

Doctors' Offices Chamber Target In Break Series

Eight doctors' offices and the Chamber of Commerce office have been broken into in the past two days.

Two doctors' offices at 35 Haynes St. were broken into sometime Wednesday night. The offices were ransacked and an unknown amount of money was taken from a cash box in one of the offices. It was not known whether anything else was missing.

Police said entry was gained by forcing a door which led to both offices with a heavy screwdriver or pinbar.

Another doctor's office at 301 E. Center St. was broken into late last night.

Police were notified by someone in the neighborhood who said he had heard glass breaking in the building. Police arrived but found no sign of a break-in or anything else.

The witness said he saw two men in the rear of the building before the police arrived. He could only say that one was short and fat and the other tall and thin. He said that one man toward Walker St. and another drove away in a car he could not describe.

Five more doctors' offices and the Chamber of Commerce office, all located at 297 E. Center St., were broken into sometime early this morning.

The Chamber of Commerce office was broken into first. Entry was gained through a window which was opened by a crow bar. Between $40 and $50 was taken from the office.

The thief or thieves then left the Chamber of Commerce office through the front door.

The doors of five doctors' offices were then pried open and the offices ransacked.

About $50 was taken from one office, $40 from another and an undetermined amount of petty cash from a third.

The police reported missing from the other two offices.

Stop Signs at New Sites Added as Traffic Grows

Stop signs are being installed in several new locations around town. The announcement came from Police Chief James Reardon.

The intersection of Fern St. and Dartmouth Rd. will be made a three-way stop. Chief Reardon said poor sight lines for cars entering Fern St. and the increased traffic during school hours are the main reasons for the new signs.

Another stop sign is to be installed at the intersections of Porter, Autumn and Parker Sts. The intersections of Brookfield and Durkin Sts. and Ellard and Broad Sts. were made into four-way stops.

Future plans call for the installation of a light at the intersection of Main St. Arroyo St. will be made one way west from this occurs.

A stop sign is also planned for Guard St. and all of the driveways of Manchester Memorial Hospital.

Young Readers To Hold Party

The young people's Moonshot Reading Club of the West Side Branch library will hold a party in the library Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock to mark the end of the summer program.

Mrs. Gladys Stephens, librarian, said about 30 youngsters are enrolled, and 60 have read 10 or more books. Plain certificates will be awarded those who have read 10 books, certificates with a blue seal to those who have read 15, and certificates with a gold seal to those who have read 20 or more.

Refreshments will be served and games played.

Egypt and Jordan—includes a ban on shooting for at least 90 days. It went into effect a week ago. In agreeing to the cease-fire, Jordan stipulated it could not be held responsible for attacks by guerrillas who have efforts by violating the cease-fire.

The Israeli command in Tel Aviv said one Israeli soldier was injured by light arms fire along the border. It did not say whether the fire came from Arab guerrillas or Jordanian army forces.

The Jordanians accused the Israelis Friday of two "violations." The latest Israeli charge, filed Friday with the U.N. Security Council, said the Israelis had moved forward to the Suez Canal.

Nerve Gas Burial Delayed by Winds

SUNNY POINT, N. C. (AP)—An aged Liberty ship loaded with poisonous nerve gas remained in port today, its trip to an ocean burial ground delayed by the swirling winds of a tropical depression.

The Navy had planned today to begin towing the hull to a point in the Atlantic Ocean where it was to be buried on Monday. But Friday night, officials postponed the departure because of the threat posed by the storm bearing down on the Bahamas.

If the operation is not held up by a U.S. Court of Appeals hearing Monday, the ship is to be sunk with its 450,000 gallons of nerve gas north of Cape Kennedy, Fla.

A Navy spokesman reported Friday night the storm was located just south of the Bahamas. The ship is to be sunk with its 450,000 gallons of nerve gas north of Cape Kennedy, Fla.

Nixon Tells Southern Leaders He'll Enforce Integration Law

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Nixon, assuring Southern leaders of an even-handed policy on school desegregation, said he has no intention of waiting for trouble before enforcing the law.

After meeting in New Orleans Friday with federal sponsored citizens committees on desegregation from seven states, Nixon said he believed that leadership in this area requires some preventive action. We are trying to take some preventive action and we are getting magnetic cooperation from dedicated people in seven states involved.

