Rockville-Vernon ZBA Tables Apartment Bid, Seeks Advice on Its Powers

A request for two variances that would allow construction of multi-family apartments on South St. and off-street parking facilities for the residents was tabled last night by the Rockville Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA).

The ZBA decided to seek an opinion from Corporation Counsel Edwin Lavitt on whether it would overstep its authority by granting the request.

Action will be taken at the next meeting, March 27.

The property, 47 acres in a rural residential zone on South St., opposite Vinton St., is the largest of the parcels with which the board has dealt with its variance appeals, members said.

The granting of the first variance—to permit the building as a non-conforming use of the land—would result in spot zoning.

He says that the property is unsuitable for individual houses, the use for which the zone is intended, because it is on a slope and would require expensive sewerage.

The proposed apartments would conform to the slope and use could be made with existing sewers, he said.

Atty. Herbert Hannabury, representing Webster, said plans call for construction of garden-type apartments, 32 with three rooms and 16 with four rooms. Webster said a tentative cost estimate is between $400,000 and $500,000.

To accommodate the residents, he wants off-street parking facilities to be allowed on the site.

Atty. Hannabury said the city's proposed comprehensive plan of development calls for multi-family dwellings in the area and Webster's proposal would fit in. He said the board could grant the request on the basis of unnecessary hardship to the owner if he were to have to find another use of the land and the "economic unfeasibility for residential development."

The request has already been taken up by the Planning Commission, which forwarded it to the ZBA.

In other action, the ZBA voted to allow the Yost Construction Co. to erect a four-stall garage on Maple St.

Grant Melvin Anderson, 72 Windsor Ave., a general repair license.

Members also decided to recommend to the Planning Commission that a section of the zoning ordinance, involving location of signs, be deleted.

Negro Leader Shot to Death

Action will be taken at the next meeting, March 27.

The property, 47 acres in a rural residential zone on South St., opposite Vinton St., is the largest of the parcels with which the board has dealt with its variance appeals, members said.

The granting of the first variance—to permit the building as a non-conforming use of the land—would result in spot zoning.

He says that the property is unsuitable for individual houses, the use for which the zone is intended, because it is on a slope and would require expensive sewerage.

The proposed apartments would conform to the slope and use could be made with existing sewers, he said.

Atty. Herbert Hannabury, representing Webster, said plans call for construction of garden-type apartments, 32 with three rooms and 16 with four rooms. Webster said a tentative cost estimate is between $400,000 and $500,000.

To accommodate the residents, he wants off-street parking facilities to be allowed on the site.

Atty. Hannabury said the city's proposed comprehensive plan of development calls for multi-family dwellings in the area and Webster's proposal would fit in. He said the board could grant the request on the basis of unnecessary hardship to the owner if he were to have to find another use of the land and the "economic unfeasibility for residential development."

The request has already been taken up by the Planning Commission, which forwarded it to the ZBA.

In other action, the ZBA voted to allow the Yost Construction Co. to erect a four-stall garage on Maple St.

Grant Melvin Anderson, 72 Windsor Ave., a general repair license.

Jet Crash Kills Pilot

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A supersonic F105 jet plunged to the Avon Park Bombing Range while making a practice run Wednesday.

ROAD REVENUE RISES

WATERBURY, Conn. (AP)—The State Highway Department reported today that January revenue from the Connecticut Turnpike was up 6 per cent over January 1967.

The toll road produced a total of $1,123,000 during the month compared with $1,067,227 during the previous January.

There was also a comparable increase in vehicular traffic, from 2,866,936 to 2,866,543.

Rockville-Vernon Red Cross Chapter Revived As Greater Hartford Branch

Rockville and surrounding towns are again having a Red Cross chapter in the area, as the result of action by the Board of Governors of the American National Red Cross in Washington, D. C. Monday.

The Nathan Hale Chapter in Rockville, disbanded two years ago when its directors quit, will be reactivated as a branch of the Greater Hartford Chapter.

