Pilot First Casualty

SAIGON (AP) — A U.S. helicopter pilot, wounded while flying an aircraft reported to bear marks intended to indicate its neutrality, died today. He was the first American killed in Vietnam since the cease-fire went into effect Sunday morning.

The U.S. Command identified the pilot as WO Anthony Dal Pozzo, 22, of Santa Barbara, Calif. It said he was wounded by small-arms fire from the ground while flying a rescue mission 10 miles southwest of Can Tho, capital of the Mekong Delta.

A second American aboard the helicopter suffered minor wounds. He was identified by the command as Lt. Col. Daniel Rickard of Williamsburg, Va., senior U.S. adviser in a Navy southernmost province in Vietnam.

The incident occurred about 9:45 a.m. on an hour and 45 minutes after the Vietnam cease-fire formally went into effect, the command reported.

10 Elderly Die In Fire

PLEASANTVILLE, N.J. (AP) — At least 10 persons were killed early today in a fire that raced through Street's Nursing Home, a two-story, wood-frame home for the elderly.

Six other persons were known to have escaped. Fire Chief Walt S. Schlund said. All the victims were believed to be elderly, he added.

The building, estimated to be at least 50 years old, was destroyed by the blaze.

The home's fire alarm did not work, Schlund said. He said it had been inspected recently as required by state law.

The first alarm was turned in by Abconco Police Sgt. James Mong, who spotted the blaze while patrolling a street that serves as the Pleasantville-Abconco border.

The dead were removed from the structure by several rescue squads. Although several bodies were burned, officials theorized all had died from suffocation.

"The smoke had apparently gotten to them," Schlund said.

The victims' names are not immediately identified.

Fire Marshal William Polay said most of the dead were found in or near their beds.

Schlund said initial indications were that the fire had begun in a linen closet.

Firemen were hampered because the closest fire hydrant is three-quarters of a mile away, the chief said. While some firemen secured hoses together to reach the distant hydrant, others fought the flames with water carried in tanks aboard the fire trucks.

Boy and Dog Are Rescued

A 12-year-old boy who fell through ice at Union Pond Sunday morning was rescued by Eighth District firemen and a nearby resident, and was taken home apparently none the worse for the wear.

The unidentified boy was walking with a friend and his dog shortly before noon, when they ventured across this ice. The boy went through the ice with the dog.

A North St. resident, Alan Gryzb, ran out, and with assistance of Eighth District firemen Victor Letey, of Kerry St. and Donald Davis of North St., the boy and dog were pulled from the icy waters.

The boy was taken home to his parents, firemen said. Neither he nor the dog were hurt.

Food Prices Up 5 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (AP) — New government figures today indicate it cost a family $64 more to eat at home last year, with higher farm prices accounting for $59 of the increase.

The Agriculture Department said the retail cost of a "market basket" list of food items, theoretically enough to feed a typical family of four for one year, was up 5.0 per cent in December from a year earlier.

At the annual rate, the entire market basket for one year would have cost a record $1,338 last month, compared with $1,274 in December 1971. Last month alone the basket cost $8 more or 0.8 per cent, than in November.

According to USDA statistics showing where consumer food dollars go, "the farm value" of the December market basket was $551, or $23 more than in November and $59 above a year earlier.

Meanwhile, the middleman's share of the basket was $787 in December, down $15 from November.

In December 1971, the middleman's share was $782, or $5 less than last month. That coupled with the $59 increase in farm value, accounted for the $44 increase in the one-year market basket.

The USDA formerly published dollar breakdowns for its market basket, but recently discontinued the practice. The December rates and comparisons were computed at the request of newsmen.

Farm prices, although volatile, have trended up over the past year. Middleman's spreads have widened when farm prices decline and then narrow as prices go up.

Regardless, the USDA reported that the December farm value of what families pay for a market basket of food was up about 12 per cent from a year earlier. The middleman's share, which includes wholesale and retail spreads, was 0.7 per cent higher.

The report, prepared by USDA's Economic Research Service, showed supermarket prices rose for most items, including meat, milk, lettuce and eggs.

Beef, for example, cost more than $1.14 per pound, up 2.3 cents from November and the most since last August when it was nearly $1.16 per pound. That is an all-time price, including hamburger as well as steak.

Amendment To Ban Abortions Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A constitutional amendment banning most abortions was proposed today by Rep. Lawrence J. Hogan, R-Md., to counteract the Supreme Court ruling striking down most state abortion laws.

The court said in a 7-2 decision that states may not forbid women to have abortions during the first six months of pregnancy.

Hogan's proposed amendment reads in part:

"Neither the United States nor any state shall deprive any human being, from the moment of conception, of life without due process of law; nor shall the United States nor any state deny to any human being, from the moment of conception, the equal protection of the laws."

He says further that "neither the United States nor any state shall deprive any human being of life on account of age, illness or incapacity."

The proposal, in effect, defines life as beginning at the moment of conception. The position is intensely disputed in medical circles and among abortion advocates and opponents.

The court, in its majority opinion last week, acknowledged the dispute and said:

"When those trained in the respective disciplines of medicine, philosophy and theology are unable to arrive at the point of having 'the capability of meaningful life outside the mother's womb,' the court said.

"The state cannot claim an interest in preserving the life of the unborn until the fetus reaches the point of having 'the capability of meaningful life outside the mother's womb,' the court said.

Watergate Summons Under Way

WASHINGTON (AP) — The last two Watergate defendants are expected to present arguments today disclaiming the government contention that they turned a valid assignment into an illegal campaign of espionage against the Democratic party.

The political-espionage trial was expected to go to the jury after a closing defense argument and instructions by U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica.

Condon Liddy, former legal counsel to President Nixon's campaign finance committee, and James H. McCord Jr., security chief of the Nixon campaign, are the two remaining defendants.

E. Howard Hunt, a White House consultant, pleaded guilty on the third day of trial. Four other men, Bernard L. Barker, Eugenio J. Martinez, Frank A. Sturgis and Virgilio R. Gonzalez of Miami, pleaded guilty a few days later.

Five-A-Fliver Facility Functioning

A novel program which offers a real possibility of ridding the Town of Manchester's abandoned vehicles has been announced by Director of Public Works William P. Rogers.

All it takes, said O'Neill, is a phone call and $5.

The phone call is to the building inspector, who is the town's zoning enforcement officer. The $5 will go to R. H. Moiger of Portland, Conn. who will be notified by the building inspector, will pick up the abandoned Manchester car and take it to a resource-recovery facility in Portland, for crushing and salvage.

Last August, R. H. Moiger was the lowest of six bidders for the abandoned-car program. It was awarded the contract late in September, and is now ready to fulfill it.

The Portland firm will remove the $5 fee, any junk vehicle, whether it has wheels or not, provided it is within 50 feet of access by a wrecker vehicle.

It is a zoning violation in Manchester to keep unregistered vehicles in other than a bona fide secondary materials yard — junk yard.

