By PRESTON GROVER
MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda, the Communist party paper, pressed a broad-scale attack today on liberal tendencies in literature, art and music.

The party organ echoed Premier Khrushchev's criticism last week of abstract art and included music and literature.

"The pseudo innovators in painting and music, under the pretext of artistic search and allegedly faring avant-gardism, deviated from the traditions of realistic art and betray these traditions," the paper said.

"The pseudo innovators unthinkingly run after Western fashion, engage in pitiable imitation of the corrupt formalist art of the bourgeois world which in its nature is deeply alien to the world outlook of Soviet man."

The paper restated the policy on art and literature that has prevailed in Russia for most of the Soviet period.

"The cohesion of all talented active forces of literature and art on the basis of the principles of Socialist realism, on the great ideas of communism, is the first task of creative unions," it said.

Pravda called on the youth leagues, the people, the party, the press, radio and television to support that policy.

President Awaiting Labor Strife Report

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy gets reports today from two Taft-Hartley labor emergency boards he named in stopping strikes by East Coast dock workers and Lockheed aerospace workers.

In another development related to a major labor controversy, the nation's railroads gathered here for a huddle to determine their next legal step in fighting worker layoffs threatened by the carriers.

Of the three disputes a renewed strike by the 60,000 dock workers appears to be the most imminent. The workers ended a 10-day strike over the administration on Oct. 6 obtained an 80-day injunction under the Taft-Hartley emergency provisions.

The emergency board studying this case is expected to report to the White House that there still is a tight deadlock between the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association and ship-owners and stevedore firms.

The next step will be a vote on the employers' last settlement offer, rejected by the union. A worker turnaround of the offer, which officials say they expect, will mean a real threat of a pier strike on Atlantic and Gulf coasts on Dec. 23 when the 60-day injunction runs out.

The Lockheed labor dispute is in an earlier stage of development. Kennedy invoked the Taft-Hartley provisions in this case last Wednesday after a walkout that had started earlier that day. On Thursday, the striking Inter-

Russian JD's Having a Ball On the Kolkhoz

By GEORGE SYVETSEN
MOSCOW (AP)—Life down on the collective farms has been the same since Soviet courts started sentencing juvenile delinquents out of the big cities to work with the peasants.

Exasperated kolkhozniks—collective farmers—are telling authorities to quit sending problems—they have enough of their own.

The country folk's case against the government's program for "re-educating" young offenders who won't work was presented in Kiev newspaper Pravda of Ukraine.

"This is re-educating" the newspaper demanded in an article exposing the hijinks of the Soviet detroit kids among their country cousins.

Valentin Donakoy, chairman of the Makostroy state farm near Donetsk, said he and his farmers got a shipment of Western jeans.

"The worst of it is the drunkenness," he told an interviewer, "especially on paydays—then they drink for three or four days. They don't go out to work until they drink up everything."

Donakoy and his assistants decided to quit selling vodka at the state farm store. That same evening, all the special settlers were drunk as usual.

"It turned out the special settlers had hung one on with cheap eau de cologne," he explained. "The storekeeper couldn't keep up with the demand. He fulfilled his plan for the sale of eau de cologne for the next 10 years."

Another state farm leader ruefully said: "The village people are saying: 'If the city folks don't know how to bring them up, then what are we supposed to do?'"

A district quiet village district. But the cities started cleaning out their scum and dumping all the hoodlums on us.

France Shuns U.S. Plan for Bloc N-Force

PARIS (AP)—French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, whose government wants to make France an independent nuclear power, poured cold water today on the idea of an integrated European nuclear force.

Couve de Murville, addressed legislators in a running debate of the Western European Union, convened to discuss European defense and the possibility of such an integrated nuclear force under command of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The United States, which is opposed to such national nuclear arms development programs as France is undertaking, has suggested that a European force integrated with NATO be formed as an alternative.

The WEU assembly is made up of representatives of Belgium, France, West Germany, Britain, Italy, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

The assembly's defense committee has prepared a report urging creation of a NATO nuclear force which, in the words of President Kennedy at Ottawa in 1961, would be "multilateral in ownership and control."

With an eye on existing British and French nuclear armament, it is suggesting that a NATO force should include all Western European nuclear forces and "a sub-

Pilot Wrote About Peril At Idlewild

WASHINGTON (AP)—A magazine article by a pilot killed in the airliner crash Friday at New York's Idlewild Airport deplores what he called the narrow safety margin for landings there.

