

Address Set By President On Economy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House announced today President Nixon will address a joint session of Congress at 12:30 p.m. EDT Thursday on his new economic policies.

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the joint session would convene at 12:15 p.m. and Nixon would speak 15 minutes later.

His announcement at the White House came after congressional leaders had made the disclosure on Capitol Hill that Nixon would address Congress.

Nixon met for a little over two hours today with his Cabinet Council on International Economic Policy, with the main focus on U.S. competition in world markets.

Ziegler said Nixon's remarks to the gathering centered on this field. He said there was a good deal of discussion on the necessity for establishing new plants and equipment so that U.S. industry can be more competitive in international trade.

Ziegler said the discussion also included the international monetary situation and trade matters, including the meeting this week in Washington of U.S. and Japanese Cabinet members on economic relations.

Following the President's address, the House and Senate will remain in the House chamber for a reception for the three Apollo 15 astronauts.

The congressional leaders made their report while Nixon met with top advisers on international economic policy. A high-level Japanese delegation is due in town later in the week to discuss trade problems.

Among those scheduled to attend today's meeting were Treasury Secretary John B. Connally; Secretary of State William P. Rogers; Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird; Director George Shultz of the Office of Management and Budget; Chairman Paul McCracken of the President's Council of Economic Advisers; Ambassador Carl J. Gilbert, Nixon's special trade representative; and Ambassador-at-Large David M. Kennedy, former secretary of the Treasury.

Connally and Rogers will be the leading U.S. participants in discussions Thursday and Friday marking the annual U.S.-Japanese meeting of cabinet ministers on trade and economic affairs.

The Japanese ministers are expected to push for repeal of restrictions on the sale of Japanese products in the United States, including a 10-percent surtax on imports imposed Aug. 15 by President Nixon as part of a sweeping new policy designed to curb inflation and protect the dollar.

Soviet Ship Near Moon

MOSCOW (AP)—The unmanned Soviet space vehicle Luna 18 went into near-lunar orbit today, Tass said.

The craft approached the moon and swung around it at the end of a five-day flight during which several corrections in the vehicle's trajectory were made.

Tass said ground control had 29 "communications sessions" with the automatic station during the flight.

The mission of the craft has still not been divulged, but some Western specialists anticipated that another automatic moon rover, Lunokhod 2, will be rolled on the lunar surface. Others expected a second soft-landing operation.

Tass said the station braked when approaching the moon today and was swung into a round orbit about 60 miles from the moon's surface.

Luna 18 was orbiting the moon at the rate of one turn every hour and 59 minutes at a 35-degree inclination to the moon's equator.

Though Tass didn't say so, it was thought scientists at ground control would try to guide the craft to a soft landing.

Tass said telemetric data indicated that the onboard equipment situation and trade matters, including the meeting this week in Washington of U.S. and Japanese Cabinet members on economic relations.

Legislators In State To Study Vetoes

HARTFORD (AP)—Gov. Thomas J. Meskill said this morning he hoped the minority Republicans in the legislature would back his vetoes of two bills up for reconsideration later in the day.

Both bills had been vetoed once before, but were passed again during the General Assembly's special session on taxes. The Republican governor promptly vetoed them again, requiring another "trailer" session of the legislature to reconsider the bills.

One of them, a bill to increase state payments to the House of the Good Shepherd in Hartford for the care of girls who are wards of the state, is now an "academic" issue Meskill said, because the facility has already been closed.

The other, a measure providing $1.7 million in state aid for school construction in Bridgeport, has even less merit now than it did before, Meskill said, because the school buildings in question are "still not in conformity with state fire regulations."

Rep. Nicholas Panasio, R-Bridgewater, a candidate for mayor in the Park City, tried vainly to persuade the governor

No Firm Decision Reached In British-Irish Conference

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Jack Lynch of the Irish republic declared after a meeting with Prime Minister Edward Heath today that reunification of Ireland is the only way to bring permanent peace in Northern Ireland.

Heath and Lynch conferred for two days on ways of finding a solution to the two years of civil strife in Ulster, Northern Ireland's official name.

Lynch described his talks with Heath—who has the overall say in running the British province—as "merely an examination in depth of the situation."

No firm decisions were reached.

The meeting between the two leaders came with no real letup in the rioting, shooting and bombing in Ulster that has claimed 100 lives—including children and British soldiers.

Lynch has come under fire of the outlawed Irish Republican Army—IRA—which is dedicated to unification of Ireland by any means, including force.

The Irish leader, regarded as a moderate, goes along with the unification tradition that dates 50 years in IRA history but wants to achieve unity by peaceful means.

Lynch's comment that reunification is the only way to bring a lasting solution to the Irish question means that steps must be taken now to give the Roman Catholics more say in government in the north.

The soft-spoken leader of the Irish Republic said he would meet with Heath again. They have another date in October.

"They were useful talks," he

Assassination Plot Against U.S. Envoy Fails in Cambodia

PHNOM PENH Cambodia (AP)—Terrorists shoved a bomb-laden bicycle into the path of U.S. Ambassador Emory C. Swank's limousine today but the assassination attempt fell through when the explosive failed to go off.

The riderless bicycle lurched on an alleyway as Swank was being driven to work from his residence half a mile from the embassy. The 13-pound plastic explosive, concealed under some loaves of French bread, was set to detonate on impact with the car, Cambodian police said.

But the bicycle brushed against the limousine and tumbled harmlessly into the street, they said. Swank continued toward the embassy unaware of the attempt on his life, embassy spokesmen said.

The 49-year-old diplomat began work as usual at 7:30 a.m. and learned of the assassination attempt only at mid-morning, the spokesmen said. Swank continued normal embassy business and refused comment on the incident.

"It's part of life here," a spokesman said.

Police said the bomb was discovered under the long bread loaves in a basket on the back of the bicycle only when Swank's Cambodian bodyguard stopped and ordered a search by military police.

The vehicle was pushed from the alleyway by two young men on motorcycles who made their getaway up the alley and onto another street, they said. The police sources were unable to explain what caused the bomb to malfunction.

The sources said a pressure-type detonator had been at the car.

Swank, 49, and married, entered the diplomatic service in 1946. He has served in Shanghai, Tientsin, Batavia, Jakarta, Moscow, Bucharest and Vientiane. He is a native of Frederick, Md.

The bomb attack was the fifth aimed at the American Embassy and its members since war erupted here last year.

Last Dec. 1 a bomb blasted the embassy building during the predawn hours, causing extensive damage but injuring no one.

