

Supreme Court Ruling Upholds Death Penalties

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court rejected 6 to 3 today challenges to death penalty procedures in the United States.

The ruling, delivered by Justice John M. Harlan, said leaving to the jury's discretion the power to decide between life or death in capital cases does not violate the Constitution.

Secondly, Harlan said, the Constitution does not require separating the penalty phase of capital trials from the body of the trial.

In other actions today, the court:

- Upheld the government's power to prosecute people who send pornography through the mails as well as to seize obscene material brought into the country for commercial sales.
- Passed up an opportunity to rule on school segregation in the North. A test case from Cincinnati was thrown out because it had been filed one day late.
- Set hearings on Texas and Georgia abortion laws. It thus moved toward a possible ruling on the constitutional rights of women to end pregnancies.
- Ruled that physicians' written statements may be used by the government to dispute the claims of persons seeking Social Security benefits in injury cases.
- Agreed to decide whether newsmen have a constitutional right to refuse to appear before grand juries and to identify confidential news sources.
- The capital punishment ruling had long been awaited.
- The decision upholds first-degree murder convictions and death sentences against Dominick C. McGautha of Los Angeles

Blasts Level House In West Haven

WEST HAVEN (AP)—An early morning series of explosions Monday left a West Haven home in rubble, killed the elderly father of the owner and sent nine persons to the hospital.

The cause of the blasts that leveled the home of Michael Pulcinani was not positively determined, but Police Chief Joseph Harvey said remnants of fireworks and materials used to make fireworks were found inside the house.

Harvey said there is no natural gas in the house, and ruled out the possibility of a gas explosion. The police chief said no foul play is suspected.

The dead man was identified as Frank Pulcinani, 81, father of Michael Pulcinani. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Yale-New Haven Hospital.

"It's a miracle the loss of life was so low," said Fire Chief

Nixon Backs Swedish Bid On POWs

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP)—President Nixon acted Monday to promote a proposal that prisoners of war from both sides in the Vietnam war be interned in Sweden.

Nixon issued a statement responding to a press report from Stockholm three days ago that indicated the Swedish government would provide ships and internment facilities for prisoners if the United States and Hanoi could reach an agreement on the transfer of prisoners to a neutral country.

The Swedish government, on April 30, had been responding to a suggestion made a day earlier by Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird.

Ronald L. Ziegler, White House press secretary, said Nixon "noted with great satisfaction that according to press reports the government of Sweden has offered the use of its vessels and its territory to provide internment of prisoners of war from the conflict in Vietnam."

Ziegler added that Nixon "would hope that Hanoi will

Skirmishes in Washington Result in Arrest of 6,000

By LEE BYRD
 Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Antiwar demonstrators fought police in a six-hour series of skirmishes on the capital's streets today.

Rush hour traffic was snarled, but the arrest of more than 6,000 protesters frustrated their efforts to paralyze the nation's government.

Beginning before dawn and continuing past noon, flying squads of policemen fired volleys of tear gas and wadded billiard clubs to disperse crowds of demonstrators.

More than 100 persons were injured, including four policemen, a check of area hospitals showed. Most of the injuries were minor.

Police officials would not estimate the number taking part today's demonstration. Protest sponsors said 20,000 youths were on the streets and promised that thousands would return Tuesday and Wednesday.

At noon, as National Guardsmen, Marines and Army paratroopers joined police in patrolling littered streets, the mayor's office estimated 6,000 persons had been arrested. Suburban Virginia police said they arrested another 300.

The protesters' hit-and-run tactics temporarily blocked numerous intersections in the city. But a strong show of federal force kept traffic flowing across four major Potomac River bridges—a key target of the Mayday demonstrators.

The city is open. The traffic is flowing. "The government is functioning," said Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell at mid-morning.

Mayor Walter Washington agreed, saying the demonstrators "did not succeed." Virtually all government agencies reported employe absenteeism was about normal—and in some cases below normal.

At headquarters of the Mayday Collective, spokeswoman Carol Evans said: "We had an awful lot of opposition today. The police pretty much anticipated everything, but it was still fairly successful." Some protesters complained of police brutality.

Never before in Washington's history have so many been arrested in a single day, police officials said. About 7,000 were arrested during 1968 riots here, but that was over a six-day period.

