

Supreme Court Vote 6-3

1-Year Residency For Welfare Void

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today invalidated state residency requirements for people receiving welfare assistance.

"Neither deterrence of indigents from migrating to the state nor limitation of welfare benefits to those regarded as contributing to the state is a constitutionally permissible state objective," said Justice William J. Brennan Jr. in the majority opinion.

The vote was 6 to 3. Chief Justice Earl Warren and Associate Justice Hugo L. Black joined in one dissent. Associate Justice

John Marshall Harlan dissented separately.

The ruling is a major legal advance for the poor. It is expected to make 100,000 to 200,000 poor people newly eligible for Aid to Families With Dependent Children. This would boost welfare expenses $125 million to $175 million a year.

The ruling dealt specifically with residency requirements in Connecticut, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia. It is applicable to such regulations in about 40 states in all.

Chief Justice Warren, dissenting, said he believed Congress has the power to impose minimal nationwide residency requirements or to authorize the states to do so.

The hotly disputed issue was before the court twice—once last term when the justices evidently were too divided to reach a decision—and again last fall.

The residency regulations required newly migrated poor people to wait a year before they could obtain help. Under the program of Aid to Families With Dependent Children, the justification was orderly administration of welfare programs and prevention of fraud.

Attorneys for the poor maintained the regulations deprived needy people of "the rudiments of life" as they searched for new opportunities in a new state.

The court decided that prohibition of benefits to residents of less than a year creates two

Nixon Sends Congress Tax Reforms Package

Plan Seeks 5 Per Cent Surtax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon sent Congress today a tax reform package including a one-half per cent cut in the 10 per cent income tax surcharge within a year and removal of two million poor people from all income tax liability.

Nixon, in an eight-fold tax reform package, also proposed immediate repeal of the 7 per cent investment tax credit.

Changing his position on a one-year tax extension of the surtax, Nixon proposed that it apply in full only until Jan. 1, 1970 and after that be cut to 5 per cent.

"If economic and fiscal conditions permit," he said, "we can look forward to elimination of the remaining surtax on June 30, 1970."

The reform package, which Nixon's statement called "long overdue," also includes a tax-rich provision to assure that the affluent pay some tax despite their ability to use deductions.

The new "minimum income tax" would set a 50 per cent limit on the use of the major tax preferences that are subject to change by law.

"This limit on tax preferences," Nixon's message said, "would be a major step toward assuring that all Americans bear their fair share of the federal tax burden."

At the other end of the income scale, the President said, the "low income allowance will remove an estimated 2.2 million lower income families from the tax rolls and assure that families in poverty pay no federal income tax."

The message said a family of 4 would pay no income tax on income below $3,500; a married couple with $3,500 income would pay nothing, instead of the $100 they now pay; single persons, students and others who earn up to $1,700 in taxable income and now pay $117 in tax, would pay nothing.

The recommended repeal of the 7 per cent investment tax credit was a reversal of the Nixon administration's position. The change was made because the tax credit, a stimulant to business investment in new plant and equipment, has been widely criticized as fueling the flames of inflation.

The President announced also that he is asking Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy for a complete review of the entire federal tax system.

The recommendations should be in hand by next November 30, Nixon said. This would permit submission of legislative recommendations for basic changes to the new session of Congress in January.

Meanwhile, Nixon called on Congress to "take important first steps in tax reform legislation during this session." He listed these:

—"Much stricter surveillance" on tax exempt organizations, including private foundations.

—Curbing of the practice of many corporations of breaking their business up into multiple subsidiaries and affiliated com-

Vernon Police Probe Woman's Fiery Death

A 23-year-old woman was found dead this morning after a fire in a Rockville apartment. Police said this afternoon that an autopsy has disclosed stab wounds on her chest.

The woman was identified as Mrs. Anne L. Duprey of 18-A Regan Court in the Imperial Arms Apartments.

The body of the woman was found in bed after firemen responded to an alarm shortly after 8 a.m. Also found nearby was a knife and a can of combustible fluid.

