Chicago Police Chase, Club McCarthy Supporters

Sweep 50 Youths From Hotel Hilton

CHICAGO (AP)—Police stormed the 18th floor of the Conrad Hilton Hotel early today, clubbing and chasing supporters and aides of Sen. Eugene McCarthy after a barrage of smoked fish and empty beer cans clanged down on Michigan Avenue.

Illinois National Guardsmen were stationed on the avenue. The police swept some 50 youths from the floor down to the lobby. Police said there were no arrests. They said none of the youths was registered in the hotel. McCarthy's people claimed otherwise.

Anthony Podesta, 24, McCarthy's convention advance man, said he and about 20 McCarthy people were in suites 1806 and 1808 when the police "barged in."

"They claimed the room was listed as vacant on the hotel's lists and we had to leave," Podesta said. "This simply was not true."

John Warren, 24, the Arkansas coordinator for the McCarthy campaign, was struck on the head by a nightstick. Dr. William Davidson of Boston, McCarthy headquarters medical chief, said he treated three persons who had been clubbed.

HHH Pledges To Explore Peace Policy

CHICAGO (AP)—Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, taking his first step out of the shadow of Lyndon B. Johnson as Democratic nominee for president, has pledged to explore new policies if necessary to bring peace to Vietnam.

"The policies of tomorrow need not be limited by the policies of yesterday. If I am President, I shall apply that lesson to the search for peace in Vietnam," Humphrey said, cheering convention Thursday night.

With that pledge, Humphrey reached also for peace in a Democratic party torn by its deep divisions on Vietnam, scorned by the antiwar demonstrators who clashed with police in a fourth night of bloodshed in downtown Chicago.

To try to heal the wounds, Humphrey took an elastic stance that appeared to endorse the Vietnam policies of the Johnson administration as long as he served it as vice president, but edge open the door for new approaches if elected president.

In his acceptance speech he urged, "Let those who believe that our cause in Vietnam has been right—and those who believe it has been wrong—agree here and now: Neither vindication nor repudiation will bring peace or be worthy of our country."

Looking ahead to Inauguration Day, Humphrey said, "No one knows what the situation in Vietnam will be on Jan. 20, 1969."

Soviet Tanks Leave Prague

PRAGUE (AP)—Scores of Soviet tanks pulled out of Prague today as Communist leaders assembled for a party congress debate on Moscow's demands for sharp curtailment of Czechoslovak liberalization.

The liberal leaders who signed an accord in Moscow already have cautioned against resistance. The local party leaders have to decide whether to reject the accord or find ways to live with it in hope they can convince Moscow that most of the 350,000 Soviet bloc occupation troops can leave the country soon.

The National Assembly already had rejected the accord, which says Soviet, Polish, East German, Hungarian and Bulgarian forces will remain until the situation "normalizes." But in Communist countries, it is what the party does that counts.

The Soviet tank withdrawal to camps outside the city apparently was part of the effort of the occupying forces and the one of those chased down to the lobby was Mary Beth McCarthy, 19, the senator's niece. In the lobby, some 10 of the youths sat on the floor in the elevator area, singing: "We Shall Overcome."

Many of the youths were allowed to return to the 18th floor after McCarthy interceded with officials.

"I was shocked beyond belief," McCarthy said as he viewed the melee scene on the 18th floor.

"If this was a case of smoked fish and beer cans that provoked this incident, then political conventions are through," he added.

Police said they used telescopes to determine which windows were leaking the debris onto the Illinois National Guardsmen patrolling Michigan Avenue in front of the Hilton, the headquarters hotel for the Democratic National Convention which ended Thursday night.

The guardsmen fired tear gas Thursday night into a crowd of some 3,000 antiwar demonstrators and 79 persons including eight convention delegates or alternates and two newsmen were arrested several blocks south of the Hilton.

The arrests occurred when the demonstrators began to march in the direction of the International Amphitheatre, site of the convention.

Mass arrests came later in a confrontation between National Guardsmen and a mile-long line of marchers, led by Dick Gregory, Negro civil rights activist who had invited the demonstrators to his South Side home.

The marchers were told at 16th Street and South Michigan Avenue that any further advance would be met with arrests.

