Pueblo's Skipper Tells of Beatings Space Pioneers Near Moon Orbit

Borman Feeling Healthy Again

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)—The bold adventurers of Apollo 8 sped ever closer to the moon today and reported they are ready to blast themselves into lunar orbit early Wednesday, fulfilling man's centuries-old desire to explore this mysterious body.

As the spaceship flew unerringly toward the grip of lunar gravity, commander Frank Borman reported the astronauts were healthy and eager to make their Christmas Eve orbit of the moon.

"More than 150,000 miles from his home planet and nearly 50,000 miles from the moon, Borman reported: 'We're looking ahead, of course, to tomorrow, when we'll be just 60 miles from the moon.'"

But he emphasized he would not commit his ship to a lunar orbit unless he was satisfied everything was perfect.

"I hope you have everyone looking over everything very carefully," Borman told Mission Control. "We want a perfect spacecraft before we consider the LOI burn."

LOI stands for lunar orbit insertion—the moment when the astronauts fire their engine to brake their speed sufficiently to enter moon orbit.

That critical engine burn is to occur early Wednesday when Apollo 8 is behind the moon, out of radio communication with earth. It will be about 15 minutes after the firing, when the ship emerges from the backside, before the ground will know the success of the maneuver.

Air Force Col. Borman, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders reach a climactic moment at 2:29 p.m. EST today when they will be captured by the gravity field of the moon—the first time man will be in the grasp of another heavenly body.

The tug of the moon will increase Apollo 8's speed, and the spacecraft will sweep toward their historic lunar orbit. A burst from their spaceship engine at 4:50 a.m. Tuesday is to swing them into orbit just 60 miles above the surface.

Glynn Lunney, a flight controller, said today that "everything with the spacecraft and the people looks good for the lunar orbit. The spacecraft is working in an essentially perfect fashion."

He said the only problem was in a secondary cooling system.

"It appears," he said, "that perhaps the back pressure valve did not close completely in the secondary evaporator and that's being trouble shot right now. I don't think that's anything serious."

Lunney said "we're in good shape as far as the consumables are concerned—the fuel, oxygen and hydrogen."

He said that the course of Apollo 8 was so perfect that a midcourse correction planned today had been canceled. He said a small correction change would be made about five hours before the astronauts are to reach lunar orbit.

Borman sounded chipper today in a conversation with Astronaut Michael Collins, the ground communicator at Mission Control Center.

"We're all feeling fine," he said and commented that the extra sleep allotted each man had helped them combat illnesses that plagued them Sunday.

Collins read him the news and football scores from the "Interstellar Times" and reminded Borman there are only two more shopping days until Christmas.

Asked if he wanted to bet on next week's National Football League championship game between Baltimore and Cleveland, Borman took Baltimore.

There will be no physical change to alert the astronauts that they have passed through a gravity "barrier" in space. Borman, in fact, plans to be asleep, and Lovell and Anders are to be stowing their camera after completing a second television show from Apollo 8.

The area is called the "equigravisphere," where the pull of earth's gravity and that of the moon are equal.

Apollo 8, which started the trip toward the moon at earth escape speed of 24,196 miles per hour, has slowed gradually like an automobile coasting uphill to slightly more than 2,200 m.p.h.

The moon's gravity increases this over a period of several hours to almost 5,600 m.p.h. If allowed to continue at this

Crewmen Getting Medical Checks

SEOUL (AP)—The commander of the USS Pueblo said today he and his men were beaten in the final weeks of their North Korean captivity in "the most concentrated form of terror that I've ever seen or dreamed is possible."

Cdr. Lloyd M. Bucher told a news conference of the beatings after he and his surviving 81 crewmen reached South Korea and were dispatched to a U.S. military hospital for medical checkups.

Some of the men still had black eyes and bruises and others suffered from malnutrition, Bucher said.

"I was beaten less than anyone else," he said.

"I was mostly terrified of possible beating and I was kept in solitary confinement during the entire 11 months and there were many occasions when I didn't think I was going to make it." He said he was punched and kicked by the North Koreans but never hit with a stick or a club as some of his men were.

"Commencing with the week before last, we went through the most concentrated form of terror that I've ever seen or dreamed is possible. . . ."

"I wasn't prepared totally for the beatings. . . . I thought that they were totally brutal with no mercy of any kind. They were done for one purpose and that was to terrify people. I had about half of the crew last week beaten badly. There are still many people in the crew today who have carried black eyes and bruised ribs. I had one man last week (who was) beaten with a four by four (timber)."

"I think that there are many in my crew who are in very bad physical condition and just from a nutritional point of view."

"The bruises and that sort of thing I think are going to heal up quickly," Bucher said.

The men were in a hospital near Seoul for the medical checks before being flown to rejoin their families for Christmas in San Diego Calif.

A U.S. military spokesman in Seoul said he did not know how soon the Pueblo men would leave for the United States. But it was thought here they might leave Tuesday.

The spokesman said there were no immediate plans to let the men talk to their families by telephone from Korea.

To win the release of the men after 11 months of captivity, a U.S. representative at the armistice but in Panmunjom signed a statement apologizing for "the grave acts of espionage committed by the U.S. ship . . . after having intruded into the territorial waters of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea." But first he repudiated the statement and said he was signing it only to free the ship's

To Discuss Church Crisis Pope Summons Bishops' Synod

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI today summoned an extraordinary gathering of bishops from around the world to meet in a new synod next Oct. 11 to help him deal with the crisis of faith and disobedience sweeping the Roman Catholic Church.

It will be the second such synod in history. The first took place at the Vatican last year.

The Pope announced the new synod in a pre-Christmas speech deploring anew defiance of Church authority and negative reactions to his stand against birth control.

"We are not unaware of the different reactions caused by our pronouncement (on birth control), the Pope told a meeting of cardinals, members of his Vatican staff and prelates from the Rome diocese. He had called them together to express his Christmas greetings.