The fire destroyed most of the bed, burning through the mattress to the floor. The walls of the bedroom in the 2 1/2-room apartment were also damaged. The rest of the apartment, though, sustained only smoke damage.

Firemen were notified after a neighbor noticed smoke pouring from the apartment.

The stab wounds were discovered at an autopsy performed late this morning at Rockville General Hospital.

Dr. Francis Burke, the medical examiner, attributed death to third degree burns, smoke inhalation and the stab wounds which, he said, caused pulmonary hemorrhage.

Early this afternoon, Vernon Police Chief Edmund Dwyer was conferring at the Vernon station with State Police Maj. Samuel Rome. Chief Dwyer declined to say more than that investigation was continuing.

The woman's husband, John Duprey, 26, was notified at work of his wife's death. The couple moved to Vernon last year from

Mrs. Sirhan Takes Stand For Defense

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The defense called but one witness as the penalty phase of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan's murder trial began Monday—his mother—and asked her but one question: "In his entire life before this shooting had Sirhan Sirhan at any time been in trouble with the law?"

Mary Sirhan, 56, looked directly at the jury which will decide whether her son dies for the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, and said:

"He has never been... this is because I raised him up on the law of God and His love."

The chief defense attorney, Grant B. Cooper, then startled the court by saying: "That's all we have, your honor."

The prosecution called no witnesses for penalty testimony.

The jury—the same one that convicted the 23-year-old Jordanian of first-degree murder last week—was to begin weighing whether the penalty should be death or life in prison after hearing brief arguments from defense and prosecution.

Sirhan looked cheerful and ohwed gum as he entered court, pausing to autograph an artist's sketch of him.

Mrs. Sirhan, only 4 feet 11 and looking careworn, wore a blue suit with a white blouse and testified with composure.

Whichever penalty the jury imposes, it will be a long time before Sirhan's future finally is determined.

The jury, which spent the Force of 23 Ships Protecting Planes

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 23-ship task force including four American aircraft carriers has been formed to back up President Nixon's pledge to protect reconnaissance planes operating in the Sea of Japan, the Pentagon disclosed today.

It was the first official word of the scope of a U.S. naval armada formed for deployment in the Sea of Japan in response to North Korea's shooting down of an unarmed EC121 aircraft one week ago.

Daniel Z. Henkin, the Pentagon's chief spokesman, told reporters the new Task Force 71 has been activated by the Pacific fleet and is under the command of Rear Adm. Malcolm

W. Cagle of Grand Junction, Colo.

Along with the four carriers, which will be able to provide jet fighter protection for future reconnaissance flights, are three cruisers and 16 destroyers.

"We will not go into any details concerning the operations..." Henkin said. But he said he would name the ships.

Asked whether the EC121 flights have resumed, Henkin said he could not get into that operation aspect either.

The task force carriers include the Enterprise, Ticonderoga, Ranger and Hornet. The cruisers include the Chicago, Oklahoma City and the St. Paul.

Cornell President Vows Law, Order

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP) — Cornell University President James A. Perkins today pledged a series of measures aimed at bringing "law and order and stability" to the campus, then declared a "situation of emergency."

Perkins moved to gather more control of campus happenings in the wake of a 36-hour occupation by gun-carrying Negro students who had occupied the campus student union building.

Perkins said the "situation of emergency" would extend until further notice.

Perkins earlier had issued a statement on the campus radio station, saying no more guns would be allowed on the campus. "The business of occupying buildings as a way of doing business must cease."

He said he was setting extraordinary powers "in the hope more disastrous sections may be avoided."

Perkins called for a 3 p.m. meeting of everyone on Cornell—the 14,000 students, thousands of faculty and staff—for Barton Hall. Perkins said he would address the meeting.

Some 100 Negroes, carrying rifles and shotguns and wearing bandoliers of ammunition, marched out of Willard Straight Hall, the student union building, Sunday afternoon. The Negroes had occupied the hall for 36 hours.