That the program receives strong public support, and more specifically, that owners of property occupied by abandoned vehicles will voluntarily call the town building inspector's office at 646-5281, for removal at $5 per vehicle.

Vatican Position

BEIRUT (AP) — The Vatican refused to grant Israel diplomatic recognition so long as the Middle East problem remains unresolved, Pope Paul's envoy in Lebanon was quoted today as saying.

The Daily Star said the envoy, a resource-recovery facility in Portland, for crushing and salvage.

Procedural Disputes Delaying Observers

SAIGON (AP) — Procedural disputes today continued to delay the dispatch of cease-fire observers into the South Vietnamese provinces, and the South Vietnamese command reported more than 250 new violations of the truce by the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong between noon Monday and dawn Tuesday. But this was a drop of 30 per cent from the previous reporting period.

In Honolulu, the U.S. Pacific Command said it was sending bombers and fighter-bombers continued operations against Communist forces in Laos and Cambodia Monday at the request of the Laotian and Cambodian governments. It gave no details.

Meanwhile, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew arrived in Saigon for his first stop on a seven-nation tour of Southeast Asia and reaffirmed the Nixon administration's support for President Nguyen Van Thieu's regime as the only legitimate government of South Vietnam. He also said the U.S. government does not recognize the right of North Vietnamese troops to remain in South Vietnam.

Agnew said he would hold "important consultations" with Thieu on new relations. The two met first at the Presidential Palace at a dinner

Thieu gave for Agnew. Sources said they would meet again Wednesday. The vice president was scheduled to leave for Cambodia Thursday and also will visit Thailand, Laos, Singapore, Indonesia and Malaysia.

The four-nation International Commission of Control and Supervision failed to get its seven regional teams in place and operational this morning as called for in the cease-fire agreement because of procedural disputes within the four-party joint military commission made up of the United States, South Vietnam, North Vietnam and the Viet Cong.

Agnew acknowledged the difficulties in getting the cease-fire machinery in operation. But he said this was "not surprising" since one considers the long conflict, the suspicion and animosity that has divided the parties in the past, and the need for a period of military struggle to get observation teams into the field. A Canadian spokesman expressed hope they would be on their way by Wednesday morning.

The North Vietnamese Foreign Ministry issued a statement accusing the Saigon government of violating the cease-fire. It also charged South Vietnam and the United States with harassing the Communist delegations to the joint military commission.

Foreign Ministers Nguyen Dai Trinh of North Vietnam and Nguyen Thi Binh of the Viet Cong told a reception in Paris that their forces have observed the cease-fire strictly and will continue to do so.

But the South Vietnamese command in a communique claimed that Communist forces violated the cease-fire 311 times during the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. today.

Thus, since 8 a.m. Jan. 28, when the cease-fire went into effect, Communist units violated the agreement 737 times, "the communique said.

The Saigon command claimed that 668 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong had been killed during the past 24 hours and said government casualties were 128 dead and 468 wounded in fighting all across the country.

Since last Wednesday, when the peace agreement was first announced, 3,388 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops have been killed, the Saigon command claimed. The command said South Vietnamese losses for the same period were 703 dead and 2,704 wounded.

Fund Impoundment Target Of Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid a deepening White House-congressional rift over spending, a Senate subcommittee begins hearings today on a bill that would give Congress the power to override presidential impoundment of appropriated funds.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-S.C., chief sponsor of S. 853, introduced Monday that the President must submit to Congress a list of all funds he has impounded. The bill also allows Congress to legislate spending limits.

Ervin said Monday that, however worthy President Nixon's motives in withholding appropriations, Congress cannot "legalize an inherently unconstitutional act."

"The Congress," Ervin said, "must not become a stepchild of the executive, and the presidency must not be allowed to assume the powers of a divine monarchy."

Fifty senators have cosponsored the bill, but sharp differences between Democrats and Republicans were evident in statements opposing leaders.

Republican Leader, Hugh Scott said that the bill's impoundment of about $10 billion in appropriated funds was necessary because "if the Congress can't add, the President must subtract so taxes won't multiply."

must approve any impoundment order by the President within a period of 30 days or such impounding must cease.

Nixon, in an effort to control inflation, is refusing to spend money Congress appropriated for a variety of programs.

The bill is similar to one Ervin introduced last Congress, but both broke up in disputes over the failure or refusal of at least one of the two Communist delegations to present credentials. The two men met again for four hours Monday night and for nearly three hours this morning, but there was no word whether any issues had been resolved.

Members of the International Commission of Control and Supervision, which is made up of Canada, Indonesia, Hungary and Poland, have said their men cannot move out into the field until the joint military commission provides transportation, security, communications, accommodations and guidance where to go.

The ICCS held its second meeting today, and the members from Canada and Poland spent the morning contacting members of the joint military commission in efforts to get observation teams into the field. A Canadian spokesman expressed hope they would be on their way by Wednesday morning.

Leaders To Discuss Mideast

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Edward Heath leaves for Washington today with a proposal for President Nixon for a new peace-making approach in the Middle East.

Qualified British sources said Heath wants Nixon to put pressure on Israel to accept terms swiftly while European governments do the same with Arab states.

The sources said that essentially Heath foresees a parallel deployment of European and American influence on the Arabs and Israelis respectively to come to terms swiftly.

Heath and Nixon begin their two-day conference in the White House Thursday. It will be a new peace-making encounter with the head of a foreign government since his inauguration. It will be Heath's first meeting with the President since Britain joined the common market Jan. 1. On Friday, they continue their discussions at Camp David, in the Maryland mountains 75 miles from Washington.

While the leaders range over policy, the more detailed intricacies of foreign affairs will occupy Britain's foreign secretary, Sir Alec Douglas-Home, and Secretary of State William P. Rogers.

Whether or not the tenant as a housing authority commissioner is in fact benefiting himself individually by his vote, his personal interests are always directly or indirectly involved in his vote on the commission," said the court. "The fact... that he is a tenant makes it possible for his personal interests to become antagonistic to the faithful discharge of his public duty."

The Supreme Court issued its ruling on a case brought by the Housing Authority of New Haven, which used to have two tenants, Polly Moore and Joseph R. Peters, on its governing board. At the original trial of the case in Superior Court, Judge Robert A. Wall refused to order the State Department of Community Affairs to give the New Haven authority the grants it had withheld because Peters and Mrs. Moore were tenants.

Neither Wall nor the Supreme Court, which upheld Wall's decision, disputed the fact that Congress allowed and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development encouraged the membership of tenants on federally funded public housing authorities.

Tenants Cannot Serve On Housing Authorities

HARTFORD (AP) — People who live in public housing can't serve on housing authorities, the Connecticut State Supreme Court ruled today as it turned thumbs down on a federal policy of encouraging tenant participation in housing administration.

As a public officer, a housing commissioner should not be placed "in a position where his private interest conflicts with his public duty," the state's highest court said in an unanimous decision.

Regardless of whether a housing commissioner is personally acting in good faith, it is what he considers the public interest, "it is the policy of the law to keep him so far from temptation as to insure the exercise of unselfish public interest," the Supreme Court said.

