SAIGON (AP)—U.S. B-52 bombers attacked North Vietnamese positions in South Vietnam today for the first time in a month after intelligence reports of a new buildup in the northwestern part of the country.

The U.S. Command said the "intimidation" since last October, the B-52s have been used almost entirely against the Ho Chi Minh trail, trying to cut the movement of supplies and reinforcements before they reach South Vietnam.

During the past three months, the big bombers have flown nearly 3,000 sorties against about 100 in South Vietnam. A sortie is one flight by one B-52, each carrying 20 tons of bombs.

The North Vietnamese usually avoid the bulk of their supplies in the south between October and May, when the dry season prevails over Laos and roads and trails are passable.

No major battlefield action involving American troops was reported. But the U.S. Command said three American soldiers were killed and wounded in a small firefight near Saigon.

In Cambodia, government forces sweeping an area two miles south of Prey Tcheung, on Highway 7 about 40 miles north of Phnom Penh, clashed with North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops.

The U.S. command in Saigon announced that American troops struck in Vietnam dropped by 138,000 men in 1970 and totaled 387,000 men on Dec. 31. It was the lowest level since Oct. 1, 1966, when 330,400 American troops were in Vietnam.

The total now is 323,000 men below the authorized ceiling of 364,000, and President Nixon has ordered the ceiling reduced to 284,000 during the next four months.

Three of the Soviet-built PT-76 tanks were destroyed by a U.S. command in Saigon. The 5th Special Forces Group which commanded the 2,000 Green Berets in Vietnam was withdrawn from combat on Jan. 1. A small contingent of Green Berets is remaining in Vietnam under the direct control of the U.S. Command in Saigon.

Some camps were abandoned under fire, but two of those turned over today—Duc Lap and Ben Hiet, in the central highlands bordering Cambodia, withstood enemy sieges of up to three months.

The turnover puts the camp under the control of the South Vietnamese. Border Ranger Command instead of the 5th Special Forces Group. The camps now have American Rangers as advisers under the control of the U.S. Command in Saigon.

At one time there were 200 Green Berets in Vietnam and North Vietnamese special forces, but none of those will be serving in border camps.

Worst Crash Over Holiday Kills Eight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Three Indiana women traveled 20 miles, police said, in the wrong lane of a four-lane expressway south of Indianapolis before they met a tractor-trailer carrying an Illinois family of six.

The tractor-trailer, rickety and overloaded, was heading southbound on the expressway, and the station wagon, driven by Edward Singleton, 22, of Elk Grove Village, Ill., and the misdirected auto collided head-on.

Singleton, his wife and three children and the three Indiana women were killed. The eight deaths made it the worst traffic crash of the three-day New Year's holiday weekend in which 431 persons died on the nation's highways.

Heavy snow and blizzards from New Mexico to the Great Lakes hampered driving severely by during the final 24 hours of the weekend.

Another head-on crash Sunday killed four persons near Needles, Calif.

The Indiana crash, on Interstate 74 near Selbyville, was the state's worst since 1969, when two cars in a drag race struck two parked autos, killing nine persons.

The three Indiana women—identified as Thelma Sletzer, 36 and Majorie Sweet, 41 both of Newcastles, and Virginia Diember after serving since June 1969 as appointed governor.

A number of Caribbean leaders and dignitaries from the U.S. mainland were on hand for the installation ceremonies.

The 58-year-old Evans is a Republican and former public health commissioner.

Both are charged with kidnapping resulting in death and aiding and abetting a murder. In addition to these capital crimes, both also are charged with conspiracy to kidnap and conspiracy to murder.

When Congress passed in 1968 the act providing for election of the island's governor, Democrats dominated local politics.

But a split in the Democratic party resulted in a three-man race Nov. 3. Evans finished second, and Democratic support gave him victory over former acting Gov. Cyril King in a runoff two weeks later.

Since his victory, Evans has indicated he will in time seek reelection for the next biennium, were recommended Monday by the State Education Program Commission.

The commission was critical of some recommendations by the state's Higher Education Commission and drastically reduced its request for buildings and land for state colleges and regional community colleges.

"We are putting the priority emphasis on areas other than the community colleges, in our judgment, community colleges are growing beyond the state's capacity to support them," the commission said.

Higher education projects did make up the largest segment of the commission's recommendations—$83,256,000. This amount includes over $73 million for the University of Connecticut, and nearly $28.5 million for the state colleges and only $2.5 million for the community colleges.

The commission said it had made an exception of Western Connecticut State College. "The college has needed for many years to undertake expansion of its facilities," the commission said. It recommended more than $18.5 million for Western Connecticut.

Among other major recommendations were $30 million for the proposed new regional complex. The $30 million would be spent on construction of a new 120,000-sq-ft regional complex, plus land acquisition and renovation of existing buildings.

The commission recommended that certain aid which was provided in the wreckage of a factory structure, which included three floors of apartments and three floors of offices in southern France, be donated to the state.

In addition to claiming the factory structure, the state tragedy resulted in injuries to nine persons. Police described

Fifth Juror Selected In Seale Trial

By DAN HALL, Associated Press Writer NEW HAVEN (AP)—A 33-year-old black woman from New Haven was approved Monday as the fifth juror to sit on the jury trying Black Panther Party leader Bobby G. Seale and Ericka Huggins on capital charges.