Master Air Lines Capt. Edward J. Bechtold, referred particularly to runway 4, the runway which he missed when he crashed in it.

Killed with Bechtold in that crash were 24 other persons among the 51 aboard the DC7B.

Bechtold's article, written several weeks ago for Aviation magazine, will not appear until the January issue, out Dec. 26.

Bechtold urged that the Federal Aviation Agency install the new Instrument Landing System scheduled for Idlewild on the southeast runway, No. 12, instead of northwest No. 31, as planned.

"From the pilot viewpoint an ILS on the SE runway is almost mandatory to beat the law of averages," Bechtold wrote.

"No crystal ball is needed for this."

Started New Landing

NEW YORK (AP)—Seconds before his plane crashed Friday night into marshland at Idlewild Airport, killing 25 persons, the pilot of an Eastern Air Lines instrument landing system scheduled for Idlewild on the southeast runway, No. 12, instead of northwest No. 31, as planned.

"From the pilot viewpoint an ILS on the SE runway is almost mandatory to beat the law of averages," Bechtold wrote.

Leaders Smooth Way For Talk on Kashmir

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru said today there will be no restrictions or preconditions in the forthcoming talks between India and Pakistan on Kashmir.

Answering questions in Parliament, Nehru denied there was any contradiction between his Nov. 30 statement on the subject and his clarification Dec. 1 after seeing British Commonwealth Relations Secretary Duncan Sandys.

The prime minister said both the Indian and Pakistani representatives will have complete freedom to express their opinions.

—President Mohammed Ayub Khan's government is requesting India to set a date for talks on Kashmir by Dec. 9 at the latest, Pakistani papers said today.

In London, Commonwealth Relations Secretary Duncan Sandys said on his return from India and Pakistan today he is confident there is nothing to rumors that Pakistan is about to sign a nonaggression pact with China, and, although that rumor has not been denied, he is absolutely confident there is nothing in it.

"I feel that this rumor of a nonaggression pact between Pakistan and China has been very unfortunate," Sandys, who had talks with government leaders in both India and Pakistan, said he tried to help them toward discussion of the difficulties between them.

"I think the opportunity for a settlement of this very difficult dispute about Kashmir is better than it ever has been," he said.

"It has been improved because of the external danger. It makes nonsense of defense against China to wasting one's forces guarding against one's near neighbors." Sandys said it was not for him to say if India would accept the Communist Chinese terms for a cease-fire in their border dispute.

"I don't think they have, in fact accepted the terms as yet. At the moment the Indian government is trying to get some clarification of what the Chinese proposal really means."

He said the Indian people are more wholly united today than ever before.

"After the Chinese attack upon them, they are unanimously determined never again to rely for their safety and freedom on good faith in China. With the help

Fire, Crashes Kill Four on Weekend

A tenement house fire in Ansonia and two traffic accidents claimed four lives in Connecticut over the weekend.

The victims of the fire Sunday morning were Arthur Ehemann, 60, of Derby and Mrs. Ida Thomas, 58, who police said shared an apartment in the building at 54 Tremont St.

Twenty-three survivors were left homeless by the blaze. Fire Marshal Herbert A. Smith said the fire was apparently touched off by a defective oil burner in a kitchen range.

The old stucco structure was soon to be torn down to make way for a redevelopment project.

Killed Sunday night in North Haven was 27-year-old George F. Moran, of North Haven, whose car failed to negotiate a curve on Maple Ave. and struck a tree. His wife, Janet, 23, was hospitalized in serious condition.

An Ellington girl, 16-year-old Vera Lee Hurd, was fatally injured Saturday night in a smash-up on Rt. 83 in Ellington.

Police said she was a passenger in a car driven by James Lakso of Rockville, which collided with another car driven by 16-year-old Dale Sherman, also of Rockville.

Sylvester told a news conference.

U.S. DENIES CLAIM
RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP)—A member of Parliament charged today the United States has built secret missile and rocket bases in northern Pakistan near the Khyber Pass. A U.S. spokesman denied the claim as absolutely without foundation.

