

Push Continues Near Dong Ha

SALGON (AP)—U.S. troops weary from five days of sharp fighting pushed through marshy lands near the northeastern frontier today, trying to drive back more than 2,000 North Vietnamese threatening allied bases and supply lines.

Enemy troops in bunkers shot down a Marine F4 Crusader dive-bomber near Dong Ha, 45 miles to the south, these figures being casualties from this week's fighting in South Vietnam's northeastern corner to more than 1,870 enemy and 110 allied soldiers killed and 563 allied troops wounded.

Friday's day-long fighting involved a battalion of the U.S. Army's 196th Light Infantry Brigade, sent to reinforce badly battered Marine units. The 196th's 1st Battalion, the 1st Marines, called in artillery and Air Force fighter-bombers in reply to the enemy's barrage of 120 mm mortars and small arms fire from trenches.

Two Americans were reported killed and 22 wounded in the action.

Marine intelligence officers said they believe the North Vietnamese are trying to envelop Dong Ha, headquarters of the 3rd Marine Division, and cut the Chu Viet River supply line to other demilitarized zone bases.

Quang Tri, Con Thien, Camp Carroll and Khe Sanh.

The heavy fighting began Tuesday when a U.S. supply column moving up the river from the Tonkin Gulf to Dong Ha was hit by 82mm recoilless rifle fire and a Marine platoon was handed off to look for the enemy gunners.

"It's an offensive on our part," said a U.S. spokesman. "It is a result of our offensive actions in being able to find them. They have been in Quang Tri Province for some time. The province, South Vietnam's northernmost, includes Dong Ha.

Elsewhere, allied forces reported killing 238 Viet Cong troops in four fights within 28 miles of Saigon.

In the biggest clash, South Vietnamese infantrymen and U.S. Army helicopters firing rockets combined against Viet Cong 263d Marine Force Battalion. After a day-long battle Friday 28 miles southwest of Saigon, the South Vietnamese said they counted 200 enemy bodies and 50 weapons left on the battlefield. Government casualties were reported as nine killed and 11 wounded.

Eighteen miles northwest of Saigon, U.S. infantrymen and South Vietnamese soldiers clashed with 400 Viet Cong troops. Just before midnight Friday, an estimated 150 enemy troops tried to overrun the positions of one of the American battalions. The counter-attack was repulsed and the enemy withdrew about midnight.

Two hours later, the Viet Cong launched about 45 rounds of mortars into the U.S. positions of Saigon.

Headquarters said 80 enemy and one American were killed and 23 Americans were wounded. South Vietnamese casualties were reported light.

Chunks of debris fell over the Little Texas town.

Many of Dawson's 700 citizens and residents of neighboring cities were taken temporarily to the high school gymnasium. There were no survivors.

A special FBI team was flown in to help identify the bodies.

No Survivors Reported 84 Killed in Texas Plane Crash

DAWSON, Tex. (AP)—Eighty-four persons died in a Braniff International Jetliner that exploded and plunged to earth in blinding sleet Friday as the plane, bucked thunderstorms laced with lightning.

Chunks of debris fell over the Little Texas town.

Many of Dawson's 700 citizens and residents of neighboring cities were taken temporarily to the high school gymnasium. There were no survivors.

A special FBI team was flown in to help identify the bodies.

The National Guard was summoned to control traffic and deployed in Dallas.

Three minutes after takeoff at 4:14 p.m., one of the flight deck crew—Capt. J.R. Phillips, 32, decorated in Brazil's Arctic and Second Officer D. W. Crosson—lost consciousness.

Following from about that time one of the two stewardesses—Jo Carol Brown of Taylor, N.D., and Suzanne Benz of South Orange, N.J.—would have been announcing to the passengers that Braniff would give each of them a voucher for $1 in cash if the flight was more than 15 minutes behind the scheduled arrival time of 4:38 p.m. when they landed in Dallas.

The flight 352 had vanished from his radar scope.

When the flight vanished from radar view, it flashed into the view of people in and near Dawson.

Dean Montgomery of Corsica, a private pilot and operator of an electrical shop, said he saw a large explosion rip the plane. Then, he said, there were two smaller explosions, and the craft plummeted downward in flames. Flight controllers said they had no further conversation with the plane. The first indication of trouble to them came when the controller at Fort Worth's Great Southwest Inter-

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials expect the first U.S. move in Paris peace talks with North Vietnam will be to press for a cutoff in Communist military activities in Southeast Asia.

They say this would clear the way for a total halt in U.S. bombing of the North.