Tribute Paid By Democrats To Kennedy

CHICAGO (AP)—For the second time in as many national conventions, Democrats have paid an emotional tribute to an assassinated party hero—both times a Kennedy.

The final session of the 1968 convention Thursday night opened with a 20-minute film tribute to the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, touching off 19 minutes of singing and chanting which convention Chairman Carl Albert was helpless to stop.

The film was introduced by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, the last surviving Kennedy brother, who spoke to the convention on televised videotape from the Kennedy family compound at Hyannisport, Mass., saying:

"If my brother's life and death had one meaning above all others it was this: That we should not hate but love one another, that our strength should not be used to create the conditions that lead to violence but the conditions of justice that lead to peace."

Just four years ago, at Atlantic City, N.J., Robert Kennedy stood before another Democratic convention and, his eyes moist, paid a similar tribute to President John F. Kennedy, killed by an assassin in November, 1963.

As the film ended Thursday, cheering delegates and spectators rose—many close to tears—and began singing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," clapping their hands in unison.

Home-made signs of tribute to the slain New York senator appeared on the floor of the convention and in the visitor's galleries.

"Bobby, we'll seek your new world," said one. "Bobby, we miss you," said another.

It was the second demonstration of the night and sharply contrasted with one which

Guard Troops Thwart March

By SOL E. COHEN

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago—Eyes on Democratic Presidential Candidate Hubert Humphrey was saying, in a stirring acceptance speech, "neither mob violence nor police brutality has any place in America," hundreds of youthful demonstrators, augmented by dozens of disenchanted convention delegates, were thwarted by National Guard troops from marching on Convention Hall, four miles from Chicago's Michigan Ave. battlegrounds.

The marchers were dispirited by forceful persuasion, by tear gas, and by threatening rifle butts, and were contained all night in Grant Park across the street from the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

Again, no shots were fired and the rifles and machine guns mounted on jeeps appeared to be unloaded.

About 1,000 Yippies, hippies, and just plain thrill-seekers dwindled to a few hundred by 7 o'clock this morning, and they were dispersed at that time by more tear gas. Whether they will appear again tonight is anybody's guess.

The National Guard troops remained on duty all night and appeared to handle the situation much more peacefully than had Chicago police on previous nights.

Only one window on Michigan Ave. was broken during the nights of confusion and only one other was boarded for protection. The only apparent destruction in the entire area was the trampled grass in Grant Park.

Vice President Humphrey, who left this morning for his home in Minnesota, said last night "may we resolve tonight that never again will we see what we have seen."

The greatest disappointment to the delegates during the tumultuous floor demonstration for Humphrey was the absence of Sen. Eugene McCarthy who, in late afternoon, had hinted at the formation of a fourth party.

Many observers are saying that Sen. McCarthy erred and lost delegate strength when he neglected to ask his youthful followers to "cool it."

The people in Chicago are rallying behind their city, behind Mayor Richard Daley, and behind their police department, claiming that TV and newspapers have exaggerated the situation here.

They claim, and a majority of the delegates and the out-of-town news media agree, that Chicago police have succeeded in their year-long elaborate plans to keep demonstrations and violence to a minimum.

Signs, "We Love Mayor Daley" flooded convention hall last night. They were supplied and distributed by the Chicago Democratic Committee.

Homemade signs, held by adults, teen-agers and sub-teen-agers, were on view the whole route to convention hall as it was taken by the buses carrying newsmen.

The signs read, "Hurray for our Mayor and Police Department," "Huntley and Brinkley Unfair to Our City," "Mayor Daley Deserves a Medal," "CBS Stinks," and "Please, Man, Tell It Like It Is."

Once, when the buses stopped for a red light, a teen-age boy was asked, "who told you to make those signs?" he replied "Nixon."

Jeers and boos for the press, but some cheers too, were heard all along the route.

The common foe for the people of Chicago has become the news media, accused of distorting the facts and of giving Chicago a black name from coast to coast.

One thing appears certain. It may be a long time before the Democrats hold a national convention again in Chicago.

Connecticut's Sen. Abraham Ribicoff who left Chicago before last night's session, said yesterday afternoon that he had received over 300 telegrams after his Wednesday night criticism of Mayor Daley and the Chicago police, concerning "gestapo tactics." Ribicoff said that all but one of the telegrams praised him for his position.

not be limited by the policies of yesterday.