In April, another terrorist bomb that failed to explode was contained in a school bag thrown from a passing motorcycle at an American Embassy car waiting to pick up a passenger.

Simultaneous attacks were made June 1 on a Marine guard residence and quarters for members of the U.S. military equipment delivery team. Two Americans were injured in these attacks.

Key Drive Planned By South Viets

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP)—American infantrymen have moved into two forward fire bases to free South Vietnamese troops for a major drive near the Laotian border, military spokesmen reported today.

In another development, two U.S. Air Force F4 fighter-bombers attacked inside North Vietnam in the 50th so-called protective reaction strike this year. The supersonic planes attacked antiaircraft guns 51 miles north of the demilitarized zone and destroyed two of them after they fired on an unarmed reconnaissance plane, the U.S. Command said. None of the U.S. planes was reported damaged.

U.S. B2 bombers meanwhile launched 16 more strikes in the region around the South south of the DMZ to soften up North Vietnamese positions for the new westward push by 12,000 South Vietnamese troops.

But there was no significant contact reported with the ene-

Holiday Road Toll Put at 614

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic accidents across the nation claimed 614 lives during the three-day Labor Day weekend.

The National Safety Council had estimated in advance that 600 to 700 persons might die on streets and highways during the period from 6 p.m. local time Friday to midnight Monday.

The Labor Day weekend traffic death toll last year was 612. The holiday's highest toll since World War II was 685 in 1968.

There were seven accidental deaths in Connecticut during the long Labor Day weekend, and a sailor stationed at the submarine base in Groton was killed in a traffic accident in Westerly, R.I.

Police Press Search For McDonough

BOSTON (AP)—Massachusetts State Police have set up a special task force whose No. 1 priority will be to press a search for Stephen McDonough, 23, of Farmington, Conn., wanted in connection with the shotgun shooting of Trooper Francis J. Reardon Jr. at Ludlow last Thursday.

McDonough is also charged with the murder of a Rhode Island man whose body was found April 8 and is wanted in connection with a Canton, Conn., bank robbery that occurred the same day trooper Reardon was shot.

Detective Lt. James J. Fitzgibbon was named Monday to head the unit. Capt. Martin A. Murphy, head of the detective force, said the task force will be given "all the investigative resources we have."

State and local police met with no success in the weekend hunt for McDonough, who also is wanted in connection with a holdup and shooting in West Virginia, the death of a Providence, R.I., man and bank holdups in Connecticut.

"We're still looking," a state police spokesman said. "The trail isn't cold yet, but we've got nothing very hot."

The spokesman said most of the state police force is on vol-

Jet Crashes In Germany; 21 Are Killed

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)—The coolness and skill of a 23-year-old pilot were credited today with preventing a greater disaster when a West German charter airliner crashed after attempting an emergency landing on a superhighway.

One-hundred of the 121 passengers and crew members on board survived the crash, police said after sorting out conflicting casualty figures for more than 20 hours.

The 21 dead included a stewardess, they added.

Forty-five persons on board were injured and 17 remained hospitalized today—a man among them the plane's pilot, Capt. Reinhold Huelis, who suffered multiple fractures.

The Federal Transport Ministry reported that three persons on the ground also were injured when the jetliner came down on the highway.

The plane, a twin-engine BAC 111 belonging to Pan International Airlines, was en route from Hamburg to Malaga, Spain, with a crew of six and 115 vacationers.

"The pilot was wonderful. If he hadn't reacted so coolly, we all would be dead," Renate Zarth, one of the survivors, said.

Huelis brought the jet down on the Hamburg-Luebeck autobahn after it developed engine trouble just minutes out of Hamburg's Fuhlsbüttel Airport.

But the plane lost its wings and broke apart after it struck an overpass. Moments later, after most of the passengers and crew had scrambled to safety, the fuel tanks exploded, engulfing the wreckage in flames.

Peter: 7th grad a083, delisting lead a060.

Peter Karsten, a motorist who witnessed the scene, gave this account: "I was driving along in the dusk when I suddenly noticed a big shadow over me. I made it out as an airliner with strong smoke trails behind it. Several hundred meters ahead of me, the plane touched the autobahn with screeching tires and skidded under a bridge. Large sections of its wings burst off and scattered all over the highway."

The West German transport minister, Georg Leber, ordered an investigation into the crash.

Women Chain Selves Together To Protest School Busing Plans

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—Nine protesters were arrested and one school was evacuated briefly because of a bomb threat today as Pontiac's schools started classes under a massive court-ordered program of integration through busing.

Despite the incidents, School Supt. Dr. Dana Whitmer said there were "no problems with reference to the safety and security of the children. That's our first concern. Problems were resolved quietly, without great difficulty."

And Whitmer said he saw nothing to support requests by some citizens for federal marshals to oversee implementation of the plan.

The arrests came as five women chained themselves together at the entrance to a school bus yard in a bid to delay the buses. The other four arrested were women who also tried to halt buses leaving the yard, where 10 buses were dynamited eight days ago.

About 800 persons, led by Irene McCabe, a head of the National Action Group—NAG—which has led opposition to the busing, picketed the Pontiac School Board offices later.

NAG leaders said they will try again Wednesday to appeal U.S. District Court Judge Dan Keith's busing order to the U.S. 6th Circuit Court of Appeals. The appeals court refused to grant a stay of the program last week.

The bomb threat forced several hundred pupils to leave Kennedy Junior High School briefly. Principal Daniel Hutchins said the caller sounded like a young boy but pupils were evacuated as a precaution.

By late morning, only one elementary schoolteacher had failed to report for work. Six others reported they were "sick," school officials said.

There were no statistics available to indicate how many children took part in the busing program. School officials said many parents drove their children to classes, making it difficult to determine how the busing worked.

The first five women arrested at the bus yard wrapped thick chains about their waists before police led them away. Some of the women laughed and joked with the arresting officers.

The remaining pickets made so move to halt the first bus—one designated to carry handicapped children—but then the scene changed.

Pickets blocked the exit.

Under police orders, the buses began inching through their lines.

Police Capt. Harry Nye warned the demonstrators they would be arrested if they did not leave. They fell back slowly, allowing the vehicles to pass.

The first school to report attendance today was Whittier Elementary School, where only 44 of 243 fourth, fifth and sixth graders scheduled to ride the school buses did so.