Perkins said the presence of guns on the campus spurred the administration to take emergency measures. "This cannot be repeated," he said.

Perkins said any student found carrying a gun would be suspended from school. Nonstudents, he said, would be arrested.

He said any organization which promotes occupation of school buildings will be disbanded.

Police had representatives on campus to augment the 30-man campus security force. The added police, he said, would make sure that regulations are enforced.

The 100 Negroes marched in

Another Protest Begun at Harvard

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — For the second time in as many weeks, a group of student militants began a sit-in today in Harvard's University Hall, the school's main administration building.

Initial indications were that about 50 persons were involved in the sit-in. An estimated 1,000 young people milled about outside in Harvard Yard.

There was no violence. The protesters had no difficulty gaining access to the building.

About a dozen of them marched inside first through an unlocked door, then opened all the other doors and shouted for those outside to join them.

A few did—but the vast majority began chanting: "Don't go in, don't go in..."

Four campus policemen were outside the building earlier, but no police were in evidence when the sit-in began.

The new sit-in followed by three days a mass rally at Harvard Stadium at which nearly 4,000 students voted to end a week-old boycott of classes.

But despite the vote, the more militant sit-iners decided to pursue their own course, further underlining a list of demands.

More than 800 members of the Students for a Democratic Society, SDS, voted Sunday night to occupy the hall from noon to 5 p.m. until it closes at 5 p.m.

"Our effect will be... to make our demands the business of the day, to make normal business impossible," the SDS said in a resolution.

A more militant faction of the student group urged students to form a "militant picket line" around the hall to prevent deans from entering their office, and routing them if they managed to get into the building.

The Association of African and Afro-American students said it would call for a continued boycott of classes.

The strike was called originally to protest Harvard President Nathan M. Pusey's summoning of police to clear demonstrators from University Hall. The demonstrators were demanding, among other things, an end to ROTC.

The school's top governing body, the Harvard Corporation, issued a statement Friday afternoon.

Nixon Picks Congressman As OEO Chief

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon today named Rep. Donald Rumsfeld of Illinois to head the administration's anti-poverty program.

Rumsfeld, 38, is to become both director of the Office of Economic Opportunity and an assistant to the President with Cabinet rank.

Rumsfeld, a Republican, plans to resign his Congress seat when he is confirmed by the Senate in the OEO post. He will be paid the salary of a presidential assistant, $42,500, the White House said.

DONALD RUMSFELD

President Nixon made the announcement in the Roosevelt Room of the White House and said in a statement that Rumsfeld is "one of the most dynamic young members of Congress."

He called Rumsfeld's decision to give up his congressional seat an act of "unusual courage and great dedication." Nixon said it reminded him of his decision, made at the same age 38 in 1949, when he decided to give up

Wheeler Asked To Continue in Pentagon Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration wants Army Gen. Earle G. Wheeler to remain on for a sixth straight year as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Pentagon disclosed Monday.

Congress has been sent a proposed joint resolution which would allow Wheeler to continue in the post for another year until July, 1970.

Wheeler got an extended appointment of one year last July after having served the usual pair of two-year tours as top military man in the Pentagon.

The Pentagon made public a letter from Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird to House

Called After Weekend Rioting British Troops Guard Key Spots in Belfast

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — British troops guarded key installations against sabotage today after weekend bomb blasts rocked Northern Ireland and rioting scarred the city of Londonderry.

The British army has about 6,000 troops stationed in Northern Ireland. They were under orders not to intervene in any civil disorders, leaving anti-riot duties to the police. The 5,000-man Royal Ulster Constabulary was reinforced by 1,000 special reservists and another 1,000 were to be called up, officials said.

Prime Minister Terence O'Neill called on the British army for help Sunday night after explosions crippled Belfast's power and water facilities and a series of firebombings left nine city post offices and a bus station blazing.

The bombings were believed to be politically motivated, protesting the division of Ireland and Northern Ireland's membership in the United Kingdom. The Londonderry riots were sparked by religious feuding, aggravated by charges of police brutality.

