Sabin Use Urged, Risk Held Slight

By JOHN BARBOUR
WASHINGTON (AP)—Americans are urged to use the Sabin oral vaccine against polio—but with a warning of a "very small risk" for adults.

The report came Wednesday from U.S. Surgeon General Luther Terry and his special advisory committee on the vaccine which for months has been pondering the question of hazardous.

Committee experts estimated the chances at 1 in 10 million to one that the vaccine's live viruses might cause paralytic polio in persons of all ages. The odds, they said, were only slightly higher for adults, especially for those over 50.

Terry and the committee urged communities to go on with planned vaccination programs with the three types of Sabin live virus, with special emphasis on vaccination of children and young adults.

"The oral (Sabin) and Salk (injected) vaccines have two established weapons against polio and we can, I believe, look forward to the day when polio is finally eliminated from this country," Terry said in a statement.

"With a total of more than 800 cases reported this year, compared to almost 10,000 a decade ago (when vaccines were not available), it is clear we are well on our way," he said.

On Sept. 15 and again on Oct. 2, the special panel on the Sabin

Court Rejects Injunction Bid To Redistrict

NEW HAVEN (AP)—A panel of three federal judges today rejected an application for a preliminary injunction to force Gov. John N. Dempsey to convene the 1961 session of the General Assembly for the purpose of redistricting the State Senate.

The U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Haven today rejected the application of a group of Democrats who sought to force the governor to call the legislature into session to redistrict the State Senate.

The application was denied in a decision by Judge Charles E. Clark of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

"The law is clear," the court said. "The governor has the duty to convene the legislature when he deems it necessary in the public interest."

The court also rejected the argument that the governor's failure to call the legislature into session was an abuse of power.

Cold War Problems Add Day to Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three passing cars were damaged in a dynamite blast at the Mad River Dam late yesterday. No one was injured.

The blast took place about 5 p.m., some 150 feet from Route 44 where work is continuing for the spillway on the $2.5 million project.

Policeman Donald Meehan said the blast peppered the highway with rocks and boulders, damaging the passing cars. The drivers were Malcolm G. McHugh of Meriden, N. Y.; Jeanne M. Merville of New York; and Frank Wozniak, both of Norfolk.

Ribicoff Names Aide
HARTFORD (AP)—Atty. Gen. O. Newman of West Hartford has appointed an administrative assistant to U.S. Senator-elect Abraham A. Ribicoff.

The announcement was made by Ribicoff yesterday. Ribicoff, who defeated Rep. Horace Seely-Brown, Jr., R., by 20,000 votes in the Nov. 6 election, will assume his congressional duties on Jan. 9.

Newman was executive assistant to Ribicoff when the former Connecticut governor was secretary of Health, Education and Welfare from January, 1961, to July, 1962. He helped Ribicoff win the recent senatorial campaign.

Dispute Unchanged
HARTFORD (AP)—A marathon mediation session today produced a settlement in a dispute between the Connecticut State Police and management at the Brantford plant.

The session was held at the State Labor Department building.

Another session is expected Friday as the deadline for a strike looms.

The three others were equipped with photo cameras and used the plant's own cameras to send this back to the union.

Only one of these hit the target. The other two missed the moon and apparently went into orbit around the sun.

The failure to achieve Ranger targets has been charged primarily to the Jet Propulsion Laboratory of the California Institute of Technology.

have emotions also, how to maintain their own balance. One survey finds that 43 per cent of people turn first to their ministers or pastors when emotional troubles begin to take a toll. Appropriate training for future clergymen is sponsored by the National Institute of Mental Health. Loyola University in Chicago, Yeshiva University in New York, and at Harvard Divinity School.

Thousands of school children run into serious emotional problems. The nervous, tyrannical, and lackadaisical child can be reflecting emotional and family problems.

Dr. Edward Greenwood heads a program in which Topexa schools, teachers, psychiatrists and psychologists join hands in counseling to detect troubles, find causes and remedies. Invariably involves voluntary consultations with parents, who unwittingly are triggering the child's reactions.

In other steps, suicide prevention centers which the distraught can call for help, improved training of more marriage counselors, and mental health courses in high schools and colleges, are being sponsored by the NIME and National Association for Mental Health.

Preventive and social work gives the psychiatrist extra influence. In clinical practice, one psychiatrist treats only one patient at a time. By working in the courts, schools, and other institutions, he spreads his influence to assist dozens to hundreds of people in emotional trouble.

