Strongman Says He's Haiti's Soul

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—The dispute between Haiti and the Dominican Republic marked time today while an inter-American peace mission studied the situation in the Haitian capital.

Haitian President Francois Duvalier told a cheering crowd of 10,000 Tuesday night, "Nobody can dictate to me—I am the personification of the Haitian nation."

"I will keep power," Duvalier declared. "God is the only one who can take it from me."

Duvalier had just finished meeting with the members of the peace mission from the Organization of American States. They came to Port au Prince from Santo Domingo, capital of the Dominican Republic, where Foreign Minister Andres Freites charged that Duvalier had offered a military base to Communist Cuba, 50 miles away.

In Washington, State Department press officer Lincoln White said he was unaware of any such offer to Prime Minister Fidel Castro. U.S. officials said American forces patrolling the Caribbean would block any effort by Castro's regime to establish military bases in Haiti or send arms there.

Duvalier's regime imposed censorship on outgoing news dispatches shortly after the OAS mission arrived.

The U.S. government protested incidents last week involving U.S. Marines. The wife of a Marine

Moore Death Walk Traced by Group

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—An integrated group begins a walk through the Deep South today—planning to trace the steps of Baltimore postman William L. Moore, who was shot to death near Attalla, Ala., April 24.

The six white men and five Negro men face almost certain arrest in Alabama.

Each marcher is a member of either the Congress of Racial Equality or the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee. Marchers are to be accompanied by a truck driven by a member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Moore was wearing a placard which proclaimed that Negroes and white persons should be allowed to eat together anywhere.

The "freedom marchers" said they are intent upon walking to Jackson, Miss., to give their integration views to Gov. Ross Barnett.

That was Moore's intention when he was killed. An Alabama grocer, Floyd L. Simpson, has been charged with the slaying.

State News Roundup

Bill Asks Curbs On Death Penalty

HARTFORD (AP)—A joint legislative committee has recommended that Connecticut restrict the death penalty.

The General Assembly's judiciary committee yesterday reported favorably on a bill which allows the death penalty only for those convicted of multiple murders and killers of prison guards and policemen.

A similar bill won a joint favorable report during the General Assembly's 1961 session but was defeated in the House.

The committee also voted to report favorably on a bill which would abolish the mandatory natural life sentence for those convicted of first degree murder but with a jury recommendation for mercy.

Committee chairman Sen. Paul J. Baker, D-New Haven, said that John W. Boyd, R-Westport, said the committee believes that the present system is too severe.

The proposed bill would allow application for parole after 20 years imprisonment.

Those sentenced to die, but imprisoned for life after their death sentence had been commuted, are already eligible for parole after 20 years.

Falsey said the bills involving capital punishment and life sentences are interdependent. The passage or failure of one could affect the fate of the other.

One of the bills, which also won a favorable report, would require a jury in a murder case first to decide guilt or innocence and then go back into session to hear extenuating circumstances in the case. After the second session, the jury would determine the punishment.

Medical Site Probe Finds No Illegalities

Asks Better Purchasing Procedures

HARTFORD (AP)—The special legislative subcommittee that investigated purchase of a site for the state's proposed medical-dental school reported today it had found no evidence of wrongdoing.

However, the committee said, there are aspects of the state's procedures in entering into agreements for purchase of land that should be "improved."

And the equalized grand list proposal for disbursement of state grants for education to the towns should be studied further, the committee reported.

The four-man, bi-partisan committee held three sessions last month, taking testimony from a number of persons directly connected with the selection of the site in Farmington and the purchase.

The investigation was prompted by Rep. Richard C. Noyes, R-Farmington, who noted that the state was paying approximately $4,000 an acre for land that state-hired appraisers had valued at about $2,000.

Democrats at first fought the proposed investigation, but eventually agreed to participate. They said they wanted to be present to keep it from becoming a political free-for-all.

The job of running the probe was turned over to a subcommittee of the appropriations committee. Besides Noyes, its members were Sen. Robert L. Blais, R-New Canaan; Sen. Charles T. Alfano, D-Suffield; and Sen. John Reihan, D-Bridgeport.

The committee's report noted that one of the questions it was charged with answering was whether the price was "fair and reasonable."