The Supreme Court issued its ruling on a case brought by the Housing Authority of New Haven, which used to have two tenants, Polly Moore and Joseph R. Peters, on its governing board. At the original trial of the case in Superior Court, Judge Robert A. Wall refused to order the State Department of Community Affairs to give the New Haven authority the grants it had withheld because Peters and Mrs. Moore were tenants.

Neither Wall nor the Supreme Court, which upheld Wall's decision, disputed the fact that Congress allowed and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development encouraged the membership of tenants on federally funded public housing authorities.

DON'T LET OPPONENTS LOOK AT YOUR CARDS BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD You can't make four hearts in today's hand. West is looking at your cards. Opening lead—Eight of Spades
If you try the heart finesse, West takes the king of hearts and leads a diamond through dummy's king. That kills you since you lose one heart, two diamonds and, eventually, a club.

There's no advantage in leading the ace of hearts out and then going after the club. West can ruff a club with a low trump and still get his king of trumps and diamond trick.

A simple swindle brings the hand home. Win the first trick with the ace of spades and lead the queen of hearts out of your hand.

If East happens to have the king of hearts, let him have the trick. He won't get it on it. East cannot attack diamonds so you will have time to draw trumps and develop the club.

Amherst Rejects Coed Plan

AMHERST, Mass. (AP) — The Amherst College Board of Trustees has rejected a plan to admit women to the college.

Amherst President John W. Ward announced the trustees' decision today at a meeting of students and faculty. The decision was reached over the weekend at a meeting in Washington.

In voting to keep Amherst all-male the trustees went against the recommendation of Ward that women be admitted.

The trustees said in a statement that they were not opposed to equal educational opportunity for women or the principle of coeducation, but said their decision not to admit women "at this time" was based on other factors.

The trustees said they were concerned with the size of classes, student-faculty ratios, and the relationship with nearby colleges, particularly women's colleges like Mount Holyoke and Smith.

Ward said the coeducation question would not be raised again in the near future because the trustees resolved that the issue be dropped "so that energies may be directed to other matters."

The trustees acknowledged that there was a division of opinion on the issue of admitting women and said it would be "unfortunate" for the college if a decision in favor of coeducation was made by a divided board.

Funds for Roads, Walks on Agenda

Public hearings will be held Feb. 6 by the Board of Directors for allocating $216,000 in revenue-sharing funds for road reconstruction and $250,000 for sidewalk construction. Added to $20,500 from the same source voted Jan. 9, the total appropriations, if approved, would equal $446,500.

The sum would be about $19,000 in excess of the $467,775 actually received by the town—$237,431 in December and $230,344 early this month. It appears likely the directors will amend the proposed appropriations to equal the available funds. Town Manager Robert Weiss, when asked to explain the proposal, said a 1972 Hartford revenue-sharing payment of about $118,700 is expected in April.

On Oct. 24, just two weeks before a referendum was held on a $358,000 appropriation for roads and $240,000 for sidewalks, the board's Democratic majority announced that it would finance a program with revenue-sharing funds, in order to save about $100,000 in interest. Both questions passed.

In the interim since the referendum, three things have happened to affect the proposed appropriations:

The directors learned they couldn't use revenue-sharing funds for any project which already is scheduled for federal aid. That because $200,000 of the road-reconstruction program is the town's share of a $12 million project for which the federal government is contributing $900,000, the sum proposed to be taken from revenue-sharing funds was cut to $236,000, with $25,000 of it appropriated on Jan. 9.

The directors, also on Jan. 9, adopted an amendment to the sidewalk ordinance—providing for the waiver of assessments against abutting property owners when a sidewalk construction program is initiated for special reasons by the Board of Directors. The proposed $250,000 program falls into that category.

The original $200,000 proposal for sidewalks was hiked to $250,000. The extra $50,000, not included in the referendum program but within the rules of the amended ordinance adopted Jan. 9, is for sidewalks on the north side of Hartford Rd., from the vicinity of the housing for the elderly to McKee St.

Public hearings will also be held Feb. 6 on the following proposals:

An ordinance for purchasing for $1 from John Naudus a small piece of land at Hilliard and Broad Sts., needed for improving the turning radius there.

An ordinance for purchasing for $1 from Benjamin A. Cavazza at a small piece of land at Main and Woodland Sts.—already used for improving the turning radius there.

An $11,000 appropriation to the Elections Account, to be financed from the anticipated 1971-72 General Fund surplus. The sum is for the cost of a townwide referendum March 13 on a proposed $1,391,000 appropriation — $446,500 for purchasing a 110-acre Laurel Lake parcel and $945,500 for improvements to the adjacent sanitary landfill area.

A $15,000 appropriation to the Capital Improvement Reserve Fund, for improving and enlarging the parking lot at N. Nebo and to be financed from the anticipated 1971-72 General Fund surplus.

A $50 appropriation to the Educational Special Projects Fund, for a Work Study Program and to be financed by an equal state grant.

A $34,000 appropriation to the Capital Improvement Fund, for resurfacing and lighting two tennis courts at the high school and for resurfacing two tennis courts at Bennet Junior High School.

The appropriation would be financed by the $35,000 the state has paid, as its cost share for converting space at Robertson School into school administration offices.

The two tennis courts at Bennet are behind the Main Building. The old clay courts have not been used for several years.

Weiss said the state is expected to pay 50 per cent of the $34,000 cost for the four tennis courts.

CIRCUIT COURT 12
Manchester Session
Robert B. Stevenson, 29, of certain address, charged with first-degree burglary (two counts), second-degree larceny (two counts), third-degree criminal mischief, was taken to the Connecticut Correctional Center at Hartford Monday in lieu of bonds totaling $5,000.

The bonds were set by Judge Nicholas Armentano Monday when Stevenson was presented in court.

Stevenson was arrested by Manchester Police early Sunday morning, in connection with breaks at 345 Buick, 81 Adams St., and Pontiac Park, 373 Main St. In the two breaks, 10 sets of car keys, dealer's keys, and an unknown amount of change from two vending machines were taken, according to police.

Subdivision Plan PZC Topic Monday

A proposed eight-lot subdivision on a planned extension of Delmont St. will be the subject of a public hearing scheduled for Monday by the Manchester Planning and Zoning Commission (PZC).

Developer Charles Ponticelli of 382 Hackmatack St. is requesting PZC approval of plans for the eight lots and the 350-foot extension of Delmont St.

According to plans filed in the town planning office, the land is owned by Robert H. and Ann Parks. Two of the proposed lots lie in a Residence B Zone; the other six are in a Residence A Zone.

A zone change would allow the firm to build luxury condominiums on the site. A similar request by the company was denied by the PZC last November, but the new request is substantially different, according to Carmine Filoramo of First Hartford.

The Monday hearings will start at 7:30 p.m. in the Municipal Building Hearing Room.

Sizes of the proposed lots, as shown on the plot plan prepared by Morozochi Associates of Glastonbury, range from just under 10,000 square feet to nearly 16,000 square feet.

