More taxpayers each year are finding that their expenditures for deductible items such as contributions, taxes, interest and medical expenses have increased to such an extent that it pays them to itemize deductions rather than use the so-called standard deduction.

CONTRACT DEFENDS ON OPENING LEAD

Which suit would you rather lead—four cards headed by the jack or four cards headed by the queen? It's almost a toss-up when you have nothing to guide you, but a choice of this kind made quite a difference in the recent national pair championship.

Many pairs reached the ambitious game in hearts when North unexpectedly made a second response. North should pass two hearts and be satisfied with a good day's work.

The fate of the game contract depends largely on West's opening lead. Should he lead a low diamond or a low club?

South makes the game if West leads a diamond. East wins with the ace of diamonds and returns his low trump. South puts up the king and West wins with the ace. West's best defense is to return his low trump, and East's best defense is to return his low trump.

Answer: Bid two clubs. In the average game it doesn't pay to respond in a suit as weak as the hearts.

West discards, since he cannot gain by ruffing. Dummy's ruff sets up the rest of the spades. South leads a low spade toward dummy's last trump.

Rockville-Vernon Rotary Hears NHRR Official

Give 'Other Side' of Story

A business that loses $1 million a month cannot long stand. Rockville Rotarians were told yesterday by a spokesman for the National Highway Traffic Safety Council, that that is essentially the situation facing the New Haven Railroad today.

A. Joseph Powers, a representative of the New Haven Railroad, said, however, that a combination of long-shutdown rail cars and continuous efforts to make operations more efficient will help to pull the railroad out of the doldrums.

He said a cursory appraisal of the railroad's financial situation is being made by the Federal Reserve Bank. It is the most realistic approach to driver education.

The Rotarians were shown a year book published by the North-Haven School, the first elementary school year book in the system. It is the most realistic approach to driver education.

Rockville-Vernon Vote on Revised District Due When 'Time Right' Vice Says

Conservative factions in the Vermont District plan to bring to referendum a proposal to revise the district government. A petition calling for the referendum will be filed "when the time is right," a spokesman said today.

Loew V. Vice, chairman of the Vermont Taxpayer Bureau Inc., said the petition, which was being circulated two months ago, is "all ready."

He indicated it will be submitted some time in June or early July, prior to the annual district meeting. The number of signatures was 750 to 1,000 members, he said. He talked optimistically of the chances for the proposal and said the Vermont Independent party, which he is a member, will have a full slate of officers ready for election to the new government.

The petition will call for a referendum on a plan to replace the current board of commissioners by a president-board of directors form of government with broader powers than now exist.

If successful, the proposal would effectively separate the Vermont Fire District from the City of Rockville and would further move toward consolidation of Vermont's three governments.

The rural Vermont group has maintained that unification would produce a "dictatorship" in the town. The charter study committee is proposing a mayor-board of directors form of government with a full-time administrative assistant responsible to the director.

The committee is awaiting action on the enabling act now before the legislature. The act would empower the committee to place a single-government charter before the voters for approval as soon as possible but with an outside limit of Sept. 1.

Rockville-Vernon Independents Plan to Join National Unit

The Vermont Independent Party (VIP), registered in Connecticut, will affiliate with the proposed National Independent Party (NIP) when and if it is formed, according to Loew V. Vice.

A VIP member, Vice said the local party is strongly considering sending a representative to a rally of the self-applied NIP in Chicago Thursday through Saturday.

He said he has entertained thoughts of making the trip himself, but will not know definitely until the middle of the week. The rally, reportedly to be attended by representatives from conservative and ultra-right-wing groups in various states, is scheduled to be held at Chicago's Merit Hotel, Vice said.

The only theme, he said, is "Keep America for the Americans by all effective government." A target of the independents, he added, is the "reactionary in the two old parties."

He said he has been informed that representatives from about half the 60 states are definitely signed up to attend.

Among them is Congressman Edgar Hiestand of California, who has figured in recent Communist debate on the controversial John Birch Society, an anti-Communist organization.

Hiestand voiced support of the party, but said it should be investigated to satisfy the public curiosity.