"If I am president, I shall apply that lesson to the search for peace in Vietnam as to all other areas of national politics..."

He told the convention that the "trouble in America... comes not from lack of faith but from a killing of hope." He said new aspirations have been awakened but have been accompanied by impatience for solutions of the problems of race, poverty, crime, hunger and justice.

Signaling his promotion from President Johnson's team to his now sovereign position as his party's nominee, the vice president told the delegates that their areas of agreement are much greater than those of division.

On the sorest issue of all, he said:

"Let those who believe our cause in Vietnam has been right—and those who believe it has been wrong—agree here and now: Neither vindication nor repudiation will bring peace or be worthy of our country..."

"If there is one lesson we should have learned, it is that the policies of tomorrow need

Ransom also Recovered

FBI Rescues Boy, Catches Kidnaper

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—FBI agents rescued 4-year-old Stanley Stalford Jr. from a kidnaper today after the abductor tried to use the boy as a shield following a gun battle during a high-speed chase.

Curly haired Stanley and his abductor, identified by the FBI as Robert L. Dacy of Lakewood, Calif., were taken to Morning-side Hospital.

One report said the boy, son of a banker, was treated for a gash in his leg.

The FBI in Washington said however that the boy escaped injury. Agents said Dacy, 39, was wounded in the right arm.

The ransom money—$250,000 had been requested—was recovered.

Agents chased Dacy at breakneck speed through city streets, exchanging shots.

One of the agents rammed

Dacy's auto with his pursuit car.

Dacy was trapped, agents said, as they converged on the area to corner him.

They said he tried to shield himself with the youngster, but they were able to make the arrest.

Agents didn't immediately say how.

The boy was rescued two days after he was taken from the family's $90,000 home in a secluded area of Beverly Hills by a man posing as an electrician.

One of the agents involved in the rescue reportedly suffered a minor bullet wound.

One report said Dacy might have a broken leg when his bullet-riddled car was rammed by the pursuit vehicle.

Stalford, 49, is chairman of

Hard Battles Rage South of Da Nang

SAIGON (AP)—Hard fighting was reported in the northern and central part of South Vietnam today, with nearly 200 more Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers killed. But as the upsurge of combat continued for the 13th successive day, the enemy overran a small government outpost and killed 18 civilians and kidnaped 68 in two undefended hamlets.

The hardest fighting was reported south of Da Nang, where U.S. Marines, South Vietnamese rangers, dive bombers and artillery killed 126 enemy troops in three fights, the allied commands said. Allied casualties were 10 Marines and five rangers killed, and 52 Marines and 23 rangers wounded.

At the southern edge of the central highlands, fighting continued around the Duc Lap Special Forces camp, and government troops reported killing another 68 enemy soldiers Thursday. This raised the number of enemy claimed killed there since last Friday to nearly 1,000.

But the North Vietnamese put pressure on another isolated point, capturing a 4-to-12-man government outpost some 15 miles west of Quang Ngai City in the central lowlands and shelling the nearby Ha Thanh Green Beret camp.

At the outpost all of the defenders apparently were wiped out, and the attackers set up six mortars, two recoilless rifles and a machine gun which opened up on government reinforcements that were sent to drive the attackers out.

A U.S. spokesman said casualties in the shelling of the Pueblo Meeting Set?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department expects another meeting to discuss activities of the intelligence ship Pueblo. But the department does not say when it will be held.

U.S. and North Korean negotiators spent 10 minutes at a bargaining table at Panmunjom Thursday without result, according to the departing press.

The meeting was the 20th since the ship and its 82-man crew were captured 23 off the coast of North Korea.

Air Travel Seifer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Transportation Safety Board says stricter enforcement of safeguards is making air travel safer.

The board said figures for 1967 show airline accidents decreased by 41 per cent.

The board added that the number of fatal accidents and deaths rose but explained that this decrease in total accidents coupled with an increase in fatal accidents is a reflection of the recent trend toward faster aircraft with increased passenger capacity.

gan just prior to the opening gavel. That one was for Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley whose supporters had passed out professionally printed signs on the floor and in the visitors' galleries that read: "We love Mayor Daley."

