvenile shelter.

Jail Matron Mildred Buchanen said that Mrs. Readdy told her she expects another child and i about one month pregnant. Bu a doctor who examined the woman said it is still too early to tell. Mrs. Readdy's father, William Murphy of Shamokin, called Tular police last nigh; and offered to ome to Tulsa if authorities would grant him custody of the child He said it would depend on a Juvenile Court hearing. Tules police officers said the alleged baby swap came about this The Pennsylvania couple-out of