Vice said there are no representatives from Connecticut to his knowledge listed yet as attending. He said a great many taxpayers' associations in Connecticut towns are sympathetic to the NIP cause, although they are not themselves registered independent groups as is the VIP.

Vice is chairman of the Vermont Taxpayer Bureau Inc., a separate organization.

WILLIAM P. QUISH Funeral Service MANCHESTER, CONN.

Dear friends,
The general public is interested, we believe, in funeral costs. Unfortunately, the expensive funerals are most apt and that creates a wrong impression.

The question of price should always be governed by the family's finances. The selection can be high, medium, or low, and the decision is left entirely with the family. We earnestly discourage extravagance.

Respectfully,
Directors
W. P. Quish

after his victory, the great effort to limit the right of the defeated Germany to manufacture and maintain armaments. And each time, the victors have been divided into two camps, one coalition which won the war has split into new factions playing power politics against one another. This was the vote which the victors have taken it upon itself to authorize Germany to violate the armistice restrictions on the production of armaments.

This has all happened twice now, and we are beginning to think it would happen forever. Apparently, it is the way of the world, and who wants to change anything as fundamental as that?

Our quarrel is with the victors, not with the vanquished. The victors are the ones who are to be blamed. This, for instance, is the lead paragraph of a recent news story from Bonn:

"Bonn's close ties to the Government expressed confidence today that West Germany would accept permission to raise the 3,000 tons of its naval ships to 4,000 tons."

Later on the news story reports that "Naval experts are offered to feel that a destroyer of only 3,000 tons deadweight is too small to accommodate surface missiles."

West Germany expects this permission to come from the Western European Union, the organization of France, Belgium, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Britain and Germany. The Union is the special peace treaty which West Germany has signed.

A little less than 30 years ago, Germany was a little bigger than the terms of the peace treaty would allow. It was a little bigger than the terms of the peace treaty would allow. It was a little bigger than the terms of the peace treaty would allow.

The secret balloting in the State Court by a handsome score of 188 to 5. And its significance was that some Litchfield County legislators had now combined with the State Court to support Judge Walter Sidor for a new term on the Common Pleas. This was one of the balloting boxes somebody introduced an ornate piece of ballot stuffing, obviously intended to be noticed and denounced, since the group of no ballots involved were held together in one bunch by an elastic band. The elastic band was used to knock out of Republican State Chairman Ed Schaefer's respective judgment deal with Democratic Judge Sidor.

The House then began balloting on the final judgment nomination of the day, that of Judge Walter Sidor for a new term on the Common Pleas. This was one of the balloting boxes somebody introduced an ornate piece of ballot stuffing, obviously intended to be noticed and denounced, since the group of no ballots involved were held together in one bunch by an elastic band. The elastic band was used to knock out of Republican State Chairman Ed Schaefer's respective judgment deal with Democratic Judge Sidor.

A Thought for Today
 Sponsored by the Manchester Council of Churches

What Are We Good For? Every one in a while I read in the papers about somebody who has lived over a hundred years. I don't think that's very much. Just to live a certain number of years may be no credit to you whatsoever. Look at the crocodile. Whether a human is worth the room he occupies on earth does not depend on the years he lives, but on the good he does while here. That's all, and nobody will ever make that truth different, no matter how he tries. Of course when you talk about a machine you are liable to ask, "How long will it last, but when you consider man you ask, "What's he good for?" The man who gets but never gives, said a poet, "may last for years but never lives." Probably that's one of the things that's been wrong with the race all along. Most of us have been in the business of taking all we can get and nobody is at all interested in giving anything worth giving away—very practically nobody.

Blamed for Death
 Hartford, April 11 (AP)—County Commissioner Lewis Schaefer has blamed the carelessness of a woman for the death of her husband.

Schaefer said yesterday Mrs. Jeanette L. Hoffman "undoubtedly" failed to put her car into gear, Feb. 23 and permitted the vehicle to roll down a driveway into a snow bank. Mrs. Hoffman's husband, Mr. Mary A. Kubacki, 49, died in the Meriden, the only occupant in the car, was dragged 80 feet while rolling.