The talks are due to open May 10 under an agreement reached Friday by Washington and Hanoi through their embassies in Vienna, Laos, ending almost five weeks of diplomatic sparring on a site.

Paris represents a compromise which, diplomats say, both Washington and Hanoi foresee many days ago. Each side has shown itself prepared for hard bargaining, which means prolonged and often bitter negotiating in the months ahead.

North Vietnam said it wants talks "to decide with the U.S. side the unconditional cessation by the United States of its bombing and all other acts of war" against the North.

Other matters will be discussed when that issue is decided, the Hanoi statement said.

President Johnson imposed a partial bombing halt on U.S. planes operating over North Vietnam effective March 31. He limited their operations to the so-called pariahland area south of the 20th Parallel and called on North Vietnam for some similar show of military restraint.

Top administration officials agree that infiltration of men and supplies from North Vietnam into the South has been at peak levels since early March.

Some officials—and intelligence reports from Saigon—say the increase which began early March has continued to grow since Johnson's March 31 limitation order.

The agreement Friday to get the talks started in a week in Paris eased developing pressure inside the administration to resume wider bombing over North Vietnam unless Hanoi began to move at least on the diplomatic front.

Unless North Vietnam's agreement to talk, however, is matched by military restraint—such as a reduction in the level of infiltration—officials here believe this must be an important issue for the Paris talks.

It is recognized, nevertheless, that the policy decision to be made in preparation for the talks Johnson has more dramatic choices open to him.

At one extreme, for example, he could decide to stop all bombing of the North to create a highly favorable atmosphere for the talks and establish a record of peace actions by the United States.

Arguing against such a choice, officials say, is that continued bombing of infiltration routes south of the 20th Parallel has been judged of critical importance by military leaders.

At the other extreme, Johnson could call for a prompt ceasefire covering aerial, ground and sea operations in the Vietnam war in the opening phase of the Paris talks.

munique added, the Communists can be expected to intensify the war and step up infiltration of men and supplies to help their bargaining position.

South Korea, which is supplying about 50,000 troops to the allied war effort, welcomed the selection of Paris as a site for preliminary talks.

A 2,000-man Philippines civic action contingent is currently being withdrawn from Vietnam but there are plans to send another if the Philippines congress appropriates the money.

Students Consider Reply to Demands

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Negro students at Northwestern University continued their occupation of the school's business office building today as they considered a reply to demands of city officials to their list of demands.

On the steps of the building a group of 50 white sympathizers huddled in blankets, sipping coffee and trying to stay warm in the chilly early morning temperatures.

Adjacent to the office building in the Rebecca Crown Center occupied the office of Roland J. Hinz, dean of students and university vice president, who acted as go-between for administrators and protesters.

The 110 Negro students inside studied a document handed to James Turner, spokesman for the Negro group, by Hinz late Friday night. The document demanded that the school's business office building be returned to the students and that university officials and faculty members consider a reply to their list of demands.

The contents of the sealed envelope would not be made public, Hinz and Turner agreed, until discussed first by the students and then in conference with university administrators.

Turner, a graduate student and head of the Afro-American Student Union, said he was referring to Hinz, said, "judging from the conduct of one administrator I would think there can be some resolution to the situation." Earlier, Turner had said the demands were not negotiable.

The seizure Friday morning was nonviolent and Turner said he hoped to keep it that way. "We will not start any violence, nor will we disturb anything in this building," he said. "We'll even brush the place up before we leave, if they want us to."

Hinz, in turn, assured the protesters they would not be evicted. "We will not call in police," he said.

University security police patrolled nearby Friday and helmeted Evanston city police directed traffic in the area. There were no disorders and no arrests.

The demands pressed by the Negroes included: "A policy statement by the university... 'Declaring the viciousness of white racism.'"

"A policy of gradual increase in the number of Negro students to a more realistic figure."

"Separate living units for Negro students who want to live together."

"A Negro studies course be added to the curriculum, and States due to the Vietnam war, Negro professors."

"A Negro counselor 'to help body of the Negroes cope with the psychological, mental, and academic tensions resulting from dualism of our existence as black college students.'"

"Establishment of a Negro student union."

Ira Schaefer, a freshman from Pennsauken, N.J., and a spokesman for the sympathizing white students, said the Negroes allowed no white students inside because they wanted the takeover action to be their own.

Turner, referring to the white sympathizers, said, "They have responded to asset of defilement."

USSR Agrees To Let U.S. See Prisoners

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union today announced ratification of the long-delayed Geneva convention providing access by U.S. officials to any U.S. citizen detained in the Soviet Union.

