Crash Dead Borne From Snowy Peak

MINDEN, Nev. (AP)—Workers began the grim task today of recovering and identifying 86 Lake Tahoe plane crash victims as they were taken to relatives of the dead.

The 81 passengers and four crew members died Sunday in the crash of a Paradise Airlines Constellation against a lofty, snow-covered peak on a flight scheduled from San Jose, Calif., to the gambling and winter sports center on the south shore of Lake Tahoe.

The path for recovery operations was cleared by a bulldozer and crew which followed an old logging road, then pushed through rocks and snow to the crash site.

Relatives and friends of the victims thronged into Minden, a Basque-German town of 500 residents located six miles east of the crash site and seven miles south of Carson City, the state capital.

The fire station became an information center; the Carson Valley Improvement Club became a morgue and Douglas County courthouse became headquarters for recovery parties.

While the bodies were carried out, Federal Aviation Agency and Civil Aeronautics Board investigators were to examine the crash scene in an attempt to learn why the plane crashed.

The victims, all Californians, and mostly from the Salinas and San Jose areas, were headed for a day at Nevada gambling casinos with the plane was caught in a blinding snowstorm.

A Rockville land surveyor was the state's first witness today in the first degree murder trial of Roy F. Darwin of Andover, charged with slaying Hope Rothwell of Bolton. The surveyor was Everett O. Gardner, who prepared maps of the Tolland and Vernon area for the prosecution. All were entered as exhibits in the trial.

The first witness testified for the court after he testified for the defense. He testified that he had formed an opinion in the case. The second witness was Clarence E. Chandler, 41, of Willington, was picked as the second jury alternate. He is the father of five children and works for an automotive parts firm in Hartford. He was the third juror candidate examined this morning.

The first was disqualified by the court after he testified for the defense. He testified that he had formed an opinion in the case. The second witness was Clarence E. Chandler, 41, of Willington, was picked as the second jury alternate. He is the father of five children and works for an automotive parts firm in Hartford. He was the third juror candidate examined this morning.

The jury of seven men and five women was sworn in shortly after noon today and Special Asst. State's Atty. Stelio G. Gnatt immediately called Gardner to the stand.

The first map entered as an exhibit showed the general Vernon and Tolland area. Gardner, a graduate civil engineer, said the map was an enlargement from U.S. geologic survey.

The two towns figure in the slaying of the 31-year-old shortly after noon today and caused of forcing the girl into the car on Reservoir Rd. in Vernon on Sept. 18 and transporting her to an area off Dockers Rd. in Tolland where he is accused of strangling her after she resisted an attack.

The second map shows a detailed section of Reservoir Rd. where the girl's abandoned car was found. Defense Atty. John J. Shes asked Gardner if the map was carrying the war into the courtroom.

Gen. MacArthur Undergoes Tests

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the old soldier hero, was undergoing tests today at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital for "abdominal complaints."

Hospital officials refused to say how serious his condition was, and announced that no information would be available until the examinations were completed and evaluated.

Other sources said the general was associated with various ailments, including hepatitis.

The general, 84, did not appear to be in acute pain Monday when he arrived after a flight from New York, where he has lived since 1961.

Barry Denies Granite State Bid Faltering

HUDSON, N.H. (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater strove today to arouse new fervor among conservatives in a last campaign fling before next week's New Hampshire primary.

In a crowded, 12-hour scheduled heavily on the theme that the way to shortcut centralized government in Washington was to vote for him in the GOP presidential balloting.

His appeal was directed primarily at building a conservative turnout he believes may give him 25 per cent of the popular vote and half of the state's 14 convention delegates.

Goldwater told a Berlin rally Monday night in obvious references to New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, he doesn't believe that "votes can be bought by a smile or by kissing babies or by eating hot dogs."

"Elections mustn't be carried over or cruised to entertain the voters," he said.

Putting this into practice, Goldwater avoided any extended handshaking tours though he did shake some hands in Berlin. His wife and his son Barry Jr., rode in an old-fashioned campaign parade from their hotel to the Berlin City Hall.

At a dinner for campaign workers, which preceded his speech, he said reports of "my death up here"—meaning his reported political decline—were premature.

He said it is not true that "Goldwater is slipping in New Hampshire." He added that he may be "a going goose, but I'm going in the right direction."

Goldwater emphasized his belief that Republicans ought to choose a conservative to oppose President Johnson in the November general election instead of a "me-too" candidate.