Sounds Nice When It Stops

Soviet Russia runs such a continuous buzz saw in world affairs, speculation in the United Nations, ranging about everything, that it can make quite an impression on the mind. It is a little like a buzz saw, but it is a little like a buzz saw, but it is a little like a buzz saw.

Frabulous Day

President Kennedy took another big whack at the choking underbrush of American living the other day. He took a whack at it with a grand total of 41 committees. With one flick of his pen, he abolished the Federal Advisory Committee on the Economy, which had gone into the original conceiving, organizing, setting up, staffing, financing, and finally the actual meeting of these committees. With that same flick of the pen, he decreed that all this needless effort should proceed no longer.

Captain Hints At Sabotage in Ship Disaster

burning through under my feet. I reboarded but was forced off again. Then I was hit by falling debris in the sea.

"I reboarded the Dars and was forced off a third time."

Later he returned to help firefighters.

In London, the British India Steam Navigation Co. announced revised casualty figures.

"The announcement said that latest reports, though still subject for confirmation, indicated 770 persons were aboard the Dars as it lay off the Arabian port of Dubai Saturday. The company said that 680 had been accounted for, leaving 190 missing and feared lost."

Tonight in Bahrain, a Royal Air Force spokesman announced that the search for additional survivors from the Dars has been abandoned.

London, April 11 (AP)—A British survivor of the sunken liner Dars suggested today that sabotage might have caused the ship's loss.

"The 5,000-ton vessel was swept by fire off the Oman coast of the Arabian peninsula early Saturday. Survivors from the 772 passengers and crewmen reported hearing explosions before and after the fire took hold. The ship sank while being towed."

The Times man, who was not identified in accordance with the paper's custom, said:

"One Pakistani survivor told me he smelled gunpowder soon after the explosion, and he quoted a previous occasion when a bomb exploded in the sultan of Muscat's cabin when he was bound for Bombay."

"Others remembered the disappearance of a Gulf aviation Dakota some months ago, when it was later found that Amiri rebels carried the explosives on board the aircraft."

Five Projects Halted By Hod Carrier Strike

Five major construction projects in Manchester have been brought almost to a halt by the strike of union construction workers, members of the International Hod Carriers, Builders and Common Laborers Union.

The projects affected are the housing project for the elderly on W. Middle Tpk., the technical school on W. Middle Tpk., the church of the Assumption Junior High School on W. Center St. and the addition to Mary Cheney Library.

A spokesman for the Horn Construction Co. said the housing project for the elderly has only a few plumbers and one earthmover on the job.

Workers who did not show up this morning included carpenters, laborers, cement finishers and steel workers, he said.

If the union should throw up a picket line, he said, that will spell the end of work on the 20-cent-per-hour in the wage offer. It had not been "put on the table" yet by the contractors.

The union has asked for 20 cents per hour with an additional 10 cents in position benefits. The last contract boosted the rate from $2.50 to $2.80 per hour.

The first man to die in an airplane crash was Army Lt. Thomas H. Selfridge, who perished in a crash at Ft. Myer Va., in 1908.

Memorial Group Picks Chairmen

Subcommittee chairmen were named and preliminary plans for Memorial Day observances were discussed last night by the Fernald Memorial Day Committee at its first meeting for the year in the Municipal Building.

James Blair and Henry Eckett were named as the committee's chairman and the late Herbert House and the late Raymond Gossett.

The group accepted with regret the resignation of Donald H. Ingway as vice chairman, but did not name a successor.

Subcommittee heads are Wells Shearer, flowers; Everett Kennedy, flag; Harold Beebe, transportation; Willie Pitkin, music; and Julian Strong, scout participation.

Committee members discussed briefly what steps might be taken to cut down on congestion at Monument Park when the parade pauses there while a wreath is laid on the monument. Further discussion on ceremonies to honor the nation's war dead will be held when the committee meets again April 24.

NEHO Insurance Company

A woman sees things differently. So it was my own idea to spell out NEHO in this light and feminine way.