Signs Indicate Wideness of Split in Reds

LONDON (AP)—Information reaches London has indicated a further widening of the split between the Soviet Union and Communist China.

The Soviet trade mission in Shanghai is pulling out, according to these accounts. Members of the mission have been packing their files and personal belongings for several days. Presumably there soon will be no Soviet representation left in the great Chinese port city.

Earlier the Chinese Communist authorities closed the Soviet consulates in Shanghai and Harbin.

In Shanghai, as far back as Sept. 27, Soviet residents approaching the consulate were told that consular affairs in the city should be conducted by the Russian embassy in Peking.

The same reports said the Chinese Public Safety Bureau on Sept. 7 raided and searched all branches of the Society of Soviet Citizens in Harbin and detained 20 persons.

The Soviet consulate in that Manchurian city was surrounded by Chinese Reds and after Sept. 20 no one was allowed access to the building.

Wide-spread interest also was aroused in an article in the Peking People's Daily which some of the Reds suspect may have been written by Mao Tse-tung himself.

This article repudiated criticism of the Chinese Communists voiced at the recent party congresses of European Communists.

The People's Daily implied the Soviet Union and its allies are splitting the Communist camp and predicted that the Chinese Reds eventually will make their line prevail and reduce party unity.

The article, published Sunday, criticized the Russians not merely for withdrawing their missiles from Cuba, but also accused Moscow of adventurism for putting those weapons there in the first place.

The Russians were not mentioned by name, although the article's meaning was plain enough. Recent European party congresses constituted the specific target of the Chinese Communist criticism—particularly the one in Moscow.

government barred Munro and his predecessor, Prince Norodom Ranariddh, from the country, but that has been invited to visit Hungary next year.

Munro, who submitted a report annually to the assembly on conditions in Hungary, told a reporter the American resolution is "a bad business." He said the report is not an objective one.

A Hungarian refugee leader said the committee approval of the resolution was "a victory for the Russians and the appeasers."

He said the report was "a river, just as in the revolution, in this vote," said Margr. Bela Varga, chief chairman of the Hungarian Committee.

The permanent question of Palestine's one million Arab refugees led the special political committee up in three weeks of debate. The committee finally approved a U.N. proposal to extend U.N. relief and education programs for Arab refugees for two more years. The resolution also called for the evacuation of the refugees displaced by the 1948-49 war.

SHOTS ORDERED

PT. KNOX, Ky. (AP)—Pt. Knox medical authorities announced Wednesday that a precautionary measure against meningitis will be required to take treatment of the disease in the future.

Authorities said incidence of the disease is no greater than in previous years, but they decided to act as a Cuban soldier at Ft. Knox was stricken with spinal meningitis while en route to Miami on Christmas leave.

In reply to a question, Fogarty admitted that he knew of "very few" if any, well-run stations that have lost their licenses.

At this, Fogarty, who once lauded television "a vast wasteland," interrupted to say: "I know of none that ever will."

Debbie Gets Ovation

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Debbie Reynolds made her Las Vegas debut Wednesday night, and many celebrities joined the audience in giving her a standing cheering ovation.

It's the greatest evening I've had in years," said Judy Garland, one of the many star ringers.

The Hotel Riviera reportedly paid Debbie $50,000 a week, the highest any entertainer has received in this gambling city.

She did a twist, a samba, a soft shoe, a clown act, and imitation of Zsa Zsa Gabor, Anna Magnan and Ethel Merman. At the end she did a poignant version of her theme, "Tummy" to a wild ovation, led by Miss Garland.

ACCORD REPORTED

MOSCOW (AP)—The head of a Cuban trade delegation left Moscow Wednesday, and the Soviet news agency Tass reported agreement was reached with new negotiators on increased trade between the two nations in 1963.

Zeus Tests End

POINT MUGU, Calif. (AP)—Successful firing of a Nike Zeus anti-missile rocket brought the Army's current test series to a conclusion here, officials said.

The launching Wednesday gave the Army 10 successful shots out of 19 efforts. Nine of the rockets were destroyed in flight.

Designed to intercept and destroy missiles at altitudes above 100 miles, the Zeus has been under development since 1957, but Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has said he doubts that it is ready for full-scale production.

Testing of the Nike Zeus will continue at White Sands, N.M., and at Kwajalein Island in the Pacific.