COURT ACCEPTS CASE
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court agreed today to rule on whether Henry Winston, former organizational secretary for the Communist party, may sue the government for $1 million damages. ## Peking Jeers As Tito, Nikita Schedule Talk

MOSCOW (AP)—President Tito of Yugoslavia, a Communist with strong nationalist overtones, headed today for Moscow talks with Soviet Premier Khrushchev accompanied by the tumbas and jibes of the Peking radio.

The Tito party, including his wife Jovanka, left Budapest by special train at midnight after a brief but ceremonious stay in the Hungarian capital.

Tito's trip was billed as a vacation. It was not known if he would visit other cities before setting down with Kremlin leaders for a discussion that is sure to include the rift in Moscow-Peking relations and its meaning for world Communist unity.

As Tito's expedition got under way, the Peking radio blasted the "Tito group" and "its notorious supra-bloc policy" as "traitors of the World Communist movement and of U.S. imperialism."

Tito and Khrushchev last met in New York in 1960 at meetings of the U.N. General Assembly. The two leaders last met in the Soviet Union in 1958, in an upward climb in relations between the two countries since the sharp break during the Stalin era.

Tito probably will discuss economic problems with his Soviet hosts. Yugoslavia has been undergoing a difficult period, with food shortages as one problem. The United States agreed last week to help providing 1.2 million tons of wheat.

White House News Control Said Ranging from N-Tests to Ballet

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the first of a series of three analyses on government information policies.

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The shades are down, and have been for quite a while, on information the government is willing to make public. At this time they're not all the way down. They go down sharply in times of overseas crisis.

They did in both world wars, in the Korean War, when the American U-2 plane was shot down over the Soviet Union in 1960, at the time of the disastrous Cuban invasion of 1961, and more recently in the Cuban tension of 1962.

The Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy administrations have all been involved—when there was crisis and when there wasn't any.

President Kennedy's administration got sharp news media criticism during the October-November Cuban affair. It began easing up on those particular restrictions when the heat died down.

Then late last week Rep. John E. Moss of California, a member of Kennedy's own Democratic party and chairman of the House subcommittee on information, hit at the President and his advisers for management of the news.

He cited examples of news re-

BALTIMORE (AP)—U Thant, secretary-general of the United Nations says Western leaders have not responded to a change in the political climate of the Soviet Union.

String Group Plays Mozart

By JOHN GRUBER

Last night I was one of the auditors that assembled in the auditorium of the Manchester South Church to attend one of the regular Sunday evening "coffee concerts." Ordinarily I don't attend these, but last night I was invited to attend by the Hillington String Quartet, which was playing an all-Mozart program, and last night's program was a most enjoyable one.

United Fund Begins Drive for $107,000

er in a non-profit corporation formed by the local citizens to disseminate the number of health and welfare agencies in the area. The drive is being conducted by the United Fund, which is a national organization. Its dominant purpose is to consolidate many separate efforts into a single fund-raising campaign.

The advantages of such a united effort are obvious. Time, effort and money are all used to maximum efficiency. Instead of nine individual campaigns, one big united effort enables each citizen to unite himself or herself with hundreds of others in a joint campaign to provide the necessary funds to support local and national agencies, says the booklet.

Although this year nine agencies are taking part, officials hope that eventually all or nearly all health and welfare agencies that have in Manchester will join the fund.

Officials point out that some national health organizations don't permit their local chapters to participate in federated campaigns. Manchester residents who work in Hartford will be asked to contribute to the fund here, although they are asked to support the Greater Hartford Community Chest.

Any contributor is entitled to vote for directors at the annual meeting. Contributions are deductible from income.

Persons may specify whether they wish to give to the United Fund as a unit or to the individual agencies participating. Pledges may be made in any amount monthly or quarterly at any time before Dec. 31, 1962.

The participating agencies have assured the fund that they will contribute additional separate drives this year.

Bessie Marlow, Marlow and Boyce, the executive campaign committee, include George W. Kaplan and Robert P. Fuller, Robert F. Brock is handling publicity.

Howard B. Jenkins is a fund-raising consultant. The first gift received by the fund is a $10,000 contribution from Green Manor Construction Co. Inc., Lydall & Foutta Paper Co. and Marlow & Boyce. The initial gifts division. It was presented to Boyce Tuesday at a kick-off dinner for the drive.

ARC Budget Of $20,709 in United Fund

The American Red Cross, which offers services in 11 areas in the United States and abroad, is seeking $20,709 as a participating agency in the $107,000 drive of the United Fund.