The President was greeted warmly on a motorcade through downtown New Orleans. He offered no new policy in his statements about school desegregation, but it was considered significant that he had not said an audience in the Deep South.

President and Mrs. Nixon and a party of aides returned here Friday night after the day of conferences in New Orleans. "I emphasize this is one people, and we are going to carry out the law that way, not in a punitive way, treating the South as basically a second-class part of the nation," Nixon told news men in relating details of the meeting with Southern leaders.

But, he added, his administration will exercise strong leadership on desegregation "because American flags—and a few Confederate flags—marked the route. There were signs reading 'Nixon Go Home,' 'Nixon for Unrest' and 'Execute all War Protesters.'"

The President at one point jumped atop his limousine to shake hands with the crowd. He urged members of the local advisory committee to use their leadership to prevent possible disruption and unrest accompanying the breakdown of separate school systems.

The President met first with the newly formed citizens' panels from Louisiana. He conferred later with the chairman and vice chairman of units from Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, South Carolina, North Carolina and Arkansas.

Before the two-hour conference on desegregation, Nixon held a briefing on national security problems for Southern newspaper editors.

In the news conference, he urged cooperation of news media in talking of peaceful means of desegregation. Nixon said he was in New Orleans to hear of the successes where men of good will have worked out the law that way, not in a punitive way, treating the South as basically a second-class part of the nation.

The two were the seventh and eighth police men killed along the border since 1966, and the 50th and 60th officers to die on duty since the partition of the island.

Earlier this week, an explosion, and we are going to carry out the law that way, not in a punitive way, treating the South as basically a second-class part of the nation.

South Viet Militiamen Claim Major Victory

BAIGON (AP)—Some 8,000 South Vietnamese militiamen, guided by Viet Cong defectors, and intelligence that the enemy was planning an offensive next month, raided 80 Viet Cong base areas south of Da Nang and claimed one of their biggest victories of the Vietnam war.

The South Viet fighters claimed killing 125 Viet Cong in two days of lightning raids with no air or artillery support. Government losses were put at four killed and 11 wounded.

A high-ranking U.S. adviser said today the enemy dead included a lieutenant colonel, the military province chief of the region stretching from Da Nang 40 miles southward. Three other high Viet Cong officers were believed killed, including the chief political officer.

"I've never experienced anything like this so far planning, coordination and spirit," said the senior American adviser, Lt. Col. M.G. Stafford of Base, Tex.

Small patrols of five to 15 men started in just after Thursday midnight, and larger units moved in at daylight, surprising the Viet Cong.

One raider patrol smashed into the Viet Cong command post for the two provinces south of Da Nang at daylight Friday. The patrol caught 30 Viet Cong eating breakfast and killed 10 of them.

Meanwhile, U.S. B2 bombers pounded North Vietnamese positions on both sides of the Lao-tian and Cambodian borders today in efforts to stem a threat to South Vietnamese forces.

U.S. Marine Convicted In Viet Killings

DA NANG, Vietnam (AP)—An 18-year-old Marine was convicted today of the murder of 18 South Vietnamese women and children in a village southwest of here last Feb. 19 and sentenced to five years in prison.

A jury of three officers and two senior enlisted men returned the verdict after hearing testimony from a former village chief and other witnesses.

The young Marine, the third of four to be tried in this case, was convicted of the murder of 18 South Vietnamese women and children in a village southwest of here last Feb. 19 and sentenced to five years in prison.

Beaches Shut Near Groton After Oil Spill

GROTON, Conn. (AP)—Workers were still trying Friday night to clean up the thick, black oil spilled from a barge near the mouth of the Thames River here earlier in the day.

The oil spill forced the closing of nearby beaches, and long stretches of the old slick spread into Long Island Sound.

The Coast Guard estimated the spill at 800-to-1,000 gallons of heavy industrial oil. Cleanup efforts got underway late Friday morning, but workers were still picking up thick globs of oil on the beach today.

The barge, the Seaboard Connecticut, was tied up at the Hess oil terminal in Groton when the spill occurred. A Hess official said "the cause of the spill was a hole in the hull." The cause of the hole was not determined.

At one point, the slick covered an area some 1,000 yards long and 300 yards wide, but workers have moved the slick back toward the shore.

Stephen Ziskard, city superintendent of parks and recreation in Groton, said "big globs of oil—real black, thick like motor oil"—covered most of the beach.