Mrs. Jessie C. Wynne, a mother of two who identified herself as a machine operator, was chosen for the panel after a brief questioning by the judge.

"I don't think I could be a good juror," she said during questioning by the defense. She appeared stunned when told she had been accepted—beamed a big sigh and put her hand to her head as she was led from the courtroom.

Mrs. Wynne was the fourth person to undergo questioning Monday after the 11th panel of 50 prospective jurors had been whittled down to 38 before individual questioning started.

The trial is in its 21st day of jury selection. Twelve jurors will be selected from the panel of 38 after the first day of testimony can begin.

Mrs. Wynne joins two whites and two other blacks on the Superior Court jury.

Earlier in the day, Judge Harold M. Muirby denied four defense motions—one asking for dismissal of the charges because of the difficulty in finding a jury, another seeking to have more young persons on the venire list and another hearing to be held in the morning using any more peremptory challenges.

Seale, 34, and Mrs. Huggins, 23, are charged in connection with the death of a fellow Panther, Alex Rackin, of New York City, in May 1969.

Both are charged with kidnapping resulting in death and aiding and abetting a murder. In addition to these capital crimes, both also are charged with conspiracy to kidnap and conspiracy to murder.

Washington Whirl

By MAXINE CHESHIRE

The Washington Post... Early last June, two single-page excerpts from letters written on Princess Margaret's monogrammed stationery were brought to autograph dealer Charles Hamilton in New York for authentication.

An expert on Hamilton's staff compared the letters to other examples of Her Royal Highness's handwriting. The letters were pronounced genuine.

Hamilton was told that the letters were part of a packet of "highly personal" royal correspondence which might shortly be coming on the market.

At the letters purportedly written by Princess Margaret "sometime in the 1960's" to the late Robin Douglas-Horne, the controversial nephew of former Prime Minister Alex Douglas-Horne.

Douglas-Horne, 36 years old when he was found dead in 1960 with empty pill bottles by his side, was a jet setter who made headlines periodically.

He was a serious suitor for the hand of Princess Margaret, the Swedish. But her family ruled him ineligible because he played polo in a hat.

NEW YORK (AP) - Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, a Republican, has disclosed—and Hubert H. Humphrey has confirmed—that he was invited to be the Minnesota's running mate on the Democratic party's 1968 presidential ticket.

Rockefeller told newsmen Sunday he did not give the offer serious consideration—"I'm a Republican."

The story was made public by Jack Bell of the Gannett News Service. Bell said he telephoned Humphrey at his home in Waverly, Minn., and was told: "He never really rejected the idea. He showed an interest in it, but he indicated that he did not think he was in a position where he could run on the Democratic ticket."

The Democratic convention selected Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine to run with Humphrey.

Women Grabbed Their Share Of Headlines in the Past Year

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Encouraged by women's liberationists, the young women of the past year, or just asserting their inclination to do something meaningful, several women made big news in 1970.

Lady Bird Johnson, the strong woman behind a strong man, surprised the political world by publishing a "White House Diary" which dealt with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and ended with her husband's 100 years as president.

In what she called "a sampler" of the 300,000-word-long diary, Mrs. Johnson provided fascinating insight into LBJ's presidency. She wrote that she was in favor of her husband's decision not to run for a second term, and that it would have been better if Lyndon had appointed more of his own men.

revolutionary group dedicated to attacking the U.S. military system and undermining police powers. The two young women are also believed to have taken part in a Sept. 1 bank robbery in Philadelphia and the robbery of a National Guard Armory in Newburyport, Mass. on Sept. 20.

Also in October, the FBI substituted one self-described Communist for another on its 10 most wanted list—Bernardine Dohrn for Angela Davis. Miss Dohrn, the reputed underground leader of an avowedly-violent Weathermen faction of the SDS, was charged with violating federal anti-riot laws. The 28-year-old militant, who holds a doctorate of law degree, was arrested in Chicago Oct. 9 after a violent demonstration and confrontation with police.

Another revolutionary who made news in an even bigger way was Lella Khalid, a pretty, 26-year-old American educated Palestinian. Helped by the American accomplice, Patrick Joseph Arguello, Miss Khalid hijacked FBI Al flight number 219 from Amsterdam to New York. Overcome by a steward and security guard, she was arrested after the plane made an emergency landing in London. She was held in a London prison until freed as part of an exchange for hostages taken from Palestinian guerrillas.

The final woman newsmaker was one-time sculptor, Kate Millet, who gave the Women's Liberation movement intellectual legitimacy this year when she published her doctoral dissertation, "Sexual Politics," became a best-seller. "We are less than human because of our sex," she wrote. "If we did not have these rigid sexual roles, we would all have sex without inhibition because we are being imaginative, for being creative."

Her thesis was that male-female sex differences were evident at birth, but that masculine-feminine (gender) differences were learned, and imposed by a male-dominated society.

