Senate Bid To Select Rights Bill

Washington, March 21 (AP)—Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said today he wants the Senate to vote on as many major issues as possible before the House sends it a civil rights bill.

Johnson told an informal news conference that so far as he personally is concerned he hopes the Senate gets to a vote today on a proposal to provide alternative plans for the protection of Negro voting rights.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) and a dozen other members have offered an amendment to pending legislation to accomplish this result.

Johnson said he doesn't know if all Senators are ready to vote.

In advance of Johnson's comments, Sen. Lester Hill (D-Ala.) said he will fight any effort to bring up a House-passed civil rights bill in the Senate without first submitting it to the Senate Judiciary Committee. That committee has been a graveyard for civil rights legislation.

Hill said in a statement that the Senate's rules clearly provide for reference of House bills to the appropriate committee unless they are unopposed in the Senate. But he said he expects an attempt by Republican Vice President Richard M. Nixon and other civil rights backers to "usurp the rules."

Under one method federal district courts could appoint referees to register Negroes qualified under state law and to make sure they were allowed to vote and have their vote counted.

As an alternative, the President could appoint federal enrollment officers to carry out a similar function.

Clark described the amendment as a compromise designed to reconcile the views of those who favor the administration's plan for court-appointed referees and those who advocate the appointment of administrative officers by the President.

In the House, where civil rights legislation also is up for action, backers of the Senate plan predicted its approval there. A vote on it may come tomorrow after

Tiny Fingers 'Talk' in Dark, Silent World

Ursula Bodmer, 8, a Swiss miss whose world is dark and silent feels the face of her nurse and doctor at Perkins School for the Blind, Watertown, Mass., where she has arrived for a special test. The Swiss raised $3,000 to fly deaf-blind tot from Zurich with nurse Anita Utzinger. Dr. Edward J. Waterhouse, Perkins School director places child's fingers on his face to let her know that a new friend has come into her lonely world. School will attempt to see how much the rosy-cheeked, brown-haired child can be taught. (AP Photofax)

Eyes, Ears of Noted Author

Polly Thomson, 75, Dies; Helen Keller's Associate

Bridgeport, March 21 (AP)—Polly Thomson, 75, for many years the eyes and ears of Helen Keller, died last night in Bridgeport Hospital after a long illness.

Miss Thomson became secretary-companion to the blind and deaf writer in 1914. The job evolved into a lifelong friendship. She lived with Miss Keller at the latter's home in Easton, Conn.

Describing how she interpreted to Miss Keller, Miss Thomson once explained:

"Miss Keller holds my right hand loosely with her right hand and I form letters with my fingers. Sometimes, of course, she reads with her fingers on my lips."

They frequently attended the theater together. Miss Thomson was able to interpret at the rate of 85 words a minute, giving essentials of the dialogue and describing the stage settings and movements of the players.

Miss Thomson was the second of Miss Keller's boon companions to die. The first was her teacher, Mrs. Anne Sullivan Macy, who died in 1936.

The three women once formed a household that functioned normally despite varied handicaps, including Mrs. Macy's failing eyesight in her later years.

Reading the morning newspaper was a 3-way proposition. Miss Thomson propped the newspaper in front of her at the breakfast table and read from it. Mrs. Macy listened and passed on the news to Miss Keller with her fingertips.

Today at the breakfast table Miss Keller learned of Miss Thomson's death. A member of the household said the news was withheld from Miss Keller, now 79, until this morning on the advice of her physician.

Mrs. Evelyn Davidson Seide, Miss Keller's secretary said, the news was a shock but that Miss Keller had known her ailing companion "could not get better."

"I believe she is taking it beautifully," Mrs. Seide said.

Chiang Given 3rd Term As Formosan President

Taipei, Formosa, March 21 (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek was reelected without opposition today to a third 6-year term as president of Nationalist China.

Flags of the republic blossomed in Taipei, and firecracker barges were set off throughout the country.

The National Assembly, sitting as the nation's electoral college, gave the 73-year-old leader a rousing 1,481 votes out of 1,509 ballots cast. The remaining 28 ballots were blank—an anti-Chiang expression—and were declared invalid.

This amounted to 98.14 per cent of the ballots, far more than Chiang received in his previous two elections. He won 88 per cent of the vote when he was first elected in Nanking in 1948 and 95 per cent in Taipei in 1954.

As an unopposed candidate, he needed only 759 votes for election. As soon as this number was reached, announcement of the reelection was broadcast over the nation's radios.

Chiang, although a member of the National Assembly, was not present for the balloting.

The National Assembly will meet again tomorrow to elect Vice President Chen Cheng to his second term. He also is unopposed.

The President and his running mate will be inaugurated on May 20.

The Nationalist constitution prohibits a third term for the president, but in order to keep Chiang in office the prohibition was suspended until the national regime recaptures the Communist-held mainland.

Chiang and Chen, 62, have much in common.

Both are strong men, unwavering in their determination to hold the offshore islands and not to talk peace with the Chinese Communists.