When one is discussing the value of undeveloped land, the investigators concluded, fair and reasonable "is not a measurement which can be absolutely determined."

As to the wide variation between the appraisals and the purchase price agreed on, the committee commented:

"The substantial difference between the two was interpreted as due to such factors as the limitation on the site selection committee to select a single site, unwillingness of the owner to sell, limitations in the appraisal, limited availability of 100-acre tracts, and within square distance of Hartford, and speculation on the possibility of a higher selling price resulting from rezoning."

"We believe it impossible to determine the weight to be given

West New Guinea Given Indonesia

KOTABARU, West Irian (AP)—Indonesia took over West New Guinea, the last remnant of Holland's East Indies, today and renamed it West Irian.

The United Nations transferred control of the western half of the world's second largest island at ceremonies in Hollandia, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's wartime headquarters.

The peaceful transfer ended 18 years of struggle for Indonesia for the 100,000 square miles of jungles and mountains and 700,000 Papuan people, most of them still in the Stone Age. Australia governs Eastern New Guinea.

In keeping with Sukarno's policy of erasing traces of Indonesia's former Dutch masters, West New Guinea was renamed West Irian (Hollandia, Indonesia's capital, became Kotabaru (New Town).

Rumors Say ICBM Can't Reach Russia

Editors Note: There have been recent reports that the important U.S. Minuteman missile project has run into unexpected difficulties. In the following exclusive interview, Brig. Gen. Samuel C. Phillips, director of the Minuteman program, discusses the situation.

By RALPH DIGHTON

NORTON AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The director of the Minuteman program says there is "absolutely no truth" to reports that the intercontinental missile cannot carry its payload to targets in the Soviet Union.

In fact, he says, "we have achieved more than was asked in all respects, including range and payload."

This evaluation came from Brig. Gen. Samuel C. Phillips, director of the Minuteman program and a key figure in rushing the solid-fuel missile to combat status ahead of schedule.

Minuteman has leapfrogged earlier-developed liquid-fuel missiles and won the primary role in this nation's defense arsenal. The United States has bet several billion dollars that the Minuteman, capable of striking from bomb-proof silos even while under

Doctors Battle CMS

HARTFORD (AP)—The State Medical Society has decided "to initiate appropriate legal action, if necessary" in its battle with Connecticut Medical Society.

The doctors group is holding its annual three-day meeting. The vote by the house of delegates on legal action against CMS was taken at the opening session yesterday.

The society and CMS have been unable to agree on three doctors to be named to the board of directors of CMS.

CMS held its annual meeting in February and was unable to reach agreement on the three vacancies on the board, for that matter, any new officers.

Under the bylaws of CMS, three of the board are to be occupied by physicians.

The medical society's house of delegates also voted to accept a committee report recommending the extension of Blue Cross to cover patients in private medical institutions as well as community hospitals.

Drought Sears Isolated Farms In Mexican Frontier State

By BOB M. GASSAWAY

ALAZAN, Mexico (AP)—This small farm community in northern Tamaulipas State is the scene of a battle of humans against nature—and nature appears to have the upper hand.

Virtually all the 750 residents of the Alazan community are ill with diseases ranging from fiberculosis to diarrhea.

This year, she failed them. There has been no major rain.

The people have no corn to grind to make meal for tortillas. Beans, another staple in their diet, are shriveling to nothing on the vine. Cotton, the major cash crop for the small plot owners, is turning yellow less than six inches out of the seed.

Without corn and beans there is no food. No cotton means no money.

Democrats Cut Education Aid; Loss for JFK

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic leaders of the House Education Committee have given up all hope this year for legislation providing general federal aid to schools. They are dropping it from the administration's education bill.

Chairman Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., and other ranking Democrats have decided it would be futile to ask Congress now to provide aid for public elementary and high schools.

They still hope, however, to keep most of the rest of President Kennedy's comprehensive education bill in one piece, despite pressure from committee Republicans to concentrate on a single section—aid to colleges.

Abandonment of the proposal to make federal funds available to the states for public-school construction and teachers' salaries marks the third straight year Kennedy has been unable to get a vote in the House on what he has called the heart of his education program.