The plans to extend Delmont St. include a cul-de-sac (turning circle) at the end. The road extension would be within a 60-foot right-of-way, as required by town subdivision regulations; the existing Delmont St. is in a 40-foot right-of-way.

Do Not Pass Go

The game of Monopoly has been in the news recently and while the monopolists, those die-hard adherents of the game prevailed, we cannot escape some passing thoughts that perhaps the game ought to be updated a bit.

Connecticut can be purchased for $100 on our set and as loyal Nutmeggers and in view of the problems facing New York City we feel there is a value adjustment needed here.

Then there is the matter of the Water Works and Electric Company. Wouldn't their acquisition be more frustrating and stimulating if you had land on Environmental Impact Study first before you could buy the electric utility. Then perhaps put in for a government loan before you could operate and collect tariffs on Pennsylvania Railroad?

Of course the object of the game is to buy houses and hotels for your monopolies and thus sock it to the opponent who happens by the miscast of the dice to land there. However, the present transaction is deceptively simple, you merely pay the bank a specific amount of cash. No building or zoning variances, permits, no health inspections, no sprinkler installations, no off-street parking requirements, and no way to get federal loans for low-income property like Baltic Ave.

There are no FHA or GI loans for the player who is short on cash and no rules to permit early parole from jail. The hospital bill is closer in price to house calls of the old days and the 10 per cent income tax is sheer fantasy. On the other hand, it might be well to leave well enough alone. As anyone knows who has played the game, the challenge of scrapping up the rent for Boardwalk with a hotel is good training for all of who will face a similar reality come Form 1040's April 15 deadline.

President Defies Doctor

WASHINGTON — President Nixon's official physician, Maj. Gen. Walter Tkach, is an old and valued friend, but as a male who is putty in the hands of the medical professional I am delighted to learn that the President has successfully defied Walt's orders. Nixon runs in place every morning, a token gesture to the vigorous life. But whereas he once ran 400 paces, he recently has cut that in half. Tkach remonstrated in vain. It is understood. Even when the good doctor suggested a compromise of 250 paces, the President stood firm. It was his opinion, said Nixon, that 200 paces were enough for a busy man. I am sure Walt is right. Exercise helps blood circulation and lowers fats in the blood and is therefore important in preventing heart attacks. But it is nice to know that we have a leader who is strong enough to stand up to his doctor, and assume responsibility for the consequences. Obviously, Richard Nixon is not afraid of his doctor. Perhaps more important, he stands on principle.

There are those who will say that even a President should not be permitted to indulge a whim. They will ask what difference does 50 paces make if it pleases your doctor. They will say the doctor knows best, and any actuary will agree.

But Nixon's stand warns the cockles of his subversive—and probably fatty—heart. There is in fact a great deal of difference between 200 paces and 250 to the person who is jogging them off. It is the difference between enjoying, or at least tolerating, exercise and finding it a crashing and perhaps exhausting bore. It is the difference between what the patient wants to do and what the medical world says he should do.

Nor is this a small thing. I have a friend who was bullied by his doctor on the subject of boiled eggs. The friend preferred his eggs boiled three minutes. His doctor ordered that they be boiled only two and a half minutes, and my friend, thinking thoughts of coronaries, surrendered. He hates the taste of eggs boiled only two and a half minutes, but he still eats them in that state every morning. My friend is both strong-willed and discriminating in all other matters, but on the subject of boiled eggs he is not only craven but a traitor to haute cuisine. Everybody knows that only a three-minute egg is fit to be eaten. It should not be boiled two minutes and 59 seconds or three minutes and one second. Three minutes, precisely, are required to produce a boiled egg whose white is firm and its yolk yielding.

We make the mistake constantly of dismissing as a petty detail matters of the utmost importance to civilization and the community ethic. It is all right with me if a man prefers to ingest his testicles with a four-minute egg, so long as he refuses to settle for a three-and-a-half minute egg or an egg that was made barbarously boiled for four minutes and 10 seconds. After all, principles in little things are about all we have left these days. It is imperative that a President stand firm on such little things. Right though Walt Tkach may be about exercise, there is reassurance in the knowledge that Richard Nixon refuses to join those 50 million who are making his decisions for him. In critical phases of his 1972 campaign, he was making his own political decisions. Third, he's a pretty good reader of the public mood, so he knows the country is bored silly with politics and wouldn't want to hear about any political maneuvering right now, anyway.

These lines of argument are, however, defective. The Republican party must try to live on after the President leaves. It must choose a successor nominee in 1974, and in 1974, as a vital preliminary, must try to retain important governorships in Massachusetts, New York, Michigan and California—and seek to recapture Ohio and Pennsylvania. (GOP Gov. William Cahill's chair in populus New Jersey is at stake this year.)

Nixon Is A Loser At The Plitical Helm

By BRUCE ROSSAT
President Nixon, for awhile at least, is evidently going to try to be his own political man, without any ranking on-scene adviser. The situation is unique in modern presidential history. White House officials of course have told us they are dismantling the inside political setup used to help redirect the President. Even if it were not so, no one on that special staff really qualifies as a well-grounded national political tactician.

Nor do others, like top adviser H. R. (Bob) Haldeman fit that role. He may execute political judgments, but that is something else. Obviously the President isn't looking to the Republican National Committee for help. Otherwise he would not have named as new chairman the former UN ambassador, George Bush, whose political experience beyond Texas is limited.

On several counts, it could be argued that Mr. Nixon's lack of a close-hand political strategist doesn't matter. First off, he's not running again. Secondly, his circumstance is not wholly new to him. In critical phases of his 1972 campaign, he was making his own political decisions. Third, he's a pretty good reader of the public mood, so he knows the country is bored silly with politics and wouldn't want to hear about any political maneuvering right now, anyway.

CURRENT QUOTES
"It was appropriate to restore our commitment to peace and to a better America. He didn't tell us how to do it." — Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, discussing President Nixon's second inaugural address.

"This winter's so-called energy crisis was manufactured right here in Washington. It could have been averted with the stroke of a pen." — David Freeman, director of the Ford Foundation energy-policy project, criticizing President Nixon for refusing to end oil import quotas.

Inside Report Rowland Evans and Robert Novak Reagan for President

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—Gov. Ronald Reagan plans to announce within the next three months that he will not run for the U. S. Senate or any other office in the 1974—a decision, oddly, that could help propel him into the 1976 presidential sweepstakes.

Completely at odds with the issues during his last two years as governor seem on his side. He is pushing anti-spending legislation and calling for taxpayer distribution of an $850 million budget surplus. He will take the national banquet circuit, perhaps as head of a conservative citizens group, and preach the gospel of limited government.

The businessmen, politicians and staffers who advise Reagan view this as the best path to the White House. Aware of Vice President Spiro T. Agnew's low estate there, they see Reagan (62 years old on Feb. 6) as the logical heir to the conservative domestic policies of President Nixon's second term.