More than 40 parents were at the school as the buses arrived. Alex Thistle, 28, of Pontiac, one of the few male protesters, said he was hit by one of the buses at the parking lot. He was taken to Pontiac General Hospital for observation. Witnesses said Thistle fell delib-

Public opinion, operating at such a distance from realities full of contradictions and complications it cannot begin to understand, is all too likely to fall into the trap of labeling one protagonist a villain and then making the assumption that those who oppose him are therefore virtuous heroes.

The interventionist power game we ourselves are playing in South Vietnam is not likely to inspire anything better than an internal imitation of itself.

A Revelation, Too? The psychologists of the office of the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service have decided to their own satisfaction, have violence on television can make children who watch television more violent in their own behavior.

We conclude, and then try to twist their conclusion. We concede that television often saves children the necessity of inventing their own form of violence, at least by offering them ready-made alternatives which may be less harmful.

What if all this supposing adds up to the possibility that the child of television violence grows up to be bored with violence as an entertainment and sick of violence as an outlet for his or her energies.

Or, for a final supposition, what about the possibility that television violence helps us work our way through and out of our human quagmire of interest in violence before it does very much harm and leaves us the most peacefully inclined adult class in the world?

What if this supposing adds up to the possibility that the child of television violence grows up to be bored with violence as an entertainment and sick of violence as an outlet for his or her energies.

Inside Report

Nixon Versus Hebert

By Rowland Evans Jr. and Robert D. Novak

WASHINGTON — President Nixon's bold refusal to bend to political pressures trying to dent his wage freeze has now put him eyeball-to-eyeball with one of the most powerful Democrats on Capitol Hill.

Gov. Meskill promises to be "hyper-sensitive" to long-term capital borrowing for construction programs — and not without good reason.

The unfortunate thing about the surtax abroad is that, starting from a bad principle in the first place, it imposes its penalties equally upon the just and the unjust.

It might be a wonderful thing if President Nixon, who is so good, on occasion, at the business of acting cheerful about uncertainties, should soon pretend that the 10 per cent surcharge has already gained the United States the attention and the world attitude it wanted, and can therefore be discarded before it becomes any solid part of anybody's un-sound gain or unjust hurt, here or abroad.

Not Our Kind Of Hero Unless we are really a very silly people, we are not going to let ourselves drift into the assumption that any leadership in South Vietnam which opposes President Thieu's one-man election is inspired by any spirit of democracy.

The far assumption would be that Vice President Ky, who accuses President Thieu of trying to make himself a dictator, wouldn't mind very much becoming a dictator himself, and wouldn't hesitate very much to seize power through the use of force, did he possess the force.

Unless we are really a very silly people, we are not going to let ourselves drift into the assumption that any leadership in South Vietnam which opposes President Thieu's one-man election is inspired by any spirit of democracy.

Connecticut Yankee

By A.H.O.

If Governor Meskill keeps on telling them so, the people of Connecticut themselves may begin to believe that they have somehow expressed themselves in favor of great economy in all levels of government.

And if they begin to believe themselves, perhaps they will, some day, actually demonstrate and agitate in favor of such economy.

Meanwhile, however, the troublesome question is that of how the Governor, or any of the orators in the General Assembly, or any of us would-be preachers, can be sure that the people of Connecticut have expressed themselves in favor of any thing.

No citizen has ever accented us and told us he was in favor of economy or a sane tax, or an income tax.

We made a point of covering what was advertised as the first "a s a" demonstration against the income tax at the State Capitol. It was a rally supposedly to draw on the whole population of the state, and there had been advance appeal.

There were one or two sections of the state where there was a heavy volume of letters to the newspapers on the subject of the great summer tax against treaty violators.

Other power plants in the power chain were taking up the cry. According to Charles Briggs, a Northeast vice president, he said the plant had been generating its normal output of 600,000 kilowatts as soon as the sun came out.

The plant was producing only 200,000 kilowatts at the time. He said part of the problem was that the plant had been generating its normal output of 600,000 kilowatts as soon as the sun came out.

There was, at the final all day all night hearing conducted by the Legislative Finance Committee, something of an opportunity for the people to speak.

But ordinary people were rare indeed in the list of names who had energy and patience to wait for their opportunity to speak, and such development of the theme of economy as there was on this occasion came almost exclusively from persistent figures well known as ideological extremists in their home communities who had somehow managed to equate all public spending with any kind with some Communist plot.

Conceivably, there are always certain responses one can get if one goes out and buttons down the neck of a shirt, one can always get, for the asking, opposition to any specific tax one mentions. One can always get, along with such opposition to any tax in particular, the generalization that the politicians spend too much.

But, if we may use a term not to be disrespectful, but merely in order to illustrate how rare they are, most of the Connecticut individuals who actually expressed themselves during the summer tax struggle were the state's good old crackpot standbys.

We have been waiting, during our decades of observing the political scene, for some real demonstration of actual public interest in fiscal issues. In our humble opinion, Governor Meskill may still succeed in creating such an interest, but is drawing on his own without demonstrating in Washington next month.

Soviet Stand On N-Tests Is Unmoved

By A.H.O.

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union today has not changed its position on banning underground nuclear weapon tests since the opening of the Geneva disarmament talks and made it plain it will not accept a ban except on its own terms.

Both then and at present we considered and consider that control over the prohibition of tests can be ensured only through national means of verification.

We would like to see that the Soviet Union, as we have repeatedly stated, is ready to accept an agreement on the cessation of underground nuclear weapon tests on the basis of national means of detecting underground nuclear explosions.

Peace Drug Backed By Psychologist

By A.H.O.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The president of the American Psychological Association today backed a drug which he said would help control the violence of the school bus strike.

Both then and at present we considered and consider that control over the prohibition of tests can be ensured only through national means of verification.

We would like to see that the Soviet Union, as we have repeatedly stated, is ready to accept an agreement on the cessation of underground nuclear weapon tests on the basis of national means of detecting underground nuclear explosions.

There were one or two sections of the state where there was a heavy volume of letters to the newspapers on the subject of the great summer tax against treaty violators.

Other power plants in the power chain were taking up the cry. According to Charles Briggs, a Northeast vice president, he said the plant had been generating its normal output of 600,000 kilowatts as soon as the sun came out.

The plant was producing only 200,000 kilowatts at the time. He said part of the problem was that the plant had been generating its normal output of 600,000 kilowatts as soon as the sun came out.

There was, at the final all day all night hearing conducted by the Legislative Finance Committee, something of an opportunity for the people to speak.

But ordinary people were rare indeed in the list of names who had energy and patience to wait for their opportunity to speak, and such development of the theme of economy as there was on this occasion came almost exclusively from persistent figures well known as ideological extremists in their home communities who had somehow managed to equate all public spending with any kind with some Communist plot.