At midday, the city's courts began processing those arrested, many of whom had been held in a makeshift compound near Kennedy Stadium.

Federal agency personnel officers reported the normal complement of employes had shown up for work. "It looks like a normal day," several said.

Many of the employes, however, had to drive or walk through billowing clouds of tear gas. They joined demonstrators in streaming eyes and smarting nostrils.

Volley after volley of tear gas, which had been fired by riot-equipped Calif., had been held since last

Bayh Says Youths 'Beaten' In Correctional Institutions

By JOHN CHADWICK
 Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Birch Bayh opened hearings today on conditions in juvenile correctional institutions with a charge that many youths "are beaten, brutalized and exposed to vicious sexual attacks."

The Indiana Democrat, chairman of the Senate juvenile delinquency subcommittee, added in his prepared statement that little, if any, rehabilitation takes place in detention and correctional facilities.

Two of the first witnesses denounced the juvenile justice system in El Paso, Tex., and conditions in the county juvenile detention home there.

Steven Bercu of the El Paso Legal Assistance Society said it is difficult to imagine any place "where juveniles are so routinely abused."

He said police will arrest any juvenile merely on the word of the parent and, in defiance of Texas law, children are detained for indefinite periods without the benefit of a court hearing and "without any conceivable justification."

Bercu said the county detention has no educational or rehabilitation facilities and its sanitary conditions are disgusting.

He also said children are continually beaten, no qualified personnel are employed, and juvenile records are disclosed to any caller.

Even stronger testimony was given by Bill Payne, who said in his prepared statement he was assigned by the El Paso Times last August to conduct an investigation and write a series of articles.

"Juvenile justice as it exists in El Paso County, and, indeed, throughout the state of Texas, is a disgrace and an abomination, conceived and executed in bad faith and designed solely for the profit of the keepers even as they speak nobly of solicitude for the children they catch and cage," Payne said.

Since the construction of the detention home in the early 1950s, Payne said, "in El Paso County there has probably never been a legal arrest of a child, there has probably never been a legal detention of a child and there has probably never been a legal commitment of a child from that county to a state reformatory."

In his detailed statement, Payne also said that the detention home has no recreational, diagnostic or rehabilitative programs, that "the children eat slop while the employes eat slob tips while the maintainers sauce," and that children sit in their cells all day without reading matter or any other diversion.

"The situation is no better in the state schools, which are characterized more by homosexuality than by anything else," he said.

Bayh said he hoped through the hearings the subcommittee will find ways "to make correctional institutions capable of

Crash Claims Nine Youths In Georgia

COVINGTON, Ga. (AP)—Ten youngsters piled into Danny Henderson's "new" car for a Sunday ride. Nine of them died a short time later when a freight train slammed into the compact auto and dragged it almost a mile.

Jimmy Norwood and his sister Almethin were among the victims. So were Peggy Ann Fuller and her sister Susie Ann.

The 10 ranged in age from 12 to 16. The only one spared was Sharon Belcher, 16. She was taken to an Atlanta hospital in critical condition.

The accident at an elevated country road crossing was less than three miles west of their homes in this north central Georgia community of 10,300.

Newton County Sheriff Henry Odum said the car was hit broadside by the lead diesel of a 65-car Georgia Railroad freight train traveling at about 46 miles an hour.

Odum said the accident occurred when Henderson's car attempted to pass another vehicle which had stopped at the crossing.

He said the 10-year-old, second-hand vehicle was bent nearly in half by the impact, with the right rear end of the car lacking only five feet of touching the right front wheel.

"They never knew what hit them," Newton County Coroner Sam Cowan said. "I was in the first ambulance to arrive and, at first glance, I didn't see how there could be any survivors."

Killed were Henderson, 16; Jimmy Norwood, 15; his sister, Almethin, 12; Vickie Gilstrap, 14; Dira Williams, 12; Peggy Ann Fuller, 15; her sister, Susie Ann, 12; Harold Tuggle, 16; and Sheila Height, 14.

The state patrol listed Henderson as the driver.

All of the youngsters lived within a few blocks of one another in Covington, 35 miles east of Atlanta.

'Nonviolence Takes Guts,' Lecturer Tells Protesters

WASHINGTON (AP)—"Non-violence isn't for sissies. It takes guts to be nonviolent."