Then last summer she took up the cause of a group of black convicts, picketed San Quentin and made fund raising speeches. Later an attempt was made to rescue the prisoners on trial in a San Rafael, Calif. courtroom, and four persons were shot to death including the judge. Police said that the guns used in the killings had been bought by Miss Davis, and she was placed on the FBI's most wanted fugitive list. On Oct. 13, she was discovered and arrested in a New York City motel room, and booked on a charge of unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution in California.

As the FBI took Angela Davis off its list, it added the names of two other women revolutionaries: Susan Saxe and Katherine Power. Both young women, 21-year-old honor graduates of Brandeis University, were sought in connection with a Sept. 23 $28,000 bank robbery in Boston in which one policeman was shot to death.

Bank Holdups According to the FBI Miss Saxe carried a rifle into the bank and Miss Power drove the getaway car. Three male parolees were said to have been also involved. The FBI, which listed both women as possibly armed and dangerous, said the two are members of a radical

Switched Tactics On the advice of fellow Republicans, however, she switched tactics, and concentrated on wanting to become a senator to help the Nixon Administration. She said she favored military cutbacks but maintained that "we must keep our defenses strong enough so that they can be a deterrent."

In politics on another front three foreign women performed vital business while their countries were at war. In the Middle East Israeli premier Golda Meir led her country through the gravest crisis in three years, in Paris Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh continued as head of the National Liberation Front's delegation to the so-far futile Paris Peace Talks, and in Ireland Bernardette Devlin continued to champion the rights of the Roman Catholic minority.

As the Arab-Israeli conflict exploded into war again Mrs. Meir came to Washington to seek the help of the American government. The 72-year-old grandmother, who became premier in 1969 upon the death of Levi Eshkol and then succeeded to the post in her own right, was greeted here with full military honors including a 18-gun salute. Any profiles of military aid, however, were cloaked in secrecy.

Negotiations of a different kind continued in Paris this year, but from all reports they continued to dead end. Mrs. Binh, a 42-year-old Vietnamese who wears plain, pastel-colored flowing robes, remained as inscrutable as ever.

What little is known of this woman is that from an early age she resented French and then later American involvement in her country.

From 1951-54 she was imprisoned for anti-French activities, and during the 1960s she was a roving delegate for the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Vietcong. In 1963 she attended international conferences in Peking, Moscow and Cairo, and in 1969 she received a standing ovation at the twenty-third Congress of the Soviet Communist Party in Moscow.

Maid of Londonderry A still younger politician, 23-year-old Bernadette Devlin, continued to champion her people's cause in Northern Ireland. Miss Devlin, the youngest member of the British Parliament, was jailed and served two-thirds of a six-month sentence for riotous behavior and incitement to riot. She had been convicted for her direct involvement in violent protests in Londonderry in August 1969.

The young lady, who has been dubbed the firebrand of the Irish-American community, was re-elected this year from her district and upon release from jail took her seat again in Parliament. She urged the Roman Catholic minority to stop fighting their Protestant neighbors in British-ruled Northern Ireland, and to seek equal treatment by peaceful means.

Israelis Claim Voice Heard in Russian Court

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli newspapers were often officials claim that the Russian Supreme Court's reduction of the death sentences given two Jews in the Leningrad hijacking from Russia shows it sometimes pays to shout.

The outcry over the death sentences handed down by a Leningrad court last month was unprecedented in Israeli history. No foreign country outside the Arab world has come under such a verbal attack from Israel and Jews abroad.

Israeli officials think the commutation of the death sentences to 15 years at hard labor was largely the result of the demonstrations in Israeli cities, the Israeli government's impassioned appeals for forgiveness and the parallel effort in Western Europe and America.

"Our policy definitely changed from quiet diplomacy to public appeal," said one government official. "A year ago, the situation was entirely different."

The big breach in Soviet-Israeli relations began in June 1967, when Moscow broke diplomatic relations with Israel because of the six-day Arab-Israeli war.

Israeli officials adopted a low-key approach toward the Kremlin, fearing that by trumpeting the sufferings of Russian Jews they would only increase them, and perhaps needle Moscow into cutting off even the small trickle of Jews allowed to emigrate to Israel.

The officials did their utmost to dampen public fervor by counseling moderation.

Israelis did not want to keep silent. Dozens of letters from persons wanting to emigrate asked the recipients to publicize the plight of Soviet Jews.

Signs emerged during 1970 that Russian Jews did not want to emigrate. Dozens of letters from persons wanting to publicize the plight of Soviet Jews.

To letters from Russia described the difficulties in trying to emigrate. Russian Jews in Israel phoned relatives in the Soviet Union, and conversations, often critical of the Kremlin, were widely publicized in Israel.

Young immigrants who a year earlier had been welcomed in Israel now find themselves in a migrant absorption centers are now being asked to describe their hardships openly.

Israeli officials now admit freely that the policy of quiet diplomacy was not nearly as effective as an open protest.

"It appears that even the mighty Kremlin can be embarrassed," said one Israeli official. "It would never have believed it."

But there is little hope that the Soviet government will loosen its tough line toward Jews who want to live in Israel.

Hard-Earned Church Fund Saver for Stricken Town

TYRONNE, Pa. (AP) — Fr 121, 1973 with receipts of a local years, members of Methodist church in this central Pennsylvania town worked to raise funds for a new building.