The young Marine took the jury's verdict with the same as the anniversary of World War II. (See Page Five)

Golf's Big Three Alive and Well, Stockton, Hinson Tied for Lead

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — They keep saying the Big Three is dead," said Gary Player. "Take my word for it, they've never been more alive than today."

The tough, little South African's challenge was spoken as the PGA Championship took on a definite establishment complexion—with a sprinkling of moon-gone into the climactic final two rounds today and Sunday.

"I've always said I'll take Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus anywhere I want any body in the world for any stakes. Nobody's ever taken me up on the bet."

The Big Three is a nickname some contend a misnomer—Player, Nicklaus, Palmer and Player in the 1960s when they were dominating the major championships.

Many observers argue that no present day roll call of golf's greats is complete without Bill Player, Palmer and the PGA.

Casper. Others say the old stars are wearing out and the new stars are coming in.

But here are the game's giants—within two shots of each other and no more than four strokes off the pace—after two rounds of practicing with the 6,002-yard, par-70 Southern Hills course, with only a break-in of 36 holes.

Dave Stockton and Larry Hinson tied for the lead at 141, including one of the day. "I am determined to win the grand slam one more time than I ever did."

Palmer, Nicklaus, Player and Casper were closely bunched and in contention in a major tournament. All four were helplessly out of it in the U.S. Open, won by Britain's Tony Jacklin, and Player failed to make the cut in the British Open, which went to Nicklaus.

"I have been playing miserably," Player said after shooting a 68 Friday, one of the four sub-par rounds of the day. "I lost my game when I flew home this summer and didn't practice."

Player, who has two British Opens, needs a repeat in the PGA and U.S. Open and PGA.

A's Dobson Blanks Baltimore, Angels 4½ Games Behind Twins

NEW YORK (AP) — The 6-foot-4, 200-pound Dobson, now 15-10, after resting in his eighth straight, blanked the Baltimore Orioles for his last win in a row. Dobson brought out Jim "Mudcat" Grant, who gained his 21st save after a year by shutting off the Orioles the rest of the way.

"I thought I should have stayed in," the 29-year-old Dobson said afterward. "You have to come out when you have a pitch like Mudcat in the fourth. He's a real tough pitcher."

Dobson, however, hasn't been mowed down lately. He has a homeless streak of 20 1/3 innings and has given up only one run in his last six outings.

Dobson's last win came on July 7 when he dropped a 4-2 decision to Minnesota.

"I've always been a streak pitcher," said Dobson, who was 15-13 last year with the A's. "But never as hot as I am now."

Other American League action: Boston's Roger Clemens pitched a 4-1 win over the Yankees on Friday night.

AFTERNOON DISASTER—Arnold Palmer after firing a two under par for nine holes in the second round of the PGA Championship, ran into trouble on the 12th hole. Palmer standing in water fires his shot toward the green. He climbs dejectedly up the bank. He had a double bogey six on the hole.

Course Isn't What It Used To Be Old St. Andrews Alters with Time

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland — People and places for them to all stand and television and the modern world, it is not. There again comes Peter Thomson of Australia, five times Open champion to comment:

"I'm not sure if it's the course or the clubs, but I think the course is what's changed."

The 68-year-old Sarason shot 81 in the first two rounds and the only man wearing old-fashioned golf clothes.

Before he played his second and last round, he said: "I don't know you never even got a chance for a one-putt. Some of the guys just behind me were better than me."

Other players who were in the top 10 in the British Open, which went to Nicklaus.

Palmer, Nicklaus, Player and Casper were closely bunched and in contention in a major tournament. All four were helplessly out of it in the U.S. Open, won by Britain's Tony Jacklin, and Player failed to make the cut in the British Open, which went to Nicklaus.

Lions' Steve Owens Makes Debut Chiefs, No Alibis in Defeat, Colts Stage Second Half Rally

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Coach Hank Stram and the Kansas City Chiefs had no alibis today after losing 17-8 nationally televised exhibition football game Friday night to the Baltimore Colts.

"We made too many mistakes," Stram said of his team's 17-8 defeat. "We were sloppy in our fundamentals."

The Chiefs' offense was held to a field goal and a touchdown in the first half. Baltimore's defense was superb.

Stram's reference to throwing the ball away was to six Colt interceptions, three off the ceiling and one thrown away six times and beat a team like Baltimore.

