Hurricane Esther near Cape Cod today and the Boston Weather Bureau said that although the hurricane has decreased slightly in intensity during the past 12 hours, it still is a dangerous storm. Before noon, the Weather Bureau office at Otis Air Force Base on the Cape reported the eye (center) of the hurricane had closed, that winds were fast diminishing and the Cape "may have no hurricane at all."

Katanga Truce Fails to Erase War Shadow

Ndola, Northern Rhodesia, Sept. 21 (AP)—An uneasy cease-fire was proclaimed today in embattled Katanga, but the danger of civil war still hung over the Congo. President Moise Tshombe of the Katanga province said today that the cease-fire was only a temporary measure and that the danger of civil war still hung over the Congo.

Kennedy Slates UN Address for Next Monday

Both CBS and ABC said the address would be carried live on their television networks. Kennedy also would carry the talk on certain radio stations.

It was understood that continuing negotiations of Hammarskjold, and possibly other U.N. business, might alter the program, but this expectation was not held.

If the Monday morning schedule is changed, the hope is that Kennedy would deliver his speech that afternoon.

Kennedy has long considered addressing the United Nations to state the U.S. position with respect to the Berlin and nuclear issues with Soviet Russia.

The White House announced several days ago that Kennedy would personally to the United Nations, but the time was not set until today.

The President will leave Washington for the Hyannis Port, Mass., tomorrow at 11 a.m. EDT.

Kennedy will fly by prop plane from Hyannis Port to New York late Sunday afternoon, landing at LaGuardia.

Efforts are being made to get Kennedy to the White House in New York.

When Kennedy leaves New York, probably late Tuesday morning, he will fly to Newport, R. I., and remain there through Sunday.

The President and Mrs. Kennedy will fly to Hyannis Port, Mass., on Sunday.

Kennedy will return to Washington on Oct. 2 or the morning of Oct. 3.

It was not immediately known whether Mrs. Kennedy would accompany the President to New York. She is expected to accompany him to Hyannis Port tomorrow.

Police Arrests
Richard C. Oliver, 18, of 146 Bristol St., was charged with abandoning a motor vehicle. Police reported that they first noticed the car Sept. 18, parked at the dead end of Bristol St.

A few days ago police had taken the car away.

Yesterday, Oliver came to the police station and reported it missing. He was then arrested by police.

He will appear in Circuit Court 12, Manchester, Oct. 2 at 10 o'clock.

Leo Fitzpatrick, 32, of 21 Windsorville Rd., Vernon, was charged with driving while under the influence of liquor or drugs.

Surnames Fairly New
London—Until the 14th century, people did not have last names. Then there began migration from villages to cities and surnames became necessary. In most cases they were formed from nicknames, such as Tom the Baker, John the Ironsmith, and so on.

They were taken from the places of birth.

prospect to Woodbridge and back while driving in the restaurant. They said McNeil told Doyan that he would make the trip in minutes.

A 21st youth was given the wage money to hold at a Waterbury diner.

Police said that Doyan and Capaldo collected the money back. They learned that their opponents had been killed.

When Doyan learned of the deaths his authorities said, he told Capaldo that he could have Doyan's share of the bet.

Capaldo told police he then threw all the money away.

For Reservists, Guardsmen Deferment Chances Reported Not Good

is ordered to active duty retain the right to his job. He would forfeit the right if he did not move to get back into the company within 90 days after discharge.

A man would not necessarily get back the same job. He might get a better one, provided that what would have happened if he had not left for military service.

Or he might find himself in a lesser job, if there had been layoffs while he was away and he normally would have been caught in such a situation if he had returned.

A serviceman's seniority rights in his civilian job are unimpaired, and on returning he must be given any pay raises granted in his absence.

The law that protects a serviceman from suffering various kinds of hardship as a result of his four to six years in the military, the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, II also covers reservists.

A brochure prepared by Army, Navy and Air Force legal assistants, which is available to reservists, states that the relief act "does not wipe out any of your obligations."

"Failure," it temporarily suspends the right of your creditors to sue a court to compel you to pay it, but only if the spouse or your ability to pay is due to your military service.

