Dr. Babbidge Heads UConn

STORRS (AP)—Dr. Homer D. Babbidge Jr. today was named president of the University of Connecticut, to succeed Dr. Albert N. Jorgensen.

Babbidge will assume his new duties in the fall as ninth president of the state university. Jorgensen announced his intended retirement last October.

Born in West Newton, Mass., in 1925, Babbidge went to public schools in New Haven and Amherst, N. Y., and was graduated from Yale University.

The American Council on Education, of which he is vice president, is an association of more than 1,000 colleges and universities and 145 national organizations in the field of higher education.

Prior to his council post, Babbidge spent five years in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW). He saw service as a special assistant to the U. S. commissioner of education, assistant to the HEW secretary and director of the division of education.

In 1959, the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce selected Babbidge as one of the "Ten Outstanding Young Men in the Nation." Two years later he received the Health, Education and Welfare Department's distinguished Service Medal.

He played a part in the passage of the National Defense Education Act. Babbidge taught for several years in Yale's Department of American Studies, and became director of the division of financial aids for the university.

He was co-founder in 1948 of the Program American Studies at Yale University for foreign students. Babbidge is author of "Student Financial Aid—A Manual for Colleges and Universities," and co-author with R. M. Rosenzweig of

Army Wants Own Terms

Military Holds Fate Of Frondizi Regime

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—President Arturo Frondizi went to a receptive from the army today to continue his maneuvering to stay in office but military chiefs made clear any settlement of Argentine's nine-day crisis would be on their terms.

Guards at Government House donned battle dress, machine guns were mounted on the pink-tiled building and security checks tightened in the area.

The precautions were taken apparently to forestall a sudden coup by admirals and some army generals reported determined to get Frondizi out.

Maj. Gen. Pedro Aramburu, champion of democratic government and the country's military ruler after the ouster of dictator Juan Peron, enlisted the support of much of the army high command in stalling off a showdown after the navy publicly called on Frondizi to resign.

Aramburu, hero of the revolt that overthrew Peron in 1955, pleaded for more time to work out a peace after warning the 21 million Argentines in a radio-television broadcast "the republic is in danger" and "many fear all is lost."

Aramburu called for unity without taking Frondizi's side, and promised to make a midnight report tonight to the nation on his peace-making efforts.

Frondizi, 64, has vowed he will never become a dictator, and stated that the armed forces could get rid of the president at will.

The Peronists, whose election victories drove Frondizi into a corner, appeared pushed into the background of the military crisis.

Brown Hits Nixon's Carpetbagger Blast

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown, accusing Richard M. Nixon of being ill-tempered and small, says the former vice president "didn't speak for the people of California" when he called President Kennedy a carpetbagger.

But a Nixon spokesman in Los Angeles said Sunday that Nixon's statements were misunderstood.

The Republican gubernatorial hopeful said in a speech Friday that Democrats will send top leaders to California to help Brown win reelection.

"We will show these carpetbaggers a thing or two," Nixon said. The spokesman said Nixon referred to Democrats "who will have to help rescue Pat Brown, and not the nonpolitical trips of John and Robert Kennedy last weekend."

Brown said Sunday night most

2 Boys in Dinghy Missing in Sound

FAIRFIELD (AP)—A dinghy in which two boys drifted into Long Island Sound yesterday was found capsized at Middleground Light today. There was no sign of the boys.

Middleground Light is in the middle of the Sound opposite Stratford.

The missing boys, now presumed drowned, are Arthur Bradtmuller of Fairfield and his cousin, James Paul of Monroe, both 14.

FAIRFIELD (AP)—The Coast Guard today resumed a search for two boys missing on Long Island Sound in an 8-foot dinghy.

Arthur Bradtmuller, 130 Ridgely Ave., Fairfield, and his cousin, James Paul, Blueberry Lane, Monroe, both 14, were carried out into open water yesterday when the dinghy was caught by the winds and tides.

The Coast Guard used a helicopter and cutter in a six-hour search but failed to find any trace of the boys. The search was ended at sunset.

The boys were paddling in the boat in front of a beach cottage owned by Arthur's father, David Bradtmuller, when it was swept out into the sound.

The father called police when he lost sight of the boat. Police described both boys as strong swimmers.

Took Cobra Poison WATERBURY (AP)—Charles E. Blanchard, 42, of Prospect, who, police said, took a dose of cobra poison Saturday remains in fair condition today at Waterbury hospital.

