

Obituaries

Edwin W. Laird, 74, of Mansfield Depot, formerly of Manchester, died at his home March 10. He was the husband of Mrs. Sessie Snow Laird of Mansfield Depot.

He was born March 28, 1898, in Calais, Vt. He moved to Manchester in 1920 and was employed by the New Haven Railroad. In 1931 he went to work at the Mansfield Training School and moved to Mansfield Depot in 1934. He retired in 1967 because of ill health.

An ardent sportsman, he was a charter member of the Willington Fish and Game Club, and for several years he served on the Governors Personnel Advisory Committee in Connecticut and was a member of the Storrs Congregational Church.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sisters, several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held last Tuesday at the Potter Funeral Home in Mansfield. Burial was in the Willington Hill Cemetery.

Paul P. Bielski, 49, of 29 Benton St., died Saturday in Manchester Memorial Hospital after apparently suffering a heart attack at his home. He was the husband of Mrs. Mary Grust Bielski.

Born Nov. 19, 1918, in South Windsor, he lived there until he moved to Manchester in 1950. He was an Air Force veteran of World War I. He was employed as a salesman for the Co. of Hartford 30 years, serving as a superintendent, before joining Moriarty Bros.

He was a communicant of St. James Church and a member of Campmenon Lodge, KofC, and Anderson-Shea VFW Post of Manchester.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, John P. Bielski of Greenboro, N.C., and Edward P. Bielski of Manchester; three daughters, Mrs. Anna B. Sisto, Mary Jane Bielski and Cecilia T. Bielski, all of Manchester; three brothers, Stanley Bielski of South Windsor, Bruno Bielski of Hartford and Charles Bielski of East Hartford; and a sister, Mrs. Vera Grust of South Windsor.

The funeral service is Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the Holmes Funeral Home, 400 Main St., with a Mass at 9 a.m. at St. James Church, 225 East Street.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight from 7 to 9.

Darrell A. Mitchell, 54, of 4 Durkin St., died Sunday at his home. He was the husband of Mrs. Martha Kilgore Mitchell.

He was born May 4, 1918, in Smyrna Mills, Maine. He lived in East Hartford many years before moving to Manchester eight years ago.

Mrs. Hedvig McCollough, Mrs. Edwin W. Laird, worked at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Division, United Aircraft Corporation, East Hartford, 18 years. He was a member of the Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Club, the International Association of Machinists, Industrial Aircraft Lodge 1746, and the American Legion, 400 Main St. and Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, ACI Darrell A. Mitchell Jr. serving with the Navy, Brian D. Mitchell of East Hartford; three daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Seeley of East Hartford, Miss Karen Hedges and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Manchester; a brother, George Mitchell of Kipton, Ohio; four sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Bell and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Smyrna Mills, Maine, Mrs. Avis Sharpe and Mrs. Sonja Corliss, both of Meriden and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Newkirk and Whitney Funeral Home, 318 Burrside Ave., East Hartford, with the Rev. Donald Gustafson officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery, East Hartford.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. K. L. Satterlee, 74, of 46 Second St., died Sunday in Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, Boston. She was the wife of Kenneth L. Satterlee.

She was born in Iowa, Mich. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jensen of Trefant, Mich.

Survivors, besides her husband and nephews, are two sons, Lonnie D. Satterlee of Mansfield and Richard L. Satterlee of Ashford; a brother, Lawrence Jensen of Iowa, Mich.; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services are Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Potter Funeral Home, 456 Jackson St., Willimantic. Burial will be in New Lebanon Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Michael Pallein, 77, of 224 Oak St., died Friday at a Manchester convalescent home. She was the wife of Michael Pallein.

She was born Feb. 2, 1895, in Austria-Hungary and lived in Manchester 58 years. She was a member of Concordia Lutheran Church.

Survivors, besides her husband, are three sons, John Pallein, George W. Pallein and Ernest H. Pallein, all of Manchester; a daughter, Mrs. Thomas J. Crockett of Manchester; 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services are Tuesday at 11 a.m. at Concordia Lutheran Church, 224 Oak St., with a Mass at 9 a.m. in East Cemetery. There are no calling hours.

Holmes Funeral Home, 400 Main St., is in charge of arrangements. Friends wishing to do so may make memorial contributions by mail to Concordia Lutheran Church.

John J. Hellandbrand, 64, of Brooklyn, Conn., formerly of Manchester, died Sunday night at the Day-Kimball Hospital in Putnam.

He was born Nov. 9, 1899, in Manchester. He was a retired poultry farmer, and a World War II veteran.

Survivors, besides his wife, are three brothers, Charles Hellandbrand of Rockville, Perle W. Hellandbrand of South Windsor, and Patrick A. Hellandbrand of Manchester; and one sister, Mrs. Alice H. Renaudette of Chicago, Ill.

The funeral will be Wednesday at 8:30 a.m. from the Quinn Funeral Home, 225 Main St., with a Mass at 9 a.m. at St. James Church, 225 East Street.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Hedvig McCollough, 74, of 833 Main St., died Sunday at Rockville General Hospital. She was the widow of James McCollough.

She was born in Manchester and lived there all her life. She was employed at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft (Parachute) Systems until her retirement. She was a member of the American Legion, 400 Main St. and Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, ACI Darrell A. Mitchell Jr. serving with the Navy, Brian D. Mitchell of East Hartford; three daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Seeley of East Hartford, Miss Karen Hedges and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Manchester; a brother, George Mitchell of Kipton, Ohio; four sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Bell and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Smyrna Mills, Maine, Mrs. Avis Sharpe and Mrs. Sonja Corliss, both of Meriden and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Newkirk and Whitney Funeral Home, 318 Burrside Ave., East Hartford, with the Rev. Donald Gustafson officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery, East Hartford.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Ex-Senator Benton Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Former U.S. Sen. William Benton of Connecticut, died Friday in London. He was the husband of Mrs. Sessie Snow Benton of Mansfield Depot.

He was born March 28, 1898, in Calais, Vt. He moved to Manchester in 1920 and was employed by the New Haven Railroad. In 1931 he went to work at the Mansfield Training School and moved to Mansfield Depot in 1934. He retired in 1967 because of ill health.

An ardent sportsman, he was a charter member of the Willington Fish and Game Club, and for several years he served on the Governors Personnel Advisory Committee in Connecticut and was a member of the Storrs Congregational Church.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sisters, several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held last Tuesday at the Potter Funeral Home in Mansfield. Burial was in the Willington Hill Cemetery.

William Benton hospitalized for five weeks with pneumonia, died Sunday at his Waldorf-Towers apartment.

While serving as U.S. senator from Connecticut from 1949 to 1956, Benton introduced a resolution denouncing Sen. Joseph McCarthy, R-Wis., and calling for the expulsion of the anti-Communist crusader.

Benton was a cofounder of the Benton and Bowles advertising agency in 1926. When he sold his agency nine years later, the agency had grown into the sixth largest in the world.

He was named vice president of the University of Chicago in 1955 and in 1949 he put up $100,000 to purchase Encyclopaedia Britannica from Sears, Roebuck & Co.

Manchester several months ago for the rebuilding of the University of Chicago.

John J. Hellandbrand, 64, of Brooklyn, Conn., formerly of Manchester, died Sunday night at the Day-Kimball Hospital in Putnam.

He was born Nov. 9, 1899, in Manchester. He was a retired poultry farmer, and a World War II veteran.

Survivors, besides his wife, are three brothers, Charles Hellandbrand of Rockville, Perle W. Hellandbrand of South Windsor, and Patrick A. Hellandbrand of Manchester; and one sister, Mrs. Alice H. Renaudette of Chicago, Ill.

The funeral will be Wednesday at 8:30 a.m. from the Quinn Funeral Home, 225 Main St., with a Mass at 9 a.m. at St. James Church, 225 East Street.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Hedvig McCollough, 74, of 833 Main St., died Sunday at Rockville General Hospital. She was the widow of James McCollough.

She was born in Manchester and lived there all her life. She was employed at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft (Parachute) Systems until her retirement. She was a member of the American Legion, 400 Main St. and Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, ACI Darrell A. Mitchell Jr. serving with the Navy, Brian D. Mitchell of East Hartford; three daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Seeley of East Hartford, Miss Karen Hedges and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Manchester; a brother, George Mitchell of Kipton, Ohio; four sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Bell and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Smyrna Mills, Maine, Mrs. Avis Sharpe and Mrs. Sonja Corliss, both of Meriden and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Newkirk and Whitney Funeral Home, 318 Burrside Ave., East Hartford, with the Rev. Donald Gustafson officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery, East Hartford.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Hedvig McCollough, 74, of 833 Main St., died Sunday at Rockville General Hospital. She was the widow of James McCollough.

She was born in Manchester and lived there all her life. She was employed at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft (Parachute) Systems until her retirement. She was a member of the American Legion, 400 Main St. and Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, ACI Darrell A. Mitchell Jr. serving with the Navy, Brian D. Mitchell of East Hartford; three daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Seeley of East Hartford, Miss Karen Hedges and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Manchester; a brother, George Mitchell of Kipton, Ohio; four sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Bell and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Smyrna Mills, Maine, Mrs. Avis Sharpe and Mrs. Sonja Corliss, both of Meriden and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Newkirk and Whitney Funeral Home, 318 Burrside Ave., East Hartford, with the Rev. Donald Gustafson officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery, East Hartford.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Hedvig McCollough, 74, of 833 Main St., died Sunday at Rockville General Hospital. She was the widow of James McCollough.

She was born in Manchester and lived there all her life. She was employed at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft (Parachute) Systems until her retirement. She was a member of the American Legion, 400 Main St. and Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, ACI Darrell A. Mitchell Jr. serving with the Navy, Brian D. Mitchell of East Hartford; three daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Seeley of East Hartford, Miss Karen Hedges and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Manchester; a brother, George Mitchell of Kipton, Ohio; four sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Bell and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Smyrna Mills, Maine, Mrs. Avis Sharpe and Mrs. Sonja Corliss, both of Meriden and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Newkirk and Whitney Funeral Home, 318 Burrside Ave., East Hartford, with the Rev. Donald Gustafson officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery, East Hartford.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Hedvig McCollough, 74, of 833 Main St., died Sunday at Rockville General Hospital. She was the widow of James McCollough.

She was born in Manchester and lived there all her life. She was employed at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft (Parachute) Systems until her retirement. She was a member of the American Legion, 400 Main St. and Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, ACI Darrell A. Mitchell Jr. serving with the Navy, Brian D. Mitchell of East Hartford; three daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Seeley of East Hartford, Miss Karen Hedges and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Manchester; a brother, George Mitchell of Kipton, Ohio; four sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Bell and Mrs. Yvonne Hedges, both of Smyrna Mills, Maine, Mrs. Avis Sharpe and Mrs. Sonja Corliss, both of Meriden and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Newkirk and Whitney Funeral Home, 318 Burrside Ave., East Hartford, with the Rev. Donald Gustafson officiating. Burial will be in Hillside Cemetery, East Hartford.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Watkins FUNERAL HOME
Established 1874-Three Generations of Service
142 East Center Street Manchester

"Easter Elegance"
FASHION SHOW & COFFEE
Sponsored by Manchester Jr. Women's Club
Monday, March 19th, 8:00 p.m.
Concordia Lutheran Church
40 Pitkin Street

Proceeds to Benefit Manchester Memorial Hospital

The above space is available to your group on a FIRST COME FIRST SERVED BASIS to publicize community service programs, through the courtesy of Watkins. Contact Mrs. Susan H. Smith at 643-2711. Thursday the week before publication, 643-2711.

About Town

Charles W. Neumann Jr., 40, of 410 High St., East Hartford, died Friday in Lyme. He was the husband of Mrs. Ruth Klass Neumann.

Born in Hartford, he lived in East Hartford most of his life. He was employed at the Bell Vending Co., Glastonbury, as a mechanic for several years. He was a member of the Second Congregational Church of Manchester.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, Thomas Neumann and Timothy Neumann, and a daughter, Sally Neumann, all of Manchester; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neumann of East Hartford; and two sisters, Mrs. G. Philip Lecremier of North Canton, and Mrs. Richard Jeannotte of Andover.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 11 a.m. at the Rose Hill Memorial Park, Rocky Hill. There are no calling hours.

Friends wishing to do so may make memorial contributions to a charity of the donor's choice.

The Polish Women's Alliance, group 246, will meet tonight at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Michalina Kurkovic, 34 W. Center St.

The Women's Home League, Salvation Army, will meet tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. in Junior Hall at the Citadel.

The Key 73 meeting originally scheduled for Friday will be held Tuesday at 12 noon in the cafeteria of Manchester Memorial Hospital.

There will be a story hour Tuesday morning from 10 to 10:45 in the junior room of the Mary Cheney Library, Children, ages 2 1/2 and 5, are invited. The following members of the Manchester Junior Women's Club will be readers: Mrs. Joseph Purdy, Mrs. Alexander Eigner, and Mrs. E. Thomas McKinney.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, Walter Bost of Glastonbury and Ernest Bost of St. Cloud, Fla.; two brothers, Harry M. Bost of East Hartford and Clarence Bost of St. Petersburg, Fla.; 8 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services are Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Seaster Memorial Funeral Home, Largo, Fla.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, Walter Bost of Glastonbury and Ernest Bost of St. Cloud, Fla.; two brothers, Harry M. Bost of East Hartford and Clarence Bost of St. Petersburg, Fla.; 8 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services are Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Seaster Memorial Funeral Home, Largo, Fla.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, Walter Bost of Glastonbury and Ernest Bost of St. Cloud, Fla.; two brothers, Harry M. Bost of East Hartford and Clarence Bost of St. Petersburg, Fla.; 8 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services are Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Seaster Memorial Funeral Home, Largo, Fla.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, Walter Bost of Glastonbury and Ernest Bost of St. Cloud, Fla.; two brothers, Harry M. Bost of East Hartford and Clarence Bost of St. Petersburg, Fla.; 8 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services are Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Seaster Memorial Funeral Home, Largo, Fla.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, Walter Bost of Glastonbury and Ernest Bost of St. Cloud, Fla.; two brothers, Harry M. Bost of East Hartford and Clarence Bost of St. Petersburg, Fla.; 8 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services are Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Seaster Memorial Funeral Home, Largo, Fla.