Both are military men. Chiang wears five stars as the generalissimo, while Chen is entitled to wear four as a general first grade. But Chen has vowed that he will not don his uniform again until nationalist forces invade the mainland.

Both are natives of the seaboard province of Chekiang. Both have fought against the warlords, the Japanese and against the Chinese Communists.

Chiang has been top man in China since the death in 1925 of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, founder of the Republic of China.

Chiang first met Chen in 1923. Then commanding revolutionary forces in the South China province of Kwangtung, Chiang visited a hospital and was introduced to then-Capt. Chen, who had been wounded in battle.

The next year Chiang, as commander of the newly formed Whampoa Military Academy, invited Chen to be an instructor. There Chen for the first time met a political instructor named Chou En-lai, now the premier of Communist China.

Chen's rise was rapid.

At the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese war in 1937 he was commander of the 15th Group Army. In 1943 he was made commander of the Expeditionary Chinese Forces assigned to link up in Burma with Allied forces from India.

The next year he was made minister of war and in 1946 became chief of the general staff and, somewhat piquantly for a general, also commander in chief of the

State News Roundup

Hartford, March 21 (AP)—The New England Regional Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has set Saturday as the day for peaceful demonstration picketing of New England's Kresge, Woolworth, Grant and Kress Variety Stores. The picketing is scheduled for Hartford and other New England cities.

C. Roy Jackson, of Hartford, vice president of the New England region, said the picket decision was made Saturday at a meeting in Boston. He said the picketing will be followed next Monday with a "sustained boycott" of the stores here by Negro customers.

All local branches of NAACP were asked by regional officials to hold mass meetings Friday night to set up their plans for the picketing. Hartford's branch of East Hartford has scheduled a policy meeting tonight at 8 at St. Benedict's center.

Reason for the picketing and boycott is the refusal of chain variety stores in the South to allow Negroes to sit at lunch counters in the stores, although they are free to spend their money in all other departments of the stores.

Managers of three Hartford stores that would be affected by the picketing and boycotting said today they have no planned action.

Estimates for the NAACP picketing activities will have on sales ranged from "a pretty big loss" to almost nil.

Foster Homes Wanted

Hartford, March 21 (AP)—The State Welfare Department wants help in finding foster and adopted homes, particularly for children of Negro, Puerto Rican and mixed parentage.

Dr. Bernard Shapiro, the welfare commissioner, told a meeting of the Hartford Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People yesterday that his department was using many means to find these homes.

These include communication media, recruitment meetings and individual contact. Shapiro said he told the 200 NAACP workers at the group's annual symposium that they could help in the search.

"Unless a community is concerned, enough Negro children will not get

Sen. Kennedy Bars Debate

Indianapolis, March 21 (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), a Catholic, entered his seventh presidential primary today and brushed aside a debate challenge from a picketing Protestant group.

The Kennedy party reached the Indiana statehouse this morning to enter the Indiana primary and found a group identifying themselves as Baptists. The group carried a sign which read:

"Sen. Kennedy we challenge you to a public debate."

The pickets, led by D. Hendon M. Harris Jr. of Bloomington, Indiana, passed out leaflets listing this debate topic: "Resolved: That a Roman Catholic president cannot impartially defend the constitution and advance the true welfare of the United States while remaining true to his religion."

Kennedy accepted one of the leaflets with a smile but did not comment at that time. Asked about the demonstration at a news conference later, the Senator said:

"I think they're entitled to their view and their opinion. I believe

Negroes Plan Store Boycotts To Erase Bias

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The eighth week of Negro anti-segregation demonstrations began in the South today with no sign of an immediate solution in sight.

Authorities appeared more than ever determined to maintain law and order. Negroes—especially the younger ones—showed growing impatience with the slowness of court action in furthering equality.

Boycotting of stores operating segregated lunch counters was proposed by Negro groups in Savannah, Ga., and Lynchburg, Va.

At Durham, N. C., the Rev. Douglas E. Moore announced lunch counter protest leaders will hold a southwide meeting in Raleigh April 15-17.

In Florida, however, Gov. Leroy Collins said he thought it was "unfair and morally wrong" for a department store owner not to allow Negroes to patronize one part of the store while being permitted to trade in other sections.

The governor delivered a statewide radio and television address yesterday to try to calm racial tensions stemming from sit-downs in several Florida cities.

Collins conceded the department store owner has a legal right to single out one department "and say he does not want or will not allow Negroes to patronize that one department. But I still don't think a hostile atmosphere that right with moral, simple justice."

Bonsal Returns To Cuba, Gets Cheers of 500

Havana, March 21 (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Philip Bonsal got a cheering welcome back from 500 Cubans yesterday but ran into a hostile barrage of anti-American blasts from two top Castro government officials.

Arriving with a smile, the American envoy made no mention of finding the official atmosphere as hostile as when he left Havana in a protest two months ago.

"I am glad to be here," Bonsal told an airport crowd that included some foreign diplomats. Premier Fidel Castro's government did not send an official representative, but this was not unusual.