Two days of rioting in that city left an estimated 200 persons injured—110 Saturday and 190 Sunday. The official casualty toll listed 180 policemen and 79 civilians hospitalized.

Only Prisoner in Spandau Prison

Rudolf Hess At 75: A Man Alone

By HUBERT J. ERB
Associated Press Writer

BERLIN (AP) — Inside Spandau Prison there is a coffin and a Luftwaffe captain's flying suit, complete with awastika, helmet and boots. Both belong to Rudolf Hess, the World War II ally's $200,000-a-year prisoner and one of the loneliest men on earth.

Hitler's deputy fuhrer won't talk about the day he wore the flying suit or his mysterious political past. His chance of being freed is slim. All that seems to be left is the waiting coffin.

The former No. 2 Nazi is 75 this week. It is his 25th year in prison, his third in virtual solitary confinement. But the man who has never renounced Adolf Hitler shows no sign of breaking.

Hess' shoulders are stooped, but his 6-foot, 160-pound frame moves briskly with a soldier's gait on his daily walks in the prison yard. His once-black hair has receded. His bushy eyebrows are flecked with gray, covering deep-set, piercing blue eyes.

Hess' voice is still firm, and he is said to be fully conscious of the significance of his position as a lone prisoner held captive by the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union in a prison built for 600 men. He costs the Big Four $200,000 a year.

Weather permitting, Hess walks in the garden of the 19th century prison mornings and afternoons. He has worn a rut in the open space, which measures 40 yards wide and 125 yards long.

It is possible to tell when Hess will make his walks by the birds, his only companions. Twice a day crows, pigeons and songbirds of many hues wait for the old man to arrive bearing a paper bag of crumbs.

Hess has refused to work in prison, scorning even garden work. He also has refused to see his family, claiming he is innocent, is not a criminal and does not want them to see him in prison.

He has only his guards to talk to, many of whom have been in Spandau as long as him. Hess talks mainly about three things: his health, prison conditions and the weather. He has been known to curse "this rotten German climate" and talk of the sun and warmth of Alexandria, Egypt, where he was born on April 26, 1894.

The soldiers who guard Hess dislike the duty because it is lonely, boring and, in winter, bitterly cold. The guarding rotations at Spandau alternate each month. In April it is always the Americans' turn, and Hess usually receives a cake on his birthday. During the American month he also is said to get pretty much what he wants in the way of books, cigarettes and brandy.

The frightening thing about this is that there is really no determination of which assessment may be the more nearly correct. This means, we are afraid, that if another similar war were to start tomorrow, we would not really have any alternative guidance to fall back upon.

A Thought for Today

From all that the scriptures tell us, Jesus is not shown as loving death. Rather, the miracle he performed above a low and respect for life, in comfort and in a friend on the death of a loved one, we sometimes find ourselves assuring him that the person is happy now and at peace.

Fenn Dean of Faculty At Community College

Robert H. Fenn, 49, of 91 E. Middle Tpke., has returned to Manchester Community College as acting dean of faculty after a seven-month assignment as associate academic officer for Connecticut's eight regional community colleges.

An acting dean, he will be responsible for general faculty affairs including recruitment of staff, promotion, and evaluation. He will also work on curriculum planning, development, and review.

Fenn has BS and MA degrees from Trinity College. He joined the MCC faculty as part-time instructor in 1963, when the college opened under the Manchester Board of Education. In 1964, he left his full-time position at Manchester High School, where he had been a biology teacher for 10 years, to become associate professor of biology and chairman of the science department at MCC.

In 1967, Fenn was named director of the division of arts and sciences. He was promoted to the position he held when he left the campus seven months ago. From 1968-69, he was a part-time biology instructor in the University of Hartford's evening division.

In 1964, he attended the sixth annual Yale University summer institute for teachers of biology, chemistry, mathematics, and physics on a National Science Foundation grant.

Fenn planned and directed two week-long summer institutes, the first of their kind, held at Wesleyan University for the orientation and benefit of the combined faculties and administration of state community colleges.