Sheinwold on Bridge

EVERYBODY LIKES POLITE OPPONENTS

By Alfred Sheinwold
It's very pleasant to play bridge against gentlemen. They'll give you time to make up your mind and won't chivy you while you're doing so. Here's the sort of thing I mean:

West opened the king of diamonds, and East played a gentlemanly nine of diamonds to encourage a sacrifice. It was a gallant, but quite ineffective, attempt.

West continued with a diamond, and South ruffed. Declarer drew one round of trumps and cashed the top spades.

When West threw a club on the second spade, South saw that he could not set up dummy's suit. The only chance for the slam was a club finesse, so South led a club from dummy and finessed the queen from his own hand.

The finesse worked, and South claimed the rest of the trick. As a dealer, you should be a different story to tell. East had been more of a desperado and less of a gentleman. East should have overthrown the king of diamonds at the first trick in order to return the nine of clubs.

What would South do if forced to make a decision at so early a stage? The club finesse is only a 50 per cent chance, and East's bid is a desperate gamble. It makes even that figure seem high.

What other chance does South have? If the spades break no worse than 4-2, he can set up dummy's suit for 10 tricks. The odds are better than 5 to 1 in favor of a reasonable spade break.

Obviously, South would reject the finesse in order to try for the

Two Very Important Questions from your friendly service station attendant:—

TAIL DRAGGING?

SCRAPING ON DRIVEWAYS? Monroe Super Load-Levelers put an end to this common annoyance by increasing road clearance of even heavily loaded cars.

Your car will ride its level best with Monroe Super Load-Levelers stabilizing units that give you a safe, level, comfortable ride under all road conditions.

Your rear bumper and exhaust pipe will safely clear rough bumps and steep driveways, even if heavily loaded, without that frightening "scrunch". You'll get that gas-footed, "sports car" feel on tight curves... no side sway. You'll also like the easier steering and longer tire life you get with Super Load-Levelers stabilizing units.

Have Monroe Super Load-Levelers installed today in less than 30 minutes.

HOW SAFE ARE YOUR SHOCK ABSORBERS?

Shock absorbers are so important to safety as they are to comfortable riding. They stabilize your car, keep wheels from bouncing off the road, prevent erratic steering and side sway. If your speedometer now reads 20,000 miles or more, there's a good chance you're already driving on "dead" shocks—shock absorbers that are worn to the danger point. And dead shocks are deadly!

TAKE THE 60-DAY FREE RIDE! Have a set of Mono-Matic shock absorbers installed today and try them for 60 days. If you're not completely satisfied, return them for a full refund and installation of your old shocks.

Columbia Library Unit Again Elects Lyman Head

Raymond E. Lyman has been re-elected president of the Station B. Little Free Library Association another year. The association, at the annual meeting this week, re-elected all officers. The others are vice president, Merton Foster; secretary-treasurer, Clayton E. Hunt; Atty. Elizabeth Dennis Fustella was re-elected a member of the board of trustees. Merton Foster and Mrs. Allan Robinson were returned to the Library Committee for three years. The committee met at the close of the association meeting to reorganize, and Clayton E. Hunt was re-elected chairman. Miss Gladys Rice, librarian, gave her annual report, which gave a clear indication of growth in the use of the library by the children. She said there were 146 resident children patrons this past year; 88 who had used the library previously and 58 new. In addition 20 summer resident children used the facilities during the months of July and August. Adult patrons totaled 70, 50 who have used the library previously and 20 new this past year with 18 summer residents registered. Circulation figures show that 2,841 juvenile books were withdrawn and 1,216 adult volumes and in addition 219 magazines. Books added during the year were 20 adult non-fiction and 44 fiction, 21 juvenile non-fiction and 61 fiction. Miss Rice told of the assistance given to her in the library by George E. Peters Jr., a freshman at Windham High School. Give Volunteer Service A boy scout, Peters became interested while getting credit for his scout reading merit badge. This requires some work in a library. He worked with Miss Rice, who counseled him and passed on to him the requirements. He became so interested that, wanting to do some community service, he continued going to the library to work with her in many ways of assistance. Later the summer he helped her with a specific project which called for the handling of many volumes and was "let strong right arm" the said. During the summer months a Monday evening hour was established for the patron convenience in addition to Friday afternoon and evening. This was a food sale at Schaefer's Market in Rockville Oct. 2, town election day. Women's Guild Elects Mrs. John Card has been elected first director of the Women's Guild of Columbia Congregational Church. Officers elected at the annual meeting this week are: Mrs. Clarence Jeffries, second director; Mrs. Robert McParsons, secretary; and Mrs. Gus Naunne, re-elected treasurer. The annual report, given by Mrs. Naunne, showed Guild projects and special gifts to St. John's Fund this past year totaled $722. Absentee Ballot Fund Mrs. John Fringe, chairman of absentee ballot fund, has been elected Town Committee requests anyone who knows he cannot appear in person to vote on election day, contact her for an absentee ballot application. Rockville-Vernon Pitkat, Deming Cite 6-Point Plan for Town