The Rev. Mr. Harrison says his church will make more money if it has a new building. "As Christians we are bound to minister to the town in this way," he said. "We feel this is simply part of a Christian commitment and Christian opportunity. We are not looking at it as something unique."

"We think it is something the Christian Gospel demands that we do."

Risky Tongue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew says the congregation of the Columbia Avenue Methodist church voted to lend $100,000 to the Tyronne Improvement Corp. to finance a $1 million industrial development project.

"At a time when the community does not have adequate funds to attract new industry, we are making them available," said the Rev. Leroy J. Harrison, the pastor.

The congregation has been holding services in makeshift quarters since the church burned eight years ago.

"We felt that this was probably more urgent than building our new church," the minister said. "We do have facilities and using them is better than not having our men able to make a livelihood for their families."

The church's loan represents the required 10 per cent of mortgage money necessary to obtain development funds through the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority—PIDA.

"It will enable us to offer immediate financing through PIDA to prospective industry without having to wait for the receipts of our own fund drive," said Harry K. Richter, president of the Tyronne Improvement Corp.

Richter said the money would be repaid to the church by April

The Uses of Violence

Violence is an absolute, to be avoided in all decent, responsible, ethical human behavior. Or is it, after all, justifiable under some circumstances—such as when it is resorted to in opposition to some greater violence being imposed on the innocent?

The other day a group of clerymen—the particular cut of their cloth does not seem important to the question involved—held that it is impossible "to issue a blanket condemnation of all who under any circumstances resort to violence."

There are, the group said, conditions in which "citizens can never obtain justice by peaceful or democratic means."

In such instances, "it will not do merely to condemn the use of violence against authority since evidently those in authority may be guilty of worse violence."

Where protests against injustices have been stifled by promises or redress which remains unfulfilled, it is governments who bear the heaviest responsibility for violence," which may result.

The trouble with any such pronouncement is, of course, that it leaves the definition of what is justifiable violence back with the human actors in the scene—either those who represent institutional government, or those who desire its overthrow. Either side can, by laying claim to superior moral purpose and ultimately human intent, establish to its own satisfaction, its right to the use of violence against other human beings.

To rise above such a pronouncement on the other hand, and to try to embrace non-violence as an absolute to be adhered to no matter what anybody else does, seems almost an impossibility for human beings.

Extend to one another any time the question of Mr. Nixon's possible ambitions and availability might be raised.

"One thing you can rely upon," one liberal would say to another, "Richard Nixon is never going to be President of this country."

That seemed, every time it was uttered, as safe a political guarantee as there could be. It is, we imagine, an assurance the man now in the White House recalls with some quiet private pleasure, even as he braces himself to hear the fearful brum of new prognostication which threatens to remove from the White House somebody who couldn't possibly be there.

The Resolution Accomplish

For those who, having perhaps found themselves much too human in the past, wish to try out some new form of resolution, let us suggest the kind one announces after instead of before the performance.

This would mean that the New Year's formulation of such resolutions would be a private and quiet affair. It would only be later on that one might trumpet one's ostentatious heaping of a resolution to an astounded world.

On Feb. 1, for instance, one might be able to make some such claim as this: "As per privately taken resolution of Jan. 1, I have now come through a whole month of private and public discourse without once beginning a sentence with the word 'hopedly.'"

Or on July 1 one might reveal to waiting humanity some quietly achieved triumph like this: "It is now six months since I made a quiet resolve not to laugh, even momentarily, at any piece of television humor based on Dean Martin's supposed weakness for the bottle, and I have kept that pledge with surprising ease."

Come next Dec. 31 one might modestly reveal to the world something like this: "One full long year has now passed since, in memorable session with myself, I vowed not to give up smoking no matter how insistent the pressure from health authorities, public opinion, and television anti-smoking commercials, and I can now report, at the end of such a temptation laden year, that I have not stopped smoking, not for a single day."

That, we think, would be the way, so far as meaning back into resolutions—to announce them after they have been kept.

We have certain things in mind, and may, or may not, announce them at suitable times during the coming year.

Ability to Recognize the Obvious

Knowledge, like rubber. The less it is used the faster it deteriorates. And to rise above such a pronouncement on the other hand, and to try to embrace non-violence as an absolute to be adhered to no matter what anybody else does, seems almost an impossibility for human beings.

One of the most legitimate aims of education is to make you hard to fool. History should have decreased your foolability.

All the great advances in human knowledge were accomplished by the use of short steps of simple, logical deduction. When the impossible or improbable were discarded, the true or at least the probable remained.

The extraordinary man thinks simply. The ordinary man loses himself up with symbolism, folklore, witchcraft, and magic. Your ability to think in a simple and straightforward manner will be the measure of your true wisdom. Learning without method is like a jumbled jigsaw puzzle; the parts are there, but the meaning cannot be discovered.

WASHINGTON — On Monday of last week, when the Senate ran through nine roll-calls, including the decision to kill the welfare reform and trade bills for this year, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine was absent.

Under the existing system, the Senate Democratic leadership does not do much to "protect" an absent senator in such circumstances. Even if the senator happens to be the present leading prospect for the party's Presidential nomination, Muskie's office — like that of all other Democratic senators — received a call from the cloakroom each time the ball rang for a vote, but from that point on, he was on his own.