And the Daley demonstrators had some competition from delegates who have criticized Chicago's police and Daley himself for their handling of downtown peace demonstrations during the week.

One anti-Daley delegate held up a sign reading, "Daley for Fuehrer."

The Kennedy demonstration, as might be expected, was generally sympathetic although at one point, a few people in the visitors gallery chanted briefly, "We want Daley."

Time and again, Albert bounded his gravel calling for order. But neither he nor Mrs. Dorothy V. Bush, secretary to the Democratic National Committee could quiet the hall.

Not until Delegate Ralph Metcalf of Chicago, a Negro, introduced a tribute to the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., also the victim of an assassin's bullet, did the convention hall quiet.

The Kennedy film, which most delegates watched standing at their seats, brought all but dead silence to the hall, perhaps the first time that has happened during any session of this convention.

Edward Kennedy had decided to stay at his family's Cape Cod compound rather than attend the Chicago convention in person. He indicated Thursday after taping the introduction to a memorial that he intended to remain secluded in Massachusetts, at least for the immediate future.

Former U.S. Envoy Dies in Bridgeport

BRIDGEPORT (AP) — The former U.S. ambassador to Thailand, Edwin P. Stanton, is dead at the age of 67.

Stanton died Thursday at 10:48 p.m. in Bridgeport Hospital, where he had been under treatment for a vascular ailment.

In 1946, he was named the first postwar U.S. minister to Thailand, and he became the first U.S. ambassador to that country in 1949. Stanton retired from the U.S. Foreign Service in 1953 after 22 years as a diplomat in China, the United States, Canada and Thailand.

Stanton was born in Roseton, N.Y., in 1901. The son of a missionary, he spent his early years in India. He was a graduate of the University of Southern California and in 1930 was awarded an honorary LL.D. degree by Colgate University.

Among his survivors is his wife, Josephine King Clark Stanton.

Two Wallace Antidotes

Republican Presidential Nominee Richard Nixon arrived at the choice of a nominee for Vice President by what he knows as the "southern strategy." He has courted Southern delegates in his quest for first ballot nomination, one of his debts to them involved the assurance he would not seek a running mate who would be offensive to them. This strategy was not merely a power play, something limited to significance within the convention itself. It was also, in part, an effort to guard against the possible appeal of Alabama's George Wallace, an arch-conservative Republican voice in the North. In a sense, Nixon's choice of a running mate was influenced by the presence of Wallace on the national scene.

The same third party factor — the candidacy of Wallace — also seems primarily responsible for Democratic Presidential Nominee Hubert Humphrey's choice of running mate.

To the Democrats, likewise, Wallace poses a threat in the North. To them, the danger is that his appeal to white backlashes in big city labor population may threaten their normal election day pluralities in those big cities, although the key to any national Democratic victory.

Political analysis which, earlier in the week, weighed possible Democratic strategies against this trend, concluded that one thing Humphrey might do was to make his own special plays to bind such working class groups more tightly to his candidacy. And what was the best way he could do this would be to make his selection of a running mate one which would appeal to some ethnic group strong in the cities — some one the analysts said, like Mayor Joseph Alioto of San Francisco or Senator Edward Muskie of Maine.

The Humphrey strategy wound up with both the California Mayor of Baltimore consent to make the chief nominating speech for Humphrey, and Senator Muskie of Polish descent, to be the running mate.

The fact that such motivation can be traced into the selection of Senator Muskie is obviously no criticism of that gentleman. As he demonstrated on the platform last night, and as he has proved by his record in public office, Senator Muskie has assets which are a pleasant extra bonus beyond any political strategy reason for his selection. There is no reason to judge that both he and Governor Agnew, although both may have been favored primarily as political antidotes to the possible effectiveness of the Alabama demagogue, will not do honor to their tickets and to their country.

Kennedy's Right Decision

Of all the things that happened at Chicago, one can venture the guess that one decision was very much right. This was the decision of Senator Ted Kennedy not to make the slightest kind of reach for a draft.

One proof of his wisdom in holding to his own decision "not to run" was, of course, the fact that this convention did not, after all, have it within itself to develop a truly genuine draft of the last of the Kennedy brothers. Some of those members, of course, had the desire for him, but not to make the slightest kind of reach for a draft.

