Hollister Children Found in Bedroom By GORDON TRAYES

The two children of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Hollister of Coventry died when flames swept through their 1-story house in the Bellevue section at 8 a.m. today. Dead are Royce Hollister Jr., 4, and his sister, Virginial 2.

Coventry Medical-Examiner Dr. Robert P. Bowen said the hildren apparently suffocated in their bedroom from intense smoke. He said that burns on their bodies did not appear to be severe enough to have caused death. However, he said he will make an examination later today to be sure of the cause of their-deaths.

A pale ficed Mrs. Hollister, 25, in shock and under sedation. interviewed later at the hospital by Manchester Herald reporter Judith Ahearn, said she thought young Royce might have been playing with matches in the living room just before the fire broke out.

(PBC) is expected this week to start preliminary studies on cost of erection of the 1,200 pupil high school recommended by the Board Education. The action follows approval De 30 for use by the Town Planning and Zoning Commission of town owned property on Ayers Rd. ad-joining the Wapping Elementary School.

A 48-classroom school capable of expansion to handle 1,500 students was recommended to the commit sion by the education board in a 14page report. Also to be included would be areas for offices, a libracafeteria, auditorium, gymnasium and storage. Softball and baseball diamonds two playing fields for soccer and football, one with an outside track, a swimming pool, golfing facilities and a 500-car parking area were proposed as part of the new school stablishment. Also recommended was provision for a large outdoor exercise shed where gym classes could be held in the fall and spring. When the PBC reaches agree ment on how many of these proposals can be included within reasonable cost estimates, preliminar plans will be drawn by the archictural firm of Kane and Fairchild. The commission has already voted to retain these architects be cause of their past service in de signing the Pleasant Valley and Avery St. Elementary Schools. Art Workshop Tonight Tonight at 7:30 the first of four weekly workshops for local artists will be held at the Pleasant Valley Clubhouse on Ellington Rd. under sponsorship of the South Windsor Art League. The sessions will last ntil 9:30, with further workshops scheduled for Jan. 12, 19 and 26 etails may be obtained from Mrs. Robert Staiger. PTA Meets Tomorroy

The Pleasant Valley PTA wil meet tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the school. Program features will in clude short talks by Joel Bahner nusic supervisor; Mrs. Suzanne Bird, art instructor; John Deasy emedial reading teacher; and Eau White, physical education instruc-.