"We cannot keep silent the sorrow caused us by seeing sometimes the incomprehension or misreading of our intentions and even our words."

The Pope indicated he would soon speak out to answer the many objections swirling up against his birth control decision.

"We have taken note of all with the respect we owe to all and with the purpose of not falling when the moment is right to make the replies which appear necessary, especially on the level of pastoral concern," he said.

Julie Nixon Weds David Eisenhower

NEW YORK (AP)—Julie Nixon, younger daughter of President-elect Nixon, and Dwight David Eisenhower II, only grandson of the former president, were married Sunday in a brief Protestant ceremony.

It was also Julie's idea to substitute the words "and thou" for "and thee" in the Reformed Church of America service. The Nixons are Quakers. David, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Eisenhower, is an Episcopalian.

The bride also requested Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, who performed the ceremony, to read Psalm 100, which begins, "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord," and Psalm 121: "I will lift up mine eyes. . . ."

"I rather thought this was a special day," Nixon said. "Just before coming here I saw the first shots of the Apollo flight and I just heard of the release of the Pueblo crew tonight. Dec. 22 is a lucky day."

The young couple barred newsmen from the wedding and reception, but posed for photographers in a press room at the Hotel Plaza, site of the reception.

VC Reject Ky Idea of Direct Talks

PARIS (AP)—The Viet Cong today rejected the idea of direct talks with the South Vietnamese government as advanced by Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky.

Tran Bui Kiem, president of the foreign affairs commission of the National Liberation Front, told Agence France Presse, the French news agency, that direct talks between the NLF and "the present rulers in Saigon . . . are impossible because they do not represent the South Vietnamese population and cannot be accepted by the NLF as a valid negotiating partner."

Ky flew back to Saigon to talk with President Nguyen Van Thieu, and on his arrival scotched the impression he gave in Paris that he was considering talks with the Viet Cong soon to bring peace.

He told a news conference in Saigon that after peace returned to South Vietnam, the Saigon government would deal with all opposition groups including the National Liberation Front. But he said his government will never recognize the NLF "as an entity. But we admit it is a reality."

In Paris, speaking to a CBS panel, he had not been so specific, though there too, he spoke of the NLF as a "reality."

"Once we recognize its reality, we have to face this reality and try to solve it," he said.

Ky said several times he would propose to Thieu direct contacts between their government and its opposition in South Vietnam, including the NLF leaders. But his imperfect English made his precise meaning unclear.

Christmas Cease-fire Underway

SAIGON (AP)—A Viet Cong-proclaimed Christmas truce period began at 1 a.m. Tuesday in the first such stand-down in the Vietnam war since the Tet lunar new year last January.

The Tet cease-fire was broken by an enemy offensive that brought the bloodiest fighting of the war. Every truce in Vietnam so far—which each side orders independently—has been marked by some shooting.

The Viet Cong's National Liberation Front announced it would observe a three-day cease-fire over the Christmas holiday. The Saigon government has said it will put in effect a 24-hour cease-fire for Christmas, beginning at 6 p.m. Tuesday.

(Saigon time is 13 hours ahead of Eastern Standard.)

The Communist command launched a series of attacks across South Vietnam over the weekend.

The heaviest fighting, often at hand-to-hand range with mortars and rockets falling on American troops at the rate of 100 a minute, raged only six miles from the truce site where U.S. and Viet Cong representatives are to meet Christmas Day to discuss the release of three American prisoners.

Santa and the Hippies
By LUCRECIE BEALE

IT WAS Christmas eve. Only an hour remained to break the spell on Santa Land.

Ding Dong stood on the roof of Santa's workshop and carefully dropped the hippie's popcorn popper down the smoking chimney. When it was in place on the burning coals below Ding Dong began to drop kernels of corn, one by one, down the chimney into the popper.

For a moment there was no sound except Heskiah chopping and swatting on his machine. Then, between the whirrs of the hammer, Ding Dong heard the soft pop-popping of the corn in the fireplace below.

He dropped the corn faster and faster until he was pouring down the chimney in a river. Now, the hammer blows were silent. There was only the gentle popping of corn.

Edgar the elf scurried to the front of the shop and peeped through the keyhole. "It's stopped working!" he cried. "The whole shop is filling with popcorn!" It covered his feet! Now his knees! His middle! His neck! He's drowning in popcorn!

Ding Dong dumped the last of the corn and burst out in a cloud of popcorn. His stumbling feet straggled the three-colored string stretched across the door frame.

The spell on Santa Land was broken. The spinning tops stopped spinning. Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus and all the elves and reindeer were themselves again.

There was such rejoicing! Edgar told Santa all that Ding Dong had done and Santa asked what he had done for Ding Dong in return. Ding Dong said he would like to go home again. "If only I didn't have to be good all the time!" he added with a sigh.

"Being good is just thinking of others," said Santa. "That is something you certainly have done."

"What about taking baths and being polite and picking up toys and all like that?" "It isn't necessary," said Santa thoughtfully. "But you might say it is a way of thinking of other people."

"I suppose I could give it a try," said Ding Dong reluctantly. "I don't think it would hurt much," said Santa with a smile. "It probably won't hurt at all."

The elves loaded Santa's sleigh with toys and Mrs. Claus tucked in sacks of cookies. The reindeer were hitched to the sleigh and it was time to go.

Santa climbed in with Ding Dong by his side and off they soared over the great sleeping world. When they came to Hippieville Santa leaped from the sleigh and dropped off an enormous bag of gifts for the hippies below.

The big bagged with records and strange new musical instruments and magic color paints and weird clothes. Unknown to Santa, Mrs. Claus had slipped tooth brushes, combs and all dozen bars of soap in with all the rest.

The hippies, who never sleep when others sleep—heard the jingling bells of the sleigh and knew that all was well. They rushed into the street shouting joyfully. "Merry Christmas!"