Another proof of his wisdom would lie in the very great likelihood that not even a very good imitation of a genuine draft, crowned by possible actual success in getting the nomination itself, would have been likely to alter and improve the basic prospects of the Democratic party in the forthcoming election.

All such conjectures are iffy things.

obviously. But it might be quite possible that the experienced but not so popular Humphrey will run better than the less experienced Kennedy would have done, with all his family aura and his personal appeal.

Whatever this result might have been for the party, which is, in our conjecture, dubious, one can feel very sure that the prospect for what may be Senator Kennedy's ultimate hope in life — to carry on what he may view as something of a sacred family mission — has been more improved than injured by his decision not to reach for the opportunity that may have existed at Chicago. Even eight years from now he would be a very young candidate for the Presidency. And we do not think he need fear that this nation, considering the relatively limited selection of truly eligible leadership both parties have found in their conventions this year, is ever going to let any bright young prospect slip out of mind or sight.

Have A Cigar Man?

A lot of folks can remember when a woman who smokes a little tobacco was regarded as not being very ladylike. In those days any woman who heard of a woman who smoked a little was likely to punch you in the nose, and it served you right.

It was regarded as somewhat ungentlemanly for a gentleman even to smoke a cigarette in a room in which a woman who smokes a little tobacco was never without taking their permission. Then the witty tobacco people began picturing pretty women and a decorative distance from handsome males, slyly suggest that:

"How come my way?"

And how they did. Smoking around the loved one's cute little nose. It is so much that next thing you know the tobacco companies had doubled their market. As many as 10 million women were smoking cigarettes, and ash trays started filling up with bits bleeding with lipstick.

Now the cigar people are gently inquiring if it is proper for a gentleman to have a pipe in his pocket. Cigars men used to smoke during intermission at the theater. If the gala was to be a party, a pipe and a little cigar, cigar sales may double, which won't hurt the industry because, believe it or not, the average male's consumption of cigars is half what it was in the good old days — chiefly because men are so busy that they don't have time to smoke.

Of course there were always bold females who dared to smoke a little cigar in public. Any Lowell, the poetess, used to stomp around waving a big, black cigar in her pudgy hands, but people forgave her because poets and poetesses were supposed to be unconventional.

It's doubtful it will become the sweet young things' own thing to chew on big black cigars. They're not dainty and besides, would stain those teeth now so white as a snow.

So, the only way to persuade the male to take up cigars is to make cigars "delicately feminine."

But males who enjoy an after-dinner cigar will never settle for one of those play-things, unless they have gone stazy.

They'll still insist on a big, manly stogie, which would look kind of strange between any pretty girl's teeth.

Our advice to the cigar companies is to turn out a quality product once more. In an era when men can land on a cigar as gracefully as those men lighted up in the drawing rooms after dinner in 1907 — or in the pool rooms. Of course, some few pals will take up smoking cigars, just as in the hills of Appalachia some old gals smoke rough cut barley in corn cob pipes. But even if they attack those little plastic holders to the ends, the ladies won't take to cigars as they took to cigarettes. For this reason they have puff-ers, and the Public Health agencies issue ominous warnings about cancer and heart disease and emphysema to cigarette smokers, making them so nervous they have all become chain smokers.

Moreover, the alliance with tobacco is not at all important to Kennedy. His interest in a draft was cooling. The Chicago party regulars on whose judgment the Mayor heavily relies, were unhappy about Dick Daley's being a 36-year-old kid to run. Daley privately began demanding a virtual announcement of candidacy from Hyannis Port as his con-

CHICAGO — Sen. Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy did not decide to leave his definitive statement of non-candidacy until late Tuesday evening when friends advised him that hoped-for help from Sen. Eugene McCarthy and Mayor Richard J. Daley would not materialize.

These friends particularly stressed that without Daley's endorsement there was insufficient Kennedy sentiment on the convention floor for a genuine draft. That is, Kennedy agents would have to solicit delegates to get him the nomination, and this he refused to permit. Accordingly, Kennedy informed his agents at the International Amphitheater he would leave his withdrawal the next morning.