YOU MAY NEED PROMPT FREE DELIVERY

WEST TOWN PHARMACY
455 HARTFORD ROAD MANCHESTER

We'll be glad to deliver prescriptions right to your door at no extra charge. It's just one of our extra services to help you keep in the best of health. Whatever your pharmaceutical needs, we will supply them... call us at 643-5230.

By scientific calculation spring arrived early this afternoon, but our feathered friends, the robins above as snapped by Herald photographer, Sylvian Orlara, and the sparrow who provide caution light recess for nest, it is not news. The nest has been removed since Tony Gentilomo to the shot at left. Other signs to make man optimistic include budding trees, and emerging spring flowers and even a few days recently where boys with bats and ball-in-hand playgrounds after school hours.

8th District Fire Chief Pinpoints Needs
SOL R. COHEN (Herald Reporter)

For the past several years, 8th District Fire Chief Granville Lingard has expressed considerable concern over inadequate flow of water for fire protection. He has noted in many reports to the District board of directors, "There are many areas in the District that do not have even minimum volumes available."

Last night, he gave the board a list of five of those areas, plus his proposals for solving the problems. The board instructed him to meet with officials of the Manchester Water Co., in an effort to institute the proposed solutions.

Prior to listing the five trouble areas, Lingard explained that the water flow should be 500 gallons per minute (g.p.m.) in residential areas where dwellings are fairly far apart; 1,500 g.p.m. where the dwellings are close together; and 3,000 g.p.m. in apartment areas and at school locations.

Lingard's report reads:

1. On Main St., beyond the K of C, many old buildings and several new apartments and offices are protected by 200 g.p.m. and less.
2. Hollister St. School has two hydrants, one capable of 600 g.p.m. and one with 150 g.p.m. If the school should catch fire, 3,000 g.p.m. would be required to control it.
3. On Hilliard St., the Co-op provision was made at the corner of Oakland and Apel for an 8-inch main to go into Apel Pl. and feed a new hydrant and the Co-op sprinkler system.
4. On N. Elm St., three old hydrants on a 4-inch line give a maximum flow of about 200 g.p.m. A 10-inch main runs parallel to the 4-inch main, with no hydrants on it to Henry St.
5. On Hilliard St., 500 feet west

Almanac Admits Error
DUBLIN, N.H. (AP) — The Old Farmer's Almanac, which predicted a lot of snow for the New England mountains this winter, has decided to admit it was wrong.

After all, daffodils are popping out in the Massachusetts South Shore, and the prospects for some really fine blizzards are growing dim.

"Sometimes we're right for the wrong reasons," the Almanac says. "This time we were wrong for the right reasons."

It said it had "correctly predicted that this would be an unusually warm and wet winter because the weather pattern would bring an influx of moist, warm air up from the Gulf of Mexico along the Eastern seaboard."

"Such air would then ordinarily meet the cold Arctic air carried by the polar jetstream somewhere over the mountains of New England and huge snowfalls should result."

"Everything went well until Christmas when the polar jetstream decided to retreat to a more northerly direction so that when the rains came up from the south, they remained rain all the way."

The Almanac said it appeared "Mother Nature intervened to save New England. Maybe she knew about the energy crisis and took pity on us."

Welcome Delayed
PITTSBURGH (AP) — The city's "Welcome to Spring" has been delayed because of nearly five inches of snow and freezing temperatures over the weekend.

A youth symphony concert scheduled for today in the downtown Market Square by the Parks and Recreation Department was postponed "until weather permits."

Commission Extension Suggested
SAIGON (AP) — The United States may ask that the four-party Joint Military Commission be extended in an effort to improve chances for a true cease-fire, U.S. sources disclosed today.

The commission, set up by the Jan. 27 cease-fire agreement, is due to be dissolved March 28. The sources said the United States is considering proposing an extension of the body which includes North Vietnam, South Vietnam and the Viet Cong's Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam, as well as the United States.

The South Vietnamese delegation to the military peacekeeping commission has been filled in on the American considerations.

Top Area Teacher
Robert Blake, a biology teacher at Windsor High School, has been named winner of the Trinity College Capital Area Distinguished Teacher Award at the 15th annual Capital Area Educators dinner last night. He switched from dentistry to biology because "biology made more sense." (AP photo)

Manchester Evening Herald
Manchester—A City of Village Charm
SIXTEEN PAGES PRICE: FIFTEEN CENTS

Clear and cold tonight with lows in the mid 20s. Mostly sunny Wednesday with highs near 50. Precipitation probability near zero through period.

Monday Target For Hartford Area Bus Service Resumption

HARTFORD (AP) — Connecticut Co. buses in the Hartford area could be on the road by Monday if an agreement worked out by company, union and state officials goes according to plan, says a company spokesman.

The agreement would end a union strike that began Nov. 25 in the Hartford area affecting some 100,000 daily passengers.

The conditions are ratification by the membership of the Amalgamated Transit Union-union officials are urging approval and final agreement by the state. The contract could be signed on Wednesday.

It could then call the mechanics in on Thursday, Friday and Saturday and the buses would run on Monday morning, said Charles Abell, ConCo vice president.

Abell said no buses in the New Haven and Stamford areas would be affected. The district in Hartford has been in operation for a number of years, but officials in New Haven and Stamford have refused to form districts.

Neither Abell nor John Thompson, head of the ATU, would discuss details of the agreement until after the union membership votes today.

The tentative agreement, announced Monday by Gov.

Thomas J. Meskill, calls for state subsidies to cover company deficits during a two-year period.

"It is not a perfect solution," Meskill said in a broadcast statement. "It is not the solution I like."

Previously, Meskill had insisted that localities pay the major part of bus deficits except during a short interim period.

The settlement was immediately blasted by Democratic legislative leaders. They said the governor could have taken the same action last fall and prevented the strike.

The strike was called after ConCo officials said they couldn't sign a new contract—the old one expired Oct. 1 without some form of subsidies.

"Now, at long last, Gov. Meskill concedes that the future of mass transportation is a state responsibility that must be met with state funds and state leadership," said a statement by Senate Minority Leader Charles Alfano and House Minority Leader Carl Ajello.

A condition of Meskill's subsidy offer was that transit districts be formed, even though the subsidies will be taken from the state Public Service Tax Fund and administered by the state Transportation Department.

The local districts would serve in a purely advisory capacity.

Officials in New Haven began Tuesday night to gear up toward reconsidering the transit district issue. New Haven Mayor Bartholomew Guida has maintained the state should assume full responsibility for the bus service.

The Board of Aldermen scheduled a public meeting for Tuesday night to gear up toward reconsidering the transit district issue. New Haven Mayor Bartholomew Guida has maintained the state should assume full responsibility for the bus service.

The Board of Aldermen scheduled a public meeting for Tuesday night to gear up toward reconsidering the transit district issue.

Charter Revision Report Heads Directors' Agenda

Consideration of the formal report by the Charter Revision Commission and of a proposed $100,000 grant for a Downtown planning consultant head the agenda for the Manchester Board of Director's meeting tonight.

The regular meeting will start at 8 in the Municipal Building Hearing Room. At 7:15, the board will conduct an informal session with the Charter Revision Commission, to discuss the status of Case Mt. purchase.

The Charter Revision Commission is recommending 12 changes in Manchester's charter. In addition, it is recommending that the council-manager form of government be continued. It has rejected a proposal for a change to a strong mayor form of government.

The Manchester Property Owners Association executive board, which recommended the change, has been circulating "opinion" petitions, asking the directors to place the question on the voting machines and to let the voters decide.

The petitions will be presented to the board prior to tonight's formal meeting. Indications are, at present, that the directors will accept the CRC's report and will schedule the questions at a townwide referendum in November, in conjunction with the election for town officials.

The proposed $100,000 town allocation for half the fee for a downtown planning consultant (the other $100,000 would come from banks, utilities and downtown Main St. property owners and businesses) has drawn considerable opposition. The Parkade Merchants Association filed its formal opposition on March 6.

The nine-member Board of Directors reportedly is split on the $100,000 issue.

Boyle To Testify

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Out-of-district issue, New Haven lawyer "A. Tony" Boyle was under heavy guard at a local motel Tuesday night when he was expected to appear as the first defense witness in the trial of William Prater, charged in the Yablonski murders.

Boyle flew here from Washington, D.C., Monday night and was whisked from the Erie International Airport in a car driven by a sheriff's deputy.

The prosecution was expected to rest its case today, the ninth day of testimony.

Prater is among seven persons who were charged in the 1968 killings of UMW insurance agent Joseph A. "Jack" Yablonski and his wife and daughter.

Commission Extension Suggested

SAIGON (AP) — The United States may ask that the four-party Joint Military Commission be extended in an effort to improve chances for a true cease-fire, U.S. sources disclosed today.

The commission, set up by the Jan. 27 cease-fire agreement, is due to be dissolved March 28. The sources said the United States is considering proposing an extension of the body which includes North Vietnam, South Vietnam and the Viet Cong's Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam, as well as the United States.

The South Vietnamese delegation to the military peacekeeping commission has been filled in on the American considerations.

Zoning Variance Denied By ZBA

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Mrs. Halo Boggs was favored today to win election to Congress to succeed her husband, who vanished on a flight in Alaska last October.

Mrs. Boggs easily won the Democratic nomination, polling 41,250 votes to 15,333 for four opponents.

She was opposed by Republican Robert E. Lee, 45-year-old Gretna attorney making his second race for the post.

Promoting State
HARTFORD (AP) — Hundreds of top corporate executives in the New York City area have been invited to a reception April 6 designed to promote Connecticut for relocation of business and industry, says Gov. Thomas J. Meskill.

"We're going into New York City with the strongest selling combination that Connecticut has ever used to penetrate this primary market for major economic development," Meskill said today in a statement.

Guards Return
WALPOLE, Mass. (AP) — Faced with an injunction to return to work, guards reported in files to Walpole state prison this morning, five days after they refused to work and were placed on probation, officials said.

"The place is loaded with guards," Correction Department spokesman John C. MacLean said. "It would appear that they're ready to go back to work."

State Neglects 'Little Brothers'
NEW HAVEN (AP) — The resourceful state government has been meeting its own rising costs but neglecting its struggling "little brothers" in recent years, the Connecticut Conference of Mayors and Municipalities (CCM) said today.

The CCM said that the state's General Fund budget, for example, is expected to increase three times the rate of its aid to cities and towns between 1971 and its next state budget period.

"This is a terrible situation, one which is very unfair and burdensome to the people," said CCM President John J. Sullivan, the first selectman of Fairfield.

The conference has been appealing to the state administration and legislature to increase local assistance in the next budget.

Sullivan said General Fund official proposals for the future of Northern Ireland in which the province will remain part of the United Kingdom and the Roman Catholic minority will be guaranteed full civil rights.

Northern Ireland is also to get a new, 80-member legislative assembly. Elections will be held there in 1973. The new assembly to be elected will replace the old Protestant-dominated Parliament at Stormont, which was suspended a year ago when Britain imposed direct rule. Elections will be by proportional representation.

Sullivan said the state has been able to balance cost increases with the lottery and a wide tax base while in municipalities "property taxes have had to rise steeply in order to cover escalating costs." (AP photo)

British Unveil Irish Policy

LONDON (AP) — The British government announced today official proposals for the future of Northern Ireland in which the province will remain part of the United Kingdom and the Roman Catholic minority will be guaranteed full civil rights.

Northern Ireland is also to get a new, 80-member legislative assembly. Elections will be held there in 1973. The new assembly to be elected will replace the old Protestant-dominated Parliament at Stormont, which was suspended a year ago when Britain imposed direct rule. Elections will be by proportional representation.

Sullivan said the state has been able to balance cost increases with the lottery and a wide tax base while in municipalities "property taxes have had to rise steeply in order to cover escalating costs." (AP photo)

Top Area Teacher
Robert Blake, a biology teacher at Windsor High School, has been named winner of the Trinity College Capital Area Distinguished Teacher Award at the 15th annual Capital Area Educators dinner last night. He switched from dentistry to biology because "biology made more sense." (AP photo)

200 M A R C H 20

115 Firms Make 50% Washington — The Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association represents 115 pharmaceutical firms that provide 95 per cent of the ethical drugs in the United States and about 60 per cent of the world supply.

TV Notes

"The Young and the Restless," a new daytime dramatic series set in a mythical mid-America community named Genoa City, premieres Monday, March 26, on CBS-TV.

(1817 'draisine' invented by Baron Karl von Drais)

Sean Connery as James Bond 007

THEATRE EAST... The Heartbreak Kid... An Elaine May Film

ELIJAH SPEAKING... LUTZ JUNIOR MUSEUM

Diamonds Are Forever... PLUS... ON HER MAJESTY'S SECRET SERVICE

SLUETH... BURNSIDE... 1560 Burnside Ave.

By PAMELA A. SALOOM... Acting Director... Bicycle popularity has reached an all-time high in the United States.

