Cleo's Winds Batter Miami

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Cleo smashed at Miami with sledge hammer winds today, ripped on up Florida's populous "Gold Coast," and sent small craft scurrying to safety all the way north to Charleston, S. C.

Leaving Miami's streets looking like a battlefield after a four-hour onslaught, Cleo thrashed across Hollywood, Fort Lauderdale and Palm Beach and drew a bead on Cape Kennedy.

At noon the Miami Weather Bureau extended gas warnings and a hurricane watch northward from Cape Kennedy to Charleston.

Still packing a 100-mile-an-hour punch, Cleo pushed dangerous waves ahead in her rampage on the coast.

The storm was centered at noon near Stuart, Fla. Its forward speed was about 14 miles an hour.

There was a possibility that the center would pass within 50 miles of the Cape Kennedy area.

Broadcasting towers toppled at Miami. Store windows exploded by hundreds, littering streets with merchandise and broken glass. Fallen trees blocked hundreds of streets.

No deaths were reported, but a looter shot by police was in a critical condition in a hospital.

County Manager Irving G. McNary said he would ask to have the city declared a disaster area. There was no estimate of damage to public buildings, but McNary called it "quite serious."

A veteran policeman who was in Miami when the 1924 hurricane broke the big Florida land boom said the storm was the worst since then.

Numerous fires broke out and couldn't be fought in the 115-mile an hour fury of the wind. One warehouse was destroyed at a half-million dollar cost. Fires still were breaking out when dawn revealed the raw scars of the hurricane.

Cleo, howling and moaning up from the south, slammed hurricane force winds into Miami at 2:30 a.m. One hour later, power failure plunged the city into darkness.

After crossing Miami, the eye of the hurricane moved on northward across Hallandale, Hollywood, Fort Lauderdale, Boca Raton and West Palm Beach. Hurricane warning flags flew on up the coast to Cape Kennedy and gale warnings were issued as far north as Daytona Beach.

At 10 a.m., winds of 105 miles per hour were hitting West Palm Beach.

At Fort Lauderdale, a 20-by-40 foot sign over a shopping center vanished. Gusts strewn trees across roads and made shore route A-1A impassable with sand-drifts.

An automobile, apparently caught by a gust, turned on its side on a bridge. Several buildings, which were being erected, were knocked down to staves where a fresh start will be necessary.

At Hollywood, Cleo's winds battered in the glass fronts of the Diplomat Hotel lobby and oceanfront rooms. About 50 guests fled to the inner area of the hotel and bedded down by candlelight.

3 Generals Elected, Viet Riots Continue

SIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The ruling military revolutionary council elected May Gen. Nguyen Khanh and two other top generals today to run South Viet Nam for the next two months.

Radio Saigon announced this development in the political crisis came amid bloody new riots in Saigon.

A crowd of 2,000 marched to the council's compound, calling on the 60 members to resign and demand Buddhist demands for governmental shakeup. Viet Nam troops opened fire on the demonstrators, but three were reported killed and other top wounded. The rest retreated.

Roman Catholic and Buddhist groups battled in a rain in the capital's streets. The Saigon radio station and a technical high school were focal points. Several persons were wounded, apparently knifed.

Called off to share rule with Khanh were Lt. Gen. Tran Thien Kham, former defense minister; and Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, the former chief of state. Khanh supplanted Minh Aug. 18. That was the day the council elected the 37-year-old strong man to the presidency.

Leaflets dropped over the city from a Vietnamese army helicopter announced the present caretaker government will continue for a maximum of two months and then will name a provisional national congress which will pick a chief of state and establish other national organizations.

The leaflets, signed by the full council, also said the generals and other members of the government will continue to work for the nation's unity.

UAW Picks Chrysler as Strike Target

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers Union has singled out Chrysler Corp. as its No. 1 strike target in efforts to secure new contracts for the nation's half-million auto plant workers.

UAW President Walter Reuther told newsmen Wednesday night that the walkout at Chrysler would begin at 10 a.m. Sept. 9 if no settlement is forthcoming by that time.

Reuther said Chrysler, General Motors and Ford—the auto industry's Big Three—all had adopted a "narrow, selfish attitude" in negotiations and are denying workers their fair share of record-breaking profits.

The union's contracts with all three firms expire Monday, but Reuther said the strike deadline was set beyond Labor Day to allow several extra days at the bargaining table in efforts to avoid a walkout.

President Johnson is expected to open his campaign in Detroit's Cadillac Square on Labor Day.

Observers have pointed out that with an auto strike in progress, the President might have found such an appearance before a labor rally to be embarrassing.

Reuther visited President Johnson in the White House Wednesday, but he denied that the President's Labor Day plans had any influence on the decision to set Sept. 9—two days after the holiday—as the strike deadline.

Pointing out that Chrysler is the nation's seventh largest corporation, Reuther said the firm was selected because it had the largest "economic base."

Events In State

State to Drop Shackney Case

HARTFORD (AP)—The Department of Justice has decided against petitioning for a U.S. Supreme court review of the David L. Shackney case.

U.S. Atty. F. Owen Egan announced the department's decision in the involuntary servitude case yesterday.

Shackney was convicted in U.S. District court last year of holding Luis Oro, 43, a former Mexico City cab driver, and five of his children in involuntary servitude on Shackney's chicken farm in Middletown.

The U.S. Court of Appeals overturned the verdict June 5, declaring that there was no evidence to prove the government's charges.

U.S. District Judge M. Joseph Blumenfeld, who heard the case, signed the order dismissing the charges against the part-time religious teacher.

Shackney insisted throughout his 22-day trial that Oro and his family were free to leave the farm at any time. The government argued that Shackney had kept Oro and his family in involuntary servitude on his chicken farm in Middletown.

Humphrey Bounces Back

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Virginia Democratic presidential primary will ever forget it for Hubert H. Humphrey.

There he stood Wednesday night, waving, laughing, pointing happily to friends he recognized in the milling crowd below, as thousands cheered in the giant Convention Hall.

Everything had gone right for Hubert Humphrey at last. Not only had President Johnson finally picked him as his vice-presidential running mate, the Kennedy had made it all the lovelier by performing an unhealed political chore, coming from Washington to nominate Humphrey in person.

Watching Humphrey in all his glory, it seemed impossible that only four short years ago he had been a political pariah, a certain defeat in spectacular victory.

Indeed, Kennedy's victory was so spectacular that he won by a 52 margin—that his followers said this was the turning point of the decisive victory that means the presidential nomination.

Early in the evening Humphrey glumly noted the trend was steadily against him. So for 45 hours, in his rooms at the Johnson's Rutherford Hotel, he called his backers all over the country to tell them the bad news had happened but they had. No one who took part in or who watched that West

Doctors Say President in Good Health

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson, 56 years old today, has his party's overwhelming endorsement for another term in office and his doctor's assurance he is physically fit for an "active vigorous life."

For a birthday party, he was assured a rousing reception from the Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City, where he goes tonight to accept formally the full-term nomination handed him without contest Wednesday night.

The verdict of four doctors on his physical condition was disclosed by the President Wednesday as he led newsmen on a 4 1/2-mile hike, talking as he circled a loop around the back driveway of the White House.

Looking easily along in the high-humidity heat Johnson convinced less-athletic newsmen of the doctors' finding that his "exercise tolerance continues to be superb" despite a serious heart attack in 1955.

