Cites Flights in Laos Reds Say U.S. Violated Truce

Vientiane, Laos, June 13 (AP)—A battalion-sized attack by pro-Communist rebels on a government-held village 40 miles north-northeast of Pakxane was reported today.

The rebel infantry attack took place yesterday and outnumbered government troops withdrawn, informed military sources said. While more details on the attack were lacking, it appeared to be the second major cease-fire violation following the rebel assault and capture of Padong June 7.

Geneva, June 13 (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko today blamed U.S. and Royal Lao forces for violations of the cease-fire in Laos.

Speaking at the International Conference on Laos, Gromyko declared that U.S. planes over rebel-held territory in the little jungle kingdom had been seen to supply Royal Lao detach-

Plus Payroll Taxes Jobless Pay Boost Sought by Kennedy

Washington, June 13 (AP)—President Kennedy proposed to Congress today a broad expansion of the unemployment compensation system to increase the amount and duration of benefits and the payroll taxes to pay for them.

Kennedy called for the most extensive overhaul of the jobless insurance plan that has been proposed since it was enacted as part of a social security drive in the Roosevelt New Deal.

Most of the suggested changes are long-range in character. They wouldn't go into effect for several years, some not until 1968. This gives Congress plenty of time to take a long hard look at the proposals.

The program was accompanied by administration statements that the federal-state unemployment compensation system has long been in need of reform. It was stated that the system has proved its worth through the years, since enactment in 1935, not only in helping idle workers but in bolstering the economy in bad times.

No cost figures were immediately announced, nor was there any estimate of the amount of additional revenue that would be raised by the proposed higher payroll taxes.

Here are the highlights of Kennedy's proposals:

1. The present temporary plan of extending an extra 13 weeks of benefits to out-of-job workers would be made permanent.
2. The President would be empowered during recessions to extend and lower extra benefits to all workers, even those without a long work history.
3. These provisions would go into effect in mid-1962 when the present temporary benefit extension legislation expires.
4. Government workers under a grant program would pay two-thirds the cost of their unemployment insurance.
5. A state which would go into effect in 1962.
6. Beginning in 1964 about 35 million more workers would be brought under the system, bringing total coverage to about 50 million. This would be done by dropping present exemptions for certain small employers, employees of non-profit organizations, various salaried and shop operators, and agricultural processing workers.
7. Beginning in 1964 the states would be required to increase benefits for an individual worker who would be entitled to half his former wage, up to a fixed maximum. Required maximum would be a 7:1 ratio for 1969.

Ailing Back Improving President Cancels Speech to Mayors

Washington, June 13 (AP)—President Kennedy canceled a speaking engagement today to speed recovery of his ailing back.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said today that Kennedy had called off his speech that the decision indicated no worsening of his condition.

"It is just a question of allowing the improvement to continue and not doing anything to 'hinder the improvement,'" Salinger told newsmen.

Kennedy had been scheduled to address the U.S. conference of mayors at a luncheon in a downtown Washington hotel.

The engagement would have required him to drive about a half mile from the White House and, despite the critics he is using, to put additional pressure on his back.

Before Salinger's program for the day, Democratic congressional leaders had reported the President seemed to be in excellent condition.

"I never saw him look better," House Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., said after he and other Democratic congressional leaders held their weekly breakfast meeting with Kennedy.

Rayburn told reporters Kennedy did not appear to give any evidence of pain. The President told them, Rayburn added, that he expects to be able to discard his crutches within a few days.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson echoed Rayburn's view on Kennedy's appearance and manner.

Kennedy asked Johnson to substitute for him. Salinger said the Vice President would express the thoughts Kennedy had planned to present in an extemporaneous speech.

Jacqueline Dances In Waterfront Club

Albany, Greece, June 13 (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy danced until 1 a.m. today at a waterfront night club looking out over beautiful Saronic Gulf of Athens.

America's First Lady was the guest of Mrs. Constantine Carmanis, wife of Greece's prime minister, for dinner and the evening dance.