Diamonds Are Forever... PLUS... ON HER MAJESTY'S SECRET SERVICE

SLUETH... BURNSIDE... 1560 Burnside Ave.

Some of us on the staff, noting this increasing popularity and cycling enthusiasts ourselves, decided to create a cycling club at the park.

Vernon Cine 2... Starts Wed. 7:30 P.M.

Ends Tonight (P) "THE GETAWAY" Starts Wed. 7:30 P.M.

The first recorded attempt at bicycle construction was in France in 1810. Monsieur de Sivras attached a wagon wheel to each end of a wooden bar.

Johnson in the beginning. Peace and solitude.

Ends Tonight (P) "THE GETAWAY" Starts Wed. 7:30 P.M.

Speed was of great interest to many early riders just as it is today. Charles "Mill-a-Minute" Murphy was the first cyclist to travel 60 m.p.h.

Johnson in the beginning. Peace and solitude.

Ends Tonight (P) "THE GETAWAY" Starts Wed. 7:30 P.M.

The cycling exhibit will be completed this month. If you're an avid cyclist, come in and see it. If you're not, please come anyway.

Johnson in the beginning. Peace and solitude.

Ends Tonight (P) "THE GETAWAY" Starts Wed. 7:30 P.M.

LTM Will Meet... The Little Theatre of Manchester will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the LTM rooms at 22 Oak St.

Johnson in the beginning. Peace and solitude.

Ends Tonight (P) "THE GETAWAY" Starts Wed. 7:30 P.M.

In 1835, Kirkpatrick Macmillan first used foot pedals to propel a two-wheeled vehicle. By 1860, Pierre Lallement patented a model with foot pedals in the United States.

Johnson in the beginning. Peace and solitude.

Ends Tonight (P) "THE GETAWAY" Starts Wed. 7:30 P.M.

TV Tonight

(3-4-30) NEWS... (18) SECRET AGENT... (20) SOUNDING BOARD... (24) ZOOM... (30) TO TELL THE TRUTH... (40) WILD WILD WEST

Sheinwold on Bridge

HOW TO PREVENT ENEMY'S OVERRUFF... By ALFRED SHEINWOLD... "Never send a boy to a man's work."

What do you say? Answer: Bid two hearts. Your hand is too good for a raise to two spades.

It was clear that East was out of clubs. If declarer ruffed in dummy with a low trump, East would have an easy chance of overruff.

Contract Set One... The attempt failed. East was able to overruff with the jack of spades.

There was a sure way to stop the overruff, but South didn't see it. The correct play is to discard a diamond from dummy on the third round of clubs.

There was a sure way to stop the overruff, but South didn't see it. The correct play is to discard a diamond from dummy on the third round of clubs.

There was a sure way to stop the overruff, but South didn't see it. The correct play is to discard a diamond from dummy on the third round of clubs.

There was a sure way to stop the overruff, but South didn't see it. The correct play is to discard a diamond from dummy on the third round of clubs.

There was a sure way to stop the overruff, but South didn't see it. The correct play is to discard a diamond from dummy on the third round of clubs.

There was a sure way to stop the overruff, but South didn't see it. The correct play is to discard a diamond from dummy on the third round of clubs.

There was a sure way to stop the overruff, but South didn't see it. The correct play is to discard a diamond from dummy on the third round of clubs.

There was a sure way to stop the overruff, but South didn't see it. The correct play is to discard a diamond from dummy on the third round of clubs.

There was a sure way to stop the overruff, but South didn't see it. The correct play is to discard a diamond from dummy on the third round of clubs.

There was a sure way to stop the overruff, but South didn't see it. The correct play is to discard a diamond from dummy on the third round of clubs.

Vernon Council Considers Ice Rink Idea

BARBARA RICHMOND (Herald Reporter)... A proposal for construction of a year-round artificial ice facility for Vernon, Conn., was presented to the Town Council last night by Councilman Robert Houley.

with some support and recommendations from that commission. The commission will be asked to report back within 30 days.

Houley outlined three basic ways in which the town could go about financing the ice facility. He listed these as from private investment, state funds from Public Act 731 (school construction grants) and town funding (20-year municipal bonds).

Councilman Houley cited one of the major disadvantages of the private investment approach. "The necessarily high cost of usage,"

Under school construction grants the town might be able to obtain 50 per cent of the project cost if the estimated cost of such a building for housing an olympic size ice rink is $600,000.

Under school construction grants the town might be able to obtain 50 per cent of the project cost if the estimated cost of such a building for housing an olympic size ice rink is $600,000.

Under school construction grants the town might be able to obtain 50 per cent of the project cost if the estimated cost of such a building for housing an olympic size ice rink is $600,000.

Under school construction grants the town might be able to obtain 50 per cent of the project cost if the estimated cost of such a building for housing an olympic size ice rink is $600,000.

Under school construction grants the town might be able to obtain 50 per cent of the project cost if the estimated cost of such a building for housing an olympic size ice rink is $600,000.

Under school construction grants the town might be able to obtain 50 per cent of the project cost if the estimated cost of such a building for housing an olympic size ice rink is $600,000.

Under school construction grants the town might be able to obtain 50 per cent of the project cost if the estimated cost of such a building for housing an olympic size ice rink is $600,000.

Under school construction grants the town might be able to obtain 50 per cent of the project cost if the estimated cost of such a building for housing an olympic size ice rink is $600,000.

Under school construction grants the town might be able to obtain 50 per cent of the project cost if the estimated cost of such a building for housing an olympic size ice rink is $600,000.

Under school construction grants the town might be able to obtain 50 per cent of the project cost if the estimated cost of such a building for housing an olympic size ice rink is $600,000.

South Windsor Five Appointed To Town Boards

The South Windsor Town Council last night appointed five people to various boards and commissions. Those named were Albert Anello, 88 Mercury Rd., alternate to the Planning and Zoning Commission, to fill an unexpired term ending Dec. 1, 1973; Richard Eriksson, 18 Birch Hill Dr., to the Zoning Board of Appeals, to fill an unexpired term ending Dec. 1, 1973; Barry Gullano, 160 Birch Hill Dr., to the Committee to assess benefits and damages on the town's sewer system, to fill an unexpired term ending Dec. 1, 1973; and Mrs. Marge Houghton, 28 Birch Hill Dr., to the Mass Transit Commission, to fill an unexpired term ending Dec. 1, 1973.

The appointment of another member to the Mass Transit Commission to fill an unexpired term ending Dec. 1, 1973 was tabled at the request of Councilman Howard Pitts. He said the GOP would make a recommendation at the next council meeting for a minority member of the commission.

James Throver, Sewer Commission chairman, told the council that rates for residential hook-up to the town's sewer system have been set at $9.50 a front foot. The commercial and industrial rate is $15.50 a front foot. He said the rates were based on actual cost to the town of $9.68 per foot.

Throver said the Sullivan-Avery Heights project is five per cent behind schedule because of extensions to the original project by the sewer commission. He said the project is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Using the West Hartford rink as an example, Houley said the cost of that facility was $500,000 in 1968. Operating costs for the 1972-73 fiscal year were about $20,000 and revenue for the same period was $10,000.

Houley substantiated the need for such a facility in Vernon with figures gathered from the seven-town area surrounding the town. He said a 30,720 public school student population, complemented by a total population of 130,845 in the same area, almost certainly assures success.

Houley contacted a construction company for estimates of the cost of an indoor skating rink and was given the approximate figure of $600,000. This would be for a building 100 feet wide by 220 feet long and 20 feet high which would house an olympic size ice rink 65 feet by 90 feet, complete with an artificial ice system, a small housing area for storage of equipment and ice machines, men's and women's lockers and washrooms.

Houley reminded council members that such a facility could be developed at different cost depending on what additional facilities are wanted. He listed as possible uses, public skating, figure skating, speed skating, recreational skating, physical education, all levels of hockey, broom ball, curling, wrestling, box lacrosse, exhibitions and as a teen drop-in-center.

The building company explained that larger facility which would include expanded space for spectator area, food and service concessions and larger lounge facilities, would cost in the area of $750,000.

Discharged Sunday: Arthur W. Breaun, 39 Hilltop Dr.; Donald W. Villeneuve, 215 Carl Rutgers, 38 Garden St.; Matthew N. Shea, Willimantic; Frank Goodale, 207 Parker St.; Carl K. Johnson, 90 Indian Dr.; Louise Foley, Jordan; Janet H. Larose, 56 Birch St.; Robert T. Baruch, 140 Hilltop Dr.

Discharged Monday: William R. Danahy, 56 Ridgewood St.; Jeannette C. Browne, East Hartford; Anthony E. Boyles, 266 Burnham St.; Edward J. Stephens, 211 S. Main St.; Larose baby boy, 56 Birch St.; Marlene V. Sopp and son, East Hartford; Angelo, Napolitano, 105 Birch St.; Charles B. Mitchell, Vernon.

Discharged Tuesday: William R. Danahy, 56 Ridgewood St.; Jeannette C. Browne, East Hartford; Anthony E. Boyles, 266 Burnham St.; Edward J. Stephens, 211 S. Main St.; Larose baby boy, 56 Birch St.; Marlene V. Sopp and son, East Hartford; Angelo, Napolitano, 105 Birch St.; Charles B. Mitchell, Vernon.

Discharged Wednesday: William R. Danahy, 56 Ridgewood St.; Jeannette C. Browne, East Hartford; Anthony E. Boyles, 266 Burnham St.; Edward J. Stephens, 211 S. Main St.; Larose baby boy, 56 Birch St.; Marlene V. Sopp and son, East Hartford; Angelo, Napolitano, 105 Birch St.; Charles B. Mitchell, Vernon.

Discharged Thursday: William R. Danahy, 56 Ridgewood St.; Jeannette C. Browne, East Hartford; Anthony E. Boyles, 266 Burnham St.; Edward J. Stephens, 211 S. Main St.; Larose baby boy, 56 Birch St.; Marlene V. Sopp and son, East Hartford; Angelo, Napolitano, 105 Birch St.; Charles B. Mitchell, Vernon.

Public Records

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Warranty Deeds... Green Rd. Realty Inc. to Leonard R. May S. and Alan R. Schofield, 1000 Main St., 1973; Green Manor Estates Inc. to Ryder Realty Co., property on Green Rd., conveyance tax $50.

Andover Church Discussion Slated

ANNE EMT... Correspondent... The third in a series of Wednesday evening discussions sponsored by the Religious Education Board of the Andover Congregational Church will be held Wednesday evening at 8 in the Social Room of the church.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

About Town

All retired persons from Pratt and Whitney Aircraft are invited to a meeting of the Retirees' Group of the Pratt and Whitney Aircraft Club Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the clubhouse, 200 Clement Rd., East Hartford. Refreshments will be served before the meeting. Palmer Dickinson of the Internal Revenue Service will speak.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

The subject of this discussion will be "Male and Female Roles in the Family" and the leaders will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heavin.

TREASURE CITY DOORBUSTERS! BLAZER JACKETS $3 JEANS WRANGLER $3

LAST 5 DAYS! GRAND OPENING TOTAL DECORATING CENTER SALE 20%

blau furniture stores

Beat the High Cost of Eating with the Colonel's New MINI-DINNER $1.49 only

COME ONE, COME ALL ... ELKS PANCAKE DAY Saturday, March 24

MARCH IS ... MANCHESTER DOLLARS FOR SCHOLARS MONTH WE ENCOURAGE YOUR AID

Manchester Evening Herald

Founded Oct. 1, 1881

Published by Manchester Publishing Co., 16 Brainard Place, Manchester, Conn. 06040, telephone 643-2711 (AC 203.)

Published every evening except Sundays and holidays. Entered at the Manchester, Conn., Post Office as Second Class Mail Matter.

Burl L. Lyons, Publisher

Subscription Rates

Payable in Advance
One Month$3.25
Single Copy 15¢
By Carrier, Weekly 75¢
One Year$39.00
Six Months$19.50
Three Months $9.75

Unfriendly Neighbors

The avowed purpose of the U.N. Security Council meeting in Panama is the preservation of peace. Actually it is a stage set for a spat for an Anti-American bombast.

Panama's military dictator, General Omar Torrijos, is putting pressure on the U.S. to make concessions on the Canal Zone and pay more rental for use of the Canal.

For helping Panama win its independence from Columbia in 1903 and for completing the Panama Canal in 1914, the U.S. was rewarded with a treaty which granted control of the 58 square mile canal zone "in perpetuity."

The Canal is a vital link in the defense of the United States and its military installations there contribute heavily to Panama's economy as does the current 1.9 million dollars a year rental.

However, General Torrijos now sees the zone as "the humiliation of a foreign flag piercing Panama's heart" and he made sure the foreign visitors saw the contrast between Panama City's slums and the American zone.

So, higher American payments and a greater share in administration of

Subscribers who fail to receive their newspaper by carrier daily before 8:30 p.m. should telephone the circulation department, 647-9946.

Member Audit Bureau of Circulation
Member of The Associated Press

The Manchester Publishing Co. assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors appearing in advertisements and other reading matter in The Manchester Evening Herald.

Display advertising closing hours, three full days prior to publication. Deadline for Herald want ads, 12 noon prior to day of publication; 12 noon Friday for publication Saturday and Monday.

Home Front Battle

The other day a lady we know enlisted in the war on high prices.

After an expenditure of an undetermined amount for books, booklets and homemaking magazines featuring articles on how to cut family food bills, she launched her attack.

The initial assault at the food store presented no problems for she had carefully read all the ads in The Herald and knew just where the best buys for each item on her list could be obtained. And a preplanned route enabled her to make them all in one gasoline-saving sortie.