All monies collected in Rockville will be turned over to the Greater Hartford Chapter.

In return, the Rockville branch will finance its annual fund-raising parties with monies from the Hartford Chapter.

The Rockville branch will have control of how the money is to be spent each year, but the Greater Hartford directors will decide how much is to be turned over to Rockville.

The Nathan Hale Branch will have one delegate to the Greater Hartford board of directors. He will be one of 30 delegates.

Six persons from Rockville and Vernon have agreed to be directors of the new branch, including Frank Gregory, William W. Wilbur, Frank Wadsworth and Robert Garabedian of Vernon, and Donald Berger, Mrs. Clarence McCarthy and Bernice Cantor of Rockville.

Mrs. McCarthy announced she was the only one who was on the old Nathan Hale board, which quit in a body Feb. 24, 1961. The Rockville chapter objected at that time that the Hartford chapter was collecting money from Rockville residents at the time they worked, such as Pratt and Whitney Aircraft, and not turning a large enough portion of the money to Rockville.

After the 28 Rockville directors quit in a body, the national organization moved in to continue "necessary" operations for the area.

These operations are disaster programs, aid to armed forces personnel and their dependents, and the blood program. The Red Cross office, set up in a two-year period and run by Mrs. Mildred Connors, also maintained a hospital transportation program for veterans.

A good corps of volunteers helped, said James T. O'Connor Jr., chairman of the Greater Hartford Chapter, yesterday in a press conference to announce the new branch.

In fact, said Clyde MacDonald of the national organization, money was spent last year, $9,022, that had been spent in previous years, an average of $7,000.

Two of the cases needing help were given $1,000 each under the disaster program, he said.

There will be little change in the program, except that the Hartford staff and volunteers in such programs as life saving, disaster and nursing will be available to Rockville.

An intangible benefit, pointed out Mayor Leo Flaherty, is the support from citizens in area towns should increase. The services offered by the Red Cross can best be effected if local citizens take pride in and offer their skills to them, he said.

Sometimes in the next two weeks, the directors of the newly created branch will meet to organize, and to appoint officers from the other towns served by the Nathan Hale Branch.

These towns are Hartford, Springfield, Coventry, Willington, Somers, Holland, Union and Willington.

A scrap paper drive will be conducted Sunday by the Rockville American Legion Post, beginning at 9:30 a.m. The drive was originally scheduled a week ago but was canceled because of bad weather.

Many Top Stars Still Unsigned with Holdout Deadline Only 24 Hours Away Annual Baseball Salary 'Cold War' on Again

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball also has its cold war. Called contract negotiations by sensitive major league brass, the annual psychological struggle today finds 25 players still pounding the desks of general managers.

Among them are such stars as Rocky Colavito and Norm Cash of Detroit, Orlando Cepeda, Juan Marchetti and Jose Pagan of National League champion San Francisco, Baltimore's Brooks Robinson and Norm Siebern and Jerry Lumpe of Kansas City.

With all players due to report to their clubs by today or Friday, it's certain that many are not actually free agents. Only eight teams have completed the signing phase of their operations.

Kansas City has six unsigned—Tommy Lee, outfielder Manny Soto, catcher Bill Bryan, pitchers Diego Segui and Dave Wickens and newly acquired outfielder Chuck Thompson.

St. Louis has three unsigned—Catcher Mike Moskoski, pitcher Steve Carlton and pitcher Ed Delaney.

Minnesota has two unsigned—Pitcher Tom Seaver and pitcher Frank Lary, a more apparently

Two Los Angeles Angels are ready to go in. Long Sneezy Stein.

Colavito seems headed for a long stay. "The next move is up to him (Tiger General Manager Jim Campbell)," said Colavito.

Colavito was offered a slight increase over his $20,000 salary for 1967. Campbell also is adamant.