It was a cool clear night that provided Mrs. Kennedy a glorious view of the sea and nearby Castles, a section of the port of Piraeus with lights sparkling like jewels.

Mrs. Carmanis' other guests were Prime and Princess Stasinos and the Radevits. Mrs. Kennedy's brother-in-law, John F. Kennedy, was also present.

State News Roundup Woman Killed As Auto Rams Tree Head-on

Milford, June 13 (AP)—An early morning automobile crash in Woodmont today brought instant death to a Bridgeport woman and assorted injuries to her companion.

Dead on arrival at Milford Hospital was Jean Burns, 34, of 133 Pembroke St., Bridgeport. Admitted with leg and apparent internal injuries was Joseph Atkinson, 37, also of Bridgeport.

Police said the car was being driven westerly on New Haven Avenue by the Burns woman when it crashed head-on into a tree near the Chapel Street intersection. Police said it was possible the driver fell asleep at the wheel.

The car was demolished and the driver and firemen had to pry the victims out of the wreckage.

92 to 100 Hartford, June 13 (AP)—The State Motor Vehicle Department's daily record of automobile accidents as of last midnight and the totals on the same date last year:

1960 1961
Accidents... 15,174 19,239 (Est.)
Killed... 92 100
Injured... 8,488 10,686 (Est.)

Every 31 Hours Hartford, June 13 (AP)—Every 31 hours last year, a fatal traffic accident occurred in Connecticut.

And every 21 minutes a person was injured in a traffic mishap, though not necessarily killed.

These facts come from the statistics released by the State Motor Vehicle Department yesterday from its bulletin, "Facts 1960," which disclosed an increase in both fatalities and accidents in the state last year as compared with 1959.

There were a total 273 high speed accidents.

The number of accidents—37,000, or a daily average of 101—set a new record for Connecticut, a state acclaimed throughout the nation as having one of the safest traffic records.

The average daily traffic accident toll was 91 in 1959.

The bulletin also disclosed that one car out of every seven is involved in fatal accidents.

From other statistics in the bulletin, it was learned that in 1959, 17,000 persons were injured in traffic accidents. Of every nine persons killed, one was a child. This compared with a 7:1 ratio for 1959.

Overtime Kick Back Hartford, June 13 (AP)—A federal judge has fined the First National Bank of Hartford and its general manager a total of $20,000 for failing to pay overtime wages.

A U.S. Labor Department spokesman said the fine was probably a record high in New England for this type of case.

Fined $10,000 each were the bank and its manager, Ralph F. Birkenhau.

Hartford is a community within the town of Hartford in northern Connecticut.

Presiding Judge Robert P. Anderson called the case "the most flagrant violation that has ever come to my attention."

He said bank employees were forced to "kick back" overtime wages that were ordered paid to employees despite a Labor Department investigation in March 1958.

$6.14 Billion Housing Bill Gets Senate Vote, Faces House Fight

Washington, June 13 (AP)—A public housing, farm home building and spending for state highway construction and state income tax bill were put on the agenda for the $6.14 billion housing bill gave encouragement to the Kennedy administration today over the House floor fight expected in a few days.

The House Rules Committee is to meet on the legislation today and is expected to clear it for debate starting next week.

Fifty-two Democrats and 12 Republicans supported the measure in final passage in the Senate yesterday, with 17 Republicans and 8 southern Democrats opposed.

This was the heaviest margin piled up in the Senate for any of the major items on President Kennedy's 1961 legislative program so far.

Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., chief sponsor of the bill, told a reporter he felt that with enactment of this measure there would be the worst in history atrocious unemployment.

For about a decade now Congress has been passing big housing bills, but Sparkman pointed out that in the 1961 bill the first time such key programs as urban re-

Canadian Cool Air Due East State Dept. Aide Held As Secrets Data Leak

Windsor, Locks, June 13 (AP)—The thermometer at the U.S. Weather Bureau at Bradley Field recorded 94 degrees at 1:15 p.m. today, a new record high for this date.