The funds will go to support 1962-63 expenses of the Manchester Red Cross office at 159 E. Center St. and to help support the national headquarters.

The Red Cross provides services in the following areas: Armed Forces, veterans, disaster, nursing, international activities, volunteers, "ood program, first aid, water safety, adult craft and youth activities.

"The American Red Cross serves the nation, rather than any limited category of the population," says a booklet on 1962 activities of the organization.

"It services to the armed forces, the nation, the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain, France, the Nationalist China—to say a large share of such states than they do of the United States," says the booklet.

The United States pays 30 per cent of the cost of the D.N. Congo force. This extra contribution has been made voluntarily.

Sponsors of the two resolutions were reported confident that the national assembly accepting the court would favor the United States.

But one source said both resolutions were in jeopardy because of the Latin-American vote by supporting the Latin American amendment.

A key question was how many countries that do not pay any contribution to the United States would make themselves legally responsible to pay. Fifty have never paid for the Congo operation, and 25 have never paid for the Middle East operation.

Fund Volunteers Meeting Tonight

About 100 persons are expected to attend a kick-off dinner for the United Fund's business division tonight at 8:30 at Flano's in Bolton.

George H. Marlow, chairman of the division, will distribute pledge cards to the volunteers. The first report from the division is expected at a noon luncheon Wednesday at Coney's Restaurant.

E. Theodore Bartly Jr., James H. DeBacco, small city, Hobson are assisting Marlow as vice chairmen.

Police Arrests

Paul V. Shea, 35, of Simsbury and Raymond H. DeLallo, 36, of Talcottville, were each charged with breach of the peace last night after they exchanged blows in a fight at Manchester Memorial Hospital. Each man posted a $100 bond and will be presented in Circuit Court, Manchester, Dec. 17.

Richard Oliver, 19, of 148 Blue Mt. St., early yesterday morning was charged with breach of the peace. On a check of a complaint from a Blaisdell St. woman who reported that a man was looking in her bathroom window, police found Oliver prowling around the home of the complainant. Oliver posted a $100 bond and will be presented in Circuit Court 12, Manchester, Dec. 17.

James Madden, 59, of no certain address, Saturday was charged with intoxication. He posted a $25 bond while awaiting presentation in court here on Dec. 17.

KILLED IN CRASH

GROTON (AP)—James Mahoney, 29, of 38 West St., New London was fatally injured in a two-car accident today at Col. Ledyard Highway and Rt. 95 here.

Mr. Mahoney was riding in a car driven by Keith Boardman, 36, of Mago Point, Waterford. It collided with a car operated by Miss Marston Kennedy, 26, of School St., Mystic. The accident was at 7:29 a.m. Mr. Mahoney died at 10 a.m. at Lawrence Memorial Hospital, New London.

School Board Set to Study Part 2 of Curtis Report

Supt. of Schools William H. Curtis expects to have ready for the board of education by its Wednesday meeting Part II of his report on enrollment trends, plant capacity and future needs of the Manchester school system.

Part II will include the superintendent's recommendations for future planning of town schools. The first part was an enrollment study.

The school board will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the board room of Bennett Junior High School.

Also on the agenda is a school personnel policy committee, which was asked at the last board meeting to study and recommend action on a state-prepared report involving working relations between teachers' groups and boards of education.

The board is considering whether to accept the "Committee of Nine" policy as proposed by the Manchester Federation of Teachers, which has eliminated from teachers' salary negotiations the board.

The federation and the Manchester Education Association have separately submitted their opinions on the report to the board members. The MEA says it favors adopting the report as it stands. The federation says it wants guaranteed minority representation on negotiating committees of the finance committee, community college liaison committee, building and sites committee and transportation committee.

The finance committee will discuss setting new tuition rates for out-of-town pupils enrolled in Manchester schools. The college committee will report on a recent study.

The building and sites committee will recommend action on a request that the board will procure property adjacent to Verplanck School. The transportation committee will recommend action on a request from North Enders that their children, pupils at Manchester High School, be allowed school bus transportation.

The board will appoint a new teacher of the retarded and will consider a resignation request and request for a leave of absence.

Supt. Curtis, Asst. Supt. Ronald P. Scott and school board member William Collins will report on a regional meeting on educational television which they attended Wednesday at Trinity College.

Board members will also hear a report from Atty. John R. G. Rottler and Supt. Curtis on the master plan discussion Wednesday.