Conceivably, there are always certain responses one can get if one goes out and buttons down the neck of a shirt, one can always get, for the asking, opposition to any specific tax one mentions. One can always get, along with such opposition to any tax in particular, the generalization that the politicians spend too much.

But, if we may use a term not to be disrespectful, but merely in order to illustrate how rare they are, most of the Connecticut individuals who actually expressed themselves during the summer tax struggle were the state's good old crackpot standbys.

We have been waiting, during our decades of observing the political scene, for some real demonstration of actual public interest in fiscal issues. In our humble opinion, Governor Meskill may still succeed in creating such an interest, but is drawing on his own without demonstrating in Washington next month.

State Man Says: Frogs, Crayfish, Crickets Can Serve as Fine Pets

By A.H.O.

NEW YORK (AP) — Frogs and crayfish, caterpillars and crickets may not be as traditional pets as cats and dogs, parrots and goldfish, but such there are two dogs, two cats, a small wild creature still make interesting pets.

Puerto Rican Leftists Plan Anti-U.S. Activity

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — Puerto Rican leftist separatists are agitating for massive anti-American demonstrations to coincide with the opening of the national governors' conference in San Juan next Sunday.

Coventry Need for Improvement Seen in Six School Areas

The 1971-72 school year will be primarily one in which present systems and processes are improved, according to Superintendent of Schools Donald Hardy. The major emphasis will be in six areas.

Another major goal is improvement in the evaluation system for substitute teachers, teachers and administrators. He hopes to estimate the custodial nature of substitute teachers.

Modern Radical Bombers Use Sophisticated Devices

Los Angeles (AP) — The use of the bomb is continuing at an accelerated rate in California. The bomber is more sophisticated. So are the devices he uses. Arrests are few and far between. Most authorities classify the bombers as either revenge seekers, militant protesters or those making symbolic attacks on the establishment in the Vietnam war to alleged police brutality, or revolutionaries who really want to overthrow the government.

Congress To Confront Nixon Economic Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress returns this week after a month's vacation to find its agenda rewritten by President Nixon's "new American revolution" replaced by his new economic policy.

When the congressional recess began Aug. 6, Nixon was pushing welfare reform and revenue sharing as the centerpiece of the program he outlined in his State of the Union message last January.

But the President, faced with a steadily worsening economy, shifted gears Aug. 15, he called for passage of a tax package, which would raise wages, prices and rents for 90 days and took action to stabilize the dollar.

And he asked Congress to delay the effective dates of his welfare-reform and revenue-sharing plans to hold down overall spending and allow prompt consideration of his economic program.

Nixon called for repeal of the 17-percent excise tax on new automobiles, a schedule in individual income tax exemptions and a 10-percent tax credit for business investment.

Although congressional disapproval has been widespread, leaders of both parties have pledged prompt consideration of the tax package. The House Ways and Means Committee has a schedule of 11 hearings Wednesday, the day Congress returns.

Indications are that a package will be approved, possibly as early as October. But there probably will be changes in the Nixon proposals.

Democratic critics maintain they are worried that the package in favor of big business at the expense of individual taxpayers.

Of the programs proposed by Nixon to implement the "new American revolution" he called for in his State of the Union message, welfare reform appears to have the best chance of enactment this session.

It has passed the House and Sen. Russell Long, D-La., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, said he will resume hearings on it later this month.

The legislation contains broad increases in social Security benefits as well as the welfare revisions and Long said, there will be strong pressure for action on the Social Security portion.

Should the Finance Committee delete the welfare reform part of the bill, advocates of welfare reform say they have a good chance of restoring it on the Senate floor.

Under his "new American revolution," Nixon also had asked for federal government health-care changes, but action on this subject has been deferred until 1972.

Before the August recess, congressional leaders were talking of a possible Oct. 15 adjournment for the session.

That idea went out the window with Nixon's economic announcement. Now leaders say the session will last at least until the wage-price freeze ends Nov. 13 and probably much longer.

Steele Contends Viet Promotion 'Political Game'

VERNON (AP) — U.S. Rep. Robert H. Steele has charged that the promotion of a South Vietnamese general accused of being a chief trafficker in narcotics is part of the "political jockeying" in South Vietnam.

The promotion of Maj. Gen. Ngo Dan to lieutenant general "appears to be related to the political jockeying going on right now in South Vietnam, and it certainly does not appear to be consistent with the actions taken by the South Vietnamese government itself in the last couple of months. The 2nd District Republican said Sunday.

Steele told a House foreign affairs subcommittee in July that Dan was a "chief trafficker" in South Vietnam's narcotics trade.

Dan has repeatedly denied these charges and has said they were part of a "personal revenge" campaign against him.

Steele also said the South Vietnamese Inspector General formally charged Dan with looting two abandoned American bases and that South Vietnamese President Thieu had personally ordered a narcotics investigation against the general.

The freshman congressman also said he has no information that those charges have been resolved.

Dan's promotion by President Thieu was announced Sunday and appears to have the effect of clearing him and giving him a vote of confidence, he said.

Roman Cabbies End Vacations, Back on Strikes

ROME (AP) — With summer vacations over, many Italians are going back to their strikes.

In Rome, cab drivers began a nine-hour-day strike to protest the city's failure to unlicensed cabs.

Taxi drivers claim that the number of unlicensed cabs is increasing and that they are competing with them for passengers.

In the northern industrial city of Milan, workers in a plant of Fiat, Italy's largest automobile maker, have struck to protest the dismissal of a worker.

The company says that the worker was active in a labor union, was let go for disciplinary reasons.

About 1,500 workers walked off their jobs Monday in a plant of automaker Fiat, Italy's largest private employer, in a plant near Turin.

The workers' union said the strike was to protest the dismissal of a worker.

In the southern city of Naples, workers in a plant of Fiat said some workers were trying to extend their 40-minute break to 90 minutes.

In Verona, railroad mechanics called a 24-hour strike Monday.

The state railroad road said a substitute bus service would be provided for passengers.

The job actions resumed following summer vacations when many plants were closed.

Before the summer, crippling strikes affected almost every sector of the economy and were blamed for Italy's sagging industrial production.

Final SAM Rock Concert Draws Crowd of 3,000

By DOUG BEVINS (Herald Reporter)

Saturday's rock festival at Mt. Nebo sponsored by Summer Activities in Manchester (SAM) wasn't exactly another Woodstock, but it did bear a vague resemblance to that huge rock exposition. A crowd estimated at about 3,000 came to the Manchester event, the last SAM activity of the summer, and although the festival really didn't get underway until 1:30, but it ran until 11 p.m., the closing time agreed to by SAM and the Manchester Police.

