MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Six men described by the Coast Guard as raiders who sank a Cuban patrol boat and rescued two wounded Cuban militiamen east of Havana are being questioned by immigration authorities.

The unidentified men were taken to Key West by a Coast Guard boat from the British island of Cay Sal Sunday night. They had sought refuge at Cay Sal after the raid. Newsmen were not allowed to talk to them.

The two militiamen were flown from the tiny island off the south-east Florida coast to Miami by Coast Guard helicopter. They were listed in fair condition at a hospital after surgery for bullet wounds.

District Immigration Director Edward Ahrens said one of the two, Sgt. Filiberto Suarez Lima, 40, asked for asylum in the United States. The other man was identified as Cpl. Miguel Cao Mendina, about 30.

Ahrens said the two told immigration officers they and two other military men were on patrol duty in an 18-foot boat Friday night, off Varadero Beach, east of Havana.

Cao and Suarez said a larger boat opened fire on them, sinking their vessel and wounding Cao in the groin and Suarez in the leg. The patrol boat sank, and men on the larger boat lifted the two militiamen from the water. The other two men were swimming to shore when last seen, Suarez said.

The six walked off the Coast Guard boat at Key West, climbed into waiting automobiles, and were whisked off to immigration offices for preliminary questioning before being sent to Miami.

One had a pistol on his hand, but none of the disarmed group appeared to be seriously hurt.

Two Refugees Slip Back East, Bring 8 West

BERLIN (AP)—Eight East German refugees savored their first full day of freedom in West Berlin today because two friends returned for them after making their own escape three weeks ago.

One of the four women in the group collapsed with emotion when she reached the West Sunday and was reunited with her parents. The woman had spent six months in jail for an earlier unsuccessful attempt to flee.

Names of the refugees were withheld to prevent reprisals against relatives and friends in East Germany.

The refugees told this story: Two men, who escaped three weeks ago, decided after long discussions to slip back to the West. They would try to return for their friends.

They swam a stretch of water on the border Saturday, cut through barbed wire on the east bank and went to the home of a friend. They met three men

State News Roundup

Traffic Tieup On Parkways Biggest Ever

HARTFORD (AP)—Connecticut's throughways were jammed with traffic from the Massachusetts to the New York border late Sunday.

Cars inched along, bumper-to-bumper, in many sections. Numerous minor accidents, mostly rear-end variety, were reported. Eight of 10 such mishaps took place on Route 15 in the vicinity of Manchester alone.

The accidents generally stemmed from the heavy traffic and did not produce the congestion, however. What brought out all the cars were the lures of a two-day holiday, the balmy weather and perhaps the last good chance to observe the autumn foliage.

For a long time east and north bound traffic formed a solid double line from the Charter Oak Bridge in Hartford to Framingham, Mass., some 90 miles away.

West of the bridge there was bumper-to-bumper traffic on Route 15 through Berlin, Newington and Meriden. Nearer the New York line the heavy traffic, on both the Merritt Parkway and the Connecticut Turnpike, was mostly west-bound.

Dies of Injuries

HARTFORD (AP)—Twelve-year-old Daniel Lattimore of Durham died at Hartford Hospital Saturday night of injuries suffered in a traffic accident. The two-car crash occurred in Durham Sept. 23.

Extended Forecast

WINDSOR LOCKS (AP)—The U.S. Weather Bureau at Bradley Field issued this forecast for Connecticut today:

Temperatures for the five day period, Tuesday through Saturday, are expected to average 7 degrees above normal. Rising temperature trend Tuesday, and Wednesday with more seasonal temperatures during the remainder of the period.

Some normal high and lows for Connecticut are Hartford 64-40; Bridgeport 63-44; New Haven 63-42.

Precipitation may total one half inch or more occurring as showers over mountain areas on Thursday and rain over most of the district on Friday.

NLRB Backs Union

HARTFORD (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) has ordered Pratt & Whitney Aircraft to stop interfering with distribution of union literature at its North Haven plant.

The action, which was announced last week, came after two years to the day after Paul Bisgyer, the trial examiner, made the recommendation to the board in a report.

Bisgyer filed his intermediate report on Oct. 17, 1960, following a series of hearings on the charges made by Local 1234, United Auto Workers.

The literature was distributed in 1959. It was unrelated to the major strike later at United Aircraft facilities in the state.

Ike Sees Only 'Nonsense' Out of Washington Clique

Greets Seely-Brown, Alsop at GOP Rally

HARTFORD (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower sharply attacked today what he called "sophisticated nonsense" from a clique of theorists in Washington.

In a 10-minute speech plumping for Republican candidates, Eisenhower said the sophisticates say "We are dead wrong if we think we can achieve our destiny on our own."

"Specifically they want a Washington where Congress is controlled by one party, where the one party gets its orders from the executive, where the executive gets its goals and purposes from a clique of theorists who specialize in experimental tampering and tinkering and talk."

Ruddy and beaming, the 72-year-old former President spoke at a Republican outdoor rally in Bushnell Park as GOP state and congressional candidates sat by.