Santa and Ding Dong, circling away, waved and called back. "Merry Christmas to all!"

Weiss Backs Road Crew Work Ruling

Town Manager Robert Weiss, in ruling made Friday, has backed an action by Manchester Highway Superintendent Herman Passacantini in suspending a highway department employee for refusing to work overtime.

The employee received a two-day suspension for refusing, on three occasions, to work overtime on the leaf-pickup program.

The employee, with the backing of Local 901, State, County and Municipal Employees Union, appealed the decision to District Judge William O'Neil, who ruled in favor of Passacantini, the employee filed a grievance with Weiss.

Appearing before Weiss were, in addition to the employee, union president George Blingham, union business agent Dominic Badalato of New Britain, and union grievance committee members William Willard and Charles Smith. Also present were Passacantini, O'Neil and John Harbina, the town's development coordinator.

Weiss ruled that the nature of certain jobs, such as in the highway department, were for the maintenance of the public's health, safety and welfare and that, as a consequence, the town was correct in expecting overtime work from those employees when the situation warranted the need.

The union representatives had argued that because enough employees would accept overtime work in a discretionary basis, none of the town's services would be jeopardized.

Weiss ruled against an employee's discretionary right to accept overtime. He said, "expecta it to be your duty when the health, safety and welfare of the residents is threatened."

Passacantini said today that, to date, none of his employees have refused to work overtime on snow and ice control operations. The dispute, he said, was only over the leaf-pickup program.

Union officials were not available for comment today.

Old World Christmas Breads Prepared the Easy Way

Christmas is a time for baking, for eating down from one generation to the next. Perhaps you have fond memories of a fruit-filled Italian Christmas loaf, or a handsome braided loaf from Czechoslovakia. Whatever it is, the Old World holiday goodies are the stuff of which Merry Christmases are made!

You don't need a drop of Italian blood to enjoy this luscious Panettone. Of Milanese origin, it varies greatly from region to region. Citron, raisins and currants are found in most versions. Some add pine nuts; others top a shiny crust with an elaborate decoration of blanched almonds and candied cherries. This anise-flavored Panettone is filled with citron, raisins and pine nuts.

Light and delicately sweet, Hoska is a delicious triple-layered loaf from old Czechoslovakia. Fruit and chopped almonds distributed throughout the loaf provide delightful texture contrast. Hoska is not frosted, but is glazed and decorated before baking with whole almonds that result in a beautiful brown sheen in moderate oven. Makes 2 loaves.

PANETTONE

4 1/2 cups unsifted flour
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup (1 stick) margarine or butter
1 egg
1 egg white
1 egg yolk
1 egg
1 egg white
1 egg yolk
1 egg
1 egg white
1 egg yolk

In a large bowl thoroughly mix 1 1/2 cups flour, sugar, salt and unsifted dry yeast.

Combine milk, water and margarine in a saucepan. Heat over low heat until liquids are warm. (Margarine does not need to melt.) Gradually add to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add 3 eggs and 1/2 cup flour, or enough flour to make a soft dough. Beat at high speed 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in citron, raisins, pine nuts and anise seeds. Add enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 to 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Punch dough down. Cover; let rise again until almost double, about 30 minutes.

Friday night following Christmas and the most Saturday of the Goodspeed Opera House on Sunday, Jan. 28, and Saturday, Feb. 8. This is the first stage of the annual competition for hopeful young opera stars, that ends on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera in New York.

These auditions are sponsored by the Goodspeed Opera House and the Eastern Connecticut Symphony Orchestra. There are 200 in all, and they are given at this early stage, as well as an appearance with the Eastern Connecticut Symphony at the Hartford Ball and Banquet.

The Hartford Ballet does not get the best of TV. Well, here's a chance to see something eminently worthwhile, and if your kids don't see it, it is self-evident that you as a parent are too lazy to see that they do, or that in the last analysis you don't give a whoop what they watch so long as they don't get in your hair.

Almost everybody is familiar with the "Nutcracker Suite," but a third of all the music Tchaikovsky wrote, and is still going strong. If you go on one of the post-Christmas tours, you'll undoubtedly go to the show or the beautiful dances.

I seem to have heard that the ballet will be done on TV and I know that many will say, "To change the subject, let me direct your attention to the Con-

Ribicoff Raps 'Discriminatory' Subzone Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., said Saturday that the postponement of a decision on Maine's application for a free-trade zone is unwarranted and discriminatory.

Ribicoff made public a letter to C.E. Smith, secretary of commerce and chairman of the Foreign Trade Zone Board, urging immediate action on the Maine zone.

Occidental Petroleum Corp. plans to establish a $146 million refinery in the subzone. The project would provide in part an additional source of heating oil for New England.

Ribicoff noted that Smith announced Dec. 13 that the board was deferring a decision on the application to the administration of President-elect Nixon. He was doing so, Smith said, because of the policy implications involved.

revel the deeper shadings of his character.
If he turns out to be a picture, for example, he may be useful. (Does it depend on whether he's watching a baseball game or a bathing beauty contest?)
Too much yellow in the tube may indicate unrelatable optimism. (Except for a tooth-whitening commercial?)
Overuse of blue could be a sign of gloominess. (As significant as overuse of the refrigerator during station breaks?)
As they say on television, ver-y-b-tending. The professor should be aware, of course, that some people may just have poor reception. Then there are others who simply like off-color entertainment.

