Extra Special Salute

One man rates an extra special salute for his untiring efforts in supervising the excellent summer Rec Department slow pitch softball program, Carl Silver. It was a gigantic task to organize and supervise the most extended softball schedule ever attempted in Manchester. The season will officially close next week with a pair of All-Star games at Fitzgerald Field, which is one of the top playing areas in the state despite its heavy use...It's water over the dam but it would have been nice to have had at least one of the Hartford Twilight League baseball playoff games, involving Moriarty Brothers, staged at Mt. Nebo. Manchester was again the No.1 "dollar and cents" gate attraction with the niggest purses on a pass the hat and hope-for-the-best basis...With a crowd estimated at between 1,500 and 2,000 for the playoff finals at St.Thomas between champion Moriarty's and Hartford Insurance the gate was only $268, which means there were a lot of freebees... Bowling activity, both ducks and 10-pin, will swing into the fall and winter schedule next week...Vic Daley is serving again as general chairman for the annual Manchester Golf Open at the Country Club · Sept. 10-11. Close to 400 amateurs and professionals are expected to compete, amateurs on the first day and low handicap amateurs and pros on the second day. First place for the pros will be worth $1,000...Walker Briggs, head trainer at Manchester High, reports all youngsters planning to try out for fall athletic teams at Manchester High and at Bennet and Illing Junior High must undergo physical examinations before they can compete. Exams will be given at Manchester High in the gym area Tuesday morning starting at 8 o'clock.

Youth Not Forgotten

Many times little men who get "big" tend to forget but this hasn't been true in the life of Frank Sheldon. When the Manchester YMCA, since rechristened the Community Y, first opened, Sheldon was one of many North End youngsters who made good use of the facilities. Frank, as a boy had a side job of selling magazines, but still helped earn his membership by setting up pins under the then director, the late Dave Hamilton...Now a successful businessman Sheldon is also chairman of the Y Board of Trustees. Even before being named chairman, Sheldon put in countless hours fighting for better conditions and facilities at the Y and the North End's Robertson Park, which is just north of the building. If present plans materialize, the Y will be improved 100 per cent before the fall and winter season starts with the bowling lanes completely refinished, plus alterations to the gym and better lighting, not to mention new locker room equipment...Frank Sheldon hasn't forgotten the youngsters at the North End. He was on once who needed an outlet for his spare time and a place to use his energy to advantage. These same opportunities will be offered the youngsters coming along today, thanks to Sheldon in particular.

"If Congress had desired to stay all such orders it could have used clear and explicit language appropriate to that result."

When the amendment was before the House it was described by its supporters as legislation that would halt all new busing orders and any others on which the Supreme Court has not yet ruled. The Justice Department has also cited it in requesting delays of court busing orders.

In rejecting the request for a stay of the Augusta desegregation plan. Powell said it was the linding of the lower courts in that case that the plan had been ordered "to-accomplish desegregation of a school system not for the purpose of achieving a racial balance."

Powell also reaffirmed the court's ruling in Swann vs. Charlotte-Mecklenburg Board of Education that busing was a permissible method of achieving desegregation.

Cops, Comedy, MDs (Again) in '72-'73

By DICK KLEINER

HOLLYWOOD - (NEA) -Last year television gave us The Year of The Big Star, otherwise known as The Year of The Turkey. More big names fell on their faces than at any time since the last Celebrity Hockey Game.

So this coming season there's been a change of network tactics. There are a few moderately big names coming to TV in new series. But mostly ABC, CBS and NBC are going with people who've been on TV before or with complete unknowns.

Experts say the reason the big names of last year-the James Garners, Tony Quinns, Jim my Stewarts, Shirley MacLaines, Tony Curtises — flopped wasn't because they were bad. It was because the network paid little attention to the vehicles they gave them. Ap-parently they figured the names would be sufficient to carry the shows and forget about the script. Let 'em read the phonebook.

They learned their lesson. This year's new shows, or so it seems as the season shapes up, are more solid, they have some substance, they're not just Jerry-built (or Irving-built) teensy-weensy tales. Several of them, in fact, are derived from big movies or plays. Many more came out of pilots or TV one-shots which were hits.