The last previous June 13 high was 93 degrees set in 1956. The record high temperature for June is 100 degrees, which was set June 26, 1952.

(By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Some relief appeared on the way from a late spring heat wave in the eastern half of the nation today, as cool air from Canada drifted into the northeast.

But more warm and humid weather was the outlook for the major part of the muggy belt. Temperatures were in the 80s and 90s, with high humidity, were again in prospect for much of the day.

The cooler air headed into northern sections of the Plains, Great Lakes region, New England and the Upper Mississippi Valley.

Before any of the cool air drifted into the northeast, temperatures in inland areas were as much as 20 to 30 degrees higher than 24 hours earlier.

Tractors Mission Arrives in Havana

Havana, June 13 (AP)—The Havana mission to exchange tractors for prisoners arrived by air today and was greeted by mid-ranking officials of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government.

The four members of the mission were received at the airport by Major Luis Cremona of the institute of Agrarian Reform, Brigadier Cabre, chief of machinery of eastern province, and Fernando Otero, aide to President Osvaldo Dorticos.

The group went from the airport to the Havana Riviera Hotel.

In a statement released to newsmen, Prof. Roy Bauer of the University of California said the group had been in Miami for several days. He added that the negotiation was "of a technical nature."

The airport reception was simple and customs formalities were waived.

Before leaving for Miami, the group declared its "humanitarian purpose" to free 1,200 captured prisoners by exchanging 500 tractors for them, as originally proposed by Castro.

The 4-man team of technical experts departed at 8:28 a.m. on the hour's flight to Havana with the group.

Before leaving Miami, the group traded a tractor for a prisoner. A one-man protest demonstration greeted the U.S. negotiators at the airport.

Castro has been talking publicly about some terms to which the committee says it cannot agree.

In a pre-departure statement, the group said it would have no further public statement until its return to the United States.

The technical team, while hoping Castro would quickly agree to a swap because he needs tractors, was apprehensive at the same time that the unpredictable prime minister might demand terms unacceptable to the American committee.

70 mph in Car Not Speeding

Handen, June 13 (AP)—An 18-year-old motorist, accused of traveling 70 miles an hour on the Wilbur Cross Parkway was found innocent of speeding yesterday.

The judge ruled that 70 miles an hour is not an unreasonable speed if the driving is not erratic.

Circuit Court Judge George C. DiCenzo made the ruling in the case of Joseph Case, a Handen driver, who was charged with exceeding a 60 mph speed limit on the Wilbur Cross Parkway—a 50 miles an hour road.

DiCenzo found the youth guilty of another charge—going through a stop light—and fined him $15.

DiCenzo said he recently read a newspaper article that said absolute maximum speed limits for the state came up in the recent session of the legislature but were not approved.

Castro left for Oriente Province before the arrival of the mission.

DiCenzo said he was not sure if the maximum speed limit was 70 miles an hour for passenger automobiles.

An absolute maximum speed limit of 70 miles an hour for passenger automobiles would be a 70-mile-an-hour speed limit.

Bills that would have established absolute maximum speed limits for the state came up in the recent session of the legislature but were not approved.

Mental Patient Surrenders to State Trooper

Southbury, June 13 (AP)—John Kanne, 31, Stratford, was back in the Southbury Training School today after having terrorized the countryside for several hours before surrendering to a brave state trooper.

Kanne gave up last night after barricading himself in a cottage in nearby Roxbury. He had two guns and a hatchet that he had obtained by breaking into two other cottages. He was persuaded to quit by West Trooper Leroy Emmerthal.

State Police said Kanne, an inmate at the institution for the mentally retarded, had earlier threatened to kill the trooper.

Kanne told police he had broken into six cottages and stolen two rifles, an automatic and a hatchet, and loaded a canoe across Lake Litchfield in an effort to escape a police manhunt.