The U.S. Senate ratified the document March 16, 1967, after extended debate over whether it involved an additional security risk.

The agreement gives Soviet diplomats similar rights for Soviet citizens detained in the United States.

This is the first bilateral treaty between the Soviet Union and the United States since the Vietnam war.

The president, or ruling body of the Supreme Soviet (parliament) ratified the convention today said.

The convention was signed by both countries June 1, 1964.

World Views Gains By 3 Heart Patients

Laymen and surgeons alike today watched closely the progress of three men—two in the United States and one in London—who received heart transplants within about 24 hours.

The London operation, completed Friday night, was the world's 10th heart transplant.

At London's National Heart Hospital the 46-year-old patient, as yet unidentified, was the world's 10th heart transplant.

In Houston, Tex., where 47-year-old Everett Clair Thomas Friday morning received the heart of a 15-year-old bride, pleasure was expressed at the outcome of the transplant, but Haney Bernard.

At Stanford, Calif., where late Thursday 40-year-old Joseph R.

received the heart of an older but athletic man, the patient's condition was announced as fair—with a wait-and-see attitude.

The London heart donor was named by London newspapers as Patrick Ryan, 20, who died of brain damage suffered in a fall from a scaffold.

The London team worked for 12 hours to remove the heart, and the heart surgery transfer was completed in two hours.

The surgical team was led by Dr. Roy M. Hertz, an African who has worked with heart transplant pioneer Dr. Christiaan Barnard.

The London hospital statement said "the operation was successful."

Brainy Gals Have Best Gams?

The Hagerstown, Md., Morning Herald decided to test a British researcher's theory that the brainiest females also have the shapeliest legs. The newspaper photographed the gams of four "brainy" types and four "average" students at Hagerstown Junior College and ran these numbered pictures to let its readers see if they could tell which legs go with the brainy girls. Given up? The brainy girls go with the legs in photos number 1, 4, 5, and 6.

Stence Carries Firestones

This spring you really have no excuse for driving on poor tires, not when you can get such wonderful buys at either of the Stence's two Texaco Stations. He is offering Firestone tires at the fantastic price of just $9 and up! This applies during the month of May, as you had better drive right over there now and get your new tires at these unbelievable prices.

Both Texaco Stations owned by Mr. Stence are extremely popular in Manchester. The one at Broad St. and W. Middle Tpk. which was opened on March 1, 1964, and the one at Main and High Sts. in East Hartford, near the Aircraft Plant, which he took over on June 1, 1967 and is known as Turnpike Texaco No. 2.

Both stations offer 24-hour service, and this is particularly appreciated by many of the Aircraft workers. It is most convenient to drop their cars off when they go to work, and if the work is not of major nature, the repairs will be made and they can pick up their car after work. This service applies to all shifts.

If you want the finest in mechanical services, take your car to either one of the Texaco Stations. Both have a general repainer's license at the Manchester Turnpike Texaco Station, you will find John DeLuca, who is a real expert in the services of an expert mechanic. So many times, car troubles seem to pop up after regular hours, and there you

At Columbia Fact-Finding Panel Sought by Faculty

NEW YORK (AP)—A Columbia University faculty committee has moved to create a fact-finding commission to inquire into the causes of the crisis that has convulsed the Ivy League campus for 10 days.

The 12-member committee—a key group in the effort to end the student strike—met on Thursday. They agreed the commission should be headed by an outsider but did not decide on its size or composition. With few exceptions, classes were suspended again Thursday for the university's 6,381 students but some individual units announced they would conduct regular classes today.

Dana and faculties of units affected by the disorders which began April 23 were authorized to extend classes and examinations beyond the previously scheduled academic year to make up last time.

The students began the protest over the university's construction of a new gymnasium in Morningside Park which separates Columbia from Harlem.

The militants charge the gym on 21 acres of land leased by the city in the 30-acre park would deprive Harlem residents of recreational property.

Columbia had said it would provide facilities within the building for Harlem residents but critics termed the concession "separate but unequal."

Later the protesters added demands for a voice in making and for the resignations of University President Grayson Kirk and Provost David B. Truman.

University trustees agreed to consider recommendations for change in the status of the 21-year-old school and to consult with community leaders on the fate of the gym as concessions to the protesters.

The board of trustees asked the 12-member faculty committee to make a similar study of possible structure changes.

Later the faculty committee decided to establish the fact-finding commission. Their plan was received with cautious optimism by at least one student leader.