He took a few more fast laps later with his choice for a running mate, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, took time for an informal birthday party at which his start presented him with a desk, and capped an active day with a flight to the convention city which lasted into the early morning hours.

In the course of the 90-minute afternoon marathon, Johnson declared that there was no evidence to prove the government's charges.

U.S. District Judge M. Joseph Blumenfeld, who heard the case, signed the order dismissing the charges against the part-time religious teacher.

Shackney insisted throughout his 22-day trial that Oro and his family were free to leave the farm at any time. The government argued that Shackney had kept Oro and his family in involuntary servitude on his chicken farm in Middletown.

LBJ Calls Dodd To Veep Meeting

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—President Johnson called Sen. Thomas J. Dodd to Atlantic City today to discuss the vice-presidential nomination.

On Tuesday night, when Dodd indicated that Dodd had been considered for the vice-presidential nomination, he was introduced as "the distinguished Kentuckian, Sen. Thomas Dodd."

The introduction was by Sen. Warren Magnuson of Washington, chairman of the campaign committee for Senate Democrats.

Dodd, whose appearance before the convention was expected to give a little boost to his presidential nomination in Connecticut, ignored the slip.

By late afternoon yesterday, the senior senator from Connecticut, correctly identified, was in the very center of the national spotlight.

He was put there by President Johnson when the chief executive summoned Dodd and Sen. Hubert Humphrey to the White House.

The trip to Washington, which came as a complete surprise to the Connecticut delegates, generated almost breathless suspense for the Nutmegs.

A darkhorse possibility for the vice-presidential nomination, Dodd walked over to newsmen standing behind a barrier and said: "The next vice president."

The world was jammed of the selection about five hours before many delegates to this convention knew that it had been made. No modern president had ever kept concealment about a running mate so long.

Johnson, Humphrey and Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., who also had been summoned to the white house from Atlantic City, then boarded a plane. Johnson placed his name in nomination.

The reason for Dodd's quick trip remained a mystery. The Connecticut senator said he had told the president to "include me out" of consideration for the vice-presidential nomination.

Speculation among high party officials was that the Connecticut senator had been offered appointment as Attorney General.

(See Page Ten)

Governor Leads Cheering Section

ATLANTIC CITY (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey led a cheering section of the Connecticut delegates today to the White House.

The Nutmeggers also had a chance to acclaim one of their own favorite sons.

This was Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, the state's junior senator, who was one of the secondaries for the nomination of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey.

Ribicoff spoke of the Minnesota senator as a man he knew well in the world, which is the overriding concern of all our people," he said.

"This ticket," the Governor said, "will be accepted by us as the people of America and I predict for it a complete and total victory."

The Nutmeggers practiced what they preached as they stood last night that my President Johnson himself appear before it to announce his nomination.

They cheered his nomination, his appearance, his speech and his running mate.

He stood on his chair, waved placards, banners and streamers as a host of about 200 members of the Connecticut delegation gathered in the ballroom of the Rutherford Hotel.

The governor appeared more jubilant than when he was elected. He was cheered by the delegates who worked hard in the 1960 fall campaign, Slinger said, and contributed to Kennedy's victory.

So here Humphrey was looking as if he were a little embarrassed at so solid a knockout blow, said: "It was very nice of you to come over here."

Sen. Pierre Salinger, who as Connecticut's press secretary in 1960, and sweltered Johnson's name in the ballroom of the Rutherford Hotel.

Barry Vacations, Talks Viet Issue

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater sought privacy at sea today by brushing the guerrilla war in South Viet Nam squarely into his campaign against President Johnson.

While the Democratic National Convention nominated Johnson and chose Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota to run, the Republican nominee for the White House cruised the waters off Southern California.

Looking against the stern wall of a borrowed 83-foot yacht Wednesday, Goldwater declared: "I think the Southeast Asian fighting before Election Day, said that hitting would be wrong and added he fears such an agreement would be a disaster."

At one point, he borrowed a heavy "Connally" sign and vainly attempted to attract the attention of the Texas governor.

Veep Choice Sparks Dull Convention

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—The team of Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota squared off today for the 1964 presidential battle with thundering Democratic convention acclamation behind them as the party nominees.

All that remained to kick off the hostilities with the Republican Goldwater-Miller ticket was President Johnson's formal acceptance tonight of the presidential nomination he won by acclamation Wednesday night. Humphrey also will formally accept the vice-presidential nomination.

Johnson was expected to tell delegates, assembled for a session at which the late President John F. Kennedy was to be memorialized, that his will be a campaign aimed at achieving prosperity and peace.

He might also give the party faithful something to yell about by jibing at GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater and his running mate, Rep. William E. Miller.

In a dramatic turn to a convention that had followed form so closely it was on the dull side, Johnson broke a string of precedents.

The President had held on to his secret that Humphrey was his choice for the vice-presidential nomination until he was ready to board a plane to Atlantic City. Humphrey, who had flown to Washington at the President's command, was his side.

Taking the stand by the arm, Johnson walked over to newsmen standing behind a barrier and said: "The next vice president."

The world was jammed of the selection about five hours before many delegates to this convention knew that it had been made. No modern president had ever kept concealment about a running mate so long.

DOOD KILLS RUMOR

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Sen. Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut said today he had no intention of leaving the vice-presidential nomination to Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey.

He said he would not give it up. "The Cabinet rumors sprang up after a trip to the White House made by Dodd and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, at the summons of the President."

NEGRO BOY SHOT

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—A 12-year-old Negro youth was shot and killed Wednesday night by a white junk dealer who said he caught the youth robbing his junkyard. An Albany funeral home said it was holding the youth's body but that it did not know his name. Police refused to confirm or deny the report. The FBI office in Albany said it was investigating the shooting but that it had no details.

ASSASSIN DODD UNIT

POMFRET (AP)—John Lodge, Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, said today that his Democratic opponent, Democratic Senator Thomas J. Dodd, should be removed from the chairmanship of the Senate Juvenile Delinquency Subcommittee.

"All the committee has been doing is spending money and producing no results," Lodge said in a letter prepared for a meeting of the Washington County Republican Association. Lodge said the subcommittee should be removed from the chairmanship of the Senate Juvenile Delinquency Subcommittee.

Sunday Sale Issue Tops Board Agenda

A public hearing on a proposed ordinance to permit the Sunday sale of liquor in Manchester restaurants and clubs, between noon and 9 p.m., will highlight next Tuesday night's regular meeting of the town's board of directors.

The proposed ordinance results from the filing of petitions, which have been verified to contain the signatures of at least 5 per cent of the town's electors, as required in Section 2-10 of the town charter.

If the board of directors does not vote adoption of the ordinance, or if it takes no action, regulations state that the proposal must be placed on the voting machines for a townwide referendum.

Since Mayor Francis J. Mahoney has already stated that he will recommend that the board take no action on the proposal, the question will probably be on the machines at the Nov. 3 state and national elections.

The board will also hold public hearings and take action on the following additional appropriations for the 1964-65 fiscal year:

(1) To the board of education, $1,500, for the Community College to request a grant of free, community development seminars, as suggested by Director Ted Foyell.

(2) To the town treasurer, $1,850, for purchase of a check-writing machine.

(3) To the board of directors' fund, $2,845, to pay for the special audit of the recreation department.