Kanne slipped into the sun.

Needed Adequate Air Cover Ike Comments on Defeat Of Invaders by Castro

Cincinnati, June 13 (AP)—Old soldier Dwight D. Eisenhower still says no invasion can be successful without adequate air cover if there is opposing air power by the defense.

Gen. Eisenhower, who directed Allied landings in World War II, made his statement yesterday in commenting on the abortive invasion of Cuba by forces opposed to the regime of Fidel Castro.

The statement by a new conference, called only a day after the former President's resignation, was not aware in advance of any plan on the part of Cuban refugees to invade their homeland and overthrow the Castro regime.

Classified Papers to Red Poles

Washington, June 13 (AP)—Irvin Chambers Scarbeck, an American foreign service officer, was arrested here today on charges of turning over national security information to the Communist government of Poland.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, who announced the arrest, said FBI agents took Scarbeck into custody on a Washington street. Scarbeck, a long-time employee of the State Department, has been serving as second secretary in the American Embassy at Warsaw.

The Justice Department gave few details but Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) said he was informed Scarbeck was seduced by a Polish blonde, who then blackmailed him.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he was briefed, presumably by the State Department, in advance of the announcement of the arrest.

He told newsmen: "It's a very sad and distressing development. I understand the root of the trouble was a woman. I was informed a Polish blonde seduced him and then blackmailed him."

Fulbright would not discuss the nature of the security information Scarbeck was charged with turning over to the Polish Communist government. Scarbeck, 41, is a native of Brooklyn, N.Y. He attended the College of the City of New York and New York University from 1936 to 1939.

"I was married; he has four children," Fulbright said. Scarbeck was arrested on a warrant charging that from January through May of this year he transmitted classified information "affecting the security of the United States" to an agent of the Peoples Republic of Poland.

The FBI investigation, Hoover said, was based on information initially developed by the security office of the American embassy in Warsaw.

STINGY PLAY LEADS TO LOSS
By Alfred Sheinwold
Economy means good management, not stinginess. Keep the distinction in mind when you play bridge.

West opened the slight of clubs and dummy won with the king, leading dummy's king. Then he led another trump from dummy, but tried to save a few spots by leading dummy's five instead of the ten.

This was stinginess, pure and simple. It was to cost dearly.

East discarded a heart and South put up the ace of spades and returned a spade. West won with the queen of spades and led another club to dummy's ace.

Court Backs Hartford on Rejected Bids

Hartford, June 13 (AP) — The state Supreme Court today ruled that the city of Hartford was within its rights last year in rejecting all bids received when it first invited bids for construction of the new Hartford public high school.

The lowest, $6,940,000, came from Joseph Rugo, Inc., Dorchester, Mass. There were 10 higher ones from other contractors.

The city, however, rejected them all as too high, citing a stipulation in the invitation to bid that said the city reserved the right. At the same time, it was announced that the specifications would be sought.

Rugo went to court, charging that with a $5.5 million bond issue authorized by the city council and $3 million to be realized from the sale of the old high school, there was enough for the city to accept his bid.

Two Hartford citizens joined Rugo in the suit. Among the names of the plaintiffs was that of the rejection of Rugo's bid was against the best interests of the city and its taxpayers.

In Superior Court, the city argued the charges by pointing out that the invitation to bid contained the clause permitting the city to reject all bids if it chose. Also, the city said, a protest by taxpayers was unjustified unless the improper awarding of a contract would result in higher taxes.

After the Superior Court accepted these answers, the plaintiffs appealed to the State Supreme Court of Errors, but the state's highest court also sided with the city.

All that is required of officials, Judge Abraham B. Gordon said in the court's unanimous opinion, "is that they observe good faith and accord all bidders just consideration, thus avoiding favoritism and corruption."

"An honest exercise of discretion will generally not be disturbed. Courts will intervene only to prevent the rejection of a bid when the obvious purpose of the rejection is to defraud the object and integrity of competitive bidding."

