Taxicab Fare Hike Allowed By State PUC

The East Hartford Cab Co., which operates 15 cabs in Manchester and East Hartford, has been granted partial approval of its request to increase fares. The permission was granted by the Public Utilities Commission Friday. A public hearing was held May 8 in Hartford. Nobody appeared in opposition to the increase.

The new rates will go into effect 10 days after the East Hartford Cab Co. gives proper notice to the public. Under the new rates, the fare will be 95 cents for the first quarter mile (it is now 80 cents), or for the first one minute of waiting time (it is now one and one-fourth minutes).

The existing 10-cent charge for each additional quarter mile will remain unchanged, but the amount of waiting time will be reduced from one and one-fourth minutes to one minute. There will continue to be no charge for extra passengers.

The cab company has asked for rates of 60 cents for the first one-fifth mile, and 10 cents for each additional one-fifth mile. These requests were denied. The PUC's decision was on the basis that the existing rates are "less than can be regarded as just and reasonable, and higher earnings are necessary to provide safe and adequate taxicab service."

Police Seek Attorney Kunstler On Assault Charge After Fight

TORONTO (AP) — Police said a warrant was sworn out early today against Chicago lawyer William Kunstler whom the right-wing Edmund Burke Society said struck one of its members. F. Paul Fromm, 21, a student at the University of Toronto where Kunstler was scheduled to speak, was carried unconscious from steps leading to the stage after fighting broke out at Convocation Hall at the university Monday night. Fromm later was reported in satisfactory condition by officials of Toronto General Hospital. Police said they have been unable to find Kunstler to serve the warrant, based on a private complaint filed by a student. A spokesman for the society said Kunstler's warrant is on a charge of assault. The public relations officer of the society, Jeff Goodall, said Kunstler was on the side of the head with a glass water pitcher. Goodall gave this version of the fight. About 20 members of the Edmund Burke Society were at the meeting. When about 20 members of the society were arrested for possession of heroin, a total of 123 suspects were picked up in the 10 cities. The "No man" who brought the one-cut heroin from New York to Hartford and Bridgeport is still at large, federal agents said. Fromm, a founder of the society, bounded toward the stage, followed by a bodyguard, Alan Overfield. Fromm took over the microphone and poured a glass of water over the lecturer. When Kunstler, smiling, poured the contents of a pitcher over Fromm's head. The student stepped back and someone stepped between them. Overfield went to Fromm's aid and the audience converged on the pair. Seconds later Fromm was lying unconscious on the steps and his followers carried him out. Fromm fell down, unconscious. Goodall said, "Some people started kicking him." The student was taken to Toronto General Hospital, was X-rayed and was reported in satisfactory condition. Cooling Opposition Justices Bicker Under Strain As Top Court Term Nears End

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court term is nearing an end and evident strain is being felt among the justices. Black fired back at Harlan that if anything would dilute the Bill of Rights it would be Harlan's "shock the conscience" measure. That is, Black said, Harlan would decide cases "not on the basis of the Constitution but on the basis of his own notions of 'fair' and 'decency'." In a second opinion, Black attacked the reasoning set forth by White and approved by Justices William J. Brennan Jr. and Thurgood Marshall in guaranteeing a jury trial when defendants could be sent to prison for more than six months. Harlan and Justice Hugo L. Black resumed, meanwhile, their decades-old duel over whether the 14th Amendment made the Bill of Rights provisions binding on the states. Black said there was no need for the 14th Amendment because the majority view in the 1800s. Harlan said the court should "face up to reality" and reconsider Black's doctrine "before the balancing necessary," he said. Black was not the last to be fired on the point, though. Justice Potter Stewart, a skilled man with the needs, called Black's judicial theory "plainly and simply wrong as a matter of fact and law." Stewart said even a schoolboy knows the Bill of Rights was designed as a protection against the power of the federal government and not as a protection against the states. Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, who can be vitriolic, used sarcasm to dissent from a decision that gave indigents the right to a free lawyer at preliminary hearings. "It is indeed an odd business that it has taken this court nearly two centuries to discover a constitutional mandate to have been placed on the law."