SAM's previous five events had been held at Center Park, but residents and businessmen in the park area objected to the rock concerts, and Mt. Nebo was chosen as the site. Town officials were instrumental in helping SAM ready Mt. Nebo for the concert, and police were also helpful, according to SAM coordinators.

The concert was a little slow in getting underway, as many of the seven rock groups, which were performing free, were late in arriving. The show got kicked off with folk singer Joe Hogan, a recent graduate of Manchester High School.

The sparse crowd in the rear by afternoon at times seemed to be ignoring the music, in favor of idle chatter and tripping or halloping.

The local groups were surprisingly good, and contrary to widespread opinion, they were largely original. Probably the best received music came from the Dog of Hartford, Snow & Ghost Dance, and Ghost Dance.

The ten policemen on duty apparently didn't bother the people smoking dope and the odor of hundreds of strangely scented cigarettes permeated the air. The young people didn't really try to conceal the grass, and the police overlooked it.

Most of the Parade groupies occurred Saturday night, as were most at offices located together at 86 W. Middle Tpk., the office of Ted Cummings Insurance, incurred the only theft loss left in a desk was broken, reported nothing missing.

The Mt. Nebo Rock-Festival concluded SAM's schedule, but coordinators are looking for next summer, with hopes the Board of Directors will again authorize the program.

Maher To Leave UConn For N.Y. Welfare Post

Edward W. Maher, 45, of 28 1/2, His administration required the establishment of fiscal, personnel, purchasing, physical plant, and other units. Maher is a member of the American Society for Public Administration and served as president of the Connecticut chapter in 1960. He has been a guest lecturer on fiscal matters at the University of Hartford. He is married to the former Therese Kane of Norwich. The couple has three sons: Brian, 19, who will be a sophomore at UConn; Jeffrey, 15, who will enter Southern Connecticut State College; and Gary, 15, a junior at Manchester High School. After Maher assumes his new post, the family expects to live in the Albany, N. Y. area.

Vernon Woman Hurt in Crash

Ruth B. Dow of Vernon, in a five-car collision Saturday afternoon, was held overnight at Manchester Memorial Hospital, a spokesman said this morning.

The collision occurred on Toland Tpk. about 3:30 p.m., when Miss Dow's eastbound car struck another eastbound car driven by Clarence E. Fuller of Middlebury, Conn. Miss Dow's car crossed into the Western Best parking lot off Toland Tpk., and struck three parked cars, owned by James O. Dowling, 152 Oak Grove St.; Jay E. Allen, Windsor; and Joseph M. O'Brien, 47 Highland St.

Police issued Miss Dow a citation for driving on a road under construction. She was not injured. Her car was damaged. Her car was towed to a garage. A spokesman said the fire was "of suspicious origin," and is under investigation by the Fire Marshal's office.

Nothing inside the garage was damaged.

A flaming dumpster at the Dan Willis Garage on Main St. roared then out at 8:50 Sunday afternoon, and at 8:55 yesterday afternoon, roof-faced firemen showed up at Woodland and Hilliard Sts., where smoke was reported, only to find a barbecue in progress.

The town firemen were also busy with a large garage fire on Walnut St. Saturday morning at 12:45. A malfunction caused box 385 of the Manchester Memorial Hospital to sound, and at 11:30 a.m. the town line will be done from 25 schools to more than Kage Co. on Elm St., on Thursday.

TV Tower Falls, Kills 6 Persons

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — A developing uniform procedure and police and efficient administration. Starting pay is reported to be $37,500. An UConn office is receiving $30,000.

A native of West Haven, Maher graduated from UConn in 1945, with a major in government and a minor in business administration. After working as a research assistant for the privately funded Government Research Institute in Hartford until 1961, he returned to Syracuse University, where he received a master's in public affairs in 1962.

Returning to Connecticut, Maher became a special assistant to the budget director for the state and in 1963 was promoted to senior management analyst. He served two years with the U.S. Air Force as a budget and management analyst officer at the Fifth Air Force headquarters in Nagoya, Japan.

After his tour of duty, he returned to the Connecticut Budget Division and held a variety of posts, eventually heading the agency until 1968, when he joined the New York State Division of the Budget as a planning consultant. In that position, he was responsible for formulating the 1969-70 budget.

Fire Calls

The Eighth District firemen were started to 10:30 p.m. in response to box alarm 124, at 10 o'clock Saturday night, and quickly doused a fire in the roof of a garage. A spokesman said the fire was "of suspicious origin," and is under investigation by the Fire Marshal's office.

Nothing inside the garage was damaged.

A flaming dumpster at the Dan Willis Garage on Main St. roared then out at 8:50 Sunday afternoon, and at 8:55 yesterday afternoon, roof-faced firemen showed up at Woodland and Hilliard Sts., where smoke was reported, only to find a barbecue in progress.

The town firemen were also busy with a large garage fire on Walnut St. Saturday morning at 12:45. A malfunction caused box 385 of the Manchester Memorial Hospital to sound, and at 11:30 a.m. the town line will be done from 25 schools to more than Kage Co. on Elm St., on Thursday.

WHITE WATER MAILMAN

The Idaho Queen III smashes her way through rapids on the Middle Snake River.

The address tells the story...

...and the Hells Canyon shepman picks up his week's grocery supply.

This river mail run is "the world's longest"—and perhaps the most spectacular. It's a weekly mail boat, operated by the Rivers Navigation Company, which plunges the 100 swirling miles up the white water of Idaho's Middle Snake River from Lewiston to Hells Canyon.

There are some 15 cattle and sheep ranches in the remote Canyon, served by only a few roads which at certain times of year are choked by snowdrifts or mud. The indispensable mail boat brings in letters from friends, bills for almost everything and greetings from the draft board. But it also brings the morning newspaper, the groceries, cattle feed or a child's toy. It even carries mothers-to-be to Lewiston—and later carries back home the new baby and the happy mother. Occasionally it carries sightseers for the round-trip.

For emergencies there are airplanes, private boats and four-wheel drive vehicles. But when you live in Hells Canyon you try not to have emergencies, of any kind. Although the doctor is only a day's journey away, a new toothbrush takes a week to come from Lewiston.