The first step down this long path is the decision not to run for anything in 1974. There is no truth in current rumors that the state capitol that Reagan will seek a third-term to avert a bloody Republican primary. There remains an outside chance he might run for the Senate, but his key advisers are against it.

For one thing, it's too risky. Private polls show Reagan running behind Democratic Sen. Alan Cranston, up for reelection in 1974. A loss to liberal, colorless Cranston would end Reagan's fabulous political career.

However, Reagan's popularity here seems rising again after its recent decline, and the issues during his last two years as governor seem on his side. He is pushing anti-spending legislation and calling for taxpayer distribution of an $850 million budget surplus. He will take the national banquet circuit, perhaps as head of a conservative citizens group, and preach the gospel of limited government.

Bolton IGE School Plan To Be Explained

JUDITH DONOHUE Correspondent Tel. 649-8409

Parents of children in Bolton Elementary School will have an opportunity to learn about Individually Guided Education (IGE) at a meeting tomorrow night at 8 in the school's all purpose room.

Elementary school principal George Patros explains that the program has been planned to familiarize parents with the new approach to education which is being introduced in Bolton on a limited basis in March.

Patros described IGE as "a highly structured, non-graded program, where any child can progress as fast as he can in the areas easiest for him and still take the time needed in areas he finds more difficult."

Arthur Theroux, director of the Indian Valley Branch of the YMCA in Vernon, at left, and Michael O'Connor of Bolton, a teacher in the West Hartford school system, look over brochures explaining the Parent Effectiveness Training course which will be presented beginning Monday at the Avery Street Christian Church in South Windsor. The eight-week course, which O'Connor will teach, is geared to help parents "listen" to their children. (Herald photo by Pinto)

Children Speak But Do Parents Really Listen.

By Betty Ryder

As parents, many of us are guilty of not "listening" to our children. We somehow tend to lend a "deaf ear" as the expression goes when our youngsters approach us with their steady line of chatter, and we are engrossed in our own endeavors.

Juanita's plea, "Can I go over George's house," or Susie's sputtering voice piping up with "Mary Jane's mother said I could go to the store with them, is it okay?" all times create a hurried nod of approval as mother continues preparing dinner, or dad gives a slightly annoyed grunt as he pores over the top of his newspaper.

Later, when George and Susie return home for dinner, they are many times dismayed to be greeted with an angry "Where have you been?"

And all because mother and dad were given their consent but weren't "listening."

The YMCA of Metropolitan Hartford, Inc., in conjunction with the Indian Valley Branch of the Y in Vernon, will present to meet his own needs as a "Parent Effectiveness Training (PET)," beginning Monday at the Avery Street Christian Reformed Church, 661 Avery St., South Windsor.

This new concept in training the parent to accept their children, develop the technique of listening to them, and to show them proper respect, will be presented in the form of lectures. Some parents will play the role of the child, while others will act as the parent. Sessions are dedicated to active listening, which Dr. William N. Goodwin, director of the YMCA Counseling Center, will lead.

I'm Up To Here In Hair!

Once upon a time, we had two little boys with crew cuts and two little girls with Dutch bobs. The boys' hair was wash and wear. The girls' hair needed just a quick combing in the morning. There was something that made it easier to tell the boys from the girls. Nothing more.

There was no big fuss made over haircuts. The kids loved to sit in the barber's chair and when he made the chair go up and down, they'd scream and yell. "Again! Again!" If they had any objections to being short, they were quickly silenced by the barber's lollipops. Actually, the only time that hair became an issue was when someone got bubble gum stuck in it.

But, that's all ancient history. Today Hair is everything. Our children's lives revolve around it. They talk about Hair. They wash it, comb it, blow it dry, towel it dry, brighten it with conditioners and unguents with their hands. NEVER Grandmother's beautiful eyes are wasted on our daughters. Uncle John's strong forehead is lost on our sons. I try to keep calm and remind myself that Hair, by definition, is just a hair's breadth from the epidemic. Certainly, it's not worth making an issue of.

Occasionally, however, I lose my control. "You all look alike!" I blurted out to the kids the other day. "I don't mean a family resemblance. I mean you ALL look alike, your entire generation. When are you going to start being individuals? When are you going step away from the group and fashion setters instead of followers? Look at your Dad in his crew cut. I said, really warming up to my subject. "Now he's a man who dares to be different. He's doing what you kids only talk about, his OWN thing. And besides," I added loyally, "I think your father looks very handsome in his crew cut."

"A crew cut isn't THAT individual," said my daughter when I paused for breath. "Mike Nomad has one too."

"Of course," I brightened. "And Mike Nomad is a free spirit!"

"Sure," she quipped, "A free spirit in the funny paper!"

Her husband served as a congressman from 1962 to 1966 and was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1966. The Connecticut Democrat won two terms in the Senate and in 1967 was censured for converting campaign funds for his personal use. Greatest Growth Year, Says Savings and Loan

The Manchester Savings and Loan Association, Inc., has reported that 1972 was its greatest growth year since its organization in 1951.

Increases were noted in savings accounts, interest payments to savers, cash reserves, and mortgage lending, according to Robert J. Boyce, president of the association.

Savings accounts with the association totaled about $2.9 million at the close of 1972, according to Boyce's annual report to officers, directors, and members of the association. At the end of 1971, savings accounts totaled about $2.5 million.

Interest payments to savers during 1972 were just under $1.4 million, the largest amount in the association's history, Boyce reported. He noted that it is the association's policy to pay the highest rate on savings, consistent with the "judicious and safe investment of savings funds entrusted to our care."

The association's regular passbook savings accounts pay interest at the rate of five per cent annually. One-year certificate accounts pay 5 1/2 per cent, and two-year certificate accounts pay at the rate of six per cent annually.

Interest is compounded daily, Boyce said, adding that the interest rates paid by the association are the highest allowed by federal government agency which insures the association.

During 1972, 215 association loans, with original balances of more than $5.5 million, were closed, Boyce's report stated. This was the largest number of mortgage loans closed, as well as dollars disbursed, in any year of the association's existence, Boyce said.

At the close of 1972, the association's liquid assets amounted to $3.92 per cent of the savings, Boyce said, and reserves were at 8.29 per cent of the total savings. The liquidity and reserves are well above supervisory requirements, Boyce reported.

Boyce's report was presented at last Friday's annual meeting of the association, when members re-elected officers and re-elected four directors.

Association officers re-elected were John H. Hyde, chairman of the board; Boyce, president; Dorothea Stavitsky, secretary; Henry B. Agnew, treasurer; Harold C. Norton, assistant treasurer; and John A. Hedlund, assistant treasurer.

Directors re-elected for four-year terms were Elmore Turkington, John J. Walleit, Matthew M. Moriarty, and Seymour Kaplan. Other directors are Boyce, Charles S. House, Hyde, Norton, Miss Stavitsky, R. Bruce Watkins, Theodore C. Wright, Lynn B. Hoops, Donald S. Gnovesi, Andrew Ansaldo Sr., Hayden L. Griswold Sr., and Dr. Thomas Hillard.