"I'm not going to call him, I said what I have to when we talked for 10 minutes the other day," Campbell said.

The Tigers also must sign pitcher Frank Lary, a more apparently

Out on the playing field, two celebrated pitchers—the Detroit ace Sandy Koufax and the Angels' Bob Feller—were given a thorough test.

Koufax, the Dodger sutured himself with the 1967 season with an injured finger on his pitching hand, fired for 90 minutes and reported.

"The finger isn't bothering me any more," he said.

He pitched for 90 minutes, but he said he had to stop after 45 minutes. He pitched for 90 minutes, but he said he had to stop after 45 minutes.

SHOULD YOU INVEST?

If you have money left over after providing for emergencies, adequate life insurance, and the payment of your monthly bills, you probably would be well advised to invest in common stocks. However, you should not do so if the funds you are investing are temporary money... money which will be needed in the foreseeable future for a specific purpose. All stocks go up and down and it could be that, just at the time the money is needed, you might not be able to realize the dollar amount of your original investment. If you'd like to discuss your situation, pay us a visit. We'd be happy to talk with you.

Applications for promotional examinations for captain, lieutenant, sergeant and detective have been made available for members of the Manchester Police Department. Deadline for filing such forms is March 14. The death of Capt. Walter R. Cassels Sr. created a vacancy in that position. With an appointment of his successor, other vacancies will also exist in the department. The eligibility list for captain includes Lt. Raymond Griffin, who tops the list in years of service with 35; Lt. Edward Winsler, and Sgt. George Dent, George McCaughey, Henry Gaurauder, Joseph Sartor and Walter Ferguson.

Examinations to be given by the state at a date to be announced, are rated 10 per cent for experience and training, 40 per cent for a written portion of the exam, and 50 per cent for the oral part of the examination. A captain's salary starts at $7,504. Chief James M. Reardon has requested an additional lieutenant in his 1935-36 budget. Eligible to fill such an additional post includes Sgt. Walter R. Cassels Jr., son of the late captain. Twenty-five patrolmen are eligible for the sergeant exam and also for detective. Three patrolmen, Richard Sullivan, John Krimjak and Clarence Heritage, are eligible to take the examination for detective.

France Faces Miners Strike

By JOSEPH E. DYMAN
PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle faced a serious domestic crisis today as he ordered the army to take over the coal mines. The government agreed to a demonstration strike today and Saturday. But it said if the miners do not return to work Monday, they will be drafted into the army. If they do not return then, they will be liable to fines and imprisonment after trial by tough military courts.

Other unions awaited the outcome of the test of strength. Workers in the gas and electric systems and the railways—all operated by the government—want more money.

The government contends wage increases for the miners will set off a general rise in wages and that in turn will produce an inflationary spiral. The miners say France is booming and it's time they got their share.

Reports from the major coal-mining area about 110 miles north

Ice Cover To Impede Lake Trade

CHICAGO (AP)—Wide stretches of the Great Lakes, the nation's busiest navigable routes for nearly eight months each year, are covered with ice after a prolonged siege of cold winter weather.

Nearly all of the Great Lakes except Lake Ontario appear 90 to nearly 100 per cent ice covered as the winter season, one of the worst in many years in some areas, heads toward a close.

A late start in the spring shipping season on the world's greatest inland waterway, which normally starts by mid-March, appeared almost certain unless there is an abnormally mild winter before winter's end in three weeks.

W. W. Oak, Detroit Weather Bureau chief, has predicted that navigation on the Great Lakes this spring will be "late and difficult."

Lake Superior, the largest of the five Great Lakes, was reported 95 per cent ice covered by the U. S. Air Force pilots. They said there was only a narrow stretch of open water east of Isle Royale, in the northwest part of Lake Superior. Ice in the harbor in Duluth, Minn., one of the busiest Great Lakes ports during the shipping season, measured three feet.

The Coast Guard in Cleveland said that ice covers 90 per cent of Lake Erie, the shallowest of the Great Lakes.