Dan Pellegrino, 23, president of the Columbia Student Council said a support of a plan for a student strike when classrooms reopen, said of the plan: "It's difficult to judge—but it's a beginning."

A student strike committee claimed the support of more than 4,000 Columbia students. A faculty group said it had 340 faculty signatures supporting the strike. The total faculty is about 2,500.

Grammies Get Established

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The thing that sets "The Best on Record" apart from other awards shows is that weeks pass between the actual presentation of the awards and the show. So viewers see a polished presentation in which winners of the recording industry's Grammy do winning numbers.

The Grammys are younger than most awards (they were first given in 1958) and as such are not taken as seriously by some industry pundits.

But the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences, NARAS for short, under the executive directorship of George Simon, is persevering.

"It is very much of a struggle to get established because it must be proved the award means something," Simon said. "And some of our people get impatient, asking why aren't we as big as the Emmys. Well, awards need a lot of public relations and that is something we get from the winners themselves. Tony Bennett has been quoted as saying that winning a Grammy was a big help to his comeback."

Bobbie Gentry

This year's Best on Record show will be seen on NBC on Wednesday, and will feature such Grammy winners as The 5th Dimension, Bobbie Gentry and Glen Campbell. None of them has been away, so the award can't help a comeback.

But look at the gleam in their eyes if you think Grammy's youth is a drawback to their worth.

OSCAR IS TOPS

NEW YORK (AP)—The motion picture Oscar awards show on April 9 topped the most recent national Nielsen Ratings list, with an audience estimated at almost 20 million homes. Second in popularity was "The Andy Griffith Show," followed by the cartoon show, "Charlie Brown's All-Stars," a rerun.

Composer Irving Berlin will be 80 years old next week, and Ed Sullivan will mark his birthday with a 90-minute salute this Sunday night. Sullivan's CBS show will start a half-hour earlier, at 7:30 p.m. Among the guests will be Bing Crosby, Ethel Merman, Robert Goulet, Harry James, Diana Ross and the Supremes and others. Berlin himself will appear on the show singing his classic "God Bless America."

Second Thoughts About Fall

NEW YORK (AP) — The television networks, as usual about this time, are having some second thoughts about their fall schedules.

ABC, for one, has decided to renege on "N.Y.P.D." the police action series shot mostly on location in New York.

The half-hour program costarring Frank Converse and Robert Hooks was canceled, but later started to pick up some extra Nielsen steam when "It Takes a Thief" was placed in the Tuesday night schedules ahead of it.

The pink slip has now been withdrawn, and the show will return to the same Tuesday night spot next September. Meanwhile, "Felony Squad," which squeaked through to a renewal for a third season will be moved to Friday night—and "Dream House," an audience participation show, will be dropped as evening entertainment although the daytime version will continue.

There may be some changes at CBS, too. Although the network originally decided to drop

"He and She" after one season, its stars, Dick Benjamin and Paula Prentiss are still under option by the network, and the show may get another chance.

"Felony Squad" whose fate was in the balance for awhile, turned up with an episode Monday that seemed to have little plot but plenty of violence. The show opened with the detective hero viciously slugging his young partner to persuade the bad guys that he was unhappy and quitting the force.

From that moment on the show consisted of a series of fist fights and gun-slinging. It wound up with one heavy being shot, another run over by a train and a third beaten senseless.

"Peyton Place," on ABC is one series that will not be rerunning old episodes during the summer season, but the viewer who plans to include its Monday and Thursday night episodes in his schedule is advised to give himself two or three weeks to understand what all the suffering is about.

If one has been inattentive for a short period, it is difficult to pick up all the tangled threads. For instance, there's a nice young minister in town, and he has an alcoholic wife. Constance and Elliot Carson have acquired an infant, but it seems to be on loan. Dr. Ross now has a young brother around and he looks like a bad 'un.

Betty Anderson, who last time this viewer looked was married to Steven Cord, is now getting engaged to Rodney Harrington—but wasn't she married to him when the series began?

CBS's "Carol Burnett Show" will depart—after a series of reruns—during July and August when the network will fill the hour with pilot programs of series that never found a network niche.

Bea Benaderet, who plays Kate in "Petticoat Junction," was ill and unable to appear in several episodes of the series this past season. But she is well now, appeared in this season's final episode, and will be back at the Shady Rest Hotel when shooting is resumed next month.

'Dom De Luise Show:' He's Hard-Working

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television—Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — The first of the summer replacement programs, "The Dom De Luise show" took over Jonathan Winters' spot on CBS Wednesday night.