This was all well and good as she reflected on the things she had purchased and compared the tapes with those of last week before sending them on to President Nixon.

Her first setback, although minor, was unenvying. It seems some of the exotic, but low cost menus she had planned, involved some cooking skills long dormant. But with the aid of a wedding gift cook book (opened for the first time in 14 years) she advanced from the kitchen to the dining room.

Here was to be the acid test of her economy strategy. It was traditional "steak night" at the house. There was no question that her exotic macaroni and cheese casserole could aesthetically surpass any partially charred chunk of animal muscle oozing a faint pink fluid.

There was no doubt (according to the books and articles) the casserole

Open Forum

Let Your Views Be Known

The Congress and the Connecticut General Assembly are now in session. For readers who wish to communicate with representatives and senators, The Herald lists the following addresses:

U. S. Senate
Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr.
5313 New Senate Office Bldg.
Washington, D. C. 20515

U. S. House
Rep. William R. Otter
514 Cannon House Bldg.
Washington, D. C. 20515

Hartford
State senators and state representatives mail should be addressed in care of: State Senate or State House of Representatives, State Capitol, Hartford, Conn.

Manchester area senators and representatives are:

Sen. Harry S. Burke
D-3rd Senate Dist.

Sen. David O. Odegar
R-4th Senate Dist.

Rep. Muriel T. Yacovone
D-9th Assembly Dist.

Rep. Donald S. Genova
R-12th Assembly Dist.

Rep. Francis J. Mahoney
D-13th Assembly Dist.

Rep. G. Warren Westbrook
R-14th Assembly Dist.

Today's Thought
Just Who is Jesus Christ Anyway?

THE TRUE BREAD OF LIFE

Yes (said Jesus), I am the Bread of Life!

There was no real life in that bread from the skies, which was given to your fathers in the wilderness, for they all died.

But there is such a thing as Bread from heaven giving eternal life to everyone who eats it!

And I am that Living Bread that came down out of heaven. Anyone eating this Bread shall live forever; this Bread is My flesh, given to redeem humanity.

I live by the power of the living Father who sent Me, and in the same way, those who partake of Me shall live because of Me!

Me! I am the true Bread from heaven; and anyone who eats this Bread shall live forever, and not die as your fathers did — though they ate bread from heaven. — (John 6:47-51, 57-58)

Listen to this wise advice: follow it closely, for it will do you good and you can pass it on to others; Trust in the Lord. (Proverbs 22:17-19)

Submitted by:
Rev. George W. Smith
Presbyterian Church

CURRENT QUOTES

"My opinion is that they had this kind of material coming out their ears." — Former White House national security adviser

McGeorge Bundy, testifying at the Pentagon papers trial of Daniel Ellsberg and Anthony Russo about the top secret study of the Vietnam war.

"The American spirit reflects contributions from every nation. But the charm of Irish culture has particularly warmed the hearts and hearths of this land." — President Nixon in a St. Patrick's Day message.

"In 1942, Gen. Douglas MacArthur made his famous statement: 'I shall return.' He had fled from the Philippines to Australia during the Japanese invasion of the islands.

In 1826, the Norwegian dramatist and poet, Henrik Ibsen, was born.

In 1727, the English mathematician who discovered the law of gravity, Sir Isaac Newton, died.

In 1826, the Norwegian dramatist and poet, Henrik Ibsen, was born.

In 1942, Gen. Douglas MacArthur made his famous statement: 'I shall return.' He had fled from the Philippines to Australia during the Japanese invasion of the islands.

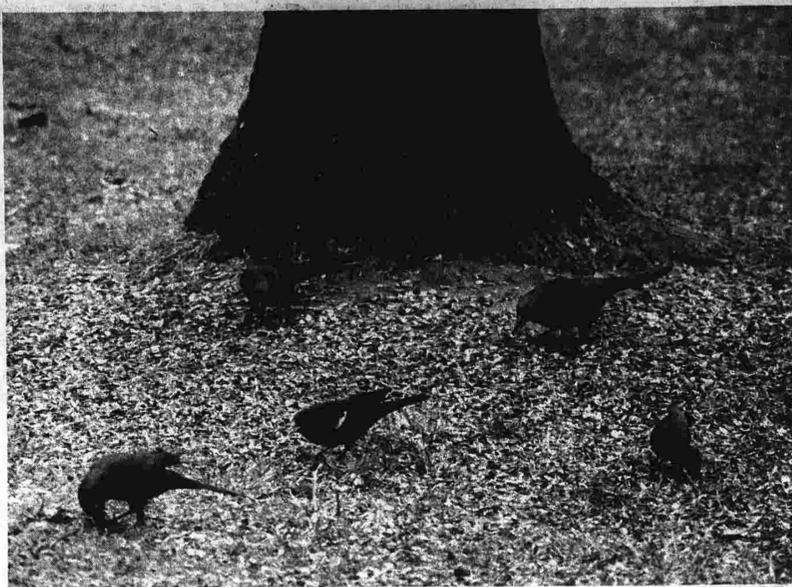

In 1826, the Norwegian dramatist and poet, Henrik Ibsen, was born.

In 1727, the English mathematician who discovered the law of gravity, Sir Isaac Newton, died.

In 1826, the Norwegian dramatist and poet, Henrik Ibsen, was born.

In 1942, Gen. Douglas MacArthur made his famous statement: 'I shall return.' He had fled from the Philippines to Australia during the Japanese invasion of the islands.

In 1826, the Norwegian dramatist and poet, Henrik Ibsen, was born.

Feeding Time. (Photo by Sylvian Ofara)

Inside Report

Rowland Evans and Robert Novak
Shades of '69

WASHINGTON — The failure of President Nixon and top lieutenants even to mention the dizzying rise of food prices during a White House meeting with congressional leaders only added to the dread feeling among Republican politicians that Mr. Nixon is retreating his near-fatal economic path of 1969 and 1970.

With supermarket inflation finally starting to panic the party's political leaders, it is 1969 repeated at the White House: stick to the "game plan" (no longer so named) without making changes; reassure everybody that everything is going right on schedule; above all, appear unflappable.

One major difference is that whereas the disastrous economic policy of 1969 was the responsibility of several authors, today's remarkably similar strategy of sticking to a discredited policy stems from a single economic czar: Secretary of the Treasury George Shultz.

Shultz' stout insistence that his doctrines are correct may reassure Mr. Nixon, but it makes many other Republicans—including some in the administration—yearn for John Connally. Shultz' dynamic professor at the Treasury who smashed the rigid game plan in 1971 and probably saved the presidency for Richard Nixon.

"I wish Connally were back," a high-ranking administration official confided to us. "At least, he would break some dishes." Such thoughts about Connally (who, as of this writing, will announce his formal conversion to Republicanism shortly) stem from widespread Republican fear that chronic mismanagement of the economy is the catalyst that can reunite the Democrats and doom Mr. Nixon's grand design for a permanent Republican majority.

Shultz is at the center of the criticism. Some critics feel he is too rigidly tied to the monetarist doctrine of his former colleague at the University of Chicago, Prof. Milton Friedman, both domestically and internationally. Many more feel the new highly centralized organization of the executive branch is fatally over-extending him. He is chief policy officer in every economic sector, presiding over a half-dozen intergovernmental committees.

But the real quarrel with Shultz is the pervasive tendency by the Nixon administration, both before and after Connally, of sticking stubbornly to a policy under assault from both sides. Thus, whereas Mr. Nixon's Phase III is increasingly attacked as wholly inadequate for controlling inflation, Shultz claims it will work without change. Whereas almost nobody agrees that the latest dollar devaluation solved the world's monetary woes, Shultz stubbornly maintains the crisis is past.

Moreover, the administration today echoes the pitiful mood pre-dating the Nixon-Connally shock of Aug. 15, 1971, that nothing can be done anyway. One economist close to Nixon policy-making says wage-price pressures are so much stronger now that another price freeze could not hold and would make matters even worse.

Thus, the administration shrugs off Republican pleas for drastic action. For example, one Republican economist with good communications into the White House wants a shocking

Phase IV: a freeze on all retail food prices, some limits on raw agricultural prices, a return to a rigid ceiling of 5.5 per cent on wage increases. Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, the Senate Republican leader, says it "may be necessary" for Mr. Nixon to revert to tight Phase II controls on many products.

Meanwhile, Republican politicians are fearful that the runaway inflation—and the lack of Nixon reaction to it—is transforming the political climate. Political operatives of Rep. John Anderson of Illinois, highly regarded chairman of the House Republican Conference, inform him that transformation is potentially poisonous to his probably campaign for the Senate next year. He is no "taking a long new look" after tentatively deciding to run.

Telephone checks with Republican Congressmen, state party leaders, economists and businessmen reveal a sudden unpleasant deja vu, recalling the bad old days of 1968-70. Few see significance in the solid Republican victory in the Alaska special election, feeling that the full political impact of high food prices is yet to come. Most are unimpressed by rosy administration promises that this will not affect the far-off election of 1974.

The family confrontation is coming. In contrast to the remarkable avoidance of the issue, a forthcoming meeting between the President and congressional Republican leaders will discuss inflation only. The administration will again downgrade the issue's importance and defend its rigid adherence to present policy. In return, the President will get an earful.

FRANK'S SUPER MARKET

725 EAST MIDDLE TURNPIKE OPPOSITE ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S CHURCH MANCHESTER

OPEN MON. & TUES. 8 A.M. TO 9 P.M. — WED. THRU SAT. 8 A.M. TO 10 P.M.
WE OFFER... SERVICE FROM THE HEART THE FINEST MEAT SOLD ANYWHERE CARRY OUT SERVICE
WE CARRY ONLY U.S.D.A. CHOICE MEATS
DOUBLE S&H GREEN STAMPS WEDNESDAY

U.S.D.A. CHOICE Boneless Beef Sale
U.S.D.A. CENTER CUT

BOTTOM ROUND ROAST $1.49

U.S.D.A. CENTER CUT CUT FROM ROUND SWISS STEAK $1.69

U.S.D.A. CENTER CUT TOP ROUND STEAK $1.79

U.S.D.A. CENTER CUT TOP SIRLOIN ROAST $1.69

U.S.D.A. CENTER CUT TOP ROUND ROAST $1.69

U.S.D.A. BACK RUMP OVEN ROAST $1.59

U.S.D.A. WHOLE OR HALF EYE ROUND ROAST $1.79

U.S.D.A. CUT FROM ROUND CUBE STEAK $1.79

U.S.D.A. BONELESS TOP SIRLOIN STEAK $1.79

U.S.D.A. Cut from Eye Round SANDWICH STEAK $1.89

WE WILL GLADLY CUT ANY MEAT ORDER TO YOUR SPECIFICATIONS

GRADE A MAINE — Lowest Price in Town!
CHICKENS 49¢
BREAST/WING - LEG/BACK

QUARTER LOIN 9-11 CHOPS PORK CHOPS 99¢

OUR OWN - HOT OR SWEET ITALIAN SAUSAGE 99¢

SWEET LIFE ALL MEAT FRANKS 89¢

GREEN SHRIMP $1.79 20-30 COUNT
TURBOT FILLET 69¢ Fresh Frozen

★ DELI DEPT. ★
KRAKUS HAM 79¢ 1/2 lb.

IMPORTED SWISS CHEESE 69¢ 1/2 lb.

NOVA SCOTIA LOX 99¢ 1/2 lb.
NEPCO PASTRAMI 79¢ 1/2 lb.

Sweet Life - Steaks & Picnics - 4 oz. MUSHROOMS 25¢
Sweet Life - 16 oz. TOMATOES 20¢
Sweet Life - Unsweetened - 46 oz. GRAPEFRUIT JUICE 41¢
Kraft - 16 oz. GRAPE JELLY 35¢
Vialto - 32 oz. KOSHER DILLS 49¢
Galetha - Chunk Like - 6 1/2 oz. TUNA IN OIL 39¢
Prince - 16 oz. ELBOW MACARONI 23¢
Franco American - 15 oz. SPAGHETTI 15¢
Chock Full O' Nuts - 2 lb. COFFEE $1.75
Pillsbury - 17 oz. - Ass. Flavors CAKE MIXES 33¢

My-T-Fine PUDDINGS 10¢
Cato - 15 oz. CAT or DOG FOOD 15¢
Campbell's - 10 oz. VEGETABLE SOUP 14¢
Snow's - 15 oz. CLAM CHOWDER 28¢
Sweet Life - 32 oz. - Pink-Lemon-Clear LIQUID DETERGENT 33¢
Diamond - 32 oz. SODA 25¢
Glade - All Scents - 7 oz. AIR FRESHENERS 39¢

Health & Beauty Aids
25 Count Bottle - Reg. 79¢ ALKA SELTZER TABLETS 53¢
Adorn - Extra & Unscented - $2.35 value HAIR SPRAY $1.29

BUTONI PASTA ROMANA 20¢

DAIRY
7-oz. REDI WHIP 49¢
Mrs. Filbert 16-oz. Corn Oil

MARGARINE 45¢
Borden's 9 1/2-oz. MILK SHAKES 19¢

FROZEN FOODS
Taste of Sea - Lemon Buttered - 9 oz. SOLE FILLET 59¢
Stouffer - 10 oz. GARLIC BREAD 39¢
Bird's Eye - 9 oz. ORANGE PLUS 45¢
Bird's Eye - 9 oz. FRENCH GREEN BEANS 25¢

Fresh Call! NOTE LOW PRODUCE PRICES!
ASPARAGUS 39¢
ESCAROLE & CHICORY 25¢

Large Vine Riped TOMATOES 39¢
Pascal CARROTS 15¢
CELERY 29¢

BAKERY
DONUTS 89¢ doz.
BAGELS 89¢ doz.
HARD ROLLS 89¢ doz.