The Welfare Problem
One of the thorniest problems with which the new administration will be forced to grapple when it takes over next January is the problem of welfare. The tremendous amounts of money being spent for this purpose is a matter of gravest concern.
In New York City, for example, it is estimated that 1968 an average of one million New Yorkers will be getting welfare payments. This means that one out of every eight inhabitants will be on relief checks.
Since the administration of welfare departments is far from uniform throughout the nation, and is generally the province of local government, the political pressures are becoming intolerable. If it weren't so tragic as to consequence, the spectacle of welfare recipients storming welfare offices demanding color television sets and telephones would be laughable. It is far from that.

who had nearly perished from our delay. Later, we were distressed by our determination to punish the enemy at all costs.
When the war was over, we began to disarm. But soon discovered that there were those who would take advantage of our peaceful intentions. The idea of "massive retaliation," which followed this experience, did not Dulles or the atomic bomb. It is related to the American style of holding back and letting go of a willing up of righteous anger behind the wall of restraint and a release of this energy, accompanied by a thrill of national indignation.
In both World Wars it was the American style to strive for peace, to refuse to fight until provoked. When the provocation came it was "a day that will live in infamy" and there was a great flood of righteous anger when the nation moved as one body to break the bounds of restraint.

Power has its burdens. While the world is open to conquest, the American leadership is in the United States, such provocations would be easy to arrange. The justification of defensive acts as "defensive" is as old as Caesar. Hitler's cry of "Lebensraum" for the persecuted German represents a rather flagrant example of this type of thing.
But such an approach is not congruent with the American character. In the United States a protest for aggression is not satisfactory. The sincerity of the leader, in such acts, must not be open to question, at least not by the majority of the people.
This has led to an interesting feature of the American style, namely, the phenomenon of an American leader manages to engage in aggressive acts without the aspect of his behavior, he will be forgiven and supported by his people, even if his policy proves to be wrong. In this respect, innocence is more important than responsibility. This is a critical aspect of American morality.

could be permitted to go along (although organized labor will lead one of the bitterest reorganization battles in history).
Whether Mr. Johnson will recommend this course himself in his final messages remains uncertain. The only holdout is Watson. Both the Budget Bureau and the White House staff are solidly behind the Kappel recommendations. So is Democratic National Chairman O'Brien, who as Postmaster General got the Kappel Commission appointed in the first place.
Why, then, has there been such procrastination from Watson, whose successful career in a Texas steel executive would seem to weigh heavily in favor of applying business methods to the Post Office?
Ego, for one thing, Watson watches his ambition to leave the department's future in the hands of a long-range Administration officials seem to feel that they can avoid coming to grips with the hard realities of the situation (avoid concessions, however intent) they are somehow free from complicity—or, at least, that they will be exonerated by the American people in this, their judgment is probably correct.

Everyone Shares
The release of the Pueblo crewmen brightens the Christmas season for everyone. No one who is not directly involved, of course, can really appreciate the feelings of the parents and wives of the men who are being freed after 11 months' imprisonment by the North Koreans.
But in a Christmas season which has had such discouragements like the lack of progress toward a Vietnam peace, the news from Panmunjom is very welcome.

The very experience of playing the tool or the patsy serves as a basis for the sense of righteous anger which follows. It is a basic tenet of the American ideal of the triumph of virtue and the final and overwhelming retribution for evil.
However, a nation which grows to a major world power, it is increasingly difficult to find other nations, particularly smaller ones, which obligate themselves to be more virtuous than ourselves.
This is a significant provocation.

U.S. Twin Ideals— Achievement, Virtue

The desire for achievement is a complex phenomenon. Unlike the animal, who seems to respond in a more or less automatic manner to protect his territory or his brood, the human creature uses a host of symbols to stimulate, intensify, restrain, justify, and even to glorify his aggression.
Therefore, aggression may take various forms in man.
There is a struggle to demonstrate one's strength and power, to blow of anger and frustration, the "practical" joke, the slow, cool, murderous preparation for revenge and the article and cunning use of a well-timed verbal repartee. While there are individual styles of aggression, there are also cultural styles, based on the prevailing norms within a society.
The style of aggression for a people will emerge from a point where further restraint is no longer possible. It is then that the former restraint becomes, ironically, a justification for a release of aggression. "We have held ourselves back too long. We have been fools, suckers, patsies!"

Highway Decisions
How much say should the people who live in and around the path of a proposed highway have in the location and design of that highway when the federal government participates in building it?
The Department of Transportation, in holding hearings at which that is the basic question, has gotten a variety of answers.

For Peace — It's About Time
Does President-elect Nixon contemplate a plan for peace in the Middle East or doesn't he?
Nixon aides at the moment appear to be stepping upon one another's toes and falling over one another in debating the question.

A Thought For Today
Sponsored by the Manchester Council of Churches
The best message I can bring you at the beginning of this Christmas week is to urge upon you the fact that the main purpose of the Christmas story is not a Babe lying in hay in a manger amid lambs and gifts. The main point of the story is that the Babe grew to be a man, who calls us to follow in a challenging way. One demands nothing less than a man's revolution within each one of us, a revolution in the life of the world. But the Bethlehem Babe has descended down from a dangerous Christ that Herod the King knew to an innocuous and harmless infant in a manger, so sweet that no one need fear him. Yet the world's danger did lie in that manger, for Jesus Christ was and is a dangerous disturber, calling for a complete change within the heart of man. The shepherds said, "Let us go and see." They went and saw the Babe lying in a manger, and returned wondering, "But the wise men, and they were truly wise, also went to see, and saw with their wisdom more than the Babe lying in the manger. The story says that the public men went home another way. No one who sees Jesus with wisdom can leave him the same way he came. This Christmas season is an invitation for you to see again with the shepherds: "Let us go and see." See the beauty and the danger of the Christ Child — and then, like the wise men of old, go back into the world. Christ was dangerous to Herod — how dangerous does Christ seem to you? Is Christ a power or is He merely a plaything? Is He an appealing figure, a doll, a toy — or is He an appalling figure? Power or plaything, danger or decoration, what do you see when you see your Christ? Chaplain Russell E. Camp State's Prison