'Proud, Happy Lucky.. My Most Cherished Award'

One Proud Gold Key Recipient - Tom Kelley Checks Program with His Three Sons Dave, Bill and Tom

Manchester Gold Key Winners, Past and Present Tom Kelley Enjoys Pre-Dinner Chat with Pete Wigren.

Gold Key Presented To Tom Kelley

By Earl Yost

"Thanks to the Alliance, I can stand up here and smell the roses of this, my most cherished award, the Gold Key," Manchester's Tom Kelley told 900 diners at last night's 32nd Gold Key Awards Dinner at the Hartford Hilton.

Kelley, retired Manchester High coach and director of athletics, thus joins two fellow Silk Towners as recipients of the Gold Key given annually by the Connecticut Sports Writers' Alliance. Joe McCluskey and Pete Wigren.

The local man, who was also an outstanding college football referee for three decades, shared the spotlight with Floyd Little, former Syracuse All-American football star, now a shining light with the Denver Broncos in the National League, and the Rev. Robert Keating, chaplain of the scribes and gifted after-dinner speaker. All three were tapped for the coveted Gold Keys on the strength of their contributions to the world of sports over the years.

"When that telephone rings and the voice on the other end of the line tells you that you have been chosen to receive the Gold Key Award the Connecticut Sports Writers' Alliance, and after the shock has worn off, you have to feel, proud, happy and lucky," the Silk Town recipient said in his acceptance speech.

Prominently displayed behind the head table were excellent enlarged paintings of the three Gold Key winners by Cheshire artist, George Slater.

"I am certainly very proud to be associated with the former recipients of this award and the great names of the sports world that make up this list. I am sorry that my lovely wife, Barbara, couldn't be here to share this occasion with me, but our three sons are here and I would like you to meet them," he continued. Proud sons, taking home from a proud father, were Tom, head of the Illing Junior High Physical Education Department; Dave, who came up from Alexandria, Va., where he is an officer in the Bureau of Transportation in Washington, D.C., and Bill, of Windham, New N.H., a regional claims manager with the Peerless Insurance Co. in Peabody, Mass.

"It has been said that behind a successful man, there is a woman. This is probably true, and very true in my case, but I would like to change that a bit and say that behind a successful man there are also men.

"I have been fortunate and lucky as a coach to have had such men at Manchester High ... Don Squatrito ... Cy Blanchard ... Ron Simmons ... Joe McCluskey ... Gene Johnson ... Ed Wojcik ... Tom Kelley ... Tony Lupien ... Jim O'Leary ... Ray Mozzer ... Moe Morhardt ... Dr. Sheridan ... Jimmy Roach ... Luddy Hansen ... and many, more.

"Who couldn't be successful as a coach having players of the caliber of these men?", he added.

Included among the close to 200 men from Manchester where at least 100 that played baseball under Kelley at MHS during his 40 years of coaching that sport or during a 20-year period as football mentor.

"I have been very fortunate to be associated with the Town of Manchester as a teacher and coach. The people there have been friendly and most kind and understanding during the lean years in athletics and we have had them—and most generous during our good year—and we have had them, too," he related.

Among the speakers, and there were many, humorist Jack Daly stole the show with his New England banter. Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn capped the long program with predictions that "an all-time attendance record will be set, 30 million people, and 1973 will be as fine a year as we ever had." New York Yankee Manager Ralph Houk, Eddie Bell of the New York Jets, Graig Nettles of the Yankees, Denny Zimmerman.

New York Yankee Manager Ralph Houk and new third baseman Graig Nettles, diminutive wide receiver Eddie Bell of the New York Jets, big car race driver Denny Zimmerman, Pittsburgh Pirate Pitcher Steve Blass, boxer Eddie Owens and Ben Schwartzwalder, Syracuse football coach, and Vin Clements of the Giants were other speakers.

Fred Post of the Middletown Press served as toastmaster.

Albert W. Twicham was fired as Rutgers University athletic director and John Bateman resigned as head football coach.

LAS VEGAS—Ron Meyer, a scout with the National Football League Dallas Cowboys, was named head football coach at the University of Nevada—Las Vegas.

NORMAN, Okla. — Barry Switzer, assistant coach at Oklahoma, was chosen to succeed Chuck Fairbanks as the Sooners' head coach.

FRESNO, Calif. — J. R. Boone was named head football coach at Fresno State University.

DAYTON, Ohio — Ron Macniak, former assistant coach at Purdue, was named head football coach at the University of Dayton, replacing John McVay.

MCC Losing Streak Hits Seven Straight

Dropping below the .500 mark for the first time this season, Manchester Community College lost tonight 73-70 decision last night to Housatonic C.C. in Bridgeport.

The Cougars, on a downhill since their loss to Mattatuck C.C., have now been beaten seven consecutive times. Overall the Cougars sport a 7-8 record and 4-4 in the CCCAC.

Housatonic held the upper hand early and sat on a slim 37-33 margin at halftime. Manchester came out fired up for the second half and went in front, 54-52, at the 10 minute mark.

Ellis Grant paced the Cougars' offensively with 17 points and 11 rebounds. Stan Alexander followed with 15 markers and while Ernie Moore canned 14 and Bill Peoples 10.

Don Clemons and Skip Grimes both contributed 10 points each for Housatonic. Both clubs netted 32 field goals but the difference came at the line where Housatonic caged nine charity shots to six by

$500 for Clemente Fund

Reunited for the first time since 1968 were the three sons of Tom Kelley, one of last night's recipients at the annual Gold Key Dinner of the Connecticut Sports Writers' Alliance at the Hartford Hilton.

The young men were on hand to help honor their father. Bill Kelley drove down from Windham, N.H., where they had more than a foot of snow. Dave came up from Alexandria, Va., and Tom resides here.

The last time the Kelley clan all gathered was when the Gold Key winner was given a testimonial dinner in his friends in Manchester after retiring from the Manchester High faculty after 42 years.

It was a night to remember, a heartwarming one for the elder Tom Kelley.

Steve Blass, ace Pittsburgh right-hander, who won a Gold Key a year ago after pitching the Pirates to the World Series over Baltimore, was presented a check from the writers to the Roberto Clemente Fund in the amount of $500.

"It was an honor for me to play on the same field as Roberto. It was a privilege to watch him play every day. It won't be the same Pirates without him. I will never see anybody play the game like he did.

"I feel that we will all have to work harder to win," the mustached hurler said. P.S. The extra hair will come off before spring training he said.

Strapping Bowie Kuhn, baseball's much maligned commissioner, was a distinct hit and well received by those who stayed to the end on what was a long, drawn-out program.

"Sports were never so popular," the 6-6 Kuhn related.

"The ratings of all media prove this.

"Sports in our time have provided a comforting relief from the rigors of every day life."

He urged all hands to help fight legalized gambling.

"The designated hitter is going to be successful. I supported it and am glad to see the American League using it. The support had been 50-50 around the country for this rule."