Snow, With Complaints

New York City's stormy petrel
 of a traffic commissioner, one Henry A. Barnes, is about to issue a storm regulation for drivers in his city this winter. The proposed regulation would require all vehicles using certain streets under certain conditions to be equipped with either snow tires or chains.

This represents, on the part of Commissioner Barnes, an effort to deny to the average American motorist the sacred privilege of going out in a snowstorm, getting him
 a session of the General Assembly—very guarded in the explanation it gives for its statistical discovery that the cost of patronage in the 1961 session attained an all-time high.

The language in which the Council approaches possible explanation of this circumstance is tactful
 and delicate, as follows:

"It was in the 1961 session that the two Houses were divided between the two Houses, whereas in the 1962 session, the Republicans controlled both Houses, and in the 1963
 session, the Democrats controlled both. The question arises as to whether the number and qualifications of the Assembly's temporary staff are dictated by the demonstrable needs of the General Assembly and the public, or by party demands. The question is of particular interest just now because the 1963 General Assembly, party responsibility will once again be divided between the two Houses."

But it does not penetrate to the really crucial reason for the 1963 session, the Republicans were getting ready to fight with one another.
 Unless, that is, Bailey himself finds himself faced with some fac-tious situation of his own, in which he needs more jobs to help him keep his own party peace.

THE BIG DIFFERENCE IN CHRISTMAS FLOWERS

This, too, in Man
 Now and then, exactly, no doubt, as a certain young lady now resident in the White House intended to have to happen as a result of her request for the loan of a certain work of art, there is some focus or fulcrum provided for our thinking which sets us straight on some of our own values.

First, it would be quite difficult for anybody fully to contradict
 this: that the nation of France could find no greater favor within its power, no favor it itself would consider with more alarm and trepidation, than the favor it is now performing for us, in sending its famous art treasures, the Leonardo da Vinci Mona Lisa, to be exhibited here for three weeks.

Second, we would like to ask ourselves and our readers to try to imagine any other single object in the world which could create half the excitement or draw half the crowd the Mona Lisa seems likely to create and draw among us materialistic Americans during her brief visit to us. What would that rival object be? Some space capsule? The latest automobile? The biggest ship in the world? The deadliest weapon? An atom bomb?
 Well, perhaps some one of these would catch our fancy, but we would outdraw the Mona Lisa. We won't argue too extreme a claim.
 But we feel safe to the point we really intend to make. That the Mona Lisa, an artistic representation of the perception of man for beauty and meaning and mystery in a mortal face, is indeed without question one of the world's most precious possessions, and indeed without question the one object perhaps seen by more people, in the course of a generation, than any other.

It has, of course, a drawing power which goes beyond its own beauty and dedication and pride, resolved that they shall now prove to themselves and to the world
 what it can be made into, this Algers of theirs.

Still, what a mess!
 If we were to fly way up on a high mountain, for perspective
 over the affairs of men and nations, we would have to see that it is the greatest piece of mis-timing in history that the same great revolutionary forces which decrease that this world can no longer exist as a jungle of competing sovereign nation states should at the same time propel into existing an impossible number of new nation states, each intent upon achieving its own individual destiny. What the state of the world really says about all these young new sovereignties is that they need some new kind of electronic clock so they can have their nation-state phase quickly, in a matter of a few months, and get it over in time to join that independence which has now become the only definition for any sovereignty that can last.

But when all these state occur

In this highly technical age
 there is a great demand for ad-more complicated each year. The pressures of life bear heavily upon the shoulders of men and women,

 boys and girls, in all walks of life.
 The temptations are always appearing to the young and the old alike.
 We live in a fast moving world,
 and having the state
 finance part of the impending civil war inside the Republican party,
 did scratch around and find enough of their own people to take jobs in what is possible for the Republicans to have the extra jobs they wanted so desperately.

The Doctor Says

LEARNING TO RELAX
 IS NOT AN EASY TASK

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT
 Writer for Newspaper Enterprises Assoc.

Are you sick and tired of feeling tired and sick? If so you may belong to the vast army of persons who have not learned to relax properly.

One large part of the illness people suffer today is due to the Big Three: nervous tension, fatigue and sleeplessness. According to Dr. W. G. Whitworth in his book,
 "How to Sleep Well" (Vintage Press, 1959), many persons believe that all they need to do to relax is to go fishing, read a novel, or listen to music. All these things are forms of activity and, although they may help you forget your troubles, they are not relaxation because relaxation is a state of perfect inactivity.