The desire for achievement is a complex phenomenon. Unlike the animal, who seems to respond in a more or less automatic manner to protect his territory or his brood, the human creature uses a host of symbols to stimulate, intensify, restrain, justify, and even to glorify his aggression.
Therefore, aggression may take various forms in man.
There is a struggle to demonstrate one's strength and power, to blow of anger and frustration, the "practical" joke, the slow, cool, murderous preparation for revenge and the article and cunning use of a well-timed verbal repartee. While there are individual styles of aggression, there are also cultural styles, based on the prevailing norms within a society.
The style of aggression for a people will emerge from a point where further restraint is no longer possible. It is then that the former restraint becomes, ironically, a justification for a release of aggression. "We have held ourselves back too long. We have been fools, suckers, patsies!"
While we are retrained in our desire for achievement by the thought that we must not take Four Hurt When Ski Lift Cable Slips GILFORD, N.H. (AP) - A ski chairlift accident at the Gun Stock Ski Area has injured four persons. The skiers were treated from their chairs Sunday when a cable slipped from the pulley wheel at the No. 2 tower near the base of the 1 1/2 mile-long double chairlift. Mrs. Joyce Ames, 28, of New Bedford, Mass., was taken to Lakes Region General Hospital where doctors said she suffered a broken back and possible internal injuries. Also taken to the hospital were Daniel Collins, 14, of Newburyport, Mass., and Pamela Luster, 17, of Amherst, Mass. Miss Collins was X-rayed for possible injuries and Miss Luster was treated and released. Skiers going up the mountain on the chairlift were stranded for more than an hour until the cable could be reset. The accident occurred about noon when the chairlift was running at near capacity to accommodate the large crowd on hand for weekend skiing.

20 Bills Prepared by Houley

By BETTE QUATRALE... Tolland County State Senator Robert Houley has introduced 20 bills into the legislative hopper.

$1,100 per pupil for elementary schools, plus an additional $200 per pupil for specialized education or two-thirds of the cost, whichever is less.

Houley would further include a grant providing state assistance on major alterations to existing school buildings at the rate of two-thirds the necessary cost.

Motor Vehicle Office... Houley proposes a branch of the motor vehicle department be located in Vernon.

Five towns, including Coventry, received state aid decreases under the recalculation.

Houley's proposal "would rescind the reductions and reimburse the towns in full for the amount lost by the overcut."

Houley would also remove the Superintendent of Schools' authority to suspend or remove a teacher.

Robert Houley... Adding that he wants "to hear from my constituents," Houley held his mailing address as R.D. Houley, 20th Senatorial District, P.O. Box 608, Vernon, Conn.

In other legislation Houley proposes the state provide 50 per cent state aid for regional inspector construction grants which meet air pollution control specifications.

He would also add a section establishing a retroactive grant for established industries, which meet air pollution control specifications.

A proposed amendment to the Community Development Act of 1967 would provide free non-contributory assistance to all towns under 7,800 population.

Special Education Classes... Attacking a problem which has brought considerable concern to Boards of Education in Vernon, Coventry and Tolland and in other county towns.

Houley further proposes the state pay 100 per cent of the transportation costs to the towns for the special education students.

Bouquets Tossed at Colts, Raiders By Foes for Title Games Coming Up

NEW YORK (AP) — Cleveland Sunday for the NFL championship game... Blanton Collier was tossing bouquets at the Baltimore Colts today while Webb Dowbank flung superlatives in the Oakland Raiders' direction.

The praise-makers will spend the rest of the week figuring ways to tear down the first-place Colts and Raiders in next Sunday's Super Bowl semifinals.

It won't be easy. Collier's Cleveland Browns teammates at the Dallas Cowboy Football League's Eastern Conference today watched the Colts wreck Minnesota 24-14 Sunday for the Western crown. "They were tremendous," Collier said of the streaking Raiders who play the Browns in Cleveland Sunday for the NFL championship.

Dowbank, New York Jets, Eastern Division king in the American Football League, were paid tribute by Oakland Raiders who demolished the Kansas City Chiefs 21-9 Sunday in a playoff for the Western title.

The Raiders, defending AFL champs, yesterday won their New York Sunday for the league pennant with the winner, taking on the NFL title in the last 20 Super Bowl at Miami.

"Oakland's a great football team... and this victory will make them all the more confident," Dowbank said following the one-sided Western showdown, in which the Raiders' back Mary Lee Lamonica riddled the favored Chiefs with touchdowns.

Earl Morrill tossed two touchdowns passes and linebacker Mike Curtis scored a 60-yard punt return for a 10-0 lead, then scored the 18th victory in 8 games.

Lamonica broke the game open early, firing scoring passes covering 24 yards to Fred Bilezikian, 29 to Warren Wells and 44 to Bilezikian for a 21-0 first period lead. He hit Bilezikian again with a 64-yard pass period before halftime and connected with Wells in the fourth period on a 45-yard scoring pass.

The Oakland defenders picked off four Lew Davenport passes, held Mike Garrett to a net yard and limited the Chiefs to a pair of field goals by Jan Stenerud.

"It wasn't our best defensive effort, but it certainly was one of them," said Oakland coach Sam Stram, whose club fielded a score a touchdown for the first time in five years, said the Raiders "just beat us. They're just great. Lamonica's a great quarterback."

Collier praised the Browns for "the greatest defensive effort I've ever seen."

Cleveland's linebacker Jim Houston said of another way: "They'd run at us... and we'd knock them out."

Tug-of-War Existed Burke Seen Out As Baseball Boss

CHICAGO (AP)—The search for a baseball commissioner acceptable to both the American and National League began today and rumor's first production was Sen. Phillip Hart of Michigan.

The name of Hart, a friend of baseball, popped out of the Washington, D.C., for the $60,000 a year job which was left up in the air by club owners in the wake of the resignation of Walter O'Connell to create a new league for the West.

After 19 ballots and 14 hours, the baseball board failed to agree and readily ended with a stalemate at 6:15 a.m., EST, Saturday.