For people who live in New England and upper New York state, NEHO stands for Prudential's NORTHEASTERN HOME OFFICE — located in Boston. Along with six other regional offices, NEHO is part of a decentralization plan that helps Prudential serve its policyholders with neighborly understanding.

Why the woman's touch to the lettering? That's to symbolize Prudential's modern new plan — the Woman's Exclusive. For single women the plan builds up a substantial nest egg, helps make retirement years independent and secure. Married women like the plan because it helps protect their children, just as their husband's insurance does. And this unique policy takes advantage of the lower insurance rates for women.

Ask your Prudential agent for full details about the Woman's Exclusive — welcome him when he calls.

Adenauer Flies For First Talk With Kennedy

any hope for agreement with the Soviets.

"I can understand that the new administration is making serious efforts to determine if the Russians really want to negotiate," Adenauer said. "And I can also imagine that at such a stage the turning of NATO into a fourth nuclear power might be post-poned."

He said he was confident that President Kennedy will provide the strong leadership necessary in NATO.

"There is no reason why our discussions will not be good and fruitful," Adenauer declared, pointing out that basic U.S. foreign policy has remained the same since the Truman administration.

"Kennedy's policies are even more outspoken because the East-West conflict has become stronger," Adenauer said, indicating he was pleased that the new administration does not intend to be soft toward the Soviets.

He said the West's big goal is to keep the Soviets from being given in repeatedly to Soviet pressures and that this must stop.

The two government chiefs also are expected to discuss the Communist-surrounded Berlin and European Democratic Party.

Adenauer's Christian Democratic party said the Washington talks will be expected to result in "clarification and mutual agreement in many areas." Speculation about cooling of relations between the United States and West Germany is still continuing here and is light after Dr. Adenauer's visit.

This appeared to be a reference to recent U.S. disavowal with measures proposed by Bonn to help ease the drain on U.S. dollar and gold reserves. The U.S. Government has not yet agreed to do so, but negotiations are still continuing here and the climate has improved.

The opposition Social Democrats said it appeared Adenauer's government had not prepared for the meeting between the "old chieftain" and the young President.

The Socialists said it was clear that official thinking in Washington has changed although the Adenauer government does not want to change it.

Adenauer will remain two additional days in Washington after his talks with Kennedy, then go to Texas for a brief visit with Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Tomassi Quits TDC, Would Dissolve Unit

Robert S. Tomassi last night tendered his letter of resignation as chairman of the Town Development Commission, post he held since November 1959.

Richard S. Tibbitts, TDC executive director, read the letter given him by Tomassi yesterday afternoon.

Tomassi, Democrat, also recommended that the TDC be dissolved and that a new three-man commission be formed with the Chamber of Commerce, the Development Foundation and the Board of Directors each electing one of the three members.

Cummings said the commission has suffered in recent months at the hands of both General Manager Richard Martin and the Republican majority of the board of directors.

Martin's failure to notify Chairman Tomassi of the proposed dissolution until last meeting, three Republican members voted against Tomassi to eliminate Tibbitts' salary from the 1961-62 budget was uncalled for, said Cummings. So also was the firing of Tibbitts' secretary from the commission, thereby undermining the commission as well as Tibbitts' work.

"There's been an a m a s i g amount of politics behind the scenes," said Cummings. "Martin wanted to get rid of Tibbitts. Whether Martin worked with the Republicans I do not know."

Cummings concluded by saying he hoped the work of Tibbitts and the commission would be taken up by a new commission.

McLean Arrested On Break Counts

The final arrest has been made by Manchester police in connection with a series of robberies that occurred between Christmas and early February.

Mervin McLean, 22, of 281 Center St., was picked up in New York City yesterday by Det. Sgt. Joseph Sartor and Det. Thomas Graham, where he was served with a warrant which charges him with two counts of breaking and entering with criminal intent, and with larceny.

McLean was brought back to Manchester where he was released under $1,000 bond for appearance in Circuit Court, Manchester, on April 24.

Police said McLean was a companion to the cases of Andrew Klisicki, 18, of 785 E. Middle Type, Raymond P. Miller Jr., 19, of 810 Tolland Type, and Junior E. Stout, 21, of 88 E. Center St.