In Lake Huron, the second largest of the world's biggest groups of freshwater lakes, a mile stretch between Drummond Island and the Upper Michigan mainland is frozen solid enough to support automobiles.

A weather observer who flew over Lake Michigan, the only one of the five Great Lakes entirely within the United States, said ice covered the 50-mile stretch from Milwaukee to Ludington, Mich., except for some open water outside the Milwaukee harbor.

Suspicious Blaze Damages Church

HARTFORD (AP)—A suspicious fire badly damaged Our Lady of Fatima Church at Russ and Babcock Sts. this morning.

The two alarm blaze broke out at about 9 a.m. in the confessional box at the rear of the church and spread to the organ and the choir loft.

Detectives from the Hartford Police Department were on the scene questioning spectators and photographing the interior of the church even before firemen had doused the flames.

The brick edifice, which serves as a chapel of St. Francis de Sales, was acquired by the Hartford archdiocese less than five years ago. It was formerly a Lutheran church.

Suspicious of arson were immediately aroused because of the nature of the fire and because of a slight blaze in another part of the church Thursday afternoon.

Deputy Fire Chief Edward M. Curtin said the fire Thursday was confined to the altar cloth in the front of the church.

The Rev. Jose Silva, pastor of Our Lady of Fatima, extinguished the altar fire, but the damage in today's fire was difficult to estimate immediately, but the entire interior of the building, including several rows of pews, was gutted.

Deputy Fire Chief Edward M. Curtin said the fire "was definitely of suspicious origin."

"Everything about it looks funny," he added.

Apparently, investigating detectives and firemen were unable immediately to find anyone who had seen a person leaving the building. Curtin said he suspected the two possibilities: Either the fire was set by juveniles or by a religious fanatic.

Cuba Held Training Rebel Latin Cadres

WASHINGTON (AP)—Central Intelligence Agency Director John A. McCone says at least 1,000 to 1,500 Latin Americans went to Cuba in 1962 for sabotage and guerrilla training, and more have gone this year.

McCone's statement was given to the House Foreign Affairs Committee on Feb. 19. It was released today after security deletions.

Rep. Armistead Selden, D-Ala., said he had asked McCone to include in the statement information that had been brought out by questions from committee members. The statement, as released to reporters, however, was labeled as a prepared statement that was read to the committee that day by McCone.

Selden heads an Inter-American Affairs subcommittee which has held two weeks of hearings on Cuban subversion in the Western Hemisphere.

McCone, while disclosing little that has not been made public previously, painted a graphic picture of a parade of revolutionaries going to Cuba for training, taking pains to conceal the travel movements, and receiving up to a year's instruction on such things as how to use arms and how to build "bombed" "Molotov cocktail" bombs.

These are bottles of gasoline, or other highly inflammable liquid with a quick-burning wrapper to act as a fuse and light the liquid when the bomb is thrown—and the bottle breaks. The name was given to them during World War II.

McCone said the trainees came to Cuba from all other Latin American countries "with the possible exception of Uruguay. The largest contingents have come from Venezuela, Peru, Ecuador, Argentina and Bolivia."

He added, "The Cubans go to great lengths to conceal the movements of the trainees."

McCone said, "some of the trainees arrive, and many go home by way of the Iron Curtain and Western Europe. This is another attempt to conceal their movements, and in some cases permits further indoctrination and training in bloc countries."

He said the Cubans sometimes refer to the trainees as their "international brigade."

"Sometimes they are formed into national units from a particular country, in effect forming a packaged cadre which can be returned to the homeland at the appropriate time to lead a 'liberation army,'" he said.

The trainees are told to obtain their own weapons at home. One was trained to use Garand M-1

Hopes Cuba Raised Dim Now on N-Ban

EDITOR'S NOTE—For 17 years the United States has operated on the assumption that disarmament may be possible. What are the current chances, and is it a case of now or never?