The balloting to select a successor to the dimitted O'Connell was held at the home of William Eckert was diffused by at least six candidates and all but one of them now appear to be out of the picture altogether. Possibly, the lone remaining hopeful in the group is executive baseball man Les MacPhail, Chicago's first assistant who resigned to become vice president of the New York Yankees.

It was a tug-of-war between the traditionalists, Club Feeney, and the so-called Young Turk ring leaders, suavs Mike Turley, through 10 ballots.

Feeney, vice president of the San Francisco Giants and a member of the city's owner, Horace Stoneham, had the required minimum of nine NL votes but early and dropped to a deluge of support under the leadership of the National League's East Division.

MacPhail, who had the support of the Chicago Cubs and the St. Louis Cardinals, was also a contender but lost to the support of the St. Louis Cardinals, who had the support of the St. Louis Cardinals, who had the support of the St. Louis Cardinals.

60-W in Home Skein Shattered Illini Springs Upset In Beating Houston

NEW YORK (AP)—UCLA might be the best college basketball team in the rest of the country, but in Houston, unranked Illinois is tops.

The unbeaten Fighting Illini, 17-0, upset, beating Catholic U. 77-47. North Carolina was idle last night, the Indians being held by East Catholic who yet to play a Hartford County Conference game in ranking up five losses.

The outburst came for the club to extend the Eagles a little in the Brass City.

Illinoians (1-3) hope to get back on the winning track against Smith. The Knights dropped an overtime thriller to Rockyville last week and will be out to square their standard.

Up to 500 with a fine win over Stature in its last outing, Cheney hopes to continue over last night's game.

The rest of the Top Ten Friday night, East hosts the Alamo, Manchester plays the Knights, and Wichita Falls plays the Invitational this weekend.

UCLA, has been able to do in before heading into the Charlot Invitational this weekend as the heavy favorite against Santa Clara, No. 8, and Indiana 10-4, and No. 6, San Francisco State, No. 7, and No. 9, hammers Illinois Wednesday 10-7.

Not even UCLA, the NCAA champion last two years, can equal that performance.

The Bruins crushed West Virginia 85-36 for their 20th victory in 20 games, but the Bruins were 60-36 in 1958, but the Bruins were 60-36 in 1958, but the Bruins were 60-36 in 1958.

Loche, Benvenuti Cited for Boxing

SYLVANIA, Ohio (AP)—Nino Loche of Argentina and Silvio Benvenuti of Italy were named Boxers of the Month by the World Boxing Association.

Loche was cited for winning the junior welterweight championship, losing to a technical knockout over Paul Paj in Tokyo, Dec. 22. Benvenuti gained recognition for turning back the challenge of Don Palmer of West Jordan, Utah, in San Francisco, Italy, Dec. 14 in the middleweight title bout.

Palmer's loss dropped him to the No. 4 spot among the middleweights behind Luis Rodriquez of Miami Beach, Fla., Emile Griffith of New York City and Juan Carlos Duran of Argentina.

Chicago was the brother business to Pittsburgh and the Bruins could be tough to move out of the No. 1 spot.

The Rangers managed an eight-game winless string before Detroit's 2-1 victory Sunday that moved them into the top spot.

For the record, it has been 23 years since Boston finished first and although it's a long way until the end of the season, the Bruins could be tough to move out of the No. 1 spot.

Santa Claus Arrives Early in Boston Bruins' Present—First Place

NEW YORK (AP)—Derek Sanderson scored a pair of goals—the first just nine seconds after the opening Detroit goal that gave the Bruins a 2-1 lead.

The Bruins' present under the Bruins' tree—first place in the National Hockey League's East Division.

Faced with consecutive week-end games against first place Montreal and Pittsburgh, the Bruins led by the Canadiens Saturday night and then wiping the Black Hawks' fourth straight victory that moved them into the top spot.

For the record, it has been 23 years since Boston finished first and although it's a long way until the end of the season, the Bruins could be tough to move out of the No. 1 spot.

Attractive Schooboy Hoop Slate Tonight

Four Games Set, Injun Team Home

Pre-holiday basketball activity tonight will find four attractive bookings, headed by Manchester High's home start against non-league Joe Bulkeley High of Hartford at the Clark Arena at 8:15.

Undeclared East Catholic High will be shooting for victory No. 8 in Bridgeport against Rocky Hill. High receives Smith High of Storrs and Cheney Tech travels to Groton.

Annual games will be staged at Coventry High starting at 8 with no prelin.

High knows what it is to be on the short end of the score when Platt High of Middletown upended local last Friday night. Coach Jim Moriarty's gang had won its first two games.

Invading Bulkeley was handed easily by East Catholic last Friday at the Bullying 57-10. A close game is in prospect here tonight, the Indians being held by East Catholic who yet to play a Hartford County Conference game in ranking up five losses.

The outburst came for the club to extend the Eagles a little in the Brass City.

Illinoians (1-3) hope to get back on the winning track against Smith. The Knights dropped an overtime thriller to Rockyville last week and will be out to square their standard.

Collegians Fly High, Roll to Sixth Victory

Breaking loose for 64 points in the last half, Manchester's Community College basketball team rumped to an impressive 104-88 decision over Northwestern Community College last Saturday night in Winsted.

The team was the sixth in seven starts for Coach Pat Moriarty's crew and the second time this season the Bulldogs have reeled off three straight victories.

Double figures were achieved by five Manchester shooters with Don Chatin again setting the pace with 29 points, which included a dozen buckets.

Ken Smith, former Manchester High standout, pumped in 17 points and Bob Beckwith, Jim Marjatta, and Jack Edmonds each tallied 10 points. Steve O'Neil's 18 points capped the scoring.

Smith had 15 points in the second half.

Halftime found the locals leading by only nine, 30-20. Coach Moriarty, getting a standing ovation due to his standing assignment due to illness, was replaced by Don Chatin.