Assorted ITALIAN COOKIES 79¢
RASPBERRY TARTS 15¢

15¢ OFF
3 LBS. BREAD
1-4¢ BREAD
1-4¢ BREAD
1-4¢ BREAD
1-4¢ BREAD

12¢ OFF
1 LBS. BREAD
1-4¢ BREAD
1-4¢ BREAD
1-4¢ BREAD

12¢ OFF
1 LBS. BREAD
1-4¢ BREAD
1-4¢ BREAD
1-4¢ BREAD

50 EXTRA S&H STAMPS
on any purchase of $5.00

50 EXTRA S&H STAMPS
on any purchase of $5.00

50 EXTRA S&H STAMPS
on any purchase of $5.00

50 EXTRA S&H STAMPS
on any purchase of $5.00

50 EXTRA S&H STAMPS
on any purchase of $5.00

50 EXTRA S&H STAMPS
on any purchase of $5.00

Today in History
Today is Tuesday, March 20, the 79th day of 1973. There are 286 days left in the year.
Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1853, Harriet Beecher Stowe's influential novel about slavery, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," was published.
On this date — In 1692, the Dutch East India Company was formed.
In 1727, the English mathematician who discovered the law of gravity, Sir Isaac Newton, died.
In 1826, the Norwegian dramatist and poet, Henrik Ibsen, was born.
In 1942, Gen. Douglas MacArthur made his famous statement: "I shall return." He had fled from the Philippines to Australia during the Japanese invasion of the islands.

Young musicians of the Manchester Green School rehearsing on their xylophones for tonight's performance at the school are, from left, Judy Garfinkel on soprano; Ken...

Air Force Offers Women More Jobs

The U.S. Air Force plans to increase its complement of women in the Air Force (WAF) according to M. Sgt. Gary Miller of the Manchester USAF Recruiting Office. Miller reports that effective immediately, 44 new job areas have been opened to women. With the addition of these previously "male-oriented" jobs, women can now serve essentially any Air Force capacity, except for about six jobs which specifically involve combat duty. By 1977 the total number of women in the Air Force (WAF) will triple, Miller said. This new program will increase the enlisted women from about 13,000 today to over 42,000 serving in the Air Force. The WAF officer strength in the Air Force will go from approximately 1,200 to over 3,200. Some of the new jobs include jet engine mechanic, law enforcement officer, linguist, electronic computer repairman, carpenter and many other in the mechanical and electronics fields. Requirements for women interested in applying in the WAF are: she must be 18 to 27 years of age (written consent from parents if under 21), be a high school graduate, and be able to meet specific physical and mental requirements. For further details contact Miller at 555 Main St., Manchester or call 646-7440.

Group Plans Fair April 28

An Arts and Crafts Fair and Exhibition will take place April 28 at St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The fair is being sponsored by "The Group," an organization of teen-agers, young adults and the young-at-heart, to raise funds for a walk through England in 1974. Handicrafts of every sort will be displayed, and craftsmen will demonstrate their skills. The fair will be similar to those sponsored by the Summer Activities in Manchester in the past. However, this fair will be held indoors, rain or shine. Those interested in displaying a craft may register by calling 646-4808.

Local Woman In Art Show

Mrs. George Nolan of Manchester will be among the exhibitors Sunday when the St. Joseph Club of Hartford holds its 8th annual arts and crafts fair. The event will take place from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Genras Center on the college campus on Aylum St., West Hartford. Handicrafts of every sort will be displayed, and craftsmen will demonstrate their skills. The fair will be similar to those sponsored by the Summer Activities in Manchester in the past. However, this fair will be held indoors, rain or shine. Those interested in displaying a craft may register by calling 646-4808.

College Notes

Miss Susan B. Hurwitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hurwitz of 104 Conway Rd., has been named to the dean's list for the fall term at the New York College of Human Ecology at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y.

Duplicate Bridge

Results of the YWCA duplicate bridge game played March 12 are as follows: North-South, first, Mrs. Maury Brown and Mrs. Philip Holway; second, Mrs. Vernon Mitchell and Edna Parrell; third, Ernest Berube and Dr. Saul Cohen. Also, East-West, first, Mrs. Willard Kropatkin and Sidney Stein; second, Mrs. Joseph Bath and Mrs. Richard Terz; third, Mrs. R.C. Forster and Mrs. A.C. Warner.

Results of the YWCA Duplicate Bridge Game

Results of the YWCA duplicate bridge game played March 15 are as follows: North-South, first, Mrs. Maury Brown and Mrs. Philip Holway; second, Mrs. Vernon Mitchell and Edna Parrell; third, Ernest Berube and Dr. Saul Cohen. Also, East-West, first, Mrs. Willard Kropatkin and Sidney Stein; second, Mrs. Joseph Bath and Mrs. Richard Terz; third, Mrs. R.C. Forster and Mrs. A.C. Warner.

Results of the Manchester Bridge Club

Results of the Manchester Bridge Club nationwide charity duplicate bridge game played Friday are as follows: North-South, first, Joe Toce and Mrs. Sue Eggleton; second, Mrs. Mary Roy and Sadya Fabral; third, Fran Moffett and John Woodman. Also, East-West, first, Brian Tan and Tucker Merritt; second, Mrs. Margaret LaPlant and Mrs. Rita Holand; third, Janet Pollock and William McDougall. Over-all winners were Joe Toce and Sue Eggleton. Results of the Andover Bridge Club duplicate bridge game played March 16 are as follows: North-South, first, Mrs. Maury Brown and Mrs. Philip Holway; second, Mrs. Vernon Mitchell and Edna Parrell; third, Ernest Berube and Dr. Saul Cohen. Also, East-West, first, Mrs. Willard Kropatkin and Sidney Stein; second, Mrs. Joseph Bath and Mrs. Richard Terz; third, Mrs. R.C. Forster and Mrs. A.C. Warner.

Results of the Andover Bridge Club

Results of the Andover Bridge Club duplicate bridge game played March 16 are as follows: North-South, first, Mrs. Maury Brown and Mrs. Philip Holway; second, Mrs. Vernon Mitchell and Edna Parrell; third, Ernest Berube and Dr. Saul Cohen. Also, East-West, first, Mrs. Willard Kropatkin and Sidney Stein; second, Mrs. Joseph Bath and Mrs. Richard Terz; third, Mrs. R.C. Forster and Mrs. A.C. Warner.

PTA To Feature Musical Program

The Manchester Green School PTA will present its 7:30 p.m. business meeting tonight in the school auditorium. Music students will demonstrate various instruments used in the school's music curriculum, which is under the direction of Mrs. Joyce Torna. Students participating in the program will include: Brian Moszer, Andrew Kravitz, John Dodge, Judith Garfinkel, Sharon Hurst, Christine Carr, Karen Wilson, Steven Hirth, Patricia Walsh, Martha Kanehl, Thomas J. Matarazzo, Leslie Williams, Paul Zepp, Kenneth Amato, Michael Eddy, Melissa Geagan. Also, Karen Hunt, Kelly Holmes, Cynthia Churchill, Vicky Haskell, Jill Borgida, Dolores Michel, Hal McVeeney, David D'Alessandro, Kathleen Bailey, Wendy Warren, Felicia Parr, Deborah Gussak, John Wilson, Tammy Mitchley, Candy Miesch, Kathleen Forth, Wendy Mitchley, Martha Kanehl, Amy Lindsay. Parents and children are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Group Plans Fair April 28

An Arts and Crafts Fair and Exhibition will take place April 28 at St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The fair is being sponsored by "The Group," an organization of teen-agers, young adults and the young-at-heart, to raise funds for a walk through England in 1974. Handicrafts of every sort will be displayed, and craftsmen will demonstrate their skills. The fair will be similar to those sponsored by the Summer Activities in Manchester in the past. However, this fair will be held indoors, rain or shine. Those interested in displaying a craft may register by calling 646-4808.

Local Woman In Art Show

Mrs. George Nolan of Manchester will be among the exhibitors Sunday when the St. Joseph Club of Hartford holds its 8th annual arts and crafts fair. The event will take place from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Genras Center on the college campus on Aylum St., West Hartford. Handicrafts of every sort will be displayed, and craftsmen will demonstrate their skills. The fair will be similar to those sponsored by the Summer Activities in Manchester in the past. However, this fair will be held indoors, rain or shine. Those interested in displaying a craft may register by calling 646-4808.

Duplicate Bridge

Results of the YWCA duplicate bridge game played March 12 are as follows: North-South, first, Mrs. Maury Brown and Mrs. Philip Holway; second, Mrs. Vernon Mitchell and Edna Parrell; third, Ernest Berube and Dr. Saul Cohen. Also, East-West, first, Mrs. Willard Kropatkin and Sidney Stein; second, Mrs. Joseph Bath and Mrs. Richard Terz; third, Mrs. R.C. Forster and Mrs. A.C. Warner.

Results of the YWCA Duplicate Bridge Game

Results of the YWCA duplicate bridge game played March 15 are as follows: North-South, first, Mrs. Maury Brown and Mrs. Philip Holway; second, Mrs. Vernon Mitchell and Edna Parrell; third, Ernest Berube and Dr. Saul Cohen. Also, East-West, first, Mrs. Willard Kropatkin and Sidney Stein; second, Mrs. Joseph Bath and Mrs. Richard Terz; third, Mrs. R.C. Forster and Mrs. A.C. Warner.

Results of the Manchester Bridge Club

Results of the Manchester Bridge Club nationwide charity duplicate bridge game played Friday are as follows: North-South, first, Joe Toce and Mrs. Sue Eggleton; second, Mrs. Mary Roy and Sadya Fabral; third, Fran Moffett and John Woodman. Also, East-West, first, Brian Tan and Tucker Merritt; second, Mrs. Margaret LaPlant and Mrs. Rita Holand; third, Janet Pollock and William McDougall. Over-all winners were Joe Toce and Sue Eggleton. Results of the Andover Bridge Club duplicate bridge game played March 16 are as follows: North-South, first, Mrs. Maury Brown and Mrs. Philip Holway; second, Mrs. Vernon Mitchell and Edna Parrell; third, Ernest Berube and Dr. Saul Cohen. Also, East-West, first, Mrs. Willard Kropatkin and Sidney Stein; second, Mrs. Joseph Bath and Mrs. Richard Terz; third, Mrs. R.C. Forster and Mrs. A.C. Warner.

Results of the Andover Bridge Club

Results of the Andover Bridge Club duplicate bridge game played March 16 are as follows: North-South, first, Mrs. Maury Brown and Mrs. Philip Holway; second, Mrs. Vernon Mitchell and Edna Parrell; third, Ernest Berube and Dr. Saul Cohen. Also, East-West, first, Mrs. Willard Kropatkin and Sidney Stein; second, Mrs. Joseph Bath and Mrs. Richard Terz; third, Mrs. R.C. Forster and Mrs. A.C. Warner.

Results of the Andover Bridge Club

Results of the Andover Bridge Club duplicate bridge game played March 16 are as follows: North-South, first, Mrs. Maury Brown and Mrs. Philip Holway; second, Mrs. Vernon Mitchell and Edna Parrell; third, Ernest Berube and Dr. Saul Cohen. Also, East-West, first, Mrs. Willard Kropatkin and Sidney Stein; second, Mrs. Joseph Bath and Mrs. Richard Terz; third, Mrs. R.C. Forster and Mrs. A.C. Warner.

Mothers Club To Present Fashion Show

The theme of the annual fashion show sponsored by the Twin Mothers Club of Greater Hartford is "It's Spring Again." The show will be presented Saturday with luncheon at 1 p.m. at the Steak House, 1st St., Hartford. Proceeds of the event will support the club's many activities throughout the year and the public is invited. Fashions will be presented by Butterfield's of Manchester. Reservations may be obtained from any member or by contacting Mrs. Louis P. Marinelli, 121 Ralph Rd., Manchester. Models will include: Mrs. William Foley, Canton; Mrs. Edmund Flannery, Bristol; Mrs. Albin Jones, East Hartford; Mrs. Paul Faluch, Chicopee, Mass.; and Mrs. Howard Krauter, Bloomfield. Children will include: Lisa and Lisa Bednarz, Bloomfield; and Kevin and Kenneth Hayes, Torrville.

About Town

Jehovah's Witnesses will have group discussions of the Bible book "Zachariah" tonight at 7:30 at 728 N. Main St., 1st Boulder Rd., 12 Chambers St., 67 Bissell St., 200 Sand Hill Rd. in South Windsor, and French Rd., Bolton. St. Mary's Episcopal Church will have a Choral Evensong at 7:30 p.m. St. James O'Brien will speak about the dangers of drugs within the home at the Women's Center Club meeting Wednesday at 8:15 p.m. at the KofC Home. The ways and means committee of Center Congregational Church will meet tonight at 7:30 at the church office. The commission on missions and social concerns of South United Methodist Church will meet tonight at 7:30 at Susan Wesley Hall of the church. The Trinity Singers will rehearse tonight at 7 at the home of Mrs. Henry Clark, 131 Birch Hill Dr., South Windsor. The executive board of the Women's Society of Community Baptist Church will meet tonight at 7 in the church lounge. The trustees of Trinity Covenant Church will meet tonight at 8 at the home of Tracy Heavens, 98 Oliver Dr. Koffee Krafters will meet Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. at the Community Y. Members will continue to work on leaded glass projects. Hostesses will be Mrs. Michele Giegion and Mrs. Paul Greigler. A babysitter is available.