Thus, the last of the Kennedy brothers had by no means foreclosed the nomination as late as 12 hours before his withdrawal. It will remain an unanswered question of history whether Vice President Hubert Humphrey's big but soft majority could have been cut down by the military Irish triumvirate of Kennedy, McCarthy, and Daley.

It definitely seemed possible at various times throughout the hectic hours of Monday and Tuesday, Daley worried about the fate of Illinois state and local candidates in November. Kennedy's statement had been written to be released in a few hours.

But even the aborted Kennedy draft has left an indelible mark on this convention. Among the hundreds of frustrated delegates there persists a feeling that, if those three Irishmen — McCarthy, Daley, and Kennedy — had been able to combine, Humphrey would have been stopped and Kennedy would have been nominated. Accordingly, Hubert Humphrey comes out of his moment of triumph here as something less than an all-out first choice, one more piece of burdensome political baggage he must carry into the campaign.

McCarthy seemed not at all important to Kennedy. He secretly pledged their support to Kennedy. The prospect of McCarthy's actually placing Kennedy's name in nomination was discussed in the Kennedy inner circle. This seemed to be a real prospect. Kennedy had already in-law Stephen Smith, a former Illinois state legislator, but even if they attacked those little plastic holders to the ends, the ladies won't take to cigars as they took to cigarettes. For this reason they have puff-ers, and the Public Health agencies issue ominous warnings about cancer and heart disease and emphysema to cigarette smokers, making them so nervous they have all become chain smokers.

'Minnesota Mafia' Old Man of Mountains Has Checkup

A financial empire of some 65 different companies, including a 10 per cent interest in Archer Daniels-Midland Co., a 260-million (M)-dollar grain and chemical processor.

Andrews is the son of a Minnesota farmer from near LaCrosse, who grew up loving the world of buying and selling. He made his first million by the time he was 27 and now has a net worth of $100 million. He is not only in Minnesota but also in the Washoe Towers in New York and at the small but luxurious Sea View Cooperative Hotel in East Harbor, Fla., north of Miami Beach.

Humphrey is a frequent guest in Andrews' apartments in New York and East Harbor. He has also cruised on a luxurious yacht Andrews chartered in the Virgin Islands.

Andrews, in turn, has accompanied Humphrey on every trip. Senator and later Vice President — Humphrey made to Europe between 1964 and 1965. "I got mainly as his extra pair of eyes and ears, and a friend he can trust his back on," Andrews, in a rare interview, once said in explaining his relationship with Humphrey.

In the campaign, Andrews acts as a coordinator of a handful of big money raises.

The third major member of the Minnesota group is a tall, heavy-set, good-looking man in a suit — Robert E. Short. His business is trucking and real estate in the main but also includes range farther. Perhaps his proudest accomplishment was building the Minneapolis-based professional baseball team from a worthless organization into a property which he moved to Los Angeles and sold for $5.5 million dollars.

"I'd like to be a country boy," he likes to say in regard to that transaction.

Short owns the Leaning Tower Hotel in Minneapolis where the Humphrey campaign stays when the Vice President goes home to Waverly, Minn.

The last of the Minnesota group is Max Thurston, a 40-year-old, well-known Minneapolis businessman who has served as chairman, factotum of all Humphrey's political campaigns.

Heart Surgery Enables Boy, 6, to Enter School

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Six-year-old David Purdy placed his right hand over his heart for the pledge of allegiance to the flag with other new first graders Thursday.

It was a day David's parents thought he might never see. Three times David went through heart surgery. As recent as 18 months ago there were fears for his life. Surgeons employed heart massage in the three operations to keep David alive.

The youngster was born with a defective heart—the major vessels leading from the ventricles were reversed. His first heart surgery came when he was 27 days old. In all David has undergone seven operations.

In surgery at Duke Hospital in Durham in June 1967, doctors reversed the positions of the major vessels entering David's heart, thus giving him a heart which in reverse he has lived since.

The middle child in a family of five, David was given a life expectancy of six to eight years at birth. Now he is expected to live a full, normal life.

United Fund $$$ Work For— Boy Scouts of America

When a United Fund Drive poster in a store window catches your eye, have you ever stopped to think how it got there? While you are putting your groceries in a supermarket cart, you glance at the small United Fund Drive sticker on it. Have you ever wondered who put it there? These are two of the good deeds performed by the Boy Scouts of America.