He is a founder, director, and treasurer of the MCC Foundation, Inc., which receives funds

Driver Still in Critical Condition

Michael E. Heffron, 18, of 91 E. Middle Tpke., the passenger in this car, is still in critical condition at Hartford Hospital this morning. Heffron was injured Friday night when the car he was in hit a utility pole as it was rounding a curve on the car by his legs and had to be removed by town firemen. A Hartford Hospital spokesman said this morning that his condition has not improved. The driver of the car, William Brown, 16, of 317 Tolland Tpke., also was injured but he was not hospitalized.

South Windsor Education Budget Cut $148,000 by Council

The school system will have to get along with $148,478 less than the Board of Education thinks it needs if the Town Council has its way with the proposed school budget.

According to Mayor Howard E. Fitts, the Board of Education submitted a figure of $4,315,250 to the Town Council as a budget total for next year. This appears most appropriate since the Council should be less than qualified than the Board of Education to discuss the use of the budget on an item by item basis.

"This proposal," said Fitts, "is not the final decision of the Town Council, but contains the figures and approach agreed upon by the majority of the Town Council as a proposal for public hearing and discussion at the April 28."

In arriving at budget total the council, according to Fitts, did not use a line-by-line approach, but worked from an established base figure for "program based" on last year's budget. The council added extra items, such as utilities, social security and insurance costs, plus transportation and teacher salary increase expenses, he said.

To these figures, according to Fitts, the council added an increase to reflect inflation, an increase for additional pupils and an increase to offset the previous year's cuts.

Of the total, cut from the Board of Education budget, $84,896 represents cuts in "program" $1,600 for one new teacher position eliminated by

The day Mrs. Bloom was burned at the steak

... was the day she went out and bought a new self-cleaning gas oven. No longer would Mrs. Morris Bloom of Blue Hills Avenue, Hartford, have to put up with the rubbing and scraping of spattering, sputtering foods. No longer would she have to clean up the baked-on grease and smoke on the inside of the oven.

Now, her husband and all the children have better meals and a calmer mother. Better meals because smokeless broiling with gas seals in all the flavor and juices of the meat. A calmer mother because Mrs. Bloom can now clean her gas oven automatically and cheaper and faster than any other self-cleaning oven can... and that's a fact. If you'd like to have more information about a self-cleaning gas oven, contact your gas appliance dealer or call GNG in Hartford at 525-0111 or in New Britain at 223-2774.

Tolland Taxpayers Facing 19-Mill Tax Hike

Tolland taxpayers face a 19 mill hike in their local property taxes if all requested budget items are approved, Board of Finance Chairman Howard Wolberger predicted today.

The 19-mill boost would bring the local property tax to 75 mills, compared to the present 56 mills.

Expressing concern over the high mill rate indicated by the proposed budget, Wolberger urged taxpayers to attend tonight's public hearing on the budget, set for 6 o'clock in the 180th Memorial School gym.

In spite of the greater than normal increase in the Grand List to $24,067,470, a stable tax rate of 75 mills, he stated, is inevitable, if state and federal grants from the state.

The finance board will welcome suggestions from taxpayers. These suggestions will be considered by the finance board in determining which services or expenses if any are to be curtailed or limited.

The finance board arrived at the 19-mill increase after completing its review of budget requests Thursday night.

The budget requests submitted by the various boards and committees and the school system total $2,500,000, or 23 per cent above last year's $2,032,000.

The Board of Selectmen's budget increased by 18 per cent with a total request of $752,438 compared to $637,721 last year.

The Board of Education's budget increased by 35 per cent, with a requested budget of $1,858,332 compared to $1,369,278 last year.

Members of the Board of Selectmen's budget included: Police, $100,000; Fire, $100,000; Public Works, $100,000; Health, $100,000; and other departments.

Dempsey Given Plan for Schools

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — A state task force appointed in January to study the state of education has given Gov. John Dempsey recommendations for four major programs.