What's Yours Is Not Mine

I'm fascinated by the way married men use the pronouns, yours, mine and ours. An English scholar could do a terrific paper on the subject (a psychiatrist might find it an absorbing study too). Models will include: Mrs. William Foley, Canton; Mrs. Edmund Flannery, Bristol; Mrs. Albin Jones, East Hartford; Mrs. Paul Faluch, Chicopee, Mass.; and Mrs. Howard Krauter, Bloomfield. Children will include: Lisa and Lisa Bednarz, Bloomfield; and Kevin and Kenneth Hayes, Torrville.

What's Yours Is Not Mine

I'm convinced that most fathers give up all rights to their children between the hours of 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. when the whimper or cry for a middle of the night brings a gentle smile from the drowsy male parent who says "Mom, your baby is crying" or "Is that your little girl calling you from the next door neighbor's tulip bulbs. It is not the same animal at all. Now, there are some exceptions. There are a few things that a married man always refers to emphatically as "MINE"! My husband certainly feels this way about his newspaper. It is his newspaper, even when it's two hours late, or wet from the rain, or scattered all over the living room floor. He also feels this way about his car. He calls it "My car" regardless. Not even a dent in the fender or a noisy fan belt can sway him. Actually, my husband puts me in this very special category too. His wife, his car and his newspaper. You know, it's kind of nice, when you think about it.

What's Yours Is Not Mine

I'm convinced that most fathers give up all rights to their children between the hours of 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. when the whimper or cry for a middle of the night brings a gentle smile from the drowsy male parent who says "Mom, your baby is crying" or "Is that your little girl calling you from the next door neighbor's tulip bulbs. It is not the same animal at all. Now, there are some exceptions. There are a few things that a married man always refers to emphatically as "MINE"! My husband certainly feels this way about his newspaper. It is his newspaper, even when it's two hours late, or wet from the rain, or scattered all over the living room floor. He also feels this way about his car. He calls it "My car" regardless. Not even a dent in the fender or a noisy fan belt can sway him. Actually, my husband puts me in this very special category too. His wife, his car and his newspaper. You know, it's kind of nice, when you think about it.

What's Yours Is Not Mine

I'm convinced that most fathers give up all rights to their children between the hours of 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. when the whimper or cry for a middle of the night brings a gentle smile from the drowsy male parent who says "Mom, your baby is crying" or "Is that your little girl calling you from the next door neighbor's tulip bulbs. It is not the same animal at all. Now, there are some exceptions. There are a few things that a married man always refers to emphatically as "MINE"! My husband certainly feels this way about his newspaper. It is his newspaper, even when it's two hours late, or wet from the rain, or scattered all over the living room floor. He also feels this way about his car. He calls it "My car" regardless. Not even a dent in the fender or a noisy fan belt can sway him. Actually, my husband puts me in this very special category too. His wife, his car and his newspaper. You know, it's kind of nice, when you think about it.

What's Yours Is Not Mine

I'm convinced that most fathers give up all rights to their children between the hours of 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. when the whimper or cry for a middle of the night brings a gentle smile from the drowsy male parent who says "Mom, your baby is crying" or "Is that your little girl calling you from the next door neighbor's tulip bulbs. It is not the same animal at all. Now, there are some exceptions. There are a few things that a married man always refers to emphatically as "MINE"! My husband certainly feels this way about his newspaper. It is his newspaper, even when it's two hours late, or wet from the rain, or scattered all over the living room floor. He also feels this way about his car. He calls it "My car" regardless. Not even a dent in the fender or a noisy fan belt can sway him. Actually, my husband puts me in this very special category too. His wife, his car and his newspaper. You know, it's kind of nice, when you think about it.

What's Yours Is Not Mine

I'm convinced that most fathers give up all rights to their children between the hours of 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. when the whimper or cry for a middle of the night brings a gentle smile from the drowsy male parent who says "Mom, your baby is crying" or "Is that your little girl calling you from the next door neighbor's tulip bulbs. It is not the same animal at all. Now, there are some exceptions. There are a few things that a married man always refers to emphatically as "MINE"! My husband certainly feels this way about his newspaper. It is his newspaper, even when it's two hours late, or wet from the rain, or scattered all over the living room floor. He also feels this way about his car. He calls it "My car" regardless. Not even a dent in the fender or a noisy fan belt can sway him. Actually, my husband puts me in this very special category too. His wife, his car and his newspaper. You know, it's kind of nice, when you think about it.

What's Yours Is Not Mine

I'm convinced that most fathers give up all rights to their children between the hours of 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. when the whimper or cry for a middle of the night brings a gentle smile from the drowsy male parent who says "Mom, your baby is crying" or "Is that your little girl calling you from the next door neighbor's tulip bulbs. It is not the same animal at all. Now, there are some exceptions. There are a few things that a married man always refers to emphatically as "MINE"! My husband certainly feels this way about his newspaper. It is his newspaper, even when it's two hours late, or wet from the rain, or scattered all over the living room floor. He also feels this way about his car. He calls it "My car" regardless. Not even a dent in the fender or a noisy fan belt can sway him. Actually, my husband puts me in this very special category too. His wife, his car and his newspaper. You know, it's kind of nice, when you think about it.

Jaycees Honey Week Headed By Baldwin

George Baldwin of Swamp Rd., Coventry, has been named chairman for the Manchester Jaycees Honey Week, according to an announcement by Joseph Lawler, Jaycee president. Baldwin will head the local drive under way now through Saturday, to raise funds for special olympics and other programs that aid mentally retarded children. "A goal of 500 jars of honey has been set for Manchester, and I'm quite confident the citizens of Manchester will let the mentally retarded children of Connecticut down," Baldwin said, on accepting the appointment. In conjunction with Sears Winnie The Pooh promotion Wednesday, the Jaycees will be selling honey for $1 per jar at Sears in the Manchester Parkade, between the hours of 10 a.m. to closing. Money raised will be donated to Manchester Camp Kennedy, the day camp for mentally retarded children. Cub Scout Pack 144 recently had its Blue and Gold Banquet at Garden Grove. Seated at the head table were Edward Timbrell, principal of Keene Y. School, and Mrs. Timbrell; Frank Emala, district commissioner, and Mrs. Emala; and Reginald Christensen, cubmaster. Den 1 conducted the opening ceremonies. Den 6 presented an Indian headdress the members had made to the cubmaster. Cards of thanks went to parents, who had taken charge of special activities during the year. Emala presented the Pack Charter to the president of the Keene Y. School PTA, sponsor of the Pack. Cub Scouts, committee members and leaders received registration cards. Advancement awards were given to Kenny Brown, Randall McNally, Bill Bekezewicz, David Miller, Kent Strimfeller, Wolf Badger, Rommie Dube, Dean Gersano, Bobcat Badger. Arrows were presented to Randall McNally, gold and silver; and Kenny Brown, Thomas Emala, Gerald Dagala and Andrew Gibson, gold. Webelos activity badges were awarded by Andy Gibson, Webelos leader, to Steven Lapine, two badges; and Brian Brown and Carl Zepe, one badge each. Webelos Den 1 conducted the closing ceremony.

Key 73 Prayer Vigils

The third in a series of prayer vigils will be Wednesday from noon to midnight at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, the Presbyterian Church and North United Methodist Church. This is part of the year-long evangelistic venture, which is being conducted by the churches of Manchester. South Windsor mayor, Abraham Glassman, has gone on record as being opposed to full bonding for the proposed new $1,180,000 library "except in a most extreme situation." Commenting on the project which will go for referendum on March 31, the mayor stressed that full bonding would probably be the most expensive way of funding a library building. He said that this method would cost only $1 to $1.25 a month in increased taxes on an average South Windsor Home owning that such a home has a current market value of $40,000 to $45,000. The mayor noted that such an increase would not apply until fiscal year 1974-75. It would, furthermore, be substantially reduced in accordance with reductions in the total amount of bonding, he added, noting, "therefore, that full bonding would be a period worse liability, not undertaken in a most extreme situation and it is highly unlikely to be the council's choice for total financing." Mayor Glassman said the Town Council has held public work sessions during which possible sources of funding have been reviewed at length. Potential sources of available funds include Revenue Sharing, Capital Goals funds and bonding. He explained that it must be based on the status of the funds, the total over-all five-year capital improvements needs and interest rates in existence at the time it is necessary to complete the funding for the project. "If the council opted to go for full bonding of the $1 million, over a 20-year period, the total, including interest, would be $1,587,250," the mayor explained. He added that based on the January 1972 Grand List the value of one mill equals $111,008 and assuming an average current house assessment of $20,000 (before revaluation) the total cost per homeowner, over a 20-year period, would increase taxes 7.1 of a mill, an increase of only 1.2 per cent. The bonding council, the mayor explained, has worded the council's resolution favoring a library as a project for referendum in a manner to limit the council a high degree of fiscal flexibility. "Such a responsibility cannot be assumed by the present council for the actual funding of a project whose completion will not occur until at least 18 months from now," Mayor Glassman added. "We can project these funds with a degree of accuracy but council recognizes the need for flexibility in response to changes that may take place within the next year and a half," he concluded.

South Windsor Full Library Bonding Opposed by Glassman

South Windsor mayor, Abraham Glassman, has gone on record as being opposed to full bonding for the proposed new $1,180,000 library "except in a most extreme situation." Commenting on the project which will go for referendum on March 31, the mayor stressed that full bonding would probably be the most expensive way of funding a library building. He said that this method would cost only $1 to $1.25 a month in increased taxes on an average South Windsor Home owning that such a home has a current market value of $40,000 to $45,000. The mayor noted that such an increase would not apply until fiscal year 1974-75. It would, furthermore, be substantially reduced in accordance with reductions in the total amount of bonding, he added, noting, "therefore, that full bonding would be a period worse liability, not undertaken in a most extreme situation and it is highly unlikely to be the council's choice for total financing." Mayor Glassman said the Town Council has held public work sessions during which possible sources of funding have been reviewed at length. Potential sources of available funds include Revenue Sharing, Capital Goals funds and bonding. He explained that it must be based on the status of the funds, the total over-all five-year capital improvements needs and interest rates in existence at the time it is necessary to complete the funding for the project. "If the council opted to go for full bonding of the $1 million, over a 20-year period, the total, including interest, would be $1,587,250," the mayor explained. He added that based on the January 1972 Grand List the value of one mill equals $111,008 and assuming an average current house assessment of $20,000 (before revaluation) the total cost per homeowner, over a 20-year period, would increase taxes 7.1 of a mill, an increase of only 1.2 per cent. The bonding council, the mayor explained, has worded the council's resolution favoring a library as a project for referendum in a manner to limit the council a high degree of fiscal flexibility. "Such a responsibility cannot be assumed by the present council for the actual funding of a project whose completion will not occur until at least 18 months from now," Mayor Glassman added. "We can project these funds with a degree of accuracy but council recognizes the need for flexibility in response to changes that may take place within the next year and a half," he concluded.

South Windsor Full Library Bonding Opposed by Glassman

South Windsor mayor, Abraham Glassman, has gone on record as being opposed to full bonding for the proposed new $1,180,000 library "except in a most extreme situation." Commenting on the project which will go for referendum on March 31, the mayor stressed that full bonding would probably be the most expensive way of funding a library building. He said that this method would cost only $1 to $1.25 a month in increased taxes on an average South Windsor Home owning that such a home has a current market value of $40,000 to $45,000. The mayor noted that such an increase would not apply until fiscal year 1974-75. It would, furthermore, be substantially reduced in accordance with reductions in the total amount of bonding, he added, noting, "therefore, that full bonding would be a period worse liability, not undertaken in a most extreme situation and it is highly unlikely to be the council's choice for total financing." Mayor Glassman said the Town Council has held public work sessions during which possible sources of funding have been reviewed at length. Potential sources of available funds include Revenue Sharing, Capital Goals funds and bonding. He explained that it must be based on the status of the funds, the total over-all five-year capital improvements needs and interest rates in existence at the time it is necessary to complete the funding for the project. "If the council opted to go for full bonding of the $1 million, over a 20-year period, the total, including interest, would be $1,587,250," the mayor explained. He added that based on the January 1972 Grand List the value of one mill equals $111,008 and assuming an average current house assessment of $20,000 (before revaluation) the total cost per homeowner, over a 20-year period, would increase taxes 7.1 of a mill, an increase of only 1.2 per cent. The bonding council, the mayor explained, has worded the council's resolution favoring a library as a project for referendum in a manner to limit the council a high degree of fiscal flexibility. "Such a responsibility cannot be assumed by the present council for the actual funding of a project whose completion will not occur until at least 18 months from now," Mayor Glassman added. "We can project these funds with a degree of accuracy but council recognizes the need for flexibility in response to changes that may take place within the next year and a half," he concluded.

South Windsor Full Library Bonding Opposed by Glassman

South Windsor mayor, Abraham Glassman, has gone on record as being opposed to full bonding for the proposed new $1,180,000 library "except in a most extreme situation." Commenting on the project which will go for referendum on March 31, the mayor stressed that full bonding would probably be the most expensive way of funding a library building. He said that this method would cost only $1 to $1.25 a month in increased taxes on an average South Windsor Home owning that such a home has a current market value of $40,000 to $45,000. The mayor noted that such an increase would not apply until fiscal year 1974-75. It would, furthermore, be substantially reduced in accordance with reductions in the total amount of bonding, he added, noting, "therefore, that full bonding would be a period worse liability, not undertaken in a most extreme situation and it is highly unlikely to be the council's choice for total financing." Mayor Glassman said the Town Council has held public work sessions during which possible sources of funding have been reviewed at length. Potential sources of available funds include Revenue Sharing, Capital Goals funds and bonding. He explained that it must be based on the status of the funds, the total over-all five-year capital improvements needs and interest rates in existence at the time it is necessary to complete the funding for the project. "If the council opted to go for full bonding of the $1 million, over a 20-year period, the total, including interest, would be $1,587,250," the mayor explained. He added that based on the January 1972 Grand List the value of one mill equals $111,008 and assuming an average current house assessment of $20,000 (before revaluation) the total cost per homeowner, over a 20-year period, would increase taxes 7.1 of a mill, an increase of only 1.2 per cent. The bonding council, the mayor explained, has worded the council's resolution favoring a library as a project for referendum in a manner to limit the council a high degree of fiscal flexibility. "Such a responsibility cannot be assumed by the present council for the actual funding of a project whose completion will not occur until at least 18 months from now," Mayor Glassman added. "We can project these funds with a degree of accuracy but council recognizes the need for flexibility in response to changes that may take place within the next year and a half," he concluded.