Assistant Police Chief Thomas Kerrigan said a noon hour crowd of 25,000 was present. Newsmen thought an estimate of about 15,000 would have been more accurate.

Eisenhower said he was elected with the support of millions of Democrats and Independents. But now, he said, he believes one faction of the Democratic party is in control and "has a monopoly on sophisticated nonsense."

"Against it I must speak out myself that America today desperately needs Republican administration within its states and communities, Republican management of the House of Representatives, increased Republican representative in the Senate."

The crowd greeted the former Chief Executive warmly, waving scores of welcoming signs, throwing confetti and whooping it up.

After his speech he was presented with a 40-pound birthday cake in recognition of his 72nd birthday yesterday.

Then, after being in Connecticut about an hour, he left for Rentschler Airfield to depart for Boston. In his trip to and from the airport, he was accompanied by GOP candidates and crowds cheered his motorcade along the way.

Gubernatorial candidate John Alsop and Rep. Horace Seely-Brown, the senatorial candidate, rode in the closed automobile with him.

Ike's Birthday Dinner to Aid Bay State GOP

BOSTON (AP)—Tonight's $100-a-plate birthday dinner for former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is expected to add half a million dollars to Massachusetts Republican's campaign war chest.

Some 5,000 members of the former president's party are expected to attend the dinner at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Boston to hear a 20-minute speech starting at 9:30 p.m.

After an earlier campaign appearance at Hartford, Conn., Eisenhower was scheduled to fly to Boston by private plane for an afternoon arrival at Logan International Airport.

The former president, 72 Sunday, was expected to be greeted by Massachusetts Gov. John A. Volpe; George Cabot Lodge, who is the GOP nominee for U. S. Senate, and the rest of the state ticket.

The general will stay overnight in his Boston hotel and fly to Manchester, N. H., Tuesday morning for a speech in that city. His plane will stop at Exeter, N. H., so he may visit his grandson, David, at Phillips Exeter Academy.

President Arrives In State October 17 To Assist Ribicoff

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy files to Connecticut Wednesday to campaign for his former secretary of state, Abraham A. Ribicoff, who is running for the Senate in that state.

The President's itinerary was announced today by White House press secretary Pierre Salinger. It includes speeches in Bridgeport, Waterbury and New Haven.

The President's plane will stop in Bridgeport. He then will motorcade to Waterbury by way of

Connecticut Politics Ribicoff Says State 4th In Prime Defense Work

BRIDGEPORT (AP)—Connecticut now ranks fourth in the nation in the dollar amount of prime contract awards made by the Defense Department, U. S. Chamber of Commerce today.

"We rank right behind the much more populous states of California, New York and Massachusetts," said the Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate.

Connecticut, with its abundant supply of skilled manpower and brainpower, is in an excellent position to receive research grants from the federal government," Ribicoff said. He pledged to work for such grants if elected.

"In Connecticut," said Ribicoff, "we must continue to produce the highest skills in the nation. Our schools and universities must be first class."

Death Toll 47 In Giant Storm On West Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The West Coast from San Francisco to British Columbia mopped up today after hurricane winds and torrential downpours left at least 47 dead and scores homeless in one of the vast area's worst storms of the century.

Damage amounted to uncounted millions in northern California and western Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. Not even a rough estimate of the total loss could be tabulated.

Parts of major cities and many small towns in the 75,000-square-mile storm area still were without telephone service. Emergency phone crews were flown into the area in chartered planes to patch the lines today.

The storm, which struck the coast Thursday night, battering Oregon the hardest. It lost its

End Aloof Attitude Vatican II May Soften Mixed Marriage Vows

ROME (AP)—Roman Catholic and Protestant clergymen here express belief the current Second Vatican Council may soften the question of mixed marriages and the vows the Catholic Church demands of non-Catholics who marry Catholics.

Some Protestant churchmen have expressed hope that the Catholic Church in the current council might soften its insistence on such vows, but Catholic sources available today expressed doubt any such change will be made.

Sources close to the conference said there is talk of softening also giving status and recognition for the first time to other denominations and ending the traditionally aloof attitude of the Church of Rome.

Protestant groups have been working quietly for a revision of the Catholic attitude on both these points, regarded as wounding by other Christian churches.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Michael Ramsey, last week referred to the conditions imposed for mixed marriages as "very painful" to practicing Anglicans.

The archbishop said he was thinking of the Catholic invitation to the non-Catholic husband or wife to abandon his faith and the insistence that children of mixed marriages must be brought up as Catholics.

Informed sources said the council also will review the system allowing only shortened services for mixed marriages. These sources said use of the full Roman Catholic liturgy may be authorized.

To many observers here, the most fascinating aspect of the council is the change it represents in the Catholic attitude to the other Christian churches. Exchanges between Pope John XXIII and other Christian leaders have rarely been more cordial.

The Russian Orthodox Church has two observers here for the first formal contacts between the churches for nearly 10 centuries.