(4) To the insurance fund, $4,600, to pay the cost of including pensioners under the town's life and health insurance program.

(5) To the town clerk, $600, for rental of a copying machine.

(6) To the town counsel, $1,500, for increased expenses of a full-time secretary in the counsel's office.

(7) To the Town Fire District, $30,000, for payment of temporary indebtedness.

(8) To the town engineer, $5,222, for repairs and improvements.

In other business, the board will consider:

(9) The allocation of $1,100 from the General Fund Capital Improvement Fund for the cost of moving the 87-year-old Civil War Statue in Center Park. The board had previously approved the move, but had never allocated the funds.

(10) The allocation of $13,000 from the Town Water Department Capital Improvement Reserve Fund for 16-inch water main in Spruce St., between Edridge and Charlotte St. The proposed installation will complete a project started in 1956, and will satisfy request of Fire Chief William E. Mason.

(11) The informal sewer-ewp agreement between the town and the 8th District. The formal agreement is presently being drawn up by the committee of the restaurant owners, who cite the necessity of closing their establishments on Sunday, and the subsequent loss of patronage in surrounding areas, as grounds for their request.

Most of the opposition, in previous years, has been led by the Manchester Council of Churches.

The board has also placed on its agenda, at the request of GOP Director Francis DeLis-Fera, a discussion of the troublesome Bigelow Brook flooding.

The problem was discussed at the directors' August meeting, but was tabled for study. In the meantime, a flash down-pour two weeks ago resulted in a recurrence of flooding in the vicinity of the brook, and moved DeLis-Fera to request an immediate solution of the problem.

(12) The settlement, for $500, of a claim by Vincent J. Villa, of 146 Loomis St., Villa had been the town for $10,000 as the result of an alleged fall on Main St. on Jan. 10, 1961. He claimed that he tripped and fell on a raised curb, fractured his right hand, and was required to expend considerable sums for medical attention.

(13) The waiver of bid requirements for the purchase of 12 fire hydrants by the town water department. The new hydrants, of the "Edgy" type, will match the present hydrants.

(14) The waiver of bids for the purchase of two burners for the Olcott St. Sewage Treatment Plant. A burner is a piece of equipment which fits into the existing system, and shreds salvages as it enters the treatment process. Thus protecting the entire system from damage. The additional must be purchased to match the system already installed.

(15) The appointment of nine members to the newly created Human Relations Commission. The board will take the recommendations of the Manchester Interfaith Social Action Council on the makeup of the commission.

Dodd Considered For Second Post
...a chief topic of conversation during the dinner.
...a delegation that had believed that Humphrey was the front runner, the speculation given the most credence was that Dodd was being asked to make a nominating speech.

...being great strength to the ticket.
...He is a great American and a selfless fighter for peace for all Americans.
...Dodd's liberal advocates turned out to be not the Connecticut delegates—but a group from Virginia.
...Led by John G. Voneses of Petersburg, who described himself as a good friend of Dodd's, they came to the Connecticut seats bearing Dodd signs.
...Dodd will be the next VP," the signs read. "Dodd V. P. Walt and Sen. V. P. Could Be Dodd."
...Another rumor was that Dodd was to be named attorney general to succeed Robert F. Kennedy, who is to run for the Senate in New York.
...National Chairman John M. Bailey, who also is the state chairman, was at the dinner but had no information for the delegates.
...One of the reasons some of the delegates were skeptical about the possibility that Dodd would be the choice was that there had been no previous hints that he might be.
...Dodd had been mentioned many times as a possibility in news reports but these had not been accepted seriously by most Connecticut Democrats.
...A silver-haired individual, Dodd was once described by a political observer in Connecticut as a man with a tendency to zig when party leaders want to zag.
...It is this political independence that has sometimes put the 57-year-old senator at odds with his state organization.
...The Connecticut delegates learned of the president's selection before the start of last night's session.
...Gov. John N. Dempsey, the chairman of the delegation, said that Humphrey would

Only One Permit Was for Home
Building Official Percy B. Cook reports that of the 13 permits issued in the period from June 20 through Aug. 11 only one permit was for a new dwelling.
...One was for a swimming pool, one for a well, and one for temporary parking of a trailer in a residential area. The remaining nine permits were for alterations or additions.
...The permits issued were as follows: To Francis R. Brodie, Jurorway Rd., for a workshop valued at $470; to Mrs. Louise Parkington, Hendes Rd., for an attached greenhouse valued at $500; to Alexis D. Riccio, Lake Rd., rebuilding of a garage; to Yvonne M. Schaller, Rt. 6, remodeling of office, valued at $1,000; Norman Dumschat, Hendes Rd., a tool shed with a value of $100; Victor Herriman, Parker Bridge Rd., swimming pool valued at $1,000; F. C. Lambert, Bausels Rd., open porch; Edward Bernstein, Hendes Rd., open living room, valued at $4,000; Richard and Thelma Howard well permit; William H. Tucker, Rockledge Dr., permit for temporary parking of a trailer; John Hillman, Lake Rd., garage, $400 value; R. H. Eickman, Lake Rd., house repairs, $300; Nancy M. Harrison, Gilbert Rd., house valued at $11,000.
...The Andover Community Club will hold a special meeting, the first in the program for the current year, on Friday at 8 p.m. in the Town Hall. All members and prospective members are urged to attend.

...Tuesday's two hour voter session resulted in the addition of six new voters and one transfer from another town. Of the six new voters two enrolled as Democrats, two as Republicans, and two chose to remain unaffiliated.
...John Haberem of Manchester has been hired by First Selectman Percy B. Cook to serve as an accountant for the town. Among the duties he will perform will be payments of town bills, observation of town bills, observation of a quarterly trial balance for the Board of Finance. Haberem starts the job on Sept. 1 and replaces Russell Galipio who has done the job for several years.

Generals Named To Run Viet Nam
The council would go back to their military duties.
...They said the new government will fight communism, colonialism and dictatorship.
...The controversial Aug. 18 convention was adjourned as of today.
...Earlier, it appeared that council members would be unable to agree on a leader to form a new government to supplant Khanh's seven-month-old regime.
...Khanh stepped down Tuesday in the face of widespread student demonstrations. Minh had been figuredhead chief of state until 11 days ago when Khanh proclaimed himself president under a new constitution.
...Minh was ousted in the shake-up following student charges that Khanh had made himself head of a military dictatorship.
...A popular Buddhist leader, Minh had directed the overthrow of President Ngo Dinh Diem's government last November.
...The shooting flared today during the council's second day of deliberations. A surging crowd swept past barred wire barricades in an apparent effort to eliminate this week by studying methods of cutting through a saw-by using a guillotine-type machine that eliminates sawdust. Before the wood is sliced, it is placed under pressure to improve the quality of knife-cut material. Instead of using a stationary knife and allowing the wood to move by a blade, the process is reversed. An officer ordered the shoot action.