Did you know that our town charter requires that the town boundaries be checked annually to see that all location markers are in place? This is another task done by the Manchester Boy Scouts. Each boundary is assigned to a different troop, the members of which walk every inch of it. They boys doing the work Hartford or Bolton lines are undergirding the town while the Clantonbury and South Windsor-Vernon lines are keeping the town boundaries clear.

Once every year the Boy Scouts and Cubs also work with the Junior Chamber of Commerce in cleaning up the empty spaces in town. They also help the town to make our town more attractive.

It is more often than once a year, however, that some scouts give their assistance to the returning veterans who have been discharged.

The Boy Scouts of Manchester joined the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in the work at the Oak Grove Center. They cleared out old, rusted metal and cleaned out the area. The troop at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church and the Emmanuel Lutheran Church are having the annual spring and fall cleanup. The cleanup has been held in the past.

Some work the Manchester Scouts do may be repeated each year, but they also undertake jobs that are not, such as the job that the Scoutmaster, Art Gaudin, did with his troop from the Emmanuel Lutheran Church when they cleaned the badge and then to determine which of them were working as a troop, such as walking the boundaries, or individually, such as Jimmy Wick's badge building project, where they are learning to be worth while citizens contributing to the good of the town of Manchester. Behind them are the scoutsman's services giving voluntary of their time and energy. Behind the scoutsman is the United Council of Boy Scouts of America, 17 Forest St. in Hartford. In this office is kept the record of every boy's progress in scouting, including all other pertinent work. This is also the headquarters for those interested in giving the professional services essential to scouting, including a Yearbook. Another member of that troop made a contract for a Sunday School room, and a Bible made a sign for the parish church. The boy and parish attic were decorated as an other need project.

Some work the Manchester Scouts do may be repeated each year, but they also undertake jobs that are not, such as the job that the Scoutmaster, Art Gaudin, did with his troop from the Emmanuel Lutheran Church when they cleaned the badge and then to determine which of them were working as a troop, such as walking the boundaries, or individually, such as Jimmy Wick's badge building project, where they are learning to be worth while citizens contributing to the good of the town of Manchester. Behind them are the scoutsman's services giving voluntary of their time and energy. Behind the scoutsman is the United Council of Boy Scouts of America, 17 Forest St. in Hartford. In this office is kept the record of every boy's progress in scouting, including all other pertinent work. This is also the headquarters for those interested in giving the professional services essential to scouting, including a Yearbook. Another member of that troop made a contract for a Sunday School room, and a Bible made a sign for the parish church. The boy and parish attic were decorated as an other need project.

Visitors at Oak Grove Nature Center benefit from the efforts of Jimmy Wick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Wick, who is working at the Center with the

CORE Unit In Norwalk Sues Schools

NORWALK (AP)—In a continuing battle to have a neighborhood school reopened, the CORE Unit in Norwalk filed suit Thursday in New Haven U.S. District Court.

The suit is a continuation of a fight to have the school reopened. The school was closed in 1965 because of a fire. The CORE Unit is a group of parents and teachers who want the school reopened.

The school had been phased out over the past several years in an integration program. The CORE Unit is a group of parents and teachers who want the school reopened.

THE Herald Angle

By EARL YOST
Sports Editor

Notes from the Little Black Book

Don't be too surprised if Gene Johnson repeats as the most valuable player in the Hartford Twilight League. The playing manager with champion Morty Brothers had another big season and wound up with a .313 batting average, fourth best in the pitcher-dominated circuit. . . . The loop's top hitter at 369 was Al Puts of the Vernon Orioles. . . .

At last count, 148 pro golfers had entered the GHO, including Dave Dickson finishing second at 222. . . . Through Gay Brewer, the 1970 annual as it may seem, appears to be an event, which will offer $100,000 stroked home runs at Fenway Park this season, then the pro players. Away from Boston, Red Soxers hold a slim chance to win the pitcher-dominated home run hitting department. . . .

Off the Cuff

Annual Club Championship Golf Tournament, a 36-hole three-day test, is slated Aug. 31-Sept. 1, at Ellington Ridge. . . . Stan Hilliard is the defending champion. . . . Annual Senior Golf Tournament will be held Sept. 7-8. . . . New York Yankees are running 80,000 beards last year's home attend- . . .