Capt. Walter R. Casella Sr. said McLean accompanied Klisicki, Hill and Stout late on the night of Feb. 3 and early on the morning of Feb. 4 in breaks into Sullivan's Fruit Stand at 200 W. Center St. and into the New Model Laundry at 15 Summit St.

Klisicki and Hill are now serving jail terms for their parts in these and other breaks. Stout was given a suspended sentence, and Miller's case has yet to be disposed of.

5-YEAR PROBATION

Hartford, April 11 (AP)—U.S. District Court Judge Robert F. Anderson yesterday sentenced Nicholas Johnson, 22, of 408 Main St., New Britain, to a suspended 18-month prison term for forging the name of the club Rogers, 73, club manager of the club died yesterday. He was with the club for five years.

"Tibbitts, who will serve in that capacity until July 1, asked for an explanation, which I was never formally told," he said. "Why the town manager and commissioner were dissatisfied with my performance."

"All I seem to find out about what is going on is what I read in the newspaper," Tibbitts told the commission last night.

Jack Mercer, Harlan Taylor and Mark Kravitz were the members at last night's meeting. They agreed to hold an executive session in the near future to discuss, with Tibbitts, reasons for his release.

Tibbitts revealed last night that he plans for the near future, a trip to New York, Philadelphia and the Midwest, where he has Columbia Grauge had a charming guest recently—an iffy-fascinating story of his summer in Holland last year as an International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE) student.

The IFYE, as 4-1 club members know them, are part of a two-way exchange between the United States and countries throughout the world. Under the program, sponsored by the Department of Agriculture through its 4-H clubs, young farm people are sent abroad to live and work with farm families. Similarly, youth from abroad visit in this country.

Writing of Andrew's visit to Columbia Grauge, Eleanor Tuttle, The Herald-Columbia correspondent, said his talk, illustrated with color slides was inspiring.

Andrew, she said, found only one really big difference between living in Holland and in the United States... the language. But this was mitigated for him by the ability of his host family to speak English.

The ability of Europeans to speak several languages is his host almost certainly must have been facile in both German and French, too often makes us feel like a foreigner. But when it comes to a boundary in the United States meant to separate two different worlds, it doesn't matter very much what else we do well.

1961 Pennant Predictions Yanks and Dodgers

By EARL YOST
Herald Sports Editor

Signs of spruce... Arrival of the first robins... Pussy-willows and crocuses in bloom... Longer daylight hours... Home owners cleaning up their yards of winter's debris... Children playing baseball in vacant lots or trying out last year's roller skates... For sale signs going up on more houses every day... Young mothers bringing out their new athletic displays...

to the Connecticut Yankee in the six games that I saw them play as mentioned above, throw the ball and lose spring record out of the window. When freshman skipper Ralph Houk, called upon by regulars plus front line pitching, the Bombers looked and played like the Yankees of old.

Each spring I am impressed more and more with the New York system of training. Everything is clocked and there is little wasted effort and little, if any, time lost on the bench and in the clubhouse. The Yankees are ready to go all the way. The club battled the Yanks down to the final month of the season before being set back on their heels by the Red Sox. The Yankees are ready to go all the way. The club battled the Yanks down to the final month of the season before being set back on their heels by the Red Sox.

Most average fans pick one club in the spring, change over in mid-June and down the stretch when the pennant is decided, go to the band wagon of the stretch winner by listing, in print, his selection.

Form charts show New York will win 100 games and lose 60. It won't be a predicting mood, it is a selection mood. The Yankees are ready to go all the way. The club battled the Yanks down to the final month of the season before being set back on their heels by the Red Sox.

Over in the National League, this time around without any help from the crystal ball or long distance communication from Major Hoople, I'll go out on the limb again and pick New York in the American League and Los Angeles in the National.

When the Yanks and Dodgers hook up in the 1961 World Series it will be the first for the two teams. In the past, the Dodgers were West. However, the Bronx Bombers and the former Flushing Fielders regular series opponents have won times in the past 19 years.