Dr. Whitworth explains how, even while lying in bed in a darkened room with your eyes closed, your thoughts cause various skeletal muscles (those under your direct control as well as those under the control of your heart and digestive tract)
 to contract. For example, visualize an ample, vitalized part or future events in your mind's eye without contracting some of your eye
 muscles, and you cannot imagine or receive a convincing picture of contracting some of the muscles
 of your body.

With persistent practice you can learn first of all to recognize the difference between a feeling of tension and its absence (relaxation). You can then every skeletal muscle in the body, or any muscles will shut for human help, although the so-called lower animals seem to be masters of it.

This would suggest that we had
 it once and all at once between our infancy and our present state of it. I can think of no better more important pursuit than this for the person who is beset by the Big Three.

When you can recognize tension
 in any given muscle you will also recognize it in your entire body
 because force is a return to a state of tension. Force is a complete absence of force.

It is important to realize that you cannot force yourself to relax
 because force is a return to a
 state of tension. Force is a complete absence of force.

Industry's Gifts
 Are Meaningful

CHICAGO (AP)—One Christmas, not long ago, an executive of the Automobile Service Industry organization heard members being
 "fed up" with the usual gamu-
 role of passing out Christmas gifts.

There was talk about local organizations possibly contributing to make "meaningful" contributions to the community.

J. J. Wiggin, executive vice president of the Automotive Service Industry Assn., says the result has been such gifts as X-ray equipment, physical therapy units, electrocardiogram units, inward beds, whirlpool baths—and even a 64-passenger school bus.

"It is against our policy to identify the companies and organizations who've made various contributions, especially since many of them said from the outset they were not to be named," says Wiggin, who says he will say that the 64-passenger school bus was the gift of a Florida automobile wholesaler group.

Wiggin says the association surveyed it a membership after hearing talk about dissatisfaction with the usual gift-giving.

"We learned that some of our members individually through their local organizations were good about Christmas gifts as well as in the names of all and their motives, were satisfied with the contributions and groups in their communities. We passed this information to the entire membership and the response was so great that the pooling of member gifts became an annual ritual," Wiggin says.

He says last year's contributions were made to clinics, hospitals,
 homes for the aged, organizations for the blind, deaf, aged and handicapped, and to organizations devoted to cancer
 control, cancer, tuberculosis and other worthy institutions
 and groups without regard to race, creed or color.

Cuban Revolutionary Litanies Now Has Hollow Metallic Ring

EDITOR'S NOTE—The writer of this article was an Associated Press correspondent in Havana for 29 months and was allied there for three weeks under the Castro regime. He now is an AP roving correspondent in Latin America, and has been on special assignment in Key West.

By ROBERT BERLEZ

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Under Castro automation, goes a Cuban witicism, the laboring man has been replaced by women.

The radio and television programs monitored here tend to accentuate that observation.

Day in and out, the Cuban stations monotonously drone out the revolutionary achievements of "our women brigades" and "our exemplary Cuban women" toiling away "voluntarily" in coffee, cotton and sugar fields.

Starting next year some women will be carrying on their duties as crew members on Cuban merchant ships.

Of course, and they get their share of accolades. But to hear Havana radio tell it, Cuban workers spend large portions of their time attending meetings to "discuss production goals" or study "cultural draft projects."

The radio-television broadcasts, easily seen and heard here, 80 miles from Havana, provide an excellent electronic peephole for limited look at Cuba.

What is a radio-television view of Cuba like these days?

To one who had a Havana ring-side seat on Castro and the post-revolution for 29 months, an immediate reaction is:

"Where is Fidel?"

Two years ago, it would have been rank heresy, if not counter-revolution, to say that.

Two years ago, it would have been the picture of a man who were any near a television program. But that was done recently when President Oswald Diorio spoke at a funeral service, viewers got only the briefest look at Castro's back as he rubbed away after the ceremony with only a brief wave to Diorio.

Two years ago, such an omission would have started speculation on Castro's health or his position in the hierarchy.

There are other signs of the original revolutionaries are being edged from the spotlight by the new Marxist-Leninist set.

There were no special radio or television programs to mark the anniversary of Castro's Dec. 2, 1956, invasion that led eventually to the overthrow of dictator Fulgencio Batista. Commanders handled the event in routine fashion, contrary to the hoopla of other years.