It was the eve of the long-awaited May Day attempt to stop the Capitol in its tracks through massive, nonviolent civil disobedience and a smattering of troops from the "Peace Army" were getting a final lecture before the dawn.

It had been a long and trying day beginning with the "army's" eviction from its campsite in West Potomac Park early Sunday morning. Now doubts about nonviolence were springing up like mushrooms after a rain.

"If the police don't scare us like they've been doing everything will be all right," said a young man with an Indian headband.

The lecture platform in a George Washington University courtyard was a shower-soaked patio. The lecturer was a raspy-voiced Southerner, wearing a

Questioning Delayed In Capitol Blast

SEATTLE (AP)—Leslie Bacon's attorneys said the government has pledged "some sort of resolution today" of the federal grand jury probe which apparently has been looking into the possibility of the March 10 bombing of the U.S. Capitol was planned in Seattle.

The blonde peace worker's lawyers made the comment after telling newsmen Miss Bacon's scheduled morning appearance before the grand jury was being delayed.

"They gave no reason for the delay."

From other sources there was some indication of growing government interest in pursuit of answers she had declined to give to questions presented Sunday.

Government attorneys have refused to indicate why the investigation is being carried on here, but they said after an unusual grand jury session Sunday they were content with the case.

Miss Bacon's attorneys, Jeffrey Steinborn of Seattle and Michael Fayad of Washington, D.C., have maintained consistently that Miss Bacon knows nothing of the bombing and she knows no one connected with it.

Miss Bacon, 19, of Abertown, Calif., had been held since last

Nixon Outlines Measures Aimed at Aiding Farmers

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP)—President Nixon returns to Washington today with a $400-million program to help farmers improve incomes and exports—and perhaps improve his own political image in the farm belt.

Nixon would make up $349.4 million of the total.

For the man who was booed, picketed and snowballed by Iowa farmers during the winter, one great goal now is to push farm exports to $10 billion a year. A record $7.4 billion is forecast for this year.

Nixon spelled it out in a Sunday radio address to the nation.

To achieve the goal, he is adding $1 billion to the $27.7 billion already in the fiscal 1971 budget for the Foreign Agricultural Service—the federal agency which helps expand agricultural sales overseas.

He also promised continued efforts to lower trade barriers.

The President disclosed new measures to help farmers combat inflation and ease the cost-price squeeze on an industry whose income this year will be the highest ever. The trouble, he said, is that increases in total income do not always mean increases in net income—because of the high costs of inflation—

So, Nixon said, the administration is working to expand supply of farmers credit. The first step is a bid to Congress to authorize the Farmers Home Administration to insure farm operating loans and then increase the amount available by $140 million—from $210 million this fiscal year to $350 million for next year.

The President said he hoped this credit expansion would be especially helpful to Southwestern farms hard hit by drought.

Nixon also injected into the budget for the 1971 fiscal year ending June 30 $9.8 million to finance federal and state research and experiment stations to attack Southern leaf blight on corn, and to combat cattle ticks, fire ants and gypsy moths that menace Eastern timber.

To throw more manpower into soil conservation, Nixon is adding $12 million to the $136 million already in the 1972 budget, and he is increasing from $77 million to $105 million the total for 75 small new watershed projects. And he called for an

Secretary of State Brings Peace Mission to Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—the government under a com-Secretary of State William P. Rogers brought his Middle East peace mission to Lebanon today, landing at heavily guarded Beirut Airport after a visit to U.S. Embassy and other areas in Jordan.

Steel-helmeted troops armed with machine guns ringed the airport and guarded all approaches with orders to shoot to kill anyone attempting to interfere with Rogers' arrival or movements.

Armored cars surrounded the runway and army machinegunners manned rooftop machinegun positions to a stop.

Shortly before his arrival from Amman, Jordan's capital, thousands of Lebanese leftists and Palestinian guerrillas began a slogan-shouting protest march in Beirut with a rhythmic chant of "Go back, Rogers."

The marchers carried Palestinian flags and posters reading "Free Palestine," "Revolution Will Victory" and "Hands off Palestine, Rogers."

The march was allowed by

Andover Residents Vote to Accept Budget

Almost 150 townspeople Saturday night voted to adopt the budget as it was presented by the Board of Finance, with no changes, additions, deletions or corrections.