The incident in itself is trivial. Almost one-third of the Senate was absent; Muskie's vote would not have affected the outcome on any roll-call; his absence went unnoticed in the press; and so far as anyone can tell, no one except the lobbyists was shocked or made dependent by the death of the trade and welfare legislation.

But such events raise a warning-sign to the Democrats about the years ahead. In 1972 and 1973, the Senate will be the stage on which the preliminary about the years ahead. In 1972 and 1973, the Senate will be the stage on which the preliminary about the years ahead.

Income Tax Forms Changed Again

By RAY DE CRANE Enterprise Publications You'll be working with a newly designed tax form and a whole new set of instructions when you start to work on your 1970 income tax return.

Many of the old familiar expressions and terms have gone by the wayside. The Tax Reform Act of 1969, which changed the old rules, also introduced many new expressions. You never heard of low-income allowance before? You'll be introduced to it for the first time this year.

And don't look for the old "Magic 600" any more. Six hundred had become as familiar in income tax lore as Form 1040 itself. Six hundred dollars of income was the starting point for the filing of a return in the past. It was the amount each dependent and other tax exemption was worth on the return.

Put the two together—the $1,100 low-income allowance and the personal exemption of $625—and it means that no unmarried taxpayer will owe an income tax this year on total earnings of less than $1,725.

The effect of the two provisions will be to free several million former taxpayers from the tax-paying rolls this year. Inflation has also been taken note of in several other areas of your 1970 return. In the past you could charge toward your medical expenses five cents a mile for use of your car in obtaining medical or hospital care.

Make that six cents a mile this year. It may not sound like much, but it's a 20 per cent increase. The effect of the two provisions will be to free several million former taxpayers from the tax-paying rolls this year.

Perhaps it was the influence of inflation, but the old familiar $600 had been raised to $625 for 1970. A dependent is now worth $625. And $625 is the amount a parent or other relative can have in income before they are dropped from the return as dependents.

Put the two together—the $1,100 low-income allowance and the personal exemption of $625—and it means that no unmarried taxpayer will owe an income tax this year on total earnings of less than $1,725.

1970 Newsmakers Stood Out In a Variety of Occupations

By AP NEWSFEATURES

Politicians, space voyagers, heralded women, aging football players... the names in the 1970 Newsmakers list are a wide variety of occupations.

Few commands as much page-one attention as Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, the sort of man of the 1960s Republican convention who became a household word during 1970 as he entered the lists against television commentator, newspaper columnist, members of the Democratic party—even members of his own party, such as Sen. Charles Goodell of New York whom the vice president considered a political enemy.

Throughout the land on April 19 they held their breath as news of trouble about the Apollo 13 spacecraft was flashed to earth, and they cheered when made his share of news in other fields than the Oval Room, campaigning in 24 states for Republican office seekers.

Alfred Edward Heath, became Britain's new Prime Minister, ousting Harold Wilson's Labour government in a stunning political upset for the Conservative Party.

And in the Middle East, Jordan's King Hussein, weary of a civil war, an invasion by Syria, and uncertainties arising from the death of Egypt's General Abdel Nasser, to remain in control of his tiny kingdom.

Outside the domain of international and national affairs, Americans did not lack for personalities in the news.

Tolland Property Tax Collection So Far Totals $1,130,157

Tax Collector Earl Beebe has noted collections for property taxes for the July 1970 to June 1971 fiscal year have totalled $1,130,157 so far.

The second installment of the property taxes became due on Jan. 2 and must be paid by Feb. 1 to avoid interest charges, Beebe has reminded residents.

No bill will be sent out for the second installment, he noted, adding that the delinquent interest rate amounts to 3% of one per cent per month from the date of the last payment, until the total tax is paid.

The motor vehicle department will be notified of all unpaid motor vehicle taxes, prohibiting residents from registering their cars until all taxes have been paid in full.

Beebe further requests all new property owners to contact his office to determine their tax situation, if they have not received a tax bill from the Tolland Junior Women's Club International affairs committee will meet tomorrow at 7:30 in the Palmer house on Gehring Rd.

Other sports heroes were Brooks Robinson, third baseman of the Baltimore Orioles whose almost magical fielding helped demoralize the Cincinnati Reds in the World Series; Muhammad Ali, the dethroned heavyweight champion who set out to regain his title by knocking out his first two opponents since being reinstated as a legitimate fighter; and Bobby Orr, the Boston Bruins hockey player who became the first defenseman to lead a hockey league in scoring and paced his team to the Stanley Cup title; and Johnny Bench, the Cincinnati catcher who hit six home runs and won the National League's Most Valuable Player award.

International sports figures were Felo, the first soccer player to score a hat-trick in his native Brazil to the World Cup championship; and Christer Pennarsson, the Swedish vaulter who became the first man to vault 18 feet.

Solomon Islands were Norman E. Borlaug, an American agricultural expert who won the 1970 Nobel Peace prize for developing new grains of wheat, and the first woman ever to be named a "Green Revolution" greater yielding crop holding the promise of easing world hunger.