Peking Jeers As Tito, Nikita Schedule Talk

Tito's role as a neutralist in East-West battles and grew particularly incensed over what Peking called Yugoslavia's espousal of a neutralist Cuba. The Chinese were strong supporters of Prime Minister Frel's Castro in the recent crisis and made no effort to conceal their anger at Moscow's decision to withdraw the Russians and jet bombers the Russians had sent to Cuba.

The official Peking People's Daily said "for its meritorious services in opposing Cuba, the imperialists have given one bonus after another to the Tito group."

Which Republican Image?

It is interesting, and encouraging, to read that former President Eisenhower has been "volunteering" a little of his personal influence to try to promote the image of a moderate or liberal Republican to important committee posts in the new Congress.

Some time later the Republican party will have to do something to end the almost perpetual estrangement between the image of Eisenhower in Congress and the image it usually nominates every four years for the presidency.

One way to receive this estrangement, of course, would be to alter the image the Republican party wears in Congress. This might be done by bringing greater leadership prominence such individuals as Senator Case of New Jersey or Congressman Lindsay of New York, and by moving Republican policy in Congress at least part way out of its reactionary alliance with Southern Democrats.

The smaller the Republican contingent in Congress, then, the more conservative and routine it becomes, and the more solid the Republican image which demands the independent voters. What really has to be done, in order to produce the image Mr. Eisenhower usually carries, is to change the party's image in Congress to one that is more liberal and more moderate.

The other alternative would be, of course, to change and harmonize the image by altering the party's image in Congress to one that is more liberal and more moderate.

Under such a change, the party would have had difficulty picking such a nominee as Dwight D. Eisenhower, even though each of these had some capacity to seem all things to all men.

And, although the Eisenhower role and performance and success never really warmed the hearts of the routine party conservatives, never really broke down the party.

Image which still survived inside Congress, Eisenhower did nevertheless provide the example of the direction in which the party would have to try to live and develop and grow if it wanted to be able to win congressional as well as residential elections. So we hope some success for him in his present effort to mold the Republican contingent in Congress toward some tolerance toward any youth, moderate, and brains it may have in its midst.

Financing The UN

Now that the United Nations has been given the tonic of the election of Secretary General Thant to fill the office of the most important thing that ought to happen at the UN is some improvement in its power to finance its own objective.

Something has been brewing in this direction, as a result of the financial crisis born of the retreat of some nations, like Russia, and France, to pay their allocated share of expense for special United Nations activities, like the Congo. Reports say, in fact, that a good majority of members has been convinced that something has to be done to make the payment of UN assessments an inescapable obligation. If, by pressure and agreement, the United Nations members themselves, there can be some assurance of better financial behavior in the future, that will be at least one kind of gain.

But something more than any temporary promise of good behavior under the present system of UN financing ought to be planned and worked for. So long as the present system of assessing UN expenses against the member governments is also the temptation for individual governments or blocs of governments to exercise a simple financial veto over the policies of the United Nations.

The lesson is implicit in the history of every political federation ever attempted. The United States was a founding affair until the federal government was able to raise the rights of taxation entirely free of veto or interference by the member states. And the ultimate strength and independence of the United Nations requires that that organization shall have, some day, its own adequate revenue, collected by its own special means and authority from some non-national source.

For the present, one hopes for a better behavior in the existing system of financing the UN through national assessments. For the future, one hopes some direct and imaginative tax expert devises some symbolically appropriate and easily collectible little tax from which the UN can obtain a few billions a year for world life and health.

The Tempter

The cold war has now entered one of those phases in which one has to be careful of the subtle sophisticated blandishments of the opposition. It is a time in which one must prove able to resist the pleasing and luring possibility that people on the other side—even people in very high places—are human. It is a time when one must be careful to preserve the cold, stiff front against the insidious efforts of the other side to establish some community of feeling or taste.

A really clever antagonist can make all this very difficult. When Premier Khrushchev, the other day, toured that Moscow art exhibition, he obviously knew just how to plant his fifth column propaganda that we really lived in the same community of taste by his cleverly insidious remarks to the moderate and liberal Democrats though there may be deserving conservatives in line for any honors available. This is why Mr. Eisenhower may not get very far with his well-intentioned effort.

The other alternative would be, of course, to change and harmonize the image by altering the party's image in Congress to one that is more liberal and more moderate.