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The best chance the Soviet Union and the United States may ever have to end the nuclear arms race now appears to be collapsing under the weight of a new disarmament deadlock.

This, at least, is the grim view of the current state of East-West arms control negotiations held by some high officials responsible for U. S. policy.

It is a view subject to sharp dispute.

A serious question can be raised as to whether any real chance of accord between Moscow and Washington has existed since the start of the talks—or will exist while the cold war continues. Some authorities say "until you can settle the Berlin problem, until Moscow and Peking abandon their ambitions to take over the world, how can you expect to disarm?"

But for 17 years the United States has operated on the assumption that disarmament may be possible. That hope persists today.

The hope rests now, as in the past, on a deeper belief that at some point the two superpowers will begin to change its fundamental world position and move toward agreements with the West. The often-cited need of all nations to avert a nuclear war is the nuclear war could begin to have its impact.

What makes the present statements at Geneva critical is that recent Soviet actions have dealt a severe blow to this deeper belief precisely when American leaders thought it might finally be justified by what had seemed to be some new trends in Soviet policy.

The high optimism about the chances for a nuclear test ban which prevailed here within the past two months was born in the aftermath of the Cuban crisis. There is no doubt that President Kennedy, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other leaders felt some great results might flow from the easing of the nerve-racking confrontation of the United States and the Soviet Union over Cuba last October.

This optimism was prevalent when Soviet Premier Khrushchev last Dec. 19 sent a note to the President reversing his stand on international inspection to police a test ban inside the Soviet Union as well as on the territory of the United States and Britain. He said he would accept two or three on-site inspections a year. This was contrary to the position which Khrushchev had said during the Cuban crisis that he was willing to have on-site inspection of the removal of Soviet missiles and bombers from Cuba and a change in his position on that issue of the test ban negotiations had been expected.

One other fact of basic importance in Washington's view entered into the calculation of American officials. This was—and is—that with France already in the process of becoming a nuclear power

New York Post Bolts Group, Prints Monday

NEW YORK (AP)—Dorothy Schiff, publisher of the New York Post, has broken away from the publishers of the city's other major newspapers and announced that her afternoon tabloid will resume publication Monday.

Her decision leaves four newspapers shut down by a printers' strike and four others closed voluntarily.

Mrs. Schiff said Thursday, "I think the strike has gone on long enough. I see no evidence on a settlement."

Mrs. Schiff, owner and editor-in-chief of the Post and four other publishers shut down their papers when the printers struck against four dailies 84 days ago.

Defense Knew Red Jets Flew Over Carriers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon's announcement that long range Soviet reconnaissance jets flew over four U.S. Navy carriers at sea was intended to dissuade any Soviet proposals before it was dropped, informed sources said today.

These sources indicated secretaries of Defense Robert S. McNamara sought to beat the Soviets to the punch—for example to any claim that the flights were undertaken when he told his news conference Thursday of such overflights in the North Atlantic and North Pacific during the past month.

Another possible aim could have been to neutralize Soviet complaints that U.S. warplanes had buzzed and trailed Soviet ships on the high seas.

In any event, questions about the vulnerability of carriers were raised by McNamara's disclosure that four heavy Soviet reconnaissance bombers flew thousands of miles from the Soviet Union

House Unit Gets Report By McCone

WASHINGTON (AP)—A partisan split in Congress over President Kennedy's proposed civil rights legislation further dims the already faint prospects that any major civil rights measures will be passed this session.

An immediate Republican reaction to Kennedy's civil rights message Thursday was to accuse the administration of seeking political gain from its proposals. Republicans called for action on their own program, which is much broader than the President's.

Kennedy himself did the cause of bipartisanship little good when he told Congress that more progress had been made in the field of civil rights during the last two years than in any comparable period in the nation's history.

