Senate Rejects Limit On Vote by Negroes

The Senate planned to vote on this after returning from a joint session of the House to hear an address by President Albert Lieras of Colombia.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga). leader of the Dixie forces, discounted talk that the Senate was verging on passage of the measure.

He did not, however, rule out the possibility that the Senate might complete action and send the bill back to the House by the end of the week.

A 14-hour session yesterday produced only one vote. By a 64-29 tally, the Senate rejected an court-appointed referees to prevent discrimination against Ne-grows seeking to register to vote. Elliender contended that the bill would "infringe on rights aperate ally guaranteed to the states." He said it would give the fedvral government, acting under suits brought by the altorney general, "a power to medify, to alter, to abolish state voter qualification standards."

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said he would move to table and thus kill Ellender's motion as soon as he got a chance. But no vote was in prospect before midafternoon.

Dirksen said that both Eisenhower and Atty, Gen. William P.