Religious and racial controversies plus widespread opposition to the concept of federal aid to education have built up a formidable opposition that makes the House leadership reluctant to risk a floor fight.

The decision to dump the general school aid provisions was reached Tuesday at a meeting of Powell and his subcommittee chairman.

The committee leaders voted to try for an omnibus bill containing seven sections, most of which expand or continue existing programs.

They include: A one-year extension of aid to school districts crowded because of federal installations, expansion of vocational education grants for education of handicapped children, expansion

Derby to Repay Loan

HARTFORD (AP)—The housing authority of Derby is going to have to repay the state a 12-year-old federal loan for a housing project that never materialized.

U.S. District Judge M. Joseph Blumenthal has ordered the authority to pay a total of $32,208.35 through the U.S. Attorney's office.

The loan, the $18,259.37 balance outstanding on the $193,000 loan, plus interest and costs.

Blumenthal did not accept the authority's plea that it did not have enough money to pay.

"It is apparent," he said, "that

House Itself May Take on Probers Role

HARTFORD (AP)—Republican State Chairman A. Seales Finney announced today that an attempt may be made to turn the House of Representatives into one big committee to pursue the state insurance investigation.

The probe of how commissions on insurance purchased by the state are distributed among sub-agents by the state's agent of record was originally begun by the Republican-controlled House insurance committee.

However, this group has been blocked by a temporary injunction granted by a Superior Court judge to the John P. Kelly Co. of Hartford, the agent of record.

"I don't want to at this point discuss every tactical detail," Finney said. "But there is a good deal of substance to the proposition that the House will tomorrow endeavor to recapture control of this investigation through the powers that it has."

Mid-East War Threat Spurs Senate Demands

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republicans today called for a "Middle East situation" "explosive and dangerous" and said it holds the threat of a third world war.

Sen. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Democratic leader, for an embargo on arms shipments to the Middle East and stronger U.N. peace-keeping operations.

The speeches were arranged in informal consultation to give emphasis to pressure on the administration.

Javits and other speakers accused the Soviet Union of pouring guns, tanks, planes and ships into Egypt to equip President Gamal Abdel Nasser's armies and of using every opportunity to stir up the Arabs because of Israel's commitment to the West.

Humphrey declared that the increased buildup of arms in the Middle East is "a loaded pistol pointed at the heart of all humanity" and represents "a lighted fuse which could ignite nuclear war."

Humphrey proposed an embargo on arms shipments to the area coupled with a regional arms control agreement, a larger U.N. peacekeeping force, and the assignment of U.N. observers throughout the Middle East.

GOP AX DEFELECTED

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate defeated today a Republican attempt to chop $200 million out of President Kennedy's $450 million job-making accelerated public works program. The vote was 60 to 28. Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., the GOP leader, protested in vain against the $50 million appropriation, already approved by the House after a floor fight April 10.

MAYOR HEADS NBA

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Basketball Association officially announced today the appointment of J. Walter Kennedy, 49-year-old mayor of Stamford, Conn., as president of the league. Kennedy succeeds Maurice Podoloff, 75, who is retiring. Podoloff has headed the league since it was formed as the Basketball Association of America in 1946. His contract expired today. Kennedy was elected mayor of Stamford in 1963, and re-elected in 1961. A Democrat, he was manager of former Connecticut Gov. Abraham Ribicoff's successful campaign for the U.S. Senate last year.

SENATE CONFIRMS BOWLES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate confirmed by voice vote today President Kennedy's nomination of Chester Bowles to be ambassador to India. A lone objection was voted by Sen. Thurmond, D-S.C. He did not state his reasons, but simply said he wanted the record to show his opposition. Confirmed at the same time were the nominations of retired Adm. Jeremiah Wright to be ambassador to Nationalist China and E. Allan Lightner Jr., of Maine, a foreign service career officer, to be ambassador to Libya. Thurmond also registered his opposition to Lightner, without explanation.

Tax System Discussed

City officials met at the Town Offices last night to compare notes on their reactions to the first year's experience with automation. For the first time this year, the town's abstract of the grand list, the rate book and tax bills were prepared by electronic computer.

Many of the points mentioned were admittedly minor drawbacks which would not be repeated in a second year of operation or which will be easily provided for in the future.