"We are now working on inter-league play. It usually runs three to two in favor," he added. A show of hands had the designated hitter out front, 3-2 and inter-league play 5-1 by a show of hands.

Hal Goodnow, the rapid-fire walking baseball encyclopedia, was a last-minute speaker and his intimate background on new Hall of Famer, Warren Spahn, helped make the program. The Rev. Robert Keating, who must rely on a cane and help while walking, is battling back and his stories were as good as ever. Floyd Little, the third Gold Key winner, proved himself as much at home behind the mike as on the football field. The three key winners—Kelley, Father Keating and Little - won't forget this cold, winter night.

As Little said, "I don't want to sit down. I'm enjoying myself so much up here."

Hockey Changes Made In All-Star Contest

NEW YORK (AP) — Coach Tom Johnson of the National Hockey League's East Division All-Stars, will open with New York's Gilles Villeneuve in goal tonight as East faces West in the 28th annual NHL All-Star Game.

Villeneuve had been selected as backup goalie to Montreal's Ken Dryden in All-Star balloting by members of the Professional Hockey Writers Association. Dryden will miss the game with an injured back and has been replaced on the East squad by Villeneuve's Ranger teammate, Ed Giacomin.

There was only one other last-minute change as the All-Stars assembled Monday. Pittsburgh's Syd Appa, out with an injured elbow, was replaced on the West roster by another Pittsburgh player, Lowell MacDonald.

Johnson, coach of the Boston Bruins, had his own Bobby Orr and Phil Esposito in the starting East lineup. Joining Orr on defense was Montreal's Guy Lapointe while Esposito was at center with Buffalo's Rick Martin on left wing and Yvan Cournoyer of Montreal on right wing.

There was a familiar look to West Coach Billy Reay's starting team. That's because five of the West starters came from Reay's Chicago Black Hawks. They were goalie Tony Esposito, defenseman Bill White, center Stan Mikita, left wing Dennis Hull and right wing Jim Pappin. The only non-Black Hawk starting for the West was Minnesota defenseman Barry Gibbs.

Off Hot Spot

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Islanders, who have made very little noise on the National Hockey League ice this season, stole some of the pre-game thunder from the NHL's 26th All-Star Game.

While 40 of the top players in the league were arriving in New York for tonight's All-Star show, the Islanders announced a change in coaches with Phil Goyette moving off the hot spot and Earl Ingarfield stepping into it.

Burdened with 40 losses in 50 games, General Manager Bill Torrey and Owner Roy Boe decided it was time for the Islanders to make a change.

Lineman Pick By Patriots

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP) — The New England Patriots, seeking help in their beleaguered offensive line, today selected behemoth Alabama guard John Hannah as their first selection in the National Football League draft.

Drafting fourth in the first round, the Patriots waited for nearly 10 minutes before picking Hannah, a 6-3 1/2, 295-pound letterman who Coach Bear Bryant of Alabama called "the best offensive lineman I've been around in 30 years of coaching."

Prior to the Patriots' selection of Hannah, the Houston Oilers drafted defensive tackle John Matukas of Tampa, the Baltimore Colts took Louisiana State quarterback Bert Jones and the Philadelphia Eagles took Texas offensive lineman Jerry Sizemore.

Hannah, a three-sport letterman (he also wrestled and threw the shot put and discus in track), has good speed and quickness, and has been clocked in the 40-yard dash in 4.9 seconds.

An example of Hannah's value to the Alabama squad came in a game against Vanderbilt when the Crimson Tide was trailing 7-6 late in the game.

UCLA Retains Top Spot

By The Associated Press

UCLA's record-breaking Bruins are a unanimous choice again as No. 1 in The Associated Press' college basketball poll.

The California powerhouse set an all-time record winning streak with 61 last week with victories over Loyola of Chicago and Notre Dame.

As a result, the front-running Bruins, 16-0, received all 33 first-place votes from a nationwide panel of sports writers and sportscasters for a total of 660 points. The Bruins had garnered all but one first-place vote in the two previous polls.

North Carolina State, 14-0, remained in second place, 68 points behind the high-flying Bruins. The undefeated Wolf-pack clobbered Furman 96-73 last week for their 14th victory this year. North Carolina State had gotten one first-place vote in each of the two previous polls.

Maryland moved up a place to third with 471 points after defeating North Carolina, last week's No. 3 team. While the Terps, 14-1, moved from fourth to third, North Carolina, 15-3, dropped to No. 8.

The rest of this week's Top Ten includes: No. 4 Long Beach State, 16-1; No. 5 Indiana, 13-2; No. 6 Alabama, 13-1; No. 7 Missouri, 14-2; No. 9 Minnesota, 12-2, and No. 10 Marquette, 14-2.

The remainder of the ranked teams: No. 11 Houston; No. 12 Providence; No. 13 Southwestern Louisiana; No. 14 St. John's; No. 15 Jacksonville; No. 16 San Francisco; No. 17 Memphis State; No. 18 Kansas State; No. 19 Oral Roberts and No. 20 Southern California.

Revengeful Indians Await Central Five

By Dean Yost

Revenge will be in the minds of the Manchester High Indians tonight at the Clarke Arena when Bristol Central comes to town. In an earlier meeting, Central nipped the Tribe, 59-58, on a foul shot with four seconds left.

In their most recent outing, a 58-43 loss to Bristol Eastern, Manchester displayed a potent offense in the first half but went stone cold in the second half.

Inability to compile four consistent quarters has hurt the Tribe this season. Manchester will enter the game with a 5-7 CCL record while Central is 6-6. Tip off is slated for 8:15.

Also on tonight's card, Somers visits Ellington High (11-1) in an NCCC tilt. The Knights of Rock Healy are currently working on an eight-game winning streak. Southington High will host South Windsor, 5-7 over-all and 5-6 in the CVC. The Bobcats, with a spotty win-loss record have failed to put a winning streak together and may, for the first time in guide a while, be spectators in the CIAC Class L tourney. Coventry High (7-6) travels to Colchester's Bacon Academy while undefeated Portland High treks to Rham High (1-11) in Hebron. Both games are in the CVC.

Jockeys Refuse to Ride

LINCOLN, R.I. (AP) — Because of poor track conditions, jockeys refused to ride after the first race at Lincoln Downs Monday and more than 2,500 unhappy fans were sent home.

A mixture of rain and snow left the track sloppy and deep in mud and jockeys said two deep holes in the surface were dangerous.

It was not the first time jockeys had refused to ride at Lincoln Downs but it was the first time in the state's racing history that a track began a program and was unable to complete the second race.

The cancellation meant the track had to refund the face value of all daily double tickets. Fans who had the winner in the first race as part of the daily double left for home less than happy.

Wa Wa Ducey won the first race, a seven-furlong claiming race, and paid $8.60, $5 and $2.40.

Ice Skating
Bloomington, Minn. — Gordon McKellen Jr., of Lake Placid, N.Y., scored 5.9 out of a possible 6.0 points from every judge on his way to winning the men's senior national championship at the 1973 U.S. Figure Skating Championships. (18).