A central purchasing system, said F. Berger will present them personal advisory board, and permanent public building commission were called for today by Vernon's Democratic selectmen candidates in a proposal for stable government. Francis J. Pitkat and Robert W. Deming made the recommendations in a six-point proposal to help stabilize our tax dollar. They said a "competitive and effective purchasing program is possible so that all buying is centralized and controlled by one office with the exception of textbooks and teaching apparatus for the school system." Also they said, a study of over-present problems should be launched "at once by the creation of a personnel advisory board, installation of a merit system and classified salary program for all town employees outside the school system must be developed." The permanent public building commission they said, would handle "more efficiently the town's present and future needs in the areas of facilities, maintenance, replacement and new capital programs." Capital improvements projects, they said, should be weighed carefully and undertaken only if they are "vital to the welfare of the community." The building commission, personnel board, and purchasing system proposals were three of the six others: Establishment of a "proper accounting system which is essential to reduce high clerical costs and inadequate financial control." Accounting must be modernized. The ultimate goal is more efficiency resulting in less cost to the taxpayer. Intertown cooperation on area problems should be stressed. Regional planning should be supported. "An intensified effort on the part of all town officials to effect worthwhile economic and improvement... should be made." The proposal to establish a personnel advisory board recalls a similar proposal which the board of finance last winter, a proposal which was never acted upon because of concentration on education efforts at that time. Auxiliary Business Programs The Rockville American Legion Auxiliary will resume activities this fall with a food sale at Schaefer's Market in Rockville Oct. 2, town election day. Mrs. Bernice Perzanowski and Mrs. Leticia Blumstein are co-chairmen for the sale. The Junior Girls activities will resume Sept. 29 with a p.m. meeting at the Legion Home on West Rd. Mothers of girls are asked to attend and help plan coming activities. Softball Dance Set A dinner and dance for winning softball teams in the Rockville slow and fast pitch leagues will be held Saturday by the American Legion Post, which sponsored both teams. A baked ham dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. The Floyd Nichols orchestra will provide music for dancing afterward. City Recreation Chairman Don-

USSR Tones Down Links with Cuba

Moscow, Sept. 21 (AP)—A joint communique that some Western observers viewed as softening Moscow's commitment to Cuba was issued today at the end of the 10-day visit of Cuba's president, Osvaldo Dorticos. A Kremlin Cuban-Soviet friendship rally yesterday responded to hostile references to the United States, which were accused of threatening the Cuban revolution. But the joint communique published in Pravda as Dorticos took off for Peiping was considerably milder than past statements that have carried charges of "American imperialism" in Latin America. The selective April invasion of Cuba by American-trained Latin American forces was referred to casually without the usual condemnation of Washington. Notably missing, too, was the usual call to the Latin American to follow the example of Fidel Castro's Cuban revolution. Without mentioning the Latin American, the communique cited Cuba as a "reasonable example for peoples fighting to rid their countries of the domination of their sign superpowers and for their complete national liberation."

The 154th Game

It seems to us that just about everything connected with last night's baseball game, in which the Yankees incidentally clinched another pennant, and in which, more importantly, Roger Maris took his place as second in Babe Ruth in home run history, was filled with credit for the game of baseball and for the remarkable Maris himself.

Those running the game did not face some of the tests that might have been imagined. There was no obvious situation in which it would have been necessary for Baltimore to walk Maris instead of pitching to him. There was no obvious situation in which percentage called for the Yankees to have Maris' team.