Once in a while, Havana television flashes back briefly to the top entertainment fare it used to offer. But the flash sets are gone and so are the big name bands that internationally popularized such Afro-Cuban rhythms as the Rumba, mambo and the cha-cha-cha.

Live programs lean heavily toward gray revolutionary themes: the social and racial inequalities, mostly in other Latin American countries.

Bethlehem, Ind., Won't Commercialize Name

BETHLEHEM, Ind. (AP)—The Post Office is tucked into a small village on the Ohio River in celebrating its 150th anniversary with a dividing population but an excellent community conscience.

It has refused to commercialize its name.

Albert Matthews, postmaster since 1946, uses special postmarks during the Christmas season. That's the extent of Bethlehem's play on its name. Outgoing mail jumps from 50 pieces a day to about 2,000 for 15 days.

"An outside concern wanted to name in here, put in a miniature church and sell souvenirs," Matthews says, "but we wouldn't hear of it. We don't believe in that sort of thing."

Bethlehem's own Christmas celebration traditionally is a hymn singing at the non-denominational community church. The Presby-terian part of the congregation is eight years older than the town.

Farm land is being converted to other uses at the rate of about two million acres per year.

FIRST YEAR OF MARRIAGE SETS THE PATTERN FOR A LIFETIME TOGETHER

The future of a marriage is usually settled during the first year, says a marriage counselor.

Sure, it is 12 months during the first year that a couple works out the pattern for their marriage.

During the first year, whether or not they realize they are making permanent decisions, a couple settles such matters as how they will handle their money, how they will work out disagreements, how much freedom they are willing to allow each other, how big a part parents and in-laws are to play in their lives, what their first major objectives are, and whether or not they are going to try to change each other or learn to live together "as is."

The trouble is that often a couple doesn't know that the day-to-day decisions they make during the first year and their day-to-day routine is forming a pattern that will influence them all of their days together.

If all young couples realized this they might give more thought to the way they manage their lives in those first, all-important months of marriage.

Both husband and wife would make more of an effort to let the other know, "These are the things that are important to me" so that the marriage would provide the most important things to both.

It isn't easy to change the basic pattern of a marriage once it has been set, so setting up the right pattern in the beginning is all important.

But no one can tell a couple what that pattern should be. That depends entirely on what is most important to the husband and what is most important to the wife.

HAZARDS OF CONFORMITY

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—"Assembly-line education which inhibits children's curiosity and skepticism and tends to make them valuable to man in his effort to cultivate his mental resources," Dr. E. Philip Conant said.

When these traits are suppressed by a community in its zeal for conformity, the young people often become "boredom-prone adults or puppets," he added.

Mona Lisa Resting For American Debut

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a seven-car caravan, the van of the National Gallery of Art, a celebrated lady rested today, waiting for somebody to get her out of a box so she can turn her inscrutable smile on Americans.

Under security guard seldom accorded a queen, the Mona Lisa of Leonardo da Vinci, the world's most famous portrait, arrived Wednesday from the Paris Louvre.

An ambassador of good will will be unveiled Jan. 8 by President Kennedy before a throng of notable, including members of the new Congress.

The 400-year-old painting will move on to the Metropolitan Museum in New York, then possibly to other American cities, before going home to France.

The Mona Lisa made the Atlantic crossing on the liner France At New York Wednesday, her aluminum and plastic box, airconditioned to duplicate the humidity and temperature of the Louvre, was loaded with ceremony into a small black van.

Wirtz Pushes Efforts To Block Dock Strike

Wirtz said that the industry is properly concerned about how to permit the employers to introduce improved cargo handling methods and equipment and to improve efficiency through better utilization of manpower.

"The union is properly concerned about how to protect job opportunities and individual security for longshoremen, increase their earnings capacity and insure their participation in the benefits of any improved operation."

Wirtz said these problems have developed over many years and "are not susceptible to short answers."

The last offer by employers and the vote by longshoremen were required under provisions of the Taft-Hartley law which expires next Sunday.

President Kennedy invoked the law in the name of the national health and safety-in-food because of the dock strike last October.

Students in a unique course, many of them elderly, heard these words of encouragement as they gathered for their first class in a 20-week televised series designed to teach them to read and write.

All of the members of the class are on relief and the program is aimed at eliminating the illiteracy which prevents them from getting jobs.