The task force also recommended rejection of a bill now before the General Assembly that would require local school districts to hold referendum elections before approving inter-community busing projects.

Joan Balfe Selected As Miss Manchester

Two overcame with awe in the present for a bus drum say anything except "I don't believe it" was the state of the winner of the first annual Manchester Joyce's Miss Manchester pageant Saturday night. A crowd of 680 at Bailey Auditorium in Manchester High School witnessed the crowning of Joan Marilyn Balfe, 26, of Trumbull. Miss Balfe, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert S. Balfe, is a junior at Eastern Connecticut State College. Her winning awards included a $250 scholarship and a trophy presented to her by Mayor Nathan Agostinelli. Miss Balfe will go on to compete in the Miss Connecticut pageant July 19 through 22 in Southington where she will compete with 25 other Connecticut girls who will have won similar preliminary competitions. The ultimate goal of the pageant is the Miss America contest in Atlantic City, Md., in the fall.

Baseball World Awaits Final Outcome After RSox Shocked Fans with Trade

MOD STYLE CONFERENCE—Ken Harrelson, attired in multi-colored slacks and yellow sweater, stresses point during press conference in Boston yesterday when he announced he would retire from baseball rather than go from Boston to Cleveland in a trade. Listening at the right is Atty. Bob Woolf.

BOSTON (AP)—The baseball world awaited the final outcome today after the Boston Red Sox shocked their fans by trading popular Ken Harrelson and The Hawk responded by shocking everyone by retiring from the game.

Trade of the beleaguered, mod-dressed outfielder—first baseman to the Cleveland Indians produced the biggest news item in the baseball world today. Many of them pleaded Fenway Park benches carrying stags and chanting "We want the Hawk" as the Red Sox defeated the Indians in the wintup of a weekend series.

Meanwhile, all of the players involved in the deal were kept out of action at the request of American League president Joe Cronin pending final disposition of the case.

Harrelson, 27, whose flamboyant personality and athletic contrast with his tatted right arm had captivated the whole city, said in announcing his retirement Sunday that it would cost him between $600,000 and $750,000 in lost business opportunities to leave Boston.

"It was just not economically feasible," he told a news conference at the office of his attorney, Bob Woolf.

The trade, announced Saturday, sent Harrelson and left-handed pitcher Dick Ellsworth and Jim Frazier to Cleveland for catcher Joe Ausoski and right-handed pitcher Tommy Blanton and Vincente Roman.

There was no immediate announcement from the league or commissioner's office.

Gabe Paul, president and general manager of the Indians, said he would like to see the trade consummated. Paul said he could not answer the question of whether there was any thought of working out another deal with the Red Sox, but added that Harrelson was "the key" to equalizing the deal.

Harrelson, the 1968 American League runner batted in leader, said his decision would have been the same had he been traded to any other club.

"It's simply a business thing. I have four children to take care of," he said as he addressed newsmen in one of his many mod outfits, complete with multi-colored slacks, a yellow sweater with "The Hawk" emblazoned on it.

"It's very, very possible I have played my last year of baseball—at 37 years old," he said. "I hate to end things about the way I'm just getting into my prime at 37. I just really can't believe it—the Hawk sitting here open announcing his retirement."

Harrelson, signed by the Red Sox in 1967 after his controversial release by Kansas City in a dispute with owner Charles Finley, hit 32 homers and drove in 109 runs in his first full season deal with the Red Sox, but added that Harrelson was "the key" to equalizing the deal.

Hawk Hardly Said Goodbye When Yazoo Kid Produced

NEW YORK (AP)—The Hawk had hardly said goodbye when the Yazoo Kid made a bid for the replacement.

Rookie Gerry Moses knocked in five runs—four with a grand slam homer—powered Boston to a 6-4 victory over the Cleveland Indians Sunday.

The 6-foot-3, 205-pound catcher from Yazoo City, Miss., unleashed his production just as the Yankees' season began. Harrelson announced he would rather give up baseball than deal to Cleveland to complete Saturday's six-man deal.

