Ex-Meriden Mayor Can Run Again

Meriden, Oct. 19 (AP)—Former Republican Mayor Howard E. Houston is eligible to run for office again this year.

The board of admissions voted unanimously last night to have Houston's name restored to the voting roll from which it had been stricken by the registrars of voters.

The registrars had claimed that Houston lost his residency qualifications when he moved into a new house on his Preston Avenue property this summer. The house, the registrars said, was across the town line in Middletown.

When Houston moved again last month into a house that was clearly within the Meriden limits, the board said there had been a break in his residency and he would have to wait six months to have his name restored to the lists.

Houston, who defeated incumbent Mayor John E. Ivers, the GOP town committee's candidate, in a primary, appealed the registrars' action to the admissions board.

At the board's hearing last night, he and his attorneys argued that he had always considered Meriden his home and presently had no intention of moving to any other town.

They pointed out that Houston had always voted in Meriden. Even when he was away, they said, he used absentee ballots.

In announcing his decision to overrule the registrars, the board of admissions made no comment on the claims involved.

Houston, who has also served as State Welfare Commissioner, has in recent years held a number of federal government assignments. Earlier this year, he was on a State Department mission to Peru.

His opponents in the Nov. 7 election will be Ivers, who is running as an independent candidate, and John W. Grant, the Democratic nominee.

Jorgensen Says He Will Retire From UConn

Storrs, Oct. 19 (AP)—Dr. Albert N. Jorgensen says he plans to retire as president of the University of Connecticut by Oct. 1, 1968.

Jorgensen, president of the university since 1936, notified the Board of Trustees yesterday of his decision and asked it to name a successor by next Oct. 1.

Later, the 61-year-old administrator told newsmen that he had no plans to seek political office after his retirement. He has been mentioned as a possible Republican candidate for governor next year.

He declined to speculate on a successor, saying the appointment would be up to the trustees although he thought the faculty should make "suggestions and recommendations."

In his 25 years as president, the university's enrollment has grown from 12,000 students to 13,000. The value of its physical plant has grown from $13 million to more than $60 million.

Jorgensen's announcement came at a meeting in which the trustees gave firm backing to his administration's tightening of regulations concerning student activities.

However, he said the dispute over the rules had nothing to do with his retirement. He had said previously he would step down before long.

Students have held several meetings on the campus in recent weeks to protest increased control by the administration of expenditures made from the $5 activities fee collected from each student.

There has been a matter largely controlled by Student Senate in the past.

"There has been some misunderstanding by students who had felt that the trustees were limiting their freedom to spend the money," the trustees' statement said.

"The facts are that the monies involved are collected by the University as a compulsory payment required of all students and are legally the complete responsibility of the board of trustees."

"We have both a legal and moral obligation to make sure that the funds are properly handled and wisely spent. We intend to continue to do our plain duty in this regard."

The trustees also said they were in complete accord with the administration's stricter enforcement of campus drinking regulations.

West Ready To Oppose Huge Blast

United Nations, N. Y., Oct. 19 (AP)—The Soviet Union told the United Nations today the Russians will not give up their right to test nuclear weapons "until the western powers understand the necessity of embarking on general and complete disarmament."

This blunt statement was made by Soviet nuclear negotiator Semyon Tsarapkin in the General Assembly's Special Political Committee, which is debating need for quick information on the increase in radioactive fallout coming from the current Soviet tests.

Tsarapkin demanded that the 101-nation committee choke off the debate and leave any discussion of ending nuclear tests to future disarmament negotiations.

The main political committee decided yesterday, over Soviet opposition, to push ahead immediately with a debate on ways to halt further nuclear testing.

U.S. Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson was scheduled to spearhead a western move in the political committee later today to head off the explosion of a 50-megaton nuclear bomb which Premier Khrushchev announced would take place late this month.

In the special political committee, Tsarapkin defended his country's resumption of bomb testing with a retort that the now familiar Soviet stand that it had to be done to strengthen defense capabilities "because the United States and its allies were intensifying the arms race."

The main debate was expected to take place in the main political committee.

The committee debate was expected to bring repeated calls for Russia to call off the superbomb explosion. The United States and its allies hoped the debate would marshal sufficient anti-Soviet opinion to force the Russians to reconsider.

Paris Police Check New Rebel Rioting

Paris, Oct. 19 (AP)—Reinforced police checked a mob of 4,000 Algerians that tried to riot through the streets of Paris last night for the second night in succession. Three Algerians were reported killed and at least 15 injured, and the police arrested 1,600 demonstrators.

