The PZC was not the only board to be served with possible court procedures, when in May of 1972 George Alden of Reidy Hill Rd. filed suit against the Zoning Board of Appeals following denial of permission to build two houses on his property using a 50 foot rightof-way to the blackland. Alden had received approval from the PZC for the two-lot that the board's decision forces property owners who own large racts of backland to construct town roads before being allowed to build more than one house . This suit is also pending, but in the meantime Alden has requested the PZC to formulate a set of regulations setting forth the requirements for a subdivi-sion of backlands with access over private roads.

Top Ten For 1973

It is top ten season again. This is the time of the year when we select the op ten news stories, the top ten movies, etc. of the past year.

While such a selection, or ranking of events of the past is not too hazardous, there is always some misgiving about it since our immediacy to the past may not stand the test of time when 1972 is measured more objectively in historical perspective.

Since editorial writers are not supposed to fear treading where angels fear to, we will really stick our neck out and list what we consider will be the top ten stories in the new year of 1973.

1-Gov. Meskill will announce the bus crisis has been resolved. The solution will come about with the merger of the state's two private bus companies with Wells Fargo Stage Lines of Whippletree, Wyo.

2-Sen. George S. McGovern will announce the Democratic Party is out of debt due to a grant from the Environmental Protection Agency under provisions of the law calling for preservation of endangered species.

3-Sen. Ted Kennedy will announce he will (a) not be a candidate; (b) will not be a candidate for president; and (c) will not be a candidate for president under any circumstances

4-President Richard M. Nixon will win the support of the nation's custodians when he refuses to fire the White House doorkeeper who denied

5-President Nixon will announce the budget has been balanced whereupon the Congress will declare a national month-long holiday and the country will end up another $250 million in the red.

6-Vice Spiro Agnew will announce he will not run for president in 1976 but instead will become the president of the National Association of Broadcasters.

7-Ralph Nader will win a court injunction forcing the Internal Revenue Service to call back all the Form 1040s because the questions and calculations therein constitute a hazard to the mental health and economic well-being of millions of Americans.

8-A woman will be appointed to the cabinet. Mrs. Pat Nixon will take over the new cabinet post of Secretary of the Coffee Klatsch since cabinet meetings do not amount to any more than coffee hours anyway.

9-California will become the nation's first vegetation-free state with the completion of a freeway which will cover the last green space in the state thus solving the problem of smog killing off trees and lawns.

10-George Bush will announce the Republican Party has adopted what he called a "Northern Strategy" to keep Republicans in the party ranks since they are outnumbered by former Democrats.

So much for the crystal ball.

Don't Chance It - live to enjoy the New Year by DRIVING

PAGE EIGHT - MANCHESTER EVENING HERALD, Manchester, Conn., Fri., Dec. 29, 1972

Now if you want to enjoy life in '73. That slightly out of vision, that not quite perfect coordination can get a lot of laughs at a party. Out on the road it brings tears. Drunken drivers aren't the only staggering figures The Statistics on car accidents caused by them are pretty staggering also. And a lot of people become statistics . . . courtesy of that chap who had to have one more for the road. This year promises to be an exceptional one and one worth celebrating-

-all through the year. Remember tomorrow is the beginning of the rest of your life. Be here to enjoy it. Don't make one for the road. Make it home safely instead.

"But we think it would be a good idea if other communities would join us in this program in an all-out effort to reduce the large number of accidents that traditionally oc-cur on this holiday."

Now cultural methods have made it possible to produce chrysanthemums at any time of year, by managing the temperature and, most impor-tantly, the light. If you have a Christmas "mum', you again bave a choice to make, says George Krause. You may keep the blooms until they fade or you may cut them back and hope for second bloom in eight to 10 weeks. You must, however, expect smaller blossoms.

North Carolina State averaged 432 yards and 32.7 points per game but two of the Wolfpack's key performers, quarterback Bruce Shaw and running back Stan Fritts, were nursing injuries and were listed as doubtful starters. Shaw passed for 1,708 yards and nine touchdowns while Fritts ran for 689 yards and 17 TDs.

Gator Bowl Bowl West Virginia Colorado (8-3)(8-3) The Colorado Buffs will try to salvage a somewhat dis-The West Virginia Mountaineers' problem this season is that they can give it, but they take it, too. They have appointing season. They were a pre-season favorite to win the Big Eight title and even harbored thoughts of the fourth most explosive scoring team in the nation, top national ranking, until Oklahoma State upset them early. The Buffs have a powerful running game, high-lighted by all-conference back Charlie David. Colorado averaged 250 yards a game rushing. The passing attack "is also formidable, with Ken Johnson throwing from dropback patterns." Middle guard Bud Magrum, a 24-year-old Vietnam veteran, anchors a solid defense, along with defensive back Cullen Bryant, an NEA All-Ameri-can selection. (Another highlight: Ralphie, Colorado's buffalo mascot.)

