Patients at Manchester Me morial Hospital will not be forgotten as Christmas Week approaches. A number of church, school, club and civic groups have scheduled yuletide events beginning today and continuing through Friday, Christmas Eve. Children in pediatrics will be treated to gifts and a visit from Mather Chapter, Order of De Molay, and tonight at 7:15 a delegation from Parents Without Partners will stroll through the halls singing carols.

The Manchester High School Round Table Singers plan a carol sing tomorrow; a group from South United Methodist Church will sing Monday eve-ning at 7; and Tuesday at 6:30 p.m., Senior Girl Scouts from Rockville are scheduled. Wednesday afternoon, the traditional Christmas Party for children will be held in Pediatphysicians.

Thursday at 4 p.m. will be the Manchester Community College students' turn to carol, and sometime Friday employes of the X-ray Department will visit Pediatrics for a songfest. Another visit from Santa with gifts for the children will be sponsored by students of St. ames School either Monday or

Bea Clulow Will Retire As Herald Office Manager

"I want to make sure that you are planning to stay," the late Thomas Ferguson, publisher of The Herald, said, in effect, to an applicant for an office position in early June of 1937. Any doubts or fears that he may have harbored have long since been removed by the successful applicant's years of service. The lady was Miss Beatrice I. Clulow, who will retire at the end of the month after 34% years of Herald em-ployment. During that time, she of the Ferguson family—Thomas, Ronald H., Thomas F., Walter R .- and the present publisher, Burl L. Lyons of Hagadone Newspapers, a division of Scripps League Newspapers,

The mutual respect and grat-itude for her loyalty is evident in statements of her most recent employers.
"Beatrice Cludlow is retiring at the end of the year," Thomas Ferguson said. "I knew that the time must come for this; it al-ways does. But looking back seems such a short way. How seems such a short way. How can all the years have gone by so rapidity? How can my brother and I properly thank a person who has done so much for our company and our family through the years? It hardly seems enough, but we both wish her God speed and happiness through the years to come, and offer her our right arms should she ever need them."

Lyons said, "Miss Clulow's service to the newly formed

Statue Marred by Erosion Judo Champ

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) —
The famous Christ statue on Corcovado Mountain is suffering the effects of time, erosion and defacing by visitors. But local officials have promised to fix it up for next September's celebration of Brazil's 180th anniversary of independence.

"I hope by then the statue will be completely restored and will be a tourist attraction equal to the Statue of Liberty." aid Rui Pereira de Silva, head of the city's Tourism Depart-

Pictured on countless post-cards and travel posters, the statue stands 2,400 feet above Rio's shimmering white beaches and striking bine Guanabara Bay. It is 120 feet tall and 83 feet wide through the outstretched arms. Each arm weighs 80 tons, and each hand eight tons, contributing to s total weight of 1,145 tons. e monument was dedicated

Although still impressive from a distance, the statue in ts present condition is a letown to some tourists who see it close up for the first time. The monument is cracked and chipped in several places. The cement guardrail behind it is broken, creating a hazard for children who could go tumbling down the mountain with a misplaced step. Hundreds of visitors have defaced the pedestal by scribbling that name on it There also is fear the statue, veakened and neglected, sim-

Pass The Salt, Calmly

The creation of a new horror in American living is now taking place right before our eyes, in the news media, in a way which makes us even hesitate to comment on it, for fear of playing part in creating and spreading the thing we ion't even want to have born.

It seems to have begun down in Suffolk County, Long Island, with somebody starting what may have been merely a rumor to the effect that somerants and dropping a little LSD into salt and pepper shakers, sugar bowls, or mustard jars.

The rumor apparently began in reports to the police, who have been, however, unable to make any arrests. Now the situation has progressed to he point where the Suffolk County Legstature is considering a law which would require all condiments to be packaged in individual containers in every food - dispensing establishment in the

The alarm over posand sugar is going to spread all over the country; eventually, some place, some young drug peddlers are going to think it would be fun to send some total strangers on a trip; at the worst, there could be a national hysteria about salt

The general public is equally mercurial, as Richard Nixon can testify. GOP and Mr. Nixon.

Look first at the fortunes of President Nixon. It's hard now to remember the state of the Union when he came to office three years ago. Yet the nation was as riven that day as it had not been since the Civil War. All over the country there was a tempest of tempers, and a the center of it was Vietnam: from it flowed everything from inflation to civil disorder. It was the one issue which, above everything else, tore at the peo-plaudits. Anyway, you hear few of them ung by those very voices that, a short while ago, were the loudest in demanding an end to that war. And a recent Louis Harris poll reported that 55 per cent of the voters were "negative" on he handling of the Vietnam War.

Paradoxically, 53 per cent of the voters gave President Nixon a favorable 'overall' rating, the highest he has had since October 1969. This seems to be attributable to his boldness in tackling the inflation problem. Vietnam, you see, is "was" issue; inflation a "now" issue. So a good surmise is that President Nixon 's fortunes, come next November, will turn not on what he has accomplishthe voters in early fall think he has done for them lately. - VERMONT ROYS

Take a long look at D&L. The long styles are in, and it's just a short way to Christmas. D&L has the right dress mood for every living hour. Working or walking or entertaining or lazy-lounging...the colorful styles and lengths are here. But we're long on holiday cheer as well. Little wonder that today's liberated girls and freethinking shoppers turn to D&L. They want more from a store than just racks. Mood, feeling, warmth, sincerity, courteous people even in the crush of crowds...that's DEL's way with the holiday whirl. Enjoy us. Be happy with the gifts you buy, and when you buy them. We practice Christmas all year long. Noel!