Lane Becomes Road
Would you buy a house on Dagmar?
...At least four families who were thinking of buying lots in Green Manor Estate's new Forest Hills subdivision would not.
...Green Manor officials had named one of the roads in the new development Dagmar Lane—for no particular reason—when it was laid out last year.
...Now that the lots are up for sale, Green Manor has discovered a buyer resistance to the name, which is reminiscent of the presidency on Aug. 16.
...The government for the most part had refrained from direct action against the demonstrators.
...Four days of rioting in Da Nang, a coastal city 350 miles northeast of Saigon, led to 11 deaths and 43 injuries. No new outbreaks were reported in the northern cities today.
...Catholic, Buddhist and student leaders issued a proclamation calling on residents in Da Nang to halt bloodshed.
...Houses sell much better when they are on Dorset Rd.

Shipyards Busy
LONDON — British shipyards launched 1,000 gross tons of merchant shipping last year and, since 1948, have built more than 20,000 gross tons. In addition, a British firm has equipped more than half the world's ocean-going tonnage with radar.
...TWO-DECKERS
ROME, Italy (AP)—Rome has tried out its first two-decker bus that can carry 132 passengers instead of the 80 that can be carried in the city's normal one-deck buses. To get passengers used to the idea, they were allowed to ride free. The idea catches on, Rome will buy more two-deckers.

and moral obligation," to repay the UAW for 1961 contract concessions.
...At that time, he contended, Chrysler was in deep financial trouble and there was a question of whether the company was going to survive.
...Chrysler is now the second most profitable company in the auto industry. Teacher said, earning $114.4 million after tax during the first six months of this year. This, he said, was a 28 per cent return on its investment.
...UAW has rejected as inadequate virtually identical offers from the Big Three automakers for three-year contracts embodying higher wages, earlier retirement, layer pensions and other benefits.
...An industry spokesman described the proposals as the most generous ever made to the union.
...John Leary, Chrysler vice president — administration, declared that Chrysler would make every effort to reach an agreement fast and equitable to all concerned.
...The proposal we placed to the UAW a few days ago is most generous and fair for all of our employees," Leary said. "We are confident that, with bargaining ability and good faith, we can reach a second agreement without interruption to our operations."

Vater Back From Parley
Robert C. Vater, Manchester High School music department director, was sentenced to six months in jail, execution suspended and placed on probation for two years today for taking a motor vehicle without the owner's permission.
...Vater said the Chicago convention decided by the election of Charles Cogan of New York City as president that teachers should play a central role in educational policy in the United States. Cogan has been very successful in gaining teachers a prominent role in New York City educational matters, Vater said.
...Vater, who was on the convention's steering committee, said Cogan's election was an upset due to the internal structure and politics of the AFL-CIO affiliated union. "It was a close struggle and the outcome was always in doubt," he said.
...The effect of Cogan's election, Vater says, is to make the reasonable and restrained use of power respectable. "Cogan has railed down a contractual arrangement in New York City that gives the teachers stature in education policy-making there," Vater said. "Until you have such equality of status," he said, "you're not a professional. It's not professional to be intimidated."
...Cogan's election brings to an end the 12-year power of the union's national caucus, which represented the more conservative part of the 100,000 member union, Vater said. Under the

12th Circuit Court Cases
MANCHESTER SESSION
Warren K. Lindstrom, 18, Marlborough, was sentenced to six months in jail, execution suspended and placed on probation for two years today for taking a motor vehicle without the owner's permission.
...Judge Benedict Holden, in setting probation, set a condition that the youth should seek psychiatric care and continue it for the duration of his probation period.
...Lindstrom was charged with the offense on the night of May 21 after police reported that he had taken a car which was parked in front of Item's Tavern on Cooper St. The vehicle had been parked by a woman who was picking up a plane. The car was later found abandoned in Bolton. A State Police investigation of a break case in Colchester led to the recovery of the car and the youth's arrest.
...Joseph A. Durbulme, 53, Gloucester, arrested last night in that town for forgery and larceny (over $250), was arraigned in court today. The charges, stemming from a bad check case, brought a $5,000 bond requirement. Durbulme was sent to the State Jail at Hartford and the case continued to Sept. 4 at Circuit Court 12, Gloucester.
...Judge Holden assigned Atty. Homer Scoville as a special public defender in the Durbulme case, getting an artificial sun.
...Walton Mayors Jr., 37, of Vernon, arrested last night for be a gateway to the Communists.

...said some form of negotiations with Red China "might be profitable" — when pro-Western forces can deal from a position of strength in Southeast Asia.
...Labeled the U.S.-backed war against Communism in South Viet Nam an issue of major concern to the voters in the presidential race.
...Goldwater, striking a theme he raised in Cleveland, Ohio, two days ago, said he expects to hear "most any day" of a negotiated settlement in Viet Nam.
...The senator told reporters at the floating news conference in Catalina Island's Avalon harbor his "political bones" tell him word of negotiations can be expected before Election Day.
... "I hope it's not a gateway to the Communists," he said. "I suspect that what it is not is what we have one."
...Goldwater said this is not the time for peace talks. "Before any negotiations are begun that involve us directly or indirectly, we must improve our military position," he said. "I don't think we have one."
...Goldwater said he is reading a newspaper report forecasting negotiations for peace in South Viet Nam. He mentioned a Central Intelligence Agency report, saying it also talked of military and civilian experts.
...These advisors, Wagner quoted Goldwater as saying, recommended that when the South Vietnamese military situation is improved, the United States led, realist, dreamer, master of the word.

...The former secretary of health education and welfare said he has seen the nominee "as the strong right arm" of President Johnson — their stalwart in the battle which has resulted in the greatest legislative records of our time.
...The nuclear test-ban treaty and the civil rights law especially are monuments to his will and his skill.
...Ribeiro got a big reception when he stepped to the speaker's platform.

RECOVERY SMOY
SALINA, Kan. (AP) — Police found a stolen golf putter in front of the police station, with this note attached:
"Please return. Guilty conscience." The note was written on a score card used at a local course.
...The enemy should be the one, actually, that should initiate negotiations, Goldwater said, "unless through the United Nations you can find interest in this."
...The solution is not really a military solution, he declared. "We are through the United Nations," he said. "I hope it somebody starts negotiations. I hope it will be through the United Nations."
...Through press secretary Paul Wagner he relayed a clarification of his comments on negotiating with the Communist Chinese.
...Wagner said Goldwater, on a ship-to-shore, phone, declared that was not his suggestion, but one advanced by military men and civilian experts.
...These advisors, Wagner quoted Goldwater as saying, recommended that when the South Vietnamese military situation is improved, the United States

The real moral issue, we would say, would lie in the hiring of anybody to kill, on one level, and, on a still more fundamental level, in the business of killing itself.

The best practical alternative to all this would have been the continued presence of the United Nations, which had more than 100,000 troops in the Congo for the business of keeping men from killing each other. And that may be as close to any real morality about killing as we human beings have yet succeeded in getting.

One practical consideration closes the argument. One doubts that Tabombe or anybody else can create any stable regime for himself in the Congo by hiring guns of any color.

One who "Left" and "Returned" There is something a lot more important about candidates for the United States Senate than the question of where their legitimate residence may happen to be located.

Where a man actually lives may be less important than the question of what kind of tongue he speaks with. Perhaps, to illustrate, one could find a way to rationalize approval of the ambition of Attorney General Kennedy to represent the state of New York in the United States Senate. It was tactful of him, before announcing, to resign his position as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention from the state of Massachusetts. It was thoughtful of him, before announcing, to go to the place which was located geographically inside the state he intended to adopt.

Conceptually such thoughtfulness, if accompanied by some frank discussion of the issue of residence, might have proved quite disarming.