Blanchard's wife, Elaine, a cancer victim, is on the danger list. The cobra venom was used as a pain killer by Mrs. Blanchard before she was hospitalized.

In order to save Blanchard, an antidote had to be rushed from the Bronx Zoo in New York City—a distance of nearly 50 miles.

Doctors vs. Socialists

Medical Care Program Stalled in Saskatchewan

By MAX HARBELSON REGINA, Sask. (AP)—The government says yes and the doctors say no.

That, in brief, is the story of the compulsory plan for medical care adopted by the Socialist government of this prairie province, just north of Montana.

It was supposed to start operating next Sunday. Now July 1 is mentioned, but there's doubt it will begin then, either. There is doubt, in fact, whether the trail-blazing program will survive the embattled doctors' opposition, unless the government agrees to pretty drastic surgery.

So far the doctors have refused to have anything to do with the program. Dr. H. D. Daigle, president of the Saskatchewan College of Physicians and Surgeons, calls it "a form of civil conscription."

Government officials say the opposition is motivated mainly by fears the program will hit pocketbooks. These officials say the average doctor now earns about $15,000 a year, with some making up to $30,000. It would be difficult for even top specialists to maintain these levels. The government plan provides for fixed fees on a scale to be worked out with the supervising commission.

Health Minister W. G. Davies told this reporter he still hopes for a settlement with the doctors. He says the government is prepared to look seriously at "any reasonable proposition, but we are not prepared to repeal the act." He says what will happen if the doctors continue non-cooperation.

The plan, approved last fall by the Legislature, is the country's first government-sponsored compulsory medical care plan. It was a major issue in the 1960 provincial election. The government reasoned that its position was endorsed when the voters reaffirmed Saskatchewan's position as the only Socialist-governed province. The program is compulsory in the sense that every resident has to contribute to the cost. Patients in given cases—since the doctors have refused to talk with officials. The province nevertheless has estimated that the program would cost $21 million in its first year. To help finance this, it already is collecting an increase in sales, income and corporation taxes. It will begin in November to collect special medical care premiums. A family must pay $24 a year, an unmarried adult $12.

Doctors are pushing for an alternative program which would not be compulsory. Various medical insurance services now in existence would be supplemented by government subsidies to cover care for persons unable to pay. The doctors estimate this would cost only $3.5 million over what the province now spends for medical care.

Rusk Bids To Break Deadlock

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk conferred today with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in another attempt to keep the East-West disagreement on Berlin from deepening.

Their conference, in the privacy of the Soviet village, took place on the eve of Rusk's scheduled return to Washington.

It occurred in an atmosphere of deadlock. The only known new proposal after more than two weeks of disagreement, not only in an advisory capacity, and it would crowd the Western powers into the position of recognizing the Communist East German regime.

The Russian plan presupposes that American, British and French garrisons will have to leave Berlin. It gives day-to-day control over the access routes to the East German capital to an international body acting only in an advisory capacity. And it would crowd the Western powers into the position of recognizing the Communist East German regime.

Yet, seen from another angle, the Gromyko proposal at least gave the two ministers a new point of departure in their conversations after more than two weeks of disagreement, not only on Berlin but on the questions of general disarmament and suspension of nuclear weapons tests.

The 17-nation disarmament conference, meanwhile, was called off for the day because of the death of a U.N. official, preventing Rusk from making a final personal appeal for agreement on limited arms control.

Rusk had planned a final speech on disarmament before leaving for Washington Tuesday. But the session opened with the announcement of the death Sunday of T. G. Maravannan, 50, an Indian diplomat and U.N. representative at nuclear talks.

Before the session adjourned, Rusk praised Maravannan as "an international civil servant of the highest dedication, a man of great character, a man of great talent."

U.S. officials said Rusk would deliver his disarmament speech Tuesday.

Jersey Police Curbing Youth In Drinks Ride

WEST MILFORD, N. J. (AP)—At least 2,400 cars were halted by special police patrols and roadblocks in north New Jersey near the New York state line this weekend in a police drive against teenagers who cross the border to drink in New York.

Rampart Township Police reported citing 20 youthful drivers for a variety of violations.

At least one teen-ager was cited for drunken driving. Police said, however, that the roadblocks appeared to have cut down the flow of weekend traffic to New York, where 18-year-olds may buy alcoholic beverages legally. The minimum legal age for New Jersey drinkers is 21.

On Route 28 here Saturday night a car carrying four teen-agers flipped over and injured two 16-year-old passengers. Police said there was a purchase of beer in the car that had been burned in Greenwood Lake, N. Y.