De Luise may not always be completely successful, but he is a hard-working comedian. He was all over this comedy-variety hour, mugging, singing, dancing, and playing sketch characters that ranged from an escaped convict in the home of an eager spinster to a boor who lands uninvited at the home of an acquaintance.

The first show, while frantically busy, was not top drawer. It did have a couple of things going for it. In the first place it was taped in Miami. So the jokes were Florida-style—"Miami, the sun capital of the world—my son the doctor, my son the lawyer . . ."

Anyway, this kind of humor is a welcome change from Los Angeles smog jokes and New York hippie quips.

And there is that Miami audience, apparently left over from the Gleason show now on holiday.

From the sound of the show, the audience will laugh hysterically if Dom De Luise wiggles his eyebrows, slams colleagues in the ribs, breaks crockery or dribbles beer on the rugs.

The star goes in for very broad, physical comedy, and just about anything else in the show seemed designed to give him a chance to catch his breath.

If slapstick is your dish, "The Dom De Luise Show" may provide a jolly frenetic hour every week for the next four months.

Earlier, on ABC, Leslie Uggams, one of the Mitch Miller show and more recently the star of Broadway's "Hallelujah, Baby" appeared in her first television special. It was a variety hour and in contrast to the De Luise show, consisted almost entirely of musical numbers performed in wildly colorful psychedelic settings.

Miss Uggams, a very attractive young woman with an interesting singing style, demonstrated her way with material that ranged from "Anything Goes" to "My Man."

She had some help from a chorus, and was given an assist by Robert Morse and Noel Harrison, neither of whom had anything particularly interesting to contribute.

'BABY GAME' DROPPED NEW YORK (AP)—ABC will drop a daytime show, "The Baby Game," and substitute a new soap opera in July.

Robert Wagner with Willi Koopman, left, and Anita Eubank in rebroadcast of "A Thief Is a Thief Is a Thief" Tuesday 8:30-10 p.m. on ABC.

Bob Cosby Plays Drums, Bill Is Comedian Enough

DOVER, Del. (AP) - Bob Cosby thinks one comedian in the family is about all the traffic would bear, so he's sticking to his drums. He just might wind up a professional jazz musician.

Bob Cosby

The Bob Cosby Trio, with Bob playing the drums his brother Bill, the comedian, brought him recently, has acquired a following in the short time it has been featured at a bistro near Dover Air Force Base.
Bob, 21, can't read music, but his dedication and touch produce a pleasing sound.
Cosby, a junior at Delaware State College in Dover, acknowledges that he's no match for his idols, drummers Elvin Jones and Buddy Rich.
But he says, "We're establishing our kind of music right now. It's jazz with rhythm and it's all moving in different directions. It's a physical thing. "Same thing as playing football. What I like most is when I can get these drums to hum. When you play drums you find out how creative you can become."
Bob, who displays a dry wit of his own, said Bill has been "my idol all my life... I'm proud of the fact he's my brother."
Bob has thought of following in Bill's footsteps, but there's one big problem: "Most of my material would be like his."
As to becoming a professional musician, he said, "If that would happen I wouldn't mind it."
But for the moment he's satisfied "playing for people... a sitting back and watching people sit, and, at the urging of his 30-

Eddy Arnold's Pride

NEW YORK (NEA)—Eddy Arnold, whose feet are firmly planted in Tennessee no matter where he walks, has learned that in New York you never wait for a waitress or a waiter or a sales clerk or a receptionist to say, "May I help you?"

"Because no one ever says it," he said. "So now I know when I go to the drugstore for breakfast, the waiter won't look at me. But if I tell him what I want, I'll get it."

The lack of pride in work is the thing Arnold finds difficult to understand. He is one of four who has sold over 50 million records in this country alone. (The other are Elvis Presley, Bing Crosby and The Beatles.) That speaks well for his pride in his product, his ability and his popularity.

"Show business requires a dedicated pride. If you don't love it, you will not be successful."

Arnold is presently on TV as the host of six shows for the Kraft Music Hall under the over-all title, "Country Fair." He had just finished taping his second show. "I was tired last night. Man, I was tired. But I invited the talent on the show and the crew and the production people to dinner. We went over to a restaurant and we ate and we had a little strong sassparilly and I kept thinking how tired I was. But I also kept saying, 'Remember, you wanted to get into this business.'"

A happy man who laughs a lot, Eddy says he always wanted to be an entertainer. "I wanted to be anything that would get me off the farm. I did labor and you might say in those days I was not happy in my work."