Nelson Rockefeller opened the effort to win New Hampshire's presidential preference primary Wednesday for six days longer.

Mother Opposes Parking Fines, Jailed

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—A 60-year-old mother who said she was "unconscionably" fined and degraded, has spent her first night in jail rather than pay $15 in parking fines.

After she was sentenced Monday, Dorothy Horvath said her husband decided their 18-month-old daughter, Lisa, would be a 21-month period late last year.

Mrs. Horvath is a student at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, studying for an advanced degree in guidance and counseling. Her husband, William Horvath, is a business manager. Police said she accumulated 11 parking tickets in school.

France Asks UN Unit To Accept Red China

GENEVA (AP)—France today demanded the admission of Communist China to the United Nations World Health Organization.

The French announcement on the opening day of the annual WHO assembly indicated that France will take a similar position in the U.N. General Assembly and in all organizations affiliated with the United Nations.

French delegate Eugene Auloy made the announcement as the assembly debated a Soviet proposal to recognize the Peking regime as the rightful representative of China in the 15-member health organization.

It was the first time any major international body has faced a challenge to the Chinese Nationalist delegation since France recognized Red China on Jan. 28.

Every WHO assembly since the Communist took over the Chinese mainland in 1949 has opened with a demand by the Soviet bloc and neutralist African-Asian countries that Red China replace Nationalist China in the organization.

The proposal invariably has been rejected by a majority which accepted the Western argument that WHO should take no such political decision independently of the U.N. General Assembly.

France has always supported this Western position. The French switch was expected to weaken but not defeat opposition to Red China.

Auloy made his statement in less than 10 seconds.

"Since a debate on the subject of Chinese representation has been opened here, I wish to state that France supports the admission into the People's Republic of China to the World Health Organization."

The statement was greeted with applause from Communist and neutralist delegations.

Chile Volcano Destroys Town

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—An Andean volcano was reported today to have erupted and triggered avalanches that destroyed the little town of Conarpe and threatened a 60-mile area of southern Chile containing 20,000 persons.

Press reports from the stricken area said at least 25 persons had been killed after the eruption of 9,325-foot Villarrica volcano early Monday, but police said only seven deaths had been confirmed.

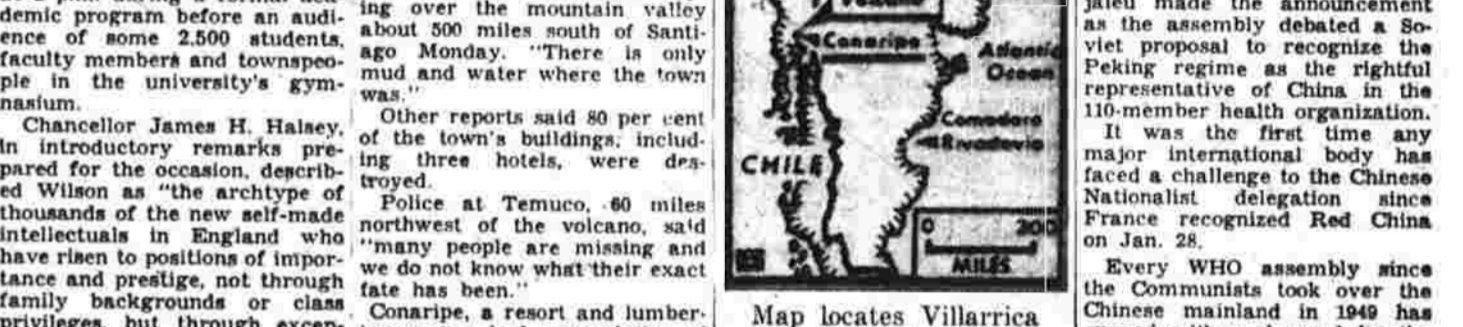

"Nothing is left of Conarpe," a civilian pilot said after flying over the mountain valley about 500 miles south of Santiago Monday. "There is only mud and water where the town was."

Other reports said 80 per cent of the town's buildings, including three hotels, were destroyed. Police at Temuco, 80 miles northwest of the volcano, said "many people are missing and we do not know what their exact fate has been."

Conarpe, a remote and lumbering center, had a population of several hundred. It was on a southern slope of the volcano in the heart of the destroyed town.

A radio report said a group of about 150 persons were hidden on a patch of high ground near the site of the destroyed town.