(Dec. 30; television: 4 p.m EST on ABC.)

Auburn, in contrast as opposed to Colorado, began the season with little ballyhoo. It was picked sixth in the season with little bollynoo. If was picked sixth in the Southeastern Conference—when the Pat Sullivan-Terry Beasley passing show graduated. But the Tigers lost only one game, to LSU, and shocked Alabama on the last game of the season with a fourth guarter score that pro-duced a 17-16 come-from-behind victory. Auburn's of-fense is centered around running back Terry Henley, who accounted for almost one-half of Auburn's rushing agme before being briefly sidelined by a knee injury game before being briefly sidelined by a knee injury. Prediction: Auburn 23, Colorado 17 through a 3-3 tie with Florida. The redoubtable Bert Jones is the spark of the Tigers' offense. He threw for 14 touchdowns this season, half of them going to re-ceiver Gerald Keigley. LSU's most effective running back is Chris Dantin, who gained 707 yards over the season and averaged 4.3 yards per carry. The defense is good if not great. Linebacker Warren Capone and tackle John Wood are the standouts there. (Dec. 30; television: 7:30 p.m. EST on the Hughes network.)

Defense is the shibboleth at Tennessee. The Vols were consistently third or fourth in the nation in that department this season. They held the opposition to 7.6 points per game. NEA second-team All-American Conrad Granam is the star of that unit. Quarterback Condredge ham is the star of that unit. Quarterback Condreage Holloway, with a 61-per cent completion average, was named sophamore of the year in the Southwest Confer-ence. Ricky Townsend is an addity only on first appear-ance. He kicks field goals barefoot. Kicks well enough to be an All-American at it, booting good ones—12 in 19 tries. Tennessee lost to Auburn (10-6) and Alabama (17-10).

Prediction: Tennessee 14, LSU 7

the tourth most explosive scoring team in the nation, with a 30.5 points-per-game average, but their oppo-nents were also averaging 21 points a game against them. The offense is led by quarterback Bernie Galiffa (nephew of former Army All-American quarterback Arnie Galiffa). The team rushing leader is Kerry Marbury, who scored 18 touchdowns (second best in the country) and averaged 5.2 yards per carry. The defense's best game was the last one, holding Syracuse to 12 points. (Dec. 29; television 8 p.m. EST via Mizlou Productions.)

North Carolina St.

Like the Mountaineers, North Carolina St. is also a high-scoring, wobbly-defense-type team. N.C. St. started off with a disappointing (for fhem) tie against Maryland in the opener. Then soon lost to Georgia and North Carolina. But with quarterback Bruce Shaw and rusher Stan Fritts, the team bounced back and won six straight before losing the last game of the season, to Penn State, 37-22. (Penn State, by the way, is the lone common op-ponent for these two teams. West Virginia lost to Penn St., 28-19.) Fritts, with hurt leg, is a question mark. Prediction: West Virginia 42-17

Cotton 🚱 Bowl Oklahoma Alabama (10-1)(10-1)The Sooners averaged 478 yards per game in total of-fense, most of it with a gluttonous ground game. The main fulfillment of the Wishbone offense is flashy Greg Pruitt, but the other halfback, Joe Wylie, fullback Leon Crosswhite and quarterback Dave Robertson are also accomplished runners. On those rare occasions when Robertson deigns to some how would looks for Pruitt This game begins on a downbeat because the football world—assuming such a looney place does exist—had been anticipating an Alabama-Nebraska Orange, Bowl rematch. Even Notre Dame coach Ara Parseghian was critical of 'Bama coach Bear Bryant for "avoiding" Nebraska. Also, Alabama was on its way to a possible No. 1 national ranking before being dumped in the final game of the season by Auburn, 17-16. Alabama remains an avolosive team with its high-scoring Withhome of Robertson deigns to pass, he usually looks for Pruitt, Wylie or tight end Al Chandler, Also watch work of All-America center Tom Brahaney. Texas, winner of the rugged Southwest Conference, last only one game this season, to Oklahoma, 27-0 in its fourth game. Darrel ("Daddy D") Royal would like to have that one to try again. But Alabama must suffice. Like Alabama, a strong Texas asset is its offensive line, bolstered by two-time NEA All-American Jerry Sisemore. The Texas defense, however, came on strong the last part of the season, allowing only 24 points in the last five games. Its offense rolled up 224 points to Alabama's 393 points. 393 points.

Prediction: Texas 27, Alabama 14

Don James, Kent State's coach, figured his 6-4-1 team would need a superior effort to knock off 9-2 Tampa in the Tangerine Bowl. "Flawless football," was what James thought Kent State would require.