Ordered by the Algerian rebel government in Tunis to keep up their demonstrations against new curfew regulations, Algerian workers began grouping shortly after dusk near a key traffic intersection at the western outskirts of greater Paris. Steel-helmeted riot squads blocked their movement toward a bridge over the Seine and a broad avenue leading to central Paris.

Between 1,000 and 1,500 were surrounded for a time by the heavily armed riot forces without serious incident. As tension mounted in chilly, driving rain, demonstrators opened fire on a police car, a headquarters spokesman said. The police returned the fire and hospital authorities in the suburb of Nanterre said three dead and 15 injured were counted.

One body lay sprawled in the rain among a scattering of shoes dropped by the fleeing mob.

Stout police barricades kept the mass of shouting demonstrators from reaching the heart of the city, but several hundred managed to slip through by subway or on foot. Crying "Algeria for the Algerians," they tried to parade but were quickly rounded up and hustled into police vans, which chugged off to detention centers at a Sports Palace, at a stadium and in a barracks area in suburban Vincennes.

There they joined more than 11-

Hit Bonn Military

Berlin, Oct. 19 (AP)—A Connecticut congressman says that West Germany should be required to lengthen its military service and contribute "at least the $600 million it costs the U.S. to maintain its forces in Germany."

Rep. Frank Kowalski, D., Conn., said in a press statement issued during a brief visit in Berlin yesterday that the young men of West Berlin should be drafted in to the West German Army.

West Berlin is explicitly omitted from the West German occupation statute. West German military service is 12 months at present.

Debt Limit Climbs

Hartford, Oct. 19 (AP)—The state's legal debt limit today climbed to a new summit of $1.2 billion, a rise of $45.7 million or some four per cent over that of a year ago.

The loftier statutory ceiling was made possible by the record $266.7 million in taxes collected last year. The debt ceiling is set on a formula based on four and one-half times the tax take for the previous year.

Actually, the new ceiling would mean much during the coming year. That's because the state has no plans for big borrowing which would ram against that ceiling.

Cafe Society 'Twisting' to Blasting Bands

New York, Oct. 19 (AP)—The cafe society set and show business celebrities have a new craze—the "twist," a sensuous and grotesque dance right out of the jungle.

The "twist" is danced (or may be "performed") in a better word to a shrieking version of rock 'n' roll.

You and your partner shake your shoulders and you swirl your hips. But you never touch. The musicians play like crazy.

There seems to be a mass hypnotic drawing converts to a new voodoo cult.

The "twist" has appeared in such upper-crust haunts as the Stork Club and the Barbary Room.

But the high temple of the new cult is the Peppermint Lounge—a hot, jammed, smoky nightmare where 200 customers are jammed on the tiny dance floor, squeezed together at speed.

Men in formal attire and their bejeweled partners vie with sailors, drifters in leather jackets and girls in treader pants for space to do their stuff.

Five musicians on a bandstand blast like fury. They shout and leap like demons on hot coals. On the dance floor, couples gyrate in joyful frenzy. The waitresses, wearing short aprons over tight slacks, have to pick their openings like football players as they rush their trays of drinks. Sometimes one of them abandons her

USSR Renews Stand On Berlin Air Lanes

Washington, Oct. 19 (AP)—Diplomatic sources said today Moscow has sent a note renewing a Soviet stand on Berlin air corridors that is unacceptable to the West.

The text of the Soviet note, delivered to the American, British and French Embassies in Moscow, was not immediately available here.

Informants said the Russian communication replied to Sept. 8 western notes warning the Kremlin of any interference with the air traffic linking Communist-encircled West Berlin with West Germany would be "aggressive action."

Moscow was said to have declared again its view that the air corridors are only supposed to be used for supplying the Western

Camel Driver Still Smiling

Washington, Oct. 19 (AP)—The happy camel driver from Pakistan is taking quite naturally to being a VIP.

Jet planes, flashing camera bulbs, sleek limousines and sights beyond his wildest dreams just bring a broader smile to Bashir Ahmad's mustached countenance.

Bashir smiles and smiles. He's amazed at how Americaners are all smiling with him, too.

Unable to read or write his native language, Urdu, when he arrived in the United States as a guest of Vice President Lyndon Johnson, Bashir has quickly learned about autograph seekers. Now, he painstakingly signs his name—a wavy line and a series of specialy placed dots. You'd be surprised how many times he's asked to make his sign.