Others were Oscar Auerbach and E. Cuyler Hammond, cancer researchers who said they produced lung cancer in beagle dogs by making them smoke cigarettes. Another scientific team, William H. Masters and Mrs. Virginia E. Johnson, produced a word called "Human Sexual Inadequacy."

There were two "firsts" registered by religious personalities in 1970. The Rev. Robert F. Drinan, dean of Boston College law school, became the first Catholic priest elected to the Senate, and the Rev. Elizabeth Plata became the first woman ever ordained a Lutheran minister in the United States.

Pop Paul VI continued in the headlines; during a trip to the Orient he escaped an assassination attempt in Manila. In the news also was the Rev. Daniel Berrigan, a Catholic priest arrested Aug. 11 after eluding the F.B.I. for months, and sent to jail for destroying draft records.

A familiar face vanished from the television screen in 1970—Chet Huntley who retired after his long tenure with NBC in the Huntley-Brinkley Report.

A new personality emerged—Mick Cavett, who became a witty hit as host of ABC's late-night show, and one personality shifted allegiance—Harry Reasoner, a CBS stalwart for 14 years who became anchorman of the ABC Evening News.

In literature, Soviet novelist Alexander Solzhenitsyn made news when he won the Nobel Prize, and made news again when he declined to go to Stockholm to accept the award lest he not be allowed to return to his native land.

The National Book Committee gave its 1970 Medal for Literature to Robert Penn Warren, the poet, novelist and critic. Pulitzer prizes went to former Secretary of State Dean Acheson for history, and to Jean Stafford for fiction for her "Collected Stories." Two minor figures in American literature died during the year, John O'Hara and John Dos Passos, and a posthumous novel approved by the late Robert Hemingway.

Cowboys' Chances of Reaching Super Bowl Were Flat Zero Just Six Short Weeks Ago

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys readily admits he thought his team's chances of reaching the big money of the National Football League Super Bowl were a flat zero just six short weeks ago.

Landry declared the victory over the 49ers must take the team to the Super Bowl. He felt the quarterback John Brodie of the 49ers and Johnny Ultras of the Colts present similar problems.

"Brodie was fabulous this season and I think I aged 20 years in the second half Sunday," Landry declared. "When you play Brodie more, you're playing another great, you're playing another great." — San Francisco by Dallas Mike Clark.

Eagles Continue Streak By Trimming Arch Rival

By PAT McCABE

With last year's loss in the finals of the Class I Tournament, and a decided edge in the Hartford County Conference basketball championship race, serving as the incentives, East Catholic drubbed arch-rival South Catholic, 81-54, at Kaiser Hall on the CCCC campus, to remain unbeaten in six outings.

East, paced by the scoring of Tim Quish, who led all scorers with 20 points, took command of the Saturday contest in the third stanza. The Eagles completely dominated back action in the second half, grabbing 26 rebounds to South's seven.

Center Jim Connors led all Eagle board battlers pulling down 15 with Quish grabbing 10.

South's center Ed DeMaestro, who topped all Rebel scorers with 15 points was held in check, only guaranteeing one rebound after intermission. He had only five.

Eagle Captain Ed Fitzgerald added 12 and reserve Kevin Tierney contributed 11 to the winning effort.

East outscored their foes, 47-28 in the second chapter as the Rebels dropped to 1-2 in Conference play and 2-4 overall.

John Balcan, the only other Rebel to reach double figures, pumped in 12 for Coach Joe Helly's charges.

Rebels' Paul Winkler and Ronnell Cruise tallied two quick hoops giving South an early 40-10 lead, and it began to look like Winkler and a hot hand by

Four Area Quintets List Perfect Marks

By DEAN YOST

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Jimmy Brewer by side, the oddsmaker, said Sunday the Super Bowl is a toss-up. He listed the odds at 10-1 for the Jan. 17 clash at Miami, between the Baltimore Colts and the Dallas Cowboys.

Snyder missed the post two Super Bowls by side, the oddsmaker, picking the Colts in 1960 and the Minnesota Vikings a year ago.

Four area teams, East Catholic High 6-0, South Windsor 7-0, Coventry High 6-0 and Ellington High 7-0 remain unbeaten as the scholastic basketball schedule swings into full action once again. A total of 17 games are on tap this week.

Action tonight finds Manchester Community College (2-4) traveling to Willimantic to battle Eastern Conn. Frosh at 8. Also, the Alumni plays Ellington High.

Tuesday games include Pulaski High of West Berlin (1-4) playing East Catholic in a Hartford County Conference tilt in the CIAC Class I finals last night in a non-conference game. East Catholic has a 6-0 record. The Rebels defeated the South Catholic 68-54.

Pulaski will be the third HCC team East Catholic will face. The Rebels have played only one conference game and were beaten, Manchester High, meanwhile, has a 5-2 record.

Followers in Doubt But Colts Ride High

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Colts, doubted by their followers and outsiders in the American Football Conference, are on their way to the Super Bowl.

The breaks which Coach Don McCaffery said would make the difference, the Colts polished off the Oakland Raiders 27-17 to win the AFC Championship game. The Colts' defense, which limited the Raiders to 17 points, was the key to their victory.

Now it's on to Miami for a Jan. 17 Super Bowl date against the Dallas Cowboys, who defeated the San Francisco 49ers 17-10 for the National Football Championship, and a shot at another $10,000 prize.