"Defensively, I thought we played well enough to beat any team but you can't throw the ball away six times and beat a team like Baltimore."

Yanks Victors, Close Margin

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees scrubbenies were fooling around one night in Cleveland a couple of months ago when Jake Gibbs made an important discovery.

"I was taking a couple of swings from the right side," Gibbs, who had 100 innings in his career, said.

Dravo was leading 2-1 while it looked like Dick Dravo, the hard-throwing Kansas City right-hander, would be the man wearing the smile.

What happened was that Gibbs, left-handed batter, had opened his stance when he moved to the other side of the plate. "I thought to myself, 'why don't I feel this comfort?'"

"I opened up there and now I feel great," Gibbs said.

The discovery went down along the cotton gin and steamboat but it'll do Gibbs.

Dravo's record was 2-1 with a .693 batting average and a .609 ERA.

Where To Tackle Female? Unanswered ACFL Question

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — "It's at the Kiwanis Bowl when the touchy situation," said Art Neptunes met the Orlando Panthers in a big 210-pound football game.

Other members of the Norfolk team aren't exactly ecstatic that they'll come face to face with the first female player in professional football.

"Definitely being a difficult situation in the dressing room," said Neptunes.

Pat Palinka is a 150-pound blonde from Tampa, Fla., who signed a contract recently with the Orlando Panthers to play as a place holder. She'll hold the ball for the field goal and extra point after a Panther touchdown.

Must Convince Twins Five Decades of Ball, Goal for Early Wynn

MINNEAPOLIS ST. PAUL (AP) — Early Wynn says if he can convince the Minnesota Twins to let him pitch again, he would be able to brag that he has hurled in five decades of major league baseball.

"It's appalling and I think I could do it," said the 50-year-old former Red Sox pitcher.

Wynn, a right-hander who was in the major leagues for 33 years, was last in the major leagues in 1936 with the Boston Braves.

Statewide's Power Bombs St. Joseph's

Statewide unleashed an awesome 26-hit barrage, doubling St. Joseph's of Bristol, 25-6, last night at the Charter Oak Field, in the Silk City-Slowpitch Softball Tournament.

The victory advances the Southern entry to the second round of tournament play which will feature the best teams in the state.

St. Joseph's, a powerhouse in the sport, has won the championship four times in the past decade.

Yaz Hikes Average; B Sox Defeat Twins

BOSTON (AP) — Unfortunately for Carl Yastremzky, the Boston Red Sox are going nowhere in the American League pennant race. If they were, Yaz would be a solid candidate for the MVP award he won in 1967.

Yastremzky walked three times, hit his 32nd homer and lined a single, driving in three runs, in helping the Red Sox win the Minnesota Twins 5-1.

They Are All Going to the Peach Festival

Miss Maria Christina Salazar, who is Miss Manchester 1970, will attend next Friday's Annual Peach Shortcake Festival, to be conducted by the 8th District Fire Department. It will begin at 6 p.m. and will be on the Fire Station grounds, at Main and Hilliard St. Miss Salazar will be present at about 8 p.m. She will draw the door prizes, which have been donated by Manchester Merchants. In the cab of the department's new fire truck is Assistant Fire Chief John Christensen, co-chairman of the Peach Festival. Standing on the running board is Fire Lt. Richard Skoglund, committee treasurer. The Dalmatian is the department's mascot, "Mack." (Herald photo by Silver)

In the morning after some youngsters complained about the sticky mess, and workers were moved in to clear it up.

Zbierski said his department rented equipment to skim the oil off the beach and carry it to the city dump.

H. W. Ward, a swimming instructor and lifeguard at Shenecossett Beach, said he rode a small craft 400 yards offshore and hadn't reached the end of the slick.

"We just painted the boat but when I came back to shore, the bottom of it was pitch black," he said. Ward said the beach "looks like a glue factory."

Mrs. Bernard H. Ames of Groton said she was "ready to weep" when her 8-year-old son fell into the water and was covered with a "black oily substance from head to foot."

Correction

The full names of two Andover Senior Girl Scouts, who will join the Edith Macy Training Center at Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., from Aug. 16 to 22, were inadvertently omitted from a story appearing in yesterday's Herald. The girls are Louise Moe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucas Moe of Wales Rd., and Patricia Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Campbell of Route 87.

Don't Forget To Write

By SOL R. COHEN

A friend of mine bought a major appliance last November. He had a question and a suggestion concerning one of its workings, and wrote to the manufacturer in December, requesting an answer. He didn't receive any.