Police patrols were dispatched.

Washington Visit Ends for Wilson

WASHINGTON (AP)—British Labor party leader Harold Wilson ends his Washington visit today after having what he called "a very good frank talk" with President Johnson.

He declined to spell out just what they discussed Monday, but told reporters he couldn't think of any important subjects they had touched on.

"We had a very enjoyable frank talk," he said. "It was very interesting and very helpful in the communication of lack of words."

Wilson holds a news conference today in the British Embassy then leaves the capital to receive an honorary degree from Bridgport University in Connecticut. He arrived here Saturday.

Wilson, who would become prime minister if the Labor party wins the forthcoming British election, said his trip here had two purposes: to bring himself up to date on American thinking and to answer several questions put to him.

Asked for his evaluation of Johnson, the Labor party leader said: "I felt the Western Alliance and the United States are in good hands."

Wilson wouldn't be drawn into a discussion of British politics but did say he thought the British election would be held soon, rather than in the fall.

Although Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home on several grounds to Judge Wilson replacing Judge Brown. The defense attorney argued that Judge Brown was a member of the First Administrative Judicial District of Texas. The administrative assistant said it was "for the period beginning March 3, 1964, for the disposition of such matters in the trial which is now in the third week."

At the same time, Bell argued, while Judge Brown is absent, the court should be presented in his absence. Several times Judge Wilson, out working through diplomatic channels to normalize and eventually re-establish diplomatic relations with Vietnam, Harold Wilson, strongly supports British government's position he split with United States over relations with Cuba and Red China.

"I would not require any deference of any race, creed or color to accept an unfair burden," Judge Brown told Bell.

Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade said, "Judge Brown refused to say more than 'I would not require any deference of any race, creed or color to accept an unfair burden.'"

Districting Job Said Too Big for One Man

NEW HAVEN (AP)—Nonesome after oral arguments special master should be named to help draw up a reapportionment plan for the Connecticut General Assembly, says State Atty. Gen. Harold M. Muvey.

The assignment is too big for one person, Muvey said in a statement submitted to the court's right to prepare a reapportionment plan and then order the legislature to adopt it.

The GOP will appeal as soon as the decree is issued.

The court itself had asked for opinions on the value of a special master. The court also asked for advice on the feasibility of using computers in drawing new district lines for the Senate and House.

"The defendants do not feel that the court should issue a decree which will be issued."

New Judge Presides Over Trial of Ruby

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A substitute judge, J. Frank Wilson, began presiding over the murder trial of Jack Ruby today after a long argument from the bench with Ruby's chief defense counsel, Melvin Bell.

Bell protested, on several grounds, against President Kennedy sitting on the bench for Judge Joe E. Brown, who came to his chambers this morning but became ill and his doctor ordered him home to bed. Brown said, "I've got an awfully bad cold."

The legal instrument by which Judge Wilson replaced Judge Brown was signed by Dallas A. Blankenship, independent judge of the First Administrative Judicial District of Texas. The administrative assistant said it was "for the period beginning March 3, 1964, for the disposition of such matters in the trial which is now in the third week."

At the same time, Bell argued, while Judge Brown is absent, the court should be presented in his absence. Several times Judge Wilson, out working through diplomatic channels to normalize and eventually re-establish diplomatic relations with Vietnam, Harold Wilson, strongly supports British government's position he split with United States over relations with Cuba and Red China.

"I would not require any deference of any race, creed or color to accept an unfair burden," Judge Brown told Bell.

Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade said, "Judge Brown refused to say more than 'I would not require any deference of any race, creed or color to accept an unfair burden.'"

Sides Stand Pat In Malay Crisis

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Foreign Ministers of Indonesia, Malaysia and the Philippines renewed their discussion of the Malaysian crisis in a one-hour and 46-minute session here today and emerged looking serious but without any agreement.

The problems continued to be difficult, Philippine Foreign Secretary Salvador P. Lopez said.

Indonesia and Malaysia have widely divergent views on the crisis, he said.

Borneo cease-fire and a possible summit meeting and have given little indication they are willing to compromise. The Philippines is in the role of a middle man.

The session was held behind closed doors.