In other American League games, New York rookie pitcher Burbach made his first major league victory a 2-0 success over Detroit, after the Tigers won the first game of a double-header, 2-1, Chicago checked Seattle 2-2 and 13-1 thanks to a pair of timely homers by Bill Melton; Minnesota socked California 12-1; Kansas City trimmed Oakland 7-5, after dropping the opener of a double-header, 5-1, and Baltimore defeated Washington 2-1 before losing 8-2.

but it was kind of slow getting there." Joe Peptone's homer gave the Yankees a 2-1 lead in the sixth inning of the first game, but the Tigers whipped that out with a four-run seventh, trimmed by Norm Cash's two-run homer.

Meanwhile, rookie right-hander Ray Jarvis yielded only two hits after coming in relief in the 10th inning.

"But what was going on on the field was overshadowed by reports from some fans, miffed over the Red Sox' attempt to deal off the popular Hawk."

Several fans carried signs protesting the trade and chanted "We want the Hawk" throughout the game.

In request of the American League office, the other five players involved in the trade sat out Sunday's games, pending some sort of a settlement.

YANKS-TIGERS—Minnesota's Dave Rowell slid his first home run of the season, a 1-0 victory over the Yankees, despite playing with a bad cold and a fever during the game played in intermittent drizzles and gusting winds.

"The Twins backed him with a 14-hit attack. Tony Oliva stretched his hitting streak to eight games with his third homer and also singled in a run. Harmon Killebrew had a three-RHBs with a double and a single and Rowell helped out with two hits, including a run-scoring triple.

It was the sixth straight loss for the Angels.

SENATORS - ORIOLES—Frank Bertina and Bob Humphreys each gave the Orioles Baltimore on seven hits after Mark Belanger's two-run homer in the fourth inning. In the opener, Wayne Comer's leadoff homer in the sixth proved to be the key as the Senators won their first game since a 2-2 tie, setting the stage for Melton's sixth inning clincher.

TWINS - ANGLES—Minnesota's Dave Rowell slid his first home run of the season, a 1-0 victory over the Yankees, despite playing with a bad cold and a fever during the game played in intermittent drizzles and gusting winds.

THOMPSON SPEEDWAY—Opening the 1968 official NASCAR racing season Sunday was veteran stock car driver Fred Dishon of Westfield, N. J. He took over the lead on the 21st lap, holding off the challenge of 1968 modified champion Carl 'Bugs' Stevens, to take the 50-lap opening event. More than 6,000 fans viewed the action. Manchester finished third and Jerry Cook of Rome, N. Y., took fourth. The race will continue at Westfield until late October.

RIVERSIDE SPEEDWAY—Once again the weatherman didn't like the racing situation at Ed Carroll's fifth mile oval in Massachusetts. Rain all day caused the third cancellation in rain racing starts. The opening two starts were moved and rained out, a twin 50-lapper followed with Johnny Lubo and Don Spazano winning the feature events. This past weekend the Expo staged a doubleheader and track officials called the racing program once again.

Blues Await Winner Of Bruins' Series

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Blues will await the outcome of the Stanley Cup playoff games, the St. Louis Blues today await the final National Hockey League series.

The Blues who lost to Montreal four straight a year ago, wiped out Philadelphia and Los Angeles to win the West Division playoffs this time.

"The rest before the Los Angeles series really helps a lot," Kings owner Jack Kent Cooke said. "Now we'll have another week's rest."

The Kings scored the opening goal before Terry Gray, and general manager Larry Regean said the situation will be assessed in the interim.

Rumors are that Kelly won't be rehired. He held only "I'm that I-10 lead held up about 10 minutes before Terry Gray scored for the Blues and the period ended 1-1.

"I think we got a good idea from that first goal of ours," Veterans Eddie Westfall, teamed with Derek Sanderson as St. Louis scored twice in the penalty killers, rebounded a second stanza with Ted Berens. Sanderson slap shot and bowled over defenseman Jacques Laperriere and goalie Rogatien Veitch for the first score, and Jacques Lemieux tied it for the Bruins ahead to Stanley.