About 500 Cubans burst into the plane. Shouts of "Viva Bonsal" and "Welcome to Cuba" rang out as he walked to his limousine. There also were a few shouts of

Court Upsets Fine For Negro Dancer

Washington, March 21 (AP)—The Supreme Court today unanimously struck down a $10 fine for loitering and a $10 fine for disorderly conduct imposed on a Negro in Louisville, Ky., police court.

Justice Black delivered the decision which said the record was "entirely lacking in evidence" to support any charges against the Negro, Sam Thompson.

Thompson contended he was only shuffling his feet to the music of a juke box in a cafe when he was arrested. He complained that Louisville Police were out to get him because he had hired a lawyer to contest an earlier disorderly charge. Counsel for the city denied this and said Thompson had a record of eight convictions for drunkenness in a year's time.

Counsel for Thompson said he was arrested Jan. 24, 1959, while waiting for a bus to take him home. He waited in a small tavern, the Liberty End Cafe, where he said he had bought a dish of macaroni and a glass of beer.

Police said they entered the tavern for a routine inspection and

12,000 Riot Over Bias; 100 Injured

Vereniging, South Africa, March 21 (AP)—Twelve thousand African Negroes protesting the white government's compulsory pass system besieged a police station today. Officers inside opened fire with rifles and machine guns. Eyewitnesses said the front ranks of the crowd went down like tents.

Unofficial reports placed the number of dead at 34. Brig. C. J. Els of the Witwatersrand Police gave a figure of 30 dead and 100 wounded—and said that was a conservative estimate.

Later, police officials upped the estimate of dead to "nearly 50."

One police officer described the scene as "a world war battlefield—Bodies lay mangled and sprawled all around. A Johannesburg news photographer commented: "I took pictures of more bloodshed than I have ever before seen in South Africa."

The barrage drove back the crowd, leaving dead and wounded in the streets. Police called in armored cars and jet fighter planes to break up the demonstration.

Reds Ask Research Of Subsurface Shots

Geneva, March 21 (AP)—Russia's Secretary K. Tsarapkin said today his proposed moratorium on small underground nuclear tests should remain in force for an initial period of four or five years.

Tsarapkin said the United States, Britain and Russia should consult at the end of this period if a joint research program by them had failed to produce a method for policing underground tests.

But he stressed that he was "very optimistic" the scientists would produce results within four or five years.

Tsarapkin gave this estimate in clarification of the dramatic 2-point proposal he introduced into the 16-month-old 3-nation talks Saturday. The two inter-related parts of Tsarapkin's proposal were:

1. The Soviet Union would accept President Eisenhower's plan for a treaty banning only those nuclear tests which can be policed with existing scientific methods.

2. In return, the United States and Britain would join Russia in a moratorium—a promise to refrain from conducting the small underground tests not explicitly banned by the treaty—while conducting scientific research to extend detection methods in the underground environment.

The partial ban was first proposed by President Eisenhower on Feb. 11. Western sources said that the Russians actually favor safety provisions acceptable to the U.S. and British governments, the 17-month-old nuclear test ban conference may be on the threshold of achieving a treaty.

For Benefit of Aged House Split on Adding U.S. Paid Health Care

Washington, March 21 (AP)—A year political pressures for broadening social security benefits.

Forand said today he will try to by-pass House leaders and go directly to the Senate if necessary to bring his government-old age hospitalization bill directly to the floor.

Forand gave the Ways and Means Committee an April 1 ultimatum, saying:

"I have served notice that I will file a discharge petition by April 1 if I don't get some favorable action on my bill. One way or another, I'm going to get a vote this session."

Signatures of a majority of the 437 House members would be necessary to bring the issue directly to a floor vote without committee action.

Forand's bill would provide up to 120 days a year of government-paid hospital and nursing home care for old-age social security winners. It would be financed by an additional 1/2 per cent social security payroll tax.

The Ways and Means Committee is considering a number of other social security law revisions—chief among them being repeal of the requirement that disabled workers must be 50 years old before they can qualify for disability

Census Takers To Get Assist From Postmen

Washington, March 21 (AP)—Postmen give a lift to census takers this week, deliver advance questionnaires for the 1960 census to every occupied dwelling in the land.

Sixty million copies of the 4-page form have been ordered to 35,000 Post Office. The Census Bureau is paying the Post Office Department about 2 cents to handle each piece or a total of $1,200,000.

The forms are to go into the mail next Friday and Saturday. Every household should get a copy by next Monday. Each postman will get a stack of the undelivered forms, enough to leave one at every dwelling on his route.

Each family is to fill out the form before the arrival of the census taker. The census begins April 1, and will continue through the month. Most families will be visited during the first two weeks of April.

The census taker will copy on forms of his own the information given on the advance form. The idea behind the advance questionnaire is to give everyone time to ponder the questions and provide accurate information.

In past censuses, questions have been asked on the spot and many people were unable to give accurate answers on the spur of the moment.

The government believes that there are about 35 million occupied dwellings in the country. However, mailmen are being given 60 million advance forms so there will be no shortage.

Some Post Offices jumped the gun and delivered the forms last week. This was a mistake but census officials say no damage was done.

On the first page of the form is a message from census director