Last week, with tongue in cheek, he wrote the company, "This is to acknowledge your letter of July 15. Although I am basically in agreement with your recommendation, I don't think it will work."

Several days later, he received the reply, "We can't seem to find a copy of our communication of July 15 to which you refer. Please clarify."

To which my friend replied, "I am glad to help you out. Your letter of July 15 is in reply to my letter of June 8th, in which I asked for the recommendation which you wish clarified."

Back came a letter, "We can't seem to find your letter of June 8th, nor our letter of July 15. Do you wish to repeat their contents?"

This time, my friend wrote, "Your letter of July 15th answered all of my questions regarding your product. Since I can't agree with you, I must assume that there's nothing more you can do. The next time I buy a major appliance, I'll buy a brand other than yours."

Have you ever tried to communicate with someone in authority in a big company? You always get those form letters—"Your communication has been received and has been directed to the proper department for consideration."

The next form letter states, "Please be assured that your communication is receiving consideration." Then, "Please be patient. Your communication will be answered shortly."

Finally, a form letter, "We are sorry to inform you that our policy prevents us from commenting on your communication." Magazine publishing companies have to be crowned as champion something or other. Even as your subscription is expiring (in two or three months), you begin to get those postcards and letters, telling you how much you can save from the newstand price, by renewing your subscription early. The prices get lower and lower, as the postcards and letters get progressively more numerous. Finally, you re-subscribe, grabbing the low figure which you think can't possibly go lower.

The next issue, within the folds of the magazine, you find a postage-paid return postcard, offering subscriptions to new readers at a price several dollars below your price. "If you can't beat them—join them," my friend always says. He returns all self-addressed postcards, but doesn't fill in his name and address.

Town GOP Meets Monday To Endorse Candidates

The Manchester Republican Town Committee meets Monday night to endorse candidates for state representatives in three Assembly Districts, a judge of probate, a registrar of voters, and three justices of the peace. Its meeting will be at 8 p.m., in the Municipal Building Hearing Room.

Certain of endorsement are all of the incumbents—State Rep. Donald Genovese in the 18th Assembly District; Probate Judge John Wallcut; GOP Registrar Fred Peck; and justices of the peace Donald Knoffa, Mrs. Barbara Sasse and York Strangfield.

In addition, the Republicans are expected to endorse Roger Bagley for state representative in the 19th Assembly District, and Mrs. Vivian Ferguson in the 20th Assembly District.

The incumbents in the 19th and 20th Assembly Districts are Democrats—Francis Mahoney in the 19th and N. Charles Boggin in the 20th.

The Democrats will endorse their candidates on Tuesday, also at 8 p.m., but at Manchester High School.

Under local Democratic Party rules, the three candidates for state representative will be endorsed in three separate conventions. Only those town committee members residing in the respective Assembly Districts will vote for the nominee from that particular District.

Consequently, prior to Tuesday night's meeting of the entire Democratic Town Committee, separate meetings will be held the same night by the committee members in each District, also at the high school.

The Republicans do not have the same rule for endorsing candidates for state representative. Theirs are endorsed by the town committee as a whole. The Democrats have only one contest. Mrs. Phyllis Jackson is challenging incumbent State

Rep. Boggin for the nomination in the 20th District.

Hugh Ward, who announced his candidacy several weeks ago, is expected to get the nomination in the 18th District, to oppose incumbent State Rep. Genovese.

Assured of Democratic endorsement are the incumbents—State Rep. Mahoney, in the 20th District; Democratic Registrar Edward Moriarty; and justices of the peace William DeHan, Frederick N. Saffel, Thomas Conran and Albert Vincek.

The Democrats have indicated they will not run a candidate to oppose Judge of Probate Wallcut.

The only contests in November among the Democratic and Republican endorsed candidates will be for the state representative posts.

The judge of probate, the two registrars and the seven justices of the peace will be elected automatically. The Democrats, because a Democratic governor is in office, are allocated four justices. The Republicans are allocated three.

Sturdy Laugh-In Plans New Year Without Goldie

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — NBC's "Laugh-In" has swung into production for its third season, confounding the cynics who predicted it couldn't stand the pace for more than a few shows.

The producers are determined to mend with a half dozen new faces the holes left by the departure of two stalwarts, Goldie Hawn and JoAnne Worley.