The major "grape" which bothered all officials concerned and which they seemed to feel was intolerable, was the presentation of the grand list in three sections—one for real estate, one for motor vehicles and the third for personal property.

The officials agreed that a re-organization, presenting the figures for all property owned by each individual in one entry, must be obtained.

Er. France Herrick was asked to contact Data Processing Corp., contractors for the automated work, to inquire about the possibility of obtaining this additional list. The officials also asked for a meeting with Stewart Dunning, manager of the firm, to discuss this and other details of the project on June 4.

CREATING A BETTER TOMORROW BY HELPING YOU PLAN AHEAD

France Still Maintains Its Maginot Line

By HANS NEUBERGER FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—British soldiers used to sing: "We're going to hang our washing on the Siegfried Line."

You can still hang out your laundry for the massive German defense installations of World War II. Nine-tenths of them remain more or less intact. It would cost too much money to remove them.

Across the German-French border in France, the Maginot Line is still there, too. It is even kept in shape.

French and Germans, who built these fortification systems a quarter of a century ago, now appear to be equally "close" than at any time in the past 1,000 years.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and President Charles de Gaulle have agreed to study the German soldiers train in France; their French allies are stationed in Germany.

French military authorities say they see no future need for the Maginot Line, but it could be put back into operating condition within little effort.

They are unwilling to let the installations fall into ruin. After all, the Maginot Line cost $50 million more than the Siegfried Line.

World War II left Maginot practically undamaged. German troops invaded France via neutral Belgium and the Netherlands. The Siegfried Line forts from behind, meeting no resistance.

After the war, the location of the forts in remote forest land, far from supplies, land and markets, made them undesirable as factories. A suggestion to use them for storage of NATO supplies also came to nothing.

The Maginot Line remained as a ghostly chunk of military hardware. It includes 26 big forts and hundreds of lesser positions. Small maintenance crews periodically visit the installations, keeping machinery ready to run and making sure no boilers are around.

The Siegfried Line, also largely untouched during the war, was earmarked for demolition by the Allies. The sentence was too difficult to carry out.

Ten thousand bunkers of steel and concrete, miles of "dragon teeth" tank barriers and hundreds of other installations had been built by the Nazis from 1937 to 1940.

The job of razing most of them fell to the French, who controlled the border area after the war. Just removing mines from the area took years—and scores of German and Allied lives. German authorities say that between 1945 and 1962 about 1,000 bunkers were flattened. The cost was almost $2 million.

According to official estimates it would take $40 million more to raze the rest.

Many bunkers are so overgrown with shrubbery it is hard to find their entrance. Others slowly rot away as waste dumps. Farmers store hay in deserted bunkers.

In the western Palatinat—in the heart of NATO's largest defense arsenal strewn with depots, airports, barracks and dependent housing areas—the bunkers still serve a military purpose.

They are used for ammunition storage.

Drunk Bill Weakened

HARTFORD (AP)—The Senate is backing a diluted version of a crack-down on drunken driving, but has killed a clause which would have given it more teeth.

The bill would make the removal of chemical tests for drunkenness admissible as court evidence.

It was unanimous backing in the Senate yesterday for an amended "crack-down" clause was defeated.

The bill was voted on at an amendment to an original and almost identical bill. The original bill must now be voted upon before Senate approval can be formal.

The clause would have meant that anyone who had a driver's license would have implicitly agreed in advance to submit to tests if asked.

The bill would make the tests would result in automatic revocation of license.

The clause was voted down 21-25 on a roll call. Against the clause were 20 Democrats and three Democrats voted with the majority.

He said the clause, sponsored by Sen. T. Clark Hall, Jr. of Danbury, would make it more difficult to amend the bill.

Phone Stunts Show Fitness Of Teen-agers

By JOY STILLEY NEW YORK (AP) — President Kennedy may be worried about the physical fitness of the younger generation, but I can set his mind at ease about the younger generation in our household, at least.

In just one 30-minute phone conversation my daughter gets enough exercise of various kinds to qualify her for entrance into almost any Olympic event, you could name.

She'll be a natural for the discus throw, having an inserting arm with apple cores and peanut shells that sends them straight into the wastebasket in the far corner of the room.