A group of House Republicans who have introduced a comprehensive civil rights bill of their own countered that the only constructive civil rights legislation passed since reconstruction days came during President Dwight D. Eisenhower's Republican administration.

In a series of House speeches and in a joint statement the GOP congressman called Kennedy's program a retreat from his party's 1960 platform and charged

Chief Demands Kurd Self-Rule

EDITOR'S NOTE: Russian-speaking AP Correspondent Alex Efty journeyed by car, tractor and horseback for six days to obtain an exclusive interview with Mullah Mustafa Barzani, chief of the Kurdish rebels who have harassed the Iraqi government for 18 months.

By ALEX EFTY
NORADIN, Northern Iraq (AP)—Mullah Mustafa Barzani, leader of the Kurdish revolt in northern Iraq, says he will order his warriors back into battle against the new Iraqi regime unless the tribesmen receive self rule quickly.

Speaking in Russian, the chief said in an interview at his headquarters in the mountains of Northern Iraq that the overthrow of Premier Abdul Karim Kassem Feb. 8 was the direct result of the 18-month Kurdish war against the Baghdad regime.

A similar, if not worse, fate will befall anyone else who opposes the establishment of an autonomous "Kurdish regime," the Moscow-educated leader said.

Barzani, 60, said he ordered a cease-fire when Kassem was overthrown and killed, in order to give the new Baghdad government a chance to declare its intentions on the Kurdish issue.

"I gave them 10 days. Those days are over. I am not prepared to wait indefinitely," said Barzani, fondling a long Kurdish dagger.

Barzani expressed impatience over the delay in getting word from his special emissary, Jalal Talibani, who went to Baghdad last week to negotiate with leaders of the new government.

(Talibani said in Baghdad Thursday that he was hopeful that an agreement with the new government will be reached "within this week.")

Barzani scoffed at a suggestion made last week by the new government's minister of state, Hassan Fawad, that the Kurdish question should be examined by a con-

Hospitals Up Rates

HARTFORD (AP)—Two of Hartford's major general hospitals are going to raise their board and room rates.

Higher rates are scheduled to take effect at Hartford Hospital Monday.

Mt. Sinai Hospital also is planning to up rates, "possibly within a month," Dr. L. S. Geeter, the hospital's executive director, said.

A spokesman at St. Francis Hospital said, however, that "no increases are contemplated at this time."

No details on Mt. Sinai plans are known yet, but the hospital said the increases would be "very, very nominal."

The executive committee of the Hartford Hospital directors has voted up rates for maternity patients $2 per day, for maternity

Anastasio, 57, Passes, Bossed Dock Workers

NEW YORK (AP)—Anthony (Tony) Anastasio, 57, dynamic boss of the Brooklyn waterfront who battled other leaders of the longshoremen's union as well as dock employers, died today in a Brooklyn hospital.

He was international vice-president of the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association and headed the 15,000-member ILA Local 1814 in Brooklyn.

A colorful figure, Anthony nevertheless often was overshadowed by two of his headline-making brothers: the late Albert and Joseph Anastasio.

Albert, a reputed power in the old Murder, Inc., mob, was shot dead as he sat in a barber chair in 1937. Joseph—involved at various times in murder, bootlegging and waterfront thievery—died of natural causes in 1966.

Another brother, Salvatore, is a Roman Catholic priest in the Bronx.

Born in Tropes, Italy, Albert, Joseph and Anthony shipped as deckhands when they were children and jumped ship in the United States separately between 1917 and 1924. They eventually became U. S. citizens.

Last August, Anthony was ousted as co-chairman of the ILA's wage scale negotiating committee. Thomas W. Gleason, ILA international executive vice president, said Anastasio was removed for a

Morgan Blasts FPC Handling Of Gas Cases

WASHINGTON (AP)—Howard Morgan, the one-man rebellion in the Federal Power Commission, has charged that the agency lost consumers hundreds of millions of dollars through its handling of gas rate cases.