Hoffa's Trial To End Today

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The government and defense will close their closing arguments today in the James R. Hoffa conspiracy trial.

The U. S. District Court jury of seven men and five women is expected to start deliberations after receiving final instructions from the judge, probably Friday morning.

The trial began Oct. 2. Attorneys began their summations Wednesday, the government using 2 hours and 20 minutes and the defense 10 minutes. Each side has 3 1/2 hours to state its case.

Hoffa, president of the 3.5-million member Teamsters Union, is charged in a two-count indictment with conspiring to violate the Taft-Hartley Act and with accepting funds in violation of that law.

The government says he conspired with Commercial Carriers, Inc., Detroit — based automobile hauler, to create Test Fleet Corp. as a front for labor peace.

Test Fleet, a truck leasing firm, was chartered here in 1949 shortly after Hoffa helped a Teamsters strike at a Commercial Carriers terminal. Stock in the new company was put in the maiden

Rioting Precedes Dominican Voting

Dr. Viriato A. Pardo, 67, of the Civic Union, and Juan Bosch, 68, of the left-center Dominican Revolutionary party, were leading candidates for president in a five-man contest.

Bosch was a narrow favorite. The chief question was whether his peasant followers had remained in his camp after a Jesuit priest made and retracted the charge that the party is Communist.

Bosch dropped demands for a postponement of the election when the charge was withdrawn.

The voters also balloted for a vice president, a Congress of 74 deputies and 20 senators, and local and city officials.

The Congress will draft a new constitution.

Freedom of dictatorship by the assassination of Rafael Trujillo in May 1961, 80,000 to 1,000,000 Dominicans, from 18 years up were eligible to vote. Illiterates make up about 50 per cent of the population.

Since voters could cast only a straight ticket, the winner of the presidency seemed likely to have a major share of the seats in Congress. A proportional representation formula, however, assured there would be an opposition.

More than a core of Latin American and U. N. delegates scattered to various districts to observe the voting at the invitation of the ruling government Council.

FAA to Prohibit Needless Flights Over Disaster Sites

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Aviation Agency says it will bar sightseeing and other nonessential flights over disaster areas effective next March 20.

The agency said the new rule is designed to prevent sightseeing aircraft from gathering over the scene of a train wreck, plane crash, forest fire, earthquake or flood, and creating a collision hazard.

Disaster area flights will be permitted only by planes working in search and rescue operations, carrying news media representatives or persons on official business in connection with the disaster.

The FAA said nonessential flights will be banned below 2,000 feet and within five miles of areas designated by the agency. Planes carrying reporters and photographers will be allowed to operate above the altitudes used by relief planes, or at the same or lower altitudes with prior approval of the agency handling disaster relief. The FAA said.

"Vive de Gaule," French Consul Patrice de Beaulieu received a delegation and told it, "France does not wish to intervene in Congo politics."

The demonstrators also marched to the British Consulate where they shouted "God save the Queen" and "Save Great Britain." A delegation thanked Consul Derek Dodson for Britain's opposition to the economic boycott of Katanga proposed by U.N. Secretary-General U Thant.

The student attack came after a news conference at which he threatened again to apply the scorched earth policy in Katanga rather than give it to military pressure.

"Katanga may rebuild but not with American funds. Our position may flee to Rhodesia and even the Congo but we shall not give up," he said.

"We can live in the bush as we have done before for months and years, even if the United Nations destroy our installations."

Thombé blamed the United States, and particularly U.S. Ambassador Edmund A. Gullion, for prolonging the Congo's "misery," and said that his own death had been a result of the "American game plan to divide the Congo."

"The Americans are reacting who think they can buy the African with dollars," he said. "Just look at America. Can you see one Negro governor or even senator there?"

More talks planned UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—L. Gen. Louis Trupin planned more talks at the United Nations today before leading a U.S. military mission to the Congo to check the needs of U.N. forces.

The Truman mission has been linked with reports from Washington and President Kennedy's news conference with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, that the United States is concerned over prospects of a new Soviet bid for influence in the Congo.

Truman told reporters Wednesday night, however, after meeting more than an hour with Secretary-General U Thant, "my mission has nothing to do with that whatsoever."

He said the United States has "no plans that I know of" to send troops to the Congo and that his purpose is to see what useful military equipment "we can give to the Congo."

State Department officials said earlier the mission will assess the ability of the 18,000-man U.N. force to keep order.