Old-fashioned heating oil may form solids that can choke the nozzle opening of the burner. This produces an unbalanced flame that causes heat bills to run high.

Remarkable cleanliness of new Shell Heating Oil guards against clogging. The oil swirls through the opening and burns with a balanced, cone-shaped flame.

BULLETIN:

Shell announces a remarkable new heating oil—answers eleven key questions about it, and tells how it can save you money winter after winter

There's a new and dramatically different heating oil in the Manchester area today—an improved product of Shell Research.

It has been refined and cleaned by a Shell patented process called Hydro-desulphurization. Literally billions of sulphur atoms are removed from every drop of oil.

The results are clear: new Shell Heating Oil is bright and clean. It flows smoothly. It burns evenly. It is the most stable heating oil you can buy.

Now, Shell experts answer the eleven questions you might ask about heating oils, and reveal how new Shell Heating Oil can reduce your oil heat bills in two important ways.

1. Are there really differences among heating oils?
Indeed there are. Major differences. You can actually see some of them. For instance, some oils are light in color. Others are dark. Some start out light—then darken with age. Some stay bright.
You can see differences in other ways, too. In your heating bill, for example. And the amount of service your burner needs.
Now—with the announcement of Shell's new, improved heating oil—the differences among oils are more significant than ever.

2. What causes those differences?
Many things. The basic quality of the oil. How it is refined and treated. The additives used. With new Shell Heating Oil, Hydro-desulphurization makes a big difference.
3. What is Hydro-desulphurization?
Don't let the name scare you. It sounds terribly complicated—and the mechanics of this Shell process are complex. But what it does is really quite simple:

It removes literally billions of sulphur and nitrogen atoms from every drop of oil. Desulphurizes it. The sulphur and nitrogen are pushed out by pure hydrogen. Thus, the name: Hydro-desulphurization.
This is a special process protected by Shell's U. S. Patent No. 2608521.

4. Does Hydro-desulphurization add to the selling price of Shell Heating Oil?
No. The benefits of Shell's Hydro-desulphurization Process don't cost you one penny extra—yet the process itself costs Shell twice as much as old-fashioned methods.

5. What are the benefits?
You get clear, bright heating oil that stays clean—even though it might remain in your tank from one winter to the next.
This has been proved—conclusively—at the Shell Laboratory in Wood River, Illinois. Shell is the most stable heating oil your burner can use. While some components in ordinary heating oils may "settle out," Shell Heating Oil does not change. It remains its bright color.

6. Does the cleanliness of new Shell Heating Oil mean that it will produce more heat?
Yes—but not for the reason you might expect. An oil that isn't as clean as the new Shell oil may burn just as well, but only for as long as the burner stays clean. And a burner can become clogged very quickly if the oil isn't immaculately clean. It's easy to see why:
The nozzle opening of your oil burner is actually smaller than the eye of a needle. Through this tiny opening must flow hundreds of gallons of heating oil every winter. If that opening becomes partly blocked, the flame that creates your heat will burn in a lopsided, ragged pattern. When this happens, heat losses run high. So do heat bills.

An exceptionally clean and stable oil, such as Shell Heating Oil, guards against harmful deposits which could distort the flame and waste heat.
Remember: a heating system can be no cleaner than the heating oil it uses.

7. Will the unusual cleanliness of new Shell Heating Oil reduce oil heat costs?
Yes—in many cases it will. However, Shell Heating Oil cannot remove residue caused by an inferior oil. In order for Shell to give you top heating performance, the burner must be in good condition and properly adjusted. When this has been done, Shell Heating Oil can reduce your annual oil heat bill.

Needle-eye opening in burner nozzle calls for a heating oil that is immaculately clean.

8. Will new Shell Heating Oil cut maintenance costs as well?
Any heating system needs a periodic check-up. But—if you've had more than your share of service calls, Shell Heating Oil can help you reduce them. Here's why.
This new oil contains a special Shell-developed additive, called FOA-5X, that works round the clock to keep filters and critical openings clear and clean.

All heating oils have tiny, unseen components floating in suspension. If these minute particles join forces, they form visible solids that can cause trouble. So, FOA-5X keeps these tiny particles apart.
RESULT: They remain invisible. They move freely—through filter screens, through critical openings, and burn in a hot, radiant flame.
With FOA-5X guarding the cleanliness of Shell Heating Oil, maintenance calls (and costs) can be cut to an absolute minimum.