As for me—I'm in shape for the breast jump, since Gay is always in a heap in the middle of the floor right between where I am, and where I want to be.

She walks, jumps, skips, does push-ups, and does deep knee bends and stands on her head, all while eating raisins, drinking soda pop, munching on bread, brushing her hair and keeping up a running conversation with another 15-year-old on the other end of the line—who is doubtless doing these same things in her own indoor gym.

My amateur athlete keeps herself in superb condition with two or three hours a day of these calisthenics, all while clutching the phone between her ear and shoulder, in the crook of her arm, or balanced on her head, while she sips comfortably on the floor.

A good deal of her activity is concerned with supplying herself with the necessities of life from the various storage places within her reach. Fortunately for her, the telephone is in the kitchen and the cord stretches just enough to allow her free access to the refrigerator and to cabinets stocked with food to give her energy for her marathon talkathons.

Besides serving as a medium of communication, and an opportunity to do the daily dozen, teenage telephone conversations serve to make sure that almost every member of the class has the same answer to every homework problem.

And the prolonged sessions with Mr. Bell's brainchild give us the perfect excuse when the wife for dinner. He can always claim he tried to call and the line was busy—and it always was.

Realizing that telephobitis is just as much the disease of adolescence as measles is common to childhood, I try to be patient with my AT&T addict.

Rumors Say ICBM Can't Reach Russia

eral. Fla. the ground equipment necessary for launching, and the Air Force crews being trained to man operational sites.

Q. You speak of making corrections. Does this mean that each new wing of 150 to 200 Minuteman incorporates improvements suggested by tests of earlier wings?

A. To some extent. We don't make major changes in every wing, however, for a couple of reasons. One, the original Wing 1 missile exceeds the job for which it was designed. Two, such changes increase crew training time and could cause difficulty in meeting production schedules.

The biggest changes are in the Wing 8 missiles for Grand Forks, N.D., where construction of sites will begin early next year. In these we have improved the second-stage engine for even greater range and range, and the guidance.

The guidance is almost unbelievably good in the Wing 1 missile. It has already been disclosed that it can hit a target the size of an airfield runway and when you talk of distances of 5,000 to 6,000 or 7,000 miles, that is incredible accuracy.

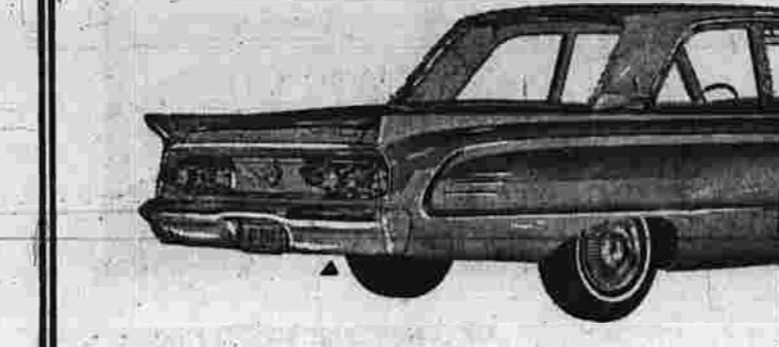

Q. You say the Wing 1 missile will do the job—what is the purpose of continued testing and improvement? Do you have hopes that a Minuteman eventually will be able to replace the Atlas and the Titan?

A. In many cases, yes. I would not say that Minuteman can do everything that Titan can do, because Titan carries a much heavier payload.

Q. You mean a bigger bomb, in the range of 30 megatons? A. That, too, is classified. But when you have a certain job to do, you can do it three ways. One, you can use one missile with a tremendous yield. Two, you can use more missiles of smaller yield. Or three, you can send your smaller missiles to the target with greater accuracy.

The first game last year August after the 6-foot, right-hander won in consecutive games by four hits as St. Louis edged Milwaukee 2-1 and took over first place in the National League with his fourth straight victory and eighth in nine games.

Angels-Yanks — The Yankees got to McBride for their first run in the eighth inning on Cleo Boyer's double and Tony Kubler's single. When Mantle and Maris singled opening the eighth, McBride pitched to another date in his little black book.