South Windsor Full Library Bonding Opposed by Glassman

South Windsor mayor, Abraham Glassman, has gone on record as being opposed to full bonding for the proposed new $1,180,000 library "except in a most extreme situation." Commenting on the project which will go for referendum on March 31, the mayor stressed that full bonding would probably be the most expensive way of funding a library building. He said that this method would cost only $1 to $1.25 a month in increased taxes on an average South Windsor Home owning that such a home has a current market value of $40,000 to $45,000. The mayor noted that such an increase would not apply until fiscal year 1974-75. It would, furthermore, be substantially reduced in accordance with reductions in the total amount of bonding, he added, noting, "therefore, that full bonding would be a period worse liability, not undertaken in a most extreme situation and it is highly unlikely to be the council's choice for total financing." Mayor Glassman said the Town Council has held public work sessions during which possible sources of funding have been reviewed at length. Potential sources of available funds include Revenue Sharing, Capital Goals funds and bonding. He explained that it must be based on the status of the funds, the total over-all five-year capital improvements needs and interest rates in existence at the time it is necessary to complete the funding for the project. "If the council opted to go for full bonding of the $1 million, over a 20-year period, the total, including interest, would be $1,587,250," the mayor explained. He added that based on the January 1972 Grand List the value of one mill equals $111,008 and assuming an average current house assessment of $20,000 (before revaluation) the total cost per homeowner, over a 20-year period, would increase taxes 7.1 of a mill, an increase of only 1.2 per cent. The bonding council, the mayor explained, has worded the council's resolution favoring a library as a project for referendum in a manner to limit the council a high degree of fiscal flexibility. "Such a responsibility cannot be assumed by the present council for the actual funding of a project whose completion will not occur until at least 18 months from now," Mayor Glassman added. "We can project these funds with a degree of accuracy but council recognizes the need for flexibility in response to changes that may take place within the next year and a half," he concluded.

South Windsor Full Library Bonding Opposed by Glassman

South Windsor mayor, Abraham Glassman, has gone on record as being opposed to full bonding for the proposed new $1,180,000 library "except in a most extreme situation." Commenting on the project which will go for referendum on March 31, the mayor stressed that full bonding would probably be the most expensive way of funding a library building. He said that this method would cost only $1 to $1.25 a month in increased taxes on an average South Windsor Home owning that such a home has a current market value of $40,000 to $45,000. The mayor noted that such an increase would not apply until fiscal year 1974-75. It would, furthermore, be substantially reduced in accordance with reductions in the total amount of bonding, he added, noting, "therefore, that full bonding would be a period worse liability, not undertaken in a most extreme situation and it is highly unlikely to be the council's choice for total financing." Mayor Glassman said the Town Council has held public work sessions during which possible sources of funding have been reviewed at length. Potential sources of available funds include Revenue Sharing, Capital Goals funds and bonding. He explained that it must be based on the status of the funds, the total over-all five-year capital improvements needs and interest rates in existence at the time it is necessary to complete the funding for the project. "If the council opted to go for full bonding of the $1 million, over a 20-year period, the total, including interest, would be $1,587,250," the mayor explained. He added that based on the January 1972 Grand List the value of one mill equals $111,008 and assuming an average current house assessment of $20,000 (before revaluation) the total cost per homeowner, over a 20-year period, would increase taxes 7.1 of a mill, an increase of only 1.2 per cent. The bonding council, the mayor explained, has worded the council's resolution favoring a library as a project for referendum in a manner to limit the council a high degree of fiscal flexibility. "Such a responsibility cannot be assumed by the present council for the actual funding of a project whose completion will not occur until at least 18 months from now," Mayor Glassman added. "We can project these funds with a degree of accuracy but council recognizes the need for flexibility in response to changes that may take place within the next year and a half," he concluded.

South Windsor Full Library Bonding Opposed by Glassman

South Windsor mayor, Abraham Glassman, has gone on record as being opposed to full bonding for the proposed new $1,180,000 library "except in a most extreme situation." Commenting on the project which will go for referendum on March 31, the mayor stressed that full bonding would probably be the most expensive way of funding a library building. He said that this method would cost only $1 to $1.25 a month in increased taxes on an average South Windsor Home owning that such a home has a current market value of $40,000 to $45,000. The mayor noted that such an increase would not apply until fiscal year 1974-75. It would, furthermore, be substantially reduced in accordance with reductions in the total amount of bonding, he added, noting, "therefore, that full bonding would be a period worse liability, not undertaken in a most extreme situation and it is highly unlikely to be the council's choice for total financing." Mayor Glassman said the Town Council has held public work sessions during which possible sources of funding have been reviewed at length. Potential sources of available funds include Revenue Sharing, Capital Goals funds and bonding. He explained that it must be based on the status of the funds, the total over-all five-year capital improvements needs and interest rates in existence at the time it is necessary to complete the funding for the project. "If the council opted to go for full bonding of the $1 million, over a 20-year period, the total, including interest, would be $1,587,250," the mayor explained. He added that based on the January 1972 Grand List the value of one mill equals $111,008 and assuming an average current house assessment of $20,000 (before revaluation) the total cost per homeowner, over a 20-year period, would increase taxes 7.1 of a mill, an increase of only 1.2 per cent. The bonding council, the mayor explained, has worded the council's resolution favoring a library as a project for referendum in a manner to limit the council a high degree of fiscal flexibility. "Such a responsibility cannot be assumed by the present council for the actual funding of a project whose completion will not occur until at least 18 months from now," Mayor Glassman added. "We can project these funds with a degree of accuracy but council recognizes the need for flexibility in response to changes that may take place within the next year and a half," he concluded.

South Windsor Full Library Bonding Opposed by Glassman

South Windsor mayor, Abraham Glassman, has gone on record as being opposed to full bonding for the proposed new $1,180,000 library "except in a most extreme situation." Commenting on the project which will go for referendum on March 31, the mayor stressed that full bonding would probably be the most expensive way of funding a library building. He said that this method would cost only $1 to $1.25 a month in increased taxes on an average South Windsor Home owning that such a home has a current market value of $40,000 to $45,000. The mayor noted that such an increase would not apply until fiscal year 1974-75. It would, furthermore, be substantially reduced in accordance with reductions in the total amount of bonding, he added, noting, "therefore, that full bonding would be a period worse liability, not undertaken in a most extreme situation and it is highly unlikely to be the council's choice for total financing." Mayor Glassman said the Town Council has held public work sessions during which possible sources of funding have been reviewed at length. Potential sources of available funds include Revenue Sharing, Capital Goals funds and bonding. He explained that it must be based on the status of the funds, the total over-all five-year capital improvements needs and interest rates in existence at the time it is necessary to complete the funding for the project. "If the council opted to go for full bonding of the $1 million, over a 20-year period, the total, including interest, would be $1,587,250," the mayor explained. He added that based on the January 1972 Grand List the value of one mill equals $111,008 and assuming an average current house assessment of $20,000 (before revaluation) the total cost per homeowner, over a 20-year period, would increase taxes 7.1 of a mill, an increase of only 1.2 per cent. The bonding council, the mayor explained, has worded the council's resolution favoring a library as a project for referendum in a manner to limit the council a high degree of fiscal flexibility. "Such a responsibility cannot be assumed by the present council for the actual funding of a project whose completion will not occur until at least 18 months from now," Mayor Glassman added. "We can project these funds with a degree of accuracy but council recognizes the need for flexibility in response to changes that may take place within the next year and a half," he concluded.

South Windsor Full Library Bonding Opposed by Glassman

South Windsor mayor, Abraham Glassman, has gone on record as being opposed to full bonding for the proposed new $1,180,000 library "except in a most extreme situation." Commenting on the project which will go for referendum on March 31, the mayor stressed that full bonding would probably be the most expensive way of funding a library building. He said that this method would cost only $1 to $1.25 a month in increased taxes on an average South Windsor Home owning that such a home has a current market value of $40,000 to $45,000. The mayor noted that such an increase would not apply until fiscal year 1974-75. It would, furthermore, be substantially reduced in accordance with reductions in the total amount of bonding, he added, noting, "therefore, that full bonding would be a period worse liability, not undertaken in a most extreme situation and it is highly unlikely to be the council's choice for total financing." Mayor Glassman said the Town Council has held public work sessions during which possible sources of funding have been reviewed at length. Potential sources of available funds include Revenue Sharing, Capital Goals funds and bonding. He explained that it must be based on the status of the funds, the total over-all five-year capital improvements needs and interest rates in existence at the time it is necessary to complete the funding for the project. "If the council opted to go for full bonding of the $1 million, over a 20-year period, the total, including interest, would be $1,587,250," the mayor explained. He added that based on the January 1972 Grand List the value of one mill equals $111,008 and assuming an average current house assessment of $20,000 (before revaluation) the total cost per homeowner, over a 20-year period, would increase taxes 7.1 of a mill, an increase of only 1.2 per cent. The bonding council, the mayor explained, has worded the council's resolution favoring a library as a project for

Obituary

Mrs. Augustina Twerdy - Mrs. Augustina Twerdy, 75, of Packer St., died Sunday at the Widham Community Memorial Hospital, Williamette. She was the widow of Benjamin Twerdy.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Stella Rusak of South Coventry and Mrs. Leona Shattam of Jewett City; 9 sons, Nicholas Twerdy Sr. and Benedict Twerdy, both of Manchester; John Twerdy, Peter Twerdy, Carl Twerdy, and Paul Twerdy, all of Coventry; Fred Twerdy, of Canterbury; Alexander Twerdy of Williamette; and Edward Twerdy of Hampton; 2 brothers, Nicholas Twerdy of Hartford and Alexander Terelick of Williamette; 26 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the Community Funeral Home, 194 Church St., Williamette. Burial will be in Nathan Hale Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight from 7 to 9.

College To Consider Beer Sale on Campus

FLOYD LARSON (Herald Reporter)

While last night's meeting of the Manchester Community College Regional Council dwelled mostly on routine matters, the members voted in several of the functions and approved the agenda of next meeting a topic which was beer on the campus.

The discussion of beer sale on the campus came when Dr. Frederick Lowe, president, was reviewing the status of permitting for the council's information. He reported a bill was in House-Senate conference over an effective date to permit public colleges to allow the sale of beer on campus.

Dr. Merrick S. Blibow, council member, said that although the council functioned in an advisory capacity to MCC, perhaps an expression of council opinion on the issue was in order.

A short discussion that followed it became apparent that many council members agreed and that the matter was voted placed on the next agenda.

The premise is by then the bill will have been signed into law and the administration and trustees will have before it specific requests from students as to how and when the sale of beer on the MCC campus might be conducted.

Dr. Lowe noted, after the meeting, the main barrier to sale has been removed by lowering the age of majority to 18. Few MCC students are below that age.

At present, beer is permitted on the campus at certain functions if furnished by the function sponsor, but is not allowed to be sold.

Opinions expressed last night reflect a full range from alcohol as a drug problem, possible excesses if sale is allowed, and an absolute prohibition on sale on the campus.

Dr. Lowe noted that possibly only during non-class hours, which would mean at right functions and on days, such as Sunday, when the college is not in session, an increase statewide and implementation in the new Connecticut College Act.

Nakos reported on the Connecticut Association of Community College Administrators (CACCAC) activities and centered his report on efforts to obtain increased funding to allow for enrollment increases statewide and implementation in the new Connecticut College Act.

Dr. Lowe assured the council's MCC's involvement has been limited to that of a process person to date and plans are to "go slow" and not get involved unless it is at the request of the Coventry community.

In the event, the college is to participate in the proposal, MCC is seeking a grant from the Exxon Foundation and the "new towns" should it come into being. Dr. Lowe said, in assuring the board MCC had not made any commitment to GHP and to date has not been asked by Coventry agencies to participate.

In other items on the agenda, the council heard a review of campus development from Dr. Lowe and saw a sound-slide presentation on the state's community college entitled, "Connecticut's Open Door."

The presentation takes about 20 minutes and can be obtained, for showing before interested groups, from Andrew McKirby of the state trustees at 1220 Asylum Ave., Hartford.

Members of the Army and Navy Club Auxiliary are reminded to bring back goods to the clubhouse by 8:30 p.m. Wednesday. All items should be priced, wrapped and ready for sale.

St. Anne's Mothers Circle will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Catherine Coletti, Brookfield St. The Rev. Robert Barback of the Church of the Holy Assumption will be the speaker. Co-hostess is Mrs. James Szarek.

Prosecutor William Collins nolle (did not prosecute) the cases of Dennis J. Dancoese, 25, of Windesay Rd., Rockville; Louis Jenkins, 24, of Torrington; and George F. Kania of 208 N. Elm St. Monday.

The three were charged with possession of controlled drugs in connection with a Feb. 15 raid.