9. With all the new benefits that Shell Heating Oil provides, does it offer the usual advantages of oil heating?
Yes. The extra benefits that Shell Heating Oil provides can now be added to all the features that make oil such an enormously popular source of warmth.

10. Why is oil heating so popular?
There are many reasons. It's the safest kind of fuel for automatic warmth.
An oil-fired heating system is built to go on whenever you need it. Flick a switch—the heat's on. There's no pilot light to fuss with.
With oil, you've got your own private supply of fuel. It's on your property. You know it's there. You and your family are protected against a sudden disruption of heat due to a fuel supply breakdown many miles away.

11. Is new Shell Heating Oil available now?
It can be ordered from any Shell Heating Oil supplier. There's one near your home. He can deliver your first tankful of new Shell Heating Oil whenever you wish. Call him today.

Above: Scientist adjusts flame pattern of test furnace in a Shell laboratory. Here, Shell conducts continuous research into heating efficiency. One result of Shell's research is the remarkable Shell Combustion Head. Tests using Shell Heating Oil have shown that this head can cut fuel bills up to 20 per cent.

$1.15 an Hour Minimum Wage Effective in State Oct. 1

Hartford, Sept. 21 (AP)—All employees in Connecticut covered by the state's minimum wage law must be paid at least $1.15 an hour as of Oct. 1.

The new minimum wage was voted by the 1961 General Assembly. An additional upward step later to $1.25 was also authorized by the legislature.

The Connecticut Minimum Wage Law applies generally to all workers in industries concerned only with business within the borders of the state. Most of those in interstate commerce are under the federal minimum wage law.

A number of industries that are exempt from the new minimum or have special status were discussed yesterday by State Labor Commissioner Basilio R. Ricciuti. On Oct. 1, he said, all workers covered by the state law, with the exception of those in restaurant and hotel work, must be paid at least $1.15 an hour.

The hotel and restaurant workers will eventually be brought up to the new minimum, but for them the jump will take effect May 1, 1962.

For those who will receive the $1.15 minimum on Oct. 1, the minimum on Oct. 1 will be $1.25 on Oct. 1, 1962. Again, there will be a lag in the case of hotel and restaurant workers. They will be adjusted to the $1.15 minimum on May 1, 1962.

Ricciuti said about $70,000 workers are covered by the law. Among those exempt from the state law are agricultural workers and those working at camps or resorts open half the year or less; executive, administrative, or profes-

Enemies of the Republic

The manifestation of hysteria raised by the American Arm of the International Communist Conspiracy aimed at Major Gen. Edwin A. Walker who so ably carried out the Directive of the National Security Council of 1958 to institute a Seminar on Americanism and a course of studies on Communism. His tactics, methods and objectives in the cold war; the war we are in; was only exceeded by the editor of the Manchester Evening Herald of Sept. 13, 1961.

Enemies of the Republic

The enemies of our Republic shall not prevent all that we do. Respectfully Submitted, Frederick A. Baker

Enemies of the Republic

To the Editor, I have always been a New Englander, since I migrated here 15 years ago. I have a lovely family, a wonderful husband, and two lovely children. I am a housewife and I love my job. I have no brain and I do not know what to do.

Enemies of the Republic

After reading about an article in the Herald "Enemies of the Republic" do you think these people are foolish? If you do, what is so foolish about wanting to survive?

Enemies of the Republic

So now my thoughts are wandering away from my happy home, and remodeling jobs, which I was so happy thinking about. Material things aren't at all important to me now, only the survival of my little family. What we are going to do? Can we survive? If there is some possible chance, how can we do it?

Enemies of the Republic

My neighbor don't seem to have much to say about it, or anyone else. If they are troubled like I am about it, they keep it to themselves. I suppose I don't talk about it with anyone except my husband. I felt ashamed to let him even know how troubled I was, until I spoke about being troubled too. So it must be in all our minds, my neighbors, everybody you meet, but we have always been Americans in every way except speaking about things.

Enemies of the Republic

I don't mean we should all start feeling afraid with fear, but isn't it about time we started thinking about it?