Another 18 churches or religious bodies are represented in talks

Sparked by Adjournment Political War Starts On Congress' Record

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 87th Congress sputtered to adjournment over the weekend, signaling the beginning of a political tug-of-war over its record that will continue through the Nov. 6 general election.

The longest session since 1951, Congress gave President Kennedy part of what he asked, considerably altered some of his requests, and completely blanketed the administration on three major programs.

Congress supported the president on his foreign policy requests.

In addition it gave him substantially what he asked for in the Reciprocal Trade Expansion Act, aid for depressed areas, manpower retraining program, postal rate and federal employ pay increases and increased minimum wages.

His incentive tax exemption and strict farm production control programs were approved in part.

But Congress turned a deaf ear to administration requests for federal aid to schools and colleges, health insurance for the aged financed through higher social security taxes and establishment of a department of urban affairs.

The handle reached a climax Friday when Rep. Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., vetoed House Appropriations Committee chairman, Charles McNamara's, attempt to defeat a $205,000 survey item which the Senate had tacked onto the $5-billion public works appropriation measure.

Cannon lost the vote, but it disclosed what house leaders had

Flemish, Walloons Clash in Brussels

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Police held 40 persons today after thousands of Flemish-speaking Belgians swarmed into Brussels and clashed with French-speaking Walloons they accused of "subjugating" them.

Members of both groups were taken into custody as a result of Sunday's outbreaks that injured about 20 persons. Courtdemonstrations by Walloons continued far into the night.

The race-and-language rivalry goes back 125 years to Belgian independence. Although the Flemings now have a majority in parliament, they claim discrimination continues, especially in Brussels.

Officials estimated 25,000 to 30,000 Flemings from northern Belgium

Oracle Sees Bitter Winter

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—The famed, and, yes, sometimes fickle oracle of the Pennsylvania Dutch country has spoken again, predicting a long, bitter winter.

Just off the press and ready for distribution today, the 138th edition of the John Baer's Agricultural Almanac gives agricultural comfort to most of the country from November to April. Its predictions are for a seldom-broken season of cold waves, storm and snow-balls.

New Crisis Expected U.S. Restates Policy On Rights to Berlin

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has assured West Germany that it is determined to maintain the right of civilian as well as military access to West Berlin against any new Soviet attempt to isolate the city.

U.S. policy on this point is understood to have been stated emphatically to West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder, who began strategy talks with Secretary of State Dean Rusk here Sunday.

Schroeder will be followed to Washington Nov. 7 by West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer who wants to discuss the Berlin situation with President Kennedy in advance of a possible Kennedy meeting with Soviet Premier Khrushchev concerning Berlin.

Kennedy, untruffled as he stepped off the plane, quickly entered a limousine which took him to the White House.

Sprinting through New York, northern New Jersey, western Pennsylvania, Indianapolis, Louisville and Buffalo in the last three days, Kennedy demonstrated:

He is primarily interested in turning out a big vote on Nov. 6.

He said in a television interview (ABC) that competition on the stump from former President Dwight D. Eisenhower "may not be so helpful," as he put it — will help arouse the electorate. Democrats outnumber Republicans in registration, he said, but Democrats "don't do so well" in pouring out on election day.

He is working for New Frontiersmen. He reckons on a 25 per cent defection of Democrats on crucial domestic votes. In Pittsburgh, he lumped conservative members of his party with Republicans as obstacles on key issues.

He's willing to endorse a Republican, as he did in Louisville. John Sherman Cooper, one of Ken-

Redskins Still Riding High in NFL

NEW YORK (AP)—The Green Bay Packers ably demonstrated that they can get the job done even without the services of Paul Hornung, but it's doubtful the Washington Redskins would still be riding high were it not for their clutch combo of Norm Snead and Bobby Mitchell. Hornung, the National Football League's scoring leader and an all-around star for the defending champion Packers, was forced to sit out the second half of the Packers' 21-17 victory over the Minnesota Vikings yesterday, but Snead and Mitchell were all present and accounted for in St. Louis. Snead's 36-yard pass to Mitchell set up Bobby Koyan's 20-yard field goal with only 13 seconds to play.

The tie enabled the amazing Snead to run their record to three victories and two ties and go one game in front of their conference rivals, the Pittsburgh Steelers. Snead's 36-yard pass to Mitchell set up Bobby Koyan's 20-yard field goal with only 13 seconds to play.

In other Sunday action, Baltimore surprised the Cleveland Browns 24-14 as Johnny Unitas threw three touchdowns passes; the San Francisco 49ers, on their third straight, beating Chicago 27-17; and the Dallas Cowboys showed some of their new offensive power in beating Philadelphia 27-17.

In the American Football League, Houston quarterback George Blanda threw six touchdowns passes as the Oilers routed the New York Jets 37-17. The Oilers' leading scorer was Blanda, who threw for 234 yards and six touchdowns.

Remember the days when the Red Sox and the Yankees were the only two teams in the American League? Well, they're back. The Red Sox, led by Earl Yost, defeated the Yankees 5-4 in a game that was a classic of the old school before special teams dominate college football.
