Do you have loved ones 65 or over?

End their fear of big medical bills!

Anyone 65 or over who lives in Connecticut may be enrolled in Connecticut 65 Major Medical Health Insurance.

You yourself-as son, daughter, relative or friend-can enroll such a person. The signature of the insured is not required. Neither is a medical examination.

PREVENTS DISASTROUS LOSS OF SAVINGS!

By taking action now you may save a loved one . . . or yourself . . . thousands of dollars. Connecticut 65 offers real protec tion against the financial drain of prolonged illness or serious accident. Bills for the usual type of hospital confinement and surgery may already be adequately prowided for by present basic insurance. Connecticut 65 does not replace such benefits but it extends protection beyond that basic coverage. However, those 65 or over who do not already have basic insurance, may supplement their Connecticut 65 Major Medical with Connecticut 65 basic hospital-surgical coverage.

NOTE THESE IMPORTANT FEATURES Connecticut 65 can pay up to $10,000. It costs less than 33¢ a day for specified major medical benefits. Spouses may join in enrolling if at least 55 and not employed for more than 30 hours a week.

WHO'S BEHIND THE PLAN

Connecticut 65

Connecticut 65 has been made possible and is being offered, by an association o 32 leading insurance companies in recognition of a real need. Similar associations are making comparable protection available to residents of neighboring New York and Massachusetts.

Giants will be keyed on Sunday aftermoon. The upcoming collision between the two powerbouses brings back memories of the era from 1937-1946 when the team averaged bet-ter than 51,00 paid fans for their meetings at the Polo Grounds. This was a stunning record of popularity unapproached elsewhere in those early days of professional football, and it gave the sport a foundation in the east to match the older Bears-Packers rivalry in the west. Giants will be keyed on Sunday in from slumber by 8,000 singing fans in from Washington, who were led by an Indian-garbed band up Broadway. The band in turn was foundar George Preston Marshall, inimitable showman of the game. The capital Braves did well to celebrate early that day: the Giants won 36-0. However, the first visit of a Washington team to this city, in 1937, almost left the Polo Grounds in ruins as the the older Bears-Packers rivalry in the west. Giants won 36-0.