Chamille Henry tallied in the third period on a power play by Jean-Pierre Giguere, who had scored three times before Terry Gray scored for the Blues and the period ended 1-1.

The decisive goal came when Westfall set up Bobby Orr for a 1:15 of the final period. Trullin's this year. Last it ing 3-1, Montreal pulled Veitch and Serge Savard in a shot second half with one minute to go, but the Bruins held on.

The rugged, action-packed series now shifts back to Montreal for the fifth game Tuesday with two goals white night.

Baylor Snaps Out of Slump And Lakers Beat Atlanta

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Lakers snapped out of their slump today by beating the Atlanta Braves 107-98.

Baylor had averaged just 12.2 points in this season's playoff games against San Francisco and Atlanta.

"This could be the key for them to go all the way," Gustin added. "The Boston-Los Angeles series should be well balanced and will be highly contested."

Atlanta trailed by 17 points with 8:33 left in the third quarter. Baylor then came on and actually moved into an 87-68 lead at the half. Baylor against a single free throw by Zelmo Beaty put the Lakers in the lead.

At that point, Chamberlain blocked three straight Hawk field goal attempts and thwarted the hopes of a successful comeback.

Beatty wound up with 30 points matching Baylor's 26 in the final stanza. Bill Bridges hit for 26 and Lou Hudson for 21 in the losing cause.

End of Tradition Likely For Finish of Marathon

BOSTON (AP)—The start of the marathon paved the way for a tradition, the serving of beef stew at the finish of the 26-mile, 385-yard run from Hopkinton.

In another year, we might have to do away with the beef stew at the finish because we simply don't have the facilities to handle all these people," BAA Director Will Cloney said as he looked at a list of 1,360 entrants, an all-time high.

"Only a few years ago it was a big deal if the marathon drew 200 entrants," Cloney said. "Now it's a terrible problem because of the logistic problems of things as transportation of runners to the starting point, transporting of belongings to the finish and physical exams pose a tremendous problem."

A human stampede of about 2,000 legitimate distance runners and jokers out to win a medal and last year, when every year since 1964 except in 1957 when Johnny (The Younger) Kelly of Groton, Conn., captured the solid gold medal and last year, when Alan Burfoot, then a Wesleyan University senior, was crowned with the laurel wreath and BAA to concentrate on the Olympic Marathon.

As usual, the Japanese, back after a year's absence, were favored to capture top honors. Sons of Nippo finished 13-8-5-6 in 1967 and 1-2-3 the next year.

Despite the traffic jam at the school teacher, finished 19th last year and down's whom to be better than that. Now, Burfoot now also a school teacher in the best runners to the field. Proven marathons were moved to the front to avoid a possible trampling.

Even in top condition, Burfoot would appear to be outclassed. He won in 2 hours, 22 minutes, 17 seconds, a comparatively slow time, a year ago when most foreign stars passed up the BAA to concentrate on the Olympic Marathon.

Rebuilding Year with Rhum

Getting off to a poor start last year, second will also be getting into the winning column in Rhum, with freshman Guy Chabouis in the Charter Open Conference, Rhum will be the star of the year. Rhum is coached by a local man, Mike Zotta. His co-captain is Paul Condorino and Jim Tymon. Blazing up the situation at the school Zotta said that the Rhum team is in the best of health and the year doesn't give up once it is in the air. Our defense is beginning to get into shape and our hitting is getting better. Our sophomore will be a young hot hitter with plenty of future ball players in the making.

"At the different positions we are pretty impressive with the Rhum team. All three of these boys will see action not only as a pitcher but in other positions. Catcher Steve Robbin will handle the chores with backup man Barry Finny in the field. Finny is a sign up for all boys Wednesday.

Simmons, Condit Tie in Shooting

THE MANCHESTER SPORTSMAN ASSN. took advantage of beautiful weather Sunday as 30 shooters turned out to watch Harry Simmons and John Condit tie perfect scores of 20 in the third round of shooting.
