LTM Observing Tenth Birthday

The Little Theatre of Manchester, Inc. (L/TM) will hold a tenth anniversary meeting to-morrow at 8 p.m. at the theater studio, 22 Oak Street. All present and former LTM members are invited. The pro gram will include several liv roductions, a slide present ion, and movies and tapes of former plays.

Members of the program committee include Mrs. Walter P. Miller Jr., chairman, Roger Hall, Mr. and Mrs. David Newirth, Philip Burgess Sr., Mrs. Ralph Lundberg, Mrs. Julian Getzewich and Mr. and Mrs. A. Lee Burton.

Little Theatre was originally organized as part of the recreation department of the Town of Manchester under the direction of Jim Herdic. Organizations meetings were held in the fall of 1960; however, the theater's first production, "Bus Stop" by William Inge, was presented at Bowers School Auditorium or March 13, and 14, 1961. Since that time, LTM has produced four major productions each

For several years, while part of the Recreation Department, LTM ran a Children's Theatre Wing and produced a major production and a Christmas In 1964, L/TM became independent of the recreation de partment and attained status as non-profit corporation. At that time it moved from the quarters in the old Howeli Cheney Technical School Building to its present quarters at 22 Oak Street. The building which it now occupies is the site of the old Circle Theatre. Recent years have seen sev eral changes in the foremat of LTM's annual program. Because of increased audiences it be productions into Bailey Auditorium to accommodate pa-trons. LTM has offered a varied program of productions, rang-ing from the classics of Moliere to the avante-garde of Ionesco, with a liberal offering of current Broadway drama, The educational program LTM has also continued throughout the ten years as well.