Manchester will now be idle in a good spot to at least repeat its success in the second half.

Race Commission Upholds Stewards

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The Kentucky Racing Commission upheld the stewards at Churchill Downs in disqualifying Daner's winner from the winner's purse in the 1958 Kentucky Derby.

The commission ruled that Daner's horse, Daner's, was disqualified for using a drug in his system during the running of the May 4 Derby.

Celtics Breathe Little Easier

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Celtics breathed a little easier today—sharpshooter John Havlicek hit 21 field goals and cashed seven of eight free throws in scoring the Celtics with 29 points.

Havlicek, plagued by ankle and knee trouble, regained his scoring form in the fourth period, snapping a three-game losing game 18-18 in the fourth period.

However, Boston hit for five straight free throws, including three by Havlicek, to pull away.

Bobby Howell turned in another fine effort, scoring 20 points.

Sam Sanders contributed 14, Frank Pula, 12, Lee Egan, 10, Ken Gertz, 10, and Don Nelson, 10.

Bill Russell and Larry Siegrist had three key baskets in the closing seconds.

U.S. Davis Cup Captain Doubts Rival's Strategy

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) holding Australians begin with the opening singles on the Deaneburg 138-506, Barbara Callahan 135-271, Fred Doyon 130, Sophie Welply 127, Jean 17-year-old John Alexander as a 13-16 local time (10:45 p.m., Wed. EST).

The draw will be made Christmas day at 15:30 local time (11 a.m. EST).

The question is whether Alexander, who would be the youngest player in the 65-year history of the Davis Cup to play a Challenge Round, has the court poise and Belanger 2-1, Jim Tomlinson 2-1, and Bill Budge 2-1.

What they will do in the doubles I don't know. I suspect they will depend on how the first two come out.

The wily 32-year-old Hopman, who is captain of the Australian team for the 21st time, has been high on Alexander, baby of the Australian team, since the hard serving teenager is likely to play one of the two single points with Ruffie almost a cinch for the other.

Alexander is continuing to show excellent form and improving each day, Hopman said after Monday's workout.

"Hopman on the other hand, is not playing at his best."

Central Tournament State Hoop Feature

A holiday madness makes its annual strike this week with New England college basketball teams traveling near and far for tournaments.

Ying for attention on the home front with principally New England teams will be the American International, The Worcester Festival, The Central Connecticut Invitational, The Eastern State Christmas Tournament, the Sacred Heart Tournament and the Boston Invitational.

Most major teams will hit the road, Massachusetts, the top seed in the American International, will move far from the Yankeeville Tournament at the Riverside Hotel in Northampton.

Boston College, hurt badly by the loss of injured player Billy Evans, attempts to rebound from an 85-71 defeat by St. John's in the Gaier Bowl Tournament at Northampton on Thursday in Jacksonville, Fla.

Holy Cross, 3-0 after a tough 67-65 decision over Connecticut, and Providence, beaten 80-83 at Dayton, move to New York for the ICAO Holiday Festival during the weekend.

Harvard, perked up by a victory over Rutgers and Yale, will play two straight in the Marshall Invitational, head for the West Coast. Harvard plays in the Western Classic at the University of California at Berkeley.

Captors 'Apes' Says Bucher

Pueblo Crew Heads Home

By HARRY MORSE Associated Press Writer

MIDWAY ISLAND (AP)—The commander of the USS Pueblo today questioned whether "the people who came out and captured the Pueblo had actually been authorized. "We had the feeling they had been," said Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher during a two-hour refueling stop here en route home. He added that he felt the "sole purpose" of the North Koreans capturing the U.S. intelligence ship was to "embarrass the United States government more than anything else."

Bucher described their captors as "young heroes and we are very proud of the way you stuck it out for such a prolonged period." Adm. Highland told the crew.

"The main of the game, of course, became procedure to try to assure one way or the other that you returned to us alive and that right off the bat precluded a heavy military move in retaliation," he said.

"Two Air Force C-141s carrying the crew members and a coffin with the body of Fireman Duane H. Hodges, 22, of Crowell, Ore., left Midway at 10 a.m. EST on a seven-hour flight to San Diego.

Hodges was fatally injured when the Pueblo was captured off North Korea on Jan. 23. He was the only fatality.

Pueblo Families Await Reunions

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Wives and children, mothers and sisters, husbands and fathers are here for a Christmas Eve reunion with the 23 surviving crew members of the USS Pueblo. The families have been flown at Navy expense to meet the men released Sunday after 11 months as captives of North Korea.

The first of two giant jets carrying the crew was to set down at Miramar Naval Air Station at 7 p.m. EST.

First on the agenda were brief, public reunions between crewmen and their loved ones. Next were a Navy-arranged news conference, and intelligence debriefing and medical discharge at the San Diego Naval Hospital.

The debriefing and medical checks will last an indefinite period of time. Before they start, however, families will have an hour in private at the hospital.

The Navy needed a comfortable temporary home at the "Pink Palace," a plain four-story hospital complex's school building to a quiet corner of the grounds. Out of the school military went double-bunked beds, writing desks and overhead lights.

That was one part of Operation Breacher Bay, the Navy's code name for plans developed months ago. The plan was named for the device that carries people from one ship to another at sea.

While Marine security guards assembled outside, the Navy went to work in the adjacent building, gathering pieces for the hospital staff called the EX Club. In the spacious, carpeted, wood-paneled building, gaily decorated for the holidays, the crew will eat, relax and watch television with their families.

"A man will be able to visit his family whenever he's not tied up with debriefings or physical checks," a Navy spokesman explained.

The Navy said the crew could be at the hospital from two weeks to two months, depending on how quickly they can be physically conditioned.

Families began arriving Monday at 6 p.m.

Allies Begin Cease-fire; Report Nine Violations

BAIGON (AP)—The allies of small-arms fire at troops or planes and were considered minor.

