The Appeals Court withheld for further study a decision on the requests of 26 Negro pupils for transfer to other white schools. Bryan had turned down these requests.

At about the same time, a special 3-judge Federal court issued a permanent injunction prohibiting state officials and Norfolk school authorities from closing any public school or grade solely because of integration while other schools are kept open on a segregated basis.

The injunction was the outgrowth of the court's ruling Monday that struck down the state's special 3-properties.

ITS COMMUNITY APPROACH . . . makes Blue Cross best-

Blue Cross provides hospitalization for a million member cross section of Connecticut people-not merely selected, profitable groups. Small firms as well as the largest have coverage . . . today more than 9,500 Connecticut firms of all sizes offer Blue Cross to their

In addition, more than 400,000 Connecticut people hold nongroup, individual membership on a pay-from-home basis . . . this includes thousands who have enrolled during the periodic, state-wide community enrollments, and thousands of others who have taken Blue Cross membership with them when moving, changing jobs, retiring, etc. This category includes more than 100,000 Connecticut Blue Cross members who are over age 65.

This community approach aids the entire community and our community hospitals. It enables people, regardless of health status or place of employment, to help themselves to health care, thus maintaining the voluntary system of protection against hospital bills.

ITS NON-PROFIT OPERATION . . . makes Blue Cross best-

Blue Cross is completely non-profit. All officers and directors serve without any pay whatsoever in the sole interest of service to Connecticut people. There are no stockholders, no dividends, no bonuses. You get highest possible benefits at lowest possible cost . . . record-low of less than 6¢ of each membership dollar needed to operate the Plan . . . leaves more than 94¢ of each dollar for member

COOPERATION WITH HOSPITALS . . . makes Blue Cross best-

Only Connecticut Blue Cross has cooperative contracts with the 34 community general hospitals. Your Blue Cross card is your passport to the hospital. When you check out of the hospital, your benefits are automatically credited to your bill. No red tape, no costly handling of claims.

UNIQUE MEMBERSHIP PRIVILEGES . . . makes Blue Cross best-

With Blue Cross you receive security of membership. When you retire you can take your Blue Cross membership with you and keep it as long as you wish, regardless of age, regardless of health status. If you leave your job for another, or if you are laid off, you can continue Blue Cross membership. If the head of the family dies, the other family members can continue coverage.

In other words, Blue Cross is there when you need it . . . helping you . . . helping the community.