Bashir is so famous his wife back in Karachi says she's worried about whether she should welcome her husband back in their same hut after his visit to America.

She's looking for a two-room house or a flat, reports from Karachi say.

And Bashir's camel must be worried, too. It is refusing to eat.

Errors Cause Big Waste in Military Aid

Washington, Oct. 19 (AP)—The General Accounting Office (GAO) said today miscalculations by both human and electronic brains were partly responsible for what it called a multi-million dollar excess cost of military aid to the Far East.

The GAO, which serves as a watchdog over government spending, said it came to this conclusion after investigation nearly half a billion dollars worth of spare parts accumulating in Asian warehouses and at the Army's big supply and inventory depot in Japan.

In its report to Congress, the GAO said its survey resulted in potential savings of about $235 million in excess or useless spare parts.

Another GAO report yesterday said improper wiring of a calculating machine led the Army in Europe to order $74 million worth of material it didn't need.

In today's report, GAO accountants said the depot in Japan last year "discovered" unrecorded material valued at $55 million in making its "first complete inventory ever taken" of military aid stocks. Meanwhile, the GAO said, additional supplies of the ordnance equipment had been ordered. The alleged error was attributed by the GAO to depot officials.

Men Win After All Spring Clothes Styled To Follow the Figure

New York, Oct. 19 (AP)—Possibly for the first time in the history of womankind, fashion is entering an age of practicality—even though man had to laugh, prod, and finally shove her into it.

The nation's buyers who made the rounds of some of the best known couture houses yesterday were promised the sensible age by springtime.

That's when the women's apparel introduced this week will be in retail stores.

Just putting the waistline back was practical for the garment industry financially; for men who ridiculed the sack, encrusted at the easy-fitting dress and merely tolerated the semifitted suit have had a damaging effect on sales, manufacturers admit.

Thus, Adele Simpson, Luis Esteves, and of course, Jacqueline Kennedy's courturier Gleg Casani have done more than nip the waistline in again, they've widened it all the way up to the bosom line.

To re-emphasize that tiny waist, pint-size Miss Simpson is also putting wedge-shaped shoulders on her customers. Doesn't looking physically fit have its practicality after an era of hunch-shouldered, emaciated fashion models?

For sitting down with grace and poise, or springing after a commuter train Miss Simpson offers over-so-sensible knee free skirts. Deep pleats or gorges make the ample room for getaways.

Other points of practicality are dark little blouses, little

Teams Seek Cause Of Chicago Blast

Chicago, Oct. 19 (AP)—Investigation teams sought today the cause of a high impact explosion at a potential for high loss of life in the blast yesterday which destroyed a one-story reinforced concrete building used by Helene Curtis Industries to blend cosmetic chemicals.

Authorities said they had reached no conclusion immediately as to the cause of the explosion.

While company, state and city investigators studied the ruins of the west side building, a Curtis worker told a newsmen the blast was touched off by an overheated mixing tank he was tending.

HOFFA PLEADS INNOCENT
Orlando, Fla., Oct. 19 (AP)—Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa, preparing for another legal bout with the federal government, pleaded innocent today to charges of mail fraud. Robert E. McCarthy Jr., a Detroit banking executive indicted with Hoffa, entered the same plea. The two are accused in a 16-count indictment of misusing more than $500,000 of Teamsters Union funds to promote Sun Valley, Inc., a one-time retirement housing development for union members.

Washington, Oct. 19 (AP)—President William V. S. The 69-year-old African leader, a president of his country since 1943, was welcomed by Kennedy, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other dignitaries at Washington National Airport. Kennedy, in a welcoming speech, said Tubman's long record as head of state of his country is "unprecedented at this time any place in the world."

VERVOERD CLINGS VOTE
Johannesburg, South Africa, Oct. 19 (AP)—Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd's racial segregationist National Party clinched another five years' power in South Africa today from an all-white electorate. The Nationalists' landslide victory was assured when results from the voting on Wednesday showed they had captured 81 seats, a majority in the new 154-seat House of Assembly. Four previously elected white representatives of South Africa's colored (people of mixed white and black ancestry) will also sit in the House as independents.

Ear Researcher Wins Nobel Medical Award

Stockholm, Sweden, Oct. 19 (AP)—A Hungarian-born engineer, who in his youth was fascinated by high-pitched gypsy music, was awarded the Nobel 1961 prize for medicine today for research on the human ear. Part of the research involved experimentation with the ear of a dead man.