Before the Viet Cong cease-fire began, South Vietnamese troops fought an all-day battle in which Saigon claimed 169 enemy soldiers were killed.

The U.S. Command also announced that the number of "incidents" of enemy military activity in the demilitarized zone had passed the 1,000 mark since President Johnson said about all attacks halted on North Vietnam Nov. 1.

A U.S. spokesman said there had been 1,011 such incidents by midnight Sunday, and U.S. bombers, artillery or warships had opened fire in at least 300 of these. Johnson in announcing his bombing halt said that the U.S. might prove a bar to the Vietnam peace talks in Paris, but allies and the Communists are wrangling about such procedural matters as the stage of the conference table, and there is no indication when peace talks will get under way.

American commanders made final preparations for an unprecedented Christmas Day meeting with Viet Cong representatives to discuss the Viet Cong's offer to release three miles north of Saigon. The U.S. 29th Infantry Division routed guerrillas for about 20 miles north of Saigon. One American was wounded in the eight-minute exchange.

Headquarters said the other incidents reported so far occurred in the first hour of the day and in the first hour of the day.

Two significant incidents violated the truce with nine shots fired. One was a mortar attack on a Viet Cong position. The U.S. Command said tonight.

The 24-hour allied standstill began at 8 p.m. and fell within a three-day cease-fire period proclaimed by the Viet Cong that began 11 hours earlier.

In the first six hours of their own cease-fire, many soldiers were killed in mortar and ground attacks on South Vietnamese military posts. Killing of civilians and one civilian and five civilians, the government report said. It said six enemy soldiers were killed.

Then 30 minutes after the beginning of the allied cease-fire, U.S. 29th Infantry Division troops 40 miles northwest of Saigon were hit by about 10 rounds of mortar fire, wounding seven, the American command reported.

U.S. artillery fired on the suspected enemy positions but results were not known.

An hour after the beginning of the allied cease-fire, a reconnaissance patrol of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division came under mortar fire, wounding seven, the American command reported.

The Greatest Story Ever Told

And it came to pass in those days that there went a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

(And this taxing was first made when Cyrenus was governor of Syria.)

And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David.)

To be taxed with his espoused wife, being great with child.

And so it was, that while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there was in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them and the glory of the Lord shone round about them and they were sore afraid.

Orbit of Moon Said 'Perfect'

By HOWARD BENEDEKT AP Aerospace Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)—The daring explorers of Apollo 8 swept into an incredible Christmas Eve orbit around the moon today, reported it looked like a wild and wondrous terrain.

It looks like plaster of Paris, or a sort of grayish beach sand," was Lovell's first impression of this alien celestial body that has awed man since his beginning.

The astronauts then stepped around to the front side to beam to earth dramatic pictures, accompanied by a vivid word description.

The three space age voyagers took back across 231,000 miles to their home planet this Christmas Eve, they are expected to beam a message to Earthlings, calling for peace and unity in a troubled world.

The plan could come in a television show planned to start from the strapping Apollo 8 cabin at 9:31 p.m.

That would be about 1 1/2 hours before the astronauts are to fire their space-age engine to shoot out of lunar orbit and head for home, aiming for a Friday morning landing in the Pacific Ocean.

The engine fired them into an initial orbit ranging from 69 to 130 miles. A second firing during the third lunar orbit circled the path at about 70 miles above the surface.

Peace of Christmas Descends on World

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Christmas Eve today meant being away from home for 14 Vietnamese and around the world, for the crew of Apollo 8, for Christian pilgrims in the Holy Land and for Pope Paul VI.

It was another story for the 23 surviving crew members of the U.S. intelligence ship Pueblo, homebound after 11 months in North Korean captivity. Most of them were looking forward to a joyful reunion with their families in San Diego, Calif., tonight.

The 54,000 American servicemen in Vietnam were observing a uneasy truce in the fighting. Thousands listened to the Christmas messages of evangelist Billy Graham, Roman Catholic Archbishop Terence J. Cooke of New York, and their own chaplains. Thousands more roared with comedian Bob Hope and whistled at the Beatles accompanying him on his annual Christmas visit to the fighting front.

In the Middle East, Israeli warplanes struck again at Arab guerrillas inside Jordan as those made of pilgrims defied Arab threats and converged on the Holy Land. More than 2,000 Arabs were among the travelers who came to celebrate Christmas or die and Ramadan, the Muslim holy month, with relatives in the lands straddled by Israel from Jordan during the 1967 war.

Pope Paul planned to celebrate midnight Mass for war-weary souls tonight near the roaring blast furnace of a steel mill in Tarnobrzeg, in the heart of the Italian bog. Police were out in force to guard against a small band of students threatening to disrupt the papal visit. The militia accuse the church of not paying enough attention to the plight of the poor.

More than 200,000 miles from earth, the three American astronauts aboard the Apollo 8 spacecraft were spending Christmas Eve orbiting the moon and preparing to begin their return flight to earth early Christmas Day.

In the United States, stores were crowded with shoppers. Guerrillas inside Jordan as those

'Sizeable' GNP Hike Seen in 4th Quarter

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Commerce Department says there will be a "sizeable increase" in the gross national product for the fourth quarter this year despite government efforts to hold down the economy's inflationary rate.

The increase in the October-December quarter, was not given in exact figures but estimated as "not much different from the rise in the third" when the Commerce Department said in its monthly "Survey of Current Business" that the seasonally adjusted annual rate of GNP rose 1.1 percent in the fourth quarter.

Government economists had hoped the third-quarter GNP, which represents the market value of all the nation's goods and services and thus provides a convenient window on the economy's inflation problems, would move up no more than about $12 billion.

When it went steaming past $117 billion, it was a record for the fourth quarter. The Commerce Department said in its monthly "Survey of Current Business" that the seasonally adjusted annual rate of GNP rose 1.1 percent in the fourth quarter.
