The Politics Of Welfare

There has been only intermittent hope that the most important domestic proposal of the Nixon Administration—the proposal to reform the nation's system of welfare by adopting the principle of a minimum family income - would be able to escape the snares and pitfalls of

When the proposal was first advanced, it was so unexpected and fresh and original that it seemed, momentarily, to stun all factions into at least a tentative

Then some of Mr. Nixon's own ultraconservative supporters regained their breath and their 19th century courage and became to come out against such a wicked socialistic experiment.

The next burst of hope for the proposal came when some unexpected Democrats came out in favor of it, and helped get it a favorable vote in the House. The Democrats, it then appeared, were beginning to desert the proposal again,

Hausfrau Goes Afield of female equality." The public opinion institute Infas, in a survey conducted last fall, discovered that three fourths of the men questioned said they felt it is "not normal" for women to have careers. But in the face of male prejudice, women are wielding their political weight. There are 43 women parliamentarians among the 518 Bundestag members compared with only 11 women in the U.S. Congress.

6 Shows Get Ax On ABC

NEW YORK (AP) - Six tele vision shows that were intro-duced this fall by ABC will be canceled and replaced by a four new ones in January for a net loss of 21/2 hours of program-

The network said Friday the cutbacks were being taken to make ABC more competitive in the fall season when all three networks will be required by the Federal Communications Commission to reduce prime-time programming 3½ hours a week.

ABC will add an hour variety show starring Pearl Bailey, a half-hour comedy drama, starring Henry Fonda and an hour comedy western starring Pete Duel and Ben Murphy. A fourth show, a half-hour long, will be announced later.

The shows to be dropped are "The Young Rebels," "Silent Force," "Matt Lincoln," "Barefoot In The Park,"
"The Immortal," and "The Most Deadly Game."

Three Networks Go All Out For Viewer's Holiday

It's Santa Claus parades and cranberry sauce in the morning, pigskin and turkey in the afternoon with pilgrims King Arthur thrown in for Thanksgiving Day television

Both Channel 30 and Channel 3 schedule three-hour coverage of holiday parades through major cities as Santa hops across North America.

The parades begin at 9 a.m. and run until noon.

Football begins at noon with the Detroit Tigers host to the Oakland Raiders on Channel 30. Also at noon Channel 3 will have a CBS Special, "Mouse on the Mayflower", an animated cartoon.

At 4 p.m., WTIC - TV will show a delayed color videotape of the annual New Britain High School - Pulaski High School football game. Channel 8 in New Haven will broadcast an NCAA game between Houston and Florida State at Tampa, at 7:30 p.m.

And at 3 p.m. CBS (Channel 3) will show Green Bay at Dallas in a gridiron test.

At 8 p.m. on Channel 3, CBS will have the film "Oklahoma" starting at 8 p.m. and running

The NBC Television Network will provide a live colorcast of the 44th annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City, including exclusive coverage of the special entertainment in Herald Square.

Lorne Greene, Betty White and Joe Garagiola will be the hosting team of this traditional event attracting millions of families across the country.

Garagiola, of NBC-TV's "Today" show, will describe the pre-parade activities depicting the excitement and the entertainment from the starting line on 77th Street and Central Park West. The coverage also will include circus acts in Herald Square.

Greene, a star of NBC-TV's "Bonanza" series, and Miss White will co-host parade coverage from their front row seats outside Macy's in Herald Square.

It is in Herald Square that celebrities from all segments of show business will entertian, joined by the award-winning bands from all parts of the U.S. and singing and dancing groups. Of course, the huge figure balloons, which can only be seen on Thanksgiving Day at the Macy Parade, will make their high-flying way down of four great holiday parades and featuring commentary by favorites.

This parade coverage will preempt regular porgramming on the network on this date.

Richard Rodgers Night Scheduled By Ed Sullivan

"With each new show, you croak. You fall apart. It's just torture. People who tell you they aren't worried are one of two things: Either they're extremely insensitive or they're television, as a Thanksgiving just not telling the truth."

So says Richard Rodgers, who will be honored on his 50th anniversary in show business in says. "The pressures, the posa full-hour tribute from the sibility of failure are just enor-Ed Sullivan Show" Sunday at 8