While the novelty and shock value of the series has worn off, it has maintained its enormous popularity. It continues to make comedy stars of a lot of young performers.

Judy Carne, fleeing buckets of water and "Sock It To Me," was the first to depart—and last season started on Broadway. This season Goldie will be continuing a promising film career with a head start based on her show-stealing performance in "Cactus Flower." JoAnne is launched on a night club career and has been signed for a number of guest appearances on top variety hours.

Lily Tomlin, a graduate comedienne of the coffee houses, was the shooting star of last season's "Laugh-In," as her smorting Ernestine, the determined telephone operator, caught on. A perceptive satirist who writes most of her own material, Lily will produce five or six new characters this season including a dreadful 5-year-old, Edith Anne; a college girl, Susy Soroty; and "one of those awful loud women who walk into a party and take over."

Originally some nerves were exhibited about Ernestine, whose standard opening was, "Is this the party to whom I am speaking?" After all, Ma Bell is an important NBC client and sometimes corporate sense of humor are on the lean side.

In the case of Ernestine, however, she charmed and amused the brass to a point where Lily was offered a chance at telephone commercials. She declined with sincere regrets.

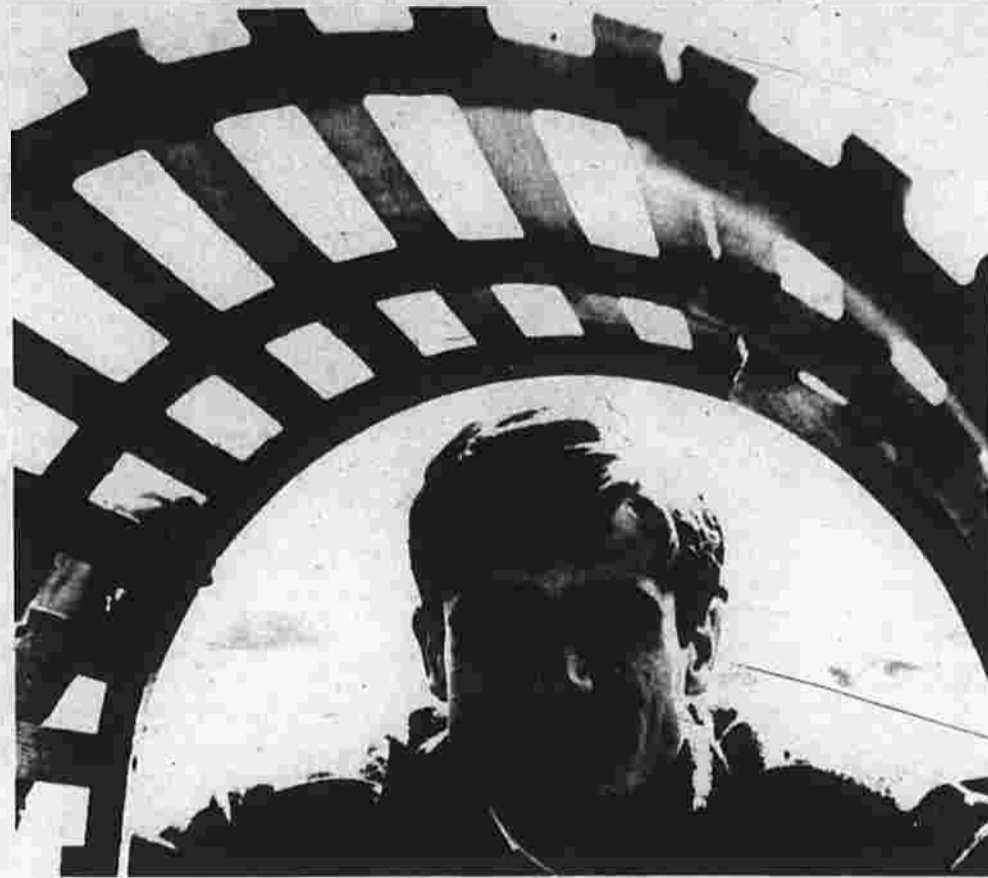

Over a four- or five-year period when Lily was playing small clubs she worked out endless characterizations, including the breathless bit in which she never finishes a sentence while talking in exclamation points.