Under such a change, the party would have had difficulty picking such a nominee as Dwight D. Eisenhower, even though each of these had some capacity to seem all things to all men.

And, although the Eisenhower role and performance and success never really warmed the hearts of the routine party conservatives, never really broke down the party.

A Thought for Today

Sponsored by the Manchester Council of Churches

As the Advent season begins we look forward with a peculiar mixture of nostalgia and anticipation to the moment when we shall once again observe the birth of Christ. It is human to color this time with the memories of long past, with the memories of childhood, even with the quiet ache of disappointed dreams. We will be busy with countless activities, some of which will have doubtful value with the meaning of this time.

It is good, therefore, to pause along the hurried way and remember that this is God's season; it is His business that catches up our feet and our hearts in this time. Take a brooding moment, quiet and untroubled, and listen to the words of the psalmist: "The Mighty One, God the Lord, speaks and summons the earth from the setting of the sun to its setting. Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth. Herein lies the meaning of Christmas."

THESE FACTS ABOUT HEALTH INSURANCE CAN KEEP YOU FROM GETTING HURT

Chances are, you probably have basic Hospitalization and Surgical Expense Insurance through your individual policies or through Group Insurance where you work. But do you have Major Medical Expense Insurance to protect you against catastrophic medical bills... or Disability Insurance to provide you with an income if you can't work due to accident or illness?

White House News Control Said Ranging from N-Tests to Ballet

Having to report on what was said means extra work and could cause them difficulty if the bossman thinks they talked too much. Withholding information is also one of the noisiest ways to cover mistakes. Kennedy said his administration would not conceal its mistakes. He himself frankly took the blame for the Cuban invasion fiasco.

By his doing so, the public was deprived of knowing what among his aides goaded. The House Government Operations Committee, parent group of the subcommittee, said in 1960 secrecy is "the first refuge of the incompetent."

There is the Sylvester system of compiling officials to report on their conversations with newsmen. This may help keep top Pentagon officials informed on what their subordinates are saying. But it cannot help discourage those subordinates from talking to newsmen altogether.

Beauty Salon Tries to End Care Contract

A court decision may be needed to resolve a dispute between a Manchester beauty salon and Pennsylvania advertising agency over whether the salon has to make good some 200 haircuts for care contracts that the advertising agency sold for $5.99 apiece.

Mrs. Horan said she signed a contract with the agency, around Nov. 9, promising to give a year's hair care to 200 new customers, if the agency could secure them.

The agency conducted a campaign promising that each woman who paid $5.99 could get four haircuts and sets and four conditioning treatments, or eight shampoos and sets, over a year's time.

All of the money went to the agency.

Mrs. Horan said she agreed to the arrangement because of the advertising value of introducing new customers to her service.

However, she said the response was so great from the start that after the first day an advertisement in the Herald she had the agency to cease the promotion.

She told the agency she would not honor any of the cards.

When a woman who bought the cards began calling for their first appointments, she told them she would not honor them.

The agency insisted that she had signed a contract, and continued to make appointments for her own customers and those of other Manchester beauty salons, she said.

Lupton Urges GOP To Unite Elements

HARTFORD (AP)—John Lupton, the defeated candidate for congressman-at-large, urged today that the conservative and liberal elements in the Republican party join in a single purpose as a step toward GOP victory in 1964.

"We Republicans in Connecticut," Lupton said in a radio talk, "should be united in our common goal of seeking a philosophical common ground at our last convention."

"We must continue to make progress in this direction in the months and years ahead," he told the weekly Republican caucus.

"For, if we successfully merge the party of the people once more," Lupton said, "the ground can be found in the middle of the two camps."

Republicans, he said, must "provide the voter with honest, candid alternatives to the collectiveism of the Democrats."

The Democratic Party, he said, is a "monolithic bloc" and "is not a party of the people."

Deep-Sea Test Fails; Man Lead, One Lost

MANCHESTER, CONN., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1962

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Two frogmen, seeking a diving record, dropped 1,000 feet into the sea—and something went wrong. One man was fatally stricken and another, coming to his aid, vanished in the depths.

Both were Englishmen taking part Monday in an experiment to test a new mixture of gases called "Miguel" that was developed by the U.S. Navy.

Killed was Peter Small, 28, a reporter for the London Daily Telegraph. He apparently died of the gas.
