fire protection and sewer service in the North End of town. 1. In September, the directors of the Eighth District notified Martin that they had voted to increase from $25 to $75 the rate for each fire in the town fire district that the Eighth District firemen covered. At present, the Eighth District's boundaries include only the north-central section of anchester; the town fire district includes all of town south of Middle Tpke., and land to the east and wast of the Elighth

District north of the Tpke. as An annangement between the two fire ohiefs, W. Clifford Mason of the town department and Francis Limerick of the Bighth District, provides that the Eighth District serve some town district homes, since the district is better located to provide the fire service. In the past, the Eighth Dis-trict directors had exacted a 25 fee for each fire thus cov-

This arrangement was neces mary because the official district mary because the official district boundaries could only extend as far as the district sewer lines. The second factor which influenced Martin was: 2. The 1963 semion of the General Assembly granted the district a bill which permits the extension of its borders to pro-wide either service, fire or sew-er, without the other.

Thus, it is now possible for the two fire departments to re-district themselves into a more logical pattern. On the agenda for the Tues-day night meeting are public hearings on three items.

1. An additional appropria-tion of $7,500 to the town engineer for personnel. The engineering department is in need of three additional personnel, Martin says, in order to adequately handle the cur-sent work load. They include a graduate en-gineer to serve as assistant to Town Engineer Walter Fuss, a junior engineering side, and a engineer "does all of the en-gineering work for all of the town departments except the water and sewer department, including that for the board c In addition, Martin says, i engineer is handling some of the work that had been assigned to the office of the deputy di-rector of public works, whose pesition has been abolished, and all of the work from the plan-ming department. ning department. The necessary $7,500 will come from the public works de-partment appropriation. 2. An additional appropriatio of $1,750 for a new car for the angineering department. Also to be financed from a transfer of funds from the sublic works department budget he appropriation will be used to replace a 1956 truck with a new station wagon. 3. Also for public hearing is a proposed amendment to the town employes' pension ordinance. The directors will consider

The directors will consider a request from R e publican Director Harian Taylor that Bruno DeMarco, the systems englyst who is studying the town highway department, be discharged. Taylor made the proposal in a letter datrikuted to the directors at their Nov. 5 meeting, but asked that action be deferred until December. Under the terms of his contrast, DeMarco may be dismissed by the town directors for any reason. Taylor believes that DeMarco's study is not proceeding as the directors had that Destarco's study is not pro-ceeding as the directors had originally intended. Although a study of the traf-fic problem at Manchester Me-morial Hospital 's pending, the directors will be asked to in-stiste condemnation proceed-ings so that the town may acquire property at the northwest corner of Main and Haynes St. Haynes St. is at present the primary access route to the hospital, and has been con-sidered for widening since the tragic Hartford Hospital fire of 10ai

The directors asked, at a spe The directors asked, at a spe-cial meeting to consider the hospital problem, that condem-mation of the corner property, the only purchase that would require such legal action by the town, be begun even before the traffic study is complete. Martin said today that to be-gin the condemnation did not obligate the town to go through with it should the traffic study produce some other recom-mendation. Martin will also ask the di-sectory to:

(A) Approve the reappoint-ment of Francis P. Handley to the Manchester Redevelopment Agency; (B.) Authorize an application for state aid grants based on the construction of the Keeney St. and Highland Park School additions:

(C.) Accept Tam and Timrod Rd. as town streets; (D.) Renew a lease with the Caster Chevrolet Co. for a dead or the Rollins College library said that name appears on a 1598 war map. Canaveral is Spanish word meaning cane of ced field.

The cape was a sandy, scrubgrown 15,000-acre site when the overnment bought it about 1950 for missile experimentation. The tract was bought partly because it was isolated. It also was inexpensive. Steady development of the Cape into a facility that sent. first monkeys then men into space brought a boom to the area. The missile space complex now includes adjacent 80,000acre Merritt Island, site of the prospective moonport, and employs about $2,000 persons. Cocoa Beach had about 200 residents before the space age. Now it has 12,000. Nine-tenths of hem work in the missile field or hold jobs that wouldn't exist without it. Renaming of the Cape posed a few problems. A "Cape Canaveral City" recently was founded. There is a Canaveral toll bridge and causeway. The Cape's sea-port is Port Canaveral.

We butchers, bakers or can-diestick makers are playing with the Manchester Civic Orchestra, but many other profes-sions will be represented when the local volunteer group gives its first concert in Bailey Audiprium on Wednesday, Dec. 4. One factor all have in common They love music well enough to rehearse and play without remuneration, but in the work that means bread and butter they represent varied fields. Four doctors, a contractor. mles manager, a post office worker, an oil dealer, two music store proprietors, a credit manager - these are some of the musicians, and add to that a large number of housewives ith many children amon The doctors are Dr. Joh fiddy and Dr. Francis Helfrick, both expert on the trombone as well as internal medicine an ediatrics, Dr. Robert Breer, another pediatrician who plays trumpet; and Dr. Richard Johnson of the Veterana' Hospital in Rocky Hill, who is a sec d violinist.

The sales manager is also the president of the orchestra, Edward Dzadius, who is with Case Bros. when not among the first violins Peter Thorne, a contractor who builds many homes in Glastonbury, is another first violinist. and playing alongside them is Ernest Machell from the town assessor's office. An interior decorator in th violin section is Leo Sans, a native of Germany who had much to do with the decor of another spot devoted to music, the Goodspeed Opera House in East Haddam, Machine tools are the everyday interest of violinist William Paton, the schestra's business manage; he ells them.

Two nurses in the group are Pettis and Mrs. Olive Wilk, both second violin-ists. William Turkington, vice president of the orchestra, who plays the viola, is with the Man-chester Post Office. Alfred Schimmel plays the cello as an avocation, but fire insurance is his vocation. In the ass section is Edward Custer, vho is with United Aircraft orporation, and the tuba i layed by Pierre Marteney, octor of philosophy who is with tesearch laboratory of Unitd Aircraft, and is the orches-

Robert Simmers, French horn section, is a credit anager and also gives lesson on the horn. Then there are orchestra members whose professions have to do with music. Ray Beller who plays the oboe, has a music shop, and he once played a non-symphonic kind f music with the bands of Ray McKinley and Glenn Gray. The Dubaldo, aiso has a music shop und plays for dancing on week-there are many of them, most of whom leave husbands or baby-stitters at home to care for offspring while Mama is out making music. One housewife has an interest also in polites: Setty Brown, cellist and mother of two, ran for public office in Glastonbury in the last election, for state representative. Other housewives include Barbara Embeer, second violinist and secretary of the orchestra: Barbara Dickie, second violinist Holiday Fair and personnel manager Jane Caniberg, Nancytou Krieger and Yvetta Matum, first violins; Martin Creamer, Martha Antos, second violits; Sylvia Heifrick and Miriam Ryan, viola; Pa-tricia, Blackwell, Virginia Du-makine and Margaret Pina, celic; Diana O'Brien, French horn.