MRS. ROTHWELL TESTIFIES ROCKVILLE—Mrs. John C. Rothwell of Bolton testified this afternoon in the trial of Roy Darwin of Andover, accused of the slaying of Mrs. Rothwell's 13-year-old daughter, Hope. Mrs. Rothwell gave her testimony leading up to the discovery of Hope's abandoned car in clear, firm tones. She testified, however, and lowered her voice when asked to identify a plastic bag containing Hope's sweater in progress, two balls of yarn and a knitting needle as that found on the seat of the car located on Reservoir Rd. Sept. 18, the night the girl disappeared.

LIVING COAST UP WASHINGTON (AP)—The government announced today that a newly broadened sampling of prices in the nation showed living costs rose in January by about one-tenth of 1 per cent. The new consumer price index, announced by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, showed it cost $10.77 to buy items that cost one cent less in December. A spokesman said the new index covers a range of 400 typical consumer items compared with about 225 in the old statistical measuring device. The old index showed no change over the month.

Directors to Face Full Agenda Today

The oft-delayed problem of improved emergency access to Manchester Memorial Hospital will be put before the town board of directors again tonight. The directors, set to meet at 8 in the Municipal Building hearing room, will hear a report by Town Engineer Walter Puse outlining the costs of two alternate access improvement plans.

The five plans range in cost from $1,000 to $120,000, and in effect from the widening of a brief stretch of Army St. to the construction of a new road from the hospital to Broad St.

On the same agenda are public hearings on a series of additional appropriations, and the adoption of an ordinance formally setting up the urban renewal Citizens Advisory Committee.

The additional appropriations include:

- 1. A total of $30,000 to the settlement of claims against the town to supplement the $18,000 appropriated in the current budget.
- 2. A total of $4,000 for the settlement of claims against the town to supplement the $18,000 appropriated in the current budget.
- 3. These two appropriations will be financed by an increase in the estimate of receipts from the state in aid grants ($22,000) and by transfers from the police department ($8,000), insurance ($3,400) and welfare ($3,000) accounts.
- 4. A total of $2,400 for the recreation department to finance department operations which had been paid from the department's income, instead of from the General Fund, until the departmental audit is completed.
- 5. A total of $1,500 for a change in the bookkeeping procedure this year.
- 6. General Manager Richard Martin explains that this will be financed by an increase in the estimated receipts to the General Fund from recreation activities. The increase is also the result of the new bookkeeping method.
- 7. But the call for the directors meeting shows that this will be $400 left over from the revenue sources to be tapped for highway and district appropriations which are not reallocated.
- 8. A total of $1,500 for a change in the bookkeeping procedure. This is another bookkeeping appropriation, and will be financed from an increase of $1,500 in the estimated receipts.
- 9. The ordinance formally established the board of directors.

All Charter Changes Approved by Board

The board of directors last night approved virtually all of the recommendations of the Charter Revision Commission (CRC), including the controversial mandatory review of the general manager clause, and the separation of powers and anti-duties clause. The board also approved changes to the charter, including the separation of powers and anti-duties clause. 3 Youths Held In Liquor Theft

Police say that an "impulse" on the part of one youth resulted in the Feb. 25 theft of a case of 24 pint bottles of liquor from a Hartford distributor's delivery truck.

Charged with larceny are Thomas Cooper Walk, 17, of 36 Ferguson Rd.; Daniel Thomas Sullivan, 17, of 9 Edison Rd.; and David Sitar, 16, of 45 Morse Rd.

Det. John Krinjak, who made the arrests yesterday, said that the boys were released to the custody of their parents while awaiting presentation to Circuit Court 12 here on March 16.

The theft was more of a prank than a criminal act, police said. The liquor was returned. "They just didn't know what to do with it after they had stolen it" from the truck, which was parked in the Pine Pharmacy parking lot off Center St. while the driver was making a delivery to a package store, police said.

Gives Lecture

Sir Herbert Read, English poet, philosopher and art critic, will give a free public lecture at 8:30 p.m. Thursday at the King Philip School, West Hartford. Introduced by Alan Tompkins, University of Hartford vice chancellor for visual arts and director of the art school, Sir Herbert will speak on "The Redemption of the Robot." His talk is sponsored by the Alexander S. Keller Memorial Fund, now in its sixth season as a community service offered by the university.

Sir Herbert and Lady Read are in residence at Wesleyan University where he is a fellow this semester at the university's Center for Advanced Studies. Twice decorated as an officer in World War I, he has led a many-faceted life. He professes pacifism, is an exponent of aestheticism, a spokesman for the avant-garde, and is considered the best critic of British art since John Ruskin.

The public is welcome to attend the lecture for which there is no charge.