The prize, valued this year at 250,000 Swedish crowns ($48,000) in cash, went to Dr. Georg von Bekesy, 62, now of Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass.

Von Bekesy began his career in Hungary as a telephone engineer. In his book, "Experiments in Hearing," he described how he proceeded from basic telephone techniques to elaborate experiments on the human ear over a period of 34 years. Today's award said his work had enriched the whole field of acoustics.

His early work was carried out at the Royal Hungarian Institute for Research in Telephony in Budapest to which he was linked for 1924-1946. In 1947 he came to Stockholm and continued his experiments at the Royal Institute of Technology and the Royal Caroline Medico-Chirurgical Institute. The latter is the Nobel medicine prize awarding body.

Von Bekesy was given the prize for "his discoveries concerning the physical mechanisms of stimulation within the cochlea," said the official citation. The cochlea is a division of the labyrinth of the ear and Von Bekesy's work entailed a study of just how the ear hears.

The award—first of this year's series of Nobel prizes—was given after a three-hour session of the board of professors at the Royal

Rockville-Vernon Prosecution Foreseen on Illegal Signs

Signs in Vernon are becoming symbols of pending prosecution. At least signs not properly authorized under the building and zoning codes are popping up in Vernon almost daily, according to town Building Inspector Arthur F. Huntington.

Huntington said yesterday he had asked public works men to remove even illegal signs and had taken down three others himself. "It's reached a point," he said, "where violations can be permitted no longer. I intend to prosecute anyone who violates the regulations governing use of signs."

There are signs and there are signs. Some point directions, some advertise organizations, sites and things.

Huntington said he did not know of any case where signs have been taken down, could not have been, in most cases, a fee must be paid. Large billboards and the like require posting of a liability bond.

Signs are placed "almost daily" he said by real estate dealers, developers, church groups, and individuals, without permits.

Regulations apply equally to municipal, county and state agencies as well as to individuals, business organizations and non-profit groups, he said.

Finally for illegal erection of signs in 1951. Each day a sign remains standing is considered a separate offense, Huntington said.

The Future Homemakers of America at Rockville High School will be holding Saturday for the regional PFA conference at the school.

Charter Unit to Concentrate On Proposals Made in 1960

The only old charter revision proposals which will be reconsidered this year will be those which failed to be approved in May 1960 because an insufficient number of voters turned out for the referendum.

That was the decision last night of a Charter Revision Commission subcommittee headed by Atty. David Barry which met in the conference room of the Municipal Building.

Atty. Barry and Gilbert Barnes decided not to reconsider those charter revisions which the voters had rejected in the past.

The eleven charter revisions in 1960 failed only because not enough voters turned out, said Atty. Barry. The majority of those who did turn out were in favor of the changes, he said.

The revisions were drawn up by a commission headed by Judge Jay Rubnow.

Some of the revisions merely clarify the language of the charter, while others increase or limit the powers of various town officials.

All of the revisions proposed by Judge Rubnow's commission will be reviewed by the new commission, headed by Atty. Vincent J. Dianna, said Atty. Barry.

Several of the revisions were approved outright by Barry's subcommittee last night, however.

One was to authorize the directors formally to issue bonds for water and sewer capital improvement projects. Another was an expansion of the ordinance governing liens on property.

Still another was concerned with levying an assessment for the lateral from a sanitary sewer or water main in the street, to the edge of a private owner's property.

Some of the revisions which the subcommittee will present for the consideration of the entire commission concerned the removal of office of any town official convicted of a felony, the length of time

From Your Neighbor's Kitchen

By MARGE FLYNN
Mrs. Paul McKay, 47 White St., has been using a recipe for Lemon Meringue Pie that she found in her 25 year old recipe book. The recipe uses milk for a creamy texture. This has become a favorite dessert with the McKay family, for food eaten and for sending to sick friends.

- 1 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup water
- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup cornstarch
- 1/2 cup cold water
- Juice and grated rind of one large lemon
- 3 egg yolks
- 3 tablespoons milk
- 3 egg whites

Combine sugar, water and butter. Heat to the boiling point. Add cornstarch mixed with cold water. Cook until clear. Add lemon juice and rind and cook for two minutes. Beat egg yolks with milk and cook for one minute. Cool, pour into a cooled pie shell, add meringue, and brown in a 350 degree oven.

Mrs. McKay, a native of Belknap Falls, Vt., moved to Manchester 25 years ago with her parents. She has been assistant director at the Community Y nursery school for four years and for the past eight years, Mrs. McKay is a member of Central Congregational Church, and a former Sunday School teacher there.