Then anybody who felt about to be disarmed by so much innocent boldness might have come into contact with the sentence with which Attorney General Kennedy, in the announcement of his candidacy, began to discuss the issue of his residence.

"I recognize," the Attorney General said nobly, "that some voters have misgivings about considering a man for high office (here the sentence rapidly deteriorates from its suggestion of nobility) who has left the state and who has only recently returned."

What a cute sentence! "A man who has left the state" must have been there before. A man who has "recently returned" must have been there some time before. The inference was, then, for anybody who might care to buy it, that New York had once been the Attorney General's state. How much more honest, and persuasive, the Attorney General might have been if he had omitted such a sly claim as that!

Goldwater, the Candidate "Any who join us in all sincerity we welcome. Those who do not care for our cause we do not expect to enter our ranks in any case."

Those words, when spoken in San Francisco, mentioned a cause that was still to be defined and shaped out of a group of generalizations. For the conservative movement, like most political movements not actively exercising power, had not yet been required to put its case into anything more than rough-hewn form.

Since then, Sen. Goldwater has been doing the necessary thing in defining the cause as one that will be cared for and joined sincerely by more and more people as they come to understand it.

The senator has done well to recognize that, whatever he meant originally by "extremism in the defense of liberty," he is a bundle of contradictions: energy; he can hardly sit still; he has irrepressible vitality for every moment of his day; should all our sources of atomic energy fail in the next four years, we can harness our leaders.

Guns For Hire The newspaper ad in South Africa, the admitted home of extreme segregationist solutions of the racial problem, has been offering "employment with a difference."

The job offered are indeed a little "different." The white soldiers of fortune appearing for them and signing up for them and being flown into the Congo for these jobs are the modern mercenaries. Once before, in Katanga Province, they or men like them, had guns for hire. Now the same men who hired them in Katanga, Moise Tabombe, is hiring mercenaries in his capacity of chief of state of the whole Congo.

So the fact that this is an open hiring of guns and human beings is not the only thing that is "different" about these jobs. It is, as it was once before, a black man hiring white men to fight against black men.

The purpose of Moise Tabombe in doing this is to try to solidify his own political control and rule of the Congo nation he himself once tried to prevent from coming into being.

Now for all we know, some of the white mercenaries is paying his white mercenaries to fight against him. And who is getting paid to fight. Some of these left native rebels, out in the jungle, may be some Chinese Communist or some Russian Communist payroll. And who ever is paying these black men out in the jungle may be paying them to fight and kill other black men, which is, one might say, just as much of a crime, just as reprehensible, really, as to have the black man hiring white men to go out and kill other black men.

To follow the color line in this business of mercenaries, then, is not to find any proper and final moral issue.

By A.H.O. There are probably only two places in the American system of government where the doctrine of absolute purity and untrammelled fulfillment.

One is the old-fashioned town meeting, in a very small town, where every legal vote is present and registered in his decision on a particular issue.

The other place in our whole democracy where the one man per vote theory gets put into practice is in those higher courts which include more than one judge.

There, we suppose, one might find a judge one vote. But it might be more realistic to call it still one man one vote, even there.

For judges, it so happens, are also men. And, as also happens, almost inevitably, judges are men whose more or less qualities sometimes appear more prominently than their names as judges.

This should be no surprise. We all know full well that we put these men into the high court benches. We all watch the men as they sit on the bench, with the supposed conservative unfolding in the high court benches, with the brilliant lawyer around, and the pedestrian lawyer sometimes sharp great issues head into the courts, and Dwight L. Moody, the noted Bible preacher of yesterday, are all men, still mortal.

(Continued from Page 8) grounds, had decided to have Hubert Humphrey come down to Washington and talk to him and see what he would have to say about the situation.

"What do you think it means?" the announcer in Minneapolis asked Humphrey. "That indicates to me that I better get off the telephone and get on the radio," he said. He hung up and he called for Max Kampelman.

"I don't think that's a good idea," somebody said. "No. You can't do that," another said. Humphrey said, "I want to go out with my wife and children and walk on the boardwalk."

Max Kampelman walked over to him. "Hubert," he said quietly, "you've got to realize something. You're not Hubert Humphrey the individual anymore. That's a good walk, but you can't walk on a boardwalk with your family again. Those people will mob you down there. You're not an individual anymore."

At 2:30 p.m., Humphrey was sitting at the desk in his office with a red telephone in one hand and a pen in the other. He was starting a radio interview with station WCCO, which is in Minneapolis. He was in a blue television shirt with the collar unbuttoned and a blue striped tie pulled down a little.

He talked to people who called into the radio station with questions about how Humphrey was spending his time in Atlantic City and how he liked the place. Humphrey loved talking to people. He talks to everybody. He is a guy who can be on his way to an important appointment and if somebody grabs him he stops and asks him a question, he stops and gives the answer, the full answer, too, and because of this, Humphrey is a man who is habitually late.

History is a funny thing. When you read about a thing like this in a book somewhere, it seems huge and important. But yesterday in Atlantic City, the history comes as a hot, coming into an old, fading hotel suite and hot white television lights bathing a dreary, cigarette-littered hallway outside.

"I'm going to Washington and I want you to come to the White House with me," he said. He talked to people who called into the radio station with questions about how Humphrey was spending his time in Atlantic City and how he liked the place.

Johnson, Humphrey NAMED by Democrats

when Robert F. Kennedy steps out of their office to make the race for the Senate in New York. This might bring National Chairman John M. Bailey into the picture as a possible successor if Dodd accepted the Campbell post.

Johnson hadn't been scheduled to visit the convention until today. But as soon as his nomination was proclaimed with a tumultuous, banner waving, flag-flying demonstration, he strode to the platform.

Flanked by his wife and two daughters, he said he was happy about the honor done him. He said he would be back to tell the delegates, who believed the hall to overflowing, about his plans for "an overwhelming victory for our party and our nation" in the November ballot.

He said that what had begun four years ago with Kennedy's nomination was being carried out.

"We have fulfilled his program without flinching for one moment," he declared.

He complimented the delegates on a platform "on which I am proud to stand" and on their settlement of delegate seating equities in the Mississippi and Alabama delegations.

The President held court until noon, presiding over a nomination in a semi-impromptu speech for Humphrey. He said he had spent "long and prayerful hours" and had consulted with party leaders from every section of the country before deciding on "the man best qualified to assume the office of the President of the United States."

Then, after holding back the name for tantalizing seconds, he came out with the name: "Senator Hubert Humphrey."

Johnson's skin in genuine pandemonium broke out as the convention learned officially for the first time the name of the big question which had been in every delegate's mind for days.

Humphrey, accompanied by his family, marched up to the podium and Johnson, stepping aside, let his running mate have his lines in the spotlight.

But before he had time to address the routine of calling the states for nominations was ahead. An Alabama delegate put the name of Gov. Carl Sanders of Georgia, Sanders, Johnson supporter, promptly took it down.

When there was no contest, Sen. Eugene McCarthy, Humphrey's colleague, started a string of nominating speeches. He praised Humphrey's going to Johnson and took occasion to get off a few cracks at Goldwater.

"Goldwater, he said, "lives in a strange world" in which the calendar has no year, the clock has no hands and his glasses have no lenses. He nominated Goldwater as "the greatest no-never in history."