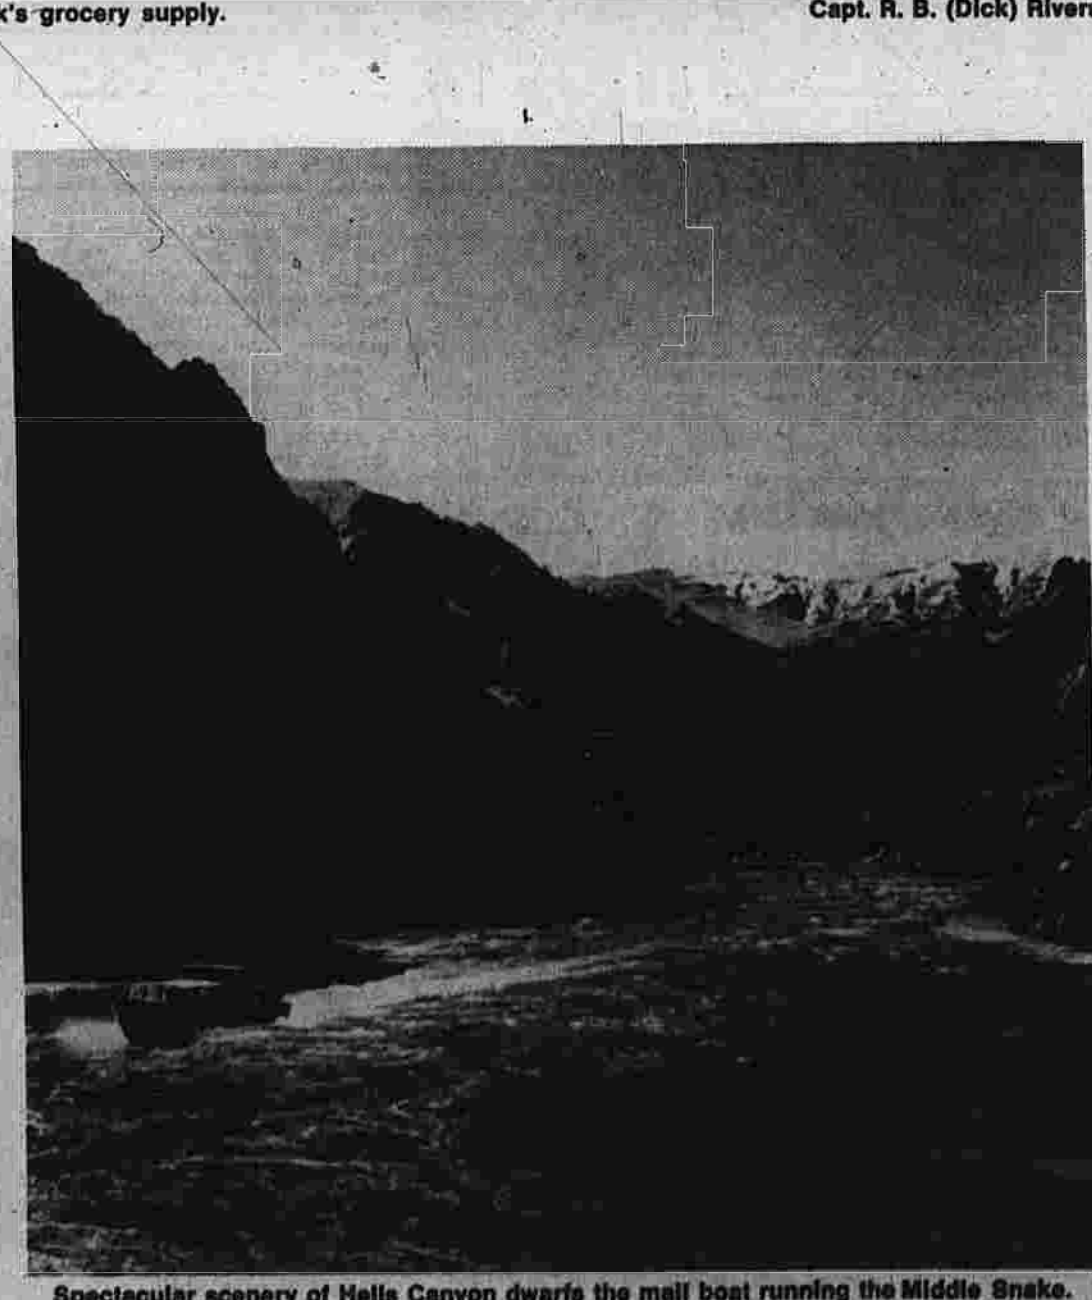

This week's PICTURE SHOW by photographer Roy Woods.

A package is dropped off—too large for the mailbox.

Spectacular scenery of Hells Canyon dwarfs the mail boat running the Middle Snake.

Soviets Claim China Militarizing Nation

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union said today the Chinese army is militarizing all aspects of life in China in preparation for war with the Soviet Union.

The newspaper of the Soviet defense ministry, Red Star, said "Mao Tse-tung and his entourage are establishing in China their new system of power, with the army ruling the roost."

The army, the paper said, has "the task of ideological-political education of the population, the task of the practical implementation of instructions of the 'Mao headquarters' in the political, economic, cultural and social spheres."

"They make no secret of whom one should be prepared to fight against. The army and the population are incited with the idea of the existing 'threat from the north.'"

"The soldiers and officers are called upon to take an example from those who participated in the military provocations on the Soviet-Chinese border, which were organized by the Mao group in 1969."

The decade-long feud between the Soviet Union and China resulted in several violent border clashes during 1968. Each side accused the other of provoking the clashes, mainly along the Amur and Ussuri Rivers, which divide the two countries in the Far East.

Today's article in Red Star was the latest in an almost daily series of attacks on China since shortly after President Nixon announced July 11 that he would visit Peking.

The Soviet press has varied its attack from day to day, focusing on different aspects of Chinese life. But all the articles have touched upon two main themes: That China has split the Communist camp and is very likely hatching some rapprochement with the United States aimed at the Soviet Union.

