an immersion in water;" and submerge; in New Testament an immersion in water;" and to Abbott-Smith's Lexicon: "To dip, immerse, sink."

These definitions of the term are borne out in early Christian practice. It involved "much water," John 3:23; going down into the water, Matt. 3:5, 6; going down into the water, Acts 8:38; coming up from the water, Matt. 3:18, Acts 8:38; coming up from the water, Matt. 3:18, Acts 8:38; coming up from the water, Matt. 3:15, 6:39. Indeed Christian baptism is described as a "burial," Col. 2:12; in the likeness of Jesus' death, burial and resurrection, Rom. 6:3-6.

The year before he came up to the Browns, he played for Memphis, stole 65 bases and was named the Most Valuable Player in the American Association. These were the war years and the caliber of professional baseball was at low ebb. But in 1965—or any year, for that matter—for a one-armed man to play 77 major-league games and bat .218 and hit six doubles, two triples, drive in 13 runs and strike out only 11 times in 234 at-bats is quite a feat.

During the next 12 months, she made two feature motion pictures, was cast in "Funny Face" and did a prize-winning TV commerical for United California Banks. She was a puzzled bank teller in the commercial and it was cited at the Cannes Film Festival.

Miss Duncan wasn't exactly overwhelmed by her success. She's been preparing for it most of her life and now practices a disarming kind of honesty.

"I have been worned," she said, "never to tell my age. "I'm 25."

She was asked what elements have been put into "Funny Face" to make forecasters so certain it would be a hit. "I don't know," she said. "There's nothing in it that's new. There's nothing in it that's very differ-