Teams Seek Cause Of Chicago Blast

Ross Hodges, 43, from his hospital bed, said he was mixing a batch of acetate and ethyl acetate, used in making hair spray, in a 1,500 gallon blending tank, one of several in the building.

"For the last five batches the temperature had risen too high," Hodges told a Chicago Tribune newsmen. "It should have been 170 degrees. Instead it was higher, to as much as 190 degrees. Each time I put water in the cooling jacket."

"This time," said Hodges, who suffered burns over 25 per cent of his body, "the temperature began to rise and I put water in the jacket. It seemed to cool down."

"Two minutes before the explosion the temperature was okay. Then it got 170. I could see it was going to blow, that's what I got out," Hodges said. He said he called to 12 other workers in the building and they fled.

A cruising police car heard the blast and made the first report at 8:47 a.m. Within minutes police and fire departments dispatched the first of 85 vehicles to the Curtis plant at 4401 W. North Ave.

More than 1,000 workers in seven Curtis buildings were evacuated minutes after the blast. Most of the injured were in the

Two Dances Set By British Club

Class in Greek Starts Tonight

Classes for modern Greek will be offered for all ages as a part of the Manchester Adult Evening School, beginning tonight.

Mrs. Philip Savva, 21 St. John St., class organizer, said George Athanasson of Hartford will be the instructor. The classes will be held every Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m. at Manchester High School.

So far, six children—three teenagers and nine adults—have registered. For information, those interested may call Mrs. Savva.

Bermuda Love, Tiny

Hamilton, Bermuda—The highest point of land in Bermuda is only 200 feet above sea level. If the sea level were reduced 60 feet, 100 exposed reef areas would make Bermuda 10 times larger—but still only half the area of New Orleans.

Order to Quit Miami Video Climaxes Fight

Washington, Oct. 18 (AP)—The government has ordered a firm accused of using improper influence in getting the license to quit operation of Miami's television Channel 25. The Federal Communications Commission's action yesterday forcing out Public Service Television, Inc., climaxed years of controversy, according to a congressional investigation and court action. FCC Chairman Newton N. Minow said this was the first time the commission had ordered a television operator off the air. A congressional investigation of the case in 1958 led to Richard A. Mack's resignation as an FCC commissioner and to his indictment with Thurman A. Wallace, a Miami attorney, on charges of conspiring to rig the award of a license to start operating as soon as public services close down Channel 25.

Giants' Defense, New Offense

Total of Six TDs Recorded By Defenders

Halfback Dick Lynch, an offensive star when at Notre Dame, recently authored a magazine article entitled, "I Want to Play Offense." The article was written in a humorous manner, but it Lynch means it, he certainly plays on the right team—the New York Giants' defense.

The Giants led for the last 10 minutes of the game, but they were unable to score. The defense, however, was excellent, recording six touchdowns.

HUNTING and FISHING

Many anglers enjoy the fishing, but few are through by stopping the fish in ice. Here's a way to save your money by using a net.

Make one out of galvanized metal or copper. After the hole is cut, you're through fishing for the day.

As in all cases, the best bait is the fish's own kind. Use a live minnow or a piece of worm.

Put your fish in a bucket or a cooler. If you're fishing in a hole, use a net to catch the fish.

Silver City Version of M & M Boys

During the recently completed baseball season, there was hardly a day that went by that there wasn't some reference to the M & M boys. Of course no one has to be told that these stories were about the New York Yankees two home run twins, Roger Maris and Mickey Vernon, who kept the baseball world agog for weeks in their home run record.

World scoring 75 yards for all another long scoring jinx. Another top threat is halfback Arthur Ross.

Star Happy When Not Playing, Cross-Dartmouth in Feature

Boston (AP)—It's not often that you find a football player as happy when he isn't playing as when he is. That's the pleasant surprise of Joe Piroff of Dartmouth. The Crusaders are rated third nationally in passing offense while the Indians are No. 4 in the nation on pass defense.

The last time Dartmouth was in this series was in 1957 at Worcester, Mass. That was the last time the Indians were instrumental in helping Holy Cross to the Division I championship.

Dartmouth Coach Bob Dickson admits that his team has not really been tested on its pass defense, though three teams have had over the last two weeks. Dartmouth has not had a game in which it has not been outplayed in the air.

He said that he is not sure if he can really make them into a pass defense, but he is sure he can make them into a team that can win.