Texas Tech, readying for Saturday's Sun Bowl clash with 16th ranked North Carolina, figures there will be some heavy hitting in that encounter.

Tech, unranked in the last Associated Press poll, could crack the Top Twenty by knocking off the Tar Heels. Another game that should have a direct bearing on the rankings is the Astro-Bluebonnet showdown Saturday night. Tennessee, ranked 11th with a 9-2 record going in faces the team directly ahead of it in the poll, No. 10 Louisiana State with a 9-1-1 season log.

North Carolina (10-1)

North Carolina, unbeaten in the Atlantic Coast Con-ference, lost only to powerful Ohio State, 29-14, this season. The defense, with five all-conference players including end Gene Brown and Tackle Eric Hyman, reg-istered two skutouts and held a third team to only a field goal during the last half of the season. North Carolina is a high-scoring team and is led by quarter-back Nick Vidnovic, who threw 10 touchdown passes, and rusher Ike Oglesby. The offensive line is also a strong point with All American guard Bon Rusnack strong point, with All-American guard Ron Rusnack.

(Dec. 30; television: 1 p.m. EST on CBS)

Texas Tech (8-3)

Texas Tech had some rough moments this year, but finished second in the tough Southwest Conference, any-way. It lost to league leader Texas, 25-20, to Arkansas, 24-14, and was run off the field by TCU, 31-7. Its de-fense seemed to falter in the latter part of the season, and must shore up to stop a good North Carolina of-fense. Quarterback Joe Barnes is the bulwark of the offense. He passed for 1142 yards and had a 51 per cent completion guerage. Tailback George Smith was a cent completion average. Tailback George Smith was a superb runner with 6.9 per carry average.

'We'll Beat Dolphins' Ailing Bradshaw Claims Pro Basketball Pro Basketball

PITTSBURGH (AP) - "We'll beat the Miami Dolphirs," Terry Bradshaw said, a glucose tube dangling from his left arm at Divine Providence Hospital. "Miami's a heck of a team, but there's no reason they should beat the Pittsburgh Steelers."

That kind of confidence abounds in Pittsburgh and Steeler players already talk of their trip to the Super Bowl. The Dolphins' 15-0 record seems to scare nobody. With Bradshaw, the Pittsburgh quarterback, there's nothing but victorious thoughts even though he was flattened temporarily Thursday by a 24hour virus. "I'll be ready by game time, you can bet on it," he said. "I'll rest and get stronger here in the hospital and will have a lot of time to think about Miami." The Dolphins, champions of the Eastern Division, meet Central Division king Pittsburgh Sunday for the American Football Conference title at Three Rivers Stadium.

Miami's squad flies into town today for final preparations before the two National Football League powers fight it out for a spot in Super Bowl VII. "I'll tell you about Miami's defense," said Bradshaw, adjusting his huge eyeglasses. "They're terribly quick. But, I'm sure we can move the ball ... and put some points on the board." Pretty, brown-haired Melissa Bradshaw was again beginning to share her quarterback husband's confidence. It had been a rough day, though.

"I've never seen anybody as sick as Terry was at 3 o'clock in the morning," she said. "I was terrified." Bradshaw said he "spent the whole night in the bathroom, sicker than a dog." Then, at 5 a.m., Melissa called the Steelers' trainer Terry was in the hospital by noon. "I'm not missing a thing," he said, adjusting the I.V. jug that swayed above his head. "Wednesday was O-Day (offense) and I got in all my work. Thursday is D-Day defense) and they didn't need me, anyway."

Three years ago, Bradshaw was drafted No. 1 out of Louisiana Tech and received a bruising introduction to pro otball on a 1-13 Steeler team.

"I'll tell you, from 1-13 to 12-3 is a glorious feeling," he said. "But, we're not stopping now. Miami's good, but we'll beat 'em."

the right things on defense, anybody can be playing quarterback and it won't much matter," Washington coach George Allen said.

Allen said Thursday he believed his Redskins would be facing Craig Morton Sunday in the game to decide the National Conference's entry into Super Bowl VII - but he figured wrong.

A few hours after the Redskins finished their closed workout, the Dallas Cowboys announced they would go with quarterback Roger Staubach in the game at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium.

The fact that Staubach, more of a threat to run, would start in place of Morton, prone to stay in the pocket, didn't concern the Redskins' coach.

"We are not preparing differently for either of them," Allen said.

Allen, who sprung a five-man front line on Green Bay to negate the Packer's running game, also said he didn't expect any surprises from the Dallas defense.

"We've played them twice this year and we pretty much know what they've got," he said. "It's just a matter of dealing with it." Washington defensive tackle Bill
