Democratic Club Head Stresses Role of People

By DOUGLAS BEVINS

(Herald Reporter) Noting that "the more the people get interested in politics, the more the politicians will get interested in the people," John J. Fitzpatrick last night assumed the presidency of the newly-incorporated Democratic Club of Manchester. The rapidly-expanding club, which aims to "create townwide interest, participation, and in-volvement in politics," elected

Is Measured Results of the water samples saken from Coventry Lake on Saturday, comparing the col-form and coliform fecal counts with a June 12 test have been The collform and fecal col-form counts are measured by 100/ml. The results showed Lisicke Beach, coliform count 160 and fecal count 12; Waterfront Heights, 540 and 4; Oak Grove, 220 and 16; Waterfront Park, 100 and 0; Gerald Park, 60 and 0; Lakewood Heights, 280 and 20; Lakeview Terrace, 380 and 12; Sandy Shores, 440 and 8; Gate, 200 and 28; and lemlock Point, 20 and 8. If the collform count is 200 and under the water is safe for swimming. If the count is 200-000, the state will take tests to find the pollutant source. The samples taken June 12 esulted in: Lisicke Beach, 120 nd 12; Waterfront Heights, 160 and 8; Oak Grove, 70 and 0; erfront Park, 20 and 4; Gerald Park, 160 and 12; Lakewood Cerrace, 100 and 4; Sandy thores, 200 and 4; Gate, 150 and 12; Hemlock Point, 160 and 12. The changes in the coliform count could be due to a thunderstorm the night before the tests The tests are done by voluneers Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Koontz of Hemlock Point, free of any charge to the town. The report also gave the water vater level down 13 inches.

Colonial Ball Nathan Hale Ancient Fife and Drum Corps will hold ts Nathan Hale Colonial Ball at Ray's Roller Ring on Oct. 2. During its first year, the corps sponsored the first annual Fife and Drum Ball in an effort to raise funds. By-1967 the group had become more self sufficient and agreed to share the proceeds with some local groups o start the series of Fife and Drum Bails known today.

The corps explained in an open letter to the town, that this year it was only asked to pro-vide a 15-minute musical interlude. It said the situation is "in-creasingly embarrassing and difficult to explain" when people request reservation, that the corps has nothing to do with the affair "other than accept an invitation to play during an inter-

Army Recruiting Promise Shallow. Contends CCLU

HARTFORD (AP)-The Connecticut Civil Liberties Union says it has learned something about the U.S. Army: That recruiting and promises bear no necessary relation to what will really happen to the young re-

"The Army's recruitment campaign gives young men the impression that the 'new' Army is 'more interested in what's in your head rather than what's on top'," said CCLU executive director William Olds in a state-

The civil liberties group called the claims "misleading" and said the "fraudulent advertis-ing" charge was borne out by the experience of a young Connecticut Army Reservist. The OCLU said he was threatened with activation into the regular Army "because his sideburns were one-eighth of an inch too long according to his commanding officer."
The OCLU took the young man's case to the Pentagon and said it received an answer that 'adds up to a case for conform

Reflections of a Rural Mail Carrier

(Herald Correspondent)

There are some changes be ng made in the U.S. Post Ofce today—the most far-reaching of which is its change in status from a department of the federal government to an autonomous agency, the U.S.

Postal Service. to one rural mail earrier, in the South Windsor Post Office. Henry Wayner, 50, of Community Rd, has held this position for over 11 years and has seen the town change from a farming community to a rural in-dustrial populace.

But incidents still do occur which takes "one back in time" Wayner said and cited an incident just last week when neighbors in the Main St area helped remove a donkey from the path of delivery and into the owner's barn. Horses have been seen running down streets as well as geese and lambs out they are slowly phasing out as time goes on, he noted. Wayner is a man who "enjoys his job" and says so with a smile. As a rural carrier he uses his own automobile on his route which covers some 37 miles in the northwest sector

Recently fact-finding committees in the Post Office were surprised to find just what important role these rural carriers play in mail delivery. More than 40 million Americans are serviced six days a week by these carriers who drive more than two million miles each day in doing so, a distance about equal to four