Los Angeles and San Francisco Stadium and Ebbets Field were played in 1941-42-43-44-45-46-47-48-49-50-51-52-53-54-55-56-57-58-59-60-61.

Falling from first to fourth place in 1960, the Dodgers never-theless can look back on a World Series in 1959 when they defeated Milwaukee in a play-off and then went on to bomb the Chicago White Sox in the American League.

During my recent travels around the Grapefruit League camps in Florida I managed to see 13 clubs in action, missing only the Chicago Cubs, Boston Red Sox, Cleveland Indians, Kansas City Royals and San Francisco Giants who set up training bases in Arizona.

St. Louis is the only club in the Grapefruit League that has a manager who has won a World Series. The Yankees have won seven, the Dodgers five, the Red Sox three, the Boston Red Sox two, the St. Louis Cardinals one, and the New York Yankees one.

Warren Spahn and Red Burdette, to win. However, the new double-play combo must function top speed. Roy McMillan and Frank Bolling, Detroit's ace and backup, are starting pitchers and need a centerfielder. Look for a trade shortly with either both posts being filled.

CHICAGO has good balance, plus pitching and hitting. The Sox tumbled from first to third in one week with the same team and manager. Los Angeles and San Francisco are the only clubs in the American League who set up training bases in Arizona.

NEW YORK, as was the case last spring, played possum in Florida. Regulars were used sparingly and new manager Houk gave the green room to rookies. The Yankees have won seven, the Dodgers five, the Red Sox three, the Boston Red Sox two, the St. Louis Cardinals one, and the New York Yankees one.

DETROIT needs infielders even if the Red Sox pitching staff is fair with Frank Lary and Jim Bunning and the outfield of A. Kille, Bill Britton and Roger Colavito may be the best in baseball.

KANSAS CITY won't finish last for the simple reason that two new clubs have been added.

LOS ANGELES should be better than Washington thanks to Bob Foy, Ed Yost and Ted Kluszewski.

Sharman, Sanders Key To Celts' Wrapup Win

Washington, April 11 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox, who have been Dick Donovan's best players, today won their eighth straight game, currently holding the most dangerous Hawks' backcourt man, rookie Lenmy Williams.

Donovan, shifted out from manager's position to Chicago in the American League's expansion draft, today pitched a high, hard, hard peg that brought the Sox to a 4-1 victory over the White Sox yesterday.

Donovan's second loss was his first since he was fired from the White Sox. The Yankees have won seven, the Dodgers five, the Red Sox three, the Boston Red Sox two, the St. Louis Cardinals one, and the New York Yankees one.

Praying Helped Champ, Master Around Greens

Augusta, Ga., April 11 (AP)—Gary Player of South Africa, first foreigner ever to win the storied Masters Golf Tournament, is a long hitter for a small man. He also has a master's touch on and around the greens.

Player finished some 30 minutes ahead of Palmer with a closing 240. That was when Palmer seemed to have lost his patience and played a series of floundering shots.

Player's second stroke was a 282. Player seemingly had the tournament sewed up when Gary bogeyed the 18th hole on the 19th green.

Machen Scores Clear-Cut Verdict Over DeJohn, Wants Floyd Next

San Francisco, April 11 (AP)—"I was asked to prove my right sound and latched him with solid lefts and rights. But he couldn't put the New Yorker down. Late in the bout, some of the dejection, Machen seemed to keep out of trouble."

DeJohn, a number six-ranked contender from Syracuse, N.Y., was knocked out by Machen in the fourth round. Machen's victory was a clear-cut one, as he dominated the fight from the start.

Donovan Impresses In Opening Defeat

Washington, April 11 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox, who have been Dick Donovan's best players, today won their eighth straight game, currently holding the most dangerous Hawks' backcourt man, rookie Lenmy Williams.

Donovan, shifted out from manager's position to Chicago in the American League's expansion draft, today pitched a high, hard, hard peg that brought the Sox to a 4-1 victory over the White Sox yesterday.

Donovan's second loss was his first since he was fired from the White Sox. The Yankees have won seven, the Dodgers five, the Red Sox three, the Boston Red Sox two, the St. Louis Cardinals one, and the New York Yankees one.