The Colts will collect a minimum $6,000 for winning the AFC Championship, but there was more money at stake.

"Maybe this will give our game against Kansas City which millions of people saw on television," said Dick Etzel, a coach of Baltimore's receivers.

Even Baltimore fans were willing to write off the Colts after they were manhandled 44-24 by the Chiefs in the second game of the season.

Nothing the Colts did later changed the early season opinions. Even when they won the Eastern Division with an 11-2-1 record, the Colts were accused of having faced easy opposition.

In addition, as one of three former National Football League teams switched to the AFC with to continue a rivalry in the League, the Colts were considered outsiders.

But the Raiders were the last of the old AFL teams left, and the Super Bowl will match two longtime NFL rivals.

A 68-yard touchdown pass from 37-year-old John Unitas to Ray Perkins, after Oakland had pulled to within 20-17 early in the fourth quarter, sent the Raiders back to a 3-3 tie with a 12-yard TD.

The Colts' defense, which limited the Raiders to 17 points, was the key to their victory.

AP Grid Poll System Explained in Detail

NEW YORK (AP) — The Associated Press began rating college football teams in 1936.

The Bruins and Rangers to poll at the end of the season is emblematic of the mythical national championship in college football.

In recent years the final ranking of sports-writers and sportsmen has followed the bowl games. Also, in recent years, the Top Twenty has been expanded to 25.

The Top Twenty is based on the votes of a board composed of sportswriters and sportsmen for Associated Press member newspapers and broadcast television stations during the season. Each district of the National Collegiate Athletic Association has a proportionate share of electors. There are eight NCAA districts and a total of 25 electors.

Elsewhere in the NFL, Sunday, Detroit edged the Redskins 16-10, Buffalo 9-3 and St. Louis shelled Los Angeles 7-0.

Bucky's hat trick gave him 23 goals for the season, the same number as Balon and Chicago's Bobby Hull, who also had two Sunday. Only Boston's Esposito, with 8, has more.

Bucky started the Bruin assault on Philadelphia with a second-period goal, then added a pair of power-play goals in the final 20 minutes. The Bruins' second in the scoring race to Esposito, and Ed Westfall had the other Boston goals.

Balon brought the Rangers back with just 86 seconds left in the game when his pass from behind the net struck Montreal goalie Phil Myre's skate and bounded in for New York's winner.

The Red Wings, rebounding from Saturday's 1-0 loss to Toronto, knocked off California with goalie Roy Edwards making his first start since Dec. 6.

SEND NO MONEY NOW! — Examine the policy without obligation

PAY ONLY IF YOU DECIDE TO JOIN • INTRODUCTORY OFFER LASTS ONLY... MORE DAYS.

Now... you and your family can join this Extra Cash Income Plan with no red tape, no questions to answer, no medical examination, without having to see a salesman and without any qualification whatsoever. But you must mail your enrollment form to us before midnight, Thursday, January 7, 1971.

Why You Need This EXTRA CASH Plan in Addition to Ordinary Hospitalization
You know, of course, that the tremendous jump in hospital costs has forced millions who already have hospitalization to dig into savings or go into debt. They risk using up their savings or, worse yet, turning to family and friends for help. In fact, very few people have enough savings, hospitalization or insurance to cover the TOTAL cost of being sick or injured.

How long could you stay in the hospital without worrying about the pile-up of daily expenses? Who will pay for the expense of costly X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? And how about the expenses at home—rent, food, telephone and others that just go on and on? With expenses like these, could you avoid having your savings wiped out and your family life upset?

Union Fidelity Monthly Renewal Rates
Age at Enrollment Monthly Premium (Per Person)
0-18 only $2.50
19-29 only $3.80
30-39 only $5.00
40-49 only $6.25
50-59 only $7.50

Better Safe Than Sorry
Wouldn't it be comforting to know these problems could be solved by your Extra Cash Income Plan—the plan that gives you $100.00 a week—IN CASH—tax-free—from the very first day you're in the hospital for up to 100 full weeks.

EXTRA CASH Gives Peace Of Mind and Security, Helps Replace Lost Income
Everything costs more these days. (Who knows better than you?) Hospital costs alone have TRIPLED in just a few short years... and they're expected to DOUBLE soon. While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most find that benefits simply don't cover ALL the bills that mount up when sickness or accident strikes.

PAYS YOU CASH... $100.00 a week tax-free cash hospital...
PAYS YOU CASH... to a maximum of $100,000.00 for any hospital expenses lasting 100 weeks!
PAYS YOU CASH... Money mailed direct to you—not to the doctor or hospital...
PAYS YOU CASH... in addition to hospitalization and Medicare's compensation!

How Can We Offer All This Protection for So Little?
If you're lucky, you can buy ordinary insurance at any time and pay regular rates. But NOW—with just a stroke of your pen—you can get Union Fidelity's Plan for as little as $2.50 per month. And how is this possible? BECAUSE UNION FIDELITY ENROLLS A LARGE NUMBER OF PEOPLE AT ONE TIME... direct by mail. This highly efficient "mass enrollment" cuts our costs to a few short days. By this method our overhead expenses are reduced drastically. And the savings are passed on to you!