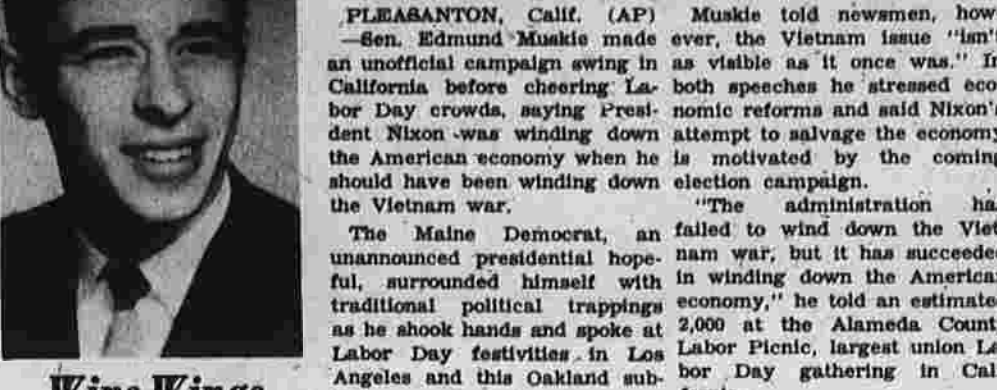

Today's article said that American leaders in the past have done "their utmost to prevent the Chinese people from following along socialist lines and curbed each success achieved by the Chinese people in the construction of a new life."

"These circles are now trying to use the hegemonic desires of the Chinese leadership, with the aim which is to advance the idea of imperialism and hostility to world socialism and the revolutionary movement."

The article gave figures on the military influence in China, saying that 25 million of the 270 million Chinese are military officers, and that the Chinese Communist party, 140 million members, has 20 million members in the military.

Twenty-four of the 29 provincial revolutionary committees are headed by military men, and more than a third of the 200 deputy chairmen of the revolutionary committees are army men.

Muskie 'Campaigns' In Coast Suburbs

Wins Wings

PLEASANTON, Calif. (AP)—Sen. Edmund Muskie made an unofficial campaign swing in California before cheering Labor Day crowds, saying President Nixon was winding down an attempt to salvage the economy.

The Maine Democrat, an unannounced presidential hopeful, surrounded himself with traditional political trappings as he shook hands and spoke at Labor Day festivities in Los Angeles and this Oakland suburb.

He accused the White House of being "out of step" with traditional political trappings as he shook hands and spoke at Labor Day festivities in Los Angeles and this Oakland suburb.

Anniversary Marked For Insulin Drug

TORONTO (AP)—The 50th anniversary of insulin is a busy year for Dr. Charles H. Best, co-discoverer of the life-saving drug.

A lanned and healthy 72, Dr. Best is back from his summer home in his native Maine and has gone to Brazil to receive a $25,000 award from that country's scientists. This fall he will receive honorary degrees from three Ontario universities and be the spotlight during a celebration at the University of Toronto, where the discovery was made.

In December he will receive the Distinguished Service award from Queen Elizabeth II in London. Then he will go to Israel to receive another honorary degree.

In the memorable summer of 1921, Dr. Best was 22 and his colleague Dr. Frederick Banting was 29.

Working in a small laboratory at the university, they were trying to cure diabetic dogs with substances taken from the pancreases of other dogs. Early results were unsuccessful and Dr. Banting had to sell his car to raise funds.

In July 1921 a diabetic dog, on the brink of death, received an injection of what later would be called insulin. The animal got to its feet and licked the scientist's hands.

"By the middle of August we had repeated the experiment several times and were sure we could do it regularly," Dr. Best recalled recently.

In January 1922 insulin was given to humans.

Leonard Thompson, a 14-year-old Toronto boy who was evidently dying from diabetes, was treated in Toronto General Hospital. His disease halted, and he lived for 13 years before suffering fatal injuries in an accident.

Harry Diamond, a 46-year-old lawyer, received insulin "in 1922 about the same time. He had been living on boiled vegetables and weighed 90 pounds. The insulin worked, he regained his health and lived to 79.

Insulin is a hormone, produced in certain cells in the pancreas, which controls sugar in the blood. People who lack that control develop diabetes. Before insulin's discovery diabetes had only the alternative of dying quickly or slowly starving to death.

In 1923, Dr. Banting and Dr. J.H. MacLeod, then head of the Toronto university's department of physiology, received the Nobel Prize. Dr. Banting shared the money with Dr. Best. Dr. MacLeod said he won not for the "discovery of insulin," but for his discovery of Best.

Dr. Best is director emeritus of the Banting and Best department of medical research at the University of Toronto.

Neither he nor Dr. Banting, who died in 1941, made much money from the discovery. They turned the rights to insulin over to the university.

Who Should Star in Film? Comic Has Unique Answer

By PHIL THOMAS

NEW YORK (AP)—Comedian Jackie Mason, who has the top job in his first motion picture, has come up with a unique way of deciding who should star in a movie.

Speaking in an accent that has been described as "midway between that of a Bronx taxi driver and a lower East Side delicatessen proprietor," Mason, who plays the title role in his forthcoming film "Roger the Steeple," says:

"I got to play Roger because I got the money for the picture. If you raise the money, you can be the star. That's how my picture will work. I would like to get the money gets to be the star."

The 40-year-old, gregarious Mason, a seeming nonstop talker, made his reputation as a stand-up comic, but he decided to switch to filmmaking because "I found I had gone as far as I could go as a comedian—professionally and financially."

"Getting laughs seemed to be not so much. I appreciate the fact that the audience was gratified, but there just wasn't enough of a creative challenge. I'd been doing comedy for 15 years and I got to feeling that creating a new joke was not as much of a challenge as I would like to have applied to the rest of my life."

"It's like the first time you walk to the other side of a room," he explains with a smile. "The first time is great. But after you do it a while it's not so thrilling."

Snatching professions isn't new to Mason, who still works as a comic but "as little as necessary." The son of a rabbi, he started out as a rabbi, but he decided to leave the religious life when he was about 28. He became a social director at various resorts in the Catskill Mountains, all the while working on comic routines.

"A social director," Mason explains, "is a guy who's hired to bother people to do something when they don't really want to do anything but would complain if they didn't have something to do."

He started doing his routines in night clubs and clocked after Steve Allen saw his act at a Hollywood club and booked him for the Allen television show. Mason caught on with the TV audience, and the demand for his comic services grew steadily.

Half-Brothers Held in Assault

BURHAM, Maine (AP)—Two half-brothers were scheduled to face District Court arraignment today on charges of high and aggravated assault on a state trooper.

Merion A. Reynolds, 34, of Burham and his half-brother, Franklin Danton, 24, of Guilford, Conn., were released from the Waldo County Jail in $1,000 bail each following the Monday incident.

Police said the trouble began around midnight Sunday when Reynolds and Danton were refused service at Harold's Restaurant in Pittsfield. The men slammed their pickup truck into the building and drove off, police said.

Trooper Ronald Rokowski was alerted and pursued the truck down the Troy Road in Burham until it pulled into the driveway at Reynolds' home.

Police said the two men entered the house and Rokowski, who was in his cruiser—heard a shot fired. No one was hit.