Short Stuff

Happy to learn recently of the promotion of Allan Cone, former pitcher of the Yankees, to the position of general manager of the Yankees. . . .

Senators Derail Oriole Express, One-Two Teams in Weekend Set

NEW YORK (AP) — The Washington Senators have had their troubles moving forward, but they overcame them long enough to put the Baltimore Orioles in reverse. . . .

The Senators entered Baltimore more than two days ago buried in last place in the American League while the Orioles had climbed within four games of leading Detroit. . . .

Tigers after losing twice to the Senators. . . .

Frank Howard's home run put the Orioles in the lead. . . .

Senators' Orioles — The Senators played their last place role for seven innings against rookie Roger Nelson, making his first start of the season. . . .

Pirates Had Right Idea but . . . Brock Just Too Fast, Records Four Steals

NEW YORK (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates had the right idea far from the end of Bob Moore's hand. . . .

Brock stole four bases and the Pirates' second baseman, Steve Largent, stole two more bases in the third and fourth innings. . . .

METS-PIRATES — The Mets and the Pirates met in a doubleheader on Thursday night. . . .

Cal Koonce and Ron Taylor combined for a two-hitter against the Pirates. . . .

Proposal by Palmer Behind Locked Door

OLIVETON, N. J. (AP) — The struggle between the Professional Golfers Association and the United States Golf Association is behind locked doors. . . .

Asked if he would say the meeting was encouraging, Palmer said, "It was cordial. But I would not say it was encouraging." . . .

Witke, MacArdle, Kinel, Balsano, Palino, Wierzicki

Kinel Most Valuable with Legion

By BARRY COWLES — Ball players, families and invited guests gathered at the American Legion last night to climax the season with the annual banquet. . . .

Ed Lynch, American Legion chairman in Connecticut, was the guest speaker. He spoke of the Legion program and how Manchester had solved the problem that so many other towns have. . . .

CLERK OF GOAL — Getting closer to that three-goal goal, Ed Lynch, American Legion chairman in Connecticut, was the guest speaker. . . .

Richard Siderow of Westport, Conn., who held a brief one-stroke lead earlier this month. . . .

End of the Line — New York Giants will move out of Plainfield University Tuesday and set up final press conference at the New York Mets. . . .

The Yankees are running 80,000 beards last year's home attend- . . .

OUT AT HOME — Speedy Campy Campanera of Oakland attempted to score on squeeze play in first inning but was tagged out by Red Sox catcher Russ Gibson. . . .

Umpire Jerry Neudecker called the action at Boston's Fenway Park. . . .

Major League Leaders — American League Batting (30 at bats) — Yasutaka Hattori, 290; Olliv, Minn., 288. . . .

National League Batting (30 at bats) — Jackie Robinson, 288; Olliv, Minn., 288. . . .

Browns Play Bills Tonight, Skins Hang on to Top Lions — The Cleveland Browns encounter the Buffalo Bills tonight in the first American Football League (AFL) game. . . .

The AFL holds a 10-6 edge over the NFL and needs only two more victories to clinch the interleague season series. . . .

Smith Blossoms into Star, Grand Slam Helps Sox Win — The finest center fielder gave Oakland a lesson in the finer arts of both offense and defense Thursday in leading the Boston Red Sox to an 11-2 victory over the A's. . . .

Smith hit the first grand slam homer in his career and drove in a run on an sharp grounder for five RBIs, robbing the spacious outfield for six putouts and threw out two Oakland runners who tested his strong arm. . . .

Major League Leaders — American League Batting (30 at bats) — Yasutaka Hattori, 290; Olliv, Minn., 288. . . .

National League Batting (30 at bats) — Jackie Robinson, 288; Olliv, Minn., 288. . . .

Witke, MacArdle, Kinel, Balsano, Palino, Wierzicki — Certificates of appreciation for participation were also awarded to Witke, Kinel, MacArdle and Balsano. . . .

Cosch Charlie Graf thanked the players and especially his assistant, Robin D'Urso, for his hard work and contributions to the Manchester American Legion. . . .