In a relatively quiet atmosphere, residents submitted numerous questions about portions of the budget, especially with regard to the hiring of a reading teacher in the school budget, and the addition to be built onto the firehouse at an estimated $12,000.

During the general discussion on the firehouse addition, the townspeople also voted to pay real property taxes in excess of $100 and personal property taxes in excess of $50 in quarterly installments due on July 1 and Oct. 1 of 1971 and Jan. 1 and April 1 of 1972.

Percy Cook was again elected to serve as the town clerk. During the general discussion on the budget, many different points were raised. Montague White, assessor, stated that the gas pump has already been installed at the town garage, why not a re-evaluation next year, but can find no provision made for the cost of

Protesters Lectured On Nonviolence

Environmental Action Council actually is and what it's doing there. Steve Willard said Cook told him the pump belongs to the Gulf Oil Company, but no one could really give any definite information about the town of Fire Commissioners at Mrs. Mary Lindholm raised a number of questions, admonishing the people to remember "that every penny counts."

Russell Thompson asked where in the listing of estimated revenues, were all the monies from dog licenses and impoundings. Kowalski, who is also the town dog warden, stated that all monies for licenses are turned over to the state. Which then returns a portion of it to the town if it has met certain requirements. Kowalski said Andover did not have a state-approved dog pound all these years, the money was withheld from the town.

At one point, Valdis Vinkels, local attorney running for an uncontested spot on the Board of Finance, accused some members of the audience of playing politics and stated that they should make decisions on some of the points brought up Monday at the polls.

Another item bounced around was the first selectman's request for $500 for a gas pump, at once! Chronos said since a town Rd. which included food, clothing, dishes, and dolls. Mrs. Horwitz spoke a few sentences in Japanese and taught students the use of chopsticks.

Rogers Arrives In Lebanon

"How essential the continuation of hostilities would be," King Hussein, a flying without a pilot, did not accompany Rogers on the trip.

Rogers was whisked out of the Jordanian capital unannounced, the first such side trip since the beginning of his journey to four Arab countries and Israel in a mission to promote peace.

The shift-observed secretary of state, flying at some points within less than a mile of the Israeli border, saw Israeli occupied East Jerusalem in the distance and Israeli-held territory on the west side of the Jordan River.

He hopped over the scene of the September 6 Syria-Jordan tank battle and stopped at a Jordanian mountainous plateau, from which he peered at the Israeli-held Golan Heights on the west side of the Jordan River.

Returning to Amman, Rogers told newsmen:

"The most dramatic conclusion one can draw from even such a short trip is how senseless the continuation of hostilities would be when you see the area where the carnage is operating and the fertility of the soil is so evident."

"Contrasted with the wreckage camps, it shows how under peaceful conditions all the people could live more beneficially."

Rogers, flying in a French Aérospatiale helicopter bearing royal Jordanian air force insignia, was accompanied by Gen. Zeid Sleib Shaker, deputy chief of Jordanian troops riding the Jordan River from the airport to a royal palace. But there were no signs of protest as a brass band bagpipe band blared its welcome.

This was in marked contrast to disturbances by the Palestine guerrillas a year ago which caused Assistant Secretary of State Joseph Sisco, one of Rogers' party, to cancel an Amman visit.

Proceeding up the Jordan River valley, Rogers saw the East Ghor Canal built in U.S. financial aid and damaged in fighting with the Israelis. Irrigation from the water provided a striking contrast between this area and arid lands elsewhere.

Rogers passed within sight of the place on the Jordan River where Christ was believed to have been baptized. Some protesters from the Al Fatah Communist organization paraded peacefully through Beirut Sunday with posters proclaiming "Rogers Go Back" and "Freedom for Palestine."

But U.S. officials did not anticipate such a display. The secretary of state got his first red carpet welcome since leaving Washington when he flew into Amman Sunday from Riyadh, capital of Saudi Arabia.

Green-bereted troops riding Land Rovers mounted with machine guns escorted Rogers' motorcade from the airport to a royal palace. But there were no signs of protest as a brass band bagpipe band blared its welcome.

This was in marked contrast to disturbances by the Palestine guerrillas a year ago which caused Assistant Secretary of State Joseph Sisco, one of Rogers' party, to cancel an Amman visit.