DIAMOND PRICE FACTS:

Don't spend more than you can afford. A good rule to follow: Spend about a month of your salary on the engagement ring. But make sure you get the most for your money. In the ring style that pleases her most.

DIAMOND BUYING FACTS:

About half of all engagement rings are chosen by boy and girl together. But in many cases the young man buys the diamond alone. Or he talks it over with us first and then brings his girl in for final selection. It's up to you!

DIAMOND STYLING FACTS:

Modern girls are individualists. Some want an absolutely perfect diamond even if it is smaller. Others want the largest stone possible even if it has slight flaws. Some want ultra-modern, others traditional styling. These are the things to talk over with us.

COME IN! AS SOON AS POSSIBLE!

We have helped so many young couples. We can help you to come to the right decision. Let your wishes and our experience be the guide. To the most wonderful Christmas in your life!

Bea Clulow Will Retire As Herald Office Manager

Manchester Publishing Co. has been extremely vital to our operation. Her guidance and counseling have been valuable in the weeks that followed our acquisition of the newspaper. We are scrry she is leaving us, but we wish her many years of health and happiness. Even in retirement, we are extremely pleased that she is available to us on a consultant basis from time to time if the need should arise."

Born in Utica, N.Y., Miss Chilow as brought to Manchester in 1916 by her parents, the late John G. and Rebecca Atkinson Cullow. Her parents also had two sons: Stanley, decased; and E. Donald, who lives in Fremont, Ohio.

A teen-ager when she arrived in town, Miss Cullow attended the then South Manchester High School and graduated in 1919 from the Manchester branch of the Connecticut Business College. The business school was located on the second floor front of the Odd Fellows Building at the Center.

"My father was of the old School," Miss Chilow said, "and believed if I were going into business, I should get the training."

After graduating from the business college, she worked a few months for the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. in Hartford. The year after finishing her business education, Miss Chilows add, "and believed if I were going into business, I should get the training."

After graduating from the business college, she worked a few months for the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. in Hartford. The year after finishing her business education, Miss Chilows and her mother's birthday.

Italians Stymied

In Picking Chief

ROME (AP) — The attempt to elect an Italian presdient dragged through its 18th dead-locked ballot today as the squabbling parties refused even to propose compromise candidates. The majority of the 1,008 electors again abstained.

The only votes cast on the 12th day of balloting were by the Communists and Socialists, who stuck to their candidate, Deputy Premier Francesco de Martino. He received 402 votes, about what he's gotten on every Reid suggested that the selectmen write a letter to the club that in the future consideration be given so that they (the se-lectmen) don't have to bar them from town and that ex accidents."

Reid also mentioned the pos-sibility that constables could be assigned to direct traffic at the next rally.

Requests for a snowmobile ordinance in town have been received by the selectmen, Reid felt that if the state regulations on snowmobiles were publicized, this would be sufficient, The major problem, he said, seemed to be the "late hours" the snowmobiles are operated.
Dixon reuested that a sign directing traffic to Hebron be installed at the Bolton exit off of Rt. 84. There are signs to Bolton and to Colchester but none to Hebron. The selectmen will ask the state to install a sign at this intersection.

In other action the selectmen voted to send flowers to the family of Mrs. Burton Hills, who died last Friday. Mrs. Hills was Hebron's town clerk for fifteen years. To Plan Celebration They also set up a Bicenten-nial Committee to work on plans for the 200th Anniversary of the country. Appointed to this committee were John Sibun and Richard McDonald and

The announcement came as a surprise because it had been announced earlier that Svare, also the Chargers, general manager, would serve only as interim head coach this beason. But Charger President Eugene Klein changed all that. Klein explained he had watched Svare closely since he season for Sid Gillman who re Chargers needed Svare's leadership, discipline and his ability to get along with the younger players on the team. Klein sat e also wanted a coach with s defensive background. Klein said Svare would n continue as general manager and called a news conference in San Diego for today to an nounce further changes.

No Stopping Big Fellow With Lakers

NEW YORK (AP) -

"When Wilt makes up his mind to go to the hoop," said Philadelphia Coach Jack Ramsay, "there's nobody who can stop him, just nobody."
Wilt Chamberlain, Los Angeles' massive 7-foot-1, 290-pound center, owner of the National Basketball Association's singlegame scoring record with 100 points, had been a reluctant shooter in recent games, concentrating on rebounding and playing defense. Sunday night, Wilt decided "to go to the hoop," and poured in 32 points as the rampaging

And There's the Liberated Wife

Give a Gift But Save a Status

By LYNN SHERR NEW YORK (AP) - The liberated woman has a special problem at Christmas; What to give the man in her life without losing either him or her credentials in the movement.

Here are some suggestions for feminists who don't want to feed male chauvinist instincts. If he's the executive type, get him a handsome attache case , then fill it with a variety of household cleaning supplies.

Give him everything he needs to be a thorough job: Matching dustrags, a folding broom, some industrial strength cleandusting, be sure he has one of the newer one-piece jumpsuits.

And while you're out, is your husband the type who is always saying. "Honey, would you please put this in your pocket-book for me?" Perhaps he own-one of the new, trim masculine models so he can carry his own car keys and pipe. Of course, a pocketbook won't do him any good if he has no money. Or if he's out of a job. If that's the case, enroll your husband in one of the secretarial schools so that he can brush up on shorthand or typing. Re-mind him that the road back up the corporate ladder might well start in the steno pool.

And if time still lies heavy on his hands, teach him to use them constructively: By doing needlepoint. He can stitch his own ties, slippers, even watchbands. And maybe by the end of several weeks' instruction, he'll be able to whip up a living room pillow during the Super Bowl.