While all of this was going on Johnson was spending another precedent. When he left the platform, he walked around to a balcony box where Mrs. Johnson and the girls had been waiting. There, bearing benevolently, he watched the show. Presidents usually get in and out of conventions fast and don't hang around to see what's going on after they have had their say.

After the convention had adjourned for the night Johnson flew back to Washington, ob-

Police Arrests

Victor H. Doljak, 19, of 484 Oakland St., Wapping, South Hartford, and James William Jackson, 20, of 110 Hawthorn St., were each charged with larceny over $50 and under $200 yesterday. Each has posted a $500 bond and are awaiting presentation of the charges in Manchester's Circuit Court 12 on Sept. 1 along with two other co-defendants.

Police report that Doljak and Jackson are the alleged accomplices in connection with a robbery and assault against Robert Vennart at the latter's 203 Garden Dr. apartment on July 25.

Police have also charged Stanley P. Novak, 18, of Wapping, and Vincent P. Quinn, 21, of 13 Emerson St., each with robbery with violence. Novak is presently serving a 180 days sentence at the State Jail at Hartford for violation of probation. Quinn is free on bond.

Vennart, who reported the robbery two days after it occurred, has told police that he was asleep in his apartment when two men entered, took his wallet containing about $500, hit him in the face and left. Police have since reported several conflicting stories which have been complicated during a case investigation.

DO IT - YOURSELF CHENSUB

The 1964 Census of Agriculture will initiate a 40- it - your-self method of providing the first count of the nation's farms since 1959 and the first count of those living on farms since 1950.

Forms will be mailed out — probably in October — to farmers and ranchers who will be asked to fill them out before a visit from the census taker in November or December. The do-it-yourself plan is characterized as "the most significant farm census since 1950." It is expected to cost the government less than a census taken and asked and written answers to all the questions.

Most questions will deal with crops and livestock produced and sold, use of the farmland, and amount of farm expenditures. Among new questions will be queries about chemical spray or dust used during the year to control pests and diseases.

Police Arrests

Victor H. Doljak, 19, of 484 Oakland St., Wapping, South Hartford, and James William Jackson, 20, of 110 Hawthorn St., were each charged with larceny over $50 and under $200 yesterday. Each has posted a $500 bond and are awaiting presentation of the charges in Manchester's Circuit Court 12 on Sept. 1 along with two other co-defendants.

Police report that Doljak and Jackson are the alleged accomplices in connection with a robbery and assault against Robert Vennart at the latter's 203 Garden Dr. apartment on July 25.

FISH-FLAVORED FLOUR STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — A Swedish company has conducted extensive research into everyday food. A result, a white powder that can be mixed with other ingredients to make bread or rice pudding will be produced in Sweden sometime in 1965.

The powder is to be produced at Bau in southwest Sweden in a factory capable of an output of 5,000 tons a year. The product was developed to help combat starvation in developing countries. The firm expects to use six times as much Bau as the weight of the finished product. The fish powder was decided upon because the countries that need protein most usually have unchanging food habits. The next plan seemed to be to introduce it into the food eaten regularly in those countries.

Doctors Say President in Good Health

... Said he plans campaign trips for one, two or three days a week where possible but for the most part will "stay right here in this house and do my job."

... Predicted the Democrats will pick up from three to six Senate seats from Republicans, but mentioned only New York and Maryland races specifically.

... Announced he plans to send to Congress next January a budget of $100 billion, and said he would order that advance estimates be made on that basis.

... Landed the party's Atlantic City convention, saying there were "no roll calls, no fights, no knock-downs and drag-outs, and no personal charges."

... The physical examination which Johnson announced was the first he had reported since taking office last November. He underwent it on Monday, after a two-hour test of the White House driveway which had set his record up to that time.

... Two of the participating doctors had treated Johnson after his injury last November. They are Dr. J. Willis Hurst of Atlanta, Ga., and Dr. J. C. Cain of the Navy Clinic, Bethesda, Md.

... The others are Dr. George G. Gandy, a Navy surgeon who is official White House physician, and Dr. James H. Young, an army doctor on the White House staff.

... They said Johnson has "no symptoms," that his blood pressure is normal, and that all other aspects of the examination were normal.

... Hebron School Seeking New Custodian
Any one interested in the position of second custodian at Hebron elementary school should get in touch with Sgt. Aron Chasman, who may be reached at his office in Hebron.

... The position will be vacant Sept. 1, when the resignation of Edmund Leach is effective. Applications for this position will be reviewed at the meeting of the board of education at the Hebron elementary school library at 8.

... The Hebron elementary school now presents a fine program, large aluminum lecture hall, and a new Hebron Elementary School, having been placed on the outside of the school building. Edmund Leach, custodian, furnished the letters at cost, and were installed by Albert Dooley who was taking over as maintenance worker during the summer at the school.

... Personals
Gleed Congregational Church attendees were greeted at the church door Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. David Palmer. It was always pleasant to know whose turn it was to hand out the coffee. The Gleed Church Council met Monday evening in the Sunday school room.

... Mrs. Nancy Brewer was solo singer at the Sunday morning service.

... The Rev. and Mrs. Donald Ingalls of East Chicago, Ind., and their four children were callers on relatives here Tuesday afternoon, also dropping in on Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Robinson in Columbia. They also had with them the small son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Change of Bloomfield. Mrs. Ingalls' nephew and niece, Mrs. Ingalls in the former Grace Change, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Howard C. Change, Society of Hebron.

... Mr. and Mrs. Ingalls are on their summer vacation. Their visit made quite a house full, 30 to 35 people, but not 35, so as to assure anybody who is superstitious.

... Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson of East St., Gleed, have sold their property to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wolcott of West Hartford, and have bought a mobile home in Westport. Mr. Wolcott teaches vocational agriculture in Glastonbury. Mrs. Wolcott is also a teacher of first grade in the Naubuc school in Glastonbury.

... Mrs. Susan Sellers and her brother Horace Sellers spent a few days this week at Cape Cod visiting their parents, Prof. and Mrs. Charles C. Sellers, who are on vacation there.

... Mrs. Helen Coleman, of the Hebron - Marlborough road, escaped serious injury when she fell on the grounds of her residence, injuring some ligaments and causing lameness for several days, so that she had to use a cane. She fell in a hole.

... Nature Notes
Presumably this August will go down in history as the coldest August on record. However, the last week or so seems to have veered off in the opposite direction, and people are now using fans and discarding sweaters and complaining about how hot it is. You can't suit all of 'em any which way, it appears. Lake and sea-breeze regulars have no sooner got home from their chilly vacations than real weatherers set in.

... Manchester Evening Herald
Miss Susan B. Pondston, telephone 333-3333.

... Bath Form Stones
CHICAGO — Gallstones occur more often in women than in men and more frequently in people over 40. They are lumps of various kinds of solid matter composed of bile pigments and salts in the gallbladder.

Events In Nation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says he has asked for "a little more time" before he decides whether to open his presidential campaign in Detroit on Labor Day. Democratic candidates traditionally launch their campaigns with such an appearance. Johnson conferred Wednesday morning with Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, and told newsmen later they had discussed the possibility of a Labor Day speech in Detroit. "I have to ask them to give me a little more time," the President said. Reuther and his union are currently engaged in contract negotiations with the Big Three automobile manufacturers. The contract expires Aug. 31 and the UAW announced Wednesday night that Chrysler, smallest of the auto firms, would be struck at 10 a.m. Sept. 9 — two days after Labor Day. If no contract is agreed upon by then.