There really isn't much that's new or startling. Mostly, we're back in the old groove — cops, comedy and doctors — with a sprinkling of variety and nostalgia tossed in. It's a mixture which is not about to upset the applecart. This is just what the networks want. At this point in time, with a bunch of financial and philosophical problems confronting them, they don't want to be saddled with artistic wor-

So we've got a lot of stuff from the Universal factory and some other things which s m a c k of assembly-line thought.

Going down the list, network by network, we start with ABC's 6¼ newcomers.

• ABC has a one-hours how called The Rookies about rookie cops, with four young actors whose names mean nothing to anyone yet but they are four young actors with talent.

Then there's Temperature Rising, with James Whit-more and Cleavon Little, both honored actors although stampede-the-box office names. It's a half-hour comedy dealing with medi-cal matters. Little is an intern who is a conniver, Whit-more the fatherly chief sur-

Paul Lynde, one of TV's best guest stars, finally has his own show. He has done several pilots before and is frank to say the script for this one — The Paul Lynde Show — was far from the best thing he has done. But perhaps he'll pull it through, b as ed on his own great comedy delivery.

Julie Andrews, who is sort of the Ruby Keeler of the Jet Age, has her own variety show on ABC this season.

Paul Lynde

We'll have to wait and see whether her cool English beauty and bell-like voice can pull viewers into the living room or wherever TV is watched these days.

ABC has a new trilogy, three rotating hour programs under the umbrella characters. What makes this expensive are the sets and costumes which you don't find around your average studio prop department.

Another series from a smash movie is M*A*S*H, an irreverently funny look at medicine in wartime. Alan Alda, who has done a few movies, and a couple of TV types, Wayne Rogers and McLean Stevenson, have the key roles.

Sandy Duncan has a new show, at least they're call-ing it a new show. She's still playing Sandy, so maybe it isn't new, but they've given her a whole new group of third bananas.

Spinning off from All in the Family is Cousin Maude. Maybe they'll decide just to call it Maude, with Beatrice Arthur. She was very funny as Archie Bunker's hated cousin-in-law but it remains to be seen whether she can go it alone.

The other two CBS sitcoms are Bridget Loves Bernie, which is unabashedly a modern copy of Abie's Irish

Bob Newhart

Rose, starring two newcom-ers named Meredith Baxter and David Birney and one with Bob Newhart and Suzanne Pleshette, both pretty good names and talented performers. Let's hope they have scripts to work with.

• NBC has e i g h t new shows, but three of them are a rotating trilogy and one (Hec Ramsey, with Richard Boone as a 1901 detective out west) goes into the Mystery Movie lineup.

The network had such success with Mystery Movie that they're adding a second group, comprising George Peppard (who never became the big-time movie name people expected) as a pri-vate eye named Banacek; Cool Million, with James Farentino (cut from The Bold Ones), as a private eye named Keves and Richard named Keyes and Richard Widmark (a genuine movie name) as Madigan, the cop he played in the movie by that name.

Then there's another private eye, this one Banyon, with Robert Forster in the lead. This is another costly show, because there's a 1930s setting. That always means scrounging around for cars, props and paying actors extra because they have to get haircuts. haircuts.

One more crime show is Search, which was on the air last spring as Probe, but the network couldn't clear the title. It stars Hugh O'Brian (who will be spelled occasionally by Doug McClure and Tony Franciosa and all three have had hit TV sethree have had hit TV se-ries) and Burgess Meredith in a show which is heavy on gadgetry.

Ghost Story, with Sebas-tion Cabot introducing the stories, is an anthology about ghosts and other supernat-ural goings-on. Cabot is just off a long run in Family Af-fair, as is Brian Keith, who will headline NBC's only new half-hour, a situation com-edy about a pediatrician in Hawaii, called The Little People.

Add to that the usual run of specials—generally, better than the series—and new and old movies, and you've got the '72-'73 TV season. Enjoy.