Rokowski summoned help and the two men were arrested, police said.

Welk To Lead Rose Parade

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Lawrence Welk, who has been leading his "champagne music" band on nationwide television for more than 15 years, will lead the 53rd annual Tournament of Roses Parade on New Year's Day.

After being named grand marshal Monday, the 65-year-old bandleader said it was "one of the finest things that has ever happened to me."

White Lists Cutbacks In Personnel, Programs

HARTFORD (AP) — Welfare Commissioner Henry White says he has figured out how to save his department $1,200,000 for the year by cutting staff, overtime and equipment. Under an incentive pay program, all keyworking will be done by department employees. Savings: $500,000.

The cuts, already in effect but announced over television Saturday, are in response to a request from Gov. Thomas J. Meskill for cost-cutting. White said he plans other administrative changes, to be announced later.

"I recognize that we have a fiscal crisis in Connecticut and that each commissioner has been asked by Governor Meskill to trim as much administrative fat as possible," White said.

You Should Know

Remember the cry, "Every body out of the pool!" ending high school swimming periods at the East Side Pool? And the start of a towel across the part of the anatomy, which God in His wisdom intended for such things, that greeted the last one of basketball introduced to the locker room?

Or the gym class relay races and the track in the same building, and the endless and weary that befell the unlucky ones who went sprawling?

And the basketball teams that labored under the handicap of not being able to shoot from the corners because of the over-hanging track? And the center jump circle that almost touched the foul circle?

Woodoo Stirs Controversy

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Brazil's two major television networks have agreed to upgrade the level of their coverage, following controversial appearance by a woodoo priest.

The Globo and Rede Tupac networks placed lead time to produce the presentation of "pictures, facts or persons that tend to exploit low beliefs or incite superstition."

A furor arose after a woman claiming to be the reincarnation of a woodoo spirit called "Beu Bete" or Mr. 77 went into wild trances on the two most popular Sunday variety programs.

Imbibing a powerful alcoholic drink called cachaca and smoking cigars, Mrs. Caclida de Assis, 48, told TV audiences about the journey of her "Beu Bete" and asked viewers to receive the spirit with her. She dove to the floor in a frenzy many members of the studio audience jumped from their seats and went into trances.

Driscoll Calls For New Freeze

HAMDEN (AP) — John Driscoll, president of the state Labor Council, A.F. of M., called on Congress to put limits on profits, dividends and interest as well as on prices, wages and rents.

In a Labor day statement, Driscoll said that those programs created a head of the council representing 100,000 workers, and that the freeze on prices, wages and rents should be administered by a board of control.

Youngster in Hero Role in Fire

Presence of mind by three-year-old John Tyler Jr., with his father, left, prevented fire from spreading to the home of the James Corro at 35 Walnut St. just before noon Saturday. When the youngster spotted flames shooting from the roof of the garage, above, he told his dad, who telephoned in the alarm. James Corro Jr., 15, turned in the box alarm at Pine and Walnut Sts. Firemen from Cos. 1 and 4 are shown wetting down the garage roof. The heat was intense enough to warp part of a window air conditioner on the second floor of the house, about 25 feet away. Corro, who is an aluminum siding contractor, said that about an hour before the fire was detected, he had been working in the upper floor of the garage, where the fire apparently started. That part of the building is used as a storage area for his materials and equipment. No estimate of the damage was given.

Kasko Set for Next Year, Lolicich Joins Blue

Rico's Future Uncertain As 23-Game Winner

NEW YORK AP—Eddie Kasko is set to be the Boston Red Sox manager for another year today, but veteran Rico Petrocelli's future with the club appears uncertain after a hectic Labor Day weekend. Petrocelli popped off something not uncommon among the Red Sox, and Kasko got a new contract as the Red Sox wanted more time in reacting to the third baseman's complaints.

Petrocelli, moved to third after six years at shortstop this year, blamed Kasko for Boston's failure in the American League pennant race. There was a lack of communication and the club lack unity.

Petrocelli's statements that the contract, providing a pay raise, was agreed upon before the season, however, I am dis-

O'Connell and Kasko by surprise, but he was not surprised by any "shocks," he said Petrocelli had $60,000.

EDDIE KASKO said he has agreed with the club since 1963 and often has been accused of pampering the club. However, I am dis-

O'Connell threatened heavy fines for players popping off against the manager in the future. He also said it might be best to get rid of unhappy players.

Kasko is receiving about $40,000 this season, but he is not sure by the new contract and year as Boston manager, Petrocelli's cell receives a reported $100,000.

NEW YORK (AP)—Lolich joined Blue Sox as 23-game winner. Lolich, who has won 23 games apiece, swept a pair from Milwaukee, 4-3 and 6-4.

TIGERS - SENATORS—Lolich commented, "I don't know how many hitters in this league he can get out with his fast ball." Lolich, who has won 23 games apiece, swept a pair from Milwaukee, 4-3 and 6-4.

ANGELS - A'S—Tony Gonzalez and Roger Repose stunned Oakland's 15-game winning streak with a 2-0 victory. Gonzalez pitched six innings and struck out seven.

WHITE SOX—Tommy John pitched a no-hitter for the first time in his career. He pitched six innings and struck out seven.

Yanks Pass Million Attendance Mark Again

NEW YORK (AP)—Roy White tied an American League record for sacrifice flies Monday when he hit three in a game against the Boston Red Sox.

The Yankees passed the million attendance mark for the first time since 1963.

The Yankees' record for sacrifice flies in a game is held by Roy White, who hit three in a game against the Boston Red Sox.

Shaved to But Three Games

NEW YORK (AP)—The Yankees shaved to but three games behind the Boston Red Sox in the American League East.

Notre Dame Power With Strong Defense

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Notre Dame, generally considered a prime contender for the football ladder this fall, will be a defensive dynamo again in 1971.

The offense will need some shorting up before Coach Ara Parseghian's troops can start parading on whether to head for Miami, Dallas or New Orleans on New Year's Day.

Cy Young Award Eyed by Seaver

MONTREAL (AP)—The New York Mets may not be getting anywhere, but Tom Seaver is.

Seaver, the right-handed ace of the Mets, pitched a gem Monday night, striking out 11 batters and allowing only one run in a 1-0 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Loop Leaders Better Than Year, Day Ago

NEW YORK (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates are better off than they were one year ago and the Los Angeles Dodgers are better off than they were one day ago.

The Pirates' record for sacrifice flies in a game is held by Roy White, who hit three in a game against the Boston Red Sox.