Drug Trade Still Grows In Hartford

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Special Agent Peter Gruden said Monday the narcotics trade here recently will have only a short term effect on the narcotics traffic in Hartford. "The short term effect of the raid on a certain group will be dramatic," Gruden said, "but this raid isn't going to dry up narcotics traffic in the city. Gruden, who is in charge of Hartford district office for the U.S. Bureau of Narcotics and Drugs, said the demand for narcotics has grown to the point where the "wholesalers" are setting up plants in Hartford to cut heroin. "A few weeks ago individuals were setting up plants in Hartford to cut heroin. Now, the wholesalers have set up their plants in the area, he said. Six alleged narcotics "wholesalers" were arrested Monday in Hartford as part of a national narcotics raid on 10 cities around the country. A seventh man was arrested for possession of heroin. A total of 123 suspects were picked up in the 10 cities. The "No man" who brought the one-cut heroin from New York to Hartford and Bridgeport is still at large, federal agents said. Another of the local distributors is still being sought on a federal warrant.

Nixon Signs Bill Lowering Voting Age

New York Democrats Vote In Gubernatorial Primary

NEW YORK (AP) — Arthur J. Goldberg wears the favorite label in today's New York Democratic gubernatorial primary. That was the main issue in a vigorous campaign but there was little evidence that it swayed the public and fewer than a million of the state's 2.5 million registered Democrats were expected to vote today. In addition to the Goldberg to 10 p.m. in New York City and Samuels race, Democratic voters had a choice of four candidates for the party's senatorial nomination. The winner will open the regular party organization in making his first bid for elective office. He has stressed support of the Democratic party and conciliator gained during past service as secretary of labor. Supreme Court Justice and U.N. ambassador. Goldberg said his national reputation would make the difference in November when the Democratic candidate takes on the Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. "Samuels cannot defeat Rockefeller," he declared. Samuels, 50, a Cannadaga, N.Y., industrialist, took the opposite view, contending that Rockefeller's endorsement by the Democratic party organization would make him vulnerable to an anti-boss attack by Rockefeller. Cambodian Troops Retreat As Foe Approaches Capital

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops drove a Cambodian battalion from two villages on the Mekong River about 11 miles northeast of Phnom Penh, and the retreating battalion commander said his men had discovered a Soviet rocket that could hit the capital. As the battalion commander, Maj. Ros Preung, said, the river bank at Mook Khampong, four Cambodian T-72 planes attacked the occupied villages with napalm, setting most of the thatch and wood buildings afire. Cambodian troops said the villagers had fled to the south when an estimated 1,000 North Vietnamese attacked early today. Preung said the rocket was six feet long and believed similar to those used by the enemy to hit the South Vietnamese capital Saigon. Preung said his battalion of 400 men was hit from three sides and forced to retreat. They retreated by fishing boats to the west bank. He said four of his men were killed and about 50 wounded, but he claimed they killed at least 30 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese. The Viet Cong and North Vietnamese now have the upper hand along much of the Mekong where it courses down through eastern Cambodia. The only government stronghold left between Mook Khampong and the Laotian border is at Tonic Est and Kompong Cham, 80 miles northeast of Phnom Penh. This new pressure on Phnom Penh from the northeast was coupled with reports that two North Vietnamese regiments were establishing positions around Prey Veng, a provincial capital, and that the national capital, for what may be a major attack. An attack on Prey Veng could be the prelude to the drive on Phnom Penh which military sources in the Cambodian capital expect. South Vietnamese forces in Cambodia reported three clashes with Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops along the border near Tonic Est in which a total of 100 Cambodians and 400 North Vietnamese were killed. The U.S. Command reported three American troops were killed and 15 wounded in skirmishing near the border, the total of 10 enemy soldiers killed. The U.S. Command's figures for total American casualties in Cambodia since April jumped from 312 to 323 killed and from 1,284 to 1,668 wounded. But officials attributed the sharp increase to "adjustments" requested by U.S. and South Vietnamese troops in field reports and other factors. The total of enemy dead claimed by U.S. and South Vietnamese took an unusually large one-day jump, from 1,773 to 1,814. The explanation was the same. Total South Vietnamese casualties in Cambodia operations are 790 killed and 8,641 wounded, the Saigon government said. South Vietnamese forces inside Vietnam reported more hard fighting Monday, with 88 troops and 1,468 wounded. Vietnamese killed in the central highlands and the Mekong Delta. But action slackened again today. The U.S. Command said it had "no information" concerning re-established its Cambodian air force.