WEST SIDE MIDGETS
Army & Navy Club topped WINE, 38-24, last night at the Rec. Craig Kearney paced the winners in scoring with 14 points while Mike Adams and Jeff Holt followed with nine and eight markers.

For the losers, Bob Smith tossed in 13 tallies.

In the nightcap Crispino's routed Andy's Fleetown, 42-15. Gary Demko and Steve Crispino paced the potent victors' offense with 14 and 12 points in that order.

Dave Boldeu and Mike Stevens both netted four markers in an losing effort.

EAST SIDE JUNIORS
The Bombers squeaked past the Magicians, 52-49, behind Pete Thompson's 17 points. Assistance in the point column came from Kevin Flynn and Brendon Duffy with nine and eight markers.

Leroy Caron, Gary Lantz and Neil McKinney powered the Magicians' attack with 16, 12 and 11 points respectively.

Rich Haberern
So far it's been a very disappointing campaign for the Indians who on paper seem to have everything going for them.

East Catholic is idle until Friday night when they meet St. Bernard's. Rockville is also idle until Friday when they meet CVC front-running Bloomfield. Cheney Tech plays tomorrow afternoon in Willimantic against Windham Tech. Manchester Community College travels to Housatonic C.C. Wednesday night.

Up front, Larry Perry has been Moriarty's choice at center with Rich Haberern and Tom Tucker flanking him. John Feeney and Bill Davy have been used with Moriarty also filling in.

Raise Suggested For Non-Union Town Employees

A committee appointed last April by Mayor John Thompson and consisting of Manchester industrialists Mark Kravitz, William Thompson and Robert Fuller, is recommending an immediate across-the-board salary increase for all town employees not covered by union contracts - department heads and assistant department heads and supervisors.

The committee submitted its report to the Board of Directors last night, following its study of salaries for similar positions in the Manchester area, in the state, in towns of similar size in the nation and in private industry.

Basically, its report stated that Manchester salaries for its top 17 jobs (department heads) is behind the norm. It recommended immediate salary adjustments for them, recommending also that the adjustments be retroactive to July 1, 1972, the beginning of the current fiscal year.

Its report estimated the immediate cost for the 17 top jobs at about $23,000. The salaries for assistants and supervisors, the report said, also should be adjusted - in relation to the 17.

Town Manager Robert Weiss, instructed by Thompson to estimate the immediate cost for salary adjustments for assistants and supervisors, the report said, also should be adjusted - in relation to the 17.

Mr. Scibek was born in Poland and formerly had been employed as a weaver at Rockville textile mills. Later, he was employed at Pratt and Whitney Division of United Aircraft Corp. More recently, he was a school crossing guard at West and W. Main Sts.

He was a member of Our Lady of Fatima Council, KofC, Rockville.

Stennis Condition Extremely Serious

WASHINGTON (AP) - Sen. John C. Stennis, a power in the Senate's Southern bloc and an ardent supporter of a strong U.S. military, was in "very serious" condition today after being struck twice during a holiday in front of his home here.

A spokesman at Walter Reed Army Medical Center said at 8 a.m. EST, today that chances were "guarded" that the 71-year-old Mississippi Democrat would recover. Stennis is chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

However, the spokesman said Stennis was "conscious and resting comfortably." The next briefing on the senator's condition was scheduled for 4 p.m. EST.

Stennis underwent 6 1/2 hours of surgery Tuesday night and early today for bullet wounds in the lower rib cage—the most serious wound—and in the left thigh.

The bullet then passed through the first portion of the large intestine and lodged in the fleshy portion of the right thigh. The spokesman said the bullet was not removed during surgery and that "its presence creates no problem."

Garland said the second bullet struck the senator's left thigh, but was only a flesh wound.

Doctors who operated on Stennis did not attend the briefing and the spokesman did not indicate precisely how long the surgery was. He did disclose during surgery. Nor did he disclose the identities of the doctors, although an earlier report had named the hospital's "best team" was working on Stennis.

Police said Stennis was shot during "an ordinary street robbery," which reportedly netted two assailants only 25 cents in cash, a gold wristwatch and a wallet.

Police said they had descriptions of the assailants and were searching for two black men, reportedly in their teens.

According to police and colleagues, Stennis did not resist the two men when they confronted him in front of his home at 3009 Cumberland St., about four miles northwest of the White House in what was described as a quiet neighborhood.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, third-ranking Democrat on the Armed Services committee who came to Walter Reed, said Mrs. Stennis told police she heard "two pops" and then her husband's stomach, piercing the pancreas and damaging a major vein that

Grand List Increases 4%

Manchester's new Grand List, based on Oct. 1, 1972 valuations, has reached $267,197,066, which is a $10,306,888 or a 4 per cent hike over last year.

Released today by Town Assessor Edgar Belleville, the Grand List is still subject to adjustments by the Board of Tax Review and to possible clerical errors. It will be the basis for Manchester's 1973-74 tax levy, to be adopted in May by the Board of Directors and to be in effect July 1.

Based on this year's 48.66 mills General Fund tax rate, the 4 per cent increase would produce about $550,000 in additional taxes. And based on the 5.06 mill Fire District tax rate, it would produce about $41,000 in additional taxes there.

Belleville said he is very pleased with the increase, noting that it is among the largest since 1968 revaluation. Of the increase, he said, $5,994,025 is for real estate, $2,285,515 for personal property, and $2,017,171 for motor vehicles.

Last year's net taxable Grand List, after final adjustments, was $256,890,398.

The real estate exemptions were $110,077 more than they were last year, and the personal property exemptions $5,544 more. The exemptions for motor vehicles, however, were $6,830 less than they were a year ago.

The new Grand List, which is computed at 65 per cent of market value, consists of $212,270,183 for real estate, $1,206,277,002 last year, $31,092,257 for personal property, and $23,833,646 for motor vehicles (it was $23,816,675).

By state statute, today, Jan. 31, is the deadline for release of the Grand List. Except for the totals, no other figures were available (number of dwellings, commercial and industrial buildings, lots, motor vehicles, barns, horses, cattle, etc.). They will be released later.

Last year's Grand List rose $7,667,667 or 3 per cent over the 1971-72 level. It provided the Board of Directors was able to hold the 1973-74 tax line at the 1971-72 level. It provided the board with $374,000 in additional General Fund tax revenue.

With this year's Grand List the board can anticipate even more in General Fund revenue - $550,000.

Town Manager Robert Weiss today commended the assessor's office for its "diligence and thoroughness" in its operations.

"Particularly is it to be commended," said Weiss, "for its investigation of personal property, which showed a sizeable increase. It comes at a time when many towns are assessing a decrease in this category, due to the state's gradual elimination of manufacturers' and retailers' inventory tax."

The new Grand List actually was $274,428,296 to start. However, exemptions totaling $5,994,025 for real estate, $2,285,515 for personal property, and $2,017,171 for motor vehicles brought it to the $267,197,066 figure.