Gen. Trupin was to confer with Robert K. A. Gardner, the chief of the U.N. Congo mission, and working with Donovan on tax questions and similar matters.

"We have been expediting rulings and assisting it in an advisory way, but it is entirely a committee operation," he said.

A Christmas party for members of the Little Theater was held at Miller's Restaurant after the program and business meeting.

Beckman will begin tonight at 8 in the meeting room of the old school building for the United Statesmen. The play will be presented at 7, 8 and 9 at Brown School auditorium.

THE CURBS WERE KILLING

NORFOLK, England (AP)—Local soldiers had three methods for curing whooping cough—feed the victim a fried fish mornie, drop on a piece of string and swallow the head first, bury a slice of bread and butter wrapped in brown paper for 24 hours and then eat it, or if you don't know either of these, live with a live fat fish on your chest until it dies.

requirement the President said down has not been fulfilled and it is not likely to be.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., has indicated he will press for an inquiry into whether Kennedy made a secret deal with Khrushchev. He has said he wants the President to answer "a simple question—did you or did you not say to Khrushchev we will not invade Cuba?"

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., said he also is disturbed by the present status of the no-invasion commitment.

"I hope this is not to be a binding obligation," he said. "I would be much better if it is left up in the air what we will do under any given circumstances."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the assistant Democratic leader, told a news conference by William Collins, trumpet soloist, and an arrangement of "A Christmas Festival" by LeRoy Anderson. Mrs. Lovell Collins, wife of East Hampton will sing, accompanied by Mrs. Nelson Fowler of Marlborough.

Many people are totally unaware of the fact that there is a type of security which is tax-exempt. These are bonds which are issued by states, cities and various institutions for the conversion or improvement of such things as surplus, schools, airports, electric power projects, water and sewer systems, etc. The interest income from such securities does not have to be declared for Federal income tax purposes. Bahai Followers Condemned to Die

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—A Moroccan court has sentenced three members of the Bahai sect to death and six to prison for their beliefs.

The court at Nador condemned a Syrian and two Moroccans to a 15-year and two Moroccans to a 10-year term in prison for their beliefs.

Although Morocco's new constitution guarantees religious liberty to all, King Hassan II told a news conference last week that "Islam does not accept the Bahai sect or other sects which are true heresy." He added that the Bahai sect is a "world religion" that has been practiced in all libraries because they are "recognized by Islam."

The Bahai religion was founded in 1844 in Iran. The sect believes in revelation from God through certain men and accepts the prophecies of Islam as well as those of Christianity and Judaism.

Sometimes called a "world religion," Bahai deems desirable the reconciliation of all religions and seeks establishment of a world government.

Santa Was Trapped
SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—The police dispatcher was a bit startled when he got a call that Santa Claus needed help because one of his reindeer was trapped at a bar.

He was even more startled when the officer he sent to the scene radioed back that it was true.

It seems the Santa Monica Chamber of Commerce has a Santa—with five reindeer, in cages—who appears in the shopping district nightly. One of the reindeer got its horns caught on one of the bars of its cage.

Officers helped unhook the animal, and the show continued.

BLAST KILLS TWO
GLENPOOL, Okla. (AP)—Two nitroglycerin charges exploded prematurely Wednesday night as an oil field crew prepared to complete a well near here. Two men were killed and two others were injured.

Everett Wallace, 64, of Nowata, Okla., and Jim Gray, 44, of Bartlesville, Okla., were killed. Kenneth Jack Burns, 31, and Joseph Rennie Lee Burns, 21, both of Bixby, Okla., were reported in fair condition.

Commissioner Seeking Quick Solution to New York Titans' Problems

Foss Says AFL's Here to Stay

New York (AP)—American Football League Commissioner Walter Foss, in town to find new backers for the league's sick New York franchise, said Wednesday the AFL "turned the corner this year."

"Everything will get better from here on out," Foss predicted. "We're not getting some of the name players, but I think we're right down the line," Foss admitted that he would like to settle quickly the ownership of the New York Titans, but he said the league chairman had no absolute deadline.

Foss said the problem of signing back Jerry Rivalta, who has been taken care of by the NFL, is not a problem. "We're covered," he said. "We're in good shape on that."

Winner Is Out

The AFL commissioner said he would be pleased to see the NFL take over the Titans franchise, but he said he would not be pleased to see the NFL take over the entire league.