Map shows the war swirling around Phnom Penh. Viet Cong pushed Cambodians out of villages in the Phnom Penh area just 11 miles northeast of Phnom Penh. Enemy buildup was reported to the south at Prey Veng. South Viet clashed with foe at Tonic Est. East, Cambodia maintained strong points in the Tonic Est sector. (AP Photofax)

U.S. Planes Extend Indochina Air War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 100 miles inside Cambodia—recently no widening or escalation of the air war deep into Cambodia for the first time with American pilots ranging far and wide in search of enemy targets. In making the disclosure Monday, the Pentagon said U.S. bombing runs have been striking at enemy troop and supply lines nearly every day for almost a week. The Nixon administration has long denied the possibility of bombing enemy supply lines and bases beyond the 21-mile limit established by the President for U.S. ground troops. President Nixon stated June 3 that he would not authorize military activity in Cambodia. Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee last month that American planes operating over Cambodia were not bombing Communist forces fighting Cambodians, the official said. The Cambodians would benefit from the attacks. However, he insisted, the chief purpose of the attacks is to interdict supply lines and not provide air support for Cambodian forces. "Until the new air strikes were announced, enemy targets thought to have been limited to supply lines and troop movements within the sanctuaries along the South Vietnamese border." Pentagon officials insisted the new raids—possibly as deep as

A Happy Start to Summer Vacation

Twelve-year-old Stephen Kittle of South Windsor wasn't going to let the rain spoil his first day of school vacation. At 7:30 a.m. yesterday he went to a neighboring pond and caught his eight-pound carp. It took him about five minutes to reel it in but the worm and the spinning rod and Stephen did his work. The fish was 25 and three-quarters inches long. When Stephen appeared in the doorway of his home at 64 Brook St., all wet and muddy, holding his catch, his mother's surprised reaction was "Boy, that's awful big." Stephen thinks so too. Prince Charles Gets Degree And Surprises His Critics

LONDON (AP) — Prince Charles, Britain's future king, confounded his critics today by taking a bachelor of arts degree in honors at Cambridge University.

Charles, 21, was the target for sarcasm criticism when he entered Cambridge three years ago on what Britain's National Union of Students regarded as low entrance qualifications.

Now Charles has emerged with a second-class degree in history, which is considered a good average result.

"I think it is an extremely good result both from the country's point of view and his own point of view," said his tutor, Dr. Denis Marrin.

"It is the first time that it has been possible for the heir to the throne to live the life of an undergraduate, and he has been able to get the most out of university life," Marrin added.

Consumer Panel Hears Harsh Words on Creditors

WASHINGTON (AP) — A consumer advocate says creditors often use harsh tactics to collect on debts.

David Caplovitz, joined by Ralph Hader and other witnesses, before the National Commission on Consumer Policy Monday, also described other collection practices he said were especially hard on the poor and underemployed.

Under particular attack were garnishment of wages, telephone calls to sweep into ghetto neighborhoods, and small claims courts.

Caplovitz said garnishment of up to 50 percent of an employee's wages is allowed in some states, even though the garnishment is through a court order.

But the most serious flaw of garnishment, Caplovitz said, is that it provides the creditor with a powerful club for forcing debtors to reimburse him, even when he has legitimate defenses.

These prejudgment communications between creditor and debtor, ranging from unfair collection and denial of due process to invasion of privacy, he said.

Wade told the commission that credit cards, now so popular in a nation with a total credit debt of $100 billion, are inflationary.

He said they add to 7 percent of the gross national product and in some cases are preferred to cash.

Harder must now restore Wade's plan to require that the creditor pay the cost of the debt.

Senate Votes To Repeal Tonkin Act

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate voted today to repeal the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin resolution, amid sharp debate over tactics being followed by Republican supporters of President Nixon's Southeast Asia policy.

This is the resolution which President Lyndon B. Johnson used as authority to escalate the war against North Vietnam.

Nixon administration spokesmen have said the resolution is not relevant to present policies.

The Tonkin repeal move, long urged by war critics, came on an amendment by Sen. Robert J. Dole, R-Kan., who brought up the issue Monday as part of an emerging strategy to dispose of all matters dealing with South Vietnam.

The GOP had no state-wide contests.

Another millionaire, Rep. Richard Ottinger, of suburban Westchester County, won four-man race to oppose GOP Sen. Charles McNamara, appointed by Rockefeller to complete the term of the late Robert F. Kennedy.

McNamara, Ottinger, massive spending for television advertising was the main issue.

Returns from 13,161 of the effective attack on Ottinger's environmental problems is going to be more than 50 percent.