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you think Mondays here are long, don't visit the planet Venus. Astronomers have come up with a new, more accurate measure of the length of a Venusian day — and it's shorter than previously believed. But it still is 263 earth days long, give or take five days. The new measure of dawn-to-dawn on the earth's nearest planetary neighbor came Wednesday from Cornell University astronomers and the Air Force Office of Scientific Research. Their figures, they reported, are five times more accurate than the previous estimate of 266 earth days, give or take 27 days either way. A day, the time it takes a planet to turn once on its axis, is difficult to observe on Venus because the planet is completely enveloped in clouds. The new measurements come from the world's largest radar telescope at Arecibo, Puerto Rico. It is operated by Cornell Scientists for the Air Force and the Advanced Research Projects Agency of the Department of Defense.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A meeting of the Organization for African Unity reportedly will be held shortly to consider the problem of the revolt-torn Congo, according to State Department officials. Press officer Robert J. McCloskey said Wednesday that the central Congolese government headed by Premier Moise Tshombe is interested in such a meeting. McCloskey refused comment on reports from Africa that Tshombe's government is recruiting white soldiers to fight against Communist-backed rebels. The press officer reiterated that U.S. policy was to encourage the African countries themselves to help the Leopoldville regime settle its difficulties.

Rockville-Vernon Flaherty Opposes Election Proposal

Mayor Leo B. Flaherty has joined a growing list of civic and political leaders who are opposed to at-large elections of representatives under a proposed consolidation of Rockville and Vernon's Fire District. The mayor, who is also Democratic Town Chairman of Vernon, said today, "I cannot vote for a system that does not assure the city or the fire district proper representation."

Last week, Republican members of the Charter Consolidation Commission put through a motion which would have the 12 members of the Board of Representatives, the proposed legislative body of a united town, elected on a large basis. Previously, the commission had approved plans for dividing both the city and the district into four separate voting districts, thereby assuring district and minority representation on the Board of Representatives.

Mayor Flaherty, a long-time proponent of consolidation, said, "The decision by the consolidation commission to have representatives elected at-large rather than from (voting) districts has made me re-examine my long standing position of support for any form of consolidation."

The mayor indicated, however, that if at large elections are approved, he would then support the charter. Mayor Flaherty's position is in direct opposition to that of Thomas G. Carruthers, Republican Town Chairman, who said that the Republican party would not support a election of board members by voting districts. John Daigle, a selectman and a member of the CCC, proposed the motions changing the method of election. Daigle, assistant town chairman of the Republican party in Vernon.

Attacking the position of Carruthers, Mayor Flaherty said, "At no time have I given the consolidation commission an ultimatum, my statement today is the result of the Republican's ultimatum."

Carruthers stated last week that, without at large elections, he could not recommend support of the charter to the Republican Town Committee which, along with other groups in the town, will offer the consolidation proposal.

"I plan to call the Democratic Town Committee and the City Council into session as soon as a final decision is made by the consolidation commission in order to have them decide on the question of support for the Charter. I will not make that decision for them as the Republican town chairman has done for the Republican party," Mayor Flaherty continued.

The mayor charged that many top Republican figures opposed consolidation during two previous consolidation attempts because of the selection of representatives. He indicated that many top Republicans favor the district selection of town legislators.

"Based on my conversations with Republicans from both the city and the district, it is clear that the present Republican leadership does not speak for anyone but themselves," Mayor Flaherty said.

The overwhelming opposition to at-large elections caused the mayor to comment that voting on the proposed consolidation charter would be a waste of money.

"Rather than offer the charter in its present form, I suggest that the expense of voting on it be avoided, since it obviously will not be passed," Mayor Flaherty indicated he has maintained a hands off policy regarding the charter commission, except to relay to it the problems of the city.

Lucky Eighth Again Tough on Baltimore

NEW YORK (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles will be lucky if they can get out of the Cleveland Indians' eighth inning with the American League pennant.

The Indians edged the first-place Orioles 3-2 last night, scoring two runs in the eighth inning for the victory. The loss, coupled with Chicago's 2-1, 12-inning triumph over Minnesota, staked Baltimore's lead to one percentage point over the second-place White Sox.

The victory, the Indians' sixth straight, increased their season edge over Baltimore to 10-5, making them the only team to hold an edge over the league-leaders. More specifically, though, the Indians have won five of the last six games with Baltimore in the eighth inning.

A five-run outburst in the eighth Tuesday night brought Cleveland a 5-3 decision over the night's game was tied 1-1 going into the eighth.

Slow-footed John Romano hit the tie-breaking run across with a two-out, two-strike bunt single, a surprise move he pulled off on his own. Vic Davalillo followed with a run-scoring double.

Elsewhere in the AL, Washington blanked New York, 2-0; Detroit defeated Boston, 4-1; and Los Angeles knocked off Kansas City, 5-2.

WHITE SOX-TWINS—Don Buford singled home Gerry McNetrney with Chicago's winning run in the 12th. McNetrney led off the inning by reaching second base on a wild throw to first by the Twins' Rich Rollins. McNetrney went to third on a passed ball and two walks later, trotted home.

Ed Fisher pitched the last three innings, holding the Twins hitless for his sixth victory in eight decisions.

Giants Troubled

NEW YORK (AP)—The San Francisco Giants have been in trouble when Juan Marichal, a threat to the strike and Willie Mays starts moonlighting.

Mays tried to hold down two jobs for the Giants last night, shutting between center field and third base in a 2-1 loss to the Los Angeles Dodgers that dropped San Francisco seven and one-half games behind National League-leading Philadelphia.

But the big labor dispute revolved around Marichal, the ace righty who pitched for the Giants' staff, who hoisted his placard around the stadium last night. Marichal, who pitched five innings, said he didn't want to be ready to go, then added: "I'll tell you this: If it's still the same next Sunday, I won't pitch."

Phil Braves — Short, bringing his record to 14-4 while lowering his earned run average to 1.70, snapped the Phillies out of their first losing streak since Aug. 27 with the support of four homers by Gus Triandis and one each by Ruben Amaro and Tony Gonzalez. Short was touched for a run in the ninth.

PHIL-BRAVES — Short, bringing his record to 14-4 while lowering his earned run average to 1.70, snapped the Phillies out of their first losing streak since Aug. 27 with the support of four homers by Gus Triandis and one each by Ruben Amaro and Tony Gonzalez. Short was touched for a run in the ninth.

Every boy and girl, 14 years of age and under, entering Fenway Park on a full paid admission ticket that afternoon, will receive, absolutely free, an official Little League bat manufactured by the Hillerich-Brudley Co. of Louisville, Ky., makers of the famous Louisville Slugger used by major league stars.

It is anticipated that more than 10,000 bats will be distributed. They will be handed out at the entrance gates to every youngster holding a full admission ticket of any nature — box seat, reserved grandstand, general admission or bleacher seat.

Similar days in other major league parks have resulted in some of the largest crowds of the season in Cleveland, Kansas City, Chicago and Detroit.