He thus closed his case against the FPC and left Commission Chairman Joseph Swidler to mount a defense today before the House Commerce subcommittee Thursday's session, in which Morgan delivered a point-by-point indictment of the commission—and in effect, against all the regulating agencies—set off some tempers. At one time, four committee members were shouting across the table.

Morgan's appearance was his second before the congressmen, who summoned him to explain a letter he had written to President Kennedy declining to serve a second term on the commission.

Morgan read a long statement giving the reasons he felt impelled to leave the commission to two years ago.

Some of his main points:

—In clearing up a gigantic backlog of gas rate refund cases, the commission settled them without complete adjudication. This, he said, led to refunds of about $150 million less than the consumers would have received.

Said Morgan: "The question is whether $150 million in hard-earned consumer cash is a proper price to pay for helping clear up the commission's backlog."

—Electric and gas utilities, he said, are syphoning off hundreds of millions of dollars by paying taxes on a liberalized depreciation formula but having their rates based on the full tax, without the liberalizing formula.

"In other words," said Morgan, "their rates are based on phantom taxes which may never be paid."

Bobby Kennedy Denies Presidential Grooming

EDITOR'S NOTE—Because he's the President's brother, every word, every action of Robert F. Kennedy is subject to special scrutiny. In the following exclusive interview with Louis G. Panos, who covers the Justice Department for The Associated Press, Kennedy discusses his political future.

By LOUIS G. PANOS
WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert F. Kennedy looked out the window of his chauffeur-driven limousine and said he does not plan to run for president in 1968.

"Emphatically not," he said.

In his voice was a note of pliancy, a plea that his answer be believed.

There was also the shrug of resignation from a man who, as attorney general and brother of the President, knows every word of the legislation that will be closely examined—by political opponents for campaign ammunition, by foreign diplomats for a hint of what the administration is really thinking, and by reporters who consider him the most valuable news source outside the White House itself.

This interview, held during a ride from a hotel speaking engagement to his Justice Department office, was one of a recent series given by the attorney general to The Associated Press in an attempt to answer these questions:

1. Is he being groomed to as-

Tax Slice Likely But Few Reforms

EDITOR'S NOTE—President Kennedy's proposal for a tax cut accompanied by revisions in the tax structure is now in Congress' hands. The legislative wheels have barely begun to turn, but the proposal already is the subject of wide and sharp debate—both on and off Capitol Hill.

By EDMOND LEBRETON
WASHINGTON (AP)—Informed members of Congress believe President Kennedy probably will get a tax cut this year—but with a made on Capitol Hill label.

The legislation that emerges is not likely to resemble the President's recommendations much except in scope, they say. But they

CABINET MEETS

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy met with his Cabinet today for the first time in seven weeks. The White House said the session was not prompted by any special development.

ARMS TALK FAILING

GENEVA (AP)—The Soviet Union slammed the door today on any detailed negotiations on a treaty to ban nuclear weapons tests. Talks seemed on the verge of collapse. U. S. Delegate William C. Foster prepared to leave for Washington, A. U. S. source said. "At the moment, he can accomplish more in Washington than in Geneva," said Foster. "We want to negotiate. Unfortunately we have found that thus far the Soviet Union does not."

TREATY RATIFIED

BONN, Germany (AP)—The upper house of the West German Parliament ratified the controversial treaty of cooperation between France and West Germany today. The Bundestag, made up of representatives of the 10 federal states, gave its approval after Chancellor Konrad Adenauer delivered a strong appeal in favor of the treaty. The vote was seven in favor and three abstaining.

PEKING WANTS AIRING

TOKYO (AP)—Red China dared the Soviet Union today to let Peking beam its side of the ideological dispute with Moscow to the rest of the Communist world. Peking accused Moscow of jamming Red China's broadcasts to prevent Communist bloc countries from hearing Mao Tse-tung's side of the argument. It called the followers of Soviet Premier Khrushchev cowardly as well.