Vernon Meat Costs Topic Of Meeting

FLOYD LARSON (Herald Reporter)

A session concerning the rising cost of meats will be held tonight at 7 in Room 22 at Rockville High School with David Cook as guest speaker.

George Keenan, regional director of the Adult Basic Education program, planned the meeting which will be presented in cooperation with the Adult Basic Education Program of the Vernon school system, Rockville High School and the Home Economics Department and the Tolland County Agricultural Extension Service.

Keenan said "Food prices could rise as much as six per cent this year. Such an increase, if it does occur, would mean that food prices would have jumped in the neighborhood of 43 per cent since 1962."

He said that because meat prices seem to be the major target of the attack, the ABE students and their teachers devoted to this problem and the public is invited to attend.

Cook, of the Rockville High School Vocational Agriculture Department, raises and butchers his own livestock in his apartment.

He was presented in court at Manchester Monday and was taken to the Connecticut Correctional Center at Hartford in lieu of $500 bond.

His next court date is not known at this time.

The nominating committee suggestion of a calendar of year's meetings being fixed in the fall to enable council members to better schedule attendance was approved and the fall to enable council members to better schedule attendance was approved and the fall to enable council members to better schedule attendance was approved.

Following Cook's presentation, Mrs. Beverly Nikos, a member of the high school home economics department will show the housewife how she can stretch her food budget.

Materials provided by Cora Webb of the Tolland County Agricultural Extension Service, Mrs. Lewis will speak on the nutritional value of inexpensive meat recipes and the use of meat.

In addition to the speakers, the ABE teachers will provide many free booklets on the freezing and cooking of meat and the best ways to use meat substitutes.

Dr. Lowe assured the council's MCC's involvement has been limited to that of a process person to date and plans are to "go slow" and not get involved unless it is at the request of the Coventry community.

In the event, the college is to participate in the proposal, MCC is seeking a grant from the Exxon Foundation and the "new towns" should it come into being. Dr. Lowe said, in assuring the board MCC had not made any commitment to GHP and to date has not been asked by Coventry agencies to participate.

In other items on the agenda, the council heard a review of campus development from Dr. Lowe and saw a sound-slide presentation on the state's community college entitled, "Connecticut's Open Door."

The presentation takes about 20 minutes and can be obtained, for showing before interested groups, from Andrew McKirby of the state trustees at 1220 Asylum Ave., Hartford.

Members of the Army and Navy Club Auxiliary are reminded to bring back goods to the clubhouse by 8:30 p.m. Wednesday. All items should be priced, wrapped and ready for sale.

St. Anne's Mothers Circle will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Catherine Coletti, Brookfield St. The Rev. Robert Barback of the Church of the Holy Assumption will be the speaker. Co-hostess is Mrs. James Szarek.

Prosecutor William Collins nolle (did not prosecute) the cases of Dennis J. Dancoese, 25, of Windesay Rd., Rockville; Louis Jenkins, 24, of Torrington; and George F. Kania of 208 N. Elm St. Monday.

Rockville Man Held in Rapes

HERALD REPORTER

State Police of the Stafford barracks have charged a man in connection with rapes at the Pinney Brook Apartments, Pinney St., Ellington, last year.

Charged in the incidents is Gerald T. Adams, 20, of 14 Regan Court, Rockville. Police say that there have been three incidents of the crime at the apartments in the last few months.

In the first incident, in August 1972, a woman was assaulted and assaulted the female occupant.

The second time, in November of 1972, a woman was assaulted as she was leaving the laundry area in the apartment's basement.

In the third instance a woman was attacked when she returned home and found a man in her apartment.

Adams was taken into custody yesterday on a Circuit Court 12 arrest warrant charging him with first-degree burglary (two counts), second-degree reckless endangerment and first-degree rape.

He was presented in court at Manchester Monday and was taken to the Connecticut Correctional Center at Hartford in lieu of $500 bond.

His next court date is not known at this time.

Rham Hartshorn Contract Won't Be Renewed

HERALD REPORTER

The Rham Board of Education has denied the request of Bernard Hartshorn for reinstatement of his contract next year. The board voted in executive session last night and notified the teacher today.

Hartshorn, a non-tenure teacher, was informed by the board last month that his contract for next year would not be renewed. The board did not release any information concerning the reason for its decision nor did Hartshorn file a lawsuit.

The teacher was granted a hearing before the board earlier this month. The hearing was also held in executive session.

A number of pupils and parents supported Hartshorn's request for reinstatement.

The board did not release any information concerning the reason for its decision nor did Hartshorn file a lawsuit.

The teacher was granted a hearing before the board earlier this month. The hearing was also held in executive session.

A number of pupils and parents supported Hartshorn's request for reinstatement.

The board did not release any information concerning the reason for its decision nor did Hartshorn file a lawsuit.

The teacher was granted a hearing before the board earlier this month. The hearing was also held in executive session.

A number of pupils and parents supported Hartshorn's request for reinstatement.

The board did not release any information concerning the reason for its decision nor did Hartshorn file a lawsuit.

The teacher was granted a hearing before the board earlier this month. The hearing was also held in executive session.

A number of pupils and parents supported Hartshorn's request for reinstatement.

The board did not release any information concerning the reason for its decision nor did Hartshorn file a lawsuit.

The teacher was granted a hearing before the board earlier this month. The hearing was also held in executive session.

A number of pupils and parents supported Hartshorn's request for reinstatement.

The board did not release any information concerning the reason for its decision nor did Hartshorn file a lawsuit.

The teacher was granted a hearing before the board earlier this month. The hearing was also held in executive session.

Two Exceptions Directors Vote Charter Changes

SOL R. COHEN (Herald Reporter)

With the exception of 2 of 12 recommended charter changes, sent back to the Charter Revision Commission (CRC) for clarification, the Manchester Board of Directors last night approved the report of the year-old, 15-member CRC.

Back for clarification on unanimous 8 to 0 votes (Mrs. Phyllis Jackson, a member of the CRC and elected to the board Feb. 6, abstained from any votes) was the recommendation to delete and make changes in those charter sections which relate to the Finance and to consolidate all financial operations under a Director of Finance.

To provide a merit system concept for town employees, to provide for the election of a vice chairman by the Board of Directors and to designate him or her deputy mayor.

To delete the requirement that the chief building inspector be the town's zoning enforcement officer but to provide for or she be someone from the building inspection office.

To delete and make changes in those charter sections which relate to the Finance and to consolidate all financial operations under a Director of Finance.

To provide a merit system concept for town employees, to provide for the election of a vice chairman by the Board of Directors and to designate him or her deputy mayor.

To delete the requirement that the chief building inspector be the town's zoning enforcement officer but to provide for or she be someone from the building inspection office.

To delete and make changes in those charter sections which relate to the Finance and to consolidate all financial operations under a Director of Finance.

To provide a merit system concept for town employees, to provide for the election of a vice chairman by the Board of Directors and to designate him or her deputy mayor.

To delete the requirement that the chief building inspector be the town's zoning enforcement officer but to provide for or she be someone from the building inspection office.

To delete and make changes in those charter sections which relate to the Finance and to consolidate all financial operations under a Director of Finance.

To provide a merit system concept for town employees, to provide for the election of a vice chairman by the Board of Directors and to designate him or her deputy mayor.

To delete the requirement that the chief building inspector be the town's zoning enforcement officer but to provide for or she be someone from the building inspection office.

To delete and make changes in those charter sections which relate to the Finance and to consolidate all financial operations under a Director of Finance.

To provide a merit system concept for town employees, to provide for the election of a vice chairman by the Board of Directors and to designate him or her deputy mayor.

To delete the requirement that the chief building inspector be the town's zoning enforcement officer but to provide for or she be someone from the building inspection office.

To delete and make changes in those charter sections which relate to the Finance and to consolidate all financial operations under a Director of Finance.

To provide a merit system concept for town employees, to provide for the election of a vice chairman by the Board of Directors and to designate him or her deputy mayor.

New England Memorial Co.

Modern Methods - Old Fashioned Honesty

MONUMENTS MARKERS CEMETERY LETTERING

1074 Derbyville, S. Portland, Me. 04106

ARRANGED BY PHONE

TEL. 528-2680

OUR MANCHESTER CITY LINE

Government May Get Broad Look

SOL R. COHEN (Herald Reporter)

Although the Manchester Charter Revision Commission already has recommended the council-manager form of government be preserved, an effect of a proposal for a change to a strong mayor government is the question.

"What form of government should Manchester have?" is still very much alive.

Last night the Manchester Property Owners Association, backers of the proposal for a change to a strong mayor government, presented to the Board of Directors a 1,464-signature "petition" petition, requesting that the question be placed before the voters.

John Thompson, conceding the petition is not binding on the board, conceded the board approved proposed charter changes.

By unanimous 8 to 0 votes, the board approved proposed charter changes.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

To create a Department of Conservation and Development for the town.

Board Shifts Vote On Laurel Bonds

HERALD REPORTER

The Manchester Board of Directors last night approved and then rescinded a resolution authorizing the sale of $1,300,000 in bonds. The sum approved in referendum March 12 would be for purchase of the 110-acre Laurel Lake and for major improvements to the adjoining sanitary landfill area.

The proposed authorization was a last minute addition to the board's agenda, and the public was unaware it was to appear and had no opportunity to speak for or against it.

Prior to approval of the authorization, Town Manager Robert Weiss explained the money received from the sale of the bonds would be reinvested, and that the income received would exceed bond interest costs.

The action authorizing the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The rescinding action came about midnight, following that portion of the meeting for the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The action authorizing the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The rescinding action came about midnight, following that portion of the meeting for the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The action authorizing the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The rescinding action came about midnight, following that portion of the meeting for the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The action authorizing the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The rescinding action came about midnight, following that portion of the meeting for the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The action authorizing the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The rescinding action came about midnight, following that portion of the meeting for the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The action authorizing the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The rescinding action came about midnight, following that portion of the meeting for the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The action authorizing the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The rescinding action came about midnight, following that portion of the meeting for the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

The action authorizing the sale of the bonds was unanimous.

Manchester Evening Herald

MANCHESTER, CONN., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21, 1973 - VOL. XCII, No. 144

Manchester - A City of Village Charm

THIRTY-TWO PAGES - TWO SECTIONS PRICE: FIFTEEN CENTS

A Few Tips from the Experts

James Robbins (left), eighth grade student at Iling Junior High School, gets some tips on the flute from Carl Berner (second from left), flutist with the Hartford Symphony Orchestra, as orchestra clarinetist Alan Francis and student clarinetist Susan Paglicia listen. The tips were offered today after two assemblies at Iling in which seventh and eighth grade students heard a woodwind quartet program and demonstration by Hartford Symphony Orchestra musicians. (Herald photo by O'Hara).

Potter Criticizes Lack of Policy On Farm Lands

SOL R. COHEN (Herald Reporter)

Manchester Town Planner J. Eric Potter has criticized the Office of State Planning to lack of a policy for conservation of agricultural lands.

In a letter to State Finance Commissioner Adolf Carlson, chairman of the state planning office, Potter said the absence of such a policy in the recently proposed "Plan of Conservation and Development for Connecticut" is a "serious fault which should be corrected."

The state plan, released Feb. 14, presents proposed state policies for land and water resource use. The central theme of the plan, according to the state planning office, is the need for Connecticut to establish a balance between urban development pressures and conservation needs.

The ten policies proposed in the plan deal, for the most part, with water supply sources; recreational and open space lands; protection of water courses; and other natural resources; and policies for development design.

In his letter to Carlson, Potter notes his "dismay" at the lack of a policy for agricultural lands. "No one has realized the importance of rural lands," he said.

Potter, who considers preservation of arable land to be of the utmost importance, said, "Our very survival may ultimately depend on such lands and the day we undoubtedly develop the growing number of crops will be as essential as a water supply."

The cause of the accident was not known.

The Navajo County sheriff's office in Arizona said two bodies had been removed from the wreckage of one plane and a search was continuing for another possible crash site.

"Mr. Dworkin," said Thompson, "don't ever accuse anyone on this board of being dishonest."

Two obstacles to resumption of bus service were overcome Tuesday when ATU members voted 40-21 to end the strike they began Nov. 25, and New Haven approved a transit district.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

F111s Collide, Two Killed

GLOVIS, N.M. (AP) - Two F111 fighter planes collided in flight Tuesday night, killing two officers in one of the planes. A third officer was injured and the plane was destroyed.

The F111s collided three miles north of Holbrook, Ariz., according to a spokesman at Cannon Air Force Base here. The planes were from Cannon AFB.

The spokesman said names of the victims would not be announced until their families have been notified.

The cause of the accident was not known.

The Navajo County sheriff's office in Arizona said two bodies had been removed from the wreckage of one plane and a search was continuing for another possible crash site.

"Mr. Dworkin," said Thompson, "don't ever accuse anyone on this board of being dishonest."

Two obstacles to resumption of bus service were overcome Tuesday when ATU members voted 40-21 to end the strike they began Nov. 25, and New Haven approved a transit district.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Union Head Sees Buses Running Again Monday

NEW HAVEN (AP) - The head of the Amalgamated Transit Union says he is confident that bus service in New Haven will be restored on Monday.

Guida said the terms of East three, so that all union members would be assured of jobs.

The nine-town Greater Hartford Transit District has approved a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky has called a special meeting of the Board of Representatives for Thursday night to reconsider forming a transit district. The board has voted to convene half-hour public hearing Tuesday that he had been scheduled for a pension plan by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill in which the state will provide subsidies to the strike-bound Connecticut Co. for two years.

Stamford Mayor Julius Wilensky