The car had been driven around the roadblock before the accident, police said.

Their driver, Joseph Novakoski, 17, of 125 Glen Wild Ave., Blooming-

Saturday Post Sets 45 Issue Schedule To Halt Heavy Loss

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Saturday Evening Post, a weekly which has claimed unbroken descent from Benjamin Franklin's Pennsylvania Gazette of 1728, is being switched to 45 issues a year as part of multimillion-dollar cost reduction program by the Curtis Publishing Co.

To halt heavy losses the firm also announced Sunday night that the Ladies' Home Journal, born in 1883, and American Home are being switched from monthly to bi-monthly issues.

Robert E. MacNeal, Curtis president, said in a policy statement to personnel that the program would boost earnings and restore confidence in the magazines, which had lost ground to competitors in the past few years.

Management has been under heavy fire recently from minority stockholders.

At the same time MacNeal announced that Robert E. Fuoss, who recently redesigned the Post and succeeded Ben Hibbs Jan. 1 as editor, has resigned "because of completely friendly but irreconcilable differences of opinion with management on matters of policy."

Robert Lee Sherrod, 53, the managing editor, replaces Fuoss.

Europeans Whipped in Oran Battle

PARIS (AP)—Paris newspapers reported today that Marshal Alphonse Juin has been ordered to stay in his apartment, not to receive any visitors and refrain from making any public statement.

The order was reported to have followed publication of a letter which Juin purportedly sent to former Gen. Raoul Salan, a leader of the Secret Army Organization. In it he was reported to have referred to the secret army as a "generous movement."

By RODNEY ANGOVE ORAN, Algeria (AP)—Ex-Gen. Edmund Jouhaud, one of the most wanted leaders of the European Secret Army, was captured and sped to a French prison today. The secret army then rallied French settlers in Algiers for a defiant march that was drowned in blood.

For about an hour, fighters ranged in downtown Algiers before the European crowds were dispersed. A government spokesman said 15 were killed and 130 wounded. Melling away into side streets, the crowds shouted "Murderers!" at the French soldiers.

The French News Agency, quoting state sources, gave the death toll as 31.

A former chief of staff of the French air force, Jouhaud and his entire staff were captured Sunday in a 10-hour battle between the secret army and French forces in this second largest city of Algeria.

The secret army tried to storm a barracks and rescue Jouhaud, its commander-in-chief in western Algeria, but was repelled. Then as an uneasy calm settled over

Washington (AP)—The Supreme Court decided today that city voters are entitled to a hearing in federal courts in their complaints of unfair representation in state legislatures.

Justice William J. Brennan Jr., speaking for the high tribunal in a case from Tennessee, said a special federal court in Nashville should hear a complaint that a minority of rural voters in that state elect and control a majority of the state's legislators.

The issue, however, extends far beyond single state interest. In numerous other states, there are situations which city voters control urban populations.

Kennedy Asks $600 Million in Works Projects

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy asked Congress today for a $600-million program to start public works projects at once in areas suffering from substantial unemployment.

Kennedy outlined his new program in a letter to the House Public Works Committee as the committee opened hearings on another administration public works plan—a standby $2-billion program for use in future recessions.

The President asked for prompt enactment of both an immediate and a standby program to provide jobs. The new program had been strongly urged by labor union leaders at a White House meeting with Kennedy two weeks ago.

The President said that, despite steady economic improvement during the past year, there are nearly 1,000 communities—large cities, smaller cities, and rural areas—that are experiencing serious problems of prolonged large-scale unemployment and economic distress.

Last week Kennedy reportedly endorsed a proposal by Sen. Joseph S. Clark Jr., D-Pa., and Rep. John A. Blatnik, D-Minn., that up to $500 million be made available for public works grants this year if the April unemployment figures don't show a dramatic drop.

Whelan Owns Duck; Champ Defeats Thurston; Stan Grzyb Third

By HAL TURKINGTON

Consistent Charlie Whelan Saturday night won his second town duckpin bowling championship as he turned back Bill Thurston in five games of a seven-game series. The finals of the tournament was rolled at the Community Y Alleys before a crowd of about 80, somewhat smaller than gathered for other championship matches.

In the consolation match for third place, Stan Grzyb outlasted Ray DeLafra in a six-game set. For Thurston, it was a night of adjustment to the new equipment and marked himself, cutting the lead to one pin. Thurston went ahead in the sixth as they exchanged marks, but Whelan found the head pin in the first game. But the crowd, kept steady, and the crowd kept cheering. He finished with a seven frame when he checked out twice. Thurston needed a mark and six till to win, but couldn't raise to the occasion, and it was all over, 112-106.