In announcing the "Free Bat Day," Red Sox Executive Vice President Dick O'Connell pointed out:

"President Tom Yawkey and the entire Red Sox organization are continually striving to help and improve baseball at all levels. We are sure that the youngsters who come to Fenway Park on Sunday, Sept. 13, will make good use of these bats, worth several thousand dollars."

Tickets for "Free Bat Day" are on sale at Fenway Park and at Red Sox ticket outlets throughout New England, at the regular price. They can be ordered by mail from Red Sox Ticket Office, Fenway Park, Boston 16, Mass.

Also emphasized that the football drills are open to all MHS students. Anyone interested is to report to the gym Monday morning at 7:30.

Stengel Discusses Courtesy, Politics

CINCINNATI (AP)—Casey Stengel, the agitated manager of the New York Mets, discussed courtesy and politics along with his club defeated Cincinnati 3-1.

"I thought we were at the political (Democratic) convention in Atlantic City one time there," Stengel said.

He was referring to an incident in 1956 in which the Mets were at bat when the Mets were at bat.

Reds' pitcher Joey Jay had thrown a quick one to the plate with Ron Hunt at bat. The umpire called it no pitch. Jay tipped his cap to Hunt.

Hunt then singled and Stengel said he would take his cap to Jay.

"I thought we were at the convention," Stengel said.

Grid Drills Start Monday For Huskies

STORRS—Rick Forzano, rookie football coach at University of Connecticut, has invited 46 students to report for pre-season football practice Sunday. Two-day football workouts begin on Monday and continue until classes begin on Sept. 21. Connecticut opens at Yale, Sept. 26.

The football candidate's day will be spiced with many classroom sessions, and they will not be confined strictly to power plays. The general public associates with football preparation.

A great portion of the athlete's time will be devoted to the academic phase of collegiate life. Lectures on academic study habits, how to budget one's time to derive maximum benefit from studies, speed reading and other helpful procedures are scheduled. Coach Forzano stated.

The squad is made up of three quarterbacks, eight halfbacks, five fullbacks, five centers, seven guards, nine tackles and nine ends. There are 31 lettersmen included in the group.

Allely-Oop Combo Misses First Try

FAIRFIELD (AP)—Y. A. Tittle and R. C. Owens, who made the Allely-Oop pass a pro football favorite, have tried it for the first time since 1958. Unless the timing is perfect, it may become known as the Allely-Oops!

Owens, acquired in a trade with Baltimore, joined Tittle, his former San Francisco teammate, in the New York Giants' camp yesterday.

On the last play of the practice session, they tried to work a play in which Tittle left a high, arching pass to the high-jumping Owens, who is supposed to outstep his defender and grab the ball.

Owens missed his timing, and the ball fell to the ground.

Allie Sherman, the Giants coach, had this comment: "Neither Y. A. has lost the Allely part of R. C. has forgotten the Oop."

Sports in Brief

KELLEY WINS NO. 8
CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—They may be Giants, but they played like underdogs last night. The Springfield Giants committed seven errors as they lost an Eastern League game, 6-4, to the Charleston Indians.

The loss moved the Giants two games behind league leader Elmira, which was idle.

And in a struggle at the other end of the league, the York White Roses defeated the Mets into last place 2-1; game away from first. York is 25 games back.

NO WORD ON HUTCH
CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati Reds Manager, Fred Hutchinson leaves Christ Hospital today, but Bill Dewitt, general manager, said nothing about plans for him to return to his job.

Hutchinson, stricken with chest cancer last winter, entered the hospital Aug. 14, the day after he observed his 45th birthday. He had undergone hospital treatment previously.

Ballplayers who visited his room yesterday said they found him in good spirits, looking good and that he had told them he was feeling better.

BOROK ON WAY OUT
NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Borok is close to elimination as a major sports activity. Commissioner Abe Greene told the World Boxing Association convention today and urged that "boxing give itself away, a pure unadulterated sport."

Greene said boxing had become a major factor in the development of television but over the last nationally shown boxing series is about to suspend while television time for other sports is on the increase. He pointed out other sports controlled television but "boxing gives itself away, a pure unadulterated sport."

Red Smith Honored

State and New England Golf Champion Ronald (Red) Smith was honored at a day-long testimonial held yesterday at the Manchester Country Club.

About 150 friends and fellow golfers participated in special tournaments and joined the guest of honor at an evening dinner.

Smith, who goes back to the University of Houston 1940 to complete his senior year, was presented with a pair of golf shoes and a watch by Alex Hackney, club pro, who shared the master of ceremonies duties with Dr. Eugene Davis, club vice president.

In addition Smith received a letter of commendation from Gov. John Dempsey and a mutually signed copy of a congratulatory resolution passed by the General Assembly.

Speakers included Smith's former teammate, Jimmy Grant, Hackney, Davis and several members of the club. A surprise gift was an honorary membership in the Hartford County Deputy Sheriff's Assn. Grant, the low amateur in this season's insurance City Open, cited Smith's right and desire to win as the keys to his success. He also quipped that he was going to give him lessons in match play in return for medal play help.

Many in the audience were introduced, including visiting pros Harry Nettleton, of Avon, Wally Clifton of Ellington Ridge and Willie Hunter of Williamstown; Allan Bredel, former state amateur and state open champ; Ralph DeNicolle, assistant pro at Manchester; Bob Grant, Jr., former state and New England amateur; Ed Wilcox, former state amateur champ; Holly Mandia, former state and New England champ; and a former MCC member and Ray Harper, tournament director for the Connecticut PGA.

Hackney awarded prizes to winners of the idealess and sweepstakes tournament as follows: Low gross, Willie Cluck; slink; and Jim Grant, 71; low net, Bob McDermid 74-77; Ray Harper 68; John Mungie 68.

Fauly fielding hurt Moriarty at the plate. A throw to first. Brothers last night and party trying for a double play, ended them dearly in their 2-1 loss to Valco Machine in the opening game of the Hartford Twilight League playoff finals. The second game of the best-of-three set is slated tonight at 5:30 at Colt Park.

Moriarty got a score in the fifth on a double by Bob Fago and Steve Gregorczyk's single.

Spencer allowed eight hits but fanned five and walked only one. Lower Pete Salk gave up three frames to go ahead for keeps.

Steve McAdam belted three hits and Dave White two, and had homers. Art Patton, Bob Columbo and Carl Petricca also had hits for the winners.

U.S. Royal tiger paws.

Only $3 more than ordinary tires.

A high-performance car like Pontiac's new GTO—the wildest car in Detroit—requires a high-performance tire. So you went out and got tiger paws for their tiger: U.S. Royal tiger paws, also known as Super-Safety 800s.

And no wonder. Here's what the tiger's paw has done in special tests for safety and durability:

- 100 miles at 120 mph without a failure. 17,000 miles at 83 mph (16 hours a day) without a failure.
- It has a construction that's taken 300° temperature build-ups without finching. And that's well above the temperatures it's ever likely to run.
- The tiger's paw is sure-footed at high speeds. It corners nimbly and quietly. It gives you a nice sense of stability when you're taking a curve.
- If you do a lot of driving at turnpike speeds, then you ought to have a set of tiger paws under you.
- We have the U.S. Royal tiger's paw in stock now. It costs $3 more than ordinary, large-size standard equipment tires and only $2 more in Chevrolet, Ford or Plymouth sizes. Not much scratch for a tiger's paw, is it.