In other decisions, the court erased the conviction of Frederick Drexel of Waterbury, who was found guilty in the Court of Common Pleas of maintaining several houses in an unsafe and insanitary condition. The Supreme Court of Errors said that Drexel had been hauled into court before the time given him to correct those conditions had expired.

Ordered a new trial for Bertha Toussaint of Norwich, one of the defendants in a suit growing out of the death of Mrs. Rose Fabiano, who fell down the stairs of a house owned by Mrs. Youhas and her husband, Anthony.

Ordered a new trial of the suit for damages brought by Mary D. Lundberg of West Hartford against Joseph Salvatore of Hartford for personal injuries resulting from an accident involving a truck owned by Salvatore.

Mental Patient Surrenders to State Trooper

meb, cottage in which he had barricaded himself through an open window.

Emmertal said that when he poked his head through the open window of the cottage he heard a rifle being cocked and jumped back quickly.

"If you come in, I'll kill you," the trooper said. Kanneke shouted to him.

"Put your head in that window and I'll shoot you."

The trooper, who was alone, said he spent the next 10 to 15 minutes attempting to calm Kanneke, telling him that he was there to help him.

Emmertal succeeded. Kanneke came out with his hands up.

State Police said Kanneke told them he fled from the school for mental reasons because he was not being treated well by some of the other inmates.

While on the loose, Kanneke frightened several residents on Skyline Ridge, including a cottage caretaker.

Two persons said they ran into their cottage when they saw the youth emerge from the shrubs near the lake with one of the rifles, apparently ready to fire.

At another cottage, Peliss said, Mrs. Paige Williams quietly suggested that he walk up to her house. She remained outside her cottage beside her car.

But moments later, Kanneke spotted what he approached wheeled around, and ran into the nearby woods.

Police said he smashed a hole in the bottom of the canoe after he crossed the lake and let the craft sink.

A Thought for Today
 Sponsored by the Manchester Council of Churches
 Has there ever been a day that you can recall when there was no news to list in the ordinary column of this newspaper? Sure, a day would be out of the ordinary, but you would be out of the ordinary, too. Many people neglect their souls' salvation now, thinking that they will always be time tomorrow. Some have made a fatal mistake. Jesus told of a man who only had time for the business of today. His real estate values were increasing, his stocks and bonds were doing well. Everything was booming, except his soul. So occupied was he with the business and pleasures of this life that it never occurred to him that one day it would end. It did end that night. He went out to keep an appointment with God that he did not know was part of the schedule for that day. The Bible says: "It is appointed unto man once to die, and after that the judgment." We may succeed in putting it out of our minds but it's still in the calendar. Major E. Walter Lamine The Salvation Army

It is "Abnormal"
 Premier Khrushchev keeps thrashing around in the Berlin issue. And publication of the memorandum on Germany and Berlin by the public relations office of the Vienna shows him thrashing around again. Every time Khrushchev does this, everybody agrees that a villain he is, and everybody starts repeating everything he has said, and to the same time, everybody and tougher plans for answering him by force. If the Communist world tries to make any unilateral change in the status of Germany or Berlin. This routine reaction to Khrushchev is paralleled and illustrated by the continuing reaction, two years later, to one specific word President Eisenhower said in Camp David meeting with Khrushchev. The inference of this criticism of President Eisenhower is that we should somehow make a regard to "normal" a situation in which the capital city of a country is itself partitioned into a partition of that country itself. This situation could not be "normal" if it were to endure for a thousand years. But just as it was an apparently unforgivable lapse for President Eisenhower to make a reference to the status of Berlin as abnormal, so it is a routine part of Western strategy every time Khrushchev raises the subject in regard to Germany and Berlin were sacred and inviolable, and should last forever. But the trouble with Khrushchev is not that he makes a change in the status of Berlin as abnormal, and from all we can judge of them, leave the eventual resolution of the German problem as remote as ever. That will have to be one Germany, with one capital. The rival big powers, with their joint conduct, have so tangled German affairs they are indeed almost beyond solution, at least by any visible or imaginable route of agreement among the big powers themselves. But Khrushchev at least seems to be aware of one thing, which we pretend not to know. This is that the long range danger of the present situation is certainly at least as great and explosive as any of its present day implications. And it is that no realist can expect the Germany of tomorrow, of five, or ten years hence, to be the remembered abnormality it is today. The Germans themselves will take care of that. If the divided victors don't. Defense of the status quo in Germany and Berlin should not be a flat policy, but such a policy is obvious. We have to defend it against alternatives even worse, or against alternatives which offer no hope of constructive improvement. Just as obviously, we ourselves have a responsibility to be thinking and planning, and to change in that status quo which is toward permanent solution. In this, we have so far been deficient, and this is what allows Khrushchev to keep shaking the issue at us when we should be pushing it toward him on every agenda of every meeting.