Interesting Match Grzyb and DeLafra provided the more interesting match for the fans. The scores were 114-119, 141-123, 129-126, 127-117, 126-95, 123-104, 127-114.

The lead changed hands five times in the first game as the opponents kept offsetting each other's marks in alternate frames. DeLafra was the one with a big mark in the last frame to jump from a one-pin deficit to a two-pin lead.

Whelan, meanwhile, blasted away from his opening bow strike and soon was on a roll. He picked up plenty of wood all night long, and he kept hitting his mark when he lost, found himself in little trouble.

The Whelan-Thurston contest was 127-101, 122-104, 100-124, 127-119, and 122-106. The new champion had a pair of strikes and three frames with a first game and lost only 10 pins—mostly of some rough shooting.

Whelan could salvage but one mark and a poor three till, as he either off the head pin with his right hand or chopped through picking up only the 1-5-8 on 1-3-9. That mark came in the seventh frame when he trailed by 20 pins—Whelan closed with three strikes, filling the last one with a strike.

Whelan romped ahead quickly in the second game, marking and striking in the second and third frames. He led by 21 pins after the fourth. Thurston marked the lead through a two-pin deficit, but he was unable to pick up a strike in the fifth frame.

Whelan's first ball in the sixth frame was a strike, but he was unable to pick up a strike in the seventh frame. He was now down 20.

Whelan's first ball in the eighth frame was a strike, but he was unable to pick up a strike in the ninth frame. He was now down 40.

Whelan's first ball in the tenth frame was a strike, but he was unable to pick up a strike in the eleventh frame. He was now down 60.

Whelan's first ball in the twelfth frame was a strike, but he was unable to pick up a strike in the thirteenth frame. He was now down 80.

Whelan's first ball in the fourteenth frame was a strike, but he was unable to pick up a strike in the fifteenth frame. He was now down 100.

Whelan's first ball in the sixteenth frame was a strike, but he was unable to pick up a strike in the seventeenth frame. He was now down 120.

Whelan Owns Duck; Champ Defeats Thurston; Stan Grzyb Third

By HAL TURKINGTON

Consistent Charlie Whelan Saturday night won his second town duckpin bowling championship as he turned back Bill Thurston in five games of a seven-game series. The finals of the tournament was rolled at the Community Y Alleys before a crowd of about 80, somewhat smaller than gathered for other championship matches.

Team Spirit Helped Yanks' Permant Fight

By HAL TURKINGTON

That's a big part of being a successful manager. It's the team spirit that helped the Yankees win their second consecutive championship. Manager Ralph Houk answered to my question, "There was, and it was a team spirit that helped the Yankees win their second consecutive championship."

What part did Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris play in the Yankees' success? "They both gave the team a tremendous lift with their hitting. But it was Mickey and Roger. They were the ones who kept the team going when they were down."

Yanks Like Manager One thing that Houk didn't mention was the attitude of the players. "I'm sure that the players were a big part of the team's success. They were all going to win, and they were all going to give their best effort."

Maris Answers Critics With Two-Homer Blast

By HAL TURKINGTON

NEW YORK (AP)—Home run king Roger Maris, bolstered by the backing of Manager Ralph Houk in the country, blasted his way to a two-homer performance in the Yankees' 11-1 victory over the Red Sox Saturday night.

Maris hit two home runs in the first and third innings, leading the Yankees to a 11-1 victory over the Red Sox. He also had two RBIs and a double.

Maris' performance was a response to the criticism he has received for not hitting more home runs. He said he was going to show the critics that he was still a home run hitter.

Maris' two home runs were the first of his career since 1954. He has now hit 14 home runs in 1962.

Maris' performance was a key factor in the Yankees' victory. The team's offense was clicking, and they were able to score runs in every inning.

Stanley Cup Play Opens Tomorrow

By HAL TURKINGTON

Last year's Chicago victory really a fluke? Will Montreal continue its regular season mastery despite the loss of Henri Richard and possibly a couple of others? Will Toronto's perennial National Hockey League leaders, the "old men" stand the strain of extra games? Will the Rangers' unexpected good showing give them incentive enough to keep winning?

What the owners get will depend on the attendance for the three series (two semi-final, one final). What the players will get will depend on the amount of prize money they receive.

The league has increased its prize money to $100,000 for the winner of the Stanley Cup. This is a record for the league.