These Are The Only Exclusions!
The new Union Fidelity "Extra Cash Income Hospital Plan" has NO WAITING PERIODS. It covers you immediately for every possible kind of sickness and accident hospitalization caused by illness or injury, or act of war, pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage; or care provided in a government hospital. It does not cover you for any chronic illness or pre-existing condition after your policy has been in force for only 2 years (one year for age 63). Everything else is covered.

18 Important Questions Answered
That tell you how Union Fidelity's $100.00-A-Week Extra Cash Income Plan gives you the protection you need—at amazingly low cost!

- 1. How much will this policy pay me when I go to the hospital? You will receive $100.00 per week.
- 2. When will my hospitalization benefits start? The day you enter the hospital.
- 3. Will I be paid if I am in the hospital for less than a full week? Yes. This new Plan pays if you are in the hospital for only a day, or a week, a month, a year.
- 4. Does this policy have any "waiting periods" before I can use it? No. It will go in force on the very same day that we receive your request for the first month's coverage.
- 5. How long will I continue to receive my Extra Cash for every day you are hospitalized for as long as 100 weeks for every covered accident or sickness.
- 6. Is there any red tape to fill? No. We only ask you to complete and mail your Enrollment Form before the deadline date shown. No questions to answer. No salesman will call.
- 7. Suppose I collect benefits for a certain sickness or accident. What happens if I am hospitalized again for the same condition? You go back to collecting your $100.00 a week until you have been hospitalized for a total of 100 weeks and have collected $10,000.00. Then, if the same condition puts you back in the hospital after you've resumed your normal activities for six months, you become eligible to receive $100.00 a week for up to 100 additional weeks.
- 8. How may I use these benefit payments? You may use them any way you wish—for hospital and doctor bills, rent, food, household expenses or anything else. You alone decide how to use the money.
- 9. Why do I need your Extra Cash Plan in addition to my other insurance? Changes in your present hospital insurance won't cover all your hospital and medical expenses. Even if you do, you will still need extra cash to cover your household expenses.
- 10. What is the age limit? You are welcome to join through age 63. Protection continues to age 65, when Medicare takes over.
- 11. Can you drop me or raise my rate because of health reasons? No. We will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons. Of course, at age 65 when Medicare assumes the cost of your hospital care, this plan is discontinued. We guarantee that we will not cancel your protection or adjust your rate unless we take the same action with regard to all policies of this type in your state.
- 12. What is not covered by this policy? The only conditions not covered are hospitalization caused by mental disorders; act of war; pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage; or care provided in a government hospital. You are covered for any chronic illness or pre-existing condition except your policy has been in force for only 2 years (one year for age 63). Everything else is covered.
- 13. Can other members of my family take advantage of this special offer? Yes. Ask your names to the Enrollment Form when you fill it in.
- 14. Why is this offer good for a limited time only? Because by enrolling a large number of people at the same time our underwriting, processing and policy issue costs are kept at a minimum. These savings, of course, are passed on to you.
- 15. I need a medical examination or a statement from my doctor. Definitely not. Send no money. Just fill in the Enrollment Form and mail it today.
- 16. What other advantages are there of joining this Plan now? By joining now you do not need to complete a regular application—just the brief form in the lower right corner of this page. Also, during this enrollment period, there are no other qualifications "waivers" or restrictive endorsements.
- 17. How does the Money-Back Guarantee work? Examine your policy carefully in the privacy of your home. If, for any reason, you are not completely satisfied, return it within 30 days and we will promptly refund your money. Meanwhile, you will be protected while making your decision.
- 18. Fill in the brief Enrollment Form (be sure to sign your name) and send no money. Mail it to Union Fidelity, Dept. MM, 1515 Locust Street, Philadelphia, Pa. 19102.

'Nightmare of War' Nearing End: Nixon

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, admitting to disappointments during his first two years in office, says "I hope to be better" and achieve both prosperity and peace by 1973.

His greatest accomplishment to date, Nixon told more than 100 TV-radio audience Monday night, has been the gradual withdrawal of American troops from South Vietnam. But he acknowledged setbacks on the home front and suggested the Democratic-controlled Congress must at least share responsibility for these.

In an hour-long live interview with four broadcast journalists as he visited the White House on his way to the presidential inauguration, Nixon also viewed many of his difficulties as stemming from events that occurred before he took office.

Driving Dream
"Before we can really get the lid of a driving dream," he said, "we have to get rid of some of the nightmares we inherited. One of the nightmares is a war without end. We are confident that war is a thing of the past."

Pentagon May Seek $75 Billion

By MICHAEL GETLER
The Washington Post
WASHINGTON — The Pentagon budget request that goes to Congress later this month will call for defense spending of about $75 billion in fiscal 1971, according to reliable Pentagon sources.

Final details of the Defense Department money bill were reportedly hammered out in discussions between the White House, Defense Department and the President's Office of Management and Budget during the last week in December.

The request, still subject to last minute changes by the White House, represents a spending increase over fiscal 1970 of about $1.5 billion. It includes a $1 billion increase in military personnel, a $1 billion increase in military construction, and a $1 billion increase in military research and development.