A Long Campaign
 For several weeks past the political news from New York City has read as if there were a major election about to be held. Mayor Wagner, the Democratic incumbent, has been under fire on various fronts, and talking to the stump to defend himself. And the Republican party has been proceeding to the selection of a ticket to run against him, first offering the nomination to several people already wanted for the office by Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz, who immediately began campaigning too. This had about ready to begin counting the votes, when we thought we had better check on the time table involved. It seems that the nomination of Lefkowitz is purely informal, by agreement among the Republican leaders, and that it must, in fact, be ratified by a formal party primary which will not be held until next September. As for the election itself, it will be held as usual, in November. What got the Republicans excited so early—an excitement which may subside somewhat now that they have failed in their effort to persuade Congressman Jacob Javits to run—was apparently a feeling that Mayor Wagner might be vulnerable this year. He has given his second term, Mayor Wagner had over 1,500,000 votes to some 585,000 for his Republican opponent. The Republicans have one thing figured right: if they are to overcome the long range danger of the present situation, the early start they have taken.

Reds Say U.S. Violated Truce

 Geneva talks was not justified in reading the letter because it was addressed to combatants in Laos and not to the general public. "What is this," he asked, "NATO Home object was overruled by the Communist Party of the United States. The Royal Lao and U.S. governments' compliance of artillery and ground attacks on the pockets being supplied by their rights. These attacks are what the western countries consider the real violation of the cease-fire. Phoum Vongvichit, leader of the pro-Red faction, told the conference it must get down to business by starting the Soviet proposal for a neutral Laos. He said the French-sponsored conference is infringing on Laotian sovereignty. "We must respect the sovereignty, independence, unity and territorial integrity of our country and on that basis we must respect its neutrality," he declared. He said the Soviet proposal, which gives the Communists a veto over the activity of truce teams, "take into account the aspirations of the Lao people." There were side lights of the conference abroad. The Soviet news agency Tass charged the U.S. in attempting to force the issue of the truce. In Bangkok, Thailand's capital, the Bangkok Post quoted Foreign Minister Thanet as saying that his delegation walked out of the conference because "our point of view has been continually ignored by the co-chairmen." Other American newsmen and Soviet Union, represented by Lord Howe and Grosvenor. Thant complained there was no attempt to take it into account. He said the U.S. had a right to be heard. Birch Papers Withdrawn at 24th Division

Washington, June 18 (AP)—The Birch Papers have been withdrawn from the 24th Infantry Division in Germany, Army spokesmen said today.

The militantly Conservative Birch Society's publication, "American Opinion," is no longer on the list of prohibited newspapers, officials said.

Walker, relieved of command of the division, was rebuffed yesterday by the Army after an investigation of charges that he labeled as pink or Communist former President Harry S. Truman, other leading Democrats and "various elements of the U.S. press."

Overseas Weekly, a privately owned tabloid whose published charges triggered the investigation, said "The Life of John Birch" written by society founder Robert Welch had been distributed to all dayrooms of the division and was on a recommended reading list put out for troops.