A slender, pretty girl who looks startlingly like Shirley MacLaine, she is treated unkindly by the TV cameras. The camera tuck on about 15 pounds to a person's appearance, but in Lily's case they add about 15 years to her age.

Lily fled Detroit for a stab at New York show business in 1965 and struggled along by working as a waitress in a luncheonette.

"If you want to experience sheer terror, try being a waitress just before 11:45 when the office mob hits the place," she recalls.

"I finally got an agent and made one commercial," she said. "Then everything stopped. I was flat broke one day and ready to quit when I opened an envelop and found a check for $500. The blessed commercial—after that it kept me going."

Maine's rugged coastline is the backdrop for Channel 24's offering of "A Downeast Smile-In" due Sunday evening at 8:30. Marshall Dodge, featured performer in the Public Broadcasting Service show, pokes his head into an open-ended lobster trap. Maine farms and woods will also be shown in the film.

Men from Shiloh Inherit Bossman Stewart Granger

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Shiloh Ranch has had four owners in nine years, but that doesn't mean the grazing is poor or the water bad on the Medicine Bow spread. It is part of a general face-lifting designed to broaden the appeal of "The Virginian."

Lee J. Cobb, who played the first owner, quit when his contract expired and was succeeded by Charles Bickford. John McIntire became the owner when Bickford was taken ill.

Now, as part of a general reorganization of the 90-minute series, NBC will have Stewart Granger as the fourth ranch owner for the family-style Western which has been renamed "The Men from Shiloh."

NBC is promoting it as a new show, but some familiar faces will be around. James Drury will continue to play the ranch foreman, "The Virginian," even though he has lost the title role. Doug McClure, sporting a large mustache and looking a little older, will still play Trampas, the top hand.

The period of the show has been updated to the 1890s to give the writers a new era for stories.

Two regulars are added as co-stars—Lee Majors, late of "The Big Valley," as a wrangler, and Granger, the bronzed, white haired British film star, plays a retired British colonel. Each of the three younger stars will star in his own productions — three independent crews are working simultaneously—and Granger, who also has his share of stories, will appear in all episodes.

Granger, a breezy, informal man, became an American favorite 20 years ago in his first Hollywood film, "King Solomon's Mines," but in recent years he has lived in Geneva and London.

"I wrote a script for a film and brought it to Hollywood myself," he said during rehearsals this week. "It was a nice old-fashioned sexy story with lots of action. But it didn't have any drugs, naked women, student riots or racial problems. Obviously it would have absolutely no appeal to audiences between 15 and 22—who seem to be the only ones producers believe attend motion pictures these days."

"Anyway, they called and asked me how I'd like to spend 20 weeks making Westerns. I said I would if I could play my character as an Englishman. So here I am, and I must say it is not the most amusing thing in the world trying to turn out one film a week."

"I'm in all of the shows—I have some stories of my own, of course—but I function as the cement that keeps the series together."

Gypsy dancer Leticia Roman plunges into a wild dance in the action-packed film "The Pirates of Tortuga" on the CBS Tuesday Night Movie next week (Aug. 18 at 7:30 p.m.) in color. (re-run)

Yvette: TV Sleuth

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Why after so many years in the movies had Yvette Mimieux decided to become a supersleuth in a TV series?

Miss Mimieux, sitting in the loggia outside a Beverly Hills hotel, said it was not because the movie offers had stopped, as has been the case with some stars.

"Many scripts were coming in and they were godawful," she said, her blue eyes flashing. "They try to justify people running around naked."

"They're practically stag movies and I resent it. So few good films are being made that I thought this would be a good way to reach the public."

In ABC's "Most Deadly Game," she will play a college-trained criminologist named Vanessa, with George Maharis and Ralph Bellamy. Each week the trio solves a bizarre murder.

Miss Mimieux runs a business of importing native products from Haiti and her hobby is, archaeology, which she studied at UCLA. She spent four months in Asia in the spring and was in Cambodia the week before the coup. She spent 13 days at the ruins of Angkor Wat, later occupied by the North Vietnamese.

BEARD CARE

Asked how he cares for the scraggly beard he wears on "Gunsmoke," Ken Curtis, who plays Festus Haggen on the CBS Television Network series, says, "I trim it with dull scissors."

NO STRANGER

Lee Majors, starring next season in NBC-TV's adventure series, "The Men From Shiloh," is no stranger to horses as he was brought up in Kentucky near a Thoroughbred horse farm.